OPENING TIP

SARGE IN CHARGE

Clint Sargent was named the 10th men's basketball head coach in program history on March 29, 2024 after originally joining the Wright State coaching staff in 2016. Sargent served as the associate head coach the last three seasons prior to his promotion.

Since Sargent's arrival at Wright State ahead of the 2016-17 season, the Raiders have won a combined five Horizon League championships between regular season and tournament titles, including trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2018 and 2022. Wright State captured its first win in its NCAA Division I history in the 2022 tournament with a First Four victory over Bryant. Sargent has been heavily involved in the recruiting and development of Raider players during his time at Wright State.

RAIDER RETURNERS

Wright State returns eight letterwinners off its 2023-24 roster, led by mainstays Alex Huibregtse and Brandon Noel. Both players started 31 of 32 contests last season, each averaging 33.1 and 34.4 minutes per game, respectively.

Noel, the 2023 Horizon League Freshman of the Year, averaged 14.5 points and 8.0 rebounds last season as a redshirt sophomore while shooting 53.5 percent overall, while Huibregtse averaged 12.3 points and 3.8 rebounds last season as he shot 52.5 percent overall and 41.7 percent from three-point range.

WRIGHT STATE 2024-25 MEDIA INFORMATION

WORKING CREDENTIALS: To request credentials, please contact Nick Phillips, Assistant Athletics Director for Communications (nick.phillips@wright.edu). All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests for credentials will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. The Athletic Communications office has the final authority on whether any individuals from any organization will be issued media credentials.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: Working media will gain access to the Nutter Center via the loading dock. The Media Room for working media will again be available pre-, post- and in-game, along with a pregame meal and beverages.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Still and video photographers must remain at least 6 feet back from the playing court (denoted by a black marked line on each baseline) and also be aware of ticketed fans around them. Contact Nick Phillips with any questions.

RADIO COVERAGE: Radio broadcast permission must be obtained in advance from Nick Phillips. Official radio partners of visiting teams should work with their SID to communicate with Wright State in advance of the game(s). Wright State provides a courtesy ethernet line for the official radio partners of visiting teams. ISDN lines will not be readily available at the Nutter Center this season, but may be made available upon request. Inquiries about any accommodations should be made well in advance with Nick Phillips.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: All postgame press conferences with head coach Clint Sargent and select players, will be conducted in person will occur following a 10-minute cooling off period. Playing areas, team locker rooms and other team spaces are private areas and not open to media access. Wright State Athletic Communications representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. Interviews with the visiting team can be coordinated with the visiting SID and/or Nick Phillips.

WEEKLY MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Men's Basketball head coach Clint Sargent will hold his weekly media availability with the media in person this season when the team schedule allows, usually on a weekly basis. Select players may also be available at the weekly media availability. Contact Nick Phillips for any inquiries about the weekly media availability schedule.

PHOTOS/LOGOS/VIDEO REQUESTS: Media members wishing to obtain photos and logos related to Wright State Athletics should contact the communications office. In certain instances, Wright State Athletics may provide highlight footage of games or events.

KNOW THE FOE

- Kentucky was 23-10 a season ago, falling to Horizon League foe Oakland in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Former Kentucky player Mark Pope takes over as head coach after John Calipari departed following the season.

- The Raiders have faced Kentucky four times previously, with the having meet inside Rupp Arena in three of the four previous contests, while they faced off in Cincinnati in November 1998.

-Wright State and Kentucky last met early in the 2015-16 season.

This will be the second time Wright State and Kentucky have opened the season against each other, joining the 1992-93 opener that was played on December 2.

EXHIBITION REWIND

Wright State rolled past visiting Wilmington 108-59 in exhibition action on Oct. 26 as all 14 Raiders saw action on the floor, none over 24 minutes, as Wright State shot 56.5 percent overall as a group and got scoring contributions from 12 different players. Logan Woods and Ayden Davis each finished with a game-best 13 points while Jack Doumbia and Alex Bruskotter each knocked in 12 points. Keaton Norris was the final Raider in double digits with 11 points, while five other players had between seven and nine points in the tune-up contest. Michael Imariagbe pulled down 10 rebounds to pace all players as Wright State saw 13 players grab at least one board and eight Raiders collected three or more rebounds.

