OPENING TIP-OFF

• The University of Minnesota women's basketball team (7-1, 0-0 BIG) is headed to Lexington, Ky., to take on the Kentucky Wildcats (4-5, 0-0 SEC) in its first road contest of the 2023-24 season. The game at Rupp Arena is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. CT, and will be streamed on SEC Network+ while Justin Gaard and Lynnette Sjoquist will broadcast the game on KFAN+.

• Minnesota won its fourth straight on Dec. 2, defeating the defending Missouri Valley Conference champions, Drake, in double overtime 94-88 at Williams Arena. In the victory, the Gophers erased an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit with 7:50 to go, and a five-point deficit with 40 seconds to go. All of Minnesota's starters scored in double figures with Mara Braun leading the way with her second career 30-point game, scoring 14 of her 33 in the two overtime periods, including all nine of the Gophers' points in the first overtime.

• For the first time this season freshman Grace Grocholski was honored by the Big Ten Conference as the Freshman of the Week, aiding in Minnesota's victories over two teams that participated in the 2023 NCAA Tournament. Grocholski averaged 19 points, 4.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists in the two wins while shooting 50 percent from the floor. Her 26 points against Norfolk State were the most points scored in a single game this season by a freshman in the league. Through Dec. 4, Grocholski is second among Big Ten freshmen in points per game (11.0), first in rebounds per game (5.4) and is tied for first in assists per game (2.9).

• Minnesota's defense has been outstanding this season, with the team's 53.8 points per game allowed leading the Big Ten and good enough for 35th in the NCAA. This season the 'U' allows teams to shoot just 35 percent from the floor, which is No. 2 in the conference and is 43rd in the NCAA while committing just 11.9 fouls per game, which is No. 1 in the league and No. 5 in the country through Dec. 3. The 'U' has forced 20.9 turnovers per game, good enough for 39th in the NCAA and No. 3 in the Big Ten Conference.

• Mara Braun made history against Drake, making her 34th consecutive free throw in the victory to set a new program record. The sophomore has started the season 27-for-27 from the charity stripe with her streak dating back to last season. Braun is one of five players in the country who hasn't missed a free throw this season with her ongoing streak being No. 8 in Big Ten history and is the longest streak in the conference since 2018.

• Sophie Hart has been one of the hottest players on the Gophers in the last four games with the junior center posting back-to-back career highs in wins over CSUN (13) and Stony Brook (17) followed by another double figures performance (11) against Norfolk State and Drake (12). After a perfect 6-of-6 from the field against CSUN, Hart made each of her first six shots against the Seawolves to extend her consecutive makes to 13 before she missed her first shot in the third quarter. During the four-game stretch Hart has shot 24-of-36 (66.7 percent) from the floor and has swatted six shots, highlighted by her career high three against Stony Brook.

• Minnesota and Kentucky have met just twice with the Wildcats and Gophers splitting those two meetings with the latest coming in 2022 at Williams Arena. Kentucky won the latest matchup 80-74 with Minnesota's lone victory coming back in 2007 in Minneapolis by a score of 92-80.

THE GOLD EXPERIENCE

- The Minnesota Golden Gophers are tied for the youngest team in the Big Ten with Wisconsin with 10 underclassmen (does not include redshirts in their third year of college).

- Minnesota is comprised of seven freshmen and three sophomores along with two juniors, one senior and one graduate student. Despite the youth on the team, the Gophers still return 55.9 percent of their scoring from last year's team.

- The Maroon and Gold have eight different players who call the Land of 10,000 Lakes their home, which is tied for the most of any team in the Big Ten from their home state (Michigan State).

- Minnesota's upperclassmen are led, in experience, by guard Janay Sanders who has played in 118 career games and 2942 minutes in her career. Meanwhile juniors Sophie Hart and Maggie Czinano have combined to play in 79 games while senior Aminata Zie has appeared in nine Division I games and not since 2020-21.

- Despite the youth on the roster the Gophers team still brings in a total of 206 Division I starts between Sanders (87), Heyer (38), Braun (36), Battle (32) and Czinano (13). Of Minnesota's 14 players, six made their college debuts against LIU on Nov. 8, at Williams Arena.

FACING KENTUCKY

- Minnesota and the Kentucky Wildcats are meeting for just the third time in history with the Gophers holding a 14-22 all-time record against teams from the Southeastern Conference.

- This season Kentucky is 4-5 overall but has picked up back-to-back narrow victories over Boston College (83-81) and Tennessee Tech (73-67). Prior to the pair of recent wins the Wildcats had lost five games in a row including a home loss to Austin Peay, 68-63.

- Senior forward Ajae Petty has been the team's top scorer at 15.4 while also averaging 9.8 rebounds per contest. Kentucky also gets double figure scoring from Maddie Scherr and Eniya Russell at 14.0 and 10.1, respectively. The Wildcats roster is composed of five Kentucky natives with Amiya Jenkins being the top contributor of that group at 8.6 points per game and 4.3 rebounds.

- Through Dec. 3, Kentucky has been one of the best teams in the SEC at getting to the free throw line at 22.1 per game, which is third in their conference and 38th in the NCAA. Ajae Petty has four double doubles this season and is No. 1 in the SEC in field goal percentage at 60.9 percent, which is No. 19 in the country. THE FUTURE

- Highlighted by her most recent outing of 26 points against Norfolk State, Grace Grocholski has been a breakout rookie in her first seven games. Starting all seven, Grocholski has made an impact in a different way each time. She's had career highs of 26 points, nine rebounds, seven assists, three steals and has registered two total blocks. Grocholski is the only freshman in the Big Ten this season to post 26 points in a game, seven assists in a game, is one of two with nine or more rebounds in a game and is one of two to make five or more threes in a game.

