Cards Close Regular Season at Home Against Intra-State Rival Kentucky

- The University of Louisville will look for its 11th win for the first time since the 2012 season when they host intra-state rival Kentucky on Saturday at L&N Stadium. Kickoff is slated for 12 p.m. on ABC.
- Louisville picked up its 10th win for only the seventh time in school history and the first time since 2013 with a 38-31 win over Miami to clinch a spot in the Atlantic Coast Conference title game on Dec. 2 at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C. It's the first appearance ever for the Cards in any conference championship.
- Louisville equaled its best ever ACC record at 7-1 with the first win over the Hurricanes in Miami.
- Quarterback Jack Plummer completed 24-of-37 passes for 308 yards and three scores in the win over Miami – the third time this season of tossing three or more touchdowns passes in a game and the 12th time in his career.
- Plummer threw the game winner with 4:17 left in the fourth quarter when he connected with Kevin Coleman on a 58-yard pass to put the Cards up 38-31.
- Despite giving up a season high 486 yards of total offense, the Cardinals kept the Hurricanes out of the end zone on four tries inside the Louisville five-yard line. Quincy Riley broke up a pass in the end zone on fourth down.
- Trailing 28-23 in the third quarter, the Cardinals secured their fourth come-from-behind win by outscoring the Hurricanes 15-3 in the final quarter. The four comeback wins are the most since the 2012 season.
- Louisville received touchdowns from three unexpected players as Nate Kurisky, Trevonte Sylvester and Evan Conley each scored touchdowns. Sylvester and Conley scored for the first time this season, while Kurisky reached paydirt for the second time in his career.
- Kurisky had a big game, catching five passes for 50 yards and that touchdown. Joey Gatewood also caught a career best three passes for 51 yards.
- Defensive end Mason Reiger recorded the only sack of the game to raise his season total to 5.0, which ranks 2nd on the team.
- Facing one of the nation's top pass rushing defense, the UofL offensive line didn't allow a sack against the Hurricanes, who entered the game averaging 3.0 per contest.
- Safety Devin Neal led the Cardinals in tackles for the second time this year with eight stops.

QUICK NOTES

- The Cards averaged 6.6 yards per play and recorded six plays of over 20 yards in the win over Miami. Louisville registered 470 yards of total offense, the most yards since totaling 582 in a win over Boston College on Sept. 23.
- Running back Isaac Guerendo scored for the fifth time in the last three games when he reached the end zone from 12 yards out in the first quarter. He's rushed for 333 yards and five scores, while averaging 10.4 yards per carry.
- The Cardinals got much-needed production from the tight end position as that unit combined to catch nine passes for 112 yards and one touchdown.
- Louisville is 6-0 at home this season and is looking to go 7-0 for the first time in school history. The Cards are also going for its 12th-straight home win, which would be the second longest streak in school history.
- Quarterback Jack Plummer tossed three touchdown passes for the third time this season to up his season total to 19.
- By clinching a spot in the ACC title game, head coach Jeff Brohm becomes the first coach to guide two different team to conference title games in back-to-back seasons. He guided Purdue to its first Big Ten West title a year ago.
- Louisville completed passes to 12 different receivers for the second time this season, matching the total from the Murray State game.
- By forcing a punt on the game's first possession, Louisville extends its streak of holding opponents scoreless on their first possession to 15 games.
- Running back Jawhar Jordan became the first Louisville running back to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since Javian Hawkins in 2019. He rushed for 33 yards on nine carries to push his season total to 1,009 yards.
- Placekicker Nick Lopez made the first field goal of his Louisville career when he blasted a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter.
- The Cardinals are averaging 38.8 points per game after scoring 30 or more points five times this season.
- With two more rushing touchdowns, the Cardinals have 25 on the year and have at least one rushing score in 10 of 11 games.

SERIES NOTES

Head Coach Mark Stoops

- Called "the best program builder in all of college football" a year ago by ESPN analyst Tom Luginbill, Stoops' success hasn't come easily.
- Inheriting a program that was 2-10 the year before he arrived, Stoops' rebuilding efforts took time. Two games into the 2016 season his record was 12-26, but the program took off from there and the coach has engineered a 54-33 (.621) mark since.
- Four straight bowl wins – the Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 2022, the 2020 Gator Bowl, the 2019 Belk Bowl and the Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019 – first time in school history that UK won four straight bowls
- Stoops earned his first bowl game as head coach in 2016, when the Wildcats overcame an 0-2 start to go 7-3 down the stretch and advance to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. UK duplicated seven wins in 2017, playing in the Franklin-American Mortgage Music City Bowl.
- Stoops came to Kentucky from Florida State, where he was defensive coordinator from 2010-12. He inherited a unit ranked 108th in the nation in total defense and turned it into one of the nation's best. In the 2012 season, the Seminoles were second in the nation in total defense, allowing 254.1 yards per game, and sixth nationally in scoring defense at 14.7 points per game.

Scouting Kentucky

- Kentucky dropped to 6-5 and 3-5 in the Southeastern Conference after a 17-14 road loss at South Carolina. It was the second-straight loss for the 'Cats and the second one-possession loss on the year.
- Ray Davis rushed for 61 yards and a touchdown and the Kentucky defense had a big effort but the Cats lost to South Carolina 17-14 at Williams Brice Stadium in Columbia.
- Davis is 10 yards short of hitting the 1,000-yard mark on the season, totaling 990 yards and 12 touchdowns this season, while averaging 5.8 yards per carry.
- Devin Leary was 17 of 34 through the air for 171 yards and a touchdown and an interception. The NC State transfer has thrown for 2,234 yards and 20 touchdowns this season, but is completing just 56.4 percent of his throws.
- Dane Key caught four passes for 51 yards and Barion Brown caught four for 30 yards and a touchdown. Brown leads the team with 38 receptions for 391 yard, while Tayvion Robinsons and Key have each caught 36 passes.
- Sophomore Deone Walker led the UK defensive effort with nine tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack and a quarterback hurry. Linebacker D'Eryk Jackson also had nine tackles for UK.
- The Wildcats are allowing just 109.6 yards on the ground and 347.8 yards of total offense.
- Walker tops the 'Cats with 5.5 sacks and 10.5 tackles for loss.
- Maxwell Hairston, one of the top corners in the SEC, leads the program with five interceptions.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Jordan is 82 yards away from becoming the 18th 2,000-yard rusher at Louisville.
- Defensive lineman Ashton Gillotte needs one more sack to enter the top 10 for sacks in a season.
- Gillotte needs 4.0 tackles for loss to crack the school's top-10 list for career tackles for loss and needs 0.5 sacks.
- Brock Travelstead moved into 10th with 14 field goals made. He needs one more to move into seventh place.
- Jordan needs one more 100-yard game to move into seventh for season and career 100-yard rushing games.

Series History

- The state rivals play for the Governor's Cup trophy.
- UK leads the all-time series 19-15. The Wildcats lead 8-5 in games played in Louisville and have won the last three encounters.
- The Wildcats have won five of the past six meetings, including a 26-13 win last season. The two teams didn't play against one another in 2020 for the first time since 1993.
- Louisville is 10-10 all-time at Kroger Field and have won four of the last six on the road. Louisville did drop a 45-13 decision at Kroger Field in 2019 and last season's loss.
- UK has won the last three meetings at Cardinal Stadium. UK captured a 56-10 win in 2018 and in 2016, the Wildcats secured a thrilling 41-38 last second victory over the No. 11 Cardinals, ending a five-game losing streak to Louisville in the process.
- The Wildcats are looking for the first five-game winning streak in the series since winning four in a row from 2007-2010.
- The Governor's Cup was created in 1994 as the trophy for the winner of the Kentucky-Louisville game. Donated by The Kroger Company at a cost of $23,000, the Governor's Cup stands 33 inches tall and weighs 110 pounds. The trophy's base and upright columns are hand-milled black marble. The glass components are optic-grade crystal. All metal parts are 23-karat, gold-plated brass. The cup itself is made of pewter with a 23-karat gold-plated finish.
- The cup was designed by Kendall Costner and sculpted by James Corcoran of Bruce Fox, Inc.
- The Kroger Company also is involved in supporting academic pursuits at the schools. Kroger is donating $10,000 to each school for each year the game is played. Including this year, Kroger's donations now total $500,000 -- $250,000 to each school.

Cards versus the SEC

- Louisville is 21-42-1 against teams from the Southeastern Conference.
- Louisville has lost three in a row against teams from the SEC, with its last win coming in 2019 – a 38-28 win over Mississippi State in the Music City Bowl.

Cards Match ACC Record

- The Cardinals closed the 2023 ACC season at 7-1, matching their best ACC record at 7-1. Louisville also posted a 7-1 mark in 2016 but lost the tiebreaker with Clemson for a chance to play in the ACC title game.
- Louisville's seven conference wins are tied for the most since the program joined the league in 2014.
- The seven conference wins are tied for the second most in school history. Louisville won a school best eight league wins as members of Conference USA in 2004.