NEW NORRIS?

Keaton Norris turned in 11 points in the Oct. 26 exhibition game, a mark that would have been good enough for a new career-high in points. Norris was 4-of-5 overall and a perfect 3-of-3 from deep in the exhibition, while his five assists in the tune-up were one off his career-best six helpers. Norris enters 2023-24 with seven career games with four or more assists.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

In Wright State's Oct. 26 exhibition, seven players saw their first unofficial action for the Raiders, with the group combining for exactly half of the 108 total points (54) as they combined to grab 33 of Wright State's 57 total rebounds in the win.

NOEL NOTES

Brandon Noel had nine double-doubles last season (eight against Horizon League opponents) and closed the regular season with three consecutive double-doubles. Noel had double digit scoring outputs in 27 of 31 games last season. He enters the 2024-25 season with 20 career double-doubles (11 as in '22-23), with 16 of those efforts coming in Horizon League contests. He begins this season with 22 career double-digit rebound games and has recorded five or more rebounds 56 times in 64 career games.

POWER WINS

In the last eight seasons, Wright State has faced eight opponents currently in Power 4 conferences, adding a trio of postseason matchups. The Raiders have grabbed wins in three of the eight regular season matchups, while three of the eight losses have come by six or less points.

Over the last eight years, Wright State is 3-2 against current members of the ACC (Clemson, Georgia Tech, Louisville, NC State, SMU), 0-3 against the Big Ten (Penn State x2, Purdue), 0-1 against the Big 12 (Arizona) and 0-2 against the SEC (Mississippi State, Tennessee).

WINS:

Dec. 22, 2017 at Georgia Tech, 85-81
Dec. 21, 2021 at North Carolina State, 84-70
Nov. 12, 2022 at Louisville, 73-72

NEAR MISSES:

Nov. 21, 2018 vs. SMU, 77-76 (at Cancun Challenge)
Dec. 22, 2018 at No. 17 Mississippi State, 67-63
March 15, 2019 at Clemson, 75-69 (NIT First Rd.)

NOT ENTIRELY NEW TO THIS

New Wright State head coach Clint Sargent will officially be at the helm of the Raiders for the first time on Monday night at Kentucky, but Sargent has some familiarity leading the Raiders on the sideline. During the 2021-22 campaign, Sargent was forced to step in as acting head coach in place of Scott Nagy, who was sidelined due to COVID-19 protocols, with Sargent leading Wright State on Dec. 30, 2021 against Milwaukee and on Jan. 1, 2022 versus Green Bay. Sargent guided the Raiders to wins in both games, albeit victories that went on Nagy's coaching record.

WELCOME TO THE NUTT HOUSE

Ever since its inaugural game – an 88-86 win over Tennessee State on December 1, 1990 – the Nutter Center has been a welcoming home for the Raiders over the years. In 2019-20, Wright State turned in a 14-2 mark at home in front of the Raider faithful, and since the Nutter Center's opening for the 1990-91 campaign, the Raiders have won over 300 games at home – a winning percentage above 70 percent.

NEW FACES IN NEW PLACES

JACK DOUMBIA

Jack Doumbia officially became the first player to join the Raider program under Clint Sargent, signing as a transfer in early May. Doumbia, a 6-6 wing player from Lanham, Maryland, joins the Raiders after spending the last two seasons at Norfolk State.

Doumbia played in 40 games over the last two seasons at Norfolk State, averaging 13.5 minutes per game while shooting 50.0 percent from the floor and pulling down 85 rebounds, including 58 on the defensive glass. He played at Tallahassee Community College in 2021-22, averaging 7.2 points and 4.3 rebounds, and began his collegiate career at Cloud County Community College in 2020-21, averaging 14.4 points and 5.7 rebounds before his season was cut short due to injury.

