OPENING TIP-OFF

• The University of Minnesota (5-3, 1-0 B1G) will host the Kentucky Wildcats (6-1, 0-0 SEC) at Williams Arena on Dec. 7, at 7 p.m. The game, which can be found on B1G+, will be the third Power 5 opponent the Gophers have played this season. The game can be heard on KFAN+ or on the iHeartRadio app with Justin Gaard and Lynnette Sjoquist on the call.

• Minnesota's game with Kentucky is the first game for Minnesota against a 2022 NCAA Tournament team. The Wildcats were the 2022 SEC Tournament champions, defeating eventual champions South Carolina, and then lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to Princeton.

• Last time out the Gophers overcame a 10-point fourth quarter deficit and won a thrilling double overtime game against Penn State in the team's Big Ten opener. Minnesota's four starting freshmen combined for 76 of the 98 points, highlighted by Mara Braun's 26 and Mallory Heyer's 18-point 11-rebound double double. Braun and Heyer combined for 15 of the team's 22 points in the two overtime periods. The overtime winner makes head coach Lindsay Whalen 5-0 in her coaching career in overtime games, including a 2-0 mark in double overtime games.

• Braun earned a second Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor, the conference announced on Monday. The Wayzata, Minn., native set a new Minnesota record for points in a Big Ten debut with 26 in a comeback win over Penn State and in two games averaged 26.5 points per game, 3.0 assists, 3.0 steals and 2.5 rebounds while shooting 51.6 percent from the floor and hitting six threes. On Saturday Braun hit 11-of-11 free throws against Penn State, becoming just one of 24th Gopher to connect on 10 or more free throws in a game and make them all. She led Minnesota to two second-half comebacks this past week, overcoming a 10-point deficit to defeat Penn State in double overtime and helping the Gophers tie the game with 19 seconds left against Wake Forest.

• Minnesota's latest starting lineup of Braun, Battle, Heyer, Katie Borowicz and Alanna 'Rose' Micheaux, is an average age of 19 years and 4 months. The group consists of three true freshman, one redshirt sophomore and one sophomore with the group's first two games against Power 5 opponents. Minnesota is the only Big Ten team to start four freshmen in a game this season (Wisconsin is the only other team to start start three).

• Mara Braun continued her red-hot start to the season with her fourth 24+ point performance in seven games played. Braun has scored three of the top 10 freshmen scoring marks (34, 27 & 26) in program history since 2000. Braun's 27-point performance against Wake Forest made her just the fourth freshman since 2009-10 to score 27+ points, make 5+ 3FG, register 3+ steals and 1+ blocks against a Power 5 opponent.

• Through eight games the Golden Gophers have been one of the best rebounding teams in the Big Ten and the nation with an average of 44.4 per game as a team which is No. 2 in the conference and No. 22 in the nation. The team has been one of the best on the offensive glass at 14.8 per game, No. 2 in the Big Ten. Minnesota's perimeter defense has also been solid, ranked No. 4 in the Big Ten at 29.2 percent.

Minnesota's matchup with Kentucky will be the team's fourth in five games against a Power 5 opponent.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT WHALEN

"The University of Minnesota's decision to hire Lindsay Whalen as its women's basketball coach is a phenomenal one. Lindsay is a winner; she's a four-time WNBA champion, a two-time Olympic gold medalist and led her Gopher team to the Final Four. I have no doubt that she will continue to excel as a leader."
Cheryl Reeve
Minnesota Lynx Head Coach
Team USA Assistant Coach

"Having been around Lindsay for a long time, I can certainly speak to the kind of competitor and person she is and the passion that she brings to the game. She has been really well coached from college through the pros - she's played for some great coaches. I don't think it'll take Lindsay long to get caught up. She's got some great stuff to work with at Minnesota, and she's a smart kid."
Geno Auriemma

HEAD COACH LINDSAY WHALEN FIFTH SEASON · MINNESOTA, 2004

One of the most decorated players in women's basketball history, Lindsay Whalen returned to her alma mater as the 12th head women's basketball coach at the University of Minnesota on April 13, 2018.