Kentucky Players

- The Cardinals have 24 players from the state of Kentucky on their current roster, with one player from Lexington in safety Devin Neal, who attended Douglass High before attending Baylor.
- Danville - Darrian Bell

- Eminence - Dakadrien Sanders
- Frankfort - Kaden Moorman
- Georgetown - Jeremy Hamilton, Bryan Hudson
- Hebron - Nick Keller
- Henderson - Saadiq Clements
- LaGrange - Sam Young
- Lexington - Devin Neal
- Louisville - Selah Brown, Micah Carter, Elijah Downing, Travis Egan, Stephen Herron, Josh Lifson, Jadon Minkins, Josh Minkins, Jaxon Panariello, Mike Powell, Ramon Puryear, Carter Schwartz, Emmanuel Sowders,
- Madisonville - Destin Cheirs
- Springfield - Jatavian Churchill

In the CFP Rankings

- Louisville opened the 2023 College Football rankings at No. 15.
- After the second week, the Cards were No. 11 after the 34-3 win over Virginia Tech and moved up to 10th after the third week.
- Louisville made an appearance in the CFP Rankings for the first time since debuting at No. 25 last season.
- Louisville first appeared in the rankings during the 2016 season when it opened at No. 7.
- Louisville was as high as No. 5 in the 2016 rankings before ending at No. 13 after two-straight losses to end the regular season.
- Louisville moved up two spots to No. 9 in the Associated Press Poll, its highest ranking since it was No. 3 on Nov. 13, 2016.

Streaking

- The Cardinals have won 11-straight home games after the win over Virginia on Nov. 9.
- The Cardinals have scored in 298-straight games since being shutout by Florida State during the 2000 season.
- Louisville has won four-straight games against Group of 5 teams since falling to Air Force in the 2021 First Responder Bowl.
- Quarterback Jack Plummer has tossed touchdown passes in three-straight games.
- Plummer has completed better than 64 percent of his throws in four consecutive games.
- Louisville extends its streak of holding opponents scoreless on their first possession to 15 games.
- The Cards have scored 30 or more points in three-straight contests.
- Defensive lineman Ashton Gillotte has started 25 consecutive games and center Bryan Hudson has made 24-straight starts.
- Isaac Guendo has recorded a rushing touchdown in three consecutive games.
- Wide receiver Kevin Coleman has caught a pass in 11-straight games – the only player on the roster to do so this year.

Overtime Games

- College football introduced overtime during the bowl season in 1995 and adopted it for regular season games in 1996. Since then, Louisville has played in 10 overtime games and has gone 5-5 in those games.
- Louisville hasn't played in an overtime game since winning at Cincinnati 31-24 during the 2013 season.
- Five of the 10 overtime games have come on the road. Louisville is 3-2 at L&N Stadium in extra time.

2030: HOME: Boston College, Pittsburgh, Virginia, Georgia Tech | AWAY: at Syracuse, at NC State, at Duke, at Florida State

Home-Winning Streak

■ Since dropping a 35-31 decision to Florida State last year, the Cardinals have gone on to win the next 11 home games, which is tied for the second longest in school history.

■ With a win over Kentucky, the victory would be the 12th-straight, which would be tied for the second longest in school history.

■ During the streak, four of the wins have come against teams ranked in the top 25 and two were ranked in the top 10.

■ Louisville won a school record 20-straight home contests from 2003-07.

■ Head coach Jeff Brohm is 6-0 at his alma mater at home and 41-19 in home games as a head coach during his 10-year career.

■ The Cards are 6-0 this season and are defeating the opposition by an average of 30.0 points per game.

■ The 11-game home streak is the fourth longest in the country behind Georgia (25), Michigan (21) and Washington (13).

Non-Conference Success

■ After opening the season with a conference win, the Cardinals played their third non-conference opponent on Oct. 7, defeating Notre Dame 33-20. Louisville is 3-0 in this season against non-conference foes.

■ Since joining the league, the Cardinals are 28-15 in non-conference action.

■ Louisville has won seven of its last eight non-league games after going 4-1 last season in games played out of the ACC.

■ Head coach Jeff Brohm is 23-13 in non-conference games in his 10 seasons as a head coach. He's guided his teams to five wins in its last six non-league games.

Coin Toss to Perfection

■ First-year Louisville head coach Jeff Brohm has played the coin toss to his advantage. Brohm likes to win the toss and put his defense on the field first and get the ball to start the second half.

■ Brohm's teams has played it to perfection, winning the toss in nine of 11 games (Virginia and NC State won the toss) and putting its defense on the field first to get a stop, which sets his team up to get the ball to start the half.

■ The defense has forced a stop on the first drive in all 11 games and 15-straight contests, and the offense has capitalized by scoring on eight of the first 11 drives, including seven touchdowns.

■ After forcing Miami to a three-and-out, Louisville marched 69-yards in nine plays to take a 7-0 lead.

■ The Cards are 9-1 this season when scoring first.

■ Louisville limited Virginia Tech to -11 yards on its opening drive, which led to the Cardinals going nine plays in 5:45 to open the scoring with a Jawhar Jordan 1-yard touchdown run.

■ In the 23-0 win over Duke, Louisville forced a punt against Duke and went on a 10-play, 72-yard drive that ended with a touchdown and took 5:19 off the clock.

■ Louisville got the ball to open the half against Duke and drove 72 yards in 7:28 to kick a field goal and extend its lead to 17-0.

11-1 is Uncommon

■ Louisville raised its record to 10-1 with the 38-31 win over Miami – the first time being 10-1 since the 2013 season.

■ With a win over Kentucky, the Cardinals will look for their 11th win for only the sixth time in school history and the first 11-win campaign since the 2013 team concluded the year at 12-1 under Charlie Strong.

■ Head coach Jeff Brohm is the first coach to win 10 games in his first season on the sidelines at Louisville.

■ The Cardinals also went 11-2 in 2012, 12-1 in 2006 and 11-1 in 2004 (with Jeff Brohm on

ALUMNI AFFAIRS

- First-year Louisville head coach Jeff Brohm has placed an emphasis on making alumni feel welcome around the program, and turned to several former Cardinals to fill his first staff at Louisville. Brohm has added four former players to his staff this season. Offensive coordinator/quarterback coach Brian Brohm, offensive line coach Richard Owens, and quality control specialists Brandon Sharp and Mark Sander and chief of staff Greg Brohm are new additions to the coaching staff in 2023. Former wide receiver Deion Branch is also in his second season as the Director of Player Development.
- Quarterbacks coach Brian Brohm returns to his alma mater where he starred from 2004 to 2007, and he still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in passing attempts (second, 1,185), passing yards (second, 10,775), passing efficiency (second, 157.92), completions (third, 780), completion percentage (third, .658), total offense (fourth, 10,819) and touchdown passes (fourth, 71). Brohm guided the 2006 Cardinals to a school best 12-1 record, including a 24-13 victory over Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl, and a No. 6 national ranking in the Associated Press final poll.
- Offensive line coach Richard Owens was a three-starter for the Cardinals from 2000-03, compiling 36 receptions for 371 yards and seven scores. He caught a career best 20 passes for 182 yards and two touchdowns in 2002 and closed his career with 12 receptions for 121 yards and three scores as a senior.
- Brandon Sharp, who is working as a quality control coach on defense, was four-year starter for the football team as well. Sharp was awarded the Louisville Defensive Coaches Award (2007), Big East second team All-Conference, Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Week (2006) and University of Louisville Dean's List (2003).
- Quality control specialist Mark Sander played for the Cardinals from 1987-90 and still ranks second on the team in career tackles with 488. A linebacker, Sander registered a season high 167 tackles during the 1988 campaign.
- Chief of Staff Greg Brohm was a four-year letterwinner and a three-year starter at Louisville from 1988 to 1992. He was the starting wide receiver during the Cardinals' 1991 appearance in the Fiesta Bowl, catching passes from his brother, Jeff.

staff). The 2001 squad also concluded the year at 11-2.

Get the Lead

- The Cardinals have dominated opponents in the first quarter this season, outscoring the opposition 90-21 in the opening quarter after giving up a season high 14 points to Miami on Nov. 18.
- In racing out to a 10-1 record, the Cardinals are 9-1 this year when scoring first. Louisville has stopped its opponents on the opening drive in all 11 games, forcing eight punts and recording a pair of interceptions.
- On offense, the Cardinals have scored on eight drives – seven touchdowns and one field goal.
- In securing its 10th win of the season against Miami, the Cardinals held the Hurricanes on three plays and turned around and scored on a nine-play drive.
- The Cardinals have scored touchdowns on their first possession in five of the last six games.
- In two of the last three games, the Cardinals have scored first after tallying drives that have taken 5:00 or more minutes off the clock. Louisville failed to score when it took the opening kickoff in the 31-24 win over Virginia.
- Louisville took its first drive 70 yards in 12 plays to take a 7-0 lead over Notre Dame and a 10-play, 72-yard drive for a touchdown against Duke.
- The Cards hold a 197-97 advantage in the first half of games this season.
- In posting four come-from-behind wins, the Cardinals are outscoring the opposition 88-33 in the fourth quarter.

