It's Penn, Please

The first time you mention us on-air or in your columns, please use our full name—the University of Pennsylvania. After that, we ask that you refer to us simply as Penn. We would ask that you refrain from calling us Pennsylvania or UPenn at any time. Thanks for your cooperation!

THE SERIES WITH KENTUCKY

• Today's game represents just the sixth meeting between the teams, with UK having won the previous five. This is only the second matchup to be played in Philadelphia, the Wildcats having visited The Palestra just once (on December 14, 1968).

12/9/1967 - at Kentucky 64, Penn 49

12/14/68 - Kentucky 102, at Penn 78

11/24/90 - at Kentucky 85, Penn 62

11/27/99 - at Kentucky 67, Penn 50

1/3/2011 - at Kentucky 86, Penn 62

• This is also a matchup of two of the winningest programs in NCAA Division I history; Kentucky entered the 2023-24 season with 2,375 wins—second on the all-time list behind only Kansas—while Penn was 22nd with 1,835.

• The Wildcats moved to 16th in the Associated Press (AP) national poll on Monday. Penn is 1-3 all-time against teams ranked 16th, the lone win coming the first time the Quakers faced a 16th-ranked team.

1/25/1975 - Penn 66, at #16 Providence 65

12/18/81 - #16 Oregon State 102, Penn 64

11/28/89 - #16 Temple 55, at Penn 54

12/28/2015 - at #16 Villanova 77, Penn 57

• Penn is 7-19 all-time against the programs that currently constitute the Southeastern Conference; the Quakers will face another SEC foe in less than a month when they ring in the new year at Auburn (and former Quaker Ira Bowman, an assistant coach with the Tigers).

• Penn's last win against an SEC team came in the 2019-20 season opener, when the Red and Blue went to Tuscaloosa and beat Alabama in Nate Oats' first game as the Crimson Tide's head coach, 81-80.

2 • Games played by Penn prior to this season at what is now the Wells Fargo Center—a number the Quakers will double this week after playing La Salle in the Big 5 Classic last Saturday and then Kentucky this Saturday. The Quakers split a pair of games with Villanova back when it was called the First Union Center, losing 80-51 on February 6, 2001 and winning 72-58 on December 10, 2003.

2 • Non-conference opponents who are ranked in this week's Associated Press (AP) National Poll: in addition to the Wildcats this Saturday, Penn will face No. 3 Houston on December 30.

2 • Penn players who have collected a double-double this season: freshman Tyler Perkins (24 pts/11 rbs vs. Bucknell) and junior Nick Spinoso (11 pts/11 rbs at UMES). Spinoso flirted with a triple-double in last Saturday's game vs. the Explorers with 17 points, eight rebounds and eight assists.

3 • Overtime games played by Penn already this season: at UMES, against Belmont in the Cathedral of College Basketball Classic, and last Saturday against La Salle at the Big 5 Classic.

4 • 20-point games racked up by Perkins already this season; the last freshman with that many such games was Jordan Dingle, who had five in 2019-20.

5 • Ivy League weekly honors accumulated by senior Clark Slajchert over his career, after he was named co-Ivy League Player of the Week on Monday with Princeton's Caden Pierce.

9 • Double-figure scoring games by Slajchert this season; in the outlier game, a win over Monmouth on November 26, he was "held" to nine points (on a trio of treys).

21 • Three-point baskets made by Penn in Wednesday's win over Division III FDU-Florham, a program record; the Quakers shot 21-34 (61.8 pct) beyond the arc, and nine different players hit treys in the game—one shy of the NCAA Division I record the Quakers set against Delaware State on December 27, 2017.

25 • Of senior Andrew Laczkowski's 37 rebounds this season, 25 (or 67.6 percent) of them have come on the offensive glass.

30 • Of Penn's 39 first-half points in its win over Monmouth, 30 of them were scored by freshmen (14 by Sam Brown, 6 by Augustus Gerhart, 5 each by Perkins and Niklas Polonowski).

42 • Turnovers committed by Penn over the last five games; the Quakers averaged 16.0 turnovers per game across their first five games but have nearly cut that in half over the last five contests (8.4 tpg).

44 • Rebounds snared by Spinoso over the last five games against Division I opponents (8.8 rpg); the junior had averaged 6.3 rebounds per game across the Quakers' first four contests.

55.8 • Penn's overall FG percentage in its last three games, wins over Monmouth (30-60, .500) and FDU-Florham (39-62, .629) sandwiched around last Saturday's loss to La Salle (37-68, .544); of particular note, the Quakers are 45-84 (53.6 percent) from three-point land during that stretch.

