NEWLY RANKED CATS TAKE TRIP TO KNOXVILLE

Ranked in the United Soccer Coaches Top-25 for the first time since the 2015 season, No. 18 Kentucky women's soccer looks to build off last week's historic upset when the Wildcats visit the neighboring Tennessee Volunteers on Thursday night.

Kentucky took down No. 9 Alabama last Friday for their first win against an SEC opponent since the 2021 season, their first over a ranked team since 2016 and their first over a top-10 side since the 2014 season. Jordyn Rhodes made her own piece of history on the night, scoring two goals to eclipse Kim LaBelle as UK's all-time leading goal scorer with 45 career tallies. Rhodes is tied for the SEC lead in goals with nine thus far this season, including two multigoal matches.

Tennessee has drawn its last two matches, earning road points against South Carolina and Mississippi State. In their most recent match, the Volunteers erased a three-goal deficit with 18 minutes remaining to grab a point in Starkville. Sophomore Kameron Simmonds leads the team with six goals this year, while Ally Brown has a team-high four assists. Ally Zazzara (six starts) and Abby Reisz (five starts) have split time in net for the Vols.

The Wildcats dropped a 4-1 contest to Tennessee last season and have not beaten the rival Volunteers since a win at the SEC Tournament in 2014.

ROSTER RUNDOWN

- Kentucky's 2022 roster features 35 players — including 23 newcomers and 12 returners — for a total of ten grad-students, five seniors, six juniors, three sophomores, and 11 freshmen.
- All 11 freshmen are true first-years and include one goalkeepers, four defenders, two mid-fielders and four forwards.
- Three countries are represented on the roster, including Canada (2), Iceland (1) and the United States (32).
- In the United States, 16 states are represented on the team, including Wisconsin (4), Florida (4), North Carolina (3) Maryland (3), Ohio (3), Michigan (3), Kentucky (2), Illinois (2), Texas (1), Arizona (1), Arkansas (1), Pennsylvania (1), Virginia (1), Indiana (1), California, Connecticut (1).
- The 12 returning players are responsible for 60.6 percent (20 of 33) of goals scored, 47.8 percent (117 of 245) of shots taken, 49.5 percent (51 of 103) of shots on goal, and 40.7 percent (11 of 27) of assists during the 2022 season.

RHODES BECOMES ALL-TIME LEADER

Jordyn Rhodes became the new all-time goals leader in program history with her two goals against Alabama on Sept. 29. Rhodes now has 45 goals for her collegiate career, passing Kim LaBelle's record of 44 which had stood since 1997.

HISTORIC START

The Wildcats are unbeaten through their first 11 matches for the first time since the 2005 season. The program record for longest unbeaten streak to begin a season is 11 matches, also achieved in 2005. Kentucky is the only team in the SEC without a loss this season and one of just 9 unbeaten sides in Division I.

FABIANO'S FIRST

Second-year head coach Troy Fabiano captured his first SEC win as Kentucky beat Alabama on Sept. 29. Fabiano had previously recorded five draws against SEC opponents.

ENTER STAGE RIGHT

Kentucky found itself in the United Soccer Coaches top-25 this week, coming in at No. 18. It is the first time in the top-25 for the Wildcats since Oct. 6, 2015 when they appeared in the poll at No. 20. The Cats also earned a spot in this week's Top Drawer Soccer rankings at No. 23.

RANKED WIN

The Wildcats win over No. 9 Alabama was its first over a ranked opponent since the 2016 (No. 15 Arkansas) season and its first over a top 10 opponent since 2014 (No. 5 Florida).

NCAA SOCCER TEAM OF THE WEEK

NCAA Soccer selected Kentucky as their team of the week after the Wildcats upset No. 9 Alabama last Friday.

RHODES SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

After her record breaking performance, Jordyn Rhodes was selected as the SEC Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 2. It was Rhodes' second weekly award from the SEC this season and the third of her collegiate career.

STREAK BREAKERS

The Wildcats have snapped two extended losing streaks against SEC foes with their draws vs. Texas A&M and South Carolina. The tie with the Aggies was their first since 2012, while the draw vs. the Gamecocks snapped a seven-match losing streak dating back to 2014. 2023 is also the first time Kentucky has gotten results in its first four SEC matches since 2003.

STINGY BACKLINE

Kentucky has allowed just five goals this season and has not surrendered more than one goal in any match. The five goals allowed are the fewest of any team in the SEC

SEC POINTS

Kentucky is at six points in SEC play thus far, its most points in the conference since the Wildcats finished with six points in 2020. Kentucky is looking to post at least two wins in conference play for the first time since 2017.