No Place Like L&N

- The Cardinals are 6-0 at L&N Stadium this season and have been playing at an extremely high level. Louisville is averaging 38.8 points per game at home in 2023 after the 31-24 win over Virginia.
- It was the fifth time the Cards have scored 30 or more points in their stadium.
- The Cardinals are averaging 459.7 yards per game, putting up balanced numbers. In six games, Louisville is averaging 228.0 yards on the ground and 231.7 yards through the air.
- Turnovers have also been at a premium at home as the Cards own a +8 advantage.
- Running back Jawhar Jordan is averaging 121.2 yards rushing per contest at home and has scored nine touchdowns, while quarterback Jack Plummer is completing 74.8 percent of his passes and has tossed 10 touchdown throws.

Brohm in November; Senior Day

- Head coach Jeff Brohm's teams have been solid in the month of November, posting a solid 26-11 in the calendar's 11th month.
- Brohm's teams have won six-straight games in November after the 38-31 win over Miami.
- His teams are 17-4 at home in the month of November, including 2-0 at Louisville.

- In rivalry games, Brohm has guided his teams to a 4-1 record in games versus Indiana during his six seasons at Purdue.
- Those two teams played for the Old Oaken Bucket, which was also played as the season's final games.
- The Cardinals are 60-43-1 all-time on Senior Day. Louisville has won seven of its last 10 final home games after last season's win over NC State at L&N Stadium.
- Louisville is 16-9 on Senior Day at L&N Stadium and are 1-3 versus Kentucky.
- Brohm has guided his teams to a 7-2 record on Senior Day.

Stopping the Run

- Despite giving up 159 yards on the ground in the win over Miami, the Cardinals bring the 12th-rated rushing defense into the final regular season game of the season. Louisville has allowed only four opponents to rush for over 100 yards in a game – two coming in the last two contests.
- Despite allowing a season-high three rushing touchdowns to the Hurricanes, the Cardinals are rated 29th nationally allowing just 11 rushing touchdowns.
- Louisville has allowed only six runs of over 20 yards this season, which is eighth nationally and just 43 runs of over 10 yards.
- The Cardinals are allowing 3.26 yards a carry this year through 11 contests.
- In six home games this season, Louisville yielding an average of 84.3 yards on the ground and are allowing just 61.0 yards rushing during the month of November.
- Playing in their fourth non-conference game this season, Louisville has allowed an average of 65.3 yards on the ground.

Fourth-Quarter Goal-Line Stands

- In order to go 10-1 in a season, the Cardinals have had to make a number of big plays on defense and that has included two fourth-quarter goal-line stands in wins over Indiana and Miami.
- In the 38-31 victory over the Hurricanes on Nov. 18, the Cardinals held on four plays inside the five yard-line. From the five, Miami gained one yard and threw three-straight incompletions in the final two minutes.
- In the 21-14 victory over Indiana, the Hoosiers had first and goal from the 10-yard line and were stopped on fourth and one when Stanquan Clark and T.J. Quinn stopped the Hoosiers with just over four minutes to play.

Head Coaches at Alma Mater

- Head coach Jeff Brohm, a 1994 graduate of Louisville, is one of 19 current FBS head coaches to lead his alma mater.
- A three-year starter, he still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in touchdown passes (tied for eighth, 38), total offense (ninth, 5,410), completion percentage (ninth, .562), passing yards (10th, 5,451), and passing efficiency (ninth, 129.97), passing attempts (10th, 715) and completions (10th, 402) through the 2022 season. Brohm was voted the team's Most Valuable Player during both his junior and senior seasons, and his No. 11 became part of the Louisville Ring of Honor in 2006.

No Stranger to Top-10 Wins

- One of the reasons head coach Jeff Brohm was lured back to his alma mater was his ability to win big games. In his 10 seasons as a head coach, Brohm has led his teams to four wins over top-10 opponents after Louisville's 33-20 win over No. 10 Notre Dame at L&N Stadium on Oct. 7. The top-10 win was his first at Louisville after securing three at Purdue.
- While with the Boilermakers, Brohm's teams went 3-5 against top-10 teams, including three wins over teams in the top three. In 2021, Brohm led his charges to a win at No. 2 Iowa (24-7) and defeated No. 3 Michigan State (40-29). His biggest win came during the 2018 season when Purdue blasted No. 2 Ohio State (49-20).
- Head coach Jeff Brohm faced a top-10 opponent for the 11th time in his career. He now owns a 4-7 all-time mark against teams in the top 10, after the 33-20 win over No. 10 Notre Dame. It was his first top 10 win since a 40-29 win over the Spartans in 2021.
- Brohm has been solid against teams ranked in the top five, posting a 3-4 record with wins over No. 2 Iowa in 2021, No. 3 Michigan State in 2021 and No. 2 Ohio State in 2018.
- His teams are 4-8 on the road in top 25 contests and 6-6 at home, including a pair of top three wins over Michigan State and Ohio State.

Using Ball Control

- Give head coach Jeff Brohm credit for helping his team manage the football game. In the last three home wins, the Cardinals used a ball control offense to guide them to wins. In three victories, the Cardinals ran the ball 117 times and threw it 57 times in combined 88-27 victories over Duke, Virginia Tech and Virginia. Louisville has averaged 215.7 yards on the ground and won the time of possession battle by holding the ball for an average of 33:45 per game.
- The Cardinals ran it 31 times for 180 yards in the win over Virginia and had one rushing score.
- In the win over the Hokies, the Cardinals rushed 38 times for 231 yards and completed 12-of-13 passes for 151 yards in the 34-3 win. Louisville held the ball for 32:15 in the victory over Hokies. The Cardinals totaled 168 yards on first down and averaged 7.0 yards per play on first down.
- Against the Hokies, Louisville completed 92.3% of its passes with 12-of-13 passing, setting a new school record for completion percentage in a game with a minimum of 10 completions and completed passes to eight different receivers.
- In the shutout victory over Duke, the Cardinals did just enough offensively to dominate the game. Louisville rushed 48 times for 234 yards and controlled the football for 36:51 of the game. In the passing game, Louisville threw it 16 times.

NOTING LAST WEEK'S GAME

- Louisville improves to 4-11-1 in the all-time series vs. Miami, including 1-6-1 in Miami.
- The Cards rise to 10-1 overall for their seventh 10-win season and first since the 2013 Cards finished 12-1.
- Louisville finishes ACC regular season play at 7-1 matching its best ACC record achieved in 2016.
- Louisville clinches second place in the ACC and will face Florida State in the ACC Championship game in Charlotte, N.C. on Dec. 2.
- Jeff Brohm becomes the first coach to take teams to two different Power Five conference championship games in back-to-back seasons.
- Brohm took Purdue to the Big Ten Championship vs. Michigan last year and will lead the Cards against Florida State in the ACC Championship on Dec. 2.
- Louisville completes passes to 12 different receivers for the second time this season, matching the total from the Murray State game.
- Louisville scores on its first possession for the eighth time in 11 games this season, including seven touchdowns.
- Louisville extends its streak of holding opponents scoreless on their first possession to 15 games.
- Louisville claims its fourth comeback victory of the season, matching the 2012 Cards for most comebacks.
- RB Isaac Guerendo rushed for 93 yards on 15 carries, scoring on a 12-yard run. He added an 11-yard reception.
- RB Jawhar Jordan became the first Louisville running back to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since Javian Hawkins in 2019.

- Louisville ranks 24th in the country in time of possession, controlling the ball for an average 31:46 per game.
- Louisville has won the time of possession in eight of 11 games this season.
- The Cards have rushed for over 200 yards in four games this year and are 7-0 over the last two seasons when hitting that number.
- After turning the football over three times in a loss to Pitt, the Cardinals have two turnovers in their last four conference wins. Louisville is +8 in their nine wins this season.

Brohm Finds New Weapons

- Head coach Jeff Brohm has shown the ability to use his entire roster to achieve this 10-1 record this season, and that was on display against Miami as tight end Nate Kurisky, Trevonte Sylvester and Evan Conley scored touchdowns in the win over the Hurricanes.
- Kurisky scored his second career touchdown when he opened the scoring with a 2-yard touchdown reception.
- An offensive tackle, Sylvester scored his first touchdown on a one-yard touchdown reception. Prior to his touchdown reception, the last offensive lineman to score for the Cards was Mekhi Becton with a one-yard TD run in a 31-7 win vs. Indiana State on Sept. 8, 2018.
- The only other Louisville offensive lineman with a touchdown reception was Shawn Kries in a 39-0 win vs. Northeast Louisiana on Nov. 11, 1995. He recovered a fumble in the end zone following a catch by Miguel Montano, making it officially a receiving touchdown.
- Conley scored his second rushing touchdown, and the first since 2019, when he had a five-yard touchdown rush against Miami.
- A total of 15 different players have scored at least one touchdown this season.
- Twelve different players caught passes in the win over Miami, the second time this season the Cards had that many players catch passes in a game.

