Kentucky improved to 6-0 with a win over WKU on Tuesday, capturing the BBN Invitational title. The Cats are looking to start 7-0 for the first time since the 2016-17 season.

Kentucky's offensive is clicking under Mark Pope. The Wildcats are scoring 95.3 points per game (third in the country) and have already eclipsed the century mark on three occasions. The team's 20.8 assists per game are tops in the conference and fourth in the country, while the 11.8 made 3s per game is the best in the SEC and seventh most in Division I.

While the Cats' offense has rightfully received a lot of attention, UK's defensive efforts have impressed as well. Kentucky has held all six of its opponents under 40 percent from the field and are allowing the opposition to shoot just 36.5 percent overall. UK has guarded the 3-point line tremendously, allowing just 21.3% shooting from deep, the second best mark in the nation.

Koby Brea, the country's top 3-point shooter a year ago, has picked up right where he left off this season, shooting an astounding 67.6 percent from deep thus far, the top mark in the land. Brea has made 23 triples through six games and is averaging a career-best 14.8 points per game.

The Wildcats also pace the nation in defensive rebounds per game with an average of 35.17 per game. Kentucky has outrebounded its opponent in five of six games, and trailed Duke by only one board in the only game in which it did not win the rebounding battle. Amari Williams leads the Cats with 10.7 rebounds per game, including 8.17 on the defensive end. Williams ranks eighth in the country in defensive rebounding and 10th for average boards per game.

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
Requests for single-game credentials are now open and the window to apply will close three days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA
The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Priority is given to outlets based on circulation size/ household reach/unique site visitors
- Additional consideration is based on amount of original content generated, number of full-time employees of the outlet, length of existence of the outlet and the journalist experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities and the intention/ability to cover all sports at Kentucky both at home and on the road, also is considered
- Professionalism, which includes is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

Being granted credentials at another institution/event does not equate to meeting the criteria for the University of Kentucky. Being granted credentials for one UK event does not guarantee approval for other UK events. The University of Kentucky has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion. Credentialing also is dependent on space availability.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL
All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES
Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted pregame weekly and will be available to all UK media. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach Mark Pope will meet with members of the media at least once a week in the Memorial Coliseum Media Room.

Game-day shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS
Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Pope conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Pope's press conference in the Rupp Arena interview room and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available in the interview room.

Carr added 10 rebounds and three assists in the game, while Owheh had four rebounds.

Lamont Buter was the third Cat in double figures, pouring in 14 points to go with five rebounds and four assists. Amari Williams had eight points and 10 rebounds for UK.

Kentucky (6-0) had its worst shooting night of the young season, making only 8 of 29 (27.6 percent) from behind the arc. However, the Cats got to the line 42 times and made 29 free throws.

Some additional notes from the win:

 - UK held WKU to just 31.8% from the field, 15.4% from 3

- Just Call Him "Fuego"
- After finishing as the nation's leading 3-point shooter a year ago, Koby Brea has picked up right where he left off in 2024-25. Brea is averaging 14.8 points per contest and shooting an incredible .676 percent from 3-point range.
- Brea has 23 3s through UK's first six games, the most by a Kentucky player through the first six games of a season since Derrick Miller hit 29 to start the 1989-90 campaign
 - Brea is averaging 3.8 made 3s per contest. He is on pace to make 118 3-pointers by the end of the regular season. The UK record for most made 3s made in a single season is 117 by Jodie Meeks in 2009
 - Brea's 67.6 percent make rate from beyond the arc ranks first in NCAA Division I as of Nov. 26
 - Brea's 3.8 makes per game ranks second in the SEC and 11th in the country

 - The most made 3-point field goals per game by a UK player in a single season is 3.54 by Derrick Miller in the 1989-1990 season, Brea is logging 3.83

- Mr. Consistency
- Not only does the team refer to Andrew Carr as the "team dad," but Carr has provided some of the most efficient and consistent performances thus far for the Cats.
- Carr is averaging 10.8 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game, while connecting on 63.9% of his field goals and 84.2% from the line
 - He has led the team in scoring twice (Duke, WKU) and reached double figures in four of six outings
 - Carr is second on the team in rebounds per game, while ranking fourth in total assists, second in free throws made and second in field-goal percentage
 - The West Chester, Pennsylvania, native has ranked third or better in the team's plus/minus category in five of the six games, in the one game he did not rank in the top three, he was +21 on the day (Jackson State)
 - Carr ranks 44th overall in offensive rating per KenPom and 72nd in effective field-goal percentage

