KENTUCKY HOSTS FINAL MIDWEEK GAME

Kentucky will play its final home midweek of 2024 on Wednesday afternoon as the Wildcats, fresh off a series win over No. 13 Alabama, takes on in-state foe Northern Kentucky at 5 p.m. ET. The game will be shown live on SEC Network+ and the ESPN app with Dave Baker and Jenny Dalton-Hill on the call from John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

The Wildcats and Norse have met five times, with UK 5-0 in the series. Last year, UK won the game 9-0 as Alexia Lacatena threw a one-hitter and Kentucky's offense exploded for eight runs in the top of the fifth inning after the Wildcats were up 1-0 through four and ended the run rule on the Norse.

NKU already has a power-five win under its belt this season as the Norse knocked off the Big Ten's Michigan Wolverines in Highland Heights earlier in March. NKU is under the direction of ninth-year head coach Kathryn Gleason.

CAT SCRATCHES

* Rachel Lawson is in her 17th season at the helm of the UK softball program and already ranks as the winningest head coach in school history. 2023 was her 13th-straight 30-win season with UK, not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season.

* 2024 marks the 12th-straight year that Rachel Lawson, Kristine Himes and Molly Belcher will make up the full-time coaching staff. It is the longest-tenured coaching staff in the UK Athletics Department, and the longest in SEC Softball. UK added Grace Baalman to its staff this season with the passing of the new rule that permits four full-time coaches on staff now.

* The Wildcats have allowed two runs or less in each of its first five games for the first time in program history.

* Rachel Lawson has given up pitch calling duties for the first time in her head coaching career. Grace Baalman will call pitches for UK this season, with the exception of Stephanie Schoonover, who Lawson will still continue to call pitches for due to their three-year on-field relationship.

* Stephanie Schoonover returns in 2024 with full health in her pitching arm after working through injury in 2023.

* Kentucky will have 13 televised games in 2024, as well as returning to the ESPN Shriners Children's Elite Invitational in Clearwater for the first time since 2019.

New Look Kentucky Softball in the Circle [and the dugout]

For the first time in head coach Rachel Lawson's career, she has given up pitch calling duties for 2024. Pitching coach Grace Baalman will now call the pitches for the Wildcats after being hired as the third full-time assistant coach with the NCAA rule change this offseason.

Lawson will continue to call pitches for Stephanie Schoonover only per Schoonover's request since she is a senior and she and Lawson have a three-year working relationship.

Lawson's Baker's Dozen

Rachel Lawson has led Kentucky to 13-straight seasons of 30+ wins with UK's victory over Florida on May 7. She is the only coach in program history to accomplish this feat.

Back to Old Kentucky in the Circle

Kentucky did not allow more than two runs in any of its opening weekend games. This marks the first time in program history that UK has allowed two runs or less in five-straight games to start the 2024 season.

Kentucky vs. Opponent

Opponent	UK vs.	Lawson at UK vs.	Last meeting
Northern Kentucky	5-0	5-0	2023 // W, 9-0 (5) at NKU

Three Fifths

Kentucky owns wins against four of the five power conferences in softball. UK has wins over the PAC-12 (Stanford 2x), ACC (North Carolina), Big Ten (Ohio St., Wisconsin). The Wildcats will have 15 more chances to get an SEC win and currently do not have a Big 12 team on its schedule. UK was leading UCF 2-0 in Clearwater in the top of the first inning, but the game got washed out due to rain.

Kentucky Topples Alabama

Kentucky took its first SEC series of the season with a series win over #13 Alabama. The Wildcats won 6-3 on Thursday night and took the rubber match 4-3 on a Rylea Smith walk-off double. It was Rylea Smith's second time walking off a series win over Alabama in Lexington (2021). UK had two terrific performances from Stephanie Schoonover in the circle, as she threw over 300 pitches on the weekend as Kentucky played in front of a season-high 5,000+ fans over the series.

Lawson Joins Team USA Coaching Staff

Rachel Lawson on April 1, 2024 was named to the Team USA National Team coaching staff. She will work with head coach Kelly Kretschman on the Women's National Team and Junior Women's National Team for the Great Britain in a pair of exhibition games at the conclusion of the Women's National Team training camp in late June before heading to the Japan All-Star Series in July.

Riding The SCHOONover

Stephanie Schoonover in the Alabama series: 2-0 record; 1.87 ERA; 2 CG, 15.0 IP, 6R, 4ER, 9BB, 13K, 9H.