Kurisky and Gatewood Make Big Plays

- Head coach Jeff Brohm has preached needing more production from the tight end position and that's exactly what he received in the win over Miami.
- The duo of Nate Kurisky and Joey Gatewood combined to catch eight passes for 101 yards after entering the game with 11 catches for 134 yards in the first 10 games.
- Kurisky caught a career-high five passes for 50 yards and put the Cards on the board with a two-yard reception on the team's first drive. He caught a career long 23-yard reception on 4th and two to keep the initial drive alive.
- A former quarterback, Gatewood moved to the tight end spot after transferring from UCF. Entering the game with just four receptions for 74 yards, Gatewood caught three passes for 51 yards, including a 2-yard reception.
- Josh Lifson also added one reception for 11 yards from the tight end spot.

As the Bell Tolls

- The Cardinals have been looking for additional playmakers and they have found one in sophomore Chris Bell. The 6-foot-3 wideout has moved up to second on the team with 23

- receptions for 365 yards and a pair of scores.
- After catching seven passes for 175 yards and one score, Bell has caught 16 passes for 190 yards and one score.
- The native of Yazoo City, Miss. has recorded a career-high four receptions in three different games. He grabbed four passes for 48 yards and a touchdown in the loss to Pitt and four catches for 58 yards in the win over Miami.
- Bell is averaging a solid 15.9 yards per reception and owns six catches of 20 or more yards.
- The true sophomore caught seven passes for 105 yards as a freshman last year.

Fourth Comeback Victory

- The Cardinals claimed their fourth come-from-behind victory of the season in the win over Miami. It equals the most in a season since 2012.
- Louisville battled back from a 28-23 deficit with a 15-point fourth quarter to defeat Miami 38-31.
- Louisville had to recover from a 24-17 deficit to defeat Virginia 31-24 on Nov. 9.
- Placekicker Brock Travelstead booted a school record 53-yard field goal to come back from a 10-0 half-time deficit to defeat NC State 13-10 on the road.
- In the season opener, the Cards trailed Georgia Tech 28-13 at the half before winning 39-34.
- The Cardinals own five one-possession wins this season.

Big Boys Coming Together

- The UofL offensive line has been one of the most unsung groups in the country, but they continue to perform at a high level each week. Behind a group of three seniors, a junior and one sophomore, the line has led a rushing offense that is averaging 185.5 yards on the ground and is ranked 28th nationally. The Cards have rushed for over 200 yards in two of its last four wins.
- The offensive line has helped produce a 100-yard rusher in six of 11 games this season.
- Louisville is allowing 1.82 sacks per game, which ranks eighth in the ACC, and is yielding only 4.73 tackles for loss per game, which is first best in the ACC.
- Miami entered the game ranked seventh nationally in sacks at 3.3 per game and were held without a sack for the first time this season.

- The starting offensive line of center Bryan Hudson, guards Austin Collins, Michael Gonzalez, and tackles Willie Tyler and Eric Miller have combined for 121 career starts but only 49 have come together at Louisville.
- Hudson has started 25 games at Louisville after transferring from Virginia Tech and Gonzalez and Collins were both signed as freshman and have 17 and six starts, respectively.
- Miller has started 40 games, 29 at Purdue, and Tyler transferred in from Rutgers and owns 29 starts.

Getting the Ball Down the Field

- The Cardinals have done a good job getting the ball down the field in the passing game. Through 11 games, the Cardinals are third in the league and 24th nationally.
- Louisville is averaging 13.6 yards a completion after this season and have used the big play to achieve a 10-1 record. Wide receiver Kevin Coleman broke open the tie with a 58-yard touchdown reception with 4:17 remaining in the game. It was the sixth 50 or more yard pass play this season, which is 18th in the country.
- Louisville is also tied for fourth in the country with three pass plays of over 70 yards this year.
- In passing yards per attempt, the Cardinals are averaging 9.0 yards per attempt, which is the 15th-best mark nationally.
- At home, the Cardinals are completing 75.0 percent of their passes and are averaging 13.8 yards a completion.
- Quarterback Jack Plummer leads the league and is 15th in the country in passing yards per completion at 13.8. He also is tops in the ACC with an average of 9.0 yards an attempt.

Fourth Quarter Propels Cards to a Pair of Wins

- In order to clinch its first appearance in the ACC title game, the Cardinals needed a pair of big fourth quarters to get to 10-1 overall and 7-1 in the ACC.
- Quarterback Jack Plummer was brilliant in the fourth quarter of those two wins, completing 11-of-14 passes for 238 yards and two touchdowns. He was 6-of-7 for 135 yards and the game-winning touchdown pass to Kevin Coleman and was 5-of-7 against Virginia for 103 yards and one touchdown pass.

- In the 38-31 win over Miami, used a 15-3 final period to clinch that first appearance. Trailing 28-23 in the third quarter, the Cardinals took a 31-28 lead on a six-yard Evan Conley run, and after a long field goal, the Cards sealed the win with a 58-yard reception by Kevin Coleman.
- After Virginia scored 21 points in a four-minute span of the third quarter to erase a 14-0 advantage, the Cardinals were able to win the game by outscoring the Cavaliers 17-3 in the final quarter.
- The Cardinals totaled 187 yards in the final quarter, including 84 on the ground. Isaac Guerendo secured the win with a 73-yard touchdown run with 3:24 to put the Cards ahead 31-24.
- Louisville tied the game at 24-24 when Jack Plummer hit Ahmari Huggins-Bruce with a 52-yard strike.
- After Virginia kicked a field goal to go ahead 24-17, the Cardinals held the Cavs to just 44 yards on their final two drives.

70+

- Isaac Guerendo scored the game-winning touchdown with a 73-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter in the 31-24 win over Virginia. It was the Cardinals' sixth play this season of 70+ yards.
- Louisville and Tennessee are the only teams in FBS with three plays of at least 70 yards and the Cards are only team with six scrimmage plays of 70+ plays.
- Jawhar Jordan is one of five players with two rushes of over 70 yards and Jamari Thrash is one of 17 players with a pair of 70+ yard receptions.

One-Two Punch

- The duo of Jawhar Jordan and Isaac Guerendo have become one of the better running back duos especially when it comes to putting the ball in the end zone. The combination is one of two groups in the ACC with a pair of players with eight or more rushing touchdowns.
- The UofL duo have combined to record 19 rushing touchdowns. Jordan has 11 rushing scores, while Guerendo has added eight. North Carolina's Omarion Hampton and Drake Maye have 23 rushing touchdowns.
- Jordan and Guerendo are the top rushing duo in the ACC, combining for 1,594 yards this season. The two combined are averaging 6.6 yards per carry. Jordan leads the ACC at 6.73 yards a carry and Guerendo is third at 6.37.

- Jordan became the first Louisville running back to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since Javian Hawkins in 2019. He rushed for 33 yards on nine carries versus Miami to push his season total to 1,009 yards.
- Guerendo has a career best 585 yards and has scored five touchdowns in the last three games.

First-Year Head Coaches at Louisville

- The 104th season of Louisville football will feature a new look on the sidelines this fall as Jeff Brohm took over as the 24th head coach in program history.
- Brohm is sending the Cardinals back to a bowl game for a third-consecutive season in his debut. If history repeats itself, Brohm could be in store for a solid debut season as 10 of the 14 previous head coaches have recorded a winning record in their first year. Louisville has advanced to a bowl game in five of those seasons previously, most recently in the Music City Bowl in 2019 under Scott Satterfield.
- First-year head coaches have found success in their debut season over the past decade as six of the last seven leaders of the football program have boasted a winning record in their debut season. That list features: Ron Cooper (1995), John L. Smith (1998), Bobby Petrino (2003, 2014), Charlie Strong and Scott Satterfield (2019).
- Brohm is the third head coach all-time to inherit a football program coming off a bowl appearance. He joins the likes of Bobby Petrino, who did it in both 2003 replacing John L. Smith and when he was re-hired in 2014 after Charlie Strong led the Cards to the Russell Athletic Bowl.
- Brohm became the first first-year head coach to win 10 games in his first season.

English Lesson

- While the Cards have a top-25 offense, defensive coordinator Ron English's defense has been stellar with a number of defensive categories ranking in the top 25 of the national rankings.
- Louisville ranks 17th in the country in scoring defense, allowing just 18.4 points per game, but the offense has allowed a pair of "pick six" touchdowns, which would lower the total to 15.7 points per game.
- The Cards have limited six opponents to 20 or fewer points and posted a pair of shutouts. In the red zone, the Cards are the second best in the country at 66.7 percent. Through 11 games, the Cards have allowed just 21 trips, which is the third fewest nationally and opponents have only scored 12 touchdowns, which is the seventh fewest in the nation.
- Louisville's defense has dropped to 21st in the country at 317.0 yards per game and are allowing the opposition to average just 5.2 yards per play, which stands 36th nationally.
- The Cards have only allowed 162 plays of 10 or more yards, which ranks 46th.
- The Cards have been stellar on third down at 29.5 percent, which ranks 11th nationally. In the last three wins, opponents have converted just 14-of-52 attempts (26.9) and haven't allowed more than six conversions in the last seven games.

