NEED TO KNOW

Oscar Tshiebwe grabbed a Rupp Arena record 28 rebounds vs. Western Kentucky, breaking Shaquille O'Neal's previous mark of 21. Tshiebwe's 28 boards were more than WKU's team and the most by a Wildcat since 1976

Through games on Dec. 22, Tshiebwe led the nation in rebounding (15.5) and offensive rebounding percentage (24.0%) and ranked second in double-doubles (nine). He has double-figure boards in all but one game

Tshiebwe was named the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week on Tuesday by the USBWA. He was also tabbed co-SEC Player of the Week, and TyTy Washington Jr. was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Monday

Through games on Dec. 22, Sahvir Wheeler ranked second in the country with 7.7 assists per game

The "Kentucky United" initiative has generated more than $4.7 million in relief for victims of the Western Kentucky tornadoes

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials will open 14 days prior to the deadline date and close five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Priority is given to outlets based on circulation size/household reach/unique site visitors
- Additional consideration is based on amount of original content generated, number of full-time employees of the outlet, length of existence of the outlet and the journalist experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities and the intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky both at home and on the road, also is considered
- Professionalism, which includes is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

Being granted credentials at another institution/event does not equate to meeting the criteria for the University of Kentucky. Being granted credentials for one UK event does not guarantee approval for other UK events. The University of Kentucky has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion. Credentialing also is dependent on space availability.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted pregame weekly and will be available to all UK media. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari will meet with members of the media at least once a week in the Memorial Coliseum Media Room.

Game-day shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference in the Rupp Arena interview room and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available in the interview room.

A New Season Begins

Kentucky will open Southeastern Conference action on Wednesday with a home contest against Missouri. The Wildcats are the most dominating team in league history with an all-time record of 1,020-293 mark (77.7%) in regular-season conference play. Only Alabama has won more than 800 regular-season SEC games and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 88 seasons in the SEC. The Wildcats have been equally dominating in the SEC Tournament with 31 crowns, the most of any team.

Expectations are aplenty and UK was once again voted to win their seventh regular-season title under John Calipari by the league's media members in the preseason. Should Kentucky achieve the feat, it would mark the program's 50th overall regular-season title. No other school comes close, with LSU in second place with 11 SEC regular-season championships.

Kentucky is 10-2 in the opening game of the SEC season under Calipari and 11-1 in the first home league opener. UK is 68-19 all-time in SEC openers, including winning 78-73 over Mississippi State in double overtime a season ago.

The fight for title No. 50 will be one of the toughest to date as the SEC is widely-regarded as the best conference in the country in 2021-22. Five teams are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, six teams are rated among the top 50 of the NET rankings and eight are listed among the top 50 in KenPom.com's latest rankings.

Up first for the Wildcats is Missouri. Kentucky is 13-2 all-time against the Tigers, including 7-0 when the game is played in Lexington. Kobe Brown leads the way for Missouri with an average of 14.8 points per game. He's also the team's leading rebounder with 8.9 boards per outing.

Missouri head coach Cuonzo Martin will miss the game vs. UK after testing positive for COVID-19. Assistant coach Cornell Mann will act as head coach of the game.

Oscar Tshiebwe Breaks Rupp Arena Rebounding Record as Cats Roll Past Western Kentucky

As teammate Kellan Grady strung together long jumpers, Oscar Tshiebwe outrebounded Western Kentucky all by himself on a record-breaking night that supplanted Hall of Famer Shaquille O'Neal.

Grady made six 3-pointers and scored a season-high 23 points, Tshiebwe grabbed a Rupp Arena-record 28 rebounds and No. 20/18 Kentucky used an 18-2 second-half run to blow out the Hilltoppers 95-60 on Wednesday.

"Coach wanted me to shoot, my teammates (were) pressing me to shoot the ball and make shots," said Grady, who struggled from outside just a few games ago. "And ultimately, I believed in myself as well."

TyTy Washington Jr. added 20 points and Jacob Toppin scored 12 as the Wildcats (9-2) routed their second consecutive substitute opponent. The in-state Hilltoppers (8-5) were added Monday after the postponement of Kentucky's scheduled matchup against archrival Louisville because of positive COVID-19 tests within the Cardinals' program. The Wildcats thumped North Carolina 98-69 last week in Las Vegas after Ohio State had to pull out of the game.

Kentucky coach John Calipari wasn't shy with his praise.

"I've got a very, very smart basketball team," said Calipari, whose team totaled 27 assists. "And, this is crazy, I've got some older guys that understand how to be engaged, how to be laser focused. They know because they play. I got some young guys that are still learning, but I've got a veteran group."

Josh Anderson scored 18 points and Camron Justice had 13 for WKU, which was coming off an 82-72 victory over Louisville.

Kentucky's schedule switch also required adjusting to 7-foot-5 WKU center Jamarion Sharp -- college basketball's tallest player -- which it did behind Grady's outside shooting and Tshiebwe's dominance on the boards.

Grady went 6 of 9 from long range and 7 of 10 overall for his best performance since transferring from Davidson. Tshiebwe scored 14 points and topped his previous Kentucky-player Rupp Arena mark of 20 boards against Robert Morris midway through the second half. His 21st rebound tied O'Neal's record with LSU against the Wildcats on Feb. 15, 1990, with the 22nd following soon after and then some.

Tshiebwe flirted with 30 before being pulled with 2:06 remaining as the Wildcats owned the glass 50-27. He acknowledged several rounds of cheers before sitting down for the final minutes.

"That's amazing, to get 28 rebounds in a game," the nation's rebounding leader said. "It is a blessing and I just want to give all the glory to God because I don't think I can do that on my own. It is something great, you work harder and everything is going to be so easy."

WKU pulled to 37-33 early in the second half before Grady scored 11 points during the decisive run that broke open the game. Kentucky made 38 of 68 from the field (55.9%) and held the 'Toppers to 32.8% shooting in the first meeting between the schools since its 2012 NCAA championship run.

"Sometimes you've just got to say the other team was better," WKU coach Rick Stansbury said. "And they were better in every area. Again, I don't have any answers for everything they did. But I just know when they play like that, they were the best team in America today."

- Tshiebwe's 28 rebounds tied for the sixth-most rebounds in UK history and the most in more than 45 years, when Mike Phillips corralled 28 caroms in an overtime game vs. Tennessee on Jan. 10, 1976. They were the most for a Wildcat in a regulation-length game in more than 52 years, when Dan Issel grabbed 29 rebounds vs. LSU on Feb. 22, 1969. According to STATS, his 28 rebounds are the most in Division I college basketball since Kendall Gray from Delaware State recorded 30 at Coppin State on March 5, 2015, and they tied for the fourth-most rebounds in Division I college basketball dating back to the 1996-97 season
- Kentucky limited Western Kentucky to 60 points. UK is 195-9 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 63 points or fewer, including 7-0 this season
- The Wildcats led by as many as 35 points. UK is 295-12 in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest
- Kentucky scored 95 points in consecutive games for the first time since Dec. 29, 2016, and Jan. 3 and 7, 2017, when the Wildcats scored at least 95 against Ole Miss, Texas A&M and Arkansas, respectively
- UK has scored 58 points in the second half in consecutive games, also doing so Saturday vs. North Carolina
- The Wildcats made 38 of 68 shots (55.9%), the fifth time this season they have shot 50% or better and the second consecutive game. They are 5-0 this season when making 50% or better from the floor and 9-0 when outshooting their opponent
- With Kellan Grady making 6 of 9 from long range, UK was 9 of 20 from 3. Nine treys are the second most this season for the Wildcats (12 vs. Robert Morris)
- UK is 17 of 35 from 3 over the last two games after shooting 2 for 19 at Notre Dame
- Of Kentucky's 38 field goals, 27 were assisted. It was the Wildcats' second straight game with at least 20 assists and the fourth overall. The 27 assists are the fifth most in the Calipari era and most since recording 33 vs. Arizona State on Nov. 28, 2016
- Led by Oscar Tshiebwe's 28 rebounds, UK outrebounded WKU 50-27. The nation's No. 1 rebounding margin team has outrebounded their opponent by at least plus-14 in all nine wins this season
- With Grady and TyTy Washington Jr. each reaching the 20-point barrier, there has been a different player to reach the 20-point mark over the last three games (Washington and Grady tonight, Wheeler vs. North Carolina and Tshiebwe at Notre Dame)

Tshiebwe Named USBWA National Player of the Week

Oscar Tshiebwe's historic rebounding performance vs. Western Kentucky earned the junior forward Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association on Tuesday.

Tshiebwe is the seventh UK player to win the Oscar Robertson Player of the Week award since its inception during the 2009-10 season. He is the first since Nick Richards claimed the honor on Dec. 31, 2019. Other UK honorees include PJ Washington (2018-19), Kevin Knox (2017-18), Malik Monk (2016-17), Julius Randle (2013-14) and Doron Lamb (2010-11). Anthony Davis won the Oscar Robertson National Player of the Year honor in 2012.

Tshiebwe is coming off one of the all-time greatest rebounding performances in school history. The West Virginia transfer set a Rupp Arena record with 28 rebounds, breaking the previous mark of 21 set by Shaquille O'Neal (Feb. 15, 1990).

It tied for the sixth-most rebounds in UK history and the most in more than 45 years, when Mike Phillips corralled 28 caroms in an overtime game vs. Tennessee on Jan. 10, 1976. The 28 rebounds were also the most for a Wildcat in a regulation-length game in more than 52 years, when Dan Issel grabbed 29 rebounds vs. LSU on Feb. 22, 1969.

According to STATS, Tshiebwe's 28 rebounds are the most in Division I college basketball since Kendall Gray from Delaware State recorded 30 at Coppin State on March 5, 2015, and it tied for the fourth-most rebounds in Division I college basketball dating back to the 1996-97 season.

Tshiebwe had more rebounds than Western Kentucky's entire team (27). He also added 14 points to notch his ninth double-double of 2021-22.

The Oscar Robertson Player of the Week honor culminates with the Oscar Robertson Trophy, awarded to the national player of the Year by the USBWA at the end of the season. It bears the name and image of Cincinnati Hall of Famer and two-time USBWA Player of the Year Oscar Robertson. It is the nation's oldest player of the year award and the only one named after a former player. Robertson was the first NBA player to average a triple-double, was an NBA champion (1971) and NBA MVP (1964) and was a two-time USBWA College Player of the Year selection (1959, 1960).

Kentucky Dominates SEC Weekly Awards

Oscar Tshiebwe and TyTy Washington Jr. were named SEC Player and Freshman of the Week, respectively on Monday.

Tshiebwe had a record-breaking day with 28 rebounds and 14 points, while Washington scored 20 points and reached the plateau for the third time this season in the 95-60 win over Western Kentucky.

Kentucky swept the SEC Weekly honors for the first time this season. It is the first time two UK players have earned weekly honors since Immanuel Quickley and Tyrese Maxey were named Player and Freshman of the Week, respectively, on Jan. 13, 2020.

The Wildcats have now earned four honors this season. Sahvir Wheeler won SEC Player of the Week a week ago following his 26-point effort against North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic. This is the second time this season Washington has claimed the Freshman of the Week honor. He was also recognized on Nov. 22 after averaging a team-high 18.0 points per game in wins over Mount St. Mary's and Ohio.