67 • Points scored by Brown through six games this season; he missed Penn's first four contests due to injury but has started the last four games and shot 50 percent on 3FG to date (16-of-32).

+82 • Penn's rebound advantage through ten games this season (397-315); the Quakers have outboarded eight of their ten opponents so far this season including a 52-22 (+30) advantage against Bucknell, their largest margin against a Division I opponent since going +37 in a win over Columbia on February 2, 1974 (65-28).

91 • Points scored by Slajchert in the three games Penn has played away from The Palestra; he had 27 on November 10 at Saint Joseph's, 31 a week later at UMES, and 33 last Saturday at the Wells Fargo Center against La Salle.

Notemeal vs. FDU-Florham

- This was the highest-scoring game by Penn since the Quakers scored 112 against another Division III program, Stockton, on November 24, 2018.
- Penn's 21 treys demolished the program mark of 17, set on December 21, 2019 against Widener. (The Quakers' record for treys against a D1 opponent is 16 set three times, most recently last season at Missouri.)
- Nine different players hit a trey, one shy of Penn's NCAA Division I record ten set against Delaware State on December 27, 2017.

• Penn had 29 assists, tied for the program's high mark in the Steve Donahue coaching era, and had a season-low seven turnovers (4.14 A/TO ratio); what will really get Coach Donahue excited is that 13 different players had an assist.

• Penn's 14 steals were tied for a team high in the Donahue era; the Quakers also had 14 in an 82-63 win over Cornell on February 12, 2017.

• Freshman Niklas Polonowski had 16 points, shooting 5-of-6 from the field including a perfect 4-of-4 night beyond the arc.

• Junior Reese McMullen earned a career-high eight points while sophomore Christian Ubochi scored his first collegiate bucket and finished with eight points.

• Senior Colin Chambers broke his career high with nine points, hitting a trio of three-pointers.

Notemeal vs. La Salle (B5C Third-Place Game)

• This marked just the sixth time Penn lost a game in which it scored at least 92 points; the last time it happened was November 21, 2009, a 97-94 loss to Delaware in two overtimes.

• Penn shot a season-best 54.4 percent from the field (37-68) and for the second straight game went 12-of-25 (48.0 percent) from distance.

• Senior Clark Slajchert tied his career high with 33 points, his second 30-point game this season—he had 31 at UMES two weeks ago—and his fourth such game at Penn; his other 33-point game came last year against Colgate.

• Slajchert was 14-of-22 from the floor and knocked down five of his eight three-point shots. The five treys matched his season and career high.

• Freshman Tyler Perkins had 20 points, his fourth such game already this season; 18 of them came after halftime (14 in the second half, 4 in OT).

• Junior Nick Spinoso flirted with a triple-double, finishing the day with 17 points, eight rebounds—which tied for game-high honors—and eight assists. He also blocked two shots.

• Senior Andrew Laczkowski had eight points, one shy of his season high, and grabbed four rebounds (three on the offensive glass).

Notemeal vs. Monmouth (COCB Classic)

• Slajchert and Perkins were named to the Cathedral of College Basketball Classic all-tournament team, joined by Monmouth's Xander Rice, Belmont's Cade Tyson, and Lafayette's Devin Hines.

• Penn committed just eight turnovers in the game; the Quakers entered the Cathedral of College Basketball Classic averaging 16.0 turnovers per game but had 25 across the three games (8.3).

• Penn had 18 assists, a season high against a Division I opponent; the Quakers had a 1.92 assist/turnover ratio on the tourney weekend (48/25).

• Penn tied a season high with 12 three-point baskets—the Quakers also hit 12 in the opener against D3 John Jay—and shot 48 percent from beyond the arc (12-25).

• Penn shot exactly 50 percent from the field (30-60), the third time this season the Quakers have gone 50 percent or better.

What is #Whānau?

A Maori tribal word emanating from New Zealand, Whānau (pronounced “fah-now”) is often translated as “family” but its meaning is more complex. It includes physical, emotional and spiritual dimensions.

Whānau can be multi-layered, flexible and dynamic.

Coach Donahue found this word when he read James Kerr’s book about New Zealand’s famous “All Blacks” rugby team, Legacy: What The All Blacks Can Teach Us About The Business Of Life

- Penn’s leading scorer was freshman Sam Brown, with 16 points (14 of them coming in the first half). He also had six rebounds.

- Perkins ended the day with 15 points and led all players with seven rebounds.

- Junior George Smith and freshman Augustus Gerhart both had 10 points. Smith also had two rebounds, four assists and two steals while Gerhart finished with three boards.

- Polonowski saw some significant minutes in the first half and had five points in a row early in his stint.