Gritty Kitties

On opening weekend alone, Kentucky picked up two wins when trailing in the fourth inning or later of the game.

UK has five wins this season when trailing after the fourth inning.

Kentucky only had one win all of 2023 when trailing after the fourth inning or later in the game, so 2024 already surpassed that total one weekend into the season.

Chopping Trees in the Golden State

UK took down No. 3 Stanford 2-1 and 3-2 in two highly-competitive games. Jaden Vickers pitched a complete game in the 2-1 win Friday afternoon and Stephanie Schoonover threw an eight-inning complete game in the 3-2 extra-inning win as the Wildcats took two wins over a top-five team to kick off the season.

Ranked Opening Day Success

Kentucky's win over Stanford on opening day was its highest-ever ranked win on opening day in program history. The last time UK beat a ranked team on opening day was knocking off No. 25

The Kentucky Softball team will be featured 13 times on national television, it was announced by ESPN and its partners on Wednesday afternoon, January 31. Kentucky will be competing in the highly prestigious Shriners Children’s Clearwater Invitational this February, returning to the event for the first time since 2019. The Wildcats will have two nationally-televised games in the event with its opener against North Carolina on Feb. 15 shown on ACC Network

Preseason Honors

The Kentucky Softball team placed two of its members on the Preseason All-Southeastern Conference Team, the league office announced. Both Erin Coffel and Stephanie Schoonover were named to the team, as two of the 24-member team that was voted on by the 13 SEC head coaches.

New Kid on the Block

Grace Baalman has been hired as a full-time assistant coach and will begin her role immediately. Baalman will assist Lawson and the coaching staff in all area of the program, but will primarily work with the pitching rotation in her day-to-day.

With the new legislation passed by the NCAA, softball teams are now permitted to have three full-time assistant coaches. Baalman, who was a Wildcat pitcher from 2018-2021 and has been on Rachel Lawson’s staff as a volunteer assistant coach since 2022, will step into a full-time role joining the longest-tenured SEC Softball staff with Kristine Himes and Molly Belcher.

Baalman was an All-Southeastern Conference pitcher for UK from 2018-2021 having played in three NCAA Super Regionals and four NCAA Regionals. Baalman won 14 games her freshman year to lead all Southeastern Conference pitchers in 2018 with a 2.72 ERA in 31 appearances with three shutouts and 10 complete games.

Kowalik in the Pros

Former Kentucky Softball catcher Kayla Kowalik was named the 2023 Women’s Pro Fastpitch Rookie of the Year, the league announced at its postseason awards ceremony in Talladega, Alabama.

Kowalik, who hit .394 on the season, was also named WPF All-Outfield and ended the regular season as the stolen base leader in the league with 14 swiped bags. The native of New Braunfels, Texas, who is a two-time National Fastpitch Coaches’ Association All-American scored 27 runs on 43 hits this season as the USSSA Pride went 18-16 to earn the No. 3 in the WPF playoffs, which begin this week

USA! USA! USA!

Erin Coffel was selected as one of 16 players in the country to represent Team USA at the 2023 Pan Am Games this fall in Santiago, Chile

Coffel was the only active NCAA collegiate athlete in the roster of 16, as she joined 15 other players who have already graduated from NCAA athletics including former Southeastern Conference standouts Aliyah Andrews, Mia Davidson, Montana Fouts, Savanna Jaquish, Aubrey Leach, Amanda Lorenz and Haylie McCleney.

The 2023 Pan Am Games were held from October 29 through November 4 in Santiago. Selected from the WNT athlete pool, the Women’s National Team Selection Committee (WNTSC) formed the Pan American Games roster based on previous and ongoing evaluations at the collegiate and professional levels as well as USA Softball National Team events.

UK Signs Six in NLI Period

Kentucky Softball head coach Rachel Lawson announced that she and the Kentucky Softball team has signed six players to a valid National Letter of Intent during the fall NLI window.

“This class has a dominant battery within in that compliment each other well and Lindsey

Miller is an exceptional defensive catcher who will be able to work with Julie Kelley and Carson Fall. Allison Blum and Anna Mauck are both extremely versatile athletes who we will use to their full disposal who are additionally outstanding hitters and competitors in the box who will add to the depth of our offense. Ava Emmert is reliable infielder who adds a lot of power to our lineup and extends the length of our order one through nine.” – Rachel Lawson on 2023 signing class

The signing class is another feather in the cap for the Kentucky Softball program who has now signed some of the highest-ranked classes the last several years under head coach Rachel Lawson. All of these players listed below will enroll at the University of Kentucky in the fall of 2024 and will compete in their freshman seasons in the spring of 2025.

