KENTUCKY PROUD PARK

Kentucky baseball moved into a new home for the 2019 season, opening the $49 million Kentucky Proud Park, a state-of-the-art facility immediately considered one of the top facilities in all of college baseball. The Wildcats won their first game in their new home, defeating Eastern Kentucky, 7-3, on Feb. 26, 2019.

The stadium features permanent seating for nearly 2,500 fans with additional space on grass berms to accommodate 5,000 fans for regular season games. Beyond the outfield wall, temporary bleachers can be installed for NCAA Tournament games to bring the seating capacity to more than 7,000.

The team areas were a priority and give our players and coaches everything they need to compete at a high level in a single location. The facility features a team lounge, locker room, training area, indoor hitting and pitching areas, and coaching offices, as well as a recruiting room. All spaces are either new to UK baseball or significantly larger than previous ones.

The name is a tribute to farmers and businesses of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Big Blue Nation. Kentucky Farm Bureau secured the rights to name the stadium from JMI Sports, UK Athletics' multimedia rights partner. In turn, Kentucky Farm Bureau elected to name the stadium for Kentucky Proud, the state's official agricultural marketing program housed at the Kentucky Department of Agriculture. No state taxpayer dollars were used in funding the agreement. The Kentucky Proud program is funded through the generosity of the Kentucky Agricultural Development Fund. The fund is directed by the Kentucky Agricultural Development Board and administered by the Governor's Office of Agricultural Policy.

New black padding replaced the existing blue look for the 2023 season, including on the outfield fence, dugout railings and behind home plate.

KENTUCKY®

SHIVELY FIELD AT CLIFF HAGAN STADIUM

The Kentucky baseball team called Shively Field at Cliff Hagan Stadium home from 1979 to 2018, with renovations done in 2002 and again following the 2006 Southeastern Conference Championship season that saw the only two NCAA Lexington Regionals ever played at the facility.

A new era began in Kentucky baseball history in 2002 as then head coach Keith Madison and the Wildcats moved into their new lair, the $4.2 million Shively Field at Cliff Hagan Stadium. The state-of-the-art baseball complex replaced the twice-renovated facility that UK baseball had called home since 1969, when it was built as part of the Bernie A Shively Sports Center. In 1990, the facility underwent a $520,000 renovation to refurbish the stadium.

After the 2006 SEC Championship season, the UK athletic administration decided to invest in exterior improvements of Cliff Hagan. Among the improvements which debuted during the 2007 season, was a new state-of-the-art video board, which enhances the viewing experience for fans.

Also added during the 2007 offseason was a 150 capacity deck in the parking lot behind right field. The outfield fence was also lowered and padded to give fans a clear view of the diamond from anywhere in the outfield parking lot.

In 2017, the Cats earned the opportunity to host an NCAA Regional and were rewarded with record crowds at the stadium. In the winner-take-all showdown with NC State on June 5, a single-game record 5,005 fans poured into the stadium, waiting out a thunderstorm that dumped torrential rain and included heavy lightning and thunder. The Cats staged a come-from-behind victory to advance to the program's first-ever Super Regional.

While Cliff Hagan Stadium is a beautiful place to call home, in Fall 2018 the Wildcats moved into Kentuck Proud Park, a new $49 million state-of-the-art facility on par with its peers in the Southeastern Conference. It is located off Alumni Drive between the new Kentucky Football Training Facility and the Wendell and Vickie Bell Soccer Complex, adding to the cluster of UK Athletics facilities in the area.