Kentucky has dominated the weekly SEC awards with John Calipari at the helm. UK has won more weekly SEC honors (114) than any other school during the Calipari era, including 87 SEC Freshman of the Week honors and 27 SEC Player of the Week awards.

'Big O' Making Big Impression on the Boards

When Oscar Tshiebwe told everyone before the season that his goal was to average 20 rebounds per game, it was understandable for everyone to chuckle and chalk it up to a little hyperbole.

"We all laughed," teammate Davion Mintz said. "Like, c'mon man. Twenty rebounds?"

Nobody -- most notably opponents -- is laughing now.

In his first two games, "Big O," as his teammates call him, snatched 20 rebounds vs. both No. 9/9 Duke and in the home-opening win against Robert Morris.

"Now, it's normal," Mintz said. "We're expecting him to get 20."

It seems unreasonable considering the attention the opposition is paying him, but he has grabbed at least 20 rebounds in three games and then upped the ante with 28 boards against Western Kentucky, which features the tallest player in college basketball at 7-foot-5.

"I think you can call me a beast for a little bit," Tshiebwe said after the WKU game. "I don't think I qualify as a machine yet. If Coach Cal let me go for those two rebounds, then if I go out with 30, maybe you can call me a machine. Right now, probably call me a beast."

Machine, beast, whatever way you slice it, what Tshiebwe is doing on the boards is historic.

Tshiebwe's 15.5 rebounds per game leads the country. The last player in school history to average 14.0 boards per game in a season at Kentucky was Ed Beck with 14.1 in the 1956-57 season. Bob Burrow's owns the Kentucky single-season record of 17.7 rebounds per game, which was set during the 1954-55 season. The last player in Division I to average at least 16.0 boards per game for a season was Monti Davis from Tennessee State in 1978-79 with 16.2.

Only two players under John Calipari have averaged double-figure rebounds for a season: Anthony Davis (2012) and Julius Randle (2014) both hauled in 10.4 per game.

"Everybody wants to do fancy, different things, but for me, rebounding means a lot," Tshiebwe said. "Rebounding can help your team to win the game. You give one more chance to your team. Since I figured it out, if I have to fight, I have to work for the rebound, I'm going to fight for that rebound like no one believes."

Tshiebwe's focus on rebounding has paid dividends with second-chance scoring opportunities. He is also contributing a team-best 16.1 points per game (despite going scoreless vs. Ohio because of a foul-plagued first half) with nine double-doubles, ranked second in the country (through games on Dec. 22).

Tshiebwe is more than just a rebounding force. He has scored at least 20 points in four games, including a career-high 25 points at Notre Dame on an effective 11-of-14 shooting night. He was the first UK player to register three straight games of 20 or more points since Immanuel Quickley in February of 2020. He was also the first Wildcat to score at least 25 points in a game since Quickley had 30 at Texas A&M on Feb. 25, 2020, before Sahvir Wheeler did it the very next game.

Tshiebwe is currently leading the Wildcats in points per game (16.1), rebounds per game (15.5), blocks per game (1.6) and field-goal percentage (64.9%). Since the 1978-79 season, only four Wildcats have led the team in those four categories (minimum 130 field-goal attempts) in a single season (Kenny Walker in 1984-85 and 1985-86, Jamaal Magloire in 1999-2000, Randolph Morris in 2006-07, and Anthony Davis in 2011-12).

Some of Tshiebwe's absurd rebounding numbers include:

- His 28 rebounds against Western Kentucky set a Rupp Arena record, breaking the previous mark of 21 set by Shaquille O'Neal (Feb. 15, 1990)
- It tied for the sixth-most rebounds in UK history and the most in more than 45 years, when Mike Phillips corralled 28 caroms in an overtime game vs. Tennessee on Jan. 10, 1976
- The 28 rebounds marked the most for a Wildcat in a regulation-length game in more than 52 years, when Dan Issel grabbed 29 rebounds vs. LSU on Feb. 22, 1969
- According to STATS, his 28 rebounds are the most in Division I college basketball since Kendall Gray from Delaware State recorded 30 at Coppin State on March 5, 2015 and tied for the fourth-most rebounds in Division I college basketball dating back to the 1996-97 season
- Tshiebwe had more rebounds than Western Kentucky's entire team (27)
- His 80 rebounds through the first five games were the most by a Southeastern Conference player in any five-game span since Ben Simmons during the 2015-16 season
- His 56 rebounds in his first three games were the most by a Wildcat to start a career since at least 1956-57 (as far back as comprehensive box scores go)
- His 56 boards through the first three games were the third-most through three games over the past 25 seasons in all of college basketball, behind only Kansas State's Michael Beasley (60, 2007) and Oklahoma's Blake Griffin (58, 2008)
- He is responsible for 34.8% of all of UK's rebounds thus far. Taking away team rebounds, that number jumps to 38.2%
- He is the first Wildcat with four straight double-doubles since Randle had four straight in March 2014
- With 24 points and 16 rebounds vs. Mount St. Mary's, he became the first Wildcat with at least 20 points and at least 15 rebounds in a game since Nick Richards posted 25 points and 15 boards vs. Fort Wayne on Nov. 22, 2017. With 20 points and 16 rebounds against Central Michigan, he's now already achieved the 20-15 mark twice this season

- His 20 boards vs. Duke set a Champions Classic record and marked the most rebounds for any Wildcat in their debut
- His 22 offensive rebounds tied Louisiana Tech's Paul Millsap for the most by an NCAA Division I player in any two-game span over the last 25 seasons
- He leads the nation in offensive rebounding percentage with a 24.0% clip. As a freshman in 2019-20 at West Virginia, Tshiebwe led the nation at 19.0%. The best offensive rebounding percentage dating back to the 2003-04 season is 23.6% by DeJuan Blair from Pitt in 2008-09
- He is the first UK player with eight straight games with double-figure rebounding since Randle enjoyed a 10-game streak in 2013-14

Washington Playing Like the Next Great Calipari Guard

When TyTy Washington Jr. opened the season with a 3-for-14 shooting performance in Madison Square Garden vs. Duke, John Calipari took responsibility for the position he put his freshman guard in on the big stage in New York in his first career game.

"TyTy played the way he did because we kind of wanted him to," Calipari said. "You're supposed to be a guy that can go get baskets, so I will take responsibility for some of the plays that he made."

That Calipari put that much on Washington's shoulders speaks volumes of the faith the UK head coach has in his first-year guard. And Washington has rewarded that belief with the resiliency one would typically see from a veteran, not a freshman.

In Kentucky's nine victories, Washington is averaging a team-high 15.3 points per game. He is shooting 53.3% from the field, 41.2% from behind the arc and 83.3% from the line in victories. He has scored in double figures in eight of the nine wins with nine points in the dominating victory over North Carolina. In those wins, Washington is also second on the team in assists per game (3.6) and rebounds per game (4.9).

In the two losses, Washington's averages dip down to 7.5 points and 1.0 rebounds per game, giving credence to the notion that as Washington goes, so does Kentucky.

Overall, the consensus five-star prospect is second on the team with 13.3 points per game. Despite Kentucky's success with freshmen in the Calipari era, a freshman has not led the Wildcats in total points for the season since Kevin Knox in 2017-18.

Washington's ability to affect the game in more ways than just scoring is what has impressed the most so far. Against Ohio, he added 12 rebounds and five assists to his 20-point total to become just the third player in the Calipari era (Isaiah Briscoe and James Young) with at least 20 points, at least 10 rebounds and at least five assists in the same game.

Washington has a savviness to his game that is veteran like. He can score with the best of them and has three 20-point games. But he also ranks in the top 100 nationally with a 2.11 assist-to-turnover ratio.

He has hit two 3-pointers in five games, dished out at least three assists in eight games -- including 20 over the last four contests -- and against North Florida he recorded a career-high four steals.

Washington is a two-time Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week award winner.

UK Picked to Win SEC Title; Four Honored in Preseason

Bolstered by a collection of transfers and top-rated freshmen, as well as a core group of returners who combine to form the most experienced Kentucky team under the direction of 13th-year head coach John Calipari, the Wildcats were picked to win the 2022 Southeastern Conference title by the league's media.

UK was voted to win their seventh regular-season title under Calipari by the league's media members. Should Kentucky achieve the feat, it would mark the program's 50th overall regular-season title. No other school comes close, with LSU in second place with 11 SEC regular-season championships.

In addition to the preseason poll, four Wildcats were selected to the preseason All-SEC squads by both the media and the coaches. Junior guard Sahvir Wheeler was picked to the first team, while graduate student guard Kellan Grady and junior forwards Keion Brooks Jr. and Oscar Tshiebwe were tabbed to the second team. Brooks and Wheeler also received at least one vote for the preseason pick for SEC Player of the Year by the media.

It's the 16th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2020. Kentucky has claimed the SEC Tournament title six times under his direction in 2010, 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Kentucky is the Southeastern Conference's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 1,020-293 mark (77.7%) in regular-season conference play. Only Alabama has won more than 800 regular-season SEC games and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.3 losses per season in 88 seasons in the SEC
- Kentucky has won 49 SEC regular-season titles and 31 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 16 of the last 29 SEC Tournaments (the 2020 one was not played due to the COVID-19 pandemic)
- UK has captured at least a share of six of the last 12 SEC regular-season championships under John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in eight of Calipari's 12 seasons, winning six times
- UK won its 1,000th game in SEC regular-season action vs. Alabama on Jan. 11, 2020. Kansas has won 1,000 conference games when combining its records in the Big 6, Big 7, Big 8 and Big 12, but no other team in the country had won 1,000 or more regular-season league games in one conference alone
- Six teams made the 2021 NCAA Tournament field with Arkansas reaching the Elite Eight and Alabama making the Sweet Sixteen
- The SEC has had 21 NCAA Tournament selections over the last three tournaments, tied for the second most. Only the Atlantic Coast Conference (23) has had more
- The SEC went 7-6 in NCAA Tournament games in 2021. SEC teams are 73-43 (62.9%) in the NCAA tourney since 2012
- The league has advanced at least one team to the Elite Eight in nine of the last 11 tournaments and nine different SEC teams have advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in the last four NCAA Tournaments

- The SEC has held its own in the annual Big 12/SEC Challenge. The SEC leads 25-24 over the last five seasons in the yearly January showdown and won outright in 2021
- Five SEC teams are in the Dec. 27 Associated Press Top 25, tied for the most of any league in the country
- Ten SEC teams are ranked in the top 100 of Dec. 25 NCAA Evaluation Tool rankings

'Kentucky United' Telethon Raises Millions

In immediate response to the devastating tornadoes that tore through Western Kentucky on Dec. 10 and 11, the University of Kentucky athletic department, along with JMI Sports and WLEX-TV, produced a "Kentucky United for Tornado Relief" telethon that helped generate more than $3 million (with matching funds) to assist victims of the storms. One hundred percent of the proceeds will go to the American Red Cross to aid in the relief efforts in Kentucky and to benefit the victims of the catastrophic event.

With donations still coming in at the conclusion of the telethon, a $100,000 donation from proceeds from the Western Kentucky game and an online portal open through the end of December, the tabulation is well over $4.7 million.

Tickets in the 200 level are available for this week's games against Missouri and High Point with full proceeds going to the American Red Cross to benefit the Kentucky United tornado disaster relief funds. Those tickets can be purchased at bit.ly/32x4B6O.