Notemeal vs. Belmont (COCB Classic)

- Penn was outrebounded for the first time this season, the Bruins outboarding the Quakers 39-36.

- Perkins led the Quakers with 25 points, 21 of them coming after halftime. It was a season/career high and he added eight rebounds, three steals and two assists.

- Spinoso once again nearly pulled off a double-double, scoring 21 points—one shy of his career high—and grabbing a game-high nine rebounds. Spinoso shot 10-of-13 from the field and dished out four assists.

- Slajchert had 21 points, 17 of them coming in the second half. He also led all players with a career-high seven assists and snared four boards.

- It marked the first time in exactly six years that Penn had three players score 20 or more points in the same game; on November 25, 2017 Ryan Betley scored 26 points, Antonio Woods had 23 and Eddie Scott added 21 in Penn’s epic, 101-96 four-overtime win at Monmouth.

- Brown made his first collegiate start, but after scoring 29 points in his first two games he was held to three on Saturday.

Notemeal vs. Lafayette (COCB Classic)

- Penn knocked down 10 three-pointers, most against a Division 1 opponent this season; the Quakers had 12 against D3 John Jay in the season opener.

- Penn shot a season-best 85.7 percent from the foul line (18-21).

- Slajchert led the Quakers with 18 points, extending his double-figure scoring streak to seven games dating back to last season.

- Perkins had 14 points, 11 of them in the first half, and added two assists and two steals. He was 3-of-5 beyond the arc.

- Brown was the third Penn player in double digits, with 12 points off the bench (also going 3-5 from distance).

- Spinoso nearly had his second double-double in as many games, finishing with nine points and 10 rebounds. He also had three assists and three blocked shots.

Notemeal at UMES

- Penn had 11 steals, a season high and most since the Quakers had 12 against Brown on March 9, 2019.

- Slajchert led all scorers with 31 points, his season high and the third time he has hit the 30-point mark in his career.

- The revelation was Brown, who came into the game midway through the first half for his first collegiate action wearing the Red and Blue. He then finished the day with 17 points, knocking down four of his six three-point attempts and going 5-5 at the foul line.

- Spinoso posted his second collegiate double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds; he also had three assists and two blocked shots.

- Laczowski finished the day with nine points and seven boards, five of them coming on the offensive glass.

- Smith made his first start this season and led Penn with four assists; he also had four rebounds and two steals.

- Perkins ended the day with a team-high four steals to go with seven points, six rebounds and two assists.

Notemeal vs. Villanova

- This was Penn’s first win over an AP-ranked team since the Quakers knocked off then-No. 17 Villanova, 78-75, on December 11, 2018 (also at The Palestra).

- Penn has now won 16 games against ranked opponents at home and 21 all-time.

- Penn shot 51.1 percent from the field—its second time over 50 percent this season—and was a season-best 41.2 percent from beyond the arc (7-17).

- All five starters scored in double figures on Monday night, the first time that has happened in a game since a 92-86 win over Cornell last February 4.

- The leading scorer was Perkins, who had 22 points for his second 20-point performance in Penn’s three games against Division I competition.

- Perkins also tied for team-high honors with six rebounds, sharing it with Smith.

- Philadelphia native Ed Holland III was 2-3 from beyond the arc and 4-6 from the field overall en route to 12 points; he added five rebounds and three assists to his stat line.

- Sophomore Cam Thrower had 11 points, knocking down two of his four trey attempts.

- Spinoso had his first double-figure scoring game of the season, with 10 points, and added five rebounds and two blocked shots.

Notemeal at Saint Joseph’s

- Slajchert led all scorers with 27 points—in fact, nobody else in the game had more than 13—as he shot 11-of-17 from the field and knocked down five of his eight three-point shots. The five treys matched a career high set twice before.

- Slajchert was the only Penn player to score a double-figure total as Perkins scored eight points, Holland added seven, and Smith had six.

- Spinoso scored just four points but led Penn with seven rebounds and four assists.

Notemeal vs. Bucknell

• For the second straight game, Penn never trailed in the contest. The Quakers scored 41 seconds in—a third-chance Perkins three-pointer and-1—and never looked back.

• Penn shot 31-of-63 from the field (49.2 percent) and is now 68-of-132 (51.5 pct) through two games.

• Penn outrebounded Bucknell by an astounding 52-22, and almost matched the Bison's rebound total just on offensive boards alone (20); it's the Quakers' widest margin against a Division 1 opponent since February 2, 1974 when they had a +37 margin against Columbia (65-28).

• Perkins led all players with 24 points and 14 rebounds for his first collegiate double-double and added five assists and two steals.

• Slajchert was Penn's only other double-figure scorer, with 11 points, and he had five boards and three assists in a team-leading 36:33 of game time.