- Balanced Attack
- The Wildcats are off to a 6-0 start in large part thanks to their veteran experience. But it has been the balance of attack, both offensively and defensively that has aided UK's start.
- Kentucky has had four different leading scorers through six games (Brea - 2, Owheh - 2, Carr - 2, Robinson - 1)
 - Five players are averaging double-figure points through six

- Share the Rock
- In the win over Jackson State, the Wildcats had four players (Kerr Kriisa, Brandon Garrison, Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr) tally five or more assists in a game for only the third time in program history. UK also achieved the feat in 2012-13 against LIU Brooklyn, as well as in the first round of the NCAA Tournament vs. San Jose State during its run to the 1996 National Championship game. In that first-round game, the Wildcats also set a single-game record with 35 assists, a record that still stands.
- Through six games, Kentucky is averaging 20.8 assists per game and dishing out an assist with a rate of 61.9% on made baskets. The Wildcats assists per game average ranks fourth in the nation as of Nov. 26.

most in the country. The Cats are scoring 99.0 points per game at home and have already eclipsed the century mark in three games this season. It marks the first time UK has scored 100 points in three of its first five games since the 1970-71 season. Kentucky has scored at least 97 points in each of its first four home games for the first time in program history.

Need for Speed

Mark Pope has preached the desire for an up tempo offense that generates as many possessions per game as possible. Through five games:

- Kentucky is averaging 23.00 fastbreak points per game, the most in the SEC and the second most in the country behind only NC State
- UK's average offensive possession length of 14.7 seconds is the seventh-fastest in the country, according to KenPom, and the quickest in the SEC
- The Wildcats KenPom tempo rating of 73.4 (possessions per 40 minutes) is ninth in the country and tops in the SEC

When There's a Will, There's an Oweh

Kentucky's junior guard Otega Oweh is off to a hot start in his first season with the Cats. Oweh is the only player to score in double figures in each of the first six games. He is UK's leading scorer at 16.5 points per game, and he also ranks first with 10 steals.

- Oweh was stellar down the stretch in Kentucky's upset of Duke. In the final minute of action, he was 4 of 4 from the line, while generating a game-changing steal and an offensive rebound
- He is logging career bests in points per game (16.5), rebounds (3.8), field-goal percentage (.565), 3-point field-goal percentage (.444) and free-throw percentage (.840)
- Oweh has multiple steals in four of six games, and drained at least two free throws in each contest
- He has made four or more field goals in every game, and has made at least one 3-pointer in five of six outings

From Robin Hood Country to the Big Blue Nation

Kentucky center Amari Williams, who hails from Nottingham, England, was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame's preseason watch list for the 2025 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Named after the Naismith Hall of Famer and NBA all-time scoring leader, the award is in its 11th year.

Six games into the season, Williams is averaging 9.3 points and 10.7 rebounds per game. He has led the Cats in rebounding in all six games and has snared 10 or more in four of six outings. Williams ranks 10th in the nation in rebounds per game as of Nov. 26.

Williams charted a pair of double-doubles to open his 2024-25 campaign. He had 12 points and 13 rebounds alongside three assists vs. Wright State, and then followed with 13 points and 14 rebounds vs. Bucknell. He is just the seventh player in program history with double-doubles in each of their first two games as Wildcats.

Williams' double-double in his debut was . . .

- The first for a player in his UK debut since Oscar Tshiebwe and Sahvir Wheeler both accomplished the feat against Duke in 2021
- The 18th in program history by a player making his Kentucky debut in a season opener (stats date back to 1951)

Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats are the most dominant team in the league, recording a 1,059-308 mark (77.5%) in regular-season conference play. Only Alabama has won more than 800 regular-season SEC games and no other team owns a better winning percentage.

production from a season ago. It is the first time in the history of the program there has not been a single returning contributor. The fewest returning points scored from one season to another in program history occurred in the midst of World War II where the 1943-44 roster had a squad with team members who had combined to score just 19 points the season before.