Every head coach who was in Lexington during the broadcast of the telethon volunteered his or her time. The coaches teamed with UK student-athletes, who took time off during exam week to handle the multitude of telephone calls.

"On an incredible night, the Big Blue Nation and all of Kentucky continue to show the special bond that exists throughout the people of the Commonwealth," said Mitch Barnhart, UK Director of Athletics. "As relief organizations and volunteers continue to help rebuild the lives of so many, we are thankful to all who contributed to the telethon, the volunteers who made it happen, the American Red Cross, WLEX and JMI Sports. When you raise more than $3 million in four hours through the hearts of wonderful people who care so deeply about those who are hurting, it's really special.

"We will continue to find ways to help rebuild, restore, heal and return stronger than before. Our hearts extend this hope and promise to the people of Western Kentucky."

In addition to Calipari and his wife, Ellen, contributing to the cause, several former players also provided support, including Bam Adebayo (2017), Eric Bledsoe (2010), Devin Booker (2015), Willie Cauley-Stein (2013-15), DeMarcus Cousins (2010), Enes Freedom (2011), Tyrese Maxey (2020), Malik Monk (2017), Jamal Murray (2016), Julius Randle (2014), Karl-Anthony Towns (2015) and John Wall (2010).

Ohio State head men's basketball head coach Chris Holtmann, a native of nearby Nicholasville, Kentucky, called in to announce a $50,000 donation. UK was originally scheduled to play OSU in the CBS Sports Classic but the matchup was canceled due to COVID-19 results in the Spearheaded by Calipari, UK has held three previous telethons to assist with natural disasters. In 2010, Kentucky and Calipari used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. UK followed that up with another telethon in 2012 that generated $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, and again in 2017 following Hurricane Harvey that devastated the city of Houston. Calipari also helped raise funds for West Liberty, Kentucky, after tornadoes ravaged the town in 2012.

Calipari Deliver Shoes to Western Kentucky

John Calipari, UK Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart, and former players Jack "Goose" Givens and Darius Miller joined Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear and Lt. Gov. Jacqueline Coleman in Western Kentucky on Dec. 19 to hand out shoes to Kentucky residents displaced by the devastating tornadoes that tore through the region on Dec. 10 and 11.

The shoes were provided by Samaritan's Feet, an organization that provides shoes in need. Samaritan's Feet CEO Manny Ohonme also made the trip to deliver the shoes.

Approximately 5,000 pairs of shoes were on site for the two stops at Lake Barkley and Pennyryle state parks with another 5,000 expected to arrive soon after.

Beshear said on Dec. 19 that 944 people were being housed by the state after their homes were affected by the tornadoes. Nearly all seven state parks were at capacity as of that Friday.

"The damage in the area is obvious and devastating, but buildings can be rebuilt," Calipari said of the visit. "Our focus right now is on the people in that area and the enormous toll this has taken on them. How can we lift spirits and let people know we care for them and are there for them."

Tubby Smith to Have Jersey Retired on Friday

Orlando "Tubby" Smith, who coached the University of Kentucky men's basketball program to the 1998 national championship and several Southeastern Conference titles, will have a jersey retired in his honor. The official ceremony will take place Dec. 31 during UK's home game against Smith's current squad, High Point University.

Smith was head coach of the Wildcats for 10 years, from the 1997-98 season through the 2006-07 campaign. His first team became known as the "Comeback Cats" after the Wildcats erased multiple double-digit deficits en route to a 35-4 record and UK's seventh national title.

Trailing Duke by 17 points, with less than 10 minutes to play in the South Regional final, the Wildcats stormed back to win 86-84. Down by 10 against Stanford in the second half of the NCAA semifinal, the Cats clawed back to force overtime and an eventual 86-85 victory. And, it wouldn't have been fitting if UK hadn't trailed Utah by 10 points at halftime of the title tilt, again rallying to take the trophy by a score of 78-69.

During his 10 seasons, Smith coached the Wildcats to at least 22 victories each season, totaling a 263-83 record (76.0%). His teams won five regular-season SEC championships and five SEC Tournament crowns, featuring a league title (regular season or tournament) in seven of his 10 years at UK. His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all 10 seasons, including six trips to the Sweet Sixteen, and had a 23-9 record (71.9%) in the national playoffs.

Smith was three-time National Coach of the Year (1998, 2003, 2005) as well as a three-time SEC Coach of the Year selection while at UK. He also spent two seasons at UK as an assistant coach, 1989-90 and 1990-91, helping rebuild the program and achieving a 22-6 record and SEC-best 14-4 league mark during the 1991 campaign.

During his outstanding career, Smith also was head coach at Tulsa, Georgia, Minnesota, Texas Tech and Memphis before his current post at his alma mater. He enters the upcoming season with a career head-coaching record of 631-355.

Smith will be the 44th retired jersey to hang in the rafters of Rupp Arena, including fellow national championship coaches Adolph Rupp, Joe B. Hall and Rick Pitino.

Smith was elected by the Retired Jersey Subcommittee of the UK Athletics Hall of Fame Committee. The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor persons whose participation and contributions enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. There is a five-year waiting period, after leaving UK, to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. Hall of Famers are eligible for jersey retirement five years after they have been elected to the Hall of Fame.

Cleaning the Glass

With the aforementioned Oscar Tshiebwe leading the nation in rebounding, Kentucky is one of the top teams in the country on the boards.

Through games on Dec. 22, Kentucky is first in the country in rebounding margin (plus-17.1 per game) and total rebounds per game (44.5) and second in offensive per game (15.6). The Wildcats have outrebounded 10 of their 11 opponents by at least nine boards.

It's still early in the season, but the best rebounding margin of the John Calipari era was plus-9.4 in 2013-14 and again in 2018-19.

Against Ohio, Kentucky outrebounded the Bobcats by 36, the top rebounding margin of the Calipari era and the school's best since the Wildcats outrebounded Vanderbilt by 39 (57-18) on Jan. 3, 1998, in a 71-62 win. Perhaps more impressive was the plus-18 advantage vs. a bigger, taller North Carolina team that entered its matchup with Kentucky on Dec. 18 ranked 13th in the country in rebounding margin.

With Tshiebwe's nation-leading 24.0% offensive rebounding percentage, UK is first in the country in offensive rebounding percentage (45.4%) through games on Dec. 26, according to KenPom.com. The Wildcats have capitalized with the additional opportunities with 15.5 second-chance points per game.

Wheeling and Dealing

The coaching staff challenged Sahvir Wheeler before the season to lead the nation in assists. It's early, but so far he's risen to the occasion.

Through games on Dec. 22, the Georgia transfer ranked second in the country with 7.7 assists per game. Three times he has dished out double-digit assists, including a career-high 14 in the win vs. North Florida.

"He's running it down your throat," Robert Morris head coach Andrew Toole said of the pressure Wheeler puts on defenses. "The way that he pushes the ball down the floor just encourages all those other guys to run so hard because he's so unselfish and he's able to get them shots early in the offense. ... He has such a good understanding of the pace, so as soon as there isn't anything there, he's able to organize and get into whatever action they're trying to execute. There were times in the game that even after a made basket where our guys were sprinting back as fast as they can just trying to keep up. It just adds an incredible amount of pressure to your transition defense. There's not many guys that can do what he does."

Wheeler led the Southeastern Conference in assists per game and assist-to-turnover ratio last season at Georgia. His 193 assists in 2020-21 broke Georgia's previous single-season assists record by 24 dimes despite a shortened season.

Wheeler's current rate of 7.7 assists per game is ahead of Tyler Ullis' 7.03 average when he set the UK single-season assists record in 2015-16 with 246 dimes. He entered the season ranked sixth among all returners nationally in career assists per game.

It might surprise some to learn that the guy most responsible for setting up his teammates to score also has the best scoring performance of the season. That would be a sensational 26-point performance vs. North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic.

How the preseason All-SEC First Team and Bob Cousy Award candidate did it was even more impressive. Just a week removed from going 0 for 5 at Notre Dame, a game in which the Fighting Irish backed off Wheeler and dared him to shoot, Wheeler bounced back with a 12-for-15 shooting night vs. The Tar Heels. Even when UNC tried to back off, Wheeler continued to drive the ball, probe the defense and eventually get to the rim. His 26 points were one off a career high.

Adding eight assists and a season-high four steals, Wheeler -- according to BigBlueHistory.net -- is the first player in school history post at least 26 points, at least eight assists and at least four steals in the same game.

NOTES

Calipari was more impressed with Wheeler's leadership than any sort of response Wheeler made after the Notre Dame game.

"Lead us," Calipari said he told Wheeler. "If you're playing great, lead us and get everybody involved. If you're not making shots or you're a little confused, lead us. Lead. That's what he did."

Mr. 2000

Kellan Grady entered his final season of college basketball having already achieved a lot. He was a 2,000-point scorer and a four-time All-Atlantic 10 recipient and averaged at least 17.0 points per game in every season while at Davidson.

He elected to use his final season of eligibility to challenge himself against the best of the best every day in practice at Kentucky. That challenge was evident early in preseason when Grady was missing open shots and attributed it to the new speed and pace at which his new team was asking him to play at.

"It took a couple of weeks to just settle in and be more efficient as a shot maker and as a decision maker," Grady said in the preseason. "In hindsight, I'm glad I went through two or three weeks of growing pains and having to overcome some adversity and just settling and trusting the process."

Throughout the opening month of the season, Grady was still finding his way. He had just two double-figure scoring efforts in the team's first nine games, including going scoreless against Ohio.

But, after a collective 2-for-19 outing from 3-point range in a loss at Notre Dame, Grady and John Calipari spent a little time together with the head coach demanding more from his most seasoned veteran.

"He and I went to the gym and I worked with him. I took him out at North Carolina," Calipari said. "He passed up on two shots, you're out."

Grady received the message loud and clear.

Over the last two games -- both dominating wins for the Wildcats -- Grady has made 11 of 16 (68.8%) from long range and is averaging 20.5 points per game.

"I realized quickly in the first half against Carolina that if I'm open, regardless of whether it's 26 on the shot clock or six on the shot clock, I'm supposed to shoot it," Grady said following UK's win over Western Kentucky. "So that was really all I needed to hear. I guess I kind of should have known that already, but it's great to have a coach that believes in you and wants you to shoot."

Grady is one of four players in a Power Five conference averaging at least 10 points per game, shooting 47% or better from 3-point range with at least five 3-point attempts per game, and having connected on at least 20 3s for the season. Illinois' Jacob Grandison, Syracuse's Joseph Girard III and Kansas' Ochai Agbaji are the others.

With a season-high 23 points against Western Kentucky, Grady has scored in double figures in 100 career games. According to a recent survey of NCAA teams, he is one of just three active players with at least 100 double-figure scoring efforts.

The Boston native is also nearing in on a historic career milestone. He is nine rebounds shy of reaching the 2,000-point, 500-rebound, 250-assist milestone.

Grady's current rate of 47.5% from long range would rank sixth all-time in UK single-season history. Cameron Mills has the record with 53.2% (42 of 79) in 1996-97. Doron Lamb's 48.6% (38 of 68) in 2010-11 is the best single-season mark under Calipari.

Time to Hone In

After a fast and furious start to open the season, the quantity of games eases up in December, giving way to an important opportunity for more time on the practice court.

