KENTUCKY RETURNS HOME TO FACE VALPARAISO

Kentucky women's soccer looks to extend its early season win-streak on Sunday when the Cats battle their second-straight opponent out of the Missouri Valley Conference as Valparaiso visits Lexington.

Grad-student Jordyn Rhodes has scored all three Kentucky goals thus far in 2023, powering the Cats to a pair of one-goal victories over Eastern Kentucky and Murray State. Rhodes is now up to 39 career goals, just five behind Kim LaBelle for the most in program history. Outside-back Grace Phillpotts has been a positive presence on the wing for Kentucky, collecting two assists thus far, one in each of the first two contests.

After defeating both Eastern and Northern Illinois, Valparaiso dropped its most recent match, falling on the road to Purdue, 4-1. The Beacons have seen early season production from fifth-year Nicole Norfolk, who has tallied a pair of goals, as well as fifth-year midfielder, Allie Anderson, who has four points on a goal and two assists.

Valpo had a strong performance in the MVC in 2022, going 7-1-2 in the conference and winning the first MVC regular season championship in program history. The team returns nine starters from a year ago, including three preseason All-Valley First-Team honorees.

ROSTER RUNDOWN

- Kentucky's 2022 roster features 35 players — including 23 newcomers and 12 returners — for a total of ten grad-students, five seniors, six juniors, three sophomores, and 11 freshmen.
- All 11 freshmen are true first-years and include one goalkeepers, four defenders, two midfielders and four forwards.
- Three countries are represented on the roster, including Canada (2), Iceland (1) and the United States (32).
- In the United States, 16 states are represented on the team, including Wisconsin (4), Florida (4), North Carolina (3), Maryland (3), Ohio (3), Michigan (3), Kentucky (2), Illinois (2), Texas (1), Arizona (1), Arkansas (1), Pennsylvania (1), Virginia (1), Indiana (1), California, Connecticut (1).
- The 12 returning players are responsible for 60.6 percent (20 of 33) of goals scored, 47.8 percent (117 of 245) of shots taken, 49.5 percent (51 of 103) of shots on goal, and 40.7 percent (11 of 27) of assists during the 2022 season.

RHODES CLIMBING ALL-TIME LIST

Rhodes has scored three goals in Kentucky's first two games of 2023, giving the fifth-year forward 39 goals for her collegiate career. Rhodes' total is second in program history behind only Kim LaBelle, who scored 44.

MULTI-RHODES

Jordyn Rhodes picked up the eighth multi-goal game of her collegiate career in Kentucky's 2-1 win over Murray State, Aug. 24. It was Rhodes' first multi-goal effort since Sept. 9, 2021, when she tallied twice in a 6-0 win over Eastern Kentucky.

NON-CON HOME STREAK

Kentucky has won 10 consecutive non-conference home matches dating back to Sept. 2, 2021, a 0-0 draw against Dayton.

JOSEPHSON RECORDS FIRST SHUTOUT

Grad-transfer Marz Josephson registered the first shutout of her collegiate career in her Wildcat debut, making three saves in UK's win over ECU on Aug. 17. It was also the first time Josephson has logged a complete 90 minutes of action in her 27 career appearances.

DEBUT HELPERS

Senior transfer Grace Phillpotts and freshman Tanner Strickland were each credited with assists in their Kentucky debuts. The pair combined to set up Jordyn Rhodes for the Wildcats' lone goal in their 1-0 win over ECU.

SEC PRESEASON WATCHLIST

Four Wildcats were tabbed to the SEC Pre-season watchlist prior to the start of the 2023 season. Marz Josephson, Maggy Henschler, Anna Young and Payton Robertson all received the recognition. It marked the first-time for all four student-athletes on the list. A total of 72 student-athletes were recognized by the Conference.

RHODES AND ÚLFARSDÓTTIR RETURN

Kentucky is getting back its top two goal scorers from the 2022 season in Jordyn Rhodes and Úlfa Úlfarsdóttir. Both players had six goals last season to tie for the team lead. For Úlfarsdóttir, last season saw season highs in goals (six), assists (five), points (17) and shots on goal (13).

ROBERTSON IS PLAYER TO WATCH

Transfer defender/midfielder Payton Robertson earned a spot of the United Soccer Coaches Player to Watch list for the 2023 season. Robertson helped Buffulo to a program record 14 clean sheets in 2022, while also leading the team with eight assists. She was named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region

HITTING THE PORTAL

Kentucky brings in a group of 12 transfers in 2023, adding plenty of exciting new talent to the roster. Among the transfers is one sophomore, three juniors, two seniors, and six fifth-years/graduate students. The group is made up of one goalkeeper, four defenders, three midfielders, and four forwards. The transfers arrive from the following schools: St. John's, Texas Tech, Wofford, Green Bay, UNC, DePaul, Iowa State, IUPUI, Davidson, RIT, UT Martin and Buffulo. Collectively, the group has scored 46 goals and picked up 52 assists during their collegiate careers. Six of the 12 transfers were All-Conference awardees at their previous schools.