- In a preseason survey of other men's basketball programs, Kentucky's six fifth-year players are tied for the third-most in college basketball among the power conferences. Only Oklahoma State (8) and Louisville (7) have more
- In a different survey of men's basketball programs throughout the country, Kentucky's 12 newcomers are tied for the fifth-most among power conferences trailing only Cal (16), Louisville (16), Oklahoma State (13) and Vanderbilt (13)
- The Wildcats join only Louisville as a major-conference team that is not returning any production from last year's roster

Here's to You, Mr. Robinson

Kentucky guard Jaxson Robinson was named to several preseason watch lists and teams. Robinson was a selection on the All-Southeastern Conference Third Team by both the league's coaches and media, he was also among 20 early season candidates for the Julius Erving award honoring the nation's best small forward, and he was also among the Naismith Trophy's preseason list for the national player of the year honor as well as the preseason Wooden Award watch list

- The grad transfer from Brigham Young University came to Kentucky as the 2023-24 Big 12 Sixth Man of the Year after leading Mark Pope's Cougars in scoring at 14.2 points per game
- Robinson was the first bench player in BYU program history to pace the team in scoring and did so while shooting 42.6% from the field and 35.4% from beyond the 3-point arc, all career-bests
- Robinson reached double-digit scoring in 25 of 33 games played last season, connecting on 81 3-pointers and burying at least one triple in each of the team's final 21 games

The Long Ball

A staple Mark Pope team is known for shooting the long ball. Pope has discussed throughout the offseason the desire to average 35 3-point attempts per game for the 2024-25 season. Entering the season, Pope's veterans had combined to make 1,033 3-pointers at a 37.0% rate.

Through six games, the Wildcats are averaging 11.8 made 3s per game on 29.7 attempts per game. The Cats are hitting at a 39.9% clip. UK has made 71 3-pointers thus far. Kentucky made 10 or more 3s in each of the first five games of the season for the first time in program history, and has topped double-digit makes in five of six games.

Should the Cats take and make 3s like Pope intends, some notable UK records will be on watch:

Total 3's Made in a Season	Avg. 3s Made Per Game	3-Point FG%

Andrew Carr Named SEC Player of the Week

After leading Kentucky with 17 points in a come-from-behind upset over No. 6 Duke, UK forward Andrew Carr was declared the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week on Nov. 18.

Carr set season highs in both points (17) and rebounds (6), while also adding three assists and a blocked shot as Kentucky erased a nine-point halftime deficit to upend the Blue Devils, 77-72.

The West Chester, Pa. native made a big impact down the stretch for the Wildcats, beginning with an "and one" with 3:57 to go which tied the game at 67 and pulled UK even for the first time since there was 8:23 on the clock in the first half. Carr then assisted on an Otega Oweh layup that gave the Cats a 69-67 lead, their first advantage since holding a 24-23 edge. After Duke reclaimed the lead 70-69, Carr converted another traditional 3-point play the old-fashioned way, hitting a layup plus a foul shot to put Kentucky in front 72-70.

Carr's 17 points came on an efficient 5-of-8 performance from the field and included two made 3s on just three attempts.

Early Signing Period Splash

- The November signing period has been fruitful for Kentucky as the Wildcats added three prospects from the class of 2025 who are all part of the Naismith High School Preseason Player of the Year watch list.
- Jasper Johnson (Lexington, Ky.): Consensus top 20 recruit. | Began career at Woodford County HS before transferring to Link Academy and now Overtime Elite | Combo guard. | Played for Team Thad on the EYBL AAU circuit | Won a gold medal with USA Basketball at the FIBA U18 AmeriCup this past June | Father, Dennis, played football at UK and in the NFL | Uncle, Derrick, played football at Kentucky | Grandfather, Alvis, worked eight years in athletics administration at UK.

Kentucky Boasts Nation-Leading 29 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The Kentucky men's basketball program finds itself in familiar territory with a nation-leading 29 players on NBA opening-day rosters. It marks the 13th consecutive season in which the Wildcats have paced the nation in terms of their alumni contingent in the league. The total of 29 players is based off the NBA's official opening-day roster list and includes all two-way and inactive players.

