IRON SHARPENS IRON

THE SERIES

- Tennessee trails the all-time series with Kentucky, 156-75, dating to 1910
- The Wildcats have a 53-51 edge when the series is played in Knoxville, but Tennessee has won four of five meetings at home under head coach Rick Barnes
- Overall, the Vols have won six of their last nine games vs. Kentucky.
- Tennessee overcame a 10-point second-half deficit to defeat the Wildcats by a score of 82-71 at Rupp Arena on Feb. 6. Freshman Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer combined for 50 points in the win.
- For more, see series and history notes on Page 3.

A WIN WOULD...

- Be Tennessee's seventh victory in its last 10 games against Kentucky.
- Give the Vols their first home-andhome sweep over Kentucky since 2018.

LAYUP LINES

- Kentucky big man Olivier Sarr is one of Yves Pons' closest friends. Both grew up in France, and they often played against one another before becoming teammates at INSEP Academy and on the French National Team.
- Tennessee's leading rebounder, Josiah-Jordan James, missed UT's last game with a left wrist injury.
- The Volunteers have spent the duration of the season ranked in the top 20 of the Associated Press Top-25 poll and are ranked No. 19 this week.
- Tennessee is No. 12 in the latest NCAA NET ratings.
- The true freshman duo of Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer have accounted for 44.7 percent of Tennessee's scoring over the last four games. More on Page 3.
- Yves Pons is a top-10 finalist for the Julius Erving Award and one of 15 candidates for the Naismith Men's Defensive Player of the Year.

DEFENSE WINS

- According to KenPom, the Vols rank third in the NCAA in adjusted defensive efficiency, allowing only 87.7 points per 100 possessions. College teams typically average close to 70 possessions per game.
- Tennessee ranks 18th in the NCAA in scoring defense, allowing just 62.3 points per game.
- The Vols are forcing 15.9 turnovers per game while converting those turnovers into 17.6 points per game. Tennessee's turnover margin stands at +3.9 (17th nationally).
- Tennessee has forced 15 of 20 opponents to turn the ball over on 20 percent or more of their possessions. The Vols are forcing opponents to turn it over 23.1 percent of the time this season.
- Only one time this season has a Tennessee opponent scored 80 or more points. That was Georgia, in a game the Vols won, 89-81, on Feb. 10.

SOCIAL

BY THE NUMBERS

There are only six active NCAA head coaches who have more career Division I wins to their credit than Rick Barnes (724).

Tennessee seniors John Fulkerson and Yves Pons are the only Vols ever to play in at least three wins at Kentucky's Rupp Arena.

That is the average NCAA NET rating of the five teams that have beaten Tennessee this season (as of Feb. 18).

NOTEWORTHY

SERIES HISTORY & NOTES

- The Kentucky series is UT's oldest and most-played among SEC opponents. The Vols and Wildcats first met on Feb. 5, 1910, and have clashed 231 times over the years.
- No program in college basketball has logged more wins over Kentucky than Tennessee (75).
- The Vols have beaten the Wildcats just six times at Rupp Arena, posting victories in 1977, 1979, 1999, 2006, 2018, 2020 and 2021.
- Tennessee has 15 all-time wins over the Wildcats at Thompson-Boling Arena, including four straight between 2016-19.
- Kentucky is one of only two SEC schools (Alabama) to lead its all-time series against the Volunteers.
- Four Tennessee All-Americans were Kentucky natives: Allan Houston, Chris Lofton, Danny Schultz and Paul "Lefty" Walther.
- Saturday is only the 13th meeting in the series for which Tennessee is ranked in the AP top 25 and Kentucky is not. Kentucky holds a 7-5 edge in such matchups.

RIVALRY RECHARGED

- Since Rick Barnes' arrival on Rocky Top, the border rivalry with the Kentucky Wildcats has been recharged in a major way.
- Barnes has led the Volunteers to an 8-5 overall record against the Wildcats, including at least one win in each of the last six seasons.
- Since current UK coach John Calipari has been in Lexington, Tennessee is the only program to have logged wins over Kentucky for six straight seasons.
- Tennessee also is the first program to defeat Kentucky at least once for six straight seasons since 1985;
 Tennessee beat the Wildcats in seven straight seasons from 1979-85 while Alabama managed an eight-year win streak over UK from 1978-85.
- Spanning the first six years of the Barnes era at UT, the Vols are 4-1 against Kentucky in Knoxville, 3-3 vs. the Cats in Lexington and 1-1 against UK in neutral-site clashes at the SEC Tournament.

CALIPARI AMONG TENNESSEE'S MOST-FACED ACTIVE COACHES

 On Saturday, John Calipari will coach his 31st career game against the Vols. Among active college coaches, he has the most career meetings against Tennessee.

COACH	MEETINGS	UT's RECORD vs.
John Calipari	30	13-17
Tubby Smith	26	7-19
Frank Martin	15	11-4
Mark Gottfried	13	4-9

VOLS HAVE 13 WINS AGAINST CALIPARI 2.0

 Since UK coach John Calipari returned to the college game in 2000-01, Tennessee has dealt him 13 losses.
 No team has more wins over Calipari-coached teams during that span.

TEAM	WINS
TENNESSEE	13

DISCOVERY IN LEXINGTON

- Necessity—foul trouble for John Fulkerson and a 10-point deficit midway through the second half—led to the discovery of a new wrinkle in Tennessee's offensive arsenal during its come-from-behind win at Kentucky Feb. 6.
- Facing an uphill climb, Rick Barnes deployed a fourguard lineup of Santiago Vescovi, Jaden Springer, Keon Johnson, Josiah-Jordan James and Yves Pons.
- That lineup outscored Kentucky 19-6 in the close to seven minutes it was on the floor, and the Vols have continued to regularly rely on a four-guard look.

THE SWITCH HAS BEEN FLIPPED

- Five-star freshmen Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer were solid role players through Tennessee's first nine SEC games. But over the last four SEC outings, the duo has taken control of the Vols' offense.
- The duo went from accounting for 24.4 percent of Tennessee's scoring in its first nine SEC games to providing 44.7 of the team's scoring in the last four league games.

COMBINED	COMBINED
TOTAL POINTS	PPG
142	15.8 ppg
147	36.8 ppg
	TOTAL POINTS

SPRINGER EFFICIENT & ESSENTIAL

- When not sidelined by injury, freshman Jaden Springer has displayed remarkable poise and efficiency.
- The 2020 McDonald's All-American is shooting .514 (75-146) overall and .536 (15-28) from 3-point range.
- The true freshman phenom is the team's leading scorer at 12.4 ppg while only attempting 8.1 field goals per game. His plus-minus rating is +9.4 per game.
- The Vols lost to Alabama on Jan. 2, a game Springer left early with an ankle injury after logging only five minutes of action. And after Springer reinjured the ankle late in the win over Vanderbilt on Jan. 16, UT lost its next two games while he was sidelined.
- During the two losses in which he did not play, plus the portion of the Alabama game after Springer was sidelined, Tennessee was outscored 205-162.

KEON PLAYING LIKE A PHENOM

- Five-star freshman guard Keon Johnson is performing like one of the best defenders in the SEC early in his career as a Vol.
- He leads the Vols in charges drawn (10) and floor burns/diving efforts (10) and ranks tied for third in total steals (19). He also has eight blocks.
- Johnson had an offensive coming-out party Feb. 6 at Kentucky when he erupted for a season-high 27 points in Tennessee's comeback win.
- He is now Tennessee's second-leading scorer in SEC play, averaging 11.3 points per game. His 2.6 assists per game in SEC play rank third on the team.

WINDICATORS

- Tennessee under Rick Barnes is 59-6 when holding its opponent below a .390 field-goal percentage.
- Tennessee under Rick Barnes is 53-3 when it takes a double-digit lead into halftime.

ABOUT KENTUCKY

- After falling to Tennessee earlier this month, Kentucky has played in three consecutive games decided by five points or less. On Feb. 9, they lost a one-point nail-biter to Arkansas, 81-80, before taking down Auburn, 82-80, on Saturday. Most recently, the Wildcats beat Vanderbilt, 82-78, Wednesday. The Wildcats hold a record of 7-13 overall, and 6-7 in SEC play, heading into Saturday's rematch with the Vols.
- Even through a bit of a down year, Kentucky continues to see balanced production across its entire lineup, as five players average 10 or more points per game and four players average five or more rebounds.
- Freshman Brandon Boston Jr. continues to lead UK in scoring through 20 games, averaging 12.2 points per contest. He also has been efficient on the glass, averaging 5.0 rebounds per game, which ranks fourth on the team.
- Isaiah Jackson also has been a force on the glass, leading Kentucky and ranking seventh in the SEC with 6.9 rebounds per game. Despite his average dropping slightly since the last matchup between the Vols and Cats, Jackson is still blocking shots at an SEC-leading clip of 2.7 per game, with a total of 54 rejections on the year.
- Across the board, Kentucky's most consistent performer has been senior Olivier Sarr. Sarr ranks second on the team in scoring (10.5 ppg), rebounding (5.5 rpg) and blocked shots (1.3 bpg).
- Lexington—known as the horse capital of the world—is home to a public library that features the world's largest ceiling clock. That clock houses a series of photos that depict the movement of a horse taken in 1872 by Eadweard Muybridge. His photos are said to be the origin of motion pictures.