RACHEL LAWSON

HEAD COACH - 17TH SEASON - ALL-TIME WINNINGEST HEAD COACH AT UK

When Rachel Lawson was named head coach of the University of Kentucky softball team in July 2007 she saw a program poised for success. She knew athletics director Mitch Barnhart and the rest of UK's administration would give her unwavering support, and most importantly she knew the Big Blue Nation would provide the home-field advantage necessary for her team to compete in the Southeastern Conference.

Entering her 17th season as UK's head coach in 2024, Lawson's vision for the UK softball program has become a realization. The winningest head coach in program history has not only lead UK to its first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, eight NCAA Super Regionals the last 11 seasons, including a program-best 50 wins in 2014, but UK's administration come through on their promise and commitment to softball by providing Lawson with one of the nation's greatest collegiate softball facilities in the $9.5 million John Cropp Stadium.

She became the first coach in program history to eclipse 400 wins at Kentucky against Utah on Feb. 15 in a 13-2 win over Utah at the inaugural ESPN St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational Presented by Wilson.

In 2014, Lawson guided Kentucky to the Women's College World Series behind 50 wins. The Wildcats also set single-season records in at-bats, runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, total bases, walks, fielding percentage, putouts, lowest ERA and strikeouts. UK, which advanced to the program's first SEC Tournament Championship, started the season with a program-best 12 straight wins.

Seven of the last nine full seasons, Lawson has led the Wildcats to a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The school's first-ever national seed was in 2013 – and UK hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time ever. Kentucky, which has made the NCAA Tournament each of the last 13 seasons, is one of just 16 schools nationally to claim that honor.

In 2019, Kentucky had one of its best offensive seasons ever – setting the school record for runs scored, batting average, on-base percentage, slugging and trying the program best with 71 home runs. Abbey Cheek was named the 2019 SEC Player of the Year, becoming the first player under Lawson to win a conference Player of the Year honor. Additionally, UK made its third-straight NCAA Super Regional and swept its way through the Lexington Regional for a third-straight season.

She guided the Wildcats to a run-rule sweep of the 2018 NCAA Lexington Regional, as the Wildcats became just the third team in NCAA history to run rule all three games of a regional. Kentucky beat Illinois-Chicago 10-1 in the opening round, shutout Notre Dame 10-0 in the 1-0 game and then ended the weekend with a 9-1 win over the Fighting Irish to book UK's sixth ticket to the NCAA Super Regionals.

Lawson helped guide Kentucky to its best regular season in program history in 2016, winning 43 games in the regular season, ending with a No. 9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, a new program best. The Wildcats earned the right to host the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington. Lawson was named the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year, and joined Kelsey Nunley (SEC Pitcher of the Year) as the first two Kentucky winners of those awards.

The 2016 team finished with some of the best pitching numbers in program history, setting school records in the circle for lowest team ERA (1.71), lowest opponent batting average (.191), fewest runs allowed (130), fewest earned runs allowed (98), fewest hits allowed (280) and fewest doubles allowed (44)

Lawson has won 587 career games at the head of the dugout and has coached four National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Americans in the last 10 years. Abbey Cheek became the first unanimous All-American in program history in 2019 after the most prolific offensive season in Kentucky annals. In 2016, senior pitcher Kelsey Nunley became the second All-American in program history (Molly Johnson, 2nd Team), and the first to be named to the First Team. That was followed by Katie Reed in the 2018 season, who was named to the third team.

Now sitting at 495-295 in her 14 seasons at Kentucky, Lawson is the winningest head coach in school history and already has more wins in SEC play than UK had all told as a program when she took over in 2007. UK finished the 2014 season ranked sixth in both national listings for its best final ranking ever. In 2013, Kentucky was ranked in the top 14 of both collegiate softball rankings for the second time in school history with nine wins over ranked teams. In her 14 seasons at Kentucky, Lawson has defeated over 113 ranked foes, including 57 wins vs. top-10 teams and 32 against top-five teams.

