Tip-Off

- Coming off a historic performance in the MAAC Tournament, the Saint Peter's men's basketball team makes its first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2010-11, facing off with the University of Kentucky Thursday night in Gainbridge Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.
- The Peacocks come into the matchup on a seven-game winning streak, knocking off Monmouth 60-54 in the MAAC title game. Kentucky, meanwhile, fell 69-62 against Tennessee in the SEC Tournament Semifinal. The Wildcats had won four straight prior to losing to the Vols.

Last Time Out

- Led by another dominant defensive effort and clutch shooting down the stretch, the Peacocks took down Monmouth 60-54 Saturday to win the MAAC Tournament championship for the first time since the 2010-11 season and the fourth time in program history.
- Senior KC Ndefo, who was named the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year earlier this season, was named the Tournament MVP after finishing the title game with seven points, seven rebounds, four blocked shots and two assists.
- Juniors Doug Edert and Matthew Lee both also earned spots on the MAAC All-Tournament team.
- Edert scored 10 of the Peacocks' final 12 points of the contest and finished 20 points in the championship to lead all scorers. The junior out of Nutley, N.J., hit the biggest shot of the game with 46 seconds left when he rose up and buried a 3-pointer to grow the Peacock lead from two to five. He would go on to knock down five free throws down the stretch to be named the Tournament game MVP.
- Lee, meanwhile, chipped in eight points shooting 50% from the floor and ended the tournament averaging 10.3 points per game across the three contests.
- As it has been all season, the Peacocks defense was suffocating throughout as they held the Hawks to just 23.5 percent from the floor and 15.8 percent from 3-point range. One night after limiting Quinnipiac to five made field goals in the second half, SPU one-upped themselves as they allowed just four made baskets against Monmouth in the title contest.
- SPU has now won seven straight contests to close out the regular season and MAAC Tournament and have clinched an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2010-11.

The Series

- This is the first meeting all-time between Saint Peter's and Kentucky.

Quick Hitters

- After nearly a month between games from Dec. 18 to Jan. 14, SPU has gone 16-5 in the 2022 calendar year to finish as the #2 seed in the MAAC and advanced to win the conference crown.
- Ndefo is the anchor of the Peacocks as he heads into the contest averaging 10.6 points, 6.2 rebounds, 2.7 blocks, 2.3 assists and 1.3 steals per game this season. He was named Second Team All-MAAC and is now the three-time defending MAAC Defensive Player of the Year.
- Daryl Banks III leads the Peacocks offensively overall on the season averaging 11.0 points per game this season. Banks has scored in double figures 18 times this season with 14 of those performances coming against MAAC opponents including in six of the last eight contests.
- SPU heads into the contest with one of the top defenses in the NCAA, leading the MAAC and ranking 19th in DI allowing just 61.8 points per game.
- After the win over Fairfield on Friday, Feb. 18, SPU won its 10th MAAC contest for the third consecutive season. It is the first time the Peacocks have won double-digit conference contests in three straight seasons since 1986-89.

Shot Blocking

- The 2021-22 MAAC Preseason Player of the Year, Ndefo now has a program-best career total of 296 blocks, good for the fourth-most among active players in DI.
- In the home win over Quinnipiac on Friday, Feb. 4, Ndefo swatted 11 shots to set the single-game program record for blocks in a game. It was tied for the second-most blocked shots all-time in a MAAC game.
- After leading the country in blocks per game in 2020-21, Ndefo is atop the MAAC and is 13th in the country with 2.73 blocked shots per game this season.

Money From the Stripe

- Saint Peter's has two of the top free throw shooters in the MAAC in Doug Edert and Banks III. Edert is the MAAC leader shooting 89.0 percent from the stripe this season while Banks is fourth shooting 85.1 percent from the line.
- From Nov. 27 to Jan. 26, Banks III made 34 straight free throws which is currently the fourth-longest streak in Division I this season.
- In total, the duo has missed just 21 free throws in 160 attempts headed into the contest.

- Banks III also sits in the top-10 in the MAAC shooting 36.4 percent from deep to rank 10th overall in the league.