- First downs have been non-existent for the opposition as teams have compiled an average of 15.4 per game.
- Louisville's defense has been stellar against the run, ranking 12th nationally at 98.0 yards per game. The Cards are allowing just 3.3 yards per carry and have held five of the last seven opponents to less than 100 yards – and seven of 10 on the season.

Who is Jack Plummer?

- In five seasons, one at California (2022), and four at Purdue (2018-21), quarterback Jack Plummer made 24 starts in 33 games played, connecting on 601 of his 943 passes for 6,500 yards and 47 touchdowns. In that time, he had just 19 interceptions.
- In his lone season at Cal, Plummer completed 282-of-451 passes (62.5%) for 3,095 yards that ranked sixth on Cal's all-time single-season list with 21 touchdowns, which tied him for eighth and nine interceptions for a 131.5 rating. He ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 16th nationally in completions per game (23.50) through the end of the 2022 regular season and completed at least 20 passes in 10 of 12 games including each of the last eight. The native of Gilbert, Ariz., threw for three touchdowns or more five times and at least one touchdown pass in 10 of 12 games.
- While at Purdue, Plummer played in 21 games with 13 starts over the final three seasons of his four campaigns at Purdue and completed 319-of-492 passes (64.8%) for 3405 yards with 26 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a 136.35 quarterback rating. Plummer played in a career-high-tying nine games including starts in each of the first four and helped his squad post a 3-1 record in those contests as a 2021 junior when he completed 87-of-127 passes (68.5%) for 864 yards with seven touchdowns and no interceptions for a 143.84 quarterback rating playing for a team that finished 9-4 overall and defeated Tennessee in the Transperfect Music City Bowl.

Plummer in the Red and White

- In his first season with the Cardinals, Jack Plummer has completed 197 of his 301 passing attempts (65.4 percent) for 2,710 yards, 19 touchdowns and 10 interceptions through 11 games.
- He also owns a 10-1 record as a starter, which is the best record as a first-year starter in school history.
- Plummer has thrown for at least 240 yards and at least one touchdown in eight of his first 11 games at Louisville after throwing for 308 yards and three touchdowns against Miami – the third 300-yard game this season and third three-touchdown performance. The senior is completing 65.4 percent of his passes, which ranks 28th in the country. He's completed 70 percent or better of his throws in four of the first 11 games after completing 91.7 percent versus Virginia Tech– his first win over the Irish after two losses prior in his career. Plummer tied the single game school record for completion percentage, a record not matched since Jim Wagoner set it vs. Drake

- on Oct. 19, 1974 (minimum 10 completions).
- In two games versus ranked opponents – both wins – Plummer was efficient, going 28-of-40 for just 262 yards and one touchdown, but didn't throw an interception.
- Through 11 games, Plummer ranks 15th and leads the ACC in passing yards per completion with a 13.8 average and is 18th nationally and first in the league in yards per attempt at 9.0.
- The 6-foot-5 signal caller ranks 45th in the nation in total offense with an average of 250.1 yards per game and is 22nd in passing efficiency. His 19 touchdowns are 39th in the country.
- Plummer is fourth in the FBS with three passes gaining 70 or more yards and 15th with 22 passes gaining 30 or more yards. Twelve of Plummer's 19 touchdown passes have gone for over 20 yards.
- The Cal transfer had an efficient 18-of-21 passes for 388 yards and a career high five touchdowns. The 388 yards was the eighth 300-yard game of his career and his 17th multi-touchdown game of his career.
- Plummer accounted for six touchdowns in Louisville's 56-28 win vs. Boston College, passing for five and running for another. This was the eighth time in program history that a Louisville player has been responsible for six or more touchdowns.
- Plummer completed 15 straight passes before an incompleteness on his final attempt, tying him for the fourth longest completion streak in program history.
- The 388 passing yards were the most by a UofL quarterback since Lamar Jackson passed for 393 yards against North Carolina in 2017.
- Plummer guided the Cardinals to 39 points, the most by a UofL quarterback in his debut since Stefan LeFors led UofL to a 40-24 win at Kentucky. Dave Ragone also led UofL to a 40-34 overtime win over Kentucky in 2002.

- After throwing an incompleteness to go 10-for-21 to open the game against Georgia Tech, Plummer would connect on eight of 10 passes to close the game, which included a pair of touchdowns. Plummer accounted for 298 yards of total offense in the win after also rushing for 51. The 51 yards rushing were the second most of his career and the most since he recorded 61 against Nebraska while at Purdue during the 2019 season. It was only the 11th time in 32 games that Plummer recorded a positive rushing total.
- He currently has the 24th-most career yards passing and touchdowns among active players in the FBS (8,991) and (64), respectively.

Love Them Ranked

- The Cardinals have played a pair of ranked opponents this season in Notre Dame and Duke, both wins for the Cards. In those two wins at home, running back Jawhar Jordan has led the charge, running for 206 yards and four touchdowns on 42 carries, while averaging a hefty 7.3 yards per carry.
- In the win over No. 20 Duke on Oct. 28, Jordan matched a career high with 21 carries for a career best 163 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He scored on runs of 14 and 23 yards for the only two touchdowns, while averaging 7.8 yards per carry. He totaled seven runs of 10 or more yards.
- Jordan was also dominant in the win over Notre Dame equaling a career high with 21 touches for 143 yards and scored on runs of 45 and 21 yards in the win over the No. 10 Fighting Irish.

Jordan Surpasses 1,000

- The Cardinals might just have the best running back in the country in Jawhar Jordan. With 33 yards against Miami, Jordan became the 23rd player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.
- Through 11 games, Jordan has rushed for 1,009 yards and 11 touchdowns, recording five 100-yard games.
- He showed bursts versus Virginia, rushing 17 times for 95 yards to run his season total to 976 yards – 24 short of 1,000.
- Jordan was slowed a little bit for the Virginia Tech game. Despite being limited, Jordan rushed 14 times for 57 yards and the game's first touchdown – the seventh game he scored in this season.
- He was on display in the 23-0 win over Duke on Oct. 28 running 21 times for 163 yards and two scores – the fourth multiple touchdown game of the season.
- Jordan left the Pitt game after rushing twice for eight yards, and it made a difference. The Cards were held to less than 100 yards rushing as a team for only the second time this season.
- With two touchdowns over Duke, Jordan had his fifth career game with multiple rushing touchdowns and sixth game with multiple TDs scored. He ranks 20th nationally and is third in the ACC with 11 rushing scores.

- In 27 career games with the Cards, Jordan has nine 100-yard rushing games, all coming in the last 16 games after rushing for 163 yards in the win over Duke.
- Entering the Kentucky game, Jordan ranks second in the conference and ranks 22nd nationally with 1,009 yards. The junior is averaging 6.7 yards per carry, which ranks eighth in the country and first in the ACC.
- Jordan stands 26th nationally in rushing yards per game with 91.7 average.
- The Syracuse transfer ranks 22nd in the country with 12 total touchdowns.
- Jordan leads all FBS players with three scrimmage plays of 70+ yards and is tied for the national lead with two rushes of 70+ yards.
- In the win over Boston College, Jordan rushed 18 times for 134 yards and two scores and also caught one pass for a 75-yard touchdown – the third touchdown of over 70 yards this season.
- Jawhar Jordan's 75-yard TD catch is tied for the fourth longest by a UofL running back.
- Jordan scored on a 72-yard run and also had a 74-yard run against Georgia Tech in the season opener, becoming the only player nationally with two runs of over 70 yards this season.
- The redshirt junior has a rushing TD in seven of 12 games dating back to last season.
- As an all-purpose payer, Jordan ranks 28th nationally and is third in the ACC in all-purpose yardage, averaging 115.6 yards per game. He's caught 15 passes for 200 yards and also returned a kick for 63 yards this year.
- Over the last 15 games, nine ending with 100 yards contests, Jordan has rushed for 1,483 and 13 touchdowns, an average 24 yards to become the 18th different player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season and the first running back to do it since Javian Hawkins ran for 1,525 yards in 2019. Quarterback Malik Cunningham (1,031, 2021) was the last player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.
- Jordan is tied for ninth in school history in career 100-yard rushing games and needs one more this season to tie for seventh in school history for 100-yard rushing games in a season with 10.
- In his third season with the Cards, Jordan has rushed for 1,828 yards and 14 touchdowns after transferring from the Orange, where he totaled 177 yards in two seasons.
- Jordan's 12 touchdown runs in his Louisville career have averaged 27.9 yards and his 13 offensive touchdowns have totaled a 31.5 yard average.

Thrash Closing in on 1,000

- Wide receiver Jamari Thrash has been a great addition to the Louisville offense after transferring from Georgia State. In nine games played, Thrash has 50 receptions for 741 yards and six touchdowns. He needs 259 yards to become the eighth wide receiver to record 1,000 yards in a season.
- Tyler Hudson was the last wide receiver to record 1,000 yards in a season after recording 1,034 yards last year.
- In the win over Duke, Thrash caught seven passes for 73 yards – the fifth game this season of catching five or more passes in a game. In a pair of wins over ranked opponents (Notre Dame and Duke), Thrash caught 17 passes for 148 yards and a score.