• Thrower tossed in nine points—adding six rebounds and four assists—while Laczkowski and sophomore Johnnie Walter added eight apiece and Holland scored seven.

Notemeal vs. John Jay

• Penn scored 61 points in the first half, a program high in the Steve Donahue coaching era (previously 60 against Stockton on November 24, 2018).

• Penn shot 37-of-69 from the field overall, a 53.6-percent night, and drained 12 three-pointers.

• Penn had 26 assists on its 37 baskets and had a 26/13 assist/turnover ratio.

• Holland led all scorers with 16 points, going a perfect 7-of-7 from the field. It's the second-best shooting night by a Penn player in the Donahue era, surpassed only by Eddie Scott's 8-of-8 night at Monmouth on November 25, 2017.

• In his first collegiate game, Perkins got the start and stuffed the stat sheet with 15 points—13 of them coming in the first half—six rebounds, a game-high five assists, and three steals.

• Slajchert scored 14 points—all in the first half—drained a trio of treys, and had four assists.

• Thrower scored 12 points (one shy of his career high), grabbed six rebounds (doubling his previous high), and had two assists.

• Gerhart had 10 points and five rebounds and led all players with three blocked shots.

• Spinoso played just 12 minutes but led Penn with eight rebounds to go with two points—coincidentally, the first two points of the game and season—and four assists.

• All the newcomers got on the scoresheet—Johnnie Walter (5 points), Polonowski (3), Ubochi (1) and Hsu (1)—while Chambers knocked down his first collegiate three-pointer.

2023-24 Schedule Notes

- As has become tradition, Penn front-loaded the schedule with eight games in the first 19 days of the season including four in the season's first eight days. Penn will play six games in December, five in January, seven in February, and three (hopefully more!) in March.

- Penn hosted a Thanksgiving tournament for the second straight season. The four-team Cathedral of College Basketball Classic saw the Quakers host Lafayette on Friday, Nov. 24; Belmont on Saturday, Nov. 25; and Monmouth on Sunday, Nov. 26.

- Penn has several first-time opponents this season, starting with John Jay College and including Belmont. Other new opponents include Maryland-Eastern Shore—the Quakers traveled to Princess Anne on November 18—FDU-Florham (12/6), and Houston (12/30).

- Another rare opponent on this year's docket is Auburn, with whom Penn will turn the calendar with a game January 2. This will be just the second meeting between the programs, the first coming back in 1999. One of the Tigers' assistant coaches is Ira Bowman, the 1995-96 Ivy League Player of the Year as a player at Penn and an assistant coach with the Quakers before he made the move to Auburn after the 2017-18 season.

- The Big 5 has a new setup this season, with Drexel joining the city series and the teams being divided into three-team pods. (Penn's pod included Saint Joseph's and Villanova.) From those "group stage" games, the teams were paired up for the inaugural Big 5 Classic on Saturday, Dec. 2 at Wells Fargo Center.

5th: Drexel 57, Villanova 55

3rd: La Salle 93, Penn 92 (OT)

Final: Saint Joseph's 74, Temple 65

- One week after the Big 5 Classic, Penn will be back at the Wells Fargo Center to play Kentucky. It will be just the sixth meeting between the Quakers and the Wildcats—only the second in Philadelphia—and the second this century (the other coming in 2011).

- Just two days after Kentucky, it's reunion time when Penn hosts Howard at The Palestra. The Bison—MEAC champions and NCAA Tournament participants last season—boast former Quaker Jelani Williams on their roster.

- The Ivy League has undergone some schedule changes from the last two years. Among them: Penn will face Cornell, not travel partner (Princeton), on MLK Day; and the schedule is backloaded to include four "Ivy weekends" over a five-week span in February and March. Penn—which plays four straight road games from January 27 to February 10—will end the season with three Ivy League home games and five of its last seven at The Palestra.

- A noteworthy weekend comes March 1 and 2, when the men and women host Ivy doubleheaders at The Palestra. Interestingly, they will not feature common opponents as is usually the case. On Friday, the women host Dartmouth while the men host Cornell, and on Saturday the women host Harvard while the men host Columbia.

Ivy Preseason Poll Results

Penn was picked to finish fifth in the Ivy League's Preseason Media Poll, which came from the votes of two members of each school's media contingent. The poll was announced on Tuesday, Oct. 17.

2023-24 Ivy preseason media poll (first-place votes in parentheses)

1. Yale, 124 (14)
2. Princeton, 110 (2)
3. Cornell, 80
4. Brown, 77
5. Penn, 68
6. Harvard, 66
7. Dartmouth, 28
8. Columbia, 23

That's Not All...