MICHAEL IMARIAGBE

Michael Imariagbe joined the program as a transfer in mid-May. Imariagbe, a 6-7 forward from Houston, Texas, joins the Raiders after spending last season at Houston Christian and has two seasons of eligibility remaining.

Imariagbe played in 29 games with 26 starts last season for Houston Christian, averaging 11.4 points and 8.5 rebounds per game with a 28.3 minutes per game average. He had 18 double digit scoring games and 13 double digit rebound contests, tallying 11 double-doubles. He began his career at McMurry University, where he was a two-time American Southwest All-Defensive selection and averaged 13.4 points, 8.2 rebounds, 1.1 blocks and 1.0 steals over two seasons.

BEN SOUTHERLAND

Ben Southerland joined the program as a transfer in late-May. Southerland, a 6-7 forward from Cincinnati and Sycamore High School, joins the Raiders after spending the last two seasons at Liberty and has three seasons of eligibility remaining.

Southerland appeared in 26 games for Liberty last season after redshirting in the 2022-23 campaign, shooting 45.7 percent overall with a 33 percent clip from three-point range. He grabbed 39 rebounds, including 29 on the defensive glass.

ANDREA HOLDEN

Andrea Holden signed his national letter-of-intent this summer, joining the Raiders from Hamilton (OH) High School. Holden finished his senior season at Hamilton with a 12.2 points per game scoring average while grabbing 7.9 rebounds per game, adding 1.5 blocks per game. He had 17 double-digit scoring games, including six contests with 15 or more points, with eight double-doubles and five-plus rebounds in 22 games.

ALEX BRUSKOTTER

Alex Bruskotter signed his national letter-of-intent last November, joining the Raiders from Shelby (OH) High School. He averaged 23.8 points, 9.1 rebounds and 5.9 assists per game as a senior, earning Division II Northwest District Player of the Year, Division II District 6 Player of the Year and Mid-Ohio Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors. A finalist for 2024 Ohio Mr. Basketball Award, Bruskotter was the 2024 Ohio Division II Player of the Year.

AYDEN DAVIS

Ayden Davis signed his national letter-of-intent last November, joining the Raiders from Onsted (MI) High School. He averaged 24.2 points, 14.8 rebounds and 5.0 blocks per game as a senior and was named a Michigan Mr. Basketball Finalist, a member of the Detroit Free Press All-State Dream Team and to the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan "Best of the Best" Team. Davis also earned First Team All-County honors and AP Division II All-State First Team recognition as a senior.

COACHES CORNER

SARGE IN CHARGE

Clint Sargent was named the 10th head coach in Wright State program history on March 28, but he's already been the Raiders' head man on the sidelines. Sargent filled in as acting head coach for two games during the 2021-22 season.

With then-head coach Scott Nagy and several Raider players away from the team due to COVID protocols in place that season, Sargent led Wright State to a pair of home victories over Milwaukee (80-75, Dec. 30, 2021) and Green Bay (72-69, Jan. 1, 2022) during what turned out to be a NCAA season for the Raiders.

SECOND (YOUNG) SARGENT

Wright State head coach Clint Sargent has made two trips to the NCAA Tournament with the Raiders, but that's still only the second-most NCAA appearances under his own roof. Sargent's wife, the former Jill Young, was a standout with the South Dakota State women's basketball team that made four consecutive NCAA appearances with the Jackrabbits from 2009-2012, including an opening round win over TCU in the 2009 tournament, with Jill scoring 17 points during that win.

A standout player in his own right, Sargent played for head coach Scott Nagy at South Dakota State, where he remains inside the top 10 in total points scored, three-pointers made, total starts and minutes played.

TOURNAMENT TRICE

Associate head coach Travis Trice made his second NCAA Tournament appearance with the Raiders in 2022 but his first in over 30 years, after the then-freshman guard was part of Purdue's 1991 appearance. Purdue fell to Temple in the opening round, but Trice finished with five points, three assists and a rebound in 14 minutes off the bench.