- Thrash caught a season high nine passes for 120 yards and in the loss to Pitt – his second 100-yard receiving game at Louisville and seventh overall. The Georgia State transfer ranks second in the ACC in receiving yards and is fifth in receiving touchdowns.
- He caught four passes for 159 yards and a touchdown against Indiana, which included an 85-yard touchdown reception –recording the eighth longest touchdown reception in school history. The 159 yards receiving were the fourth-highest of his career.
- Thrash has six receiving touchdowns this season, which is 55th in the country and sixth in the ACC. He's scored at least one touchdown in five of 10 games this season.
- Through 10 games, Thrash is averaging 74.1 yards receiving per game, which is third in the ACC.
- Thrash set a new school record by averaging 39.8 yards per reception (minimum four catches). DeVante Parker held the previous record of 38.3 yards in a 45-35 win at Pittsburgh on Oct. 13, 2012.
- Thrash is averaging 14.8 yards per reception this season, which is ninth in the ACC and is 110th in the country. The junior has four receptions of 40 or more yards, which is the 20th best total in the nation.
- The native of LaGrange, Ga., is averaging 35.1 yards per play on his touchdowns this season. He's scored seven total touchdowns this year – six receiving and one rushing score to rank 85th nationally and 10th in the ACC.
- Thrash shares the FBS lead with two receptions of 70+ yards and is one of 33 players with at least one 80-yard catch. He ranks 15th with seven receptions of over 30 yards.
- The 6-foot-2 receiver has caught 154 passes for 2,493 yards and 18 touchdowns in 46 career contests.

More Players Emerging

- Head coach Jeff Brohm continues to look for more playmakers, and he hopes he found two more in wide receivers Chris Bell and Jimmy Calloway, and running back Maurice Turner.
- Bell and Calloway emerged in the loss to Pitt, combining for nine receptions for 138 yards and one touchdown. Bell caught a career high four passes for 48 yards and scored the team's lone passing touchdown against Pitt. He opened the scoring with a seven-yard touchdown reception from Jack Plummer. Calloway five passes for 90 yards, both career highs, in the loss to Pitt.

- Taking over for Jawhar Jordan, Turner rushed 12 times for 81 yards in the loss to Pitt, including a 30-yard run. He's third on the team in rushing with 196 yards and one touchdown.
- Calloway is fourth on the team with 14 receptions for 187 yards in nine games, while Bell has caught 15 passes for 272 yards and two scores, which are all career highs.
- In the last five games, Bell has caught 10 passes for 176 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Can Run the Football

- While Jeff Brohm likes to throw the football, his running game doesn't get enough credit. The Cards have put together a pair of 200-yard rushing games in wins over Virginia Tech and Duke. Louisville rushed for 231 yards and four touchdowns against the Hokies and 234 yards and two touchdowns in the win over No. 20 Duke– the third and fourth games of totaling more than 200 yards on the ground this season.
- The Cards moved up to 28th nationally with an average of 185.5 yards on the ground.
- Louisville rushed for 185 yards in the win over Notre Dame last month and added 180 in the win over Virginia on Nov. 9.
- Louisville was held to 94 yards in the loss to Pitt and just 20 in the win over NC State.
- Louisville has 13 rushing touchdowns over the last six games, including four against Virginia Tech to give them 25 on the season, which is the 19th-best total in the nation.
- The Cards are averaging a solid 5.0 yards per carry this year, which ranks 27th.
- Louisville has totaled 55 rushes of over 10 yards and 21 over 20 yards this season. Jawhar Jordan recorded one rushing touchdown of over 20 yards against Duke– the eighth touchdown run of 20 or more yards.
- The Cards have rushed for over 180 yards in eight games this year, including a season best 344 yards against Murray State. Louisville opened the season with 227 yards on the ground in the win over Georgia Tech.

The Great Guerendo

- The Cardinals entered the transfer market for a running back and found Wisconsin stand-out Isaac Guerendo, and the junior has made a huge impact in the last three games.
- In the last three games, Guerendo has rushed 32 times for 333 yards and five touchdowns, while averaging an impressive 10.4 yards per carry.
- In the win over Miami, Guerendo carried 15 times for 93 yards and a 12-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. He posted two runs of 20 or more yards against the Hurricanes.
- Against Virginia, he carried six times for 94 yards and scored the game-winning touchdown on a 73-yard run with over three minutes to play.

- In the win over the Hokies, Guerendo rushed for a career-high 146 yards on 11 carries, scoring on runs of 39, 12, and 36 yards.
- Guerendo is the first Louisville running back to rush for three touchdowns in a game since Javian Hawkins did it in a 48-16 win vs. Florida State on Oct. 24, 2020.
- Guerendo has the first 100-yard rushing game of his Louisville career and the second of his college tenure. At Wisconsin, he rushed for 114 yards versus Maryland for his other 100-yard rushing game.
- The former Badger has made an impact in the first 11 games, totaling 77 carries for 492 yards and seven touchdowns, which is second on the team. He's averaging a solid 6.4 yards a carry and 14/1 yards in the last two contests.
- In the loss to Pitt, Guerendo carried a team high 13 times for 38 yards and his first multi-touchdown game at Louisville.
- Out of the backfield, Guerendo has caught 13 passes for 154 yards after catching three passes for 31 yards against Pitt.
- In the win versus Murray State on Sept. 7, Guerendo tied a team high 11 carries for 63 yards and a touchdown – a one-yard run in the second quarter. He is third on the team with an average of 69.9 all-purpose yards per game.
- While at Wisconsin last season, Guerendo carried 64 times for 385 yards and four scores, while averaging a healthy 6.0 yards per carry. He also caught 17 passes for 115 yards and a score out of the backfield.

More Than Thrash

- While wide receiver Jamari Thrash has stolen most of the headlines, the Cardinals have other wide receivers who have stepped up this season.
- A transfer from Jackson State, Kevin Coleman has caught 19 passes for 234 yards and one score, while averaging a solid 12.3 yards per reception. He's caught a pass in 10-straight games, including a season high five receptions for 26 yards versus Pitt.
- Ahmari Huggins-Bruce is fifth on the team in receiving with 15 catches for 259 yards and three scores. He became the 50th wide receiver in school history to record over 1,000 yards receiving in his career. He's averaging 17.3 yards per reception and scored touchdowns from 52, 45 and 55 yards this season. The junior had a breakout game in a win over Boston College, catching three passes for 110 yards.
- Jimmy Calloway, a Tennessee transfer, has also caught 16 passes for 214 in the first 10 games.
- Sophomore Chris Bell had his best game as a Cardinal in the loss to Pitt, catching four passes for 48 yards and his second touchdown of the season. He's already surpassed his career high with 19 catches for 307 yards.
- At the tight end position, Nate Kurisky, who redshirted last season, stepped up with three receptions for 28 yards against NC State. He's caught seven passes for 58 yards this season, including his first touchdown against Boston College. Kurisky also recorded a career-high five passes for 50 yards and put the Cards on the board with a two-yard reception on the team's first drive against the Hurricanes. He caught a career long 23-yard reception on 4th and two to keep the initial drive alive and grab the come-from-behind win over Miami. Josh Lifson caught a career high two passes for 12 yards against NC State and has five receptions for 48 yards on the year.

Big Play Offense

- Head coach Jeff Brohm has made the big play a part of the Louisville offense this season in leading the program to the 22nd-best offense in the nation.
- Louisville ranks 15th nationally in yards per play, averaging a hefty 6.7 yards per play this season.
- The Cards have 60 plays of over 20 yards this season, which is the 26th-best mark in the country.
- In plays of 30 or more yards, the Cards have 34, which is tied for the 10th most nationally and are 17th with 17 of over 40 yards.
- Louisville is the only team with six plays of 70 or more yards.

Kelly and Neal Leading Safety Position

- The Cardinals have had injury issues at safety this season with M.J. Griffin suffering a knee injury during the start of fall camp. With that injury, the Cardinals have relied on a pair of Power 5 transfers, Devin Neal and Cam'Ron Kelly, to step in and bolster the defense.
- A transfer from Baylor, Neal has started 10 games. He's tied for second on the team in tackles with 59 and has 3.0 tackles for loss. He led the defense with a career-high 11 tackles, including a career-high eight solo tackles. In the win over Virginia and added eight in the win over Miami.
- Neal had his fourth interception of the season along with a pass breakup in the Nov. 9th victory over Virginia. He ranks third in the ACC in picks after 11 games.
- He's the first Cardinal to have four interceptions in a season since Trumaine Washington had four in 2017. He is third in ACC and ranks 33rd nationally with three interceptions.
- In the win over Notre Dame, Neal intercepted two passes to go with eight tackles, 0.5 tackle for loss, and a pass breakup.
- Neal had his first multi-interception game and the first by a Louisville defender since Quincy

Riley intercepted two passes in a 48-21 win vs. No. 10 Wake Forest on Oct. 29, 2022.