INJURIES

Three of Kentucky's returning players will miss the 2023 season due to injury. Tallulah Miller, Mallory Glass and Hadley Williams have all been declared out for the year with the expectation that all three will return next season.

CATS ON NATIONAL TELEVISION

The ESPN Family of Networks and the Southeastern Conference have announced three nationally televised games for the Wildcats. Kentucky will be facing Florida on ESPNU on Sept. 24, Vanderbilt on the SEC Network, Oct. 8, and Mississippi State on the SEC Network, Oct. 15.

FRESHMAN FEVER

Kentucky brings in a class of 11 freshman for the 2023 season including one goalkeeper, four defenders, two midfielders and four forwards. The group comes to Kentucky by way of seven different states and two countries (U.S + Canada). Four of this year's freshman hail from the state of Florida.

BALLIN' AT THE BELL

The Wildcats are scheduled for 10 home matches in 2023, including five of its seven non-conference contests. Notable home games include a matchup with the defending SEC Tournament champions, South Carolina, on Sept. 21, as well as the defending SEC regular season champions, Alabama on Sept. 29. Last season, Kentucky posted a 6-4-1 record on home turf.

KENTUCKY'S COACHING STAFF

Now in his second-year at the helm of Kentucky women's soccer, Troy Fabiano is joined by returning assistant Steve Golas and two new assistant coaches, Maddie Dobyns and Jelena Sever.

Golas spent six seasons alongside Fabiano in Milwaukee serving as Assistant Coach from 2015-18 and then again from 2020-2021. During this time, the Panthers won five conference titles and won three conference tournament championships. In 2019, Golas held the head coaching position at Dixie State, leading the Trailblazers to a 12-4-6 record and their second NCAA DII Tournament appearance in program history. Golas hails originally from Sandwich, Mass. and played collegiately at Coe College.

Dobyns arrives in Lexington after spending the last two seasons with the Iowa State Cyclones. She previously coached at the University of Cincinnati as well as at her alma mater, the University of Kansas. As a coach in Ames, Dobyns worked with former ISU keeper, Jordan Silkowitz, who was selected by the Kansas City Current with the 18th overall pick in the 2023 NWSL Draft. Dobyns played her collegiate soccer at Kansas from 2013-17, appearing in 60 matches and helping KU reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2016. She left the program ranked second in goals against average (1.06), third in shutouts (14) and fourth in wins (29).

Sever in her first stint as a coach following her collegiate career playing under Fabiano in Milwaukee. Sever scored 24 goals across her four years of college soccer, winning four Horizon League titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances. She was a three-time All-Horizon League selection and is known for scoring the fastest goal in NCAA soccer history just 3.2 seconds into Milwaukee's game against Youngstown State in 2018. Post college, Sever played for ZFK Spartak in Serbia for one season, winning the title in the Super Liga, the top Serbian League.

SCOUTING VALPARAISO

The defending Missouri Valley Conference Regular Season Champions return 18 letter-winners and nine starters in 2023 and appear poised for more strong results.

TROY FABIANO FILE

DID YOU KNOW?

- A native of Kenosha, Wisconsin
- Was twice named All-Northeast Conference First Team as a player at Robert Morris
- Earned Northeast Conference Player of the Year as a senior in 1993, leading the conference with 19 goals and 43 points.
- Was inducted into the RMU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001
- Led UW-Parkside to 16 straight winning seasons during his 17 years as head coach of the Rangers, including eight NCAA DII Tournament appearances and five Great Lakes Valley Conference championships
- Coached Milwaukee to six Horizon League regular-season titles during seven-year tenure and four conference tournament championships.
- Fabiano's Panthers posted five undefeated seasons in conference action, going unbeaten for a span of 1,617 days.
- Under Fabiano's guidance, Milwaukee compiled a 16-0-4 mark in 2018, the lone undefeated record in the nation
- During his time at Milwaukee, Fabiano saw 23-student-athletes land on the All-Horizon League First Team, 15 on the Second Team and 11 on the All-Freshman Team. A total of 17 players were also named to United Soccer Coaches All-Region teams, while one earned All-American status.
- Between 2017-21, Fabiano led the Panthers to a ledger of 77-7-7, the best win-loss record of any team across NCAA DI soccer during that five-year span.
- Is the fourth head coach in Kentucky Women's Soccer history following Warren Lipka, Jon Lipsitz and Ian Carry.