EIGHT WIN THRESHOLD

Kentucky is up to seven wins on the season, the same number of wins the Cats have finished with the last two years. UK has not won eight games in a season since 2017.

RHODES GAME WINNERS

Rhodes has scored the game-winning goal in five of Kentucky's victories this season. Her five game-winners are already a new career-high for a single season and are just one shy of Kim Boyce's record of six game-winning goals in a season set in 1999. The five game-winning goals are tied for fourth in Division I this season.

FIRST WILDCAT GOALS

Of the nine Wildcats to record a goal this season, seven of them are first-time goal scorers for UK. Mia Bookhard, Katelyn Fishnick, Taya Hjorth, Ella Kane, Maya Lacognato, Tanner Strickland and Payton Robertson all scored their first goals at Kentucky this season. For Hjorth, Kane and Strickland, the goals were the first of their collegiate careers.

2023 KENTUCKY WOMEN'S SOCCER

SEC PRESEASON WATCHLIST

Four Wildcats were tabbed to the SEC Pre-season watchlist prior to the start of the 2023 season. Marz Josephson, Maggy Henschler, Anna Young and Payton Robertson all received the recognition. It marked the first-time for all four student-athletes on the list. A total of 72 student-athletes were recognized by the Conference.

ROBERTSON IS PLAYER TO WATCH

Transfer defender/midfielder Payton Robertson earned a spot of the United Soccer Coaches Player to Watch list for the 2023 season. Robertson helped Buffalo to a program record 14 clean sheets in 2022, while also leading the team with eight assists. She was named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Midwest Region Second Team for her performance.

HITTING THE PORTAL

Kentucky brings in a group of 12 transfers in 2023, adding plenty of exciting new talent to the roster. Among the transfers is one sophomore, three juniors, two seniors, and six fifth-years/graduate students. The group is made up of one goalkeeper, four defenders, three midfielders, and four forwards. The transfers arrive from the following schools: St. John's, Texas Tech, Wofford, Green Bay, UNC, DePaul, Iowa State, IUPUI, Davidson, RIT, UT Martin and Buffalo. Collectively, the group has scored 46 goals and picked up 52 assists during their collegiate careers. Six of the 12 transfers were All-Conference awardees at their previous schools.

INJURIES

Three of Kentucky's returning players will miss the 2023 season due to injury. Tallulah Miller, Mallory Glass and Hadley Williams have all been declared out for the year with the expectation that all three will return next season.

CATS ON NATIONAL TELEVISION

The ESPN Family of Networks and the Southeastern Conference have announced three nationally televised games for the Wildcats. Kentucky will be facing Florida on ESPN on Sept. 24, Vanderbilt on the SEC Network, Oct. 8, and Mississippi State on the SEC Network, Oct. 15.

FRESHMAN FEVER

Kentucky brings in a class of 11 freshman for the 2023 season including one goalkeeper, four defenders, two midfielders and four forwards. The group comes to Kentucky by way of seven different states and two countries (U.S + Canada). Four of this year's freshman hail from the state of Florida.

BALLIN' AT THE BELL

The Wildcats are scheduled for 10 home matches in 2023, including five of its seven non-conference contests. Notable home games include a matchup with the defending SEC Tournament champions, South Carolina, on Sept. 21, as well as the defending SEC regular season champions, Alabama on Sept. 29.

conference titles and won three conference tournament championships. In 2019, Golas held the head coaching position at Dixie State, leading the Trailblazers to a 12-4-6 record and their second NCAA DII Tournament appearance in program history. Golas hails originally from Sandwich, Mass. and played collegiately at Coe College.

Dobyns arrives in Lexington after spending the last two seasons with the Iowa State Cyclones. She previously coached at the University of Cincinnati as well as at her alma mater, the University of Kansas. As a coach in Ames, Dobyns worked with former ISU keeper, Jordan Silkowitz, who was selected by the Kansas City Current with the 18th overall pick in the 2023 NWSL Draft. Dobyns played her collegiate soccer at Kansas from 2013-17, appearing in 60 matches and helping KU reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2016. She left the program ranked second in goals against average (1.06), third in shutouts (14) and fourth in wins (29).

Sever in her first stint as a coach following her collegiate career playing under Fabiano in Milwaukee. Sever scored 24 goals across her four years of college soccer, winning four Horizon League titles and making four NCAA Tournament appearances. She was a three-time All-Horizon League selection and is known for scoring the fastest goal in NCAA soccer history just 3.2 seconds into Milwaukee's game against Youngstown State in 2018. Post college, Sever played for ZFK Spartak in Serbia for one season, winning the title in the Super Liga, the top Serbian League.