In her four seasons guiding the Golden Gophers, Whalen has led the team to a 60-57 mark (.518) with a trip to the WNIT in 2018-19 and 2021-22. In addition, she has coached one WNBA draft pick, one All-American, 11 All-Big Ten honorees, two members of the Big Ten All-Freshman team, one Big Ten All-Defensive Team player and countless Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

The 2021-22 season saw the Maroon and Gold make their way to the postseason for the second time in four seasons under Whalen with a bid to the WNIT where the squad reached the second round. The team matched its 7-11 Big Ten record from the previous season and finished 15-18 overall. Minnesota played one of the toughest schedules in the country, and the hardest in the Big Ten, playing a total of 10 NCAA Tournament teams, defeating one. The Gophers also partook in the first women's Battle 4 Atlantis tournament in the Bahamas, defeating Syracuse while also battling UConn and Oklahoma.

Sara Scalia was named Second Team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and media while first-year Gopher Deja Winters earned an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten nod by the members of the media.

The 2020-21 campaign, which took place amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, saw a young Gophers squad improve their conference win total from five to seven as they went 8-13 on the season and 7-11 in conference play. With 10 of its 13 players either freshmen or sophomores, no team in the Big Ten had a higher percentage of its roster comprised of underclassmen than Minnesota. In fact, of the 13 Gophers on the roster, six were playing in their first season of collegiate basketball and three transfers were playing in their first year at Minnesota.

Jasmine Powell was named Second Team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches and Honorable Mention All-Big Ten by the media covering the conference. Meanwhile, Sara Scalia was chosen Honorable Mention All-Big Ten by the coaches and media.

In Whalen's second season the Gophers went 16-15, including winning 11 straight games at one point, which was the sixth longest win streak in program history. During the stretch, they won four straight on the road, the seventh longest such streak at Minnesota. Included in the 11-game streak was an 80-66 upset of then-No. 19 Arizona State.

Five members of the team took home season honors from the Big Ten. Taiye Bello was a consensus All-Big Ten Second Team selection by the league's coaches and media, while Powell was a consensus pick for both All-Big Ten Honorable Mention and the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. Gadiva Hubbard was an All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honoree by the media, as was Scalia, who also earned a place on the media's Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

In her first season at the helm of the Gophers, Whalen guided the team to a 21-11 record overall, a 9-9 mark in league play and a spot in the second round of the WNIT. She became the fifth coach in program history to lead the team to 20 wins in their first season. The Gophers enjoyed a 10-week run in the AP Poll, their longest stretch since the 2005-06 season.

Minnesota began the 2018-19 season by winning its first 12 games, tied for the third best streak in team history.

With the 12-0 start, Whalen tied her former coach, Pam Borton (2002-03), for the best undefeated start by a coach in their first year at a Big Ten school since the incorporation of women's athletics in the conference in 1982-83. The only coach at a Big Ten school with more wins in his or her first year there was Ohio State's Debbie Wilson, who started 14-0 in 1972-73.

Under Whalen's tutelage, Kenisha Bell earned honorable mention All-America honors from the AP, was a semifinalist for the 2019 Naismith Women's Defensive Player of the Year Award, garnered consensus First Team All-Big Ten honors from the league's coaches and media and was a member of the All-Big Ten Defensive Team. In addition, Destiny Pitts was named First Team All-Big Ten by the league's coaches (second team by the media), and Taiye Bello was an All-Big Ten honorable mention honoree.

Whalen returned to the Gophers after destroying the program's record book in the early 2000s, finishing her career as Minnesota's all-time points leader, along with being second all-time in assists and third all-time in steals. A four-time all-state selection at Hutchinson High School, about an hour west of Minneapolis, Whalen went on to become the catalyst for the most successful seasons in the history of Gopher women's basketball.

In international competition, Whalen was a key piece to dominant performances by Team USA in world championship and Olympic competition. Whalen played for two gold medal teams at the World Championships (2010, 2014) and has also won two Olympic gold medals (2012, 2016).

As part of Whalen's agreement to become head coach, she continued to play for the Minnesota Lynx before retiring at the end of the 2018 season. Previously, Whalen announced in February of 2018 that she was retiring from international competition. She had played for the U.S. National team since 2002, joining Team USA following her sophomore season with the Gophers.