After playing seven games in 21 days to begin the season, the Wildcats are in a stretch where they are playing just six games in a 32-day period.

What does that all mean? More practice opportunities and more time for John Calipari to really get his hands on this team. This is usually the time of the season when Calipari's teams make the biggest development because Calipari particularly enjoys being able to work in practice for a week, play a game, evaluate, and then return to practice for a week to continue to build.

Learning will be at its peak with the start of what Calipari likes to call "Camp Cal." During this time period, when there are no restrictions on practice hours and the players are free of academic responsibilities, the Wildcats often practice two times a day and sometimes even three if one includes a workout session with strength and conditioning coach Robert Harris. With no responsibilities outside of practice, Calipari likes the team to be together focusing on basketball for as much of the break as possible.

In between practices, Calipari will sometimes have the players over to his house to eat and rest. In the evenings, the team will go out together to eat most nights. The team will basically eat, sleep and drink basketball during Camp Cal -- something the Wildcats were unable to do a season ago with the COVID-19 pandemic rampant.

The season-ending results clearly show the improvement of Calipari's teams in December. As successful as Calipari's teams have been in the nonconference portion of their schedule every season, UK has won six regular-season Southeastern Conference titles in 12 seasons under Calipari and another six SEC Tournament championships.

Camp Cal will commence with the first day of classes beginning on Jan. 10, which is about a week earlier than normal.

Milestones Approaching Worth Watching

Several Wildcats are approaching career milestones:

- Head coach John Calipari needs seven wins to reach on-court victory No. 800
- Davion Mintz needs 19 more points to become a 1,000-point collegiate scorer
- Kellan Grady needs nine more rebounds to reach 500 career rebounds
- Sahvir Wheeler needs 83 more assists for 500 in his career

Transfer of Power

Kentucky has dominated the recruiting scene under John Calipari, ranking in the top three of every major national recruiting ranking until this past class.

UK's 2021 freshman haul is once again very good, but Calipari and his staff went a different route in restocking the roster for 2021-22: transfers.

With student-athletes in basketball now granted a one-time waiver to transfer without penalty, UK picked up three transfers in the offseason in Kellan Grady (graduate transfer), a 2,000-point scorer from Davidson, Sahvir Wheeler, Georgia's single-season assists leader, and CJ Fredrick, the Big Ten's top 3-point shooter over the last two seasons.

But those are just half of the transfers on the roster. Former All-Big 12 performer Oscar Tshiebwe transferred from West Virginia in the middle of last season and Kentucky returners Davion Mintz (Creighton) and Jacob Toppin (Rhode Island) changed schools before the 2020-21 season. Mintz was Kentucky's leading scorer last season and Toppin played major minutes.

UK's six transfers are its most on a roster in school history.

Taking out Mintz and Toppin, who had already played minutes at Kentucky prior to the 2021-22 season, UK's four newest transfers (Fredrick, Grady, Tshiebwe and Wheeler) combined for 3,538 points at their previous stops. That's the seventh-biggest haul in the 2021-22 transfer class in the country.

Their production additions are significant nationally. Grady, with 2,002 career points, entered the season with the second-most points in college basketball on an active roster (only Antoine Davis from Detroit-Mercy, with 2,040, had more). Fredrick had the top 3-point percentage in the country among all players with at least 150 3-point attempts starting the 2021-22 year. And Wheeler ranked sixth among returners nationally with 5.82 assists per game.

The transfers have made a big impact through the first third of the regular season. Through games on Dec. 22, Tshiebwe led the country in rebounding with 15.5 boards per game and paced the Wildcats in scoring with 16.1 points per game; Wheeler was second in the nation in assists with 7.7 dimes per contest; Grady is averaging 11.2 points per game and shooting 47.5% from long range; Mintz has provided steady defense and depth in the back court; and Toppin's versatility has been on display since returning from an early season right shoulder injury.

Unfortunately the Wildcats will likely be without Fredrick for the rest of the season after undergoing surgery for a right hamstring injury.

The Rookies are Still Good

Although the influx of transfers has stolen the headlines of this Kentucky team, don't overlook the freshmen. Just like every John Calipari team at Kentucky, this freshman class is loaded, albeit a bit smaller in terms of total numbers.

UK's three freshmen were all consensus four- or five-star prospects and all were consensus top-50 signees.

Forward Daimion Collins, a 6-foot-9 pogo stick who has drawn comparisons to Isaiah Jackson -- a first-round pick in the 2021 NBA Draft -- was ranked as high as No. 13 by 247Sports. He has shown his potential with three games of eight or more points and three games with three or more blocks.

Guard TyTy Washington Jr. rose up the rankings late in the spring cycle and was tabbed the No. 14 overall player in the class by Rivals and ESPN. He has displayed an ability to score at all three levels and is averaging 13.9 points per game, including a 20-point, 12-rebound, five-assist performance in a win vs. Ohio. He became just the third player in the Calipari era to post at least 20 points, at least 10 rebounds and at least five assists in a game, joining Isaiah Briscoe and James Young.

Washington has scored in double figures in eight of 11 games and has combined for 20 assists over the last four contests. He is shooting better than 50% excluding the season opener.

And forward Bryce Hopkins, ranked as high as No. 33 by ESPN, drew rave reviews from Calipari in the preseason for his skill level and toughness. In his first extended opportunity vs. Ohio, Hopkins stepped up with Kentucky's front court in foul trouble and contributed seven points and seven rebounds in 16 minutes. He scored seven points in eight minutes vs. North Florida.

The class ranked outside the top three in the major recruiting services for the first time in the Calipari era but only because of the smaller class size. Don't expect it to be the trend as UK is already in the hunt for the top class in 2022.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, Kentucky teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Season	Offense (Rank)	Defense (Rank)	Overall
2021-22	114.5 (11)	91.1 (30)	11th
2020-21	108.0 (84)	93.1 (35)	49th

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

Kentucky is 295-12 (96.1%) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest.

UK surrendered four such instances in 2020-21 (in 11 games) that slightly waters down just how dominant Calipari teams have been with a sizable lead.

Nine of the 12 losses in the Calipari era are to conference opponents.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 69.3% of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 84.8% of Calipari's 348 career wins at Kentucky.

Hold Them to 55 Points, 40%

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. Kentucky is a perfect 81-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer, including 2-0 this season.

The Wildcats are 195-9 (95.6%) under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less. The 2020-21 season was a bit of an anomaly as UK was just 3-2 under the same circumstances. Five times last season UK lost despite holding teams to 66 points or less. Under Calipari, that had only occurred 12 times in 407 games prior to the 2020-21 season. UK is 7-0 this season in such circumstances.

Kentucky also fares well when it keeps the competition to 40% or less from the floor. UK is 215-24 (90.0%) vs. opponents under Calipari when its field-goal percentage is 40% or less. Kentucky is 6-0 this season when limiting an opponent to 40% or less.

Big-Game Cal, Cats

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky own a 64-39 record (62.1%) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams under John Calipari, UK is 7-4 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five.

All-time, Calipari is 13-8 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 86-59, including a 55-31 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 27-20 record, including 16-13 at UK.

By defeating top-ranked Michigan State to start the 2019-20 season, UK knocked off the No. 1 team in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. Kentucky downed Tennessee on Feb. 19, 2019. With the win over MSU to begin 2019-20, the Wildcats have nine victories over the No. 1 team in program history.

Calipari improved to 6-4 vs. the No. 1 team in his career with the win vs. Michigan State, including 3-2 at Kentucky. According to ESPN, Calipari is the only coach with a winning (.600) percentage against No. 1 ranked teams with a minimum of 10 games faced against the No. 1.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 64-39 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 in John Calipari's tenure is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under Calipari, UK is 284-56 vs. unranked competition, 83.5%.

Cats Don't Count on the 3

Kentucky has never been reliant on the 3 under John Calipari. Even with more shooters at their disposal, this season is not an exception.

So far UK is generating 22.6% of its points from beyond the arc, which is ranked 343rd in the country (through games on Dec. 26), and 28.3% of its attempts are from long range.

Kentucky's perimeter shooting is led by Kellan Grady, who has sunk 29 of 61 for a 47.5% clip thus far. TyTy Washington Jr. has added 14 treys. As a team, the Wildcats are connecting at a 33.3% rate, which is one of the lowest 3-point field-goal percentages under Calipari.

UK was expecting to add the nation's top 3-point shooter over the last two seasons (percentage with a minimum of 150 attempts) in Iowa transfer CJ Fredrick, but he is likely to miss the 2021-22 season after undergoing surgery to repair a left hamstring injury.

Even without Fredrick, this should be a team more than capable of sinking the 3-point shot. Grady has hit 269 3-pointers in his career, Davion Mintz has made 136, Washington has sunk a trey in eight of 11 games, and Dontaie Allen shot 39.7% from long range last season. This group has shown signs of being able to make them in a flurry. The Wildcats made 52.2% against Robert Morris with 12 makes and have made 17 of 35 (48.6%) over the last two games.

If you have followed Calipari's teams over the years, Kentucky has never relied on the 3-point shot. While teams nationally are taking more 3-point shots than ever before, UK has generally bucked the trend and played to the style that's best suited for that particular group.

The highest percentage of 3-point shots taken under Calipari was the 2010-11 Final Four team that lofted 32.4% of its shots from beyond the arc. No surprise, that team consisted of Brandon Knight and Doron Lamb on the perimeter. That team is also Calipari's top 3-point shooting team at Kentucky. The most attempts per game in the Calipari era was the 2016-17 squad that took 19.89 3-point shots per game.

Not relying on the 3 certainly hasn't hurt the Wildcats. UK is 10-3 all-time under Calipari when making one or fewer from long range. Kentucky has made at least three in 10 of 11 games, with just two made 3-pointers at Notre Dame.

Kentucky's Schedule Packs a Punch

Kentucky's schedule is always among the toughest in the country and this season will be no different.

UK's nonconference schedule has already featured Duke in New York in the Champions Classic, a road date at Notre Dame and vs. North Carolina in Las Vegas in the CBS Sports Classic. The Wildcats hosted in-state foe Western Kentucky and will host former UK coach Tubby Smith and High Point on Friday. Nonconference action concludes with a road game vs. Kansas on Jan. 29 in the Big 12/SEC Challenge.

Wins vs. Losses in 2021-22

Result	FG%	Opp. FG%	3-Pt. FG%	Opp 3-Pt. FG%	FT%	RPG	APG	TOPG	BPG	SPG	PPG	Opp PPG
Wins	.513	.370	.353	.279	.738	46.3	18.9	12.8	5.7	7.1	87.0	59.7
Losses	.409	.491	.243	.235	.727	36.0	12.0	9.0	3.5	4.5	66.5	72.5

NOTES

The nonconference schedule will give way to the typically difficult Southeastern Conference slate. UK will play its permanent home-and-away opponents of Florida, Tennessee and Vanderbilt twice, plus host and visit Alabama and LSU. The Wildcats will face the remaining eight SEC opponents once. The league has earned 21 berths in the last three NCAA Tournaments, tied for the second most in college basketball in that time period.

Six Kentucky opponents are ranked in the Dec. 27 Associated Press Top 25. Nonconference opponents in Duke (2) and Kansas (6) are among the ranked teams.

