KEY STORY LINES

NEW ASSISTANTS

The Highlanders begin the 2022-23 campaign with two new assistant coaches in the house. Amber Easter returns to her home state after a stint with St. Bonaventure. Alex Tomlinson, the reigning national Division III assistant coach of the year award winner, joins the Highlanders after multiple successful years with Division III powerhouse Christopher Newport.

RETURNING FACES

Despite nine newcomers joining the team for the 2022-23 season, there are still plenty of familiar faces on the Highlanders' sideline. Rachel LaLonde and Jackie Christ both return to make up the senior leadership of the squad. Vanessa Blake, Makaila Brown and Carmen Williams will all also look to build off of successful freshmen campaigns.

NEW PLAYMAKERS

Nine newcomers join the Highlanders with high hopes of contributing. Trinity Klock will bring the most experience after two full playing seasons with South Carolina State. Ashley Panem, Zahra Daniel, Tatiana Beaumont and Caliana Fenceroy also transferred up from to JuCo level looking for their first DI action. Maci Rhoades, Ashlyn Traylor, Olivia Wagner and Emma Fox all will be making their collegiate debuts this year too.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH (TENTH SEASON)

▶ @mamcguire77

Mike McGuire has become a household name in the New River Valley thanks to his success on the court, his involvement in the community and his reputation as a man of great character. His time at Radford has been full of joyous moments and unforgettable seasons, leading his teams to four WNIT postseason appearances in the past seven seasons as well as an NCAA Tournament berth in 2019. He is currently ranked tied for fifth in Big South Conference history in overall and conference wins.

McGuire owns the third-best winning percentage of any coach in program history with an overall record of 142-98 (.591). He has gone 102-50 (.671) in Big South play and has led the Highlanders to two Big South regular season championships and one tournament championship. Radford is on a streak of six straight seasons with a winning record in Big South play going 96-36 over that stretch. The Highlanders have truly risen to defend the Dedmon Center as they are 77-30 at home in the McGuire era.

Now entering his ninth season at the helm of the Radford women's basketball program after taking the position on April 24, 2013, he is widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the nation. McGuire quickly laid a solid foundation when he arrived at Radford and has successfully seen his vision come to fruition. For the past five seasons the Highlanders have been selected in the top-5 in the Big South preseason poll, including a three-year span being selected as No.1 (2017-2019).

McGuire has been recognized three times as the Big South Coach of the Year (2015, 2018, 2019), making him the first coach in program history to achieve the feat. He collected his 100th career Big South win, the first Highlander coach to do so in program history, during the 2020-21 campaign against Charleston Southern on February 20, 2021. His hard work and dedication to the program have been on display day-in and day-out for many years, proving that no one could be more deserving of that recognition.

Under his direction there have been 22 Highlanders named All-Big South including 2018 Defensive Player of the Year – Jayda Worthy, four VaSID All-State honorees, and the 2018-19 tournament MVP Lydia Rivers. The Highlanders earned their first ever Big South Conference Sportsmanship Award following the 2018-19 season and the program has also excelled like never before in the classroom, earning an APR score of 1,000 across the last four years. Academically during McGuire's tenure Radford has had seven conference All-Academic selections with Jen Falconer named to the VaSID Academic All-State team for the 2018-19 season.

The Highlanders have made a habit out of upsetting Power Five opponents under McGuire. In his five completed seasons, Radford has topped the likes of Penn State and Wake Forest. Victories over regional rivals such as Appalachian State, VCU, UNCG, Davidson and others have also buoyed the Highlanders' resume in recent years.

The 2020-21 season presented many unique challenges for the Highlanders amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. The team battled adversity all season long to finish with a 9-9 record in Big South play. Winning four of their last five games of the season, including an overtime victory over eventual Big South runner-up Campbell, Radford was poised to finish the season strong and make some noise in the Big South tournament until the team had to pull out of the tournament due to COVID-19. The team leaned on its senior leadership by Tina Lindenefeld, Makaila Wilson, Bryonna McClean and Ariel Williams as all four finished the season with over 100 points. Newcomers Ashley Tudor and Kyanna Morgan also finished the season with triple-digit point totals, helping ignite the Highlanders' hot finish to the season.

The 2019-20 Highlanders were selected as No.1 in the coaches preseason poll to start the 2019-20 season, with Sydney Nunley and Khiana Johnson highlighting the all-conference preseason teams. Radford got back on track after a seemingly tough nonconference slate including power-5 teams like Vanderbilt, West Virginia, Ohio State, and Alabama. During the latter contest, Johnson reached the career milestone of 1,000 points to become the fifth player to do so under the direction of McGuire in the past six seasons. The Highlanders' battled their way to a Big South Tournament deciding victory on senior day vs. Hampton, to secure the would-be two-seed. Radford finished the campaign 17-12 overall and 15-5 in conference, this is the sixth consecutive season with double-digit conference wins. The Highlanders formally received the 2020 WNIT bid, for their fifth postseason bid in the last six seasons. Conference postseason awards for Radford were paced by the senior trio of Johnson (First Team), Nunley (Second Team), and Falconer (All-Academic). The Highlanders won 12 of their final 14 games before the season was canceled due to COVID-19, the postseason would not be played.

Radford put together one of the greatest campaigns in school history in 2018-19, going 26-6 overall and 17-1 in Big South play to clinch the regular season title and the top seed in the Big South Tournament. McGuire and the Highlanders would go on to win the Big South Championship and earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 23 years. Another impressive feat was the 2018-19 team earned a spot in the final College Insider Mid-Major Poll, coming in at No. 25.

During non-conference play, Radford took down Temple, VCU and Virginia to become battle-tested for life in the Big South. It was then that the Highlanders really shined, going on an 18-game winning streak to close out the regular season and tear through postseason play. A 15-1 record inside the Dedmon Center treated fans to a near-perfect performance at home.