A quick scan of some other preseason predictions for the Quakers...

- Blue Ribbon picked Penn second, selected senior Clark Slajchert for its preseason all-conference team, and selected freshman Tyler Perkins as its preseason Newcomer of the Year.

- Lindy's picked Penn fourth and selected Slajchert as second-team All-Ivy.

- KenPom rates Penn fifth among Ivy League teams and 215th overall in NCAA Division 1.

#IvyMadness, Year 6

The sixth edition of the Ivy League Tournament will take place March 16-17 at Columbia's Levien Gym. The top four regular-season finishers will descend upon New York City for the semifinals on Saturday, with the final to determine the League's NCAA Tournament bid on Sunday. All three games will air on the ESPN family of networks. The first two Ivy League Tournaments, in 2017 and 2018, were hosted by Penn at the historic Palestra.

STEVE DONAHUE, JOHN R. ROCKWELL HEAD COACH

PASSION. GRATITUDE. UNITY. COMPETITIVENESS. HUMILITY.

Now in his ninth year and eighth season as the John R. Rockwell Head Coach of the University of Pennsylvania men’s basketball program, these are the five core values that Steve Donahue has established for the players, coaches and staff affiliated with the program that are under his stewardship.

Steve Donahue was introduced as the John R. Rockwell Head Coach of Men’s Basketball on March 17, 2015 as the 20th head coach in program history.

Donahue is the only person in Ivy League history to lead two different programs to conference championships, Cornell (2008, 2009, 2010) and Penn (2018). In addition, he is one of just seven coaches in Ancient Eight history to win 100 conference games—he finished the 2022-23 season with 134 total—and the only one among those seven to do it at two different schools (78 at Cornell, 56 at Penn)

Donahue’s third year at Penn was one of the most memorable in the program’s illustrious history. The Quakers went 24-9 overall, the most wins since the 2001-02 team had 25. In Ivy League play, Penn went 12-2 during the regular season and clinched a share of its first Ancient Eight title since 2006-07. Following the regular season, the Red and Blue defeated Yale and then co-champion Harvard in the Ivy League Tournament to earn the program’s first NCAA Tournament bid since 2007. The Quakers traveled to Wichita, Kan., where they fell to top-seeded Kansas, 76-60.

After the season, Donahue was named Ivy League Coach of the Year, NABC District 13 Coach of the Year, and ECAC Coach of the Year.

The Quakers followed that up by going a perfect 4-0 against their Philadelphia Big 5 foes in 2018-19, including a 78-75 win over No. 17 Villanova that snapped the Wildcats’ record 25-game win streak in Big 5 play. It was the first time Penn went 4-0 in Big 5 play since 2001-02 and just the second time since 1973-74.

Donahue’s hiring marked a return to Penn for the Delaware County native; he was an assistant coach for the Quakers under Fran Dunphy from 1990-91 until 1999-2000. During that 10-year span, Penn won six Ivy League titles—including four separate undefeated conference campaigns—and compiled a 182-91 overall record that included a 114-26 mark in Ivy play.

Donahue left Penn to become head coach at Cornell ahead of the 2000-01 season. He stayed in Ithaca for 10 years, gradually building the Big Red program up until the table was set for a three-year run that included a trio of Ivy League titles; a 72-21 overall record that included a 38-4 Ivy mark; and three NCAA Tournament appearances that included a run to the Sweet 16 in 2010. Donahue was the Clair Bee National Coach of the Year and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 4 Coach of the Year in 2009-10; and the NABC District 4 Coach of the Year and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District II Coach of the Year in 2007-08, when his team went 14-0 in Ivy League play to become just the third program in Ancient Eight history to achieve an unbeaten conference season (also Penn and Princeton).

While at Cornell, Donahue coached and/or recruited seven of the school’s top 13 all-time leading scorers; two Ivy League Player of the Year selections; two Ivy League Rookie of the Year selections; eight NABC All-District selections; six Academic All-District players; and two Academic All-Americans.

Following that Sweet 16 campaign, Donahue left Cornell to become head coach at Boston College. He spent four years at The Heights, going 21-13 his first season and getting the Eagles to the NIT. In 2012-13, Olivier Hanlan was the consensus ACC Rookie of the Year.

Prior to his arrival at Penn for the 1990-91 season, Donahue was an assistant under legendary coach Herb Magee at Philadelphia University for two seasons and helped the Rams to a pair of 20-win seasons and the NCAA Division II Tournament. Before that, Donahue was as an assistant for current Lafayette head coach Fran O’Hanlon at Monsignor Bonner High School, helping guide Bonner to a Catholic League title. He began his coaching career at Springfield (Pa.) HS.