In addition to the Wildcats, the other SEC programs ranking among the top 25 include Auburn (11), Tennessee (14), LSU (16) and Alabama (19).

Kentucky has already played one ranked foe in Duke on Nov. 9. The Wildcats are slated for eight additional matchups vs. ranked foes, with UK playing Alabama, LSU and Tennessee twice.

One of the Most Experienced Squads in School History

This Kentucky team isn't just experienced by the standards of the usually green John Calipari era, it's historically experienced.

This group, stocked with transfers who played major minutes at other schools, key returners and only three freshmen, started the season with 13,385 total minutes at the NCAA Division I level. That is more than any team in the history of Kentucky basketball entering a season (minutes statistics available through the 1964-65 season).

Other metrics back up the experience. This team also returned 5,203 career points at the NCAA Division I level, the second most in school history. Only the 1995-96 national title team -- hailed as one of the greatest college basketball teams of all-time -- returned more with 5,232 points (that team, like 2021-22, was aided by transfers with Derek Anderson and Mark Pope).

The 2021-22 squad had played in 541 Division I games entering the season, the most by a Kentucky team since the 2002-03 group returned 559 games to its roster.

This team is also rather long in the tooth. Using strictly years, the 2021-22 team averaged 20.7 years in age as of Nov. 1, 2021. The 2019-20 group had an average age of 19.5 years old. The 2021-22 mark is among the top 25 oldest teams in the country. If one factors in a player's down-to-the-day age (in other words, their age number plus days), this team's average age is actually 21.2 years old, as of Nov. 1, 2021.

It should be noted with all the experience boosts that college basketball is collectively older with the NCAA's COVID-19 additional season of eligibility. Davion Mintz and Kellan Grady are using an extra season for Kentucky. And Kentucky's experience does take a hit with the likely season-ending loss of redshirt junior CJ Fredrick (hamstring).

UK's roster features a sixth-year graduate, a fifth-year graduate, two redshirt juniors, five juniors, a redshirt sophomore, two sophomores, and three highly touted four- and five-star freshmen. Nine of the 15 players are juniors or above.

It is true that not all experience is equal. Experience in college basketball is not the same as experience at Kentucky.

But even by those standards, this is one of Calipari's most veteran groups. From just a UK returners standpoint, Calipari's squad will return 42.1% of its minutes, 41.9% of its scoring, 39.0% of the rebounds, 42.4% of the assists and 60.6% of the 3-pointers from a season ago. For comparison, the only two Calipari-coached Kentucky teams that returned more UK minutes and more points (in terms of percentages) than the 2021-22 team returns were the 2011-12 national championship squad and the 2014-15 Final Four team that started the season 38-0.

Mintz is the first Wildcat to return to school after leading the team in scoring average the previous season since Randolph Morris led the 2005-06 squad and came back to Kentucky for the 2006-07 season.

How big of a change is the returning experience for Calipari? All but one of his previous 12 teams at UK ranked in the bottom 20 nationally in Ken Pomeroy's experience rankings, including two teams that were dead last.

Despite that experience, the Wildcats only rank 250th in the country according to KenPom.com in terms of experience this season as of Dec. 27.

"When you have veterans, they're on time," Calipari said. "Without even saying anything, they lead. That's been fun. I haven't had many teams with veteran kind of players on it, so I kind of forget that it takes one thing off your plate."

Fredrick Likely to Miss 2021-22 Season

Redshirt junior guard CJ Fredrick underwent surgery on Nov. 16 to repair a left hamstring injury and is likely to miss the remainder of the 2021-22 season.

"This news hurts so much because I love this team and we have a great group of guys," Fredrick said. "I have the best teammates, coaches, medical staff, friends and family that will get me back where I need to be. We have a very special team this season and I will do whatever I can to support the team. I am looking forward to working hard and being the player I want to be for next season. I appreciate all the support of Big Blue Nation during this difficult time. My journey looks a little different, but I will be back."

Fredrick, who transferred from Iowa following the 2020-21 year, entered this season as the nation's leading returner in career 3-point field-goal percentage (46.6%) with a minimum of 150 attempts.

"I really hate this for CJ," John Calipari said. "He worked so hard for us this summer and made such a positive impact on our team and our culture. He has been an unbelievable teammate. CJ has a bright future ahead of him, and after being evaluated by our medical staff and specialists, it was clear the best thing for CJ was to get this surgery done now and get him back on a path to getting back on the court at 100%. He's been great throughout this whole thing and is already itching to get this process going so he can get back to doing what he loves to do."

The Cincinnati native made 83 3-pointers in two seasons at Iowa. Fredrick started all 27 games he appeared in as a redshirt sophomore in 2020-21 and averaged 7.5 points and 1.9 assists per game. He made three or more treys in six games, shot 47.4% from 3 -- the second-best mark by a sophomore in program history -- and posted a 5.2 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Fredrick made the All-Big Ten Freshman Team as a redshirt freshman in 2019-20 after averaging 10.2 points and 2.8 assists per game. He made 47 of 102 from long range and was one of three players nationally and the only player from a major conference dating back to 1993 with 65 or more assists, 32 or fewer turnovers, and 46% shooting or better from 3.

Four Players on National Watch Lists

Four Wildcats -- Kellan Grady, Oscar Tshiebwe, TyTy Washington Jr. and Sahvir Wheeler -- were on major national watch lists to begin the season.

Grady and Washington were two of 40 players on the preseason watch list for the Lute Olson Award, awarded annually to the national player of the year by CollegeInsider.com. The duo is also on the Wooden Award preseason list for player of the year.

Three Wildcats were on preseason watch lists for the positional player of the year awards presented by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame preseason watch lists. Kentucky is one of 13 schools to have at least three players named to the preseason lists.

Wheeler is on the list for the Bob Cousy Award (best point guard), Grady is nominated for the Jerry West Award (best shooting guard) and Tshiebwe is among the nation's early favorites for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award (best center).

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky is 21-3 against in-state foes with John Calipari at the helm, including an 11-3 mark vs. Louisville.

Two of the victories over the Cardinals were during postseason play. The Wildcats have won all six meetings played inside Rupp Arena, including a 29-point win in 2017-18, the third-largest margin of victory in the history of the series. UofL's three wins are by a combined nine points.

Here is a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs in the Calipari era:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena

UK Leads with 27 on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The tipoff to the 2021-22 NBA season featured 27 players on NBA opening-day rosters (including two-way and inactive players) who played and finished their college basketball careers at Kentucky, more than any other college program in the country. Duke, with 21, was the only other school with more than 20 players in the NBA.

With recent call-ups, the number had ballooned to 32 players on NBA rosters at the end of December.

Of the 30 NBA franchises featuring a Wildcat to start the season, 17 had multiple UK players.

Arguably the two most visible and storied NBA franchises, the New York Knicks and the Los Angeles Lakers, have the most.

The Knicks – nicknamed the Kentucky Knicks by much of Big Blue Nation for UK's significant roster presence – remain the leader in NBA Wildcats with four. Former Kentucky stars Kevin Knox II (2018), Nerlens Noel (2013), Immanuel Quickley (2019-20) and Julius Randle (2014) call New York their professional home. A fifth player, Derrick Rose, also played for John Calipari but at Memphis (2008), and assistant coach Kenny Payne was a longtime UK assistant. All played prominent roles in the Knicks' run to the NBA Playoffs last season.

The Lakers are just behind the Knicks with three former Kentucky players in Anthony Davis (2012), Malik Monk (2017) and Rajon Rondo (2005-06). Davis and Rondo won NBA titles with the Lakers in 2020. Adding to the UK ties, is head coach Frank Vogel who is a Kentucky graduate and former Wildcat student manager and video coordinator.

Five other franchises – the Charlotte Hornets (Nick Richards [2018-20], PJ Washington [2018-19]), the Detroit Pistons (Hamidou Diallo [2017-18], Trey Lyles [2015]), the Los Angeles Clippers (Eric Bledsoe [2010], Brandon Boston Jr. [2021], the Miami Heat (Bam Adebayo [2017], Tyler Herro [2019]) and the Minnesota Timberwolves (Karl-Anthony Towns [2015], Jarred Vanderbilt [2018]) – opened the season with at least two Wildcats apiece.

Rondo, now in his 16th season, remains the most experienced Kentucky player in the league. He returned to the Lakers in the offseason for a second stint after playing with the Hawks and Clippers last season. Boston Jr. and Isaiah Jackson (2021) will be the youngest-tenured NBA Wildcats as rookies.

Of the 27 Wildcats on opening-day NBA rosters, John Calipari coached 26 of them. With Rose, a former Calipari player at Memphis, Calipari also coached 27 players on 2021-22 opening-day rosters.

More than 20 other Wildcats are slated to play in the NBA G League or play professionally overseas. Other notable alumni include, 1978 national champion Dwane Casey, who returns as head coach of the Detroit Pistons, and Pat Riley continues to serve as president of the Heat.

Kentucky has enjoyed unprecedented success at putting players in the NBA under Calipari. In the 12 previous seasons of the Calipari era, 43 players have been selected in the NBA Draft, more than any other school. Included in the recent run are 32 first-round picks, three No. 1 overall selections (Davis, Towns and John Wall [2010]) and 21 lottery selections.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 26 All-Star selections – all since 2010 – with Davis winning the game's MVP honor in 2017. Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Six of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (Rose, Wall, Davis, Towns, Randle and DeMarcus Cousins), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year (Rose, Towns and Tyreke Evans), and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. UK has produced more All-NBA players, more NBA All-Rookie and more NBA All-Defensive players than any other school in the Calipari era.

The 2020-21 season was another successful one for the former Kentucky stars. Randle was named the 2021 NBA Most Improved Player while Devin Booker (2015) achieved superstar status with a sensational run to the NBA Finals. Following the season, Adebayo, Booker and Keldon Johnson (2019) won gold medals with the U.S. Olympic Team at the Summer Games.

Using figures compiled by basketball-reference.com and spotrac.com, Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) have amassed nearly $3.4 billion in career NBA contracts. In the 12 seasons Calipari has been the head coach at Kentucky, his players have totaled nearly $3 billion in NBA contracts.

In the 2021-22 season alone, former UK players are slated to make nearly $340 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Rose but not Rondo) will make about the same.

Calipari produced a top-10 pick in 11 straight drafts prior to 2020, a feat no other coach has ever accomplished. He has a streak of 14 consecutive drafts with a first-round pick. Calipari is the only coach in the history of the sport to have four players drafted No. 1 overall (Rose – 2008, Wall – 2010, Davis – 2012, Towns – 2015).

A breakdown of the Wildcats in the NBA can be found later in the notes.

Kentucky, Southern Unite for Unity Series

Kentucky's meeting with Southern was about more than just basketball.

The Dec. 7 matchup marked the first in five consecutive seasons of matchups between UK and institutions from the Southwestern Athletic Conference, which is made up of historically black colleges and universities. The annual series is called the Unity Series. The games will seek to raise awareness of the missions of the HBCUs and to raise funds to provide opportunities for students at their institutions.

This year's programming featured several events to provide educational opportunities for the teams and students at the two institutions, networking and community engagement.

The week began with a joint trip the National Underground Railroad Freedom Museum in Cincinnati on Dec. 5. Players, coaches and staff from both UK and Southern met at the Freedom Museum and received a guided tour. The museum was established in 2004 to reveal stories of freedom's heroes – from the era of the Underground Railroad to contemporary times – and to challenge and inspire people to take courageous steps for freedom.