- Neal pushed his career interception total to five, including three at Louisville and two during his time at Baylor.
- Last season with the Bears, Neal totaled 41 tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss and registered two interceptions in 11 games.
- Kelly, a transfer from North Carolina, has been named the ACC Defensive Back of the Week twice this season. The native of Chesapeake, Va., Kelly made his eighth start versus Virginia and was second with seven tackles.
- In the win over Indiana on Sept. 16, Kelly equaled his career high with 12 tackles – the same number he had in a game against Notre Dame during the 2020 season with the Tar Heels. He was named the ACC Defensive Back of the Week. He added six tackles, his second interception and forced a fumble in the win over NC State.
- In 10 games, Kelly is second on the team with 52 tackles and is second on the team with a pair of interceptions.
- In limiting the Hoosiers to 357 yards of total offense, Kelly also recorded 2.0 tackles for loss and his sixth career interception and first with the Cards.
- In four seasons with the Tar Heels, Kelly had 180 career tackles and five interceptions in 42 career contests.

Keep Turnovers Coming

- The Cardinals continue to be one of the top teams in the country in forcing turnovers after forcing two turnovers in the win over Virginia. Louisville has forced at least one miscue in three of the last four games and one in every game but three.
- In the win over Virginia Tech, the Cards turned the Hokies over once – the seventh game this year of forcing at least one. The turnover led to a second half touchdown.
- Louisville forced a season-high five turnovers in the win over Notre Dame, recording three interceptions and two fumbles. ND's quarterback Sam Hartman had turned over the football 11 times in the last six quarters dating back to last season's game at Wake Forest when the team turned the football over eight times in Louisville's 48-21 win.
- The Cardinals are 30th in the country and are sixth in the ACC with 18 turnovers gained and are 30th in the country with 11 interceptions.
- Louisville has turned over its opponents at least three times in three games this season and has five games with at least two.
- Louisville was one of the best in the country last season in creating turnovers, finishing 23rd nationally with 30 turnovers gained in 2022.
- The five turnovers against Notre Dame led to 10 points. After Hartman tossed his first interception in 148 attempts, which was a Notre Dame school record, the Cardinals went down and scored the game's first touchdown.
- Louisville ranks 23rd in turnover margin with its +5 margin, creating 18 turnovers and turning it over only 13 times.
- Over the last two seasons, the Cards have forced 46 turnovers over the last 22 games.
- Louisville has recorded at least one turnover in seven of the 10 games and eight of the last 11 dating back to last season.

- The lone turnover, an interception by Cam'Ron Kelly, led to a Louisville touchdown in the first half in the win over Indiana.
- The Cards forced two big turnovers, which led to 10 points in the 39-34 win over Georgia Tech.
- Devin Neal recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass versus the Racers, becoming the first Louisville player to do so in a single game since Kei'Trel Clark did it vs. Syracuse on Nov. 20, 2020.
- Ramon Puryear recorded his first interception on the game's first drive which led to a field goal.
- With the Cardinals clinging to a 29-28 lead in the fourth quarter, Dez Tell sacked Hunter King and forced a fumble that was recovered by Kam Wilson. The Cards would score on the next play to take a 36-28 lead over the Yellow Jackets.

Quinn and Alderman Bolster LB Position

- There were question marks on the defense heading into 2023, especially at the linebacker position where the Cards were starting a pair of new linebackers in T.J. Quinn and Jaylin Alderman. Quinn was a special teams performer for the Cards in 2022 and Alderman didn't see the field.
- Quinn is the team's top tackler through 11 games, totaling 74 tackles after recording a career high 12 tackles in the loss to Pitt and 11 against NC State. Quinn had three-straight double-digit tackle games before breaking it with seven tackles in the win over Duke. He recorded five against Boston College and had the stop on fourth down on the one-yard line against Indiana.
- Quinn ranks 129th nationally and 16th in the ACC with an average of 6.7 tackles per game.
- Alderman is fourth on the team with 49 tackles after registering six against Miami and five in the wins over Virginia and Virginia Tech.
- Earlier this season, Alderman recorded career high eight tackles versus Boston College and a previous career best four against Indiana.
- Quinn responded in his first start against Georgia Tech, recording six tackles and a pass break-up in the win. Alderman, who was making his fourth start and first since 2021, totaled three tackles.

Gillotte Dominating the Opposition

- The junior season could be one of the biggest for junior Ashton Gillotte. Playing on the edge for the first time in Ron English's defense, Gillotte is having a great season in leading the Louisville defense.
- Through the first 11 games, Gillotte has 39 tackles, 13.0 tackles for loss, 10.0 sacks, and leads in the ACC with three forced fumbles.
- Gillotte ranks eight nationally in sacks after recording 1.5 against Virginia to give him a career-high 10 this season. He recorded a pair of sacks in the win over Duke – his second game with two or more sacks this year.
- The native of Boca Raton, Fla., recorded a career high 3.0 sacks in the 56-28 win over Boston College and added one versus NC State. His previous best for sacks was 2.0 against Florida State in 2021.
- Gillotte has recorded 10.0 sacks in the last nine games after registering the 1.5 against Virginia. He leads the team with 13.0 tackles for loss and was recently named a Midseason All-American by CBSSports and Pro Football Weekly. He ranks 19th nationally with an average of 1.3 tackles for loss per game.

- Gillotte has been dominant at home, recording 9.0 sacks at L&N Stadium.
- The native of Boca Raton, Fla., made an impact on the game on the first possession of the season in the win over Georgia Tech. On the third play of the game, Gillotte hit Haynes King and the ball popped into the hands of Ramon Puryear for an interception.
- In his first four seasons, Gillotte has recorded 80 tackles and 20.0 sacks in his first 34 games as a defensive lineman. His 20.0 sacks are just 0.5 short of cracking the school's top-10 list.
- He's also been credited with 28.0 tackles for loss in his first three years, which is four short of cracking the top 10 on the school's all-time list.

Two Shutouts in the Same Season

- The Louisville defense had one of its most dominating defensive performances of the season in the 23-0 win over Duke – the second shutout of the season.
- With the 23-0 of No. 20 Duke, the Cardinals shut out a ranked opponent for the first time in program history.
- Louisville shut out a conference opponent for the third time in the past 50 years and the second time since joining the ACC.
- Louisville shut out two opponents in a single season for the first time since 2010 when the Cards blanked Memphis 56-0 and Connecticut 26-0.
- Louisville limited Duke to 202 yards of total offense and 51 yards rushing.
- Duke's 202 yards of total offense is the third lowest total by a ranked Louisville opponent, surpassing only the 175 yards by No. 9 Miami in 1950 and 189 yards by No. 25 Alabama in 1991.
- The Cards had held four straight opponents under 300 yards of total offense for the first time since 2013-14.
- The Cards had held four straight opponents under 100 rushing yards for the first time since 2016.
- Louisville held Duke to nine first downs, matching the lowest by a ranked opponent in program history which came in a 13-13 tie at No. 9 Miami in 1950.
- With their 56-0 win over Murray State, the Cards recorded their first shutout victory since a 30-0 win vs. Syracuse on Nov. 20, 2020, and their largest shutout victory since a 72-0 win vs. Florida International on Sept. 21, 2013. It marked the 95th shutout victory all-time in school history.
- It was the first shutout win in a home opener since the Cards blanked Kentucky 28-0 to open the 2004 home schedule.
- The Cardinals forced eight three-and-outs and allowed the Racers into Louisville territory just three times.
- Louisville forced 10 punts and turned the Racers over three times, forcing two fumbles and recording an interception.

Don't Throw to Riley

- Cornerback Quincy Riley has been a solid corner for the last two seasons since transferring from Middle Tennessee.
- In 2023, Riley is seventh in tackles with 38 and is second on the squad with two interceptions and owns the team lead with nine pass breakups.
- Riley is 22nd in the country with 11 passes defended.
- Last season, Riley led the team with three interceptions.
- The native of Columbia, S.C., has 12 career interceptions.

Reiger is All Production

- Defensive lineman Mason Reiger is all about production. The junior defensive end recorded the game's only sack in the 38-31 win over Miami. It was his fifth sack in only seven games this season, which is second on the team. He has recorded 16 tackles and 6.0 of them have been behind the line of scrimmage.
- In his career, Reiger has only played in 30 games, but has 17.5 tackles for loss and 8.0 sacks, while forcing four fumbles as well.

Lopez Steps In

- The Cardinals saw another unexpected contributor in the win over Miami. Placecker Nick Lopez booted a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter to give the Cards a 23-21 lead. It was his first field goal after transferring from Cal in the summer.
- Lopez spent three seasons at Cal before enrolling at Louisville late this past summer. He was 1-of-1 during his career with the Bears.