Trice has a pair of sons who have also played in the Big Dance: Travis Jr. made four appearances with Michigan State and D'Mitrik had a pair of appearances with Wisconsin. Trice's daughter, Olivia, is a current player at Florida International and was part of Bowling Green's WNIT run in 2021.

BERÉ ON THE BENCH

Associate head coach Dan Beré made it to college basketball's highest game as a student manager at Indiana, as the Hoosiers danced to the 2002 national championship game, falling to Maryland in the title tilt. Beré spent four years as a manager for the Hoosiers under Mike Davis.

GENTRY RETURNS TO THE RAIDERS

Cole Gentry returned to Wright State as an assistant coach ahead of the 2024-25 season after spending the last two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at Colorado State.

He finished his collegiate career with 1,018 points and his 86.6 percent career free throw percentage is third all-time in Wright State program history. Gentry tallied 53 double-figure scoring games as a Raider and was a key member in Wright State's 2018 NCAA Tournament team.

SIMMONS COMES HOME

Jaaron Simmons was named an assistant coach at Wright State ahead of the 2024-25 campaign, with the Dayton-area native returning home to take the next step in his coaching career. Simmons prepped at Archbishop Alter High School and is the school's all-time leading scorer and is second in career assists. He was just the sixth player in Alter school history to score 1,000 points or more during his career.

Simmons played at Ohio for two seasons (2015-17) after starting his collegiate career at Houston. An All-Mid-American Conference (MAC) first team (2017) and second team (2016) player at Ohio, Simmons ranks fourth all-time at Ohio with 475 career assists. He played one season at Michigan (2017-18) as the team won the Big Ten Tournament title, recorded a program-best 33 wins and advanced to the Final Four and national title game.

JOINING THE BOARD CLUB

With 16 rebounds on Feb. 26, 2024 at Oakland, Brandon Noel eclipsed 500 career rebounds - becoming the 23rd Raider in program history to reach the mark. Noel begins the 2024-25 campaign with 536 career rebounds, an 8.4 rebounds per game average.

HELLO HUIBREGTSE

Alex Huijbregtse had 20 double digit scoring games in 2023-24, including the final nine games of the year (eight regular season, one HL tournament game). He reset his career stats page in the Jan. 25 overtime win at Cleveland State, setting new career highs in points (32), field goals made (10) and in both free throws made and attempted (9-of-9). He ended the year with 15 or more points in 11 contests and five 20-plus point efforts. Huijbregtse's first career double-double came in the Feb. 4, 2024 win at Northern Kentucky, finishing with 17 points and a career-best 10 assists. Prior to last season, Huijbregtse had recorded 10-plus points in 14 of his first 60 career games (2020-2023).

SO LONG, PARTNER...

Wright State enters 2023-24 without the services of two 2,000-point scorers with the graduation departures of Trey Calvin and Tanner Holden. The duo combined to score 4,239 career collegiate points and are the Nos. 2 and 3 all-time leading scorers in Wright State program history. Thanks to Calvin and Holden, Wright State was the only team in America last season with two 2,000-plus career point scorers, while Purdue (Zach Edey, Lance Jones) was the only other team with multiple players with 1,800-plus points.

SHARING THE LOVE

Wright State averaged 16.5 assists per game last season, its highest average since the 1992-93 Raider team dished out 18.3 assists per game. In the last 30 years, the Raiders have averaged 15 +plus assists for the season four times - 16.5 last season, 15.0 in 2022-23, 15.4 in 2020-21 and 15.3 in 1995-96.

NATIONALLY SPEAKING...

Wright State led the country in field goal shooting percentage (53.03 percent) in 2023-24 - a record in the Raiders' D-I era (since 1987). The Raiders' Effective FG Percentage (58.6 percent) was No. 2 nationally, while Wright State finished No. 4 nationally in scoring offense (86.5 ppg), behind Alabama (90.1), Kentucky (89.0) and Arizona (87.1). The Raiders were No. 9 in the country in three-point field goal percentage (38.3 percent).