A 1984 Ursinus College graduate, Donahue was a four-year letter man in basketball and baseball for the Bears and captain of the basketball team as a senior. His freshman season, Donahue helped the hoops team finish 23-8 and advance to the NCAA Division III Tournament semifinal round. His sophomore year, the Bears were NCAA quarterfinalists.

Donahue and his wife, Pamela, have four children: Taylor, Matthew, Katie and Jack.

Twos, Threes, and Frees

In a Philadelphia Daily News article published in September 2015, Coach Donahue explained his offensive philosophy thusly: "I want to get a layup or a dunk. When I'm attacking the basket, I ask my guys, 'Are you 95 percent certain that you're going to make this or get fouled?' If they're not, there are mechanisms in place to find my second thing: a standstill, in-rhythm three. The third thing is a post-up with two feet in the lane, one on one. If you get that, great; if not, it should be kicked. So everything we do evolves from that."

With that in mind, we decided to chart the number of two-point field-goal attempts, three-point field-goal attempts, and foul shots that Penn has taken this season as well as the field-goal breakdown throughout Donahue's career as head coach.

at Penn 102, John Jay 57
Nov. 6, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Penn won the opening tip and Nick Spinoso scored 21 seconds into the contest to give the Quakers a lead they wouldn't relinquish. A Division III program, John Jay pushed tempo which played right into Penn's hands, and the Red and Blue had dropped 20 points by the time the first media timeout came with 15:20 left in the first half.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn reached the 100-point mark for the 38th time in program history and set a high in the Donahue era with 61 points in the first half.

- Junior Ed Holland III went a perfect 7-of-7 from the field, the second-best shooting night by a Penn player in the Donahue era (Eddie Scott 8-of-8 at Monmouth on November 25, 2017).

GAME 2

at Penn 80, Bucknell 61
Nov. 8, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Another quick start, the Quakers scoring first just 41 seconds into the game and blowing out to a double-digit lead on the other side of the first media timeout of the night (16-5). Penn essentially doubled up the Bison through much of the first half en route to a 20-point lead at the break (53-33). Bucknell came out fast to start the second period, and eventually got as close as nine (63-54) before the Quakers went on a 13-2 run to go back up 20 and restore order.

Two Quick Notes...

- For the second time in as many games, Penn scored first and was never tied or fell behind again.

- Freshman Tyler Perkins had a double-double in his first game against a D1 opponent, leading all players with 24 points and 14 assists.

GAME 3

at Saint Joseph's 69, Penn 61
Nov. 10, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Penn was down early but used a 9-1 run, taking what would be its only lead of the night when George Smith knocked down a three-pointer to make the score 15-13. The Quakers went ice cold after that, the only field goal over a 10-minute span coming beyond the arc from Clark Slajchert. Saint Joseph's took a 33-20 lead into the locker room.

The Hawks' lead bulged to 19, at 52-33, at which point the Quakers embarked on a stirring comeback. Penn outscored SJU 19-2, and it was 54-52 when Slajchert knocked down one of his three second-half treys. It was still 65-60 with 2:20 left, but nobody scored again until there were just 35 seconds left and it was SJU who got the points. Penn then rushed the ball down the floor but turned it over out bounds.

Two Quick Notes...

- After never trailing in its first two games, Penn only led for 12 seconds in this one.

- Senior Clark Slajchert led all scorers with 27 points—in fact, nobody else in the game had more than 13—and tied a career high with five treys, set twice before.

GAME 4

at Penn 76, #21/21 Villanova 72
Nov. 13, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — The 21st-ranked Wildcats led just once in this contest, Justin Moore canning two free throws to make it 30-28 late in the first half. However, Penn scored the last four in the period and took a 32-30 lead into the locker room.

Villanova got within one four times in the second half, the last at 45-44. The 'Cats then had a chance to take the lead but threw it away, and next thing you knew Penn had scored five in a row. That lead eventually bulged to nine, at 57-48, and crested at 11 when Tyler Perkins hit a trey to make it 68-57.

Villanova made its move in the final minute and got as close as two when Justin Moore sandwiched treys around a Clark Slajchert free throw. However, with 3.8 seconds left Slajchert hit a pair to finalize the two-possession separation.

Two Quick Notes...

- This was Penn's first win over a ranked opponent since the Quakers beat then-No. 17 Villanova, 78-75, on December 11, 2018—also at The Palestra.

- Freshman Tyler Perkins scored 22 points, giving him at least 20 points in two of his first three games against Division I opposition.