LAST MEETING WITH KENTUCKY

- A combined 50 points from five-star freshmen Jaden Springer and Keon Johnson and a momentumshifting 26-6 second-half run propelled the No. 11 Tennessee basketball team past Kentucky, 82-71, on Feb. 6, 2021, at Rupp Arena.
- The Tennessee triumph made Rick Barnes the only active head coach to lead his team to at least three wins at Rupp Arena as the visitor.
- The win was also the first time UT has beaten Kentucky in back-to-back games at Rupp.
- Tennessee seniors Yves Pons and John Fulkerson also became the first Vols ever to play in three victories at Rupp Arena.
- Johnson finished the night with a team-leading and season-high 27 points—17 of which came in the second half—on 9-of-16 shooting while also drilling 9-of-11 from the foul line. He also logged four rebounds, one block and a steal.
- Springer, meanwhile, erupted for 23 points on 9-of-17 shooting, scoring 14 in the second half. He also recorded five rebounds and two blocks.
- Sophomore stat-sheet-stuffer Josiah-Jordan James came off the bench to log his first career double-double, finishing the night with 10 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks.
- Victor Bailey Jr. had a productive night off the bench, totaling nine points and four rebounds in 24 minutes.
- The Vols battled through foul trouble in the opening half as Kentucky drew 15 fouls and went 13-of-15 from the line to take a 42-34 lead into the break.
- The opening 10 minutes of the second half saw both teams trade blows before Tennessee exploded for a 12-0 run to take a 60-58 lead with just more than eight minutes to play.
- The Vols extended the run to 26-6 over a nine-minute span to build a 74-64 lead at the under-four-minute media timeout.

MEMORABLE VOL PERFORMANCES AGAINST KENTUCKY

- Kevin Punter Jr.'s 27 points were the most scored by a Vol against the Kentucky in 10 years as Tennessee defeated the Wildcats, 84-77, Feb. 2, 2016, in Knoxville. The senior point guard made three 3-pointers and was 11-of-12 at the free-throw line.
- Chris Lofton reeled off 31 points, Major Wingate scored 12 and longtime NBA point guard C.J. Watson added 10 as No. 11 Tennessee beat Kentucky 75-67 at Rupp Arena on Feb. 7, 2006.
- Beating the Wildcats was three times as nice during the 1978-79 season. UT notched program win No. 900 in Lexington on Jan. 20, 66-55, before topping UK 101-84 in Knoxville on Feb. 17. Then the Vols won the 1979 SEC Tournament with a 75-69 win over UK in Birmingham, Alabama, on March 3. Current Vol Network radio analyst Bert Bertelkamp was a junior on that Tennessee team.
- As Bernard King walked off the court at Memorial Gym after a deflating 88-82 loss on Jan. 13, 1975, a Kentucky fan flipped a lit cigarette into the Tennessee legend's hair. Outraged, King vowed he would never lose to Kentucky again. He vigorously carried out that promise, finishing his career 5-1 against the Wildcats.

BARNES + CALIPARI = 1,450+ WINS

- Saturday's game features the two winningest coaches (total career Division I wins) in the SEC.
- John Calipari is the league's active leader in career wins, with 740. Rick Barnes is a close second with 724 victories to his credit.
- Among all active Division I head coaches, Calipari and Barnes rank sixth and tied for seventh, respectively, in total head coaching wins.
- Barnes and Calipari became friends while working a Pitt basketball camp in the late 1970s. The star player at that camp? Current Arizona head coach Sean Miller.

TENNESSEE HAS BEEN A MAINSTAY IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

- Tennessee has made 53 appearances in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll during the Rick Barnes era. The Vols are listed at No. 19 this week.
- In 2018-19, for the first time in program history, the Volunteers spent the entire season—20 polls—in the AP top 10. Tennessee spent four straight weeks at No. 1.

WIN/LOSS COMPARISON

 Several statistical differences stand out in a comparison of Tennessee's wins vs. its losses.

WINS	STATISTIC	LOSSES
79.1	Points Per Game	58.2
59.8	Points Allowed Per Game	69.8
.368	3-Point Percentage	.299
.384	FG Pct. Defense	.453
.778	Free Throw Percentage	.619
+5.6	Turnover Margin	-1.2

VOLS' SCORING WELL BALANCED; HIGH-POWERED SCORER LACKING

- Since 2000, Tennessee's top scorer has averaged fewer than 14.0 ppg only five times—see chart below.
- Never in the modern era (since 1951) has UT's top scorer averaged fewer than 12.0 ppg.

PLAYER	SEASON	PPG
Vincent Yarbrough	2000-01	13.9 ppg
Wayne Chism	2009-10	12.6 ppg
Trae Golden	2011-12	13.6 ppg
Robert Hubbs III	2016-17	13.7 ppg
John Fulkerson	2019-20	13.7 ppg
Jaden Springer	2020-21	12.4 ppg

PONS VYING FOR NATIONAL DPOY

- Yves Pons was one of only two SEC players to earn a spot on the 15-man candidate list for this year's Naismith Men's Defensive Player of the Year Award.
- Pons is the reigning SEC Defensive Player of the Year, and he also is a top-10 finalist for the Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year Award.
- Pons' plus/minus rating is +8.5 per game this season. He leads the Vols and ranks fourth in the SEC with 2.0 blocks per game during SEC play.
- There is no position on the court—no opposing player that he is incapable of guarding effectively.

CHECKMATE

Undated: Feb. 15

- The current fad occupying the Vols during their downtime is chess—a hobby inspired by the popular Netflix series, The Queen's Gambit. Several Vols play matches against one another on their phones.
- Most point to Santiago Vescovi as the man to beat.

BAILEY MADE MOST OF YEAR OFF

- After transferring from Oregon in the summer of 2019, junior guard Victor Bailey Jr. sat out last season.
- Bailey started each of the Vols' first eight games before sliding into a reserve role and is the team's secondleading scorer with 10.6 points per game.
- Bailey played in 73 games in his two years at Oregon, including eight starts, and averaged 7.0 points in 17.9 minutes per game. As a sophomore in 2018-19, he scored in double figures 13 times and dropped a season-high 20 points on UCLA.
- Bailey's mother, 1996 Olympic bronze medalist Tonja Buford-Bailey, was a track coach at Texas while Rick Barnes was leading the Longhorns' hoops program.
- Bailey Jr.'s father, Victor Bailey Sr., was a second-round NFL Draft pick out of Missouri in 1993 (wide receiver).

VESCOVI CLUTCH AT THE FREE-THROW LINE IN CRUNCH TIME

- Sophomore Santiago Vescovi has proven to deliver at the free-throw line in crunch time for the Vols.
- For his career, Vescovi is 33 of 34 from the foul line in the final four minutes of regulation and all of overtime. That's a near-automatic percentage of .971.
- Vescovi is a perfect 14-for-14 in crunch time this season.

FULKY FUN FACT

- Credit to Grant Ramey of GoVols247.com for this gem.
- John Fulkerson's career as a Vol has spanned the tenure of three different U.S. Presidents.
- Obama occupied the Oval Office when Fulky first enrolled. Fulkerson's time at UT exceeded Trump's tenure in the White House. And Fulky dropped 15 points on the eve of Biden's inauguration.

TEAM NOTES

DIPLOMA CULTURE

- John Fulkerson is playing his entire senior season as a college graduate, as he earned his degree in Recreation and Sport Management in May of 2020.
- While Tennessee's basketball skill development has made headlines nationally since Rick Barnes took over as the Vols' head coach prior to the 2015-16 season, early graduation has been equally as impressive during that span.
- During the Barnes era, the following Vols completed their degree requirements before the end of their senior season: Fulkerson, Kyle Alexander (now in the NBA), Jacob Fleschman, Jalen Johnson, Lamonté Turner and Grant Williams (now in the NBA).

TENNESSEE ADDS NATION'S FOURTH-RANKED SIGNING CLASS

- Tennessee's crop of newcomers is arguably the most prolific in program history.
- UT's Class of 2020 was rated No. 4 nationally by Rivals and No. 5 nationally by 247sports and ESPN.
- The class is highlighted by guards Keon Johnson (Rivals No. 16, 247Sports No. 22, ESPN No. 26) and Jaden Springer (Rivals No. 15, 247Sports No. 16, ESPN No. 16) and forward Corey Walker Jr. (Rivals No. 57, 247Sports No. 57, ESPN No. 73).
- The incoming crop was bolstered last summer, when veteran forward E.J. Anosike—a 1,000-point scorer and one of the top rebounders in Division I—joined the Vols as a grad transfer from Sacred Heart University.

