CATS LOOK TO BUILD MOMENTUM VS UT MARTIN

After a draw against Valparaiso last weekend, Kentucky sets its sights on returning to the win column when the Cats take on UT Martin this Thursday at the Bell Soccer Complex. The match is the second leg of a four-match homestand for Kentucky and marks the second-straight season in which the Wildcats have faced the Skyhawks.

Jordyn Rhodes has been off to a quick start offensively for UK, scoring four goals in the team's first three matches. Rhodes is currently sitting at 40 goals for her collegiate career, four shy of Kim LaBelle for the program record. Five different Wildcats have collected an assist this season, with senior transfer Grace Philpotts leading the way with two.

After going 4-9-5 in 2022, UT Martin is off to a 2-1-0 start to the 2023 campaign, with wins over Austin Peay and Western Carolina. The Skyhawks lone loss of the young season came at the hands of Appalachian State.

Junior forward Makayla Robinson leads UTM with two goals on the year, while Catey Hunt (defender) and Poppy Bastock (goalkeeper) have each earned Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Week honors already this season. Kentucky defeated UT Martin, 4-1, on the road last season behind two goals from Úlfa Úlfarsdóttir.
