TOUCH WARMUPS

- Kentucky won its ninth straight Excite Night meet, topping No. 11 Auburn 197.050-196.600 in Lexington.
- The Wildcats sold out Historic Memorial Coliseum for Excite Night, with 6,051 fans packing the renovated, $82 Million facility.
- The Cats are 2-1 in SEC play, defeating Alabama and Auburn at home while falling at Mizzou.
- Fifth-year transfer Skylar Killough-Wilhelm won her second straight all-around title at Excite Night, moving her up to No. 13 in the NCAA rankings
- SKW also won the bars titles with a season high score of 9.950, tied for second-highest in the SEC.

- The Cats rank fifth on VT (49.244), 11th on UB (49.169), eighth on BB (49.213), and seventh on FX (49.288).
- Makenzie Wilson won her second vault title of the season last week with a 9.925. She now ranks No. 4 in the nation on VT with a 9.900 average.
- Hailey Davis won the floor title at Excite Night, equaling her season high of 9.925. She ranks No. 9 on the event with a 9.912 average
- Fifth-year Isabella Magnelli ranks No. 10 on vault (9.888) and No. 7 on beam (9.919)
- Kentucky will return home next week, hosting Temple on Valentine's Day for its non-conference finale.

HMC SELL OUT

Kentucky sold out Historic Memorial Coliseum for the first time since its $82 Million renovation that began in the spring of 2023. 6,051 members of Big Blue Nation packed inside the 75 year old venue to watch the Wildcats take down Auburn on Excite Night. The Cats even wore a specialized custom leotard featuring the facade of Historic Memorial Coliseum. Finishing touches on the building are currently being done, in accordance to the original timetable, with a projected completion date of April 2025.

LAST TIME OUT

A week ago, Kentucky picked up its ninth consecutive victory on Excite Night, taking down No. 11 Auburn, 197.050-196.600, for its second SEC win of the season. The Cats outscored Auburn on vault, bars, and floor and picked up four of the five individual event wins. Fifth-year Skylar Killough-Wilhelm scored a season-high bars score of 9.950--tied for second highest in the SEC this season--to take home the event title. SKW also won the all-around title, while Makenzie Wilson and Hailey Davis won on vault and floor, respectively.

SCOUTING OKLAHOMA

No. 1 Oklahoma enters Friday's meet with an undefeated record, taking victories in a pair of quad meets, as well as all three of their SEC duals to this point. An SEC debutante, the Sooners bring major pedigree to an already elite league, winning six national championships and advancing to the NCAA Championships in every season under Head Coach K.J. Kinder. Five Sooners have competed in the All-Around this year, including 2024 NCAA Bars and Beam Champion Audrey Davis, 2024 NCAA Beam Champion Faith Torrez, and seven-time All-American Jordan Bowers--all of whom have achieved a score of 39.700+ this season. This week, Bowers and Torrez were named SEC Co-Gymnasts of the Week.

LAST TIME VS. OKLAHOMA

Kentucky and Oklahoma faced each other a season ago at the Mean Girls Super 16 Championships in Las Vegas, with the top-ranked Sooners winning the quad meet with a score of 197.850. The Wildcats finished in second during the season opener, scoring a 196.775 to defeat No. 6 Michigan and No. 11 Michigan State. The Cats and Sooners have faced off multiple times in recent postseasons, including the 2017, 2018, 2019, and 2023 NCAA Regionals and 2018 and 2023 NCAA Championships. Oklahoma holds a 13-0 advantage in the series.

BEAM QUEEN

Isabella Magnelli--better known as the Beam Queen--has started the 2025 season with the same consistency she has brought to the apparatus throughout her career. Scoring a 9.925 three times this season, she has won event titles at the Sprouts Farmers Market Collegiate Quad and against Alabama, bringing her career total on the beam to 12. Magnelli is a four-time All-American on the event, including a pair of First-Team honors at the 2023 and 2024 National Championships. A season ago, Magnelli scored a 9.950 to win bronze at the national meet. She is currently ranked No. 7 in the nation on the apparatus.

STAR IN THE SKY

Skylar Killough-Wilhelm is coming into her own as a Wildcat over the past couple of weeks, earning five event wins in SEC play so far. An All-American at Washington a season ago, SKW has now won two straight all-around titles for the Cats to go along with bars titles at both home meets and a vault win at Mizzou. The five individual wins leads her team, while her 9.950 uneven bars score from Excite Night is also a Wildcat best in 2025. SKW has scored 9.900 or higher on three of four events and holds a season high of 9.875 on floor.