Hodges Takes Over As Punter

- Punter Brady Hodges, who has mainly served as the team's holder, has taken over as the team's punter. In the last four games, Hodges has punted 15 times for an average of 44.3 yards and has a long of 51 yards.
- In the win over Miami, Hodges punted four times for an average of 44.2 yards per punt, including a 51-yarder.
- Against Virginia Tech, Hodges booted the ball four times for an average of 46.0 yards and knocked one inside the 20-yard line.
- Hodges made his debut as a punter against Duke, punting three times for an average of 43.0 yards an attempt.

Jeff Brohm, one of the most accomplished signal callers in school history, returns to his alma mater to lead the University of Louisville football program.

Brohm ushers in a new era of UofL football after elevating the Purdue program to unprecedented success during his six seasons as head coach.

Hired on Dec. 5, 2016, he guided the Boilermakers to four bowl appearances and the school's first Big Ten West Divisional title in 2022.

Prior to his arrival in West Lafayette, the Boilermakers won a combined nine games over four seasons. In his six seasons at Purdue, Brohm compiled a 36-34 overall mark with the Boilermakers. He led the program to notable victories, posting three wins over Top 3 teams: No. 2 Ohio State in 2018; No. 2 Iowa in 2021; and, No. 3 Michigan State in 2021.

Over the last two seasons, Brohm's teams compiled a 17-9 record, including a 9-4 mark in 2021 – the school's first nine-win season since 2003. The school achieved back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 2006-07.

In nine seasons as a head coach, Brohm boasts a career record of 66-44, a .600 winning percentage, and has positioned himself as one of the top offensive minds in the country. His passing offenses have placed in the top 20 in eight of his nine seasons as an FBS coach, which ranked 13th on average over that span.

In his tenure at Purdue, Brohm produced nine National Football League draft picks, highlighted by defensive end George Karlaftis, who was selected as the No. 23 pick in the first round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2022. Wide receiver Rondale Moore was a second-round selection in 2021 by the Arizona Cardinals, and wideout David Bell was taken in the third round by the Cleveland Browns in 2022.

Playing in Brohm's high-powered offense, several Boilermakers were honored for their accomplishments within the league. Moore and Bell captured back-to-back Big Ten Freshman of the Year awards and Big Ten Wide Receiver of the Year awards, while Brycen Hopkins was tabbed the Big Ten Tight End of the Year in 2019. Moore was also the 2018 Paul Hornung Award winner as the nation's most versatile player.

The 2021 season featured a 9-4 record, the second-most wins in Purdue history. The Boilermakers tied for second in the Big Ten West, which included a pair of Top 5 victories over No. 2 Iowa and No. 3 Michigan State, which handed both teams their first loss of their respective campaigns. The Boilermakers capped the campaign with a 48-45 overtime victory over Tennessee at the TransPerfect Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn.

Purdue exceeded all expectations in his first season in 2017 and put the program on the map nationally. The Boilermakers won seven games, recaptured both of its rivalry trophies (the Cannon and the Old Oaken Bucket), and finished the season with Foster Farms Bowl victory over Arizona. They followed that up in 2018 with another Bowl appearance, and Top 25 victories over Boston College, Iowa, and a monumental victory over No. 2 Ohio State at Ross-Ade Stadium.

Prior to taking over in West Lafayette, Brohm spent three seasons at Western Kentucky, where he compiled a remarkable 30-10 overall record (.750 winning percentage), including a 19-5 Conference USA mark (.792), from 2014 to 2016. The Hilltoppers were league champions in 2015 and 2016, the school's first back-to-back titles as an FBS member. They won the 2014 Bahamas Bowl (49-48 over Central Michigan) and the 2015 Miami Beach Bowl (45-35 over Miami), as well as the 2016 Boca Raton Bowl (51-31 over Memphis under interim head coach Nick Holt).

Western Kentucky was ranked No. 24 in the final 2015 Associated Press poll.

In his first go-around as a head coach at Western Kentucky, the Hilltoppers were one of the most explosive offensive units in the nation, averaging 44.6 points, 356.6 passing yards and 526.2 yards of total offense per game over three seasons on The Hill.

Under Brohm's tutelage, WKU's starting quarterbacks completed 69.2 percent of their passes and threw 131 touchdowns and just 25 interceptions. The offense averaged a hefty 7.3 yards per play, while running 72.1 plays per game. Brohm's teams re-wrote the WKU record book, breaking more than 75 school offensive records since 2013, when the Louisville native served as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Western Kentucky ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring offense (No. 6 in 2014, No. 3 in 2015 and No. 1 in 2016), passing offense (No. 2 in 2014, No. 4 in 2015 and No. 5 in 2016) and total offense (No. 4 in 2014, No. 9 in 2015 and No. 5 in 2016) each of Brohm's three seasons as head coach.

As an assistant at his alma mater (2003-08), Brohm played an integral role in coaching during the high point of Louisville football. Serving as the quarterbacks coach in 2006, with his brother Brian as the quarterback, the Cardinals finished the season with a school best 12-1 record, which was capped by winning the Orange Bowl – the school's first appearance in the Bowl Championship Series. That season, the offense ranked second nationally in total offense, fourth in scoring offense and were seventh in passing offense and 12th in rushing.

As the offensive coordinator in 2007, Louisville was just as explosive, finishing fourth nationally in passing offense, six in total offense and 18th in scoring.

One of the top quarterbacks in school history, Brohm returns to UofL where he enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career from 1989-93. A three-year starter, he still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in touchdown passes (tied for eighth, 38), total offense (ninth, 5,410), completion percentage (ninth, .562), passing yards (10th, 5,451), and passing efficiency (ninth, 129.97), passing attempts (10th, 715) and completions (10th, 402) through the 2022 season. Brohm was voted the team's Most Valuable Player during both his junior and senior seasons, and his No. 11 became part of the Louisville Ring of Honor in 2006.

Professionally, Brohm played eight seasons in the NFL, competing with the San Diego Chargers (1994), Washington Redskins (1995-96), San Francisco 49ers (1997-98), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1998), Denver Broncos (1999) and Cleveland Browns (2000). In eight career games - all with the 49ers - he completed 37 of 58 passes (63.8 percent) for 353 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His best game came Oct. 27, 1996, when he completed 19 of 30 passes for 176 yards and a touchdown to lead San Francisco to a 10-9 win over the Houston Oilers. In 2001, Brohm played in the XFL for the Orlando Rage and was named first-team All-XFL.

A standout at Trinity High, Brohm was awarded the Kentucky Mr. Football Award as a senior in 1988, while leading the Shamrocks to a state championship and undefeated season. Brohm was named the Kentucky High School Player of the Decade for the 1980s and was inducted into the Kentucky High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 2014.

A native of Louisville, Brohm, 51, (born April 24, 1971) earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1994. He and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Brady, and a daughter, Brooke.

L&N FEDERAL CREDIT UNION STADIUM

L&N Stadium, which already was in a class of its own, received a substantial renovation in 2018, and now sits as one of the best facilities in all of college football.

L&N Federal Credit Union, a cooperative, financial institution located in Louisville, has inked a naming rights deal with the University of Louisville that renames Cardinal Stadium to L&N Federal Credit Union Stadium on January 30, 2023.

A 20-year, $41-million commitment secures the naming rights with the university through 2042. Opened in 1998 and renovated in 2010 and 2019, Cardinal Stadium is a 58,923 seat facility located at the corner of Floyd Street and Central Avenue and is home to the UofL football program.

The Cardinals completed a $63.3-million dollar expansion of the stadium, which also included a major upgrade to the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex.

In the recent construction, 5,900 seats were added, providing a unique look in the end zone structure and increasing the total capacity to about 60,800. The construction also generated an additional 25,000 square feet of space.

The expansion included 800 modern club seats, 68 premium loge level boxes, and 12 exclusive field level suites. The club seats have access to a premier gathering area that provide viewing access to the field. Fans in that area have an exclusive view of the players, as they exit the football complex through a tunnel and run onto the gridiron from a middle of the field level entrance.

While the seating areas have drastically improved many of the sightlines, fans also will notice additional amenities that will enhance the game day experience. Two 40-foot by 80-foot LED videoboards were installed in the north end zones and a 24-foot by 92-foot football videoboard was installed in the south end zone. The stadium possesses over 8,000-square feet of ribbon boards throughout the stadium, while a total of 344 feet of ribbon boards are mounted on the east and west sides of the stadium.

L&N Stadium, which opened in 1998, featured a capacity of 42,000. In 2010, over 10,000 additional chairback seats were added to a second deck on the east side of the stadium in the UPS Flight Deck. The project included 33 new luxury suites on the Stites & Harbison Suite Level and 2,000 premium loge seats were added to the east side.

A 60-foot wide Norton's Terrace was constructed at the top of the south end zone, connecting the east and west sides of the stadium. A part of the previous expansion was the PNC Club, a 20,000-square-foot, glass-enclosed area that stretches from end zone to end zone at the loge level on the east side of the stadium.

The temperature-controlled club features a full-service bar, concessions, large-screen televisions, lounge seating and tables. It has more than 1,700 outdoor seats under cover with heaters and fans.

In addition to being available during football games, the PNC Club is used for other com-