GREAT GENES

- Several current Vols are blessed with athletic genes from their parents.
- Victor Bailey Jr.'s father was an NFL wide receiver, and his mother, Tonja Buford-Bailey, is an Olympic-medalwinning hurdler.
- Josiah-Jordan James' father, Kurt James, was a college teammate of Magic Johnson at Michigan State.
- Keon Johnson's mother, Conswella Johnson (then Conswella Sparrow) was a two-time All-SEC basketball player at Auburn.
- Jaden Springer's father, Gary Springer, starred at Iona before he was selected by the 76ers in the 1984 NBA Draft
- Drew Pember's parents both were student-athletes at nearby Carson-Newman University. His mother, Allison, played volleyball for the Eagles, while his father, Donny Pember, played basketball.

NEW AD WHITE HAS HOOPS DNA

- Tennessee's new director of athletics, Danny White, is a former college basketball student-athlete who played at both Towson (198-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-02).
- White's father, Kevin White, is a legendary career AD who recently announced his retirement following a long career at Duke. Danny's older brother, Mike White, played basketball at Ole Miss and is now the head coach at Florida.

"QUOTABLES"

COMMENTS THAT TELL A STORY

"Those two bullied us. They were the best two guards on the court, whether they're freshmen, seniors ... they were the best two—because they were physical and they bullied us. It wasn't like they were jacking threes and going nuts. They just did whatever they wanted to on the court."

- Kentucky head coach John Calipari (on Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer)

"I've seen what I could call two great defensive teams in my career. The Texas Tech team that made national championship game two years ago, and potentially this (Tennessee) team."

- Cincinnati head coach John Brannen

"He has a knack to rebound the basketball, and on the defensive side where that can really help us is if he rebounds the ball, he can lead the break, because Santiago or any one of our guards can run the wings. Whether he's at the two, the three, the four, or the point guard spot, if he rebounds and he can lead the break, that puts us in a really good position with our transition offense."

- Associate head coach Mike Schwartz (on Josiah-Jordan James)

"At 6-foot-5 and 190 pounds, he can guard anyone from point guards to wings. He's incredible on the ball, having shown the ability to just eat up an opposing team's best player multiple times already despite the season being so young. He can flip his hips and beat a driver to a spot. He can jump passing lanes. He never gets screened. He never seems to get tired."

- Rob Dauster, The Rebound (on Keon Johnson)

"Pons is the best all-around defensive player in all of college basketball, and I don't say that lightly. I know the weight behind it, and I fully believe that statement. I think that people drastically overuse the phrase 'he can guard all five positions,' but Yves Pons can quite literally guard all five positions, especially at the college level. Combine that with the fact that he can make a face-up three and that he is just a great kid with an impressive work ethic, and that's why I thought he should have been a top-40 pick in this year's draft."

- Rob Dauster, The Rebound (on Yves Pons)

JO-JO DOING A BIT OF EVERYTHING

- After starting his Tennessee career as a point guard, Josiah-Jordan James has steadily expanded into a versatile, almost positionless, plug-and-play marvel.
- The 6-6 sophomore has been starting on the wing this season, but he also has slid into the post for some minutes at the No. 4 spot. When the Vols "go small," James' all-around game enables him to use his size and strength to play effectively in the frontcourt.

TRACKING TENNESSEE'S DEFENSE

- Tennessee has drawn 36 charges through 20 games this season. Keon Johnson has a team-high 10.
- The Vols also have forced five five-second calls and five shot-clock violations.
- UT has won the turnover battle in 17 of its 20 games.
- Tennessee's opponents' top scorer this season averages 17.0 ppg. And only seven opposing players have scored 20 or more points vs. the Vols this season.

SANTI'S TRIAL BY FIRE

- Santiago Vescovi didn't get to ease his way into college basketball. It wasn't until the 22nd game of his career—the third game of his sophomore season—that he took the court against a mid-major opponent.
- Vescovi's first 21 college games came against SEC teams, Kansas, Colorado and Cincinnati. His first action against a non-high-major team was the Dec. 15 game against Applachian State.

BACK IN URUGUAY, THE PANDEMIC DIDN'T SLOW VESCOVI

- Santiago Vescovi flew home to Uruguay immediately after last season was halted and remained there until returning to Tennessee at the end of July.
- While his UT teammates who returned to campus in June were limited to physically distanced shooting drills, he was able to play high-level 5-on-5 games in his hometown of Montevideo, where the pandemic's impact was (at that time) minimal.
- Rick Barnes has stated multiple times that Vescovi is now in the best shape of his career.

ROCKY TOP IS SOUTHPAW CENTRAL

- The Vols started five lefties in each of their first eight games and are now starting three lefties.
- A December survey of all Division I SIDs yielded no other team that had started five southpaws this season.
- While most studies estimate that 10 percent of the population is left-handed, lefties make up nearly half of this Tennessee basketball team. Seven current Vols are "southpaws."
- Tennessee's left-handers include: Victor Bailey Jr., John Fulkerson, Davonte Gaines, Josiah-Jordan James, Cole Morris, Yves Pons and Santiago Vescovi.
- Tennessee has more left-handed players than any other team in the SEC this season, as no other conference team has more than four.

VOLS' DEPTH A WEAPON

- The stars have aligned for the Vols, as Rick Barnes' boasts the deepest roster of his Tennessee tenure during a pandemic year in which COVID-19 could sideline players at any time.
- \bullet No player averages more than 28.9 minutes per game.
- During SEC play, no Vol ranks among the league's top 20 in minutes played.
- At least eight different Vols have scored in 16 of 20 games this season.

VOLS COLLECTING "OF THE YEAR" HARDWARE

- Over the last three seasons, the Tennessee basketball program has collected six major "of the year" awards at the national or SEC level.
- Head coach Rick Barnes was the 2018 SEC Coach of the Year and 2018 Naismith National Coach of the Year.
- Consensus All-American Grant Williams won back-toback SEC Player of the Year awards in 2018 and 2019.
- Guard Lamonté Turner was named SEC Co-Sixth Man of the Year as a sophomore in 2018.
- And most recently, Yves Pons earned the SEC Defensive Player of the Year award in 2020.
- Pons and John Fulkerson were both among players who received preseason media votes for 2021 SEC Player of the Year.

CHANDLER, MASHACK SET TO JOIN VOLS NEXT SEASON

- Five-star point guard Kennedy Chandler and top-50 wing Jahmai Mashack signed with Tennessee in November and will join the Vols as freshmen next year.
- The top-ranked point guard in the Class of 2021 and the No. 12-rated player in the nation according to ESPN, Chandler is on the Atlanta Tipoff Club's Naismith High School Boys Midseason Team.
- Mashack is a 6-5 wing from Fontana, California. Basketball recruiting analysts have described him as a physical wing with ideal toughness and physicality and one of the top defenders in his class.

ELITE REBOUNDER ANOSIKE BOLSTERS VOLS' FRONTCOURT

- Graduate transfer E.J. Anosike enrolled at UT this summer after scoring 1,098 points in his three previous years at Sacred Heart University.
- The younger brother of former Lady Vols national champion forward/center and 2008 NCAA Woman of the Year Nicky Anosike, E.J. started 65 straight games the last two seasons.
- Last season at Sacred Heart, Anosike ranked among the top 20 in all of Division I in offensive rebounds per game (4.18, fourth), total rebounds per game (11.6 rpg, sixth), double-doubles (18, seventh) and defensive rebounds per game (7.42, 19th).

VOLS' ROSTER BOASTS INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

- Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes has vastly expanded the program's recruiting pipelines since arriving on Rocky Top, including internationally. The 2020-21 roster includes four international student-athletes and five total nationalities.
- Reigning SEC Defensive Player of the Year Yves Pons, from Fuveau, France, returns this year after exploring a potential jump to the NBA.
- Pons—who was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti—attended the INSEP (National Institute of Sport and Physical Education) Academy in Paris. Other notable INSEP basketball alums include Boris Diaw, Tony Parker and Ronny Turiaf.
- The Vols' other international team members this season are sophomores Olivier Nkamhoua, from Helsinki, Finland, Uroš Plavšic, from Ivanjica, Serbia, and Santiago Vescovi, from Montevideo, Uruguay.
- Nkamhoua's mother is Scottish/Finnish, and his father hails from Cameroon.
- Since his hiring in 2015, Barnes has signed six international players for the Vols, including two from Canada. The Tennessee roster has included at least one international student-athlete every year since Barnes took over as head coach.

VOLS', LADY VOLS' IN 1K CLUB

 Tennessee is one of only 10 Division I schools whose men's and women's basketball programs have both won more than 1,000 games.

FACILITIES NOTES

ELITE ATTENDANCE

- · For the second consecutive year, Tennessee finished fourth nationally in average home attendance last year. The Vols drew an average of 18,990 fans to 17 games at Thompson-Boling Arena.
- Tennessee's average home attendance in 2018-19 and 2019-20 ranked seventh and eighth, respectively, in program history.
- The Vols have ranked among the top 20 in men's college basketball attendance for 16 consecutive years, including nine seasons ranked in the top five nationally.
- Tennessee's total number of season tickets sold last year (15,500) exceeded the average home attendance of all but 11 Division I programs. In other words, before selling any single-game tickets, the Vols were already assured of finishing at least 12th in average home attendance for 2019-20 (they finished fourth).