Dancin' Peacocks

- SPU is headed to the Big Dance for the first time since winning the MAAC Title in the 2010-11 season. The Peacocks were a #14 seed in the 2011 tournament and fell in the opening round against #3 Purdue 65-43.
- The Peacocks have been to the NCAA Tournament two other times in NCAA history as well, appearing in the 1994-95 tourney as well as in 1990-91.
- Prior to their appearance in this year's tournament, SPU has previously earned a #15 seed in 95 and a #12 seed in 91 but have been unable to get over the hump as they currently sit 0-3 in NCAA Tournament games all-time.
- Head Coach Shaheen Holloway has experience in the NCAA Tournament as both a player and an assistant coach. In the 2000 NCAA Tournament as a student-athlete at Seton Hall, Holloway led the Pirates as a #10 seed to the Sweet Sixteen, hitting the game-winning shot in overtime against Oregon in the opening round.
- It is also the first postseason non-conference tournament appearance since 2017 when the Peacocks won the CIT Tournament title.

Up Next

- The winner of the first round game would go on to face off against the winner of [7] Murray State (30-2) and [10] San Francisco (24-9) on Saturday in Indianapolis.

SHAHEEN HOLLOWAY (SETON HALL '00)

HEAD COACH - FOURTH SEASON

Shaheen Holloway became the 15th head coach of the men's basketball program at Saint Peter's University in April 2018.

Holloway's success with the program continued during the 2020-21 tilt, his third season, leading the Peacocks to another top-3 MAAC finish by way of a 10-8 conference mark and 14-11 overall record. It was the first time since 2015-16 and 2016-17 that the program has had back to back 10+ MAAC win seasons and the first time since 2009-10 and 2010-11 that the Peacocks posted consecutive seasons with 10 or more MAAC wins and an overall winning record. The squad's third place finish combined with 2019-20's second place finish, secured the highest back to back rankings in consecutive seasons since 1987-88 and 1988-89. Additionally, the team was MAAC semifinalist for the first time since 2018. Holloway's unit also enjoyed individual success during the season as a number of individual accolades were earned in 2020-21. Under his leadership, Saint Peter's produced the NCAA Division I leader in blocked shots, a Lefty Driesell Defensive All-American Team member, the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, two All-MAAC selections, a MAAC All-Championship Team choice, a pair regional honorees and a program record five student-athletes to the MAAC All-Academic Team. Personally, Holloway was named a national finalist for the Ben Jobe Award by CollegelInsider.com.

In just his second season at the helm of the men's basketball program, Holloway was named as the 2020 The Rock MAAC Coach of the Year. He became the third head coach from Saint Peter's to win the conference's top coach award, joining Bob Dukiet (1982) and Ted Fiore (1987, 1989, and 1991). Holloway guided the Peacocks to an 18-12 overall record and 14-6 MAAC mark, good enough for a second-place finish, which was the best finish since 2016-17. Under his guidance, the team made the biggest NET Rankings improvement in the MAAC and 14th nationally from 2018-19 to 2019-20, improving by 105 spots. The 14 league wins under Holloway tied the program record for most conference victories in a season and the team's nine MAAC home wins were the most ever by the program. His team also won 11 games at the Yanitelli Center in 2019-20, the most in almost 30 years, having last been done in 1990-91. Holloway's squad ended the campaign as the conference leaders in field goal percentage defensive, rebounding margin, offensive rebounds, offensive rebounding percentage, blocked shots per game, and total blocks. Additionally, he guided the program to a MAAC record four major awards, a program record of four Peacocks to five All-MAAC teams, a MAAC record three freshmen to the All-Rookie Team, and a league-record five individual freshmen to MAAC Rookie of the Week awards.

The men's basketball team opened the 2018-19 campaign with a 93-86 overtime home win against Lafayette to jump start Holloway's first year at the helm. The Peacocks closed out the regular season as winners of 3 out of 4 games, improving two spots on the MAAC final standings chart. Holloway's squad advanced to the MAAC quarterfinal round after defeating Marist 71-68 in the first round. His duo of senior leaders in guard Davauhnte Turner and forward Samuel Idowu were top-ranked player in the MAAC. Turner ranked top-10 in scoring, assists, steals, free throw percentage, and 3-point field goals made, being named to the All-MAAC Third Team. Idowu became the program's fifth player to surpass 100 career blocks and finished his career fourth all-time in blocked shots, while leading the MAAC in blocked shots. Holloway's teams, behind the rim protection of Idowu and freshman KC Ndefo, led the MAAC and ranked third nationally in blocked shots to close out the 2018-19 season.

