STARTING FIVE

■ The Cardinals start a season-long four game road trip on Sunday in the Battle for the Bluegrass against Kentucky in Lexington. It will be the 57th time the two teams meet all-time and the 15th time head coach Jeff Walz will go up against the Wildcats. Kentucky holds a 34-22 advantage all-time but the Cardinals have enjoyed more of the success since Walz has been at the helm. Louisville is 8-6 against Kentucky and they have won the previous five matchups dating back to the 2015-16 season. Of the 14 matchups under Walz, one of the two teams have been ranked in the polls in 12 of the previous matchups.

■ Junior guard Hailey Van Lith surpassed the 1,000-point mark in the win over SIUE on Dec. She scored a team-high 21 points and tied a career high with six assists. Van Lith is the 32nd Cardinal all-time to score 1,000 points or more in their collegiate career.

■ Graduate guard Morgan Jones was all over the passing lanes as she set a career high with eight steals in the win over SIUE. Five of the steals came in the first quarter and she finished with eight in just 17 minutes of game action. The eight steals are tied for the most by an ACC player so far this season and that is tied for sixth nationally for most in a game this year. It is the first time a Louisville player has had eight steals in a game since Jude Schimmel had eight against Wagner on Dec. 21, 2012.

■ The Cardinals have been one of the best road teams in the country over the past six seasons. Since the start of the 2017-18 season, Louisville is 53-8 on the road, good for a .869 winning percentage in those games. The wins rank third and the winning percentage is fourth in the NCAA over that span. So far this season, Louisville is 1-1 in road games after a 75-70 win over Belmont on Nov. 13 and a defeat at Middle Tennessee on Dec. 4.

■ The Cardinals have had several preseason recognitions prior to the 2022-23 season. They are just one of three schools to have a player on all five positional watch lists (Chrislyn Carr, Lieberman Award; Van Lith, Drysdale Award; Morgan Jones, Miller Award; Olivia Cochran, McClain Award; Josie Williams, Leslie Award). Van Lith and Jones were both named to the Preseason All-ACC team as the Cardinals were selected as league favorites. Jones and Van Lith were both selected to the Naismith Award Women's Watch List and the Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 Watch List. Van Lith was named a second team Preseason All-American by The Athletic. Van Lith was also selected to the Wade Watch List, the third national player of the year watch list she has been named to this season.

ABOUT THE WILDCATS

Kentucky will be the seventh of eight NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago that the Cardinals are facing in the non-conference portion of the schedule. The Wildcats went 19-12 last season and won the SEC Tournament to earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Cats season ended in Bloomington as they were upset by the 11-seed Princeton in the first round. In 2022-23, the Wildcats have begun the year 7-1 with their only loss to Virginia Tech at the Baha Mar Hoops Pink Flamingo Championship. Jada Walker leads the Cats with 15.4 points per game and she is one of three players to average double-digit points. Ajae Petty leads the team with 6.3 rebounds per game and Maddie Scherr has a team-best 6.2 assists per game, a mark that ranks 16th in the NCAA.

■ Series History - This will be the 57th meeting for the Battle for the Bluegrass and the Wildcats have a 34-22 series advantage. This will be the 15th matchup between the two teams since Jeff Walz took over at Louisville and the Cardinals have an 8-6 advantage over that time. Louisville has won the last five games against the Wildcats dating back to the 2015-16 season (The teams did not meet in the 2020-21 season). The Cardinals are 6-20 all-time in games played in Lexington but are 3-4 in those games during Walz's tenure.

■ Last Meeting (Dec. 12, 2021) - Ahlana Smith and Hailey Van Lith each made two late baskets and No. 5 Louisville held off No. 14 Kentucky 64-58 on Sunday to beat their in-state archrivals for the fifth straight time. A moment of silence was held before the game to remember victims from Friday night's storms in Mayfield. Louisville's athletic department also teamed with the KFC Yum! Center and the Kroger grocery store chain for a bottled water drive. Smith hit a go-ahead jumper with 2:47 remaining. Chelsie Hall added three free throws in the final 17 seconds as the Cardinals (8-1) won their eighth consecutive game. Kentucky (6-3) had rallied from a 49-42 deficit to lead 54-53 on a jumper by Dre'Una Edwards with 3:37 left. Smith gave Louisville the lead and Van Lith added a layup off Emily Engstler's block. Smith's layup and Van Lith's jumper provided a 61-56 cushion before Hall sealed it at the foul line. Hall finished with 15 points, while Smith and Van Lith had 13 each. Louisville shot just 40% but made 8 of 13 in the final quarter while its defense stopped Kentucky down the stretch.