HOME HOOPS DURING THE BARNES ERA

- The Volunteers own a 77-19 record at Thompson-Boling Arena under the direction of head coach Rick Barnes.
- With Barnes on the bench, Tennessee is 37-15 at home against SEC opposition.
- The Vols' recent 31-game home win streak was longest of the Barnes era and also was the third-longest home win streak in program history (it ended Dec. 14, 2019).
- Barnes has led the Vols to a 5-7 home record against AP top-25 opponents.

PANDEMIC PROTOCOLS LEAD TO ADJUSTED SEATING PLAN

- To comply with health and safety recommendations from the CDC, local officials and the Southeastern Conference, Tennessee has implemented an adjusted-seating ticket plan at Thompson-Boling Arena this season.
- Gameday capacity will be close to 4,000—or about 18 percent of the venue's normal capacity (21,678).
- To allow for a mandatory 12-foot buffer between the general public and essential personnel on and around the court, the first five rows of the arena's lower bowl will
- SEC guidelines for indoor events explicitly state that all references to "physically distanced" means a minimum of six feet. Thus, seating pods will be spaced at least six feet apart throughout the arena.
- · All available ticket inventory sold out in November.

COMMITMENT TO BASKETBALL

- Prior to the 2007-08 season, UT added a basketball-only practice facility, Pratt Pavilion, which houses two full-size gyms as well as an athletic training room, weight room and film-study room.
- · Construction of Pratt Pavilion also marked the beginning of the "first phase" of renovations to Thompson-Boling Arena. This $19 million phase included the addition of 32 luxury suites located in the north balcony, a loge area just below the suites that includes 166 side court seats. new seats for the entire arena, a $3 million center-hung scoreboard and concourse refurbishments, such as graphics and other amenities.
- In the "second phase" of Thompson-Boling Arena renovations, the athletics department overhauled the men's and women's basketball offices during the 2010-11 campaign, creating a new and impressive "front door" for both programs.
- · New to Thompson-Boling Arena for the 2013-14 season was a 360-degree LED ribbon board that runs along the bottom of the upper deck.
- In March of 2014, Thompson-Boling Arena became the third college basketball arena to install an LED lighting system, which features fixtures that are smaller, brighter, and up to 85 percent more efficient than conventional arena metal halide lights.
- · The weight room in Pratt Pavilion was renovated and expanded to 4,350 square feet in the summer of 2016. Additions include a full-court-length stretch of synthetic turf, a custom rubber floor, a 40-foot, steel-reinforced throwing wall, six Keiser Functional Trainers, four TRUEStretch Cages, three custom, 10foot Power Lift pulley units (ideal for taller student-athletes), seven sets of 90-pound PowerBlocks and a zoned, high-powered stereo system.
- In September 2018, work concluded on a $5 million locker-room renovation at Thompson-Boling Arena. In addition to the beautifully revamped spaces for the men's and women's teams, the Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex also includes an athletic training facility featuring world-class hydrotherapy systems.

MISC NOTES

DOMINANT WIN AT MIZZOU HISTORIC

 Tennessee's 20-point win (73-53) at then-12th-ranked Missouri to open SEC play on Dec. 30 stands as UT's largest margin of victory on the road against a top-25 opponent in program history.

WILLIAMS' WORDS PROPHETIC

- Before he developed from a three-star prospect to a two-time SEC Player of the Year, consensus first-team All-American and first-round NBA Draft pick after just three seasons at Tennessee—and don't forget, he also graduated—Grant Williams had this to say while he was still a high school senior...
- "We're not coming in just to be that foundation. We're coming in to start something and create something that's going to last forever... We want to be that huge burst that comes to Tennessee. I think we're national championship contenders in a few years."
- As a rookie with the Boston Celtics last season, Williams played meaningful playoff minutes into the Eastern Conference finals.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- The Vols' 2020-21 roster features 17 players (13 scholarship student-athletes) representing eight states as well as Finland, France, Serbia and Uruguay.
- There are five Vols who hail from the state of Tennessee, two from North Carolina and one each from Florida, Georgia, New Jersey, New York, South Carolina and Texas.
- UT has three seniors, two juniors, seven sophomores and five freshmen.
- Six Vols stand 6-5 or shorter, and 11 are 6-6 or taller.

THREE WE MISS

- Last season was a farewell tour for three Vols who were key to establishing the culture of the Tennessee basketball program under Rick Barnes.
- Guards Lamonté Turner and Jordan Bowden both were 1,000-point scorers and impactful two-way players. Bowden was invited to attend training camp with the NBA's Brooklyn Nets.
- Veteran wing Jalen Johnson provided important depth for three seasons before earning his degree and transitioning to Wake Forest as a grad transfer.

VOLS WELL REPRESENTED IN THE NBA

- Six Tennessee alums are active in the NBA, including four who were recruited and coached by Rick Barnes.
- Forward Tobias Harris (2010-11) is a regular starter for the Philadelphia 76ers and is one of the team's top scorers. He was named the NBA's Eastern Conference Player of the Week on Jan. 4.
- Guard Josh Richardson (2011-15) is with a new team this season, after a draft-night trade in November sent him from Philadelphia to the Dallas Mavericks. For his career, Richardson averages 12.4 points and shoots .363 from 3-point range.
- As a rookie last season, forward Grant Williams (2016-19) made a deep playoff run, as his Boston Celtics advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals. Williams earned meaningful minutes throughout the playoffs.
- Admiral Schofield (2015-19) appeared in 33 games as a rookie with the Washington Wizards last season. He was cut shortly after being traded to Oklahoma City this winter, but the Greensboro Swarm made him the No. 1 overall pick in the G League Draft on Jan. 11.
- Point guard Jordan Bone (2016-19), saw action in 10 games as a rookie with the Detroit Pistons last season. Bone signed with the Orlando Magic in November.
- New York Knicks Assistant GM Allan Houston (1989-93) continues to play a key insider's role with the franchise he once starred for. He also serves as GM of the NBA G-League's Westchester Knicks.

MULTIPLE VOLS ON 2021 NBA MOCK DRAFT BOARDS

- Multiple Vols are projected as potential selections in the 2021 NBA Draft.
- In The Athletic's mock draft, Keon Johnson is listed as the No. 5 overall pick, Jaden Springer is projected at No. 38, and Yves Pons is listed as the No. 48 pick.
- And in ESPN.com's latest mock draft, Johnson lands at No. 7, while Springer is listed at No. 31.
- Gary Parrish of CBSsports.com and Eric Bossi of 247sports.com both also project Johnson as a lottery pick this summer.
- Tennessee had three upperclassmen selected in the 2019 NBA Draft, with Grant Williams going in the first round and Admiral Schofield and Jordan Bone taken in the second round.
- With Johnson projected as a possible top-10 pick, it's worth noting that Tennessee has previously produced four top-10 draft picks in Tom Boerwinkle (4th in 1968), Bernard King (7th in 1977), Ernie Grunfeld (11th in 1977) and Dale Ellis (9th in 1983).

BARNES 18th ON DIVISION I WINS LIST

- When the Vols defeated Jacksonville State on Dec. 21, 2019, Rick Barnes became the seventh active head coach (and the 22nd all-time) to log 700 Division I victories.
- Barnes currently ranks tied for 18th on the all-time Division I list with 724 wins (tied with Ray Meyer).
- Norm Stewart and Jerry Tarkanian are just ahead of Barnes and tied for 17th all-time with 729 victories.

UNDER BARNES, VOLS ARE 70-22 AS AN AP-RANKED TEAM

 Tennessee has played 92 games as a ranked team (AP poll) under head coach Rick Barnes, and the Vols are 70-22 (.761) in those contests.

TOP SPOT: BARNES IS ONE OF SIX

- Rick Barnes led Texas to the No. 1 ranking for two weeks in January 2010. He most recently guided Tennessee to four straight weeks at No. 1 in 2019.
- He is one of six coaches ever to lead multiple schools to a No. 1 ranking: John Calipari, Frank McGuire, Rick Pitino, Eddie Sutton and Roy Williams.

TENNESSEE'S 2019 SWEET SIXTEEN PUT RICK BARNES IN RARE COMPANY

- Rick Barnes in 2019 became one of only a dozen head coaches ever to lead at least three different schools to an NCAA Tournament Round of 16 appearance (Clemson, Texas, Tennessee).
- The 12 coaches who have led at least three different schools to the Round of 16 are: Lon Kruger (has done it with four schools), Barnes, Gene Bartow, John Calipari, Frank McGuire, Ralph Miller, Rick Pitino, Bruce Pearl, Bill Self, Eddie Sutton, Tubby Smith and Bruce Weber.

