UK WELCOMES EMU FOR SENIOR DAY

Kentucky takes on Eastern Michigan in its final non-conference match of the season hoping to equal its win total from 2021 with a seventh victory. Sunday's contest will serve as senior day for the Wildcats, with UK set to honor the class of 2022 before play kicks off.

The Cats are coming off a 4-1 victory against Wright State on Thursday in which junior midfielder Úlfa Úlfarsdóttir scored two goals and senior Hannah Richardson registered a pair of assists. Kentucky is outscoring opponents 21-4 on the season, ranking seventh in the nation in total goals. UK has yet to allow more than one goal in any single match this year.

Eastern Michigan has started the 2022 campaign by going 1-3-2, losing at Morehead State its last time on the pitch. The Eagles have taken on one power-five opponent this season, falling at Syracuse, 2-0, earlier this month. EMU has seen six players find the back of the net, led by sophomores Meagan Lukowski and Maddie O'Farrell who have two goals apiece. The Mid American Conference members were picked to finish 10th in the league's preseason poll.

Sunday's meeting will be the first ever between UK and EMU, the third time this year that Kentucky has faced an opponent for the first time.

ROSTER RUNDOWN

- Kentucky's 2022 roster features 32 players — including 17 newcomers and 15 returners — for a total of four fifth-years, six seniors, four juniors, eight sophomores, and 10 freshmen.
- Nine of the 10 freshmen are true first-years and include three defenders, four midfielders, two forwards. Goalkeeper Tallulah Miller is set for her redshirt freshman campaign after logging 24 minutes in net a year ago.
- Three countries are represented on the roster, including Denmark (3), Iceland (1) and the United States (28).
- In the United States, 15 states are represented on the team, including Wisconsin (4), Ohio (4), Kentucky (3), North Carolina (3), Illinois (2), Florida (2), Texas (2), Maryland (1), Georgia (1), Michigan (1), Minnesota (1), Virginia (1), Indiana (1), Tennessee (1), Oklahoma (1).
- The 16 returning players are responsible for 69.7 percent (23 of 33) of goals scored, 58.3 percent (162 of 278) of shots taken, 59.3 percent (73 of 123) of shots on goal, and 52 percent (13 of 25) of assists during the 2020 season.

Last Meeting: (Kentucky has never played Eastern Michigan)

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Kentucky has enjoyed success in non-conference play this season, entering its final match outside of the SEC at 6-1-0. The Wildcats are hoping to earn a seventh non-conference win for the first time since 2015. The Cats had seven total wins during the 2021 season.

SPREAD THE WEALTH

Through seven games in 2022, 12 different Wildcats have registered a goal. It is the most goal scorers Kentucky has had since 2015 and three shy of the program record of 15.

DEFENSIVE PROWESS

Kentucky has allowed just four goals so far in 2022 and has yet to surrender more than one goal in any of its seven contests thus far. The stretch marks the longest since seven straight matches with one or fewer goals allowed during the 2014 season.

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

UK has produced 21 goals this season, tied for the seventh most in the country and good for the most in the SEC. Kentucky has scored three or more goals in five of its seven matches and reached four goals, four times.

POWER PLAY

The Wildcats have picked up two wins in non-conference play against power-five opponents for the first time since 2015, beating Purdue and Iowa St. Kentucky's 2-1 win over Purdue marked the first non-conference victory over a power-five school for the Cats since 2016 when UK knocked off Louisville, 3-1.

FIRST-TIME GOAL SCORERS

Kentucky has already gotten goals from two of the team's freshman in 2022. Madison Jones scored in the 'Cats opening game vs. Ball State, while Mallory Glass picked up a goal at UT Martin. Glass added another goal in the win vs. Iowa State. Emile Rhode and Hadley Williams join the freshman as student-athletes to record their first career goals this season.

ULFA'S CAREER YEAR

Úlfa Úlfarsdóttir has been among the most impressive Wildcats this season, leading the team with a career-high 11 points on the year. The junior has also set career highs in goals (four), game-winning goals (two) and assists (three), while notching two multi-goal games.

HAPPY TO ASSIST

Forward Hannah Richardson has sparked the Kentucky offense this season with six assists to her name, tied for the second most in Division I. The senior has already doubled her previous single-season high of three assists and has two multi-assist efforts on the year.

FRESH FACES

More than half of the 2022 UK roster was not on the team last season with 17 newcomers arriving at Kentucky this fall. The group includes nine freshman and eight transfers. Four of the eight transfers come by way of Milwaukee where they were coached by Fabiano. The remaining four - Taya Hjorth, Dana Dahm, Hailey Farrington Bentil and Hadley Williams - arrive from Florida St., Xavier, Mississippi St. and North Texas, respectively. Eight of the newcomers have already recorded a goal for Kentucky, while ten of the new arrivals have at least one point. 13 players have made their UK debut thus far.