Duke (24 players) is the only other school with at least 20 representatives on a roster heading into the 2024-25 season. The Southeastern Conference leads all collegiate conferences with 100 players on opening day rosters. The Big Ten is second with 89.

Of the 30 NBA franchises, 20 feature at least one player out of Kentucky, while eight have multiple Wildcats. The Sacramento Kings lead the league with three UK products on their roster, while the 76ers, Heat, Knicks, Lakers, Pelicans, Suns and Thunder each have two. A group of four Cats from last year's Kentucky team join the NBA ranks this season, led by top-10 draft picks Reed Sheppard and Rob Dillingham.

NOTES

Kentucky's NBA contingent enters the 2024-25 season with significant momentum. Last year, a record-breaking seven UK players earned NBA All-Star nods, while three were selected to All-NBA teams. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander finished as the runner up for the league's Most Valuable Player award, while Tyrese Maxey was named the KIA Most Improved Player. Maxey also received the NBA's Sportsmanship Award and Karl-Anthony Towns was chosen as the recipient of the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Social Justice Champion Award.

Noteable nuggets about UK's NBA stars:

- De'Aaron Fox (Kings): Fox set a Kings' franchise record by scoring a career-high 60 points against the Minnesota Timberwolves on Nov. 15, before dropping 49 points the very next day against the Utah Jazz. The 109 points on consecutive nights are the second-most in the last 50 years of NBA history, trailing only Kobe Bryant who once has 110 back in 2017. He was named the Western Conference Player of the Week on Nov. 18 for his efforts
- Shai Gilgeous-Alexander (Thunder): Scored a career-high 45 points in OKC's win over the LA Clippers on Nov. 11, going 13-of-21 from the field and 4-of-8 from beyond the arc. It was the 14th time in SGA's NBA career in which he has scored 40 or more points
- Karl-Anthony Towns (Knicks): Towns has scored over 40 points twice thus far. He poured in 44 points in a win over Miami on Oct. 30, the most points scored by a New York Knicks' center since Patrick Ewing had 41 in 1996. Towns then topped that total with a season-high 46-point outing against the Chicago Bulls on Nov. 13
- Devin Booker (Suns): With 14,529 career points entering this season, he has scored the ninth most in NBA history before turning 29 years old. Booker was named the NBA Western Conference's Player of the Week on Nov. 4 after a week which saw the Phoenix star average 33.7 points over three Suns' wins
- Anthony Davis (Lakers): Davis was named the NBA Western Conference's Player of the Week following the opening week of the season. He became just the third player in NBA history to have multiple season openers with at least 35 points and at least 15 rebounds, joining only Elgin Baylor and Wilt Chamberlain as the other players to turn the trick. He had his first 40-point outing of the season on Nov. 15 in a win over the San Antonio Spurs
- Julius Randle (Timberwolves): Randle hit a buzzer-beating 3-pointer on Nov. 17 to push the Wolves past Devin Booker and the Suns. Randle had a season-high 36 points and seven assists, and his game-winner spoiled a 44-point game from Booker
- Antonio Reeves (Pelicans): On his 24th birthday, Reeves scored a career-high 34 points against the Cavaliers. As of Nov. 20, it was the second-highest scoring performance by a rookie in 2024-25

Champions Classic Statement

Kentucky got its first marquee win of the Mark Pope era, upending No. 6 Duke, 77-72, in the Champions Classic in Atlanta. Trailing 46-37 at the half, Kentucky outscored the Blue Devils, 40-26 in the final 20 minutes to earn its first victory against an AP Top 25 ranked opponent under Pope. Andrew Carr was the leading scorer for the Wildcats with 17 points, while Otega Owhe had 15 and Amari Williams had 10. Those three players have scored in double figures in all three games this season. The Wildcats led for just 7:10 in the contest. After leading 24-23 with 8:47 to go in the first half. UK would not lead again until holding a 69-67 edge with 2:40 left in the game. A steal and two free throws from Owhe with 10 seconds to go put UK ahead for good as a Blue Devils' turnover, paired with a made free throw by Lamont Butler and an offensive rebound by Owhe, closed the deal for the Cats.