BARNES CLAIMED TWO 2019 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR AWARDS

- Rick Barnes in 2019 earned his first two career National Coach of the Year awards, as he received the Werner Ladder Naismith Trophy for Men's College Coach of the Year Award and the USBWA's Henry Iba National Coach of the Year Award.
- One year after leading Tennessee to the 2018 SEC Championship and a 26-9 overall record, Barnes guided the 2018-19 Volunteers to a 31-5 mark. That impressive record included a school-record 19-game winning streak and three victories over top-five opponents.
- The 2018-19 Vols spent four weeks atop the Associated Press Top 25 rankings. And for the first time in program history, Tennessee spent the entire season ranked among the top 10.

- Walk-on forward has seen action in 12 games during his career, including one game this season.
- Saw his first action of 2020-21 in the Vols' home victory over Tennessee Tech (12/18/20).
- Earned the VOLScholar patch on his jersey after posting a GPA of 3.0 or higher for the Fall semester.
- Graduated from Knoxville Catholic High School, where he earned TSWA All-State honors as a senior after averaging 21.0 points and eight rebounds per game.
- His father, John Jancek, was the Tennessee football program's defensive coordinator from 2013-15 and held that same title at Colorado State in 2018 and 2019; he is now a football quality control analyst at Georgia.
- His younger brother, Jack, is a former high school quarterback who is now a freshman receiver on the Volunteers football team.
- His older brother, Zac, was a quarterback on the Tennessee football team and completed his eligibility in 2018.

(i) @IAMKEONJOHNSON

- Leads the team in charges drawn (10) and floor burns/diving efforts (10).
- Named SEC Freshman of the Week (2/8/21) following stellar performances at Ole Miss and Kentucky, as he averaged 19.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists per game with just one turnover (7.0 assist/turnover ratio).
- Scored 11 points in the home win against Georgia (2/10/21), highlighted by a Sportscenter-worthy poster dunk to help spark the Vols in the second half.
- Erupted for a season-high 27 points—17 in the second half—to help lead UT to victory over Kentucky at Rupp Arena (2/6/21); it was the most points scored by a Vol all season.
- Scored 11 points, pulled in four rebounds and dished out four assists, while knocking down multiple crucial freethrows down the stretch when the Vols were struggling to make field goals against Ole Miss (2/2/21).
- Was externely active on the defensive end against Mississippi State (1/26/21), blocking two shots and recording three steals; he added eight points, knocking down multiple late baskets and a momentum-shifting and-1.
- Projected as a Lottery Pick in the 2021 NBA Draft according to multiple outlets (ESPN, CBS Sports, 247sports and The Athletic).

32 COLE MORRIS

FR Forward | 6-9 | 192 | Aerospace Engineering Marietta, Georgia | George Walton Comprehensive High School

O @COLEMORRIS25

- True freshman walk-on has a family connection to the Tennessee program.
- His grandfather, Marty Morris, was an assistant coach for the Vols under head coach Ray Mears from 1971-74.
- Morris enjoyed a successful head coaching career at Ferrum Junior College in Virginia, before he was hired on Mears' staff; one of Morris's top players at Ferrum, Larry Robinson, accompanied his coach to Tennessee and became the first Black player ever to suit up for the Vols.
- Grew up ambidextrous, with no preference toward a dominant hand (writing, eating, sports, etc).
- Aims to pursue a degree in Aerospace Engineering.

O @DREWPEMBER

- Has appeared in eight games off the bench for the Vols this season, including six SEC games.
- Tallied his first two points of the season (a dunk) in the home win over South Carolina (2/17/21).
- Dished off a career-high three assists and tallied a steal and a block in UT's win over Tennessee Tech (12/18/20).
- Saw his first action of the season in the Vols' victory over Appalachian State (12/15/20).
- Possesses a great feel for the game and has post size with guard skills.
- Working hard to improve as a defender and play with more physicality.
- Had a tough luck offseason from a development standpoint, as he spent 52 days in quarantine due to multiple contact-tracing hits.
- Earned the VOLScholar patch on his jersey after posting a GPA of 3.0 or higher during the Fall semester.
- Local product from Knoxville's Bearden High School made 22 appearances as a true freshman last season.
- As a high school senior in 2018-19, he helped lead Bearden to the Tennessee Class AAA Championship, defeating Memphis East in the final.

- Has yet to make his Tennessee debut.
- Fell behind after suffering a broken toe in November.
- True freshman forward was rated as a top-75 prospect nationally (Rivals No. 57, 247Sports No. 57, ESPN No. 73).
- Improved conditioning was an area of focus for the Florida native during the preseason.
- Had helped lead Hargrave to a 36-4 record before the pandemic interrupted the 2019-20 season; he was averaging 15.2 points, 8.0 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.5 blocks per game.
- Is the fifth basketball Vol to enroll at Tennessee after attending Hargrave Military Academy, joining current teammate Davonte Gaines, Stanley Asumnu (2002-06), Jabari McGhee (2014-16) and Tyler Smith (2007-10).
- Is roommates with fellow freshmen Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer.

16-19

- In its first game in 276 days, the 12th-ranked Tennessee basketball team took down Colorado in a tight defensive affair, 56-47, on Dec. 8, 2020.
- Tennessee saw a balanced effort across the board with nine of 10 Vols who saw action the score sheet, while Jeriah Horne led Colorado with 15 points and 11 rebounds
- John Fulkerson and Santiago Vescovi led the Big Orange in scoring with 11 points apiece, while Yves Pons was a beast on the boards, pulling in a team-high 10 rebounds
- Vescovi also added a game-high five assists.
 Sophomore Josiah-Jordan James had the most balanced game for the Vols, tallying eight points-knocking down all four of his attempts from the charity stripe-six rebounds, three assists and three steals.
- The assists and unless seals.

 Redshirt junior Victor Bailey Jr., who made his debut with Tennessee after sitting out last season as a transfer, earned the start and was explosive in the early going, draining his first three shot attempts to score eight first-half points
- Tennessee's freshman duo of Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer combined for 10 second-half points and was key to the Vols pulling away late.
 The Vols came roaring out of quarantine, opening the night on a 12-2 run through the
- game's first four minutes. James and Fulkerson led the way with five and four points,
- respectively, during that early stretch.

 The Buffaloes responded to UT's initial punch, coming within as few as four points with less than a minute to play in the half. However, Tennessee's stifling defense and a timely 3-pointer from Vescovi took the Vols into the locker room with a 31-24 lead.
- Tennessee's starting lineup featured five left-handers in Bailey Jr., Fulkerson, James, Pons and Vescovi featured five left-handers.

- A double-double from senior John Fulkerson and a second consecutive dominant defensive effort pushed the Tennessee basketball team past Cincinnati, 65-56, on Dec. 12, 2020, inside Thompson-Boling Arena.
- Tennessee out-rebounded Cincinnati (2-2) 45-34 overall and 14-6 on the offensive side
- On defense, the 12th-ranked Vols forced 17 turnovers, blocked four shots, held Cincinnati to a .379 shooting percentage and kept the Bearcats off the foul line, as UC only attempted seven free throws.

 Fulkerson's game-high marks of 15 points and 12 rebounds marked his fourth career
- double-double, and his rebounding total marked a career-high.
- Freshman Jaden Springer poured in his first career double-digit scoring output, with 11 points, while also recording a team-best plus/minus of +10 in 25 minutes of action.
 Sophomore Josiah-Jordan James had another consistent performance, scoring eight points, pulling down four rebounds, dishing off three assists and a grabbing a career high-tying three steals. James was also big from the charity stripe, knocking down all six of his attempts.
- A slow-paced opening nine minutes saw Cincinnati holding the early advantage at 15-11
- with the teams combining for a 9-of-30 shooting mark from the field.

 Over the final 11 minutes of the half, the Vols took control on the defensive end and were more efficient on the offensive side, outscoring the Bearcats 19-9 to take a 30-24 advantage into the break.
- Cincinnati came out of halftime with a head of steam, erasing the Vols' advantage and
- ventually taking a 40-37 lead with 13:16 remaining.

 Tennessee remained undaunted, locking the Bearcats down on defense, knocked down all eight of its attempts from the foul line and hit multiple timely baskets to take a 51-45
- lead with just 10 minutes left in the second half.

 The Vols withstood each late Cincinnati punch while continuing to deliver from the
- free-throw line to walk away with the nine-point victory.

 Jeremiah Davenport led Cincinnati with 14 points. David DeJulius added 11 points and seven assists

- Six double-figure scorers for the second straight game and a dominant performance on the glass pushed the eighth-ranked Tennessee basketball team past Saint Joseph's,
- 102-66, on Dec. 21, 2020, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

 Tennessee scored 100-plus points for the second consecutive game, marking the fourth time the Vols have eclipsed the century mark in back-to-back games in program history The last time occurred in November of 2009, when Tennessee took down UNC Asheville
- 124-49, and East Carolina, 105-66.

 The Vols also led the Hawks for all but 55 seconds of game action, leading for the contest's final 37:35.
- On the boards, the Orange & White were relentless, posting a 45-27 edge in total rebounds and a 13-6 advantage on the offensive glass.