GAME 5

at UMES 83, Penn 80 (ot)
Nov. 18, 2023

PRINCESS ANNE, Md. — A back-and-forth game that had 15 lead changes and 14 ties, UMES won the game when Elijah Wilson drained a three-point shot at the overtime buzzer. This, after the Hawks hit a trey with 2.6 seconds left on the clock in regulation to tie things up.

UMES led by six with just 23 seconds left in the OT period, 80-74, but Sam Brown hit a three-pointer (he had 17 points in his collegiate debut) and then, after a timeout, the Quakers turned their hosts over and George Smith fed Brown at the top for a second triple to tie it up. However, after a timeout UMES quickly brought the ball up the floor and passed it across court to Wilson, who had a clean look and hit nothing but net.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn had 11 steals in the game, most since the Quakers had 12 against Brown on March 9, 2019.

- Junior Nick Spinoso had his first double-double of the season with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

GAME 6

at Penn 74, Lafayette 72
Nov. 24, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Down, 69-68, Penn took a timeout and, off the inbounds, Clark Slajchert nearly was picked but got control of the ball in the backcourt. The Lafayette player who dove for the ball that Slajchert picked up was out of position, leaving the Pardis shorthanded on defense, and as he cross the time line Slajchert kicked out to George Smith on the right wing. The junior was true with his trey, and Penn led 71-69.

Lafayette had two chances to tie, the first shot missing and the second attempt getting blocked by Nick Spinoso. After a timeout, Penn got the ball to Cam Thrower who was fouled. He made both shots to make the score 73-69, but the Leopards drained a trey to make it a one-point game. Sam Brown made one of two late free throws to set the final score.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn knocked down 10 three-pointers, most against a Division 1 opponent this season.

- Senior Clark Slajchert led Penn with 18 points and matched his career high with five assists—set last season against, you guessed it, Lafayette.

GAME 7

Belmont 84, at Penn 79 (ot)
Nov. 25, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Penn trailed in regulation, 72-68, but Clark Slajchert hit a mid-range J from left baseline to make it a one-possession game. The Quakers then fouled and Belmont's Keishawn Davidson missed front end of his 1-and-1. Slajchert then scored to tie things up at 72-72 and force overtime.

Malik Dia scored two quick buckets to open the extra period, and after that Penn got within one possession just once—when Perkins converted all three points in an and-1 layup to get it to 82-79 in the final minute. The Quakers then had a chance to tie it, but after a timeout their play was blown up and they were called for a backcourt violation. Penn was forced to foul and Belmont got the ball to right guy, Cade Tyson making both of his shots to set the final score.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn was outrebounded for the first time this season, 39-36.

- Penn had three players score 20 or more points in the same game for the first time in exactly six years (Tyler Perkins 25, Clark Slajchert 21, Nick Spinoso 21).

GAME 8

at Penn 76, Monmouth 61
Nov. 26, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Monmouth led, 19-13, when Penn went to work. A Nik Polonowski backdoor feed from Nick Spinoso was the start of a 15-2 Quakers run—13 of the points coming from freshmen—and Penn's lead was 28-21. The Red and Blue expanded their lead to 12 by halftime, 39-27, then Spinoso and Tyler Perkins opened the second-half scoring to push Penn's lead to 16, at 43-27.

The lead crested at 20, 53-33, before Monmouth made a move with a 19-6 run. The margin was still seven, at 66-59, when Clark Slajchert sandwiched a pair of treys around two Perkins foul shots for a game-clinching 8-0 run. That made the score 74-59 with three minutes left and essentially ended the Hawks' momentum.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn committed just eight turnovers; the Quakers entered the tournament averaging 16.0 turnovers per game but had just 25 across the three games (8.3).

- Senior Clark Slajchert and freshman Tyler Perkins were named to the all-tournament team.

GAME 9

La Salle 93, Penn 92 (ot)
Dec. 2, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — In the Big 5 Classic's third-place game at the Wells Fargo Center, it looked like the Quakers were going to escape with the overtime win when Clark Slajchert drove to the hoop and floated home a shot high off the backboard with just 4.1 seconds left. However, the Explorers got an improbable victory when Khalil Brantley inbounded the ball, got it back, took a few dribbles and hoisted a shot just inside the midcourt line that banked in. The play would later come in as the No. 1 play on SportsCenter's "Top 10 Plays" for the day.

It was a gut-punch finish to a game that went back-and-forth throughout the contest, the teams changing leads 14 times and tying 13 other times.

Penn also got 20 points from freshman Tyler Perkins, while Nick Spinoso flirted with a triple-double (17 points, 8 rebounds, 8 assists). La Salle had six players reach double figures in the scoring column, led by Brantley's 24 points.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn shot a season-best 54.4 percent from the field (37-68) and for the second straight game went 12-of-25 (48.0 percent) from distance.

