TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 7/7 Alabama men’s basketball team won its third straight game, defeating Ole Miss 84-62 in its Southeastern Conference home opener Tuesday night. The Crimson Tide had five players in double figures, led by Brandon Miller’s game-high 17 points. Mark Sears added 16, including nine in the opening half, combining with Jaden Bradley (14), Jahvon Quinerly (11) and Noah Clowney (10) to lead the offensive effort.

Alabama’s bench provided the spark for the offense in the opening 20 minutes, scoring seven points within the first 10 minutes. After starting out the night 3-10 from the field, the Tide quickly got hot, shooting 70 percent (14-20) the remainder of the half.

Leading 14-12 in the early going, Alabama used three separate 7-0 runs throughout a span of 11 minutes to result in outscoring the Rebels 30-11 over the final 11:24 to head into the break with a 44-23 lead.

COACH OATS POSTGAME COMMENTS

“When competing for an SEC Championships, you have to take care of your home games. We got the win tonight. I’ve made a big point emphasis on the turnovers, and they were way down. I thought we were much better there tonight, and I thought our defense was decent. We were obviously assisted by them not shooting the three well. I was a little disappointed with our effort once we built the lead up there in the middle of the second half. I think we have got to do a better job of closing games playing hard, whether you’ve got a lead or it’s a tight game. I think even at Mississippi State, we didn’t close that game great either. We’ve got to do a better game closing out games with the lead, but that is a good spot to be in now where you must worry about closing games with the lead. I’m happy with the guys’ effort, we need to do a better job on the glass. They outrebounded us by 10 in the second half, so that is an issue, which is going to be a big issue against Kentucky (Saturday). All in all, I’m happy with the guys. I think the ball moved and we took care of it. Our guys made shots, and it was a good night overall. We’re just going to have to clean up a few things.”

NATE OATS

Head Coach 4th Season at UA
MARANTHA BAPTIST, 1998 8th Season Overall

- When Nate Oats was formally introduced as head men's basketball coach at The University of Alabama on March 28, 2019, he promised fans would see an entertaining, up-tempo and fast-paced style of play. And that's exactly what he has delivered during his time in Tuscaloosa.
- The immediate success became evident in his second year at the helm of the program as Oats guided the 2020-21 Crimson Tide to one of its best seasons in the program's illustrious history. Alabama finished the year with a 26-7 overall mark, won 16 conference games (16-2), captured both the SEC regular season and tournament championships, and ended the year ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press' final national rankings which matched the best end-of-season ranking in program history.
- As a result, Oats was rewarded midway through the 2020-21 season with a contract extension that is set to keep him in charge of the Crimson Tide basketball program through March 14, 2027.
- An indicator of Alabama's resurgence can be seen by looking at the last two NBA Drafts. Prior to his arrival, the Tide had just one men's basketball player selected among the top 15 picks from 1992-2019. As a coach who is known for developing talent, Oats has now had four Alabama players selected in the NBA Draft in the last three seasons. For the first time in program history, Alabama has had an NBA Draft Lottery (top-14 pick) in back-to-back years as the New Orleans Pelicans selected Kira Lewis Jr. No. 13 overall in the 2020 NBA Draft Lottery while Joshua Primo was taken by the San Antonio Spurs at No. 12, making UA one of three schools across the nation to have an NBA Lottery pick in each of the last two drafts during that span.

- Furthermore, Herbert Jones was taken by the Pelicans with the fifth pick in the second round (No. 35 overall) of the 2021 Draft which gave Alabama two players drafted in the same year for the 11th time in program history and the first since 1995. That Tide was also one of only 11 schools nationwide to have more than one player selected.
- Both Primo and Jones earned their way onto draft boards as a result of one of the best seasons in the 100-plus years of Alabama basketball. The 2020-21 Alabama squad claimed both the Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championships – the only power five program to sweep both the regular season and tournament titles in 2021 – and reached the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2004.
- The season's success snapped some lengthy dry spells within the program as Oats guided Alabama to its first conference championship in 19 years (dating back to 2002), first tournament championship in 30 years (dating back to 1991) and first Sweet 16 showing in 17 years (dating back to 2004). As a result, Oats was named the 2021 SEC Coach of the Year, making him the fourth Alabama head coach to earn the recognition while he earned the accolade for the third time in his career (Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 2018 and 2019). Oats was also honored as the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District Coach of the Year and was one of four finalists for the 2021 Naismith National Coach of the Year.
- Oats has boasted eight players who have earned SEC postseason honors, coached three NBA Draft picks, three SEC First Team honorees, the 2021 SEC Tournament MVP and the 2021 SEC Player and Defensive Player of the Year.
- Across his two years, the Tide has combined to lead the nation in three-pointers made per game (10.7), total three-point shots made (682) and total threes attempted (1,946) while averaging more than 80.5 points per game and breaking several school and conference records along the way. Additionally, UA has collected 35 games (out of the 64 he has coached) of scoring 80 or more points, including a school-record 19 such contests in 2020-21.
- Similar to his expectations on the court, Oats places a high emphasis off the court, particularly in the classroom and the community. Since take over the reins in 2019, 20 men's basketball players have been named to either the SEC Academic Honor Roll or SEC First Year Honor Roll while earned have graduated and earned a diploma. Additionally, the team set a record for cumulative grade point average in 2020 while maintaining a team GPA over above 3.0 during his time at the helm.
- The program's success has also resulted positively on the recruiting trail as Oats and his staff have signed back-to-back top-10 recruiting classes in 2020 and 2021. Excluding graduate transfers and JUCO signees, of the eight signed players during Oats' two seasons at Alabama, four have been five-star prospects while the other four were all rated as four-star signees. Moreover, the 2020-21 team alone features three McDonald's All-Americans (Jahvon Quinerly, Nimari Burnett and JD Davison).
- Whether it's on the court, in the classroom or out recruiting future Crimson Tide stars, Oats' has returned a winning attitude around the Alabama program. Much of that he credits to instilling three core values that make up the pillars on which the team's culture is built – Max Effort, Continuous Growth and Selfless Love.