 Victor Bailey Jr. led the Vols in scoring with a game-high 18 points on 5-of-10 shooting
- and a 6-of-7 mark from the foul line
- Sophomore Santiago Vescovi put together his most complete performance of the season, tallying 16 points on 4-of-9 shooting, a perfect 4-of-4 from both 3-point distance and the foul line, while also pulling in a season-high seven rebounds and dishing off five
- Senior John Fulkerson also enjoyed another productive performance, scoring 10 points, grabbing six rebounds and recording a career-high-tying five assists.
- Fellow senior Yves Pons was huge on the boards, ripping down a game-high nine
- rebounds and scoring 13 points.

 The UT freshman duo of Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer rounded out the Vols double-digit scorers, pouring in 12 and 10 points, respectively.
- Johnson once again made a significant impact on the defensive end, blocking two shot
- attempts and nabbing three steals.

 With the score tied at 4-4 just more than two minutes into the game, the Vols busted things open with a 16-0 run that covered nearly four minutes of action to take a 20-4 lead
- the sides played an evenly paced remainder of the half, as the Vols withstood a number of punches from Saint Joseph's before taking a 56-33 lead into the halftime break.

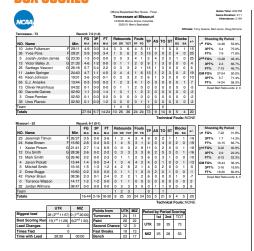

- Another balanced offensive effort and timely stops on the defensive end pushed the eighth-ranked Tennessee basketball team past USC Upstate, 80-60, on Dec. 23, 2020, at
- The Vols—off to their best start since the 2010-11 squad opened the year 7-0—were powered by a balanced offensive effort during which every player who saw action scored,
- withstanding Upstate's efficient 9-of-18 shooting performance from 3-point range.

 Junior Victor Bailey Jr. led Tennessee in scoring for the second consecutive game. pouring in 18 points, while knocking down a career-high-tying eight field goals.
- On the boards, sophomore Josiah-Jordan James led the way with a game-high eight rebounds. James scored 11 points while shooting an efficient 3-of-5 from the field and 5-of-6 from the free-throw line. He also added five assists and nabbed a career-hightying three steals.
- Classmate Santiago Vescovi scored nine points and dished off a career-high-tying
- John Fulkerson was the third Vol to reach double-figures, scoring 10 points and
- knocking down all six of his attempts from the foul line.

 Sophomore Olivier Nkamhoua was a perfect 4-of-4 from the field while recording nine points, an assist, one steal and a block in 13 minutes of action off the bench.
- The contest's opening 12 minutes were defined by both squads holding firm on the defensive end. But the Vols shot a stellar, 714 from the field while assisting on 9-of-10 field. goals to take a 23-15 lead at the under-eight media break of the first half.

 • The programs exchanged punches over the final eight minutes of the period, with UT
- holding on to its advantage, edging the Spartans, 33-26, at the halftime horn
- The start of the second half saw much of the same action, with the sides trading blows and the Vols maintaining a 10-point lead at the under-12 media timeout.
- Through the game's final stages, Tennessee clamped down on defense and took advantage of a number of transition buckets, stretching its lead to as many as 22 before
- walking away with the 20-point victory.

 Tommy Bruner led the Spartans with 18 points and was the first player all season to make more than five field-goal attempts against the Vols

- A dominant defensive effort and an efficient shooting mark of .500 (27-54) from the field pushed the seventh-ranked Tennessee basketball team past 12th-ranked Missouri, 73-53, to open SEC play Dec. 30, 2020, at Mizzou Arena.
- The Vols held Missouri to just .364 shooting from the field and forced 21 turnovers on the defensive end.
- UT is also off to its best start since 2010-11, when that season's squad also began the - year 7-0.
- Sophomore Santiago Vescovi led UT in scoring, pouring in a game-high 15 points on 5-of-6 shooting and a 3-of-4 mark from 3-point range
 National Defensive Player of the Year candidate Yves Pons put on an impressive, versatile performance, totaling 13 points, six rebounds, a season-high four blocks and
- Freshman Jaden Springer also scored 13 points while grabbing four rebounds and nabbing a season-high three steals off the bench for the Vols
- Senior John Fulkerson was the fourth Vol to reach double-figures, scoring 11 points and pulling down six rebounds.
- Sophomore Josiah-Jordan James—despite scoring just two points—was all over the stat sheet, grabbing three offensive rebounds, dishing off a game-high four assists, tallying a career-high-tying three steals and recording a blocked shot. James posted a game-hightying plus/minus rating of +25.
- The Vols came roaring out of the gates, knocking down their first seven shot attempts
- en route to a commanding 21-4 lead at the under-12 media timeout.

 Tennessee withstood each counter punch from the Tigers, extending its first-half lead to as many as 19, heading into the halftime break with a 38-25 advantage.
- UT came out of the break with much of the same energy, continuing its stifling defensive effort and efficient night from the field on offense throughout the second half to walk away with the 20-point victory.

- Three Vols scoring at least a dozen points and five thunderous blocks from senior Yves Pons weren't enough for the seventh-ranked Tennessee basketball team, which fell al home to Alabama, 71-63, on Jan. 2, 2021, at Thompson-Boling Arena.
- Alabama used an efficient .500 (10-20) shooting mark from 3-point range to break
- things open in the second half to end Tennessee's undefeated start to the season.

 Victor Bailey Jr. led the Vols in scoring for the fourth time this season, dropping in 16 points while pulling in a career-high seven rebounds.
- Santiago Vescovi added 13 points and four rebounds on the defensive end for UT.
- Freshman Keon Johnson added 12 points, a season-high eight rebounds and a pair of
- Pons scored six points to go along with his five blocks—all of which came in the second half.
- Josiah-Jordan James was all over the stat sheet for the second consecutive game, grabbing eight rebounds, blocking two shots and nabbing a pair of steals.
 The teams traded blows on both ends of the floor through the opening 12 minutes,
- combining to shoot 11-of-40 from the field amidst intense defense on both ends, with the Vols holding a slim, 16-14 advantage.

 The remainder of the half provided much of the same energy, but the Tide ended up
- taking the slight 31-29 edge into the locker room.
- Alabama took it to the Vols following the break, knocking down five consecutive attempts from 3-point range to extend its lead to 48-36 at the under-16 media timeout.

 Bama withstood a number of late Tennessee runs to cement the 71-63 result, as the Vols were unable to trim their deficit below six points in the closing minutes
- John Petty Jr. was a perfect 4-for-4 from 3-point range and led the Crimson Tide with a game-high 17 points.

- Nine team blocks and an all-around outing from senior Wooden Award candidate John Fulkerson propelled the ninth-ranked Tennessee basketball team past Arkansas, 79-74.
- on Jan. 6, 2021, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

 Over the course of the night, Tennessee committed just five turnovers, while forcing Arkansas to turn it over 20 times.
- Fulkerson stuffed the stat sheet, scoring 16 points, reeling in eight rebounds, blocking Trunkerson's tarried the state street, scoring to points, realing in eight rebounds, blocking free shots and dishing off three assists.

 National Defensive Player of the Year candidate Yves Pons blocked another four shot
- attempts, upping his career total to 110 and moving him into 15th on the program's career blocks list. After turning down an invite to last year's NBA Draft Combine and returning to Rocky Top, Pons has opened SEC play with 13 total blocks through the first three league games.
- Pons also scored six points and pulled in three rebounds in the wir
- Tennessee guards Victor Bailey Jr. and Josiah-Jordan James led UT in scoring, pouring in 17 points each.
- James added nine rebounds, three blocks and a steal, while Bailey added a block and
- a steal to his own stat line
- Freshman wing Keon Johnson made his first career start and scored a season-high points on 4-of-8 shooting. He also knocked down all six of his attempts from the foul line-all of which came in the contest's final two minutes.
- Arkanasa controlled a large majority of the opening half, knocking down 57 percent of its shot attempts to take a 40-33 lead into halftime.

 Out of the break, the Vols reeled off a 9-2 run, with Fulkerson scoring seven of those
- points to knot things up at 42 apiece with just more than 15 minutes remaining.
- The next eight minutes were a back-and-forth affair, with the programs trading the lead twice as the Vols took a slim, 61-59 advantage into the night's final 7:48.
- Tennessee used a number of timely defensive stops and 10 consecutive makes from the
- foul line in the final minutes to seal the five-point victory.

 Arkansas guard J.D. Notae scored 14 points in the second half and finished with 19 to

- A career-high 23 points from sophomore guard Santiago Vescovi and a smothering defensive display propelled the ninth-ranked Tennessee basketball team past Texas A&M, 68-54, on Jan. 9, 2021, at Reed Arena.
- Tennessee held Texas A&M to 34 percent shooting from the field (16-of-47), while
- The Vols. 587 shooting percentage was a season-high, narrowly eclipsing their .583 performance in the home victory over Tennessee Tech on Dec. 18.
- Vescovi's 23 points came on a career-high eight made field goals and a career-high-tying six made attempts from 3-point range. Vescovi also reeled in five rebounds, dished off three assists and recorded a pair of steals.
- Senior Wooden Award candidate John Fulkerson scored 11 points, pulled in five boards and blocked three shots for the second consecutive contest.

