BYE-SONS

We are the “BYE-SONS” at Lipscomb. Don’t confuse us with North Dakota State where they are pronounced the “BYE-ZIN”.

The most commonly accepted plural of “bison” is bison, but at Lipscomb we are the BISONs with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

RETURNING BISONs

Lipscomb returned a solid core of players from the 2023-24 season. The Bisons returned nine letterwinners that were responsible for over 3,000 minutes and 841 total points.

Noteable returning Bisons include Rylan Houck, Will Pruitt, Dylan Faulkner, Joe Anderson, Grant Asman and Jacob Ognacevic.

Lipscomb will also look to incorporate Zach Lamey and Logan Suber, who were redshirted last year as freshman.

JO

Jacob Ognacevic was a weapon for Lipscomb in 2022-23 and Lipscomb looks forward to reincorporating him into the squad this season. The Bisons had big hopes for Ognacevic last season, but he was sidelined for the season due to injury. Ognacevic was a 2022-23 ASUN First Team All-Conference member. The forward was also named 2022-23 NABC Second Team All-District after a breakout sophomore campaign. The Sheboygan, Wisconsin native led Lipscomb in scoring in 2022-23 with 17.7 points per game, good for second in the ASUN. Always consistent, Ognacevic connected at a 67.7-percent clip which was a top-20 mark in the NCAA and the top mark in the ASUN. One of the most consistent scorers in the country, Ognacevic ranked 45th in the nation in total field goals (221) in 2022-23 and shot 85.2-percent from the free throw line. In addition, he averaged 4.4 rebounds per game in 22-23 and added nine blocks and seven steals with 19 assists.

MR. 1000

Lipscomb head coach Lennie Acuff is no stranger to the court, having coached in over 1,000 career games. He reached the 1,000 game milestone during the 2021-22 season against Jacksonville in which the squad won in dramatic fashion on a last-second three-pointer.

TRANSFER ADDITIONS

Lipscomb added several talented transfers to the 2024-25 roster. In fact, of its six newcomers, five of them were transfers. Lipscomb added Miles White, Charlie Williams, Gyasi Powell, Kellan Boylan and Ross Candelino.

Miles White is a junior guard from Rockhurst University. Last season he played in all 28 games and averaged 12.6 points per game.

Charlie Williams comes as a junior center by way of William & Mary. He appeared in 25 games last season, averaging 6.6 points per game.

Gyasi Powell came from fellow ASUN competitor, Jacksonville. The senior guard played in all 33 games, averaging 9.0 points per game.

Kellan Boyle is a junior guard/forward from Air Force. He played in 30 games last season, averaging 7.2 points per game.

Ross Candelino joins Lipscomb from Wisconsin where the guard appeared in five games.

MILESTONE WATCH

Gyasi Powell recently surpassed the 1,000 points mark for his career. While the majority of his points came at Jacksonville, he surpassed the mark in Lipscomb’s matchup at Western Kentucky.

20/20 VISION

Lipscomb men’s basketball reached the 20-win mark last season, marking just the second time in Division I program history the squad has had back-to-back 20-win seasons.

HIGH OCTANE OFFENSE

Lipscomb was efficient on the offensive end last season. The Bisons led the ASUN in field goal percentage (49.5%) and ranked 10th in the nation in the category. The Bisons scored 80+ points 18 times last season and shot 50% or higher 14 times.

HEAD-TO-HEAD

Lipscomb and Kentucky are meeting for the second time in the Bisons’ Division I era. Lipscomb and UK met in 2005 in Lexington where the Bisons fell 67-49.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

Lipscomb was well represented in the Preseason ASUN awards and polls. The Bisons were picked to finish first in both the ASUN Preseason Coaches and Media Polls. In the Coaches Poll, the Bisons earned eight first-place votes and 138 total points. In the media poll, Lipscomb earned 27 of 55 first-place votes and 602 total points.

The Bisons had two unanimous selections to the Preseason All-ASUN team in Jacob Ognacevic and Will Pruitt. Ognacevic earns Preseason All-ASUN honors for the second-consecutive season and was a First Team All-ASUN honoree in 2021-22. Will Pruitt earns the preseason honor for the first time in his career after being named 2023-24 Second Team All-ASUN and to the ASUN All-Academic Team.

HISTORY LESSON

Lipscomb University was established in 1891 by David Lipscomb and James A. Harding as the Nashville Bible School. Nearly 30 years later, the school was renamed David Lipscomb College after Lipscomb passed away.

In 1988, Lipscomb became known as David Lipscomb University, but in 1994, the "David" was legally dropped. The school joined the NCAA as a full member in 2004-05. Lipscomb is affiliated with the Churches of Christ

LET'S SCORE 4,000+

The top two all-time leading scorers in college basketball history (NCAA or NAIA) belong to the Lipscomb Bisons.

John Pierce is college basketball's all-time leading scorer with 4,230 career points and current Lipscomb AD Philip Hutcheson, who concluded his career as the nation's all-time leading scorer, ranks second alltime with 4,106 career points.

The NCAA record for career points is held by LSU's "Pistol" Pete Maravich, who totaled 3,667 points.

COLLEGE INSIDER

The Bisons earned a spot on the collegeinsider.com Preseason Mid-Major Top 25 list, coming in at No. 24. Lipscomb was the only ASUN squad that made the list, however, Austin Peay and North Alabama both received votes.

SHARP SHOOTERS

The Bisons return several elite three-point shooters. Jacob Ognacevic, Will Pruitt and Joe Anderson are all projected to make big contributions from behind the arc.