- Senior Clark Slajchert matched his career high with 33 points (previously set last season vs. Colgate).

GAME 10
at Penn 111, FDU-Florham 57
Dec. 6, 2023

PHILADELPHIA — Penn led just 14-11 after six minutes, but a Sam Brown trey set the Quakers off on an 11-0 run that was essentially the knockout punch. The Quakers outscored the Devils the rest of the period, 42-12, to take a 56-23 lead into the locker room. Any ideas that FDU-Florham had of getting back into it in the second half were quickly squelched, as Penn needed less than three minutes to score the first 12 points of the period.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn shattered a program record by knocking down 21 three-point baskets (on just 34 attempts, a .618 percentage).
- Senior Colin Chambers was one of several players to establish a new scoring high, with nine points on a trio of treys.

• From 1970-79, Penn went 223-56 overall, a .799 win percentage?

The only schools with a better win percentage during the 1970s were UCLA (.73-27, .910) and Marquette (.252-40, .863). UNC was fourth (.786) while Kentucky was fifth (.764).

• Penn was a part of arguably the most famous Final Four in history?

The Quakers joined Magic Johnson's Michigan State team and Larry Bird's Indiana State team in Provo, Utah, that year. Penn was beaten by the Spartans in the semifinal round. The fourth team in that Final Four? DePaul—led by Mark Aguirre—which beat Penn 96-93 in OT in the consolation game. The ninth seed in a 10-team East Region (the tournament featured just 40 teams in 1979), many consider that Penn team to be the first "Cinderella" in NCAA Tournament history.

• Penn's 1970-71 team holds a unique distinction in college basketball? That Quaker squad went 28-1 overall, losing in the NCAA Tournament East Regional final to Villanova. The Wildcats would later vacate the win due to the use of an ineligible player in the game. Thus, in the NCAA's eyes, Penn's record that year is 28-0—making them the only "undefeated" team in history to play in the NCAA Tournament but not win it. (There have been undefeated teams that did NOT play in the NCAA Tournament, most notably Kentucky in 1953-54 and N.C. State in 1972-73.)

• Penn is one of just two teams to defeat the University of North Carolina in an NCAA Tournament game played in the state of North Carolina? On March 11, 1979, the ninth-seeded Quakers defeated the top-seeded Tar Heels, 72-71, in an East Regional second-round game played at Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh. (That day is known by fans on Tobacco Road as "Black Sunday," as second-seeded Duke also lost at Reynolds, to St. John's.) UNC's only other loss among its 37 in-state NCAA Tournament games came on March 18, 2018, an 86-65 loss to Texas A&M.

• Penn holds the second-longest conference winning streak in NCAA Division I history? The Quakers won 48 straight Ivy League games from 1992-96, including three straight 14-0 seasons in 1992-93, 1993-94 and 1994-95. The overall record for conference wins is held by UCLA, which won 50 straight Pac-8 games from 1971-74.

• Penn's 1919-20 and 1920-21 teams were considered national champion? The 1919-20 Quakers went 20-0 during the regular season, clinching the EIL title with a four-overtime win over Princeton (tied for the most OTs played in program history). Penn then met the Western champion, the University of Chicago, in a best-of-three series to determine the national champion and won the series 2-1. The 1920-21 team went 21-2 overall, the only losses coming by a point at Cornell and by two points vs. Penn State. Both of those Quaker teams were retroactively named national champion by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

• Penn's home court, The Palestra, has hosted 48 NCAA Tournament games? The first were the East Regional in the tournament's first year, 1939. The most recent took place in 1984, when Penn hosted an opening-round tripleheader. The Palestra also hosted the last Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (A.I.A.W.) national championship game, in 1982, as Rutgers beat Texas, 83-77. The following year, the NCAA took full control of the women's basketball national championship.

• Three former Penn players are currently Division I head coaches? They are Matt Langel (Colgate), Fran McCaffery (Iowa), and Andrew Toole (Robert Morris).

• When Penn beat Delaware State on December 27, 2017, the Quakers set an NCAA Division 1 record? Penn had 10 different players hit three-pointers in the 105-52 win at The Palestra, breaking the previous mark of nine set three times, first by Dartmouth in 1993 and most recently by Michigan in 2008.

• Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly was once the head coach at Penn? Before he won a pair of NBA titles as head coach of the Detroit Pistons in 1989 and 1990, and before he headed up the "Dream Team" at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Daly spent six years at the Quaker helm, going 125-38 (including a 74-10 Ivy League mark) and winning four Ivy titles.

Penn is the most recent Ivy League team to reach the Final Four, doing so in 1979.