 Vols freshman Jaden Springer made his first career start and posted 10 points and a
- season-high-tying six assists
- Josiah-Jordan James continued his consistent stretch of play in all areas of the gmae. grabbing a pair of rebounds, nabbing a pair of steals and dishing out five assists
- · The opening eight minutes were highlighted by Vescovi's hot shooting, as he knocked down his first four attempts from 3-point range to help give UT a 16-9 advantage at the under-12 media break.

 The Vols maintained control for the remainder of the half, never relinquishing the lead
- and taking a 37-30 lead into the locker room.
- Tennessee used its stifling defense to fend off A&M through the duration the second half, stretching its lead to as many as 18 before walking away with the 68-54 triumph.
- Savion Flagg hit four 3-pointers and finished with 12 points to lead the Aggies.

- on the defensive end led the 10th-ranked Tennessee basketball team past in-state foe
- Anaderbit Jan. 16, 2021, in Knoxville.

 The win was the Volunteers' seventh consecutive victory over the Commodores, and their fourth in a row inside Thompson-Boling Arena.
- Saturday's victory also tied Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes with legendary former coaches Phog Allen and Don Haskins for 20th place on the all-time Division I wins list with 719. Barnes ranks seventh in career wins among active head coaches and now has 115 victories at Tennessee.
- Johnson's 16 points were both a team- and season-high, coming on 4-of-8 shooting from the field and a near perfect 7-of-8 mark from the free-throw line.

 • Senior John Fulkerson was among the most efficient players on the floor Saturday,
- scoring 15 points, knocking down five of his six attempts from the field and grabbing a
- game-high eight rebounds.

 Freshman Jaden Springer stuffed the stat sheet, totaling 10 points, a season-high seven rebounds, five assists and a season-high-tying three steals.
- Victor Bailey Jr. finished the night with 11 points, nine of which came on three made 3-pointers during the Vols' early second-half run that stretched the UT lead.

 The first half was a tightly contested affair that saw the defenses controlling the flow
- While the squads combined to shoot a fairly efficient 37 percent from the field, there were only 10 combined offensive rebounds and seven second-chance points between the sides
- A late push to end the opening half sent the Vols into the locker room with a 34-24 lead. The start of the second half saw a similar pace to the opening frame. The Vols broke things open with a 15-2 run during a four-minute stretch where they knocked down five
- shots from 3-point range, three of which came from Bailey Jr., to extend the lead to 56-42.

 Over the final 10 minutes, the Vols stifled Vandy on the defensive end and made a number of key buckets to close out the night.

- Offensive struggles and a difficult night on the boards were too much for the sixth ranked Tennessee basketball team to overcome, as the Volunteers fell to Florida, 75-49, on Jan. 19, 2021, at Exactech Arena.

 • Florida was impressive from the field, knocking down 31 of its 62 shot attempts. The
- Gators led in scoring by Noah Locke, who had 14.
- UT was led by senior John Fulkerson, who scored 15 points on 6-of-9 shooting, dished out a career-high-tying five assists and pulled in four rebounds.
 Vols freshman Keon Johnson replaced classmate Jaden Springer (ankle) in the starting
- lineup and finished the night with eight points, three assists and a pair of rebounds. Sophomore Santiago Vescovi added with seven points, three rebounds and a career-high-tying three steals.
- Florida held control for large portions of the opening half, out-rebounding the Vols 26-16
- to take a 38-27 lead into halftime Florida maintained control throughout the second half, stretching its lead to as many as 28 points and converting on more than 54 percent of its shot attempts in the second
- The key stretch was an 11-0 run over three minutes of play in the middle stages of the half that pushed the Gators' lead from 11 to 22 and helped cement the night's final

- A 27-point scoring output from Xavier Pinson and a turnover-plagued offensive effort did the sixth-ranked Tennessee basketball team in on Jan. 23, 2021, as the Volunteers fell
- to 19th-ranked Missouri, 73-64, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

 Missouri recorded 10 steals and forced 18 Tennessee turnovers. The Vols have lost two straight for the first time this season.
- The Vols were led in scoring by senior Yves Pons, who scored a season-high 20 points on 6-of-11 shooting. The reigning SEC Defensive Player of the Year also pulled in five rebounds and blocked two shots.
- Junior guard Victor Bailev Jr. scored 12 points—eight of which came in the second half-dished out three assists and recorded two steals
- Sophomore Josiah-Jordan James also scored 12 points, while recording five rebounds, a block and a steal on the night.
- Missouri held control for a majority of the opening half, taking a lead as large as 12 with just over eight minutes to play. Out of the under-eight media timeout, the Vols ripped off a 12-3 run to cut the Mizzou lead to 28-25 in a span of two minutes.
- The programs traded buckets over the final minutes of the half before the Tigers took a 40-34 lead into the break.
- Out of halftime, Missouri stretched its lead to double-digits and held the Vols to 30 percent shooting through the half's first 12 minutes.
 To close the night, the Tigers withstood UT's multiple comeback bids, never letting the
- Orange & White null within fewer than six points
- Pinson led all scorers with 27 on 10-of-14 shooting and was a perfect 3-for-3 from 3-point range. Guard Dru Smith added 18 points for the Tigers.

- A dominant defensive showing and an offensive effort that saw every Vol pen their name on the score sheet helped the 18th-ranked Tennessee basketball team battle past Mississippi State, 56-53, on Jan. 26, 2021, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

 • After uncharacteristically losing the turnover battle in each of their last two games, the
- Volunteers forced 18 turnovers, earning a +7 turnover margin on the night.
- · Senior Yves Pons led UT in scoring, dropping 13 points on 6-of-9 shooting with three
- ferocious dunks.

 In 12 strong minutes off the bench, sophomore Olivier Nkamhoua scored five points,
- grabbed four rebounds and dished off an assist. The freshman duo of Koon Johnson and Jaden Springer combined to score 17 points while delivering several key plays late to give Tennessee some winning momentum entering Saturday's SEC/Big 12 Challenge showdown with 15th-ranked Kansas.
- Springer—who missed UT's last two games due to injury—scored nine points and added
- a team-high five assists, four rebounds and one block in 25 minutes off the bench.

 Johnson tallied eight points and was highly efficient on the defensive end, blocking a
- pair of shots and nabbing three steals. The Tenressee dominated the early stages of the first half, using an 8-0 run and a stifling defensive display that held Mississippi State to just one field goal through the opening eight minutes to gain a 15-4 advantage at the under-12 media timeout.
- The Bulldogs fought their way back into the contest, eventually tying the score at 20-20.
- The boundogs rought call way be dark into the contest, eventually sying the score at 22-20 with just more than four minutes to play in the half.
 Those final four first-half minutes were defined by defense, as the teams combined for just nine points, with the Orange & White taking a slim 26-23 lead into the break.
- The second half was largely a back-and-forth affair, with the programs trading buckets
- Tennessee held Mississippi State to just nine points over those final six minutes and earned a number of timely buckets after the color mark.
 Tennessee held Mississippi State to just nine points over those final six minutes and earned a number of timely buckets before two clutch free throws from Santiago Vescovi iced the game with 12 seconds left

- A 53 percent shooting performance and a dominant rebounding effort pushed the 18th-ranked Tennessee basketball team past No. 15 Kansas, 80-61, on Jan. 30, 2021 at Thompson-Boling Arena. The victory clinched the 2021 SEC/Big 12 Challenge for the SEC
- The Volunteers ripped down 38 rebounds, out-rebounding the Jayhawks by 15 and holding Kansas to zero second-chance points
- Tennessee was also lights out from both 3-point range (8 of 13) and the foul line (16
- Naismith Defensive Player of the Year candidate Yves Pons dropped in a team-high 17 points on 7-of-9 shooting, while draining both of his attempts from 3-point range and pulling in five rebounds to help spark UT at multiple key moments.

 • Fellow senior John Fulkerson scored 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting, pulled down six
- rebounds and dished off three assists.
- In his first start since returning from injury, Tennessee freshman Jaden Springer tallied points, four rebounds, three assists and a steal. Springer was also a perfect 7-of-7 from the charity stripe.
- The Vols' reliable stat-sheet stuffer. Josiah-Jordan James, totaled nine points while logging a game-high 11 rebounds, dishing out four assists and adding one block.

 Off the bench, junior Victor Bailey Jr. scored 11 second-half points to help the Vols
- extend their lead after halftime. Bailey also finished the night with four assists, a pair of rebounds and a steal.
- Tennessee dominated for large stretches of the night's opening 12 minutes, using a 12-4 run over a five-minute stretch to take a 21-12 lead with under eight minutes to play in the opening half.
- The Vols continued to pour it on as the half concluded, stretching their lead to as many
- as 16 before taking a 40-26 advantage into the halftime break.

