UK RETURNS HOME TO BATTLE PURDUE

Riding a 2-0-0 start to the young season, Kentucky women's soccer returns home to face Big Ten foe Purdue on Thursday evening at the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex.

UK has opened the Troy Fabiano era with a pair of three-goal victories, defeating both Ball State and UT Martin. The contest against Purdue is the second leg of a two-year series between the schools. The teams played to a 1-1 draw in West Lafayette a year ago with Hannah Richardson scoring the lone goal for the Cats in a game that remained deadlocked after two overtimes.

Through its first two games, Kentucky has gotten goals from six different players, including a pair of freshman in Madison Jones and Mallory Glass. Junior midfielder Ulfa Úlfarsdóttir leads the squad with two goals and five points on the young season, while grad transfer Rafferty Kugler has dished out two assists.

Purdue comes to Lexington with a record of 1-1-0 on the season having beaten No. 15 USC before falling to Vanderbilt. The Boilermakers enjoyed one of the best years in program history in 2021 picking up 15 wins and reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Last season's leading scorer Sarah Griffith has since graduated, but First-Team All-Big-Ten midfielder Emily Mathews is back along with Second-Team honoree Skylurr Patrick.

ROSTER RUNDOWN

- Kentucky's 2022 roster features 32 players — including 17 newcomers and 15 returners — for a total of four fifth-years, five seniors, four juniors, nine sophomores, and 10 freshmen.
- Nine of the 10 freshmen are true first-years and include three defenders, four midfielders, two forwards. Goalkeeper Tallulah Miller is set for her redshirt freshman campaign after logging 24 minutes in net a year ago.
- Three countries are represented on the roster, including Denmark (3), Iceland (1) and the United States (28).
- In the United States, 15 states are represented on the team, including Wisconsin (4), Ohio (4), Kentucky (3), North Carolina (3), Illinois (2), Florida (2), Texas (2), Maryland (1), Georgia (1), Michigan (1), Minnesota (1), Virginia (1), Indiana (1), Tennessee (1), Oklahoma (1).
- The 16 returning players are responsible for 69.7 percent (23 of 33) of goals scored, 58.3 percent (162 of 278) of shots taken, 59.3 percent (73 of 123) of shots on goal, and 52 percent (13 of 25) of assists during the 2020 season.

OUT ON THE RIGHT FOOT

The Wildcats have come out of the gate strong in 2022 winning their first two contests by a combined score of 7-1. It is the first 2-0-0 start for the program since 2018 when UK won its opening three contests. The 'Cats seven goals through their first two games are the most since the program equaled the total in 2014. Kentucky's lone goal conceded came on a PK, meaning the team is yet to surrender a goal in open play.

FRESHMAN GOAL SCORERS

Kentucky has already gotten goals from two of the team's freshman. Madison Jones scored in the 'Cats opening game vs. Ball State, while Mallory Glass picked up a goal at UT Martin.

SPREAD THE WEALTH

Through two games this season, six different Wildcats have registered a goal. The list of goal scorers is comprised of: Jordyn Rhodes, Hannah Richardson, Ulfa Úlfarsdóttir, Madison Jones, Mallory Glass and Hadley Williams. This total of six goal scorers is just one shy of the seven the Cats had all of last season. Through two games in 2021, only two Wildcats had recorded a goal.

FABIANO'S FOURTH

Troy Fabiano was named Head Coach of Kentucky Women's Soccer on Nov. 30, 2021 becoming the fourth head coach since the program's establishment in 1992. Fabiano follows past Wildcat leaders Warren Lipka, Jon Lipsitz and Ian Carry.

Fabiano brings 24 years of experience coaching collegiate women's soccer, having previously served as head coach at both UW-Parkside and Milwaukee. Between the two schools, Fabiano owns an overall record of 323-90-42 and has led his team to the NCAA Tournament on 12 occasions.

During his first season at Milwaukee in 2015, the Wisconsin native helped the Panthers improve from a 6-10-2 mark in 2014 to a record of 11-3-4. Fabiano will look to make similar strides in Lexington this season after the Wildcats finished 7-10-2 a year ago.

NEW FRIENDS

12 of the 20 players who appeared in Kentucky's season opening match vs. Ball State (Aug. 18) were making their UK debut. Of those 12 student-athletes, seven were transfers and five were freshman. The newcomers comprised six of the 11 starters for the Wildcats and combined to play 608 minutes. Hadley Williams and Madison Jones each found the back of the net while Lesley Kiesling contributed an assist.