THE MILWAUKEE BUNCH

Fabiano brings with him four student-athletes from Milwaukee including Maggy Henschler, Taylor Hattori, Rafferty Kugler and Lesley Kiesling. The group spent a combined 14 seasons with the Panthers, four each for both Hattori and Henschler and three apiece for Kugler and Kiesling. All four of the transfers have played minutes for the Wildcats in the early season with Kugler, Hattori and Henschler starting in all seven matches to this point. In UK's match vs. Eastern Kentucky, Henschler, Hattori and Kiesling all scored their first goals at Kentucky.

SENIOR DAY

Sunday's match will serve as senior day for UK, with the Wildcats honoring 10 student-athletes during a pregame ceremony. Hailey-Farrington Bentil, Taylor Hattori, Maggy Henschler, Josie Knight, Rafferty Kugler, Jordyn Rhodes, Hannah Richardson, Peyton Rimko, Steph Stull and Caroline Trout will all be recognized.

SEC PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Rhodes and Richardson represent the Wildcats on the 2022 SEC Preseason Watch List. For Rhodes, the selection marks her third straight bid while Richardson earns a spot on the list for the second-time in her collegiate career, having also appeared in 2020. In all, a total of 67 student-athletes were named to the watch list.

NEW FRIENDS

12 of the 20 players who appeared in Kentucky's season opening match vs. Ball State (Aug. 18) were making their UK debut. Of those 12 student-athletes, seven were transfers and five were freshman. The newcomers comprised six of the 11 starters for the Wildcats on opening night.

FABIANO'S FOURTH

Troy Fabiano was named Head Coach of Kentucky Women's Soccer on Nov. 30, 2021 becoming the fourth head coach since the program's establishment in 1992. Fabiano follows past Wildcat leaders Warren Lipka, Jon Lipsitz and Ian Carry.

Fabiano brings 24 years of experience coaching collegiate women's soccer, having previously served as head coach at both UW-Parkside and Milwaukee. Between the two schools, Fabiano owns an overall record of 323-90-42 and has led his team to the NCAA Tournament on 12 occasions. During his first season at Milwaukee in 2015, the Wisconsin native helped the Panthers improve from a 6-10-2 mark in 2014 to a record of 11-3-4. Fabiano will look to make similar strides in Lexington this season after the Wildcats finished 7-10-2 a year ago.

KENTUCKY'S COACHING STAFF

Joining Troy Fabiano on an all new coaching staff are assistants Steve Golas and Michele Dalton.

Golas spent six seasons alongside Fabiano in Milwaukee serving as Assistant Coach from 2015-18 and then again from 2020-2021. During this time the Panthers won five conference titles and won three conference tournament championships. In 2019, Golas held the head coaching position at Dixie State, leading the Trailblazers to a 12-4-6 record and their second NCAA DII Tournament appearance in program history. Golas hails originally from Sandwich, Mass. and played collegiately at Coe College.

Dalton arrives in Lexington fresh off a two-year stint as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky. The team won its first C-USA East Division title with Dalton on staff during the 2020 season going 4-0-2 in conference play. Prior to Western Kentucky, Dalton was an assistant coach at DePaul during the 2019 campaign. She played collegiate soccer at Wisconsin from 2007-11 and was named Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year in 2011 before embarking on her professional career.

KENTUCKY WOMEN'S SOCCER

HOME COOKING

Kentucky is slated to play a total of 11 home games on the 2022 season, including six of its eight non-conference matchups. A slew of opponents will make their way to the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex this season including preseason SEC favorites, and 2021 SEC Tournament Champions, Tennessee. Last year, the Wildcats finished with a record of 6-4-1 on their home pitch. So far in 2022, the Cats are 5-0-0 at home.

CAPTAINS

Prior to the start of the 2022 season, head coach Troy Fabiano named seniors Hannah Richardson, Jordyn Rhodes, Hailey Farrington-Bentil and Maggy Henschler as captains. Rhodes and Richardson have each spent three years in Lexington while Farrington-Bentil and Henschler are in their first years at Kentucky.

SCOUTING EASTERN MICHIGAN

Eastern Michigan has started 1-3-2 this season, most recently losing at Morehead State, 1-0. The Eagles lone win of the year came against Illinois State, while the team earned draws against Western Illinois and Dartmouth.

Sophomores Meagan Lukowski and Maddie O'Farrell have a team high two goals and five points apiece. In goal, junior Rebecca Przybylo has started five of six matches.

EMU went 2-13-3 in 2021 with a 1-8-2 conference record. The Eagles were picked 10th in the MAC preseason coaches poll.
