LAST TIME OUT - at EKU (11.20.21)

Score: Eastern Kentucky 77, UAlbany 64

Location: McBrayer Arena in Richmond, Ky.

Records: UAlbany (0-4, 0-0 America East) | Eastern Kentucky (4-1, 0-0 ASUN)

Short Story: The University at Albany men's basketball team dropped game one of a three game trip in the state of Kentucky, 64-77 to Eastern Kentucky University. UAlbany fought back after trailing by 13 in the first half, but a late run from the Colonels in the second put EKU back up by double digits to seal the victory.

Coach Dwayne Killings: "It was a disappointing performance from our team. I think their [EKU] pressure got to us a little bit and we unraveled - momentum, fatigue, it got to us as the game went on. We had 14 turnovers, but we made a bunch of wrong reads. There were some moments where we moved it, we shared it, and good things happened on the floor. Then there were some possessions where that just didn't happen, and that's not ok.

How it Happened:

- EKU jumped out to an early 11-2 lead after going 3-3 from beyond the arc to start the game.

- The Colonels had three blocks on the Great Danes within the first five minutes.
- The two teams combined for 10 turnovers within the first eight minutes.
- After trailing by as much as 13, UAlbany was able to trim EKU's lead to just four with six and a half minutes remaining in the first half thanks to an 11-2 run.
- EKU took a 40-35 lead into the locker room at the half. Neely led the Great Danes with seven points and six rebounds early on. Jarvis Doles and Reddish followed, both with six buckets.
- At the half, UAlbany was shooting 38.5% from the field after going 10-26. The Great Danes were just 2-9 from deep, compared to EKU's 6-16 mark.
- Fouls were the story of the first half, with Albany committing 11 personals and a technical and EKU committing 14 personals.
- Turnovers plagued both teams from the start. Albany went to the locker room after coughing up the ball nine times, but not outpacing EKU with 10.
- Cerruti was the first player on either team to reach double figures - going all the way to the 14-minute mark of the second half.
- After a first half full of fouls, not a single foul was committed in the second half until the 12:34 mark.
- A late 7-0 run put EKU up double digits with little time on the clock, sealing the game for the Colonels.

DWAYNE KILLINGS - FIRST SEASON AT UALBANY

On March 17, 2021, the University at Albany and Director of Athletics Mark Benson announced the hiring of Dwayne Killings as the 16th head men's basketball coach in program history and fourth during UAlbany's Division I era.

A native of Amherst, Mass., Killings joins UAlbany from his latest position as Associate Head Coach at Marquette University, where he spent the previous three seasons under head coach Steve Wojciechowski. In Killings' three years at Marquette, the Golden Eagles posted two winning seasons and made one appearance in the NCAA Tournament. In 2020, his recruiting class ranked in the top-20 nationally and he coached 2019-20 BIG EAST Player of the Year and AP All-American Markus Howard.

"Throughout the interview process Dwayne established himself as a person of high character and integrity, a true leader in every sense of the word," said UAlbany President Dr. Havidán Rodríguez. "He's known as a campus connector, preparing student-athletes for life after basketball. Furthermore, his track record of work in the community will uphold and grow our program's reputation within the Capital Region and across the country. We are delighted to welcome Dwayne and his family to the Great Dane family."

Before Marquette, Killings spent two seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Connecticut. Prior to UConn, he spent five seasons at Temple University as an assistant coach under head coach Fran Dunphy, during which time the Owls made three appearances in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Round of 32 in 2012-13, and one in the NIT, advancing to the semifinal round. While at Temple, Killings coached 2011-12 Atlantic-10 Player of the Year Khalif Wyatt.

Landing at UAlbany marks Killings return to the America East, where he served as an assistant coach at Boston University during the 2010-11 season. That year, the Terriers won the America East title and their roster featured America East Player of the Year John Holland.

Killings has two separate NBA stints in his professional career. His first job after graduating Hampton University in 2003 was with the Charlotte Bobcats as a special assistant and assistant video coordinator. Later, Killings spent one year in the NBA D-League as Manager of Basketball Operations.

In between his NBA roles, Killings spent three seasons as Assistant Director of Basketball Operations at Temple University, his first stint with the Owls, again under Fran Dunphy. Temple won back-to-back Atlantic-10 titles in 2007-08 and 2008-09, earning NCAA Tournament bids in the same years.

In total, since he started his NCAA coaching career at Temple in 2006, Killings' teams have made seven NCAA Tournament appearances and one appearance in the NIT. He has won three conference tournament titles, two regular-season titles, and coached three conference Players of the Year, including one All-America selection.

In addition to his coaching experience, Killings founded Coaches for Action, a working group of 21 minority assistant basketball coaches in the BIG EAST, to challenge the conference's member campuses to sustain their efforts and voices to address social injustice. Killings also served a two-year appointment from 2018-20 on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Ethics Coalition, to promote ethical conduct among NCAA Division I men's basketball coaches through education, leadership, and mentoring. Killings has been an active participant in TopConnect, a professional development organization that helps prepare the next generation of basketball leaders, connecting college basketball coaches with administrators.