Holloway brings superlative credentials to Jersey City after spending the past eight seasons as the associate head coach at his alma mater, Seton Hall, under Kevin Willard. With Holloway on the sideline serving as Willard's top assistant, Seton Hall became one of the BIG EAST's premier programs, winning the 2015-16 BIG EAST Tournament title for the first time since 1993. In the last three seasons from 2016 to 2018, Seton Hall recorded three straight 20-win seasons, the first time the program had done that since 1991-93, and three straight BIG EAST seasons of 10 wins or more for the first time in program history. Holloway helped Seton Hall advance to the NCAA Tournament in three consecutive seasons and in 2018, the Pirates won the program's first NCAA Tournament game since 2004 with him on the bench. The Pirates also climbed back into the national rankings on multiple occasions. The Pirates enjoyed being ranked by the Associated Press 15 times with Holloway aboard since 2010, including a No. 13 ranking on Jan. 8, 2018, the highest the program had reached since 2001.

With Holloway serving as the lead recruiter, the Pirates experienced an abundant amount of success during his tenure, producing three Associated Press All-America honorable mention selections, 12 All-BIG EAST selections, three BIG EAST All-Rookies and 36 BIG EAST All-Academic team selections. His recruiting ability helped Seton Hall produce a top-15 national recruiting class in 2014 which included Isaiah Whitehead, the program's first McDonald's All-American since 2001, who went on to become a 2016 NBA Draft pick; Angel Delgado, the 2018 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award National Center of the Year and BIG EAST all-time rebounds leader; and Khadeen Carrington, who finished his Seton Hall career as the ninth all-time leading scorer.

Prior to joining Seton Hall, Holloway served on Willard's staff at Iona, where he helped turn the Gaels program around. Inheriting a team that went 2-28 in 2006-07, Holloway and Willard recruited and coached student-athletes to one of the greatest turnarounds in college basketball history as their 2009-10 team won 21 games to complete a 19-win turnaround in only their third year.

During his original stint on the Seton Hall coaching staff, Holloway was an administrative assistant for head coach Bobby Gonzalez from 2006-07. Holloway was responsible for coordinating film exchange, analyzing game tapes and assisting with scouting of opponents. He supervised fall conditioning as well as the year-round weight training program. Holloway was also responsible for academic progress reports for team members as well as the organization of all aspects of team travel for the Pirates.

Holloway started his coaching career serving as an assistant coach at the high school level at Bloomfield Tech.

Holloway was a four-year standout at Seton Hall from 1996-00 and helped lead his team to the 2000 NCAA Sweet Sixteen, where he hit the game-winning layup in overtime to defeat Oregon in the NCAA first round. A 2012 inductee of the Seton Hall Athletics Hall of Fame, Holloway's preeminent playing career landed him in the Seton Hall record books as the all-time assist leader with 681, 17th in scoring with 1,588 points, fourth in steals with 231 steals, and eighth with 185 three-pointers in 116 games. In 2000, he was named the BIG EAST's Most Improved Player, while earning All-BIG EAST status three times and All-Metropolitan accolades in each of his four seasons at Seton Hall.

After his collegiate success, Holloway played professionally in England for the Chester Jets and London Towers as well as a season in Ulm, Germany and Istanbul, Turkey. Back in the U.S., he had stints with the Brooklyn Kings of the USBL and Newark, Las Vegas and Chicago in the ABA. He was invited to three preseason NBA camps with the Knicks, Nets and Golden State Warriors.

The Queens, NY native was a McDonald's All-American who played at St. Patrick's High School in Elizabeth, NJ.

Holloway has three children, sons, Xavier and Tyson, and a daughter, Shatanik. He is married to Kim Holloway.