Some additional notes from the win:

- Kentucky earned its first win in the Champions Classic since 2019, snapping a four-game skid in the event and improving to 6-8 in the showcase all time
- The victory was the first for Kentucky when trailing by at least nine points at the half since March 7, 2020 vs. Florida when the Cats rallied from 10 down at the break to win by one. UK was 0-12 dating back to that game when down by nine or more points at the intermission
- Kentucky is now 3-0 to start the season for the first time since 2016-17
- For Mark Pope, No. 6 Duke marked the second-highest ranked opponent he has beaten during his coaching career. Pope's BYU squad defeated No. 2 Gonzaga on Feb. 22, 2020

No Time to Waste

With a win over No. 6 Duke in just his third game at the helm at Kentucky, Mark Pope became the fastest coach in program history to register a victory over an Associated Press top-10 opponent.

Number of games coached prior to first win against AP top 10 opponent

- Mark Pope (2)*

A Flying Start to the Pope Era

Kentucky won big in its first regular-season contest under head coach Mark Pope, taking down Wright State, 103-62, to begin the 2024-25 campaign.

Six Wildcats scored in double figures in the contest, led by 21 points from Otega Oweh and 18 from Koby Brea. Kentucky saw six players finish with at least three assists in the victory, while three had five assists.

UK shot 60 percent from the field and assisted on 30 of 39 made field goals, a 76.9 percent assist rate.

Some nuggets from the Pope opener

- The 41-point margin of victory in Pope's debut is the same as his jersey #41 from his playing days at UK
- 103 points are the most for a Kentucky coach in his debut game. The previous high was 88 points vs. Morehead State in Tubby Smith's first game in 1997
- 103 points are the most in a season opener for the Wildcats since Nov. 11, 2011 when Kentucky scored 108 vs. Marist
- The Cats are 8-0 in a head coach's debut dating back to Adolph Rupp's first game in 1930
- It was the seventh season-opening win in a row for Mark Pope dating back to his final season at Utah Valley
- Kentucky improves to 101-21 in season openers all-time and 106-16 in home openers

Associated Press Poll All-Time Leader

Not only is Kentucky the nation's all-time wins leader and the team with the best all-time winning percentage, it has been ranked in the Associated Press more than any other program.

Kentucky has been ranked in the AP poll during 973 weeks in the poll's 76-year history. North Carolina (960), Duke (896), Kansas (863) and UCLA (738) round out the top five.

The Wildcats were ranked No. 1 for the first time in the second month of the poll in Feb. 1949. UK has played a total of 252 games as the nation's top-ranked team.

The Nov. 18, 2024 jump from No. 19 to No. 9 was the largest single-week rise for Kentucky in program history (10 spots). The previous record was a nine-spot jump accomplished in February of 2001.

Kentucky's Team

Mark Pope and his staff pieced together an experienced, talented, honored and winning group of players to represent Big Blue Nation's 2024-25 team.

Ansley Almonor, Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr and Amari Williams are all 1,000-point scorers. Butler and Williams were named their league's defensive player of the year, while Koby Brea and Jaxson Robinson have been tabbed a conference's sixth man of the year in their career and Almonor was a most improved selection. Brandon Garrison is a former McDonald's All-American. Kerr Kriisa had appeared in 99 career games and registered a pair of triple-doubles, while Otega Oweh was Oklahoma's second-leading scorer a season ago.

Kentucky's freshmen group includes Travis Perry and Trent Noah from the state of Kentucky and Collin Chandler, a former top-35 signee in the class of 2022. Perry is the state's all-time leading scorer, while Noah broke the Sweet 16 state record for most 3-pointers drained in a single run with 19 this season.

Assistants Snapshot

In addition to putting together a roster from scratch, Mark Pope also had to assemble a staff upon his hiring as head coach of the Wildcats. Pope constructed what he considers to be the best in the country.

