Chanticleers Fall at Georgia 78-61 in Season Opener Barney has a game-high 16 points in first game for CCU

ATHENS, Ga. – The Coastal Carolina women's basketball team dropped its season-opening contest 78-61 versus the Georgia Bulldogs in Athens, Ga., on Monday evening. With the loss, the Chanticleers fall to 0-1 on the year, while UGA improved to 1-0 overall with the win.

Coastal was led by newcomer Anaya Barney with a game-high 16 points, while returners Aja Blount and Angie Juste-Jean chipped in with 13 and 12 points, respectively. Georgia's offense was paced by Jayvn Nicholson's 14 points along with Diamond Battles and Brittney Smith with 13 and 12 points, respectively.

The Chants were 22-of-59 from the floor for 37.3 percent, including shooting 7-of-23 from behind the arc for 30.4 percent, while Georgia was 27-of-58 from the field for a scorching 46.6 percent while hitting 3-of-10 from three-point range for 30 percent. The Bulldogs outrebounded the Chanticleers 41-34. Blount led CCU with eight boards, while Nicholson finished with nine rebounds for UGA.

The Bulldogs jumped out to the early 2-0 advantage with a Nicholson layup after winning the opening tipoff and upped it to 4-0 on a second Nicholson layup. CCU's Helena Delaruelle cut the lead in half at 4-2 with a mid-range jumper in the paint only to see the host team push its lead to 13-6 by outscoring the visitors from Conway 9-4 for the 13-6 lead at the media timeout.

Coming out of the break, Coastal's Arin Freeman scored three points by hitting 1-of-2 from the free throw line and a putback of a missed Chanticleer jump shot to cut the Bulldogs' lead to 13-9. After Georgia hit 2-of-4 from the charity stripe, CCU's Barney recorded her first career basket as a Chant with a three-pointer from long range to pull the Chants to within three at 15-12. Barney answered a Georgia 5-0 run by hitting the final four points of the opening quarter to cut the Bulldogs' lead to four at 20-16.

UGA opened a 10-point advantage in the second quarter before Coastal answered with a putback layup by Blount. She then followed the basket after a CCU defensive stop with a pair of free throws to cut the host team's lead to 28-20 at the media break. Coming out of the timeout, the Bulldogs increased their lead with a 10-4 run for a 40-24 halftime advantage.

Coastal opened the second-half action with a 7-2 run, sparked by a Barney jump shot and capped by a three-pointer from the top of the key by Blount to cut the lead to 42-31. After trading 1-of-2 from the free throw line, the next five minutes was an offensive explosion as both teams traded 30 points, with Georgia holding a 64-43 third-quarter lead.

The Chanticleers opened the fourth quarter as Barney and Juste-Jean sandwiched a pair of UGA baskets with three-pointers to cut the lead to 68-49, and forced the Bulldogs to call their first timeout of the period. Georgia and Coastal traded the final 22 points as UGA held on for the 78-61 win.

Coastal Carolina will return to the road for the next contest, as the Chanticleers will travel to Lexington, Ky., as they will take on the Kentucky Wildcats on Sunday, Nov. 13. The opening tip is scheduled for 1 p.m. ET.

HEAD COACH KEVIN PEDERSON

A coaching veteran in the state of South Carolina, Kevin Pederson (pronounced Peh-dur-son) was named the seventh women's basketball head coach in Coastal Carolina University history on April 12, 2022.

Pederson came to Coastal Carolina with more than 20-plus years of head coaching experience, 400-plus career wins, 15 trips to the NCAA postseason tournament, and administrative experience at the collegiate level.

"We are thrilled to welcome Kevin and his family to Teal Nation! Throughout this process, his qualifications, success, and references continued to impress, and his seasoned head coaching experience of nearly 450 wins and 21 seasons certainly stood out. We look forward to getting to work and writing the next chapter of Chanticleer women's basketball," stated Vice President of Intercollegiate Athletics and University Recreation Matt Hogue.

Pederson led Lander University to unprecedented success during his 17 years (2005-22) in Greenwood, S.C., as he guided the Bearcats to a 356-160 overall record fueled by 13 NCAA Division II Championship Tournament appearances, including the last eight straight seasons.

Most recently, Pederson directed the Bearcats to a 24-5 overall record, a 15-3 Peach Belt Conference record, and advanced to the 2022 NCAA Division II Championship Regional final.

Pederson owns an impressive .699 winning percentage (444-191) through 21 seasons as an intercollegiate head women's basketball coach with all of those 444 career wins coming at South Carolina institutions in Lander (356-160) and Anderson University (88-31).

The all-time wins leader for Lander women's basketball and conference wins leader in women's basketball for the Peach Belt Conference, Pederson led the Bearcats to two NCAA DII Region Championships (2011-12 and 2020-21), four Peach Belt regular-season championships (2007-08, 2009-10, 2019-20, and 2020-21), two Peach Belt Conference division championships (2015-16 and 2016-17), and four Peach Belt Conference Tournament championships (2007-08, 2008-09, 2015-16, and 2019-20).

In his four years as the head coach at Anderson (2002-05), he led the Trojans to a Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference (CVAC) regular-season championship in 2004-05 and back-to-back tournament championships in 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Pederson, a three-time Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBC) Region Coach of the Year (2009-10, 2019-20, and 2020-21) and three-time conference coach of the year (2004-05, 2009-10, and 2020-21), has recorded 15 20-win seasons, including eight 25-plus win seasons, and was the first coach in the state of South Carolina to lead a team to three straight NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances.

He has recorded a 20-14 career record in the NCAA DII Championship Tournament, making 15 appearances in 21 seasons. He has taken his teams to seven Sweet 16 appearances (2004-05, 2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2018-19, 2020-21, and 2021-22), made two Elite 8 appearances (2011-12 and 2020-21), and reached one Final 4 (2020-21).

His teams have finished in the NCAA DII Top 25 national rankings eight times, including his most recent 2021-22 Lander squad completing the season ranked No. 10 in the NCAA DII Top 25 Coaches Poll and No. 11 in the D2SIDA Final WBB Poll.

During his career, he recruited and coached the 2011 WBCA Division II Player of the Year Shannon McKeever, the NCAA Division II All-Time Leading Scorer in Lashonda Chiles, and mentored at least one Division II All-American in 10 different seasons.

Pederson has also coached 44 all-conference players, eight conference players of the year, three conference defensive players of the year, four conference freshman of the year, and one conference female athlete of the year. While at Lander, he also coached two Peach Belt Conference Elite 16 Award winners in Cierra Revell (2021) and Sarah Crews (2022), as well as eight Lander Female Athlete of the Year Award winners.

In the classroom, Pederson's teams on average have posted a 3.3 team grade-point average or better during the past three seasons. Makaila Cange was named a 2022 CoSIDA Academic All-American this past season.

In addition to serving as Lander's women's head basketball coach, Pederson has served as the associate athletic director since 2016, where he oversaw the entire athletic department budget and individual sports team accounts.

Pederson started his coaching career as an assistant coach for the men's basketball team at Anderson College (S.C.) from 1999 to 2005. He also served as the head junior varsity coach for the men's team from 2000 to 2002 before taking over the reins of the women's basketball program in January 2002, first on an interim basis and then full-time.

Pederson, a native of Fairfax, Va., worked five seasons for the Clemson University men's basketball program as a student manager from 1994 to 1999 under Rick Barnes and Larry Shyatt before joining Anderson College in 2001.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Clemson and a master's degree from the United States Sports Academy.

Pederson is married to the former Adair Clary of Gaffney, S.C., who earned a bachelor's and master's degree from Clemson. They have two children, Conner and Clary.