ROCKING OUT

Fifth Year Hailey Davis continues to shine on the floor exercise, moving into the anchor role this season. Davis ranks ninth in the NCAA on the event, with an average of 9.912. The New Bern, N.C. native has scored 9.900 or higher in all four meets this season with her routine comprised of music from female rockers of the 1980s. Paying tribute to her late father, Davis competed a floor routine the past two seasons with his favorite songs before changing music this year which is still inspired by his memory.

FRONT HANDSPRING PIKE 1/2 U

Kentucky is currently ranked No. 5 in the NCAA on Vault, with much of that success resulting from a lineup filled with 10.0 start values. Featured prominently in the Wildcats' vault rotation is the front handspring pike 1/2 vault, which is competed by Makenzie Wilson, Isabella Magnelli, and Anna Flynn Cashion. Wilson and Magnelli both rank in the NCAA top ten on the event. Wilson features two career perfect 10s with her signature vault, both earned last season. Kentucky also features 10.0 start value vaults from Ryan Noonan and Skylar Killough-Wilhelm.

MS. CONSISTENCY

Delaynee Rodriguez has carved out a special role during her time as a Wildcat, serving as the leadoff for most of the rotations she has competed in. Competing as an all-arounder during her freshman year, Rodriguez would lead off Kentucky on every event due to her almost-automatic consistency that could set the tone for the rest of the rotation. Her bars prowess has moved her down the lineup in that rotation, but the sophomore has continued to thrive at the top of the lineup in other rotations. Against Alabama, Rodriguez tied her career-high all-around score with a 39.450 to earn her first collegiate win in the event. The Las Vegas native has also displayed consistency in her scores, posting a 9.850 on all four floor routines this season and scoring 9.875 or higher on beam three times.

SKW -> LEX

The Wildcats added some major firepower in the transfer portal this offseason, as Skylar Killough-Wilhelm decided to transfer from Washington and spend her fifth year of eligibility in Lexington. As a Husky, she enjoyed a stellar senior campaign where she finished her career in Seattle with a First-Team All-American honor on bars and a Second-Team laurel in the All-Around. She also won the NCAA Berkely Regional floor title with a career-high score of 9.950. SKW was also a two-time All-PAC 12 First Team section, earning the award for the All-Around in 2024 and the beam in 2022.

CIAO BELLA

In addition to being an All-American gymnast, Fifth Year Isabella Magnelli, who graduated in December 2023 with a degree in Merchandising, Apparel, and Textiles, has been able to gain real world design experience during her time in Lexington. In fact, Magnelli was able to design--and compete in--her own leotard, aptly named "Ciao Bella" during Kentucky's home opening win over No. 3 Alabama.

TRIPLE THREAT

Senior Jillian Procasky is pulling triple duty this season, competing on three events (UB, BB, FX) for the Cats, finishing her marketing degree, and working as a real estate agent. The Austin, Texas native earned her real estate license over the summer and is an agent for Christie's International Real Estate-Bluegrass.

DREAM DEBUT

Sophomore Sharon Lee did not get the chance to compete during her freshman season in Lexington, but finally got the call to the post in Kentucky's home opener against Alabama. Lee's first routine as a Wildcat came on balance beam and she delivered an exquisite performance, earning a huge score of 9.900. The Round Rock, Texas continued her high scoring at home, posting a 9.875 on Excite Night.

TOUGH SLEDDING

The Cats are set to compete against top 25 teams in every meet except for one this season. Most of these will occur in conference play, as all nine SEC teams are ranked in the top 20. Oklahoma leads the way at No. 1, followed by Florida at No. 2, LSU at No. 3, Missouri at No. 9, Georgia at No. 11, Auburn at No. 12, Alabama at No. 14, and Arkansas at No. 15.

YOUNG GUNS

The Wildcats feature a young roster in 2025, featuring 12 underclassmen on a team of 19. With three Fifth Years leading the way, the Wildcats have been able to continue their success through a mix of veterans and youth. Kentucky is averaging 10.75 routines/24 competed by underclassmen, including a season-high 12 against Auburn one week ago. The bars lineup--which is they only event to have the same lineup at all four meets--features the fewest underclassmen with only two (Ryan Noonan and Delaynee Rodriguez). However, the beam lineup has featured the most youth, twice having four of six routines competed by freshmen or sophomores.

SPROUTING INTO 2025

Kentucky opened its season with a strong showing in the 2025 Sprouts Farmer's Market Collegiate Quad in Oklahoma City. UK finished second in the third and final session with a score of 196.500. UCLA claimed the top spot in the third session with a 197.550 with Ohio State finishing third with a 196.425 and Arkansas fourth with a 195.875. The Spouts Farmers Market Collegiate Quad featured 12 teams spread across three sessions. The Cats rose from fourth to second in the final rotation thanks to a session leading vault score of 49.425, with 3 Cats scoring 9.925 or better. Anna Flynn Cashion and Makenzie Wilson shared the event title with 9.950s on the apparatus.