- Alvin Brooks III (associated head coach): Brooks coached eight seasons at Baylor, serving as both an assistant and associate head coach. The Bears went 194-72 during Brooks' tenure, including a 94-46 record in Big 12 action, won the 2021 NCAA Tournament, went 12-5 in NCAA Tournament games and 22-15 against Associated Press top-10 ranked foes. A Houston native, Brooks began his coaching career at the junior college level. He spent two seasons at Arkansas-Forth Smith, helping the Lions to the 2006 NJCAA Division I championship. He then joined the staff at Midland, where he again was on staff for an NJCAA title team in 2007.
- Mark Fox (associate coach): Has been a head coach at the NCAA Division I level for 18 years and has a career record of 324-263. Fox has directed teams to four regular-season conference titles, five NCAA Tournament appearances and 10 total postseason appearances during his collegiate coaching tenure. Fox and Pope reunite in Lexington, after Fox hired Pope for his first collegiate basketball position. Pope served as the Director of Basketball Operations at Georgia in 2009-10, coincidentally Fox's first season with the Bulldogs.
- Cody Fueger (assistant coach): Fueger has been a nine-year member of Mark Pope's staffs, first serving as an assistant coach at Utah Valley and then transitioning to BYU. The connection began when they were on the BYU staff together when Pope was an assistant coach and Fueger served as the director of basketball operations. Fueger began his career as a student assistant coach and video coordinator at Utah under Rick Majerus. Named one of the most impactful mid-major assistant coaches in Division I men's basketball by Silver Waves Media in 2022 and 2023, Fueger has been instrumental for Pope's squads.

• Jason Hart (assistant coach): Hart is a nine-year NBA veteran with extensive coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. Hart most recently served as the head coach of the NBA's G-League Ignite squad, coaching the likes of Jaden Hardy, Scoot Henderson, Matas Buzelis and Ron Holland. He is a member of Syracuse's All-Century Team, which honored the top 25 players in the program's history. He was picked in the second round of the 2000 NBA Draft by the Milwaukee Bucks, where he was teammates with Pope for one season.

• Mikhail McLean (assistant coach): McLean spent the last three seasons on staff with Lamar as an assistant coach where the Cardinals have steadily improved year-to-year, culminating in a record-breaking 19-14 season in 2023-24. The Cardinals' 19 wins were their most in NCAA Division I since the 2011-12 season and the second most since the 1987-88 campaign. In addition to his collegiate coaching career, McLean is a native of The Bahamas and serves as the associate head coach on the Bahamian National Team staff. He has been a part of the program since 2021 and is the squad's defensive coordinator. A former standout player for Houston, he joined the Cougars' staff for six seasons.

Cats Rock at Rupp

The Wildcats are 666-85 (88.7%) in Rupp Arena. Among the most notable marks of dominance as the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- Kentucky is 358-51 (87.5%) in regular-season SEC games in Rupp
- The Wildcats set a program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- Kentucky has a perfect mark in 14 of Rupp Arena's 49 seasons

600 Wins at Rupp in Record Time

With a victory over Fairleigh Dickinson on Dec. 7, 2019, Kentucky reached the 600-win mark at Rupp Arena faster than any other program in NCAA Division I level history. UK needed just 670 games to reach win No. 600 in Rupp Arena.

It took UCLA, which previously owned the fastest pace to 600 wins, 689 games in Pauley Pavilion. Only one other team, Kansas, achieved win No. 600 in fewer than 700 games at its home venue. The Jayhawks reached the significant win in their 699th game.

New Court Design in 2024-25

A new basketball court is slated to come to Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center in 2024-25. It features the UK logo at midcourt and a contrasting wood stain outline of the State of Kentucky earlier this season. The updated court design also features perimeter borders painted Kentucky Blue with the Kentucky Wordmark on each baseline, the Rupp Arena at Central Bank Center logos on the wings and the Southeastern Conference logos in the lanes.

The Cawood's Court marker memorializing legendary radio play-by-play announcer Cawood Ledford remains at midcourt in front of the broadcast table on the opposite side from the team benches, and the UK logo with "Mr. Wildcat" honoring longtime manager Bill Keightley is still in front of the UK bench.

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just four times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just three times in Rupp Arena. Prior to the losses to Evansville (Nov. 12, 2019) and UCLA (Dec. 3, 2016), the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Mark Pope in Rupp Arena

Prior to leading UK, he coached one time against the Cats inside of Rupp on the opposing sidelines. His Utah Valley squad held a 34-22 lead at halftime on Nov. 10, 2017, but ultimately UK would win 73-63 behind 13 points, four assists and four steals from future NBA All-Star Shai Gilgeous-Alexander.

Mark Pope, a captain of the University of Kentucky's 1996 National Championship team, has returned to Lexington as the 23rd head coach of Kentucky's storied men's basketball program.