TRIPLES FOR WELAGE

Andrew Welage enters 2024-25 with a career three-point percentage of 41.3 percent (48.9 percent overall shooting mark). That three-point mark jumps up to 42.3 percent if you take away his 1-of-7 freshman three-point shooting numbers. Welage has connected on multiple three-pointers in 20 of 104 career games entering this season, including hitting a career-best seven triples (7-of-10) in the November 2023 contest at Indiana.

The seven three-pointers against Indiana helped Welage to a career-high 25 points in the contest, with his points, overall shooting and three-pointers made all career-bests, as were his 33 minutes played.

NORRIS NOTES

Keaton Norris returns to the Raider rotation in 2024-25 after making the self-decision to redshirt last season. The now-redshirt junior has played in 69 career games for Wright State entering this season, making 21 starts in that span, with a 41.4 percent overall shooting percentage. Norris has racked up 114 total assists in two seasons while averaging 22.7 minutes per game in a supporting role.

TRIPLE DIGIT RAIDERS

Wright State reached the 100-point mark six times in 2023-24, just one shy of the program's single season record of seven 100-point games set during the 1992-93 season. The Raiders had back-to-back 100-plus point wins at Purdue Fort Wayne (Jan. 6) and at Robert Morris (Jan. 10) last season, the first time the program accomplished that feat since January 23 and 25, 1993 with home wins over Eastern Illinois and Youngstown State.

Last year, the Raiders closed the season with 90-plus in four of the final five games - 93 at Detroit Mercy (Feb. 22), 96 at Oakland (Feb. 25), 94 vs. Northern Kentucky (March 2) and 97 vs. Northern Kentucky (March 7, HL tournament). The Raiders reached the 100-point mark eight times over the last two seasons (6 times vs. D-I opponents - IUPUI (2x), Robert Morris (2x), Cleveland State, Purdue Fort Wayne).

CLINT NOTES...

AROUND THE BLOCK

Clint Sargent enters his first season in the top seat for the Raiders, but has been with Wright State and the Horizon League since 2016-17 season, giving him the fourth-longest overall tenure in the HL among current head coaches.

- 1) Greg Kampe (Oakland) - 41st year (all as HC)
- 2) Andy Toole (Robert Morris) - 17th year overall (14th year as HC)
- 3) Jon Coffman (Purdue Fort Wayne) - 13th year overall (10th year as HC)
- 4) Clint Sargent (Wright State) - 9th year overall (1st year as HC)
- t5) Darrin Horn (Northern Kentucky) - 6th year (all as HC)
- t5) Ethan Faulkner (Youngstown State) - 6th year overall (1st year as HC)
- t7) Bart Lundy (Milwaukee) - 3rd year (all as HC)
- t7) Daniyal Robinson (Cleveland State) - 3rd year (all as HC)
- t9) Mark Montgomery (Detroit Mercy) - 1st year (all as HC)
- t9) Doug Gottlieb (Green Bay) - 1st year (all as HC)
- t9) Paul Corsaro (IU Indy) - 1st year (all as HC)

TENTH - BUT FOURTH

Clint Sargent was named the 10th head coach in Wright State history on March 28, 2024 and enters the 2024-25 season at 36 years old. However, he's the fourth-youngest Raider head man in program history when hired, behind Ed Schilling (31 years old), Billy Donlon (33) and Marcus Jackson (34). After Sargent, Ralph Underhill (37) and Brad Brownell (38) were also in their 30s when Wright State came calling, giving the Raiders six of their 10 head coaches beginning their Wright State careers under the 40-year age mark.

The average age of Division I men's basketball head coaches in 2023-24 was 50, while among first-time head coaches hired since 2014 the average age was 42.6 years of age. According to data from ahead of the 2023-24 season, 17.9 percent of all Division I men's basketball head-coaching hires since 2014 have been internal promotions, and of those, 89.7 percent of the hires have been first-time head coaches.