 It was more of the same in the second half, as Tennessee stretched its lead to 21 in the frame's first five minutes, knocking down six of nine shot attempts

- Fleven second-half turnovers proved too costly to overcome as the 11th-ranked Tennessee basketball team fell on the road to Ole Miss, 52-50, on Feb. 2, 2021, at The Pavilion.
- · The Vols were solid defensively and shot 44 percent from behind the 3-point arc, but a lopsided second-half run from Ole Miss helped the Rebels snap UT's five-ga streak in the series.

 The Vols were led in scoring for the fourth consecutive game by senior Yves Pons,
- who scored 13 points on 5-of-9 shooting while knocking down two of his three attempts from 3-point range. Pons also pulled down four rebounds, recorded one steal and drew
- Freshman Keon Johnson scored 11 points and reeled in four rebounds on the night while
- hitting multiple late free throws when the Vols were struggling to convert field goals.

 Off the bench, sophomore Josiah-Jordan James totaled 10 points, dropping in a trio of first-half 3-pointers, grabbing six rebounds and adding one block and a steal.
- Tennessee controlled the early portions of the contest, jumping out to a 23-15 lead over
- the opening 12 minutes, with nine of those points coming on three 3-pointers from James.

 Ole Miss held the Vols to just five points in the final eight minutes of the half, as UT held a slim, 28-23 edge heading into the halftime break. UT opened the second half on a 10-4 run, extending its lead to 38-27 with just more
- than 15 minutes remaining.

 Ole Miss responded with a 19-4 go-ahead run spanning more than nine minutes of game action and held a 46-42 lead at the under-four-minute media timeout.
- The Vols knotted the score at 46 apiece before the Rebels delivered multiple baskets with less than two minutes to play to take a 51-46 advantage.

 In the closing seconds, UT cut the Ole Miss lead to two points before James had a look at
- a buzzer-beating three that fell just short, cementing the night's final score

- A combined 50 points from five-star freshmen Jaden Springer and Keon Johnson and a momentum-shifting 26-6 second-half run propelled the No. 11 Tennessee basketball team past Kentucky, 82-71, on Feb. 6, 2021, at Rupp Arena.

 • The Tennessee triumph made Rick Barnes the only active head coach to lead his team
- to at least three wins at Rupp Arena as the visitor.
- The win was also the first time UT has beaten Kentucky in back-to-back games at Rupp. Tennessee seniors Yves Pons and John Fulkerson also became the first Vols ever to play in three victories at Rupp Arena.
- Johnson finished the night with a team-leading and season-high 27 points—17 of which came in the second half—on 9-of-16 shooting while also drilling 9-of-11 from the foul line. The freshman from Shelbyville, Tennessee, also added four rebounds, one block and a steal.
- Springer, meanwhile, erupted for 23 points on 9-of-17 shooting, scoring 14 in the second
- half. The Charlotte, North Carolina, native also recorded five rebounds and two blocks.

 Sophomore stat-sheet-stuffer Josiah-Jordan James came off the bench to log his first career double-double, finishing the night with 10 points, 10 rebounds and two blocks.
- Victor Bailey Jr. also enjoyed a productive night off the bench, totaling nine points and four rebounds in 24 minutes.

 The Vols battled through foul trouble in the opening half as Kentucky drew 15 fouls and
- went 13-of-15 from the line to take a 42-34 lead into the break.
- The opening 10 minutes of the second half saw both teams trade blows before Tennessee exploded for a 12-0 run to take a 60-58 lead with just more than eight minutes
- The Vols extended the run to 26-6 over a nine-minute span to build a 74-64 lead at the
- under-four-minute media timeout.

 Tennessee then withstood Kentucky's final charge over the final three minutes to cement the final result.

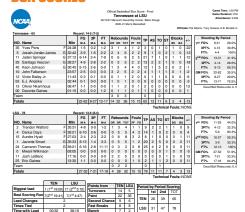

- A season-high 30 points from freshman Jaden Springer and an efficient night from the field pushed the 16th-ranked Tennessee basketball team past Georgia, 89-81, on Feb. 10,
- 2021, at Thompson-Boling Arena.

 Springer's 30 points were the most by a Tennessee freshman since Grant Williams poured in 30 against Georgia on Feb. 11, 2017, and it was the first time a Tennessee player has scored 30-plus points since Williams scored 43 at Vanderbilt on Jan 23, 2019
- Georgia was led in scoring by K.D. Johnson, who closed the night with 22 points and three rebounds.
- Tennessee sophomore Josiah-Jordan James dropped in a career-high 18 points on 5-of-8 shooting and also added six rebounds, three assists, two blocks and a pair of steals.

 Fellow sophomore Santiago Vescovi added 19 points and six rebounds of his own while converting on all eight of his attempts from the free-throw line—with multiple makes at
- the charity stripe in the game's closing moments. Reigning SEC Freshman of the Week Keon Johnson contributed 11 points. His performance was highlighted by a Sportscenter-worthy poster dunk to help spark the
- Vols in the second half. Tennessee controlled the game's opening 15 minutes, holding Georgia to a 36 percent. shooting mark from the field. The Vols, meanwhile, shot 58 percent en route to an early
- 31-21 lead. The remainder of the half saw a flurry of baskets for UT, which outscored Georgia 13-5
- The Final five minutes to take a 44-26 lead into the locker room.
 The Vols' eight first-half 3-pointers were the most attempts they had converted from 3-point range in a single half all season. Tennessee made 10 3-pointers on the night to
- tie its season-high. The Volunteers continued to dictate the pace in the second half, stretching their lead to
- The voluntees continued to dictate the pace in the second hair, selecting their lead to as many as 23 in the first 10 minutes after halftime.

 UT withstood Georgia's late push, remaining steady at the foul line to walk away with the eight-noint victory

- A tough day from the field and 20-point outputs from Cameron Thomas and Javonte Smart were too much for the No. 16 Tennessee basketball team to overcome on Feb. 13, 2021, as it fell to LSU, 78-65, at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.
- The Vols shot just 35 percent from the field, while the Tigers shot the ball at a highly efficient clip of 52 percent.

 • Freshman Jaden Springer led the Vols in scoring, finishing with 21 points and eclipsing
- the 20-point mark for the third consecutive game. Springer also logged six rebounds and a season-high seven assists with just one turnover.

 Classmate Keon Johnson finished with 12 points, four rebounds and a pair of steals.

 Sophomore Santiago Vescovi was the third Vol to score in double-figures, as he
- dropped in 13 points on 4-of-9 shooting.
- Yet again, sophomore guard Josiah-Jordan James was all over the stat sheet, recording nine points, six rebounds, two steals and a block.
 LSU controlled the majority of the opening half, using a 16-4 run through the middle
- portions of the period to build a lead as a large as 12.

 Over the final five minutes, the Vols used a 10-3 run of their own to cut their deficit to five, as the Tigers took a slim, 31-26 lead into the break.
- LSU continued to hold the edge as the contest reached its latter stages, taking a 59-49 lead into the final 7:44 of the afternoon.
- The Tigers held off the Vols during the final stretches of the contest to cement the final score.

- An electrifying, 29-point performance from junior guard Victor Bailey Jr. and three other double-figure outputs pushed the 19th-ranked Tennessee basketball team past South Carolina, 93-73, on Feb. 17, 2021 at Thompson-Boiling Arena.
 Bailey finished the night 9-0-16 from the field and 7-of-10 from 3-point range. His seven trey sted for the most by a Volunteer during the Rick Barnes era. Lamonte Turner (2016-20) also drained seven from long range against Presbyterian on Dec. 16, 2016.
 Bailey also tallied a career-high-tying four assists with no turnovers, one block and a stead as the Vols improved to 15-5, 8-5 SEC.
 South Carolina was led in scoring by AJ Lawson, who finished the night with 20 points.
 Tennessee forward John Fulkerson was all over the stat sheet Wednesday, totaling a season-high 19 points, six revolunds, three assists and a pair of steals.

- season-high 19 points, six rebounds, three assists and a pair of steals.

 Freshman Jaden Springer put together another consistent performance, scoring 16 points on 4-of-8 shooting and a perfect 8-of-8 from the free-throw line. Springer also logged five assists and three rebounds.
- Senior Yves Pons was the fourth Vol to score in double-figures, totaling 10 points, a game-high nine rebounds, a pair of steals and a block.
 Coming off the bench for the first time in his career, sophomore guard Santiago Vescovi
- scored eight points, grabbed five rebounds and dished out five assists in 29 minutes of
- action.

 The first half was defined by efficient shooting from both teams, as the combined field-goal percentage at the half was 49 percent (31-63). The teams also combined to shoot was
- 54 percent (13-24) from 3-point range over the first 20 minutes.

 Despite the even shooting numbers, Tennessee used its ability to get to the line on a regular basis to take a 50-39 lead into the halftime break.
- Out of the locker room, the Vols maintained their 11-point advantage for a majority of the opening 10 minutes of the second half while continuing to convert from the field at an efficient clip of 54 percent.

 In the latter portions of the night, the Vols led by double digits and used a 12-0 run to
- extend their advantage to as many as 22 points.