Pope is a nine-year head coaching veteran with stops at BYU and Utah Valley, amassing a 187-108 career record prior to the start of his UK career. His squads won 20 or more games in six of the last seven seasons and he has made six postseason appearances.

"Mark Pope not only brings an impressive record in nine years as a head coach, but also a love of the University of Kentucky and a complete understanding of what our program means to the people of our state," UK AD Mitch Barnhart said at the time of Pope's hiring. "As a captain on the '96 championship team, Mark was a beloved and respected teammate. As a head coach, he is highly regarded nationally as an innovator. His teams run a unique and dynamic up-tempo offense and they get after it on defense. He is a strong recruiter with international ties and a person of integrity.

"He fully embraces our high expectations and standards and I know that as our fans get reacquainted with Mark, they will be eager to join him on what promises to be an exciting ride."

Pope returns to UK from Provo, Utah, where he compiled a 110-52 record (.679) during five campaigns at the helm of BYU. He took the Cougars to three postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament, and missed another bid when the 2020 event was cancelled because of the Covid pandemic. Three of his five BYU teams finished the season ranked in the top 20 of the KenPom efficiency ratings.

"The University of Kentucky is the pinnacle of coaching in college basketball. It's the definition of blueblood program where hanging a banner is the expectation ever year," Pope said. "Equally as important, UK changed my life forever as a human being. The love and passion I have for this program, this University and the people of the Commonwealth goes to the depth of my soul.

"I'm thankful to Dr. (Eli) Capilouto and Mitch Barnhart for this opportunity. I'm proud to be your next head coach and I can't wait to do this together!"

Pope is coming off a 23-11 season in 2023-24. It was BYU's first season in the Big 12 Conference and the Cougars' 10-8 league record featured victories over No. 7 Kansas, No. 11 Baylor and No. 24 Iowa State. BYU's first win in the Big 12, on January 13 at Central Florida, also marked Pope's 100th victory as head coach of the Cougars.

The Cougars ranked third in the country with 11.1 made 3-pointers per game in 2023-24, and also ranked in the top 10 in assists per game (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (6th). BYU led the Big 12 in scoring at 81.4 points per game. They were ranked as high as No. 12 in the AP Poll after going 12-1 in nonconference action, winning the Vegas Showdown, BYU's first multi-team event title since 2011. Pope was named to the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year Late Season Watch List for his efforts.

Pope's teams also hit the postseason in 2020-21, finishing with a 20-7 mark and making BYU's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2015. The Cougars were 24-11 in 2021-22 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament. The Cougars captured win No. 60 under Pope in January of '22, making him the fastest BYU coach to achieve the mark.

Pope began his head coaching stint at BYU in the 2019-20 season, tallying a 24-8 record, the most wins for a first-year coach in program history. He finished the season ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press poll and No. 16 in the USA Today/Coaches poll, becoming the first head coach at BYU to conclude the season with a national ranking in his first season. The Cougars finished second in the West Coast Conference with a 13-3 record. The Cougars also toppled No. 2-ranked Gonzaga, earning their best win over a ranked opponent inside their home venue in program history. The Covid pandemic prevented an almost-certain bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Pope's Cougars were statistically among the top offenses in the nation in '19-20. The Cougars finished the season ranked first in 3-point field goal percentage, second in assist-to-turnover ratio, third in field-goal percentage, fourth in 3-point field goals per game and fifth in assists per game.

Following his first season with the Cougars, Matt Norlander of CBS tabbed Pope as the best hire of the year. He was also awarded with the United States Basketball Writers Association District VIII Coach of the Year honor. He was a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year.

Pope's first head coaching stint was a four-year term at Utah Valley. Beginning in 2015-16, the Wolverines increased their win total during every season of Pope's tenure, culminating in a 25-10 overall mark and a runner-up finish in the Western Athletic Conference in 2018-19. Utah Valley was 30-2 at home from 2017-19, and the 25 wins in 2019 were a single-season school record.

He began his collegiate playing career at the University of Washington, where he was tabbed the 1992 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. After his sophomore season, he transferred to Kentucky, where he appeared in every game of his two-year career with the Wildcats. UK won the 1995 and '96 regular-season Southeastern Conference championships, the '95 SEC Tournament title and the 1996 NCAA Tournament. He averaged 7.9 points and 5.7 rebounds per game in 69 career games. Pope was named to the All-SEC Tournament Team in 1995, behind a pair of double-doubles in three games, including one in the title game that went to overtime.