Lawson's 2013 squad set the stage for the 2014 run to the Women's College World Series, setting several school records, including a then-program record 41 wins. All told, Lawson has directed the Wildcats to 30 or more victories in 11-straight seasons, which also resonates as a program record. In her 12 years with Kentucky, Lawson has helped UK players earn 50 All-SEC honors and 29 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Lawson's impact on the UK program is obvious, but her ability to develop players sometimes gets overshadowed by her impressive credentials in handling the day-to-day running of a program. Lawson, who serves as the pitching coach for the Wildcats, has guided three different pitchers to throw no-hitters against top-25 teams in just the last seven seasons alone. In all, UK has 17 career no-hitters – all of which have come under Lawson's tenure – including two perfect games.

Kentucky's 2012 season was highlighted by an impressive second-half surge with upsets of 12 ranked opponents, a then Lawson-best fifth place finish in SEC action, a program-record six captured conference series and a senior class who became the first class in school history to tally a .500 record or better in each of their four seasons of play.

In 2011, Lawson directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA Super Regional appearance and finished the season ranked No.12 in the country. The 2011 team earned a 40-16 overall record to set a new single-season standard for wins in a season before Lawson's 2013 team posted 41. UK appeared in the national rankings for a school-record 14 consecutive weeks, defeated 12 top-25 ranked opponents, captured five SEC series and became a national story with a dramatic postseason run which included a seventh-inning rally to knock off the nation's No. 2 team in Michigan in Ann Arbor to advance to Super Regionals.

The 2011 Wildcats shattered 12 single-season UK records, including home runs (65), RBI (275) and batting average (.275). Individually, the Wildcats had a school-record five players earn National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region honors in Meagan Aull, Cervantes, Kara Dill, Riley and Megan Yocke. Following the end of the impressive 2011 season, Lawson was rewarded with a five-year contract extension keeping her at the helm of the Wildcat program through 2016. That contract has been extended several times since, including June of 2014, which keeps Lawson in UK blue through the 2020 season.

In 2010, the Wildcats charted a 32-27 record and entered into the national rankings for the first time in program history, while also knocking off five top-seven ranked opponents on the year. Behind the pitching tandem of sophomores Riley and Bell, the Wildcats broke school records in nearly every pitching category. Kentucky's offense continued to make strides as well with improvements in batting average, home runs, RBI and sacrifice hits for the third consecutive season under the direction of Lawson.

Lawson led the Wildcats to their first NCAA Tournament appearance and charted the school's first postseason victories in 2009, just her second season leading Kentucky. UK notched a 34-23 record and the first winning season in UK history in nearly 10 seasons. Kentucky upset three ranked opponents on the year, including No. 7 Georgia in a 2-0 victory in the SEC Tournament. Molly Johnson became the school's first All-America selection when she was voted to the second team in 2009. Kentucky earned 13 victories in conference play, and finished sixth overall in league action.

During the season the head coach also charted her 100th career victory in a 5-1 UK triumph over Eastern Illinois on March 1. Lawson became the winningest head coach in program history on April 10, 2013 with win No. 182 against Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Ky.

Lawson became just the third head coach in the history of the Kentucky softball program after spending three seasons at Western Kentucky. She also served as an assistant coach at Maryland from 1996-2002 and was the associate head coach of the Philadelphia Force professional team in 2006.

Lawson tallied a record of 92-84 (.523) during her tenure with the Hill-toppers. In her first season at WKU, she led the Toppers to a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, WKU tied for second in the conference standings after setting a school record with 12 Sun Belt victories. The Billings, Mont., native led WKU to a 33-24 record in 2005 and reached the 30-win plateau again in 2007.

Lawson and the Hilltoppers battled nine NCAA Regional participants in 2006, including four teams ranked in the top 25, while finishing third in the Sun Belt regular-season play. She guided the squad to wins over perennial powers Long Beach State, South Florida, Mississippi Valley, as well as No. 13 Louisiana-Lafayette and No. 21 Louisville. In fact, then-freshman pitcher Ryan Rogge tossed the school's third no hitter against the Ragin' Cajuns in WKU's 8-0 victory.

Lawson joined the Maryland staff in 1996 and helped the Terrapins post six winning seasons in her seven years in College Park. Her responsibilities included recruiting, scheduling, organizing practice and travel, as well as running camps and clinics. In 1999, Lawson and company were selected the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Terrapins to a 51-23 record, their first ACC regular-season title and the championship game of the NCAA Region II Tournament.

During her time at Maryland, Lawson helped eight individuals earn NFCA all-region accolades — with an All-America honoree in 1999 — and nine players collected all-conference honors.

A 1994 graduate of Massachusetts with a degree in exercise science, Lawson also earned her master's degree in sports management from UMass in 1998. She is the daughter of Elaine and Gerald Lawson and has 11 siblings.