HEAD COACH JEFF WALZ

Head coach Jeff Walz, in his 16th season as a head coach, has compiled a 420-117 record as the Cardinals' leader. Walz and the Cardinals boast quite an astounding resumé that includes 11 trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, seven trips to the Elite Eight, four trips to the final four and two trips to the national title game. Overall, he has compiled a 37-13 record in NCAA Tournament games and ranks eighth all-time and fifth among active coaches with a 74.0 NCAA Tournament winning percentage. All of this for a program that had just four NCAA Tournament wins and had never reached a Sweet 16 prior to Walz being named head coach.

Walz is the all-time winningest coach in program history and averages 27.6 victories per season. He directed Louisville to a program-record 36 victories in 2017-18 en route to being named ACC Coach of the Year, 34 victories in 2008-09, 33 wins in 2013-14, 32 wins in 2018-19 and 29 wins in 2021-22.

The Cardinals have reached 20 wins 12 consecutive times and they have won at least 20 games in 14 of Walz's 15 seasons. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice, and UofL had just 10 20-win seasons in its 32 previous years.

Walz led Louisville to four consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021, and over that four-year span, the Cardinals went a combined 122-15, which marked the fewest losses and best winning percentage over a four-year period in program history.

From 2016-2021, he coached the ACC Player of the Year in five of six seasons as Myisha Hines-Allen won the award in 2016, Asia Durr in 2018 and 2019, and Dana Evans in 2020 and 2021. He also coached Angel McCoughtry to Big East Player of the Year honors in 2007.

After being hired as the Cardinals' head coach on March 27, 2007, the Bluegrass State native used little time to make a splash. His first year featured the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 and it culminated with Louisville earning the No. 12 ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. For his efforts, Walz was named the WBCA Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking the reins at Louisville, Walz spent five seasons at Maryland, including his final season as the associate head coach in 2006-07. The season prior, he helped lead the Terrapins to a school-record 34 wins and the program's first national title.

Walz has four children: daughter Kaeley, son Jacob, and daughters Lola and Lucy. He married the former Lauren Lueders in September of 2012, and the couple resides in Louisville.

■ Cochran picked up her second double-double of the season in the win over Longwood on Nov. 25. She tallied 10 points and 10 rebounds for her seventh career double-double. She was one of six Cardinal players to score in double figures in the win.

■ She had a party on her birthday in the road win over Belmont. Cochran was a force on the boards and tallied a season-high 13 rebounds to go with 13 points for her sixth career double-double. It was the second-straight game a Cardinal recorded a double-double and the 10th time in her career she had 10 or more rebounds in a game. Cochran also led the team with a season-high three assists, including the assist on Mykasa Robinson's go-ahead layup with 1:45 left in the game.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS
Louisville has been one of the most consistent teams in the NCAA Tournament over the past four seasons. Louisville is the only program in the country to be a No. 1 seed in three of the last four full season. The Cardinals are just one of two teams (UConn) to make the Elite Eight in each of the past four tournaments. Louisville is just one of five programs (UConn, Stanford, South Carolina, Notre Dame) to make four or more Final Fours in the last 15 seasons.

WALZ IN THE BIG DANCE
Walz boasts a 37-13 record in NCAA Tournament games. He is eighth all-time in winning percentage and 5th among active coaches. He has directed UofL to a pair of national runner-up finishes (2009, 2013), four Final Fours (2009, 2013, 2018, 2022), seven Elite Eights (2009, 2013, 2014, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2022), 11 trips to the Sweet 16 and 13 NCAA Tournaments. Walz is one of five active head coaches to make four or more Final Fours.

The Cardinals have had a number of players represent their respective countries at international competitions over the past year.

■ USA - In the summer of 2022, Hailey Van Lith once again suited up for the United States National Team at the FIBA 3x3 World Cup in Antwerp, Belgium. ■ Japan - Senior Norika Konno had two opportunities to suit up for the Japanese National team this past summer/fall. In the summer, she played with Team Japan at the 3x3 Asia Cup. She led Japan to a 2-0 record in pool play and advanced to the semifinals before falling to the eventual champions, China. This past fall, she was with Japan at the FIBA 3x3 U23 World Cup in Bucharest. Japan advanced out of pool play and fell in the quarterfinals to eventual champion France. She competed against Team USA and former Cardinal Emily Engstler.

■ Canada - Last spring, Merissah Russell competed for the Canadian National Team at the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Qualifying Tournament in Osaka, Japan.