On the day before the game, the UK Healthcare John Calipari Show featured Southern head coach and UK Athletics Hall of Famer Sean Woods alongside Calipari. While the show was on the air, the Wildcats and Jaguars enjoyed a team meal together at Malone's.

Prior to the radio show, TJ Beisner, UK men's basketball's director of player development, met with the Southern players to outline trends regarding Name, Image and Likeness and provided coaching on personal branding and development.

"The way this world is right now, we need all to find a way to help one another," Woods said. "I think that's what this whole deal was all about. I'm just so thankful that Cal gave me the call first to do this because it was totally awesome."

At Tuesday's game, 150 tickets were provided to three Lexington elementary schools identified by UK's Diversity Advocacy Council, who distributed them to students who are excelling in their classroom and school community.

Prior to the game, minority students currently enrolled at UK had the opportunity to meet with UK Athletics employees and gain foundational knowledge about the athletics department, the structure, its different units, and background information on the skill sets and personalities that might fit into those different areas. It was an opportunity for students to network with athletics department staff and learn more about the internship opportunities they may be interested in applying for in the future.

Later, the Unity Series will bring together faculty from the University of Kentucky's Sport Leadership Graduate Program and leaders from the Southern University and UK athletics departments for a virtual panel for all UK and SWAC undergraduate students interested in careers in college and professional athletics. The panel will discuss trends, hiring practices and cycles, internships, and any other topics and questions raised by students.

Also, the University of Kentucky's Stuckert Career Center, which provides comprehensive career development programming, resources and services to the UK student body, will partner with SWAC institutions to provide shared resources and support to students throughout the SWAC and at UK.

As a part of the Unity Series, in partnership with the John McLendon Leadership Initiative – a coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network, and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship – a position for a future leader will be created at the SWAC office in Birmingham, Alabama. The position will be funded by the University of Kentucky. Calipari spearheaded the MLI in conjunction with the Harvard men's basketball head coach Tommy Amaker, South Carolina head coach Frank Martin and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in the summer of 2020.

Wildcats Sign Four During Fall Signing Period

Even by John Calipari era standards, Kentucky 2022 signing class is shaping up to be one of the best in school history.

Sky Clark, Chris Livingston, Shaedon Sharpe and Cason Wallace – all four consensus five-star prospects in the class of 2022 – signed national letters of intent with UK.

Sharpe will enroll at Kentucky for the 2022 spring semester. Clarke, Livingston and Wallace will join the program for the 2022-23 season.

"I am really excited about this group," John Calipari said. "When you watch these guys play, the talent and upside is obvious, but what stands out to me about all four of them is how much they want this and want to be here. Their mentality and their drive separate them from their peers. They all wanted to play with one another and wanted the challenge of competing against the best every day. Big Blue Nation, I can't wait for you to meet this group and watch them play."

With the spring signing period still to go, UK is going to be in the mix for one of the top classes in the nation yet again. Rivals and 247Sports currently rank it as the top haul of the fall with four signees.

In every season but one of the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed a top-three recruiting class according to the Recruiting Services Consensus Index, which tallies major recruiting rankings and plugs them into a formula to calculate a consensus ranking. With the fall additions, Kentucky has signed 66 top-50 recruits, 52 top-25 players and 29 top-10 players (according to Rivals) in what will now be Calipari's 14 recruiting classes at Kentucky.

The spring signing period begins April 13. UK can only comment on prospects who have signed official paperwork with the university.

Reconnecting with Big Blue Nation and Giving Back

One of John Calipari's main missions this summer was to reconnect his team with the Big Blue Nation.

The COVID-19 pandemic limited the Wildcats' interactions with fans during the 2020-21 season. Between reduced attendance at Rupp Arena (3,075 fans), no Big Blue Madness and considerable restrictions with various fan activities throughout the season, the 2020-21 group was deprived of one of the staples of the Kentucky program.

With many of the health and safety protocols scaled back this summer, Calipari made sure to take his team on the road and get in front of the Kentucky fan base.

While touring the state for its annual satellite camp tour, the Wildcats visited local community centers, regional health facilities and spent a morning at Fort Knox. Players and staff continued the touch points into the fall with visits throughout the state for ticket giveaways.

The motivation for Calipari is obviously to give back to the community, but it also benefits his players to see firsthand the role they play in the state.

"I want these players to realize the impact that they have in our state," Calipari said. "You understand that this is important to our state and it's about bringing people together, doing things to make a difference for people's lives, not trying to separate."

In addition to the focus this summer, Calipari's Wildcats were able to return to doing two staples over the holidays.

Wildcats Give Back for the Holidays

In good times and tough times alike, Kentucky's commitment to servant leadership didn't waver this holiday season.

Dating back to his time at Memphis, John Calipari has worked with local businesses to partner and help families (usually around 10-12 families) in need for the holidays. Families are identified by local leaders and are uplifted with gifts, gift cards, food for the holidays, a new mattress and even rent checks. In a typical year, there is a reception inside with a holiday meal and Christmas carols sung by the players.

The COVID-19 pandemic has forced Calipari and his team to get a little creative these past two years, but the event has continued on.

To practice social distancing and to continue to mitigate the coronavirus, the reception was held outdoors this year on the back porch of the Wildcat Coal Lodge. The Christmas carols continued -- from a distance -- as the players sang as the families watched from the back porch. Players, with personal protection equipment on, delivered the gifts and food to the trunks of the vehicles.

Local businesses Kroger, Tempur-Pedic, Kentucky Branded, and Lundy's assisted with the gifts and food this year.

Additionally, during Thanksgiving, the Wildcats served Thanksgiving dinner and handed out posters and T-shirts to residents at the Salvation Army.

Antigua, Coleman Highlight New-Look Bench

The Kentucky coaching staff underwent an offseason transformation with a familiar face in Orlando Antigua returning to the UK bench and another top assistant from Illinois in Chin Coleman coming on board. Calipari also created a new position, hiring TJ Beisner as director of player development.

Antigua, a key assistant in the first five seasons of the Calipari era at Kentucky, rejoined the program as associate coach. Coleman joined the staff after four seasons with Illinois.

Antigua and Coleman occupy two of the three on-court assistant coaching positions on the 2021-22 staff. Jai Lucas remains in the other assistant coaching position and Bruiser Flint was elevated to associate to the head coach. Both Lucas and Flint are in their second seasons at Kentucky.

During Antigua's first stint at Kentucky, featuring the 2009-10 season through the 2013-14 national runner-up run, UK compiled a 152-37 record (80.4%) with a national championship, three Final Four appearances, and two Southeastern Conference regular-season titles and two SEC Tournament crowns.

Known for his eye on the recruiting trail, Antigua helped UK pull in five straight top-ranked recruiting classes (Recruiting Services Consensus Index). In his initial season with the Wildcats, Antigua saw three of his signees drafted in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft. He was a central figure in the 2010 and 2011 No. 1 classes, which led UK to its eighth national title in 2012 and its first since 1998.

Coleman spent the previous four seasons with Illinois. He was instrumental in the development of Ayo Dosunmu, one of the country's best point guards over the last three seasons. Under Coleman's guidance, Dosunmu raked in dozens of national and conference honors, including USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year and NCAA Consensus All-America First Team honors. He averaged 20.1 points and 5.3 assists to lead Illinois to a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

With Coleman on the bench, Illinois posted back-to-back 20-win seasons the last two years for the first time since the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons and finished second in the Big Ten in 2021. With Coleman serving as a defensive coordinator in 2020-21, the Illini finished seventh in the country in the Ken Pomeroy's adjusted defensive rankings and hovered around the top spot for much of the season.

Beisner, who has more than 15 years of experience in media, communications and digital marketing, oversees the execution of all elements of the student-athlete's off-court experience, including primary areas of player welfare and branding.

In concert with Kentucky's brand and content team and the Kentucky Road initiative -- Beisner leads and supports the Wildcats' brand-building strategy in the new Name, Image and Likeness era, monitors all changes in NCAA legislation and trends across college athletics to develop strategies and solutions to keep Kentucky at the forefront of college basketball, organizes and manages the program's community service involvement, provides support to players on non-basketball issues, and develops team-wide events focused on educating student-athletes on personal and career development.

Brad Calipari and Riley Welch also joined the staff as graduate assistants. They are involved in on-court activities with the Wildcats, including practices, individual workouts and film sessions.

Calipari played for the Wildcats from 2017-19 and was a part of a program that won 88 games, advanced to the Elite Eight twice, won an SEC regular-season championship and two SEC Tournament titles. He finished his collegiate career at Detroit Mercy where he saw action in 33 games over two seasons for the Titans. During the 2019-20 season, Calipari averaged 6.1 points per game and connected on 51 3-pointers.

A 2019 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in communication, Calipari earned his undergraduate degree in three years. He was a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member. At Detroit Mercy he completed a master's degree in liberal studies in May of 2021.

Welch just concluded a two-year career with the Wildcats and graduated in May with an undergraduate degree in liberal studies. He appeared in 34 career games as a Division I player split between two years at Kentucky and one at UC Irvine. Welch also played one season at the College of the Desert where he averaged 8.2 points and 5.0 assists per game.

Lucas Tabbed 'Rising Star' in the Athletic's '40 Under 40' List

Jai Lucas was ranked by the Athletic as one of the most influential people in college basketball younger than 40 years old.

The "40 Under 40" list is comprised of figures of all ranks, head coaches, assistants included and contributors to the game. The list is intended to "spotlight not only the most visible candidates (head coaches, broadcasters, players), but also a wide array of assistant coaches, writers, executives, administrators, bloggers, numbers crunchers and power brokers who give the sport its texture and flavor -- and who themselves have a bright future."

Lucas, 32 years old, is in his second season as an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator for UK.

Seth Davis, managing editor of the Athletic, headed up the list wrote that Lucas "brings an invaluable pedigree to the job. ... Lucas brings youthful energy to the gym and the recruiting trail, and his value to the program will only increase as he acquires more experience."

A former McDonald's High School All American and now a highly respected coach, Lucas joined the staff as a recruiting coordinator in August of 2020 and was quickly transitioned into a full-time assistant coaching role for the 2020-21 season.

As an assistant, Lucas has been tasked with taking a lead role in Kentucky's recruiting efforts while filling the traditional on-court roles of an assistant, including helping with game and practice preparation and playing a key role in player development through practice and individual workouts. Additionally, as recruiting coordinator, he manages official and unofficial visits and is responsible for the recruiting strategy for the program.

Success Rate

The Wildcats received an NCAA award in the spring of 2020 for placing in the top 10% of all men's basketball teams in the country in the NCAA's annual Academic Progress Rate. UK scored a 994 out of a possible 1,000.

NOTES

It marked the sixth straight year the men's basketball team has received the award and the seventh time since 2009.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success by the progress of each student-athlete on scholarship. The APR measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation. The scores are a four-year composite, covering the 2015-16 through 2018-19 school years.

Every Division I sports team across the nation calculates its APR each academic year, similar to a report card. Scholarship student-athletes each semester earn one point for remaining eligible and one point for staying in school or graduating.

UK has received a perfect 1,000 mark in six of the last seven single-year APR rates that have been released (numbers were not released last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic). Teams scoring below 930 can face consequences intended to direct additional focus on academics. Those penalties can include practice restrictions and playing-season reductions.