- It was an emotional debut for redshirt freshman Niameya Holloway against LIU on Nov. 8, the Eden Prairie, Minn., native waited 607 days between official basketball games. Holloway overcame a torn ACL and made the most of her debut by scoring 11 points off the bench, six coming in the fourth quarter, while grabbing six rebounds with five coming on the offensive glass, a team high.

- Holloway's start to her career has been stellar, following up her debut with four different games with three or more steals. She posted five steals in the team's win over Chicago State, four against Stony Brook and had three against NDSU and CSUN. Through five games Holloway is second on the team with 15 steals.

- Minnesota's young squad continued to show its potential against Chicago State, highlighted by Ayianna Johnson's 19 points off the bench in just 13 minutes. Johnson followed that up with a perfect 3-of-3 shooting night against CSUN along with a career high five rebounds in 11 minutes off the bench.

- Minnesota also saw a glimpse of what Ajok Madol can bring to the court against LIU, with the true freshman out of Canada scoring all seven of her points in the second quarter. Madol connected on each of her first three shots and impacted the game on the defensive end as well, snagging one steal.

AROUND THE WORLD IN A DAY

- Sophomore standout Mara Braun had one of the busiest summers one can have after their first year of college, playing basketball in four countries outside of the United States as a member of Team USA's U21 3x3 team.

- During her FIBA 3x3 campaign the Wayzata, Minn., native traveled to Handan, China and Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia, along with a training trip to Colorado Springs. Braun's time with Team USA resulted in a gold medal at the FIBA 3x3 Nations League Final, where she led the Red, White and Blue in scoring in the title game against China.

- Shortly after her return to the U.S., Braun joined her teammates on a trip to Croatia and Greece where the team played in three exhibition contests against local club teams.

- Braun led the team in scoring as a true freshman (15.6 ppg) in 2022-23, becoming the first true freshman to do so since Rachel Banham in 2011-12 (16.1). She ended the 2022-23 season scoring in double figures in each of her final nine games and hit at least one three in each of her final 12 contests.

DIAMONDS AND PEARLS

- Minnesota's "BIG 3" have returned with sophomores Amaya Battle (9.0 ppg, 5.9 rpg, 4.4 apg) and Mallory Heyer (10.4 ppg, 7.1 rpg) joining Braun (15.6 ppg, 3.3 rpg).

- The sophomore class has returned with a vengeance so far in 2023-24 with Braun leading the way with an impressive 18.8 points per game clip while Battle has already posted a new career high in points (20) and rebounds (12) while Heyer notched her sixth and seventh double doubles against NDSU (12 pts, 12 reb) and Drake (16 pts, 10 reb).

- Battle was a stat-sheet stuffer in her rookie campaign, highlighted by crushing a 45-year-old single-season record for assists in a single season by a freshman (Joan Kowalsky, 1977-78). Battle finished with 133 assists, besting Kowalsky by 27.

- Heyer was the No. 1 rebounding freshman in the conference last season at 7.1 per game. Overall in the Big Ten Heyer finished eighth in rebounding average and was 10th in total offensive rebounds.

- The 2023 Big Ten Tournament had a record-setting attendance of 47,923 fans during its first year in Minneapolis at the Target Center. The event featured three of the 10 largest single-session crowds in the event's 30-year history, and its 6,846 average per session was the most since 2008.

- The 2022 Women's Final Four, which was held in Target Center, set an attendance record with over 216,000 spectators. The 216,000 fans were the most at the Women's Final Four since 2004, which was when the Golden Gophers led made their first Final Four in New Orleans.

TICK, TICK, BANG: MARA BRAUN

• Sophomore Mara Braun earned some well-deserved preseason recognition prior to the start of the 2023-24 season. The second-year Gopher was named to the watch list of the Cheryl Miller Award for the nation's top small forward as well as the Big Ten's 2023-24 Preseason All-Big Ten Team, as voted by the league's coaches. Braun was one of just two sophomores to be honored by the conference's coaches, joining Cotie McMahon of Ohio State.

• Braun's program record of 34-straight free throws made is no surprise as the Wayzata, Minn., native holds a career percentage of 90.2 in 37 games, shooting 111-of-123.

• In just her 31st game sophomore Mara Braun reached 500 career points, eclipsing the mark with her 25-point performance against Chicago St. Braun reached the half-century mark the third-fastest in program history, just two games shy of the program record of 29 games by Lindsay Whalen. She was one game shy of Laura Coenen and beat out the likes of WNBA draftees Rachel Banham (32 games), Kenisha Bell (32) and Amanda Zahui B. (34).

• Braun has shown why she was deserving of the Preseason All-Big Ten selection, scoring 25 points in each of the first two games this season. She now scored in double figures 29 times in her 37-game career and has registered 12 20-point performances, with the Gophers record 9-3 in those contests.

• Braun has continued to show her range with at least one three made in 20 straight games. She's also No. 4 in the Big Ten this season in steals per game at 2.3, and is second on the team overall with 18 this season.