THE MILWAUKEE BUNCH

Fabiano brings with him four student-athletes from Milwaukee including Maggy Henschler, Taylor Hattori, Rafferty Kugler and Lesley Kiesling. The group spent a combined 14 seasons with the Panthers, four each for both Hattori and Henschler and three apiece for Kugler and Kiesling. All four of the transfers have played minutes for the Wildcats in the early season.

HOME COOKING

Kentucky is slated to play a total of 11 home games on the 2022 season, including six of its eight non-conference matchups. A slew of opponents will make their way to the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex this season including preseason SEC favorites, Tennessee. Last year, the Wildcats finished with a record of 6-4-1 on their home pitch.

FRESH FACES

More than half of the 2022 UK roster was not on the team last season with 17 newcomers arriving at Kentucky this fall. The group includes nine freshman and eight transfers. Five of the eight transfers come by way of Milwaukee where they were coached by Fabiano. The remaining three - Taya Hjorth, Dana Dahm and Hadley Williams - arrive from Florida St., Xavier and North Texas, respectively.

SECOND LEG

Thursday's matchup between the Wildcats and Boilermakers marks the second leg of a two-year series between the programs. Last season, the teams played to a 1-1 draw at Purdue with Hannah Richardson scoring the lone goal for UK.

KENTUCKY'S COACHING STAFF

Joining Troy Fabiano on an all new coaching staff are assistants Steve Golas and Michele Dalton.

Golas spent six seasons alongside Fabiano in Milwaukee serving as Assistant Coach from 2015-18 and then again from 2020-2021. During this time the Panthers won five conference titles and won three conference tournament championships. In 2019, Golas held the head coaching position at Dixie State, leading the Trailblazers to a 12-4-6 record and their second NCAA DII Tournament appearance in program history. Golas hails originally from Sandwich, Mass. and played collegiately at Coe College.

Dalton arrives in Lexington fresh off a two-year stint as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky. The team won its first C-USA East Division title with Dalton on staff during the 2020 season going 4-0-2 in conference play. Prior to Western Kentucky, Dalton was an assistant coach at DePaul during the 2019 campaign. She played collegiate soccer at Wisconsin from 2007-11 and was named Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year in 2011 before embarking on her professional career.

SCOUTING PURDUE

Purdue enters with a 1-1-0 record on the year, having knocked off No. 15 USC by a score of 3-0 before dropping a 1-0 decision to Vanderbilt. Sophomore Gracie Dunaway leads the Boilermakers with two goals and four points while freshman Kayla Budish has contributed two assists in the early season. In goal, Kara Sile has made 12 saves and has a .927 save percentage.

The Boilermakers enjoyed a strong 2021 campaign going 15-4-3 overall and finishing 8-2 in conference. The team reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to Notre Dame in PK's. The 15 wins were the second most in program history and the NCAA Tournament appearance marked the team's first since 2009.

TOP OF HER GLASS

Freshman midfielder Mallory Glass comes to Lexington ready to make an impact. The Louisville, Ky. native had a distinguished high school career. She was named the 2020-21 Gatorade Kentucky Player of the Year as well as a 2021 High School All-American. Glass is one of two, Top Drawer Soccer three-star recruits for UK in this year's freshman class alongside Madison Jones.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

UK is primed to appear on national television three times this season, starting with a road contest at LSU on SEC Network Oct. 2. The Wildcats will then be on ESPN+ for a home game vs. Florida on Oct. 16 before closing out their national slate back on SEC Network at Missouri on Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. This year's three national TV games match the program's total from a year ago. In addition, the remainder of Wildcat home games, along with all Smatches, can be seen on ESPN+/SECN+.

KENTUCKY WOMEN'S SOCCER

RETURN OF RHODES AND RICHARDSON

While the 2022 roster features plenty of newcomers, there are also several key returnees on this year's Wildcat squad. Heading up this group of veterans are senior forwards Jordyn Rhodes and Hannah Richardson. The potent offensive duo combined to score 19 of the team's 33 goals a year ago while also pacing the squad with 29 and 21 shots on goal, respectively. The pair ranked fourth in the NCAA for top scoring duos.

Last season, Rhodes was one of the most productive offensive players in the SEC, finishing inside the top-10 in shots, points and goals. She was recognized for her play by being named to the 2021 All-SEC Second Team as well as the United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region Second Team.

CAPTAINS

Prior to the start of the 2022 season, head coach Troy Fabiano named a quartet of captains. Seniors Hannah Richardson, Jordyn Rhodes join graduate transfer Hailey Farrington-Bentil and redshirt Sophomore Maggy Henschler to form the leadership core for the Wildcats. Rhodes and Richardson have each spent three years in Lexington while Farrington-Bentil and Henschler are in their first year at Kentucky.