The Wildcats routinely perform well in the classroom, including posting a 3.122 grade-point average in the 2020 fall semester.

Three Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Kentucky basketball greats Ron Mercer (1996-97), Wayne Turner (1996-99) and Nazr Mohammed (1996-98) were inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame in early November.

Mercer and Turner were enshrined as a part of the 2020 class and Mohammed was a member of the 2021 class. The 2020 class was unable to be recognized last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The UK Athletics Hall of Fame was started in 2005 to recognize and honor athletes, coaches and contributors whose participation and achievements enriched and strengthened the University's athletics program. The charter class included 88 individuals who had previously had their jersey retired by UK.

There is a five-year waiting period after leaving UK to be eligible for inclusion into the Hall of Fame. A committee consisting of Hall of Famers, media members, campus representatives and current coaches and administrators elects new inductees each year.

Mercer was a member of the 1996 national championship team as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He was an NCAA Consensus All-America First Team member in 1997 and a two-time NCAA Tournament All-Final Four Team selection.

After making the Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team in 1996, Mercer was one of the top players in college basketball in 1997. In that season, he was named the NCAA Tournament West Regional Most Outstanding Player, Southeastern Conference Player of the Year by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press, and the 1997 SEC Tournament MVP. Mercer scored 725 points in his sophomore season, at the time the fifth most in a season in program history.

Mercer is a member of Kentucky's 1,000-point club (1,013). He declared for the 1997 NBA Draft after his sophomore season and was drafted sixth overall by the Boston Celtics. He played eight seasons in the NBA.

Turner was a member of the 1996 and 1998 national championship teams as well as the 1997 national runner-up team. He finished his career as UK's and the NCAA's all-time games played leader with 151 games (now ranks second), UK's all-time steals leader with 238, and a member of UK's 1,000-point club (1,170).

During his career, Turner helped the Wildcats to two SEC regular-season championships and three SEC Tournament titles.

Turner was named to the 1997 NCAA Tournament All-West Regional Team, the 1998 NCAA Tournament All-South Region Most Outstanding Player and the 1998 SEC Tournament MVP. He was also selected for the All-SEC Third Team and the SEC All-Tournament Team in 1999. He played one season in the NBA.

Mohammed is a two-time national champion having played pivotal role on both the 1996 and 1998 teams. He was the second-leading scorer on the 35-4 squad that was dubbed the "Comeback Cats." He averaged 12 points, 7.2 rebounds and 1.9 blocks in 1998.

Mohammed was an All-SEC First Team selection in 1998 and was also named to the SEC All-Tournament Team after helping lead UK to a regular-season and tournament title.

Mohammed entered the NBA Draft following his junior season and was selected 29th overall by Utah. He played in more than 1,000 career NBA games. He scored nearly 6,000 points and hauled in nearly 5,000 rebounds during an 18-year career. Mohammed captured an NBA title in 2005 as a member of the San Antonio Spurs. He now serves as a scout for the Oklahoma City Thunder.

Rupp Arena Renovations Continue

Renovations at Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center are continuing and nearing completion.

Originally announced when UK agreed to a new lease in December 2016, upper-level chair-back seating and new club areas were installed to Rupp Arena for the 2019-20 season with construction ongoing for club areas, expanded concourses, an exterior refresh and a new facade to the building.

Construction is expected to be completed in the spring of 2022.

Two club areas for season ticket holders have opened along with the president's suite. Fans in these new clubs are able to enjoy first-class amenities before, during and after games. These new clubs are crucial to providing the funds necessary for both the new lease agreement and the ongoing renovation of Rupp Arena. A third club area will be available for the 2021-22 season. Club membership does not include a ticketed seat and club members may have seats throughout Rupp Arena. Season ticket holders may purchase club memberships to accompany their season ticket package.

Construction will continue on the exterior of Rupp Arena with new metal "skin" and bold new metal and glass exterior that will wrap around the expanded concourse. The expanded concourse will feature 43,000 square feet of additional room once completed. Rupp Arena is also getting a new 85-foot tall multi-story atrium as its grand entrance into the renovated concourse. A 75-foot climate-controlled pedestrian bridge will provide a direct connection for fans from the Hyatt lobby straight into the Rupp Arena concourse.

This latest phase of Rupp renovations comes on the heels of the addition of a new center-hung scoreboard, ribbon boards, new sound system and lighting that have created a more dynamic game experience in Rupp.

The chair-back seating that was installed for the 2019-20 season was undertaken in response to years of feedback from fans asking for more comfortable seating in the upper level. The seating was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234.

After the seat renovations, Rupp Arena now seats 20,500.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 623-77 (89.0%) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- School record 54-game winning streak to begin the John Calipari era
- Kentucky is 336-46 (89.0%) in regular-season SEC games in Rupp
- The Wildcats set a program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- UK has gone undefeated at home in five of Calipari's 12 seasons
- Kentucky has a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 45 seasons

600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019, Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season, in 2012-13. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career home winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

New Chairbacks, Fewer Seats

After receiving a $16 million upgrade over the 2014-15 and 2015-16 seasons that enhanced the fan experience with the likes of a new Daktronics center-hung scoreboard, ribbons boards, new corner video boards and a new audio system, Rupp Arena is undergoing an additional transformation as a part of UK's new leasing agreement with the Lexington Center.

Chair-back seating in the upper-level sideline was installed in sections 211-217 and 228-234 for the 2019-20 season. Club areas are available to season ticket holders.

The new seating reduced Rupp Arena's capacity to 20,500.

Pack the House

Until reducing capacity for the 2019-20 season, Kentucky had led the nation in average home attendance in 20 of 24 seasons. That number included a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

Kentucky averaged 20,160 fans during the 2019-20 season, the first season with a reduced capacity at 20,500. UK averaged 23,000-plus fans in seven of Calipari's first 10 seasons.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat Kentucky in Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 196-17 (92.0%) in Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- Kentucky is 22-6 (78.6%) vs. Associated Press Top 25 opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- UK is 174-11 (94.1%) vs. AP unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- The Wildcats are 103-6 (94.5%) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win in Rupp Arena as Kentucky's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari 104 games to reach the century mark, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, 2016, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for most wins in Rupp Arena. Calipari currently has 196 wins inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

Calipari Ahead of the Pack at Kentucky

Through 12 seasons at Kentucky, John Calipari's time in Lexington has been every bit as successful -- and more -- as fans hoped it would when he agreed to become the head coach at Kentucky in the spring of 2009.

By just about every measure, he is the most successful coach in college basketball during the last decade-plus. Among schools who have been to at least two Elite Eights and a Final Four since 2009-10, Calipari ranks:

- First in NCAA Tournament wins (31)
- First in Final Four appearances (four)
- First in Elite Eight appearances (seven)
- First in Sweet Sixteen appearances (eight)
- Second in league tournament titles (six)
- Third in wins (339)
- Third in regular-season conference titles (six)
- Third in NCAA titles (one)

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport. The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

Calipari was inducted in Springfield, Massachusetts. Nearly 70 former players joined him on stage during his acceptance speech.

Coach Cal Immortalized at UMass with Statue Unveiling

John Calipari's Hall of Fame rise began at UMass, and the school honored his program's breakthrough in the 1990s by unveiling a statue of Calipari on the Amherst campus in September.

Calipari was one of four icons synonymous with UMass basketball to earn the honor. Calipari's statue was unveiled next to Marcus Camby, Julius Erving and the late Jack Leaman outside the Mullins Center.

At UMass, Calipari led the Minutemen to a 193-71 on-court record in his eight seasons as head coach from 1989-96. His .731 career winning percentage remains the best in school history, and he ranks second all-time at UMass in victories with 193.

Calipari led UMass to five straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1992 to 1996 after UMass had gone to the NCAAs only once in the first 81 years of the program. His Minutemen made the Atlantic 10's first and only Final Four appearance during the 1996 season, during which they went 35-2 overall and spent 10 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation. Following the 1996 season, Calipari was named National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, The Sporting News and Naismith.

UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season and tournament titles under Calipari from 1992 to 1996, becoming only the second team in NCAA history to win its conference championships in the regular season and postseason for five consecutive years.

A three-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year selection in 1992, 1993 and 1996, Calipari coached a National Player of the Year (Marcus Camby, 1996), two First Team All-Americans (Lou Roe, 1995; Camby, 1996), three Atlantic 10 Players of the Year (Harper Williams, 1992; Roe, 1995; Camby, 1996) and a total of 24 All-Atlantic 10 selections during his eight seasons at UMass.

Calipari's 1996 Final Four Team was also inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame.

Coach Cal Court

Not only did John Calipari have a statue erected in his honor this past offseason, the court at Clarion -- Calipari's alma mater -- is now named after the Hall of Famer. The court in Tippin Gymnasium was officially renamed the John V. Calipari Court in September and will be known as Coach Cal Court.

Like many coaches, Calipari began his career in basketball on the court as a player. He he was a star high school basketball player at Moon High School in Western Pennsylvania under another Clarion graduate Joe Sacco. Calipari started his college playing career at UNC Wilmington before transferring to Clarion in 1981, helping the Golden Eagles reach their first NCAA Division II Tournament in program history that year.

Under legendary head coach Joe DeGregorio, Clarion went 23-6 and reached the East Region championship game. Calipari was a key member of Clarion's 1981-82 team that started the season 7-0 and ranked third in Division II at one point.

Calipari has remained close with the program throughout his career.

Calipari Named Coach of the Decade

Underscored by more victories than any other coach or program in his first 10 seasons at the helm at Kentucky, more Final Four appearances, a record number of NBA Draft picks, and the 2012 national championship, John Calipari was named the College Basketball Coach of the Decade by Sporting News in January 2020.

In a piece penned by national writer Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News credited Calipari for changing the college basketball landscape. Detailing Calipari's success -- what DeCourcy described as a "college basketball revolution" -- DeCourcy wrote that "no one defined the 2010s in the same way as Calipari ... nor achieved the same degree of consistent success."

In an era where kids can enter the NBA Draft at 19 years old, Calipari masterfully balances the priority of players' long-term professional dreams with individual and team development, leading to on-court success that no other team has matched.

"I knew we were going to make the program -- and I said it at the press conference -- it was going to be a players-first program," Calipari told Sporting News. "We were going to make decisions based on them and their needs. And it's not just about the name on the front. It'll be about the name on the back. That's how we're going to do this."

Calipari Receives Guardians of the Game Award

John Calipari was one of eight coaches to receive the National Association of Basketball Coaches' Guardians of the Game Pillar Awards in 2021 for his work with the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative.

The Guardians of the Game Pillar Awards represent the NABC's core values of advocacy, education, inclusion and leadership. Calipari was one of three coaches, alongside Harvard head coach Tommy Amaker and South Carolina head coach Frank Martin, who received the award for inclusion.

Calipari, Amaker and Martin were honored for leading and launching the McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their

as a college head coach.

Calipari remains the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools and is the second-winningest coach in school history. Only two Division I coaches posted more wins through their first 1,000 career games than Calipari.

Most Wins Through First 1,000 Games

- Adolph Rupp - 824
- Roy Williams - 790
- John Calipari - 777
- Dean Smith - 776

700 Victories and Counting

With Kentucky's win over UIC on Nov. 26, 2017, John Calipari reached 700 on-court wins. At the time he was one of just 41 coaches, regardless of NCAA level of classification, to reach that barrier. Only 29 coaches have done it with at least 10 seasons at the Division I level.