Pope was selected in the second round of the 1996 NBA Draft by the Indiana Pacers. He played professional basketball from 1997-2005, including terms with Indiana, Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Denver Nuggets. In 2000-01, he started 45 games and helped the Bucks reach the Eastern Conference Finals.

Following his playing days, Pope enrolled in medical school at Columbia University and completed two years before returning to basketball. He joined Mark Fox's staff at Georgia in 2009. He then spent one season as an assistant coach for Jeff Bzdelik at Wake Forest and four seasons at BYU under Dave Rose. The Cougars posted four straight 20-win seasons and advanced to postseason play in each of those four years, including three bids to the NCAA Tournament. His success as an assistant at BYU was the springboard to become head coach at Utah Valley.

Pope and his wife, Lee Anne, have four daughters, Ella, Avery, Layla and Shay. He is a 1996 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in English.

KENTUCKY MEN'S BASKETBALL

"What a special day at the University of Kentucky. The leader, the captain of 'The Untouchables,' is coming home to lead the Wildcats. Mark Pope will go on to greatness; you can put it down ... What some of you don't realize is how good a basketball mind he has, how much a relentless recruiter he will be."

RICK PITINO

"I'm happy for Mark. He is going to be a great leader of men. He is a passionate coach that loves coaching young men. He was a great teammate and a better human being. All of the former players before him and the guys who played with him couldn't be more excited about the hire."

TONY DELK

THE MARK POPE ERA

JOHN FRANKE

"My first conversation with Mark Pope came early in the 2023-24 season after his BYU team got off to one of the best starts of anybody in college basketball. Ever since we started talking, it's been very clear that Mark is not just a great coach, but he's a fantastic human being. You will not find someone who has more pride for Kentucky Basketball than Mark. He knows that it's not just a program in Lexington — it is a lifestyle. Rick Pitino told me Mark is one of the greatest leaders he's ever coached, and when you hear those words from a Hall of Famer who prides himself on work ethic, that speaks for itself. Mark took BYU into the Big 12 and won at a high level in year one. They had one of the best offenses in the country and he has shown a good ability to develop players. No challenge is going to be too great for Mark because he's passionate, he works hard and he's a people person. I believe in Mark's upside and think that Big Blue Nation is going to have a lot to look forward to in the Pope Era in Lexington."

KENTUCKY

THE MARK POPE ERA

"Mark Pope is a terrific choice to lead the Kentucky basketball program. As a former player on a title team, Pope understands the magnitude of Kentucky and embraces it. Kentucky fans will love Pope's innovative offensive schemes and his passion."

JAY BILAS

"Mark Pope brings a tremendous amount of energy, passion and purpose to his alma mater Kentucky. Wildcat fans will surely be entertained by his up-tempo offensive style and his commitment to producing and developing shooters. Pope's engaging personality will make him a fan favorite as the community gets reacquainted to him in the coming months and year."

ANDY KATZ

"I got to know and watch Mark Pope coach two years ago at Battle4Atlantis. He is extremely smart, engaging, confident in who he is and the style of ball he coaches. He is creative and a players coach. His teams play hard, just like he did. He knows what that Kentucky jersey is all about and that's a huge deal in the Bluegrass state."

JIMMY DYKES

"Mark Pope is one of the rising stars in college basketball. He is very smart, personable and a tireless worker. Few, if any, coaches understand the magic of Kentucky basketball the way a former Wildcat captain and national champion does. Mark is back home."

FRAN FRASCHILLA

COACH POPE

"I want to congratulate Mark on his hiring at the University of Kentucky. Mark is one of the great young coaches in college basketball today and he will do an excellent job at UK. As a former Kentucky player, he understands Kentucky basketball and embraces the history and passion. He's a true Wildcat and I think that is important for the program. The Big Blue Nation will be very pleased and celebrate his arrival and tenure at UK. His team will play with the same passion, toughness, and energy as he did when he was a Wildcat. Mark is an absolutely excellent hire. He's a gracious person and proven winner. I'm so excited for him and his family."