JO RETURNS

Jacob Ognacevic made his much awaited return on opening night this season and showed out. He scored 30 points and notched his first career double-double by adding 10 rebounds in Lipscomb's win at Duquesne. He was named the ASUN Player of the Week the first week of the season, averaging 22 points and over 7 rebounds per game against three quality opponents.

Ognacevic is currently the ASUN's second-leading scorer with 20.6 points per game. His 103 total points rank 12th in the country. He has connected on 35 field goals so far this season, good for 18th in the nation.

LENNIE ACUFF

Lennie Acuff was named the 19th head men's basketball coach at Lipscomb University on April 23, 2019.

With a 32-year storied coaching career, Acuff has established himself as a proven winner that was highlighted with his 600th career win in the 2023 ASUN tournament. A veteran to the industry, Acuff coached in his 1,000th career game during the 2023 season. Acuff was inducted as the National President of the NABC at the Final Four in Houston in 2023 and served a year long term.

Acuff owns a career record of 640-396 a 85-72 record (55-41 in ASUN play) since arriving at Lipscomb. The most recent 2023-24 season marked Acuff's second-consecutive 20-win season with the Bisons as he led Lipscomb to a 20-12 record (11-5 in ASUN Play) and an ASUN Quarterfinal berth.

In his most recent season, Lipscomb had its second-consecutive 20-win season. As always, the Bisons played a taxing non-conference schedule that was highlighted by a 78-75 victory at Florida State. Lipscomb also nearly bested a tough Arkansas team on the road (66-69) and went 2-1 at the Northern Classic in Montreal, Canada defeating both UNC Asheville and Wofford. An important non-conference victory at home in Allen Arena came in an 82-68 win over Chattanooga. Lipscomb was one of the best teams in the ASUN all season, with 11 wins during ASUN Play, including an impressive 7-1 ASUN record in Allen Arena. The Bisons were one of the most efficient offenses in the country during the season, finishing the season nationally ranked in several statistical categories: 9th in effective field goal percentage (57%), 2nd in fouls per game (12.9), 8th in field goal percentage (49.3%), 25th in free throw percentage (76.7%), 17th in scoring offense (82.1) and 12th in three point percentage (38.0%). Lipscomb point guard Joe Anderson ranked fifth in the nation at the end of the season in Assist/Turnover ratio (3.68).

During the 2022-23 season, Lipscomb had its most successful season to date under the direction of Acuff with his first 20-win season with the Bisons. He led Lipscomb to a 20-13 record (11-7 in ASUN play) and an ASUN Semifinal berth. The Bisons played a tough non-conference schedule that was highlighted by a win at Louisville. The Bisons also played a hard-fought game at Michigan and fell at Notre Dame by just a point. Marquee non-conference victories in Allen Arena came when the Bisons defeated crosstown rival Belmont and when Lipscomb downed Navy. The Bisons picked up 11 wins in ASUN play, highlighted by victories at home against Eastern Kentucky and Liberty, who sat at the top of the conference. The Bisons ended its season on a three game winning streak to end the regular season before picking up an ASUN Quarterfinal win at Stetson. Lipscomb eventually fell in its ASUN Semifinal matchup at Kennesaw State, who went on to win the ASUN Tournament. Jacob Ognacevic emerged as one of the ASUN's top players during the season, earning First Team All-Conference honors after leading the conference in field goal percentage and ranking top-five in a number of statistical categories.

Acuff's third season at the helm, the Bisons experienced challenges brought on by injuries that plagued the team throughout the year. A November upset of Dayton University was the highlight of a difficult non-conference schedule that was made more challenging by the loss of three time ASUN all conference post player Ahsan Asadullah for a significant time with a knee injury. After finishing fourth in the ASUN eastern division, the Bisons knocked off North Florida in the first round of the conference tournament before seeing the year come to an end a hard fought loss at Liberty University.

In his second season at the helm of the Bisons, Acuff and company finished third in ASUN regular season play that condensed due complications with the Covid pandemic. After making the conference championship game the previous three years, Lipscomb was knocked out in the first round of the ASUN tournament with a loss to FGCU. In his first season leading the Bisons' program, Acuff guided a team that lost more than 7,700 career points and 3,000 career rebounds from the previous year to a birth in the ASUN championship game after being picked to finish fifth in the preseason poll. The 16 total wins in 2019-20 were the most by a first-year head coach in Lipscomb's NCAA Division I era.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Acuff spent the previous 22 years as the head coach at The University of Alabama in Huntsville where he built the Chargers into a national power with a 437-214 overall record. Acuff is the all-time winningest coach in Gulf South Conference history as well as being at the top of the UAH career wins list. Acuff was honored as the GSC Coach of the Year a league record eight times and the NABC South Region coach of the year four times.

Under Acuff, UAH won eight regular season championships and three GSC tournament titles and 11 NCAA tournament appearances. Two of Acuff's trips to the NCAA tournament resulted in Elite Eight appearances as well as five births in the Sweet 16. The Chargers were ranked in the national polls for 44 consecutive weeks including a No. 2 national ranking in 2011-12. The programs' consistent success was recognized when UAH was selected as the first NCAA Division II team to be invited to NCAA Division I NIT Season Tip-Off tournament which was highlighted by the Chargers upsetting North Texas in the opening round of the prestigious event.

Acuff is a native of Huntsville and is married to the former Kelly Gregory of Mobile. The Acuffs are proud parents of two children, Will and Molly.