Calipari became the fourth-fastest coach to 700 on-court wins ever at 894 games. Only Adolph Rupp (836 games), Jerry Tarkanian (876 games) and Roy Williams (879 games) did it faster.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 16 league regular-season championships (including six Southeastern Conference titles) eight more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Bruce Pearl, Ben Howland and Kermit Davis have eight). Calipari has won six SEC Tournament championships at Kentucky and owns 15 conference tournament titles in his career, 11 more than his closest competitors (Howland, Davis and Nate Oats).

Calipari has tallied a 367-116 (76.0%) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 159-50 (76.1%) record since joining the SEC.

Although he's been publicly outspoken against conference tournaments -- only because he doesn't favor playing three or more games on consecutive days to win the tournament -- his teams have gotten up for them. Calipari's teams at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky have been to 19 conference championship games in his career, winning a remarkable 15 of them. Calipari is 57-13 (81.4%) all-time in conference tournaments, including 23-5 (82.1%) at UK. Calipari ranks fourth in SEC Tournament wins.

Calipari in Elite Company with Conference Championships

When Kentucky clinched a share of the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship, John Calipari became the first NCAA Division I coach to lead three different programs (UMass, Memphis, Kentucky) to five on-court regular-season league titles five different times. He won the Atlantic 10 at the helm of UMass in 1992, '93, '94, '95 and '96. Memphis claimed the Conference USA crown in 2004, '06, '07, '08 and '09, and Kentucky has captured the SEC six times in 2010, '12, '15, '16, '17 and '20.

Perhaps more impressive is that Calipari has 31 combined regular-season and tournament championships after clinching the SEC regular-season crown in 2020. That trails only Mark Few of Gonzaga (36 titles) among all active coaches. All-time, Calipari trails only the great Adolph Rupp (41) and Few.

There's No Place Like Home

John Calipari-coached teams have posted an all-time record of 435-49 (89.9%) record at home in his stops at UMass, Memphis and Kentucky. At UK, Coach Cal is 196-17 (92.0%) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's 12 complete seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opened in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games (which ended at 42).

Coach	Streak (Yrs)
1. John Calipari	54 (2010-13)
2. John Calipari	42 (2014-17)
3. Rick Pitino	33 (1992-94)
4. Joe B. Hall	30 (1981-82)
5. Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life Away From Home Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're pretty good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 112-54 (67.5%) record on the road. At neutral-site venues, Kentucky is 80-28 (74.1%) under Calipari.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking in the Associated Press Top 25.

Calipari has led seven of his 13 UK teams to the No. 1 ranking and eight of his last 15 teams to the top (he's done it 10 times overall). When Coach Cal's teams are at the top, they're difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-13 (89.4%) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-8 (89.6%) when his team is atop the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach
- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass at No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis
- He (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (219) in active coaches with victories at No. 1
- Calipari has coached 123 career games as a No. 1 team, fourth most in NCAA history, trailing Krzyzewski (255), John Wooden (228) and Adolph Rupp (127)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of 89.4% trails only Wooden (95.2%) and is ahead of active coach Krzyzewski (85.8%)

Recruiting Trail

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players under John Calipari's than any other school. Nearly a quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects over the past 13 classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats. The following list is freshman signees only.

COACH CALIPARI

- Calipari is 6-4 vs. the AP top-ranked team in the land, including 3-2 at UK after defeating Michigan State in 2019-20
- According to ESPN, his 60.0% winning percentage against AP top-ranked teams is the best for any head coach

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100% of the players (23 of 23) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Brad Calipari, current Wildcat Zan Payne, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson, Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, Kentucky has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in six of the last seven single-year reports (numbers were not released last year due to the COVID-19 pandemic).

UK's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in May 2020, was a 994 out of 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the sixth year in a row for finishing in the top 10% of Division I men's basketball programs.

The Wildcats routinely perform well in the classroom, including posting a 3.122 grade-point average in the 2020 fall semester.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, John Calipari has helped 54 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 43 in his first 12 seasons at UK, more than any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than three No. 1 picks
- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 43 NBA Draft picks, 32 first-rounders (more than the entire Big Ten during the same time span), three No. 1 selections, seven top-five picks and 21 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 61 full-time scholarship players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari (did not transfer or leave the program early), 43 have been selected in the NBA Draft, a 70.5% success rate. Another seven of those made the NBA. This does not include the late Terrence Clarke
- Of the 30 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft at the conclusion of their freshman seasons, 27 have been first-round picks. All previous players have played game in the NBA. He is 31 for 34 when including his players from Memphis. This does not include the late Terrence Clarke
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012, Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in 12 straight drafts from 2008-19, the only school to do so during that time period
- Eight of his former players have been named NBA All-Stars (26 total and all since 2010), six have been tabbed All-NBA (11 times), three were named NBA Rookie of the Year, and 15 players from Calipari's first 11 teams at UK have made the NBA All-Rookie teams. Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011 and Davis won NBA All-Star MVP honors in 2017

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 40 top-25 Rivals.com players Kentucky has signed who did not transfer or leave the program early (and aren't still actively playing at UK), 34 were drafted and 26 were selected in the first round. But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros, they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Entering the 2021-22 NBA season, Calipari's NBA pros had amassed nearly $3.5 billion in career NBA contracts, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of his UK players in the NBA, they have nearly $3 billion in career contracts.

There's more: Of UK's 21 lottery picks in the Calipari era, 18 have earned second contracts in the NBA with 11 of them cashing in on max contracts. Of the four who haven't earned second contracts, all have been drafted in the last four years and are still on their rookie deal. Since Calipari's first draft class, 33 lottery selections have earned max contracts in the NBA. Eleven of those players are Kentucky alums. Duke (three), Georgetown (two) and Kansas (two) are the only other programs to have multiple lottery selections earn a max contract.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

John Calipari's teams have posted 19 streaks of 10 or more wins at Kentucky, Memphis and UMass, including six at UK. They have won 15 or more straight games nine times, 20 or more six times, 25 or more five times, and 30 or more once. Of course, the most famous streak was the 38-0 start during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari Nearly Perfect vs. Former Assistants

John Calipari has made it known that he doesn't enjoy coaching against friends. That hasn't stopped him from winning anyway. Calipari is 18-1 all-time when coaching against former assistants with a win over Tony Barbee and Central Michigan on Nov. 26, 2021. He suffered his first and only loss to a former assistant against former Memphis assistant Josh Pastner, now the head coach of Georgia Tech, on Dec. 6, 2020.

COACH CALIPARI

A “players-first” coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 54 players earn selection in the NBA Draft during his 30-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up nearly 800 on-court victories, 20 NCAA Tournament on-court appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

From UMass to Memphis and now Kentucky, Calipari’s career has been successful throughout, but his most recent run in Lexington has been the best stretch of his career. During Calipari’s first 12 seasons at UK, he has led all coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (31), Final Fours (four), Elite Eights (seven) and Sweet 16s (eight). He is in the top three in total wins (339) in that time span.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball’s first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at UMass, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport’s greatest program at Kentucky, he totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari’s on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped more than 50 young men realize their dreams and reach the NBA level with 54 players earning NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari’s help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are more than any other coach, and he has had 43 players drafted during his first 12 years at Kentucky, including 32 first-round picks, more than the entire Big Ten combined in that time span.

Calipari’s players have entered the league NBA-ready. His players have garnered 26 All-Star selections -- all since 2010 -- with Anthony Davis winning the game’s MVP honor in 2017. Derrick Rose was named NBA MVP in 2011. Six of his players have been tabbed All-NBA (11 times), three have been named NBA Rookie of the Year and 15 players from Calipari’s first 11 teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80%, Calipari has stressed academics. Seventeen of his last 20 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor’s degrees, and all 23 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including five players who earned their degree in just three years, including redshirt junior Zan Payne who completed his degree in August. Calipari’s teams routinely have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

Calipari has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and beyond. He has had a particular passion to assist those impacted by natural disasters. For instance, in 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. He followed that up with telethons in 2012, raising $1 million for victims of Superstorm Sandy, in 2017 for victims of Hurricane Harvey, and played a leading role in the “Kentucky United for Tornado Relief” telethon that is expected to reach $5 million at the end of December’s online portal.

Calipari launched his foundation in 2012, and since then the foundation has worked with several key partners and donated more than $1.5 million, a figure that does not include matching funds that have been contributed from individuals and corporations. In 2013, Calipari initiated hosting an annual alumni weekend around his basketball fantasy experience with the intent to raise money for charity. After generating $350,000 for selected organizations and charities during the inaugural game, the weekend has generated millions of dollars for charity since its inception.

In 2019, when federal workers were without pay due to a government shutdown, he, his wife and his foundation assisted workers with financial help and grocery gift cards. He and his wife, Ellen, teamed up with Fayette County Public Schools to help families in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

His latest efforts include spearheading the creation of the John McLendon Minority Leadership Initiative, a nationwide coach-driven initiative to provide minorities a jump-start to their careers through practical experiences, opportunities to build their network and instilling the values of John McLendon: integrity, education, leadership and mentorship. Participants in the initiative will be known as MLI Future Leaders.

In 2017, Coach Cal was named the head coach of the 2017 USA Basketball Men’s U19 World Cup Team, which finished third at the 2017 FIBA U19 World Cup in Cairo.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller “Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out,” Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that “it’s never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it’s about how high you bounce back.”

- Scored a season-high 14 points and grabbed a career-high seven boards vs. North Florida
- Made his 2021-22 regular-season debut with two 3-pointers and eight points in the win vs. Robert Morris
- In his first season on the floor in a Kentucky uniform in 2020-21, became a spark off the bench for the Wildcats in key moments, especially in SEC play
 - Two most memorable performances came vs. Mississippi State, combining to score 46 points on 16-of-28 shooting with 13 3-pointers, leading UK to a double-overtime victory in the first game and nearly guiding the Wildcats to a double-digit come-from-behind win in the SEC Tournament
 - After scoring a combined eight points in his previous nine appearances, recorded a career-high-tying 23 points on 8-of-15 shooting with six 3-pointers in the SEC Tournament loss to MSU
 - Named SEC Freshman of the Week on Jan. 4 after he enjoyed one of the all-time breakthrough performances with 23 points on 8-of-13 shooting, including 7 of 11 from 3, to fuel a nine-point comeback at Mississippi State, all career highs
 - Played just one minute over the previous three games and 20 career minutes
 - Just the sixth freshman in school history to make seven or more treys in a game
- Redshirted his freshman year after suffering a torn ACL in his left knee during his senior high school season, limiting his final year to just 13 games
- Became the first in-state signee for Kentucky since 2013
- 18th player in program history to earn Kentucky Mr. Basketball honors
- Concluded high school career with 3,255 points, 11th all-time in state history
- Averaged 42.9 points and 14.2 boards per game during his senior season
 - Dropped 50 or more points in six of his first 12 games
- Averaged 31.8 points and 11.4 rebounds per game during his junior season
 - Shot 59.1% from the floor and 39.6% from 3-point range
- Great size and frame, including an 86.5-inch wingspan and a team-high hand width of 11.5 inches