REPLACING GREATNESS

Kentucky is having to replace several key gymnasts that have been staples in the program the last few years. Raena Worley - who remains in the program as an assistant coach - had a wonderful career at UK competing in all-around. She ended her career with a 9.950 career high in vault, 10.0 career high in bars, 9.975 career high in beam, 10.0 career high in floor and 39.775 career high in all-around. Also gone is Arianna Patterson, who had a 9.950 career high in vault and beam and 9.975 career high in floor. UK will also replace Bailey Bunn, a leader on the team emotionally, who had a 9.850 career high on vault, 9.925 career high in bars, 9.950 career in beam, 9.9 career high in floor and 39.450 career high in all-around.

TIM GARRISON ERA SUCCESS

Tim Garrison is entering his 14th season as Kentucky's head coach and the Wildcats success under his guidance has been remarkable. Garrison has led Kentucky to a NCAA Regional every season he has been a head coach with the only exception being in 2020 when the NCAA Regionals were canceled. UK has two NCAA Championship appearances in 2018 and 2023. The Wildcats have set and broke pretty much every program record in the last 14 years. When Garrison was hired, UK's program-record team score was 196.375, which his teams have matched or surpassed an impressive 77 times under his guidance.

RECAPING 2024

- Kentucky finished the 2024 regular season ranked No. 7 by RoadToNationals and was No. 9 in the final post-season rankings.
- The Wildcats recorded the highest meet score in program history with a 198.100 vs. Florida (3/3/24).
- Kentucky also recorded its second highest meet score in program history - 197.950 vs. Georgia (1/26/24).

HEAD COACH TIM GARRISON

Tim Garrison enters his 14th season as gymnastics head coach at the University of Kentucky in 2025, following more than a decade of unprecedented success at the helm.

Prior to Garrison's tenure, the program's highest single-meet score stood at 196.375 for a full decade. That total has been matched or surpassed 74 times since, including in the 2023 NCAA National Championship semifinals with a total of 197.125.

In the 2024 meet season, Kentucky finished the regular season ranked seventh before closing the season No. 9 overall. Against Florida to finish the homestand in Rupp Arena, Kentucky set a new all-time overall score record with a 198.100. In addition to the new program best, Kentucky also set a record for the best score on the road at the Kidney Care Gymnastics Championship hosted in Nashville, Tenn., 197.925. Kentucky entered the Southeastern Conference in a three-seed for the second consecutive year finishing the meet in third with a 197.600 for the best finish ever at the conference competition. The program celebrated 50 years of Kentucky gymnastics in the 2024 season.

For the first time since Jenny Hansen in the late 1990's, two members of Team 50 earned perfect 10.0's. Makenzie Wilson was awarded two perfect marks on vault while Raena Worley earned three 10.0's on floor and one on bars. In addition to record-setting perfect scores, Kentucky also saw five All-Americans in Arianna Patterson (Second Team Vault), Creslyn Brose (Second Team Floor), Isabella Magnelli (Second Team Beam), Wilson (First Team Vault), and Worley (First Team All-Around, Bars, Floor; Second Team Beam). Magnelli and Worley were named All-SEC while Brose was named SEC All-Freshman. Worley, a two-time AAI Award finalist represented the Cats at Nationals placing second overall on floor (9.9500) while Magnelli placed third overall on beam (9.9500).

2023 was the most accomplished season to date for the Wildcats as Team 49 qualified for nationals for the second time in program history. The program accomplished numerous firsts including the first undefeated homestand since 1984 and first of the Garrison Era. Kentucky made its SEC Championship appearance competing in the evening session for the first time since 2019 entering the meet in a record-setting three-seed and best-tying fourth place finish (197.675). UK did not count a fall all season while being one of three NCAA DI gymnastics program to score 49.000+ in every event in every meet of the season.

Finishing the 2023 season ranked sixth overall, the Cats found themselves repeatedly in the regular-season and postseason awards. Coach Garrison was named SEC Coach of the Year while Rachel Garrison and Chad Wiest were named WCGA Central Region Co-Assistant Coaches of the Year. Isabella Magnelli and Shealyn Luksik were named All-SEC while Magnelli was named Second Team All-American on beam and Worley was named First Team on floor and Second Team all-around. Four Wildcats earned All-America honors following the NCAA Championships (Makenzie Wilson, Jillian Procasky, Magnelli and Worley) with Worley seeing AAI Award finalist and Honda Award finalist honors. She was the first to be honored for both awards since Hansen.

In 2022, Kentucky finished No. 9 in the Road to Nationals All-Around Team National Standings. The Cats made program history with its highest score of 197.750 in the second round of the NCAA Auburn Regional. Worley and Hailey Davis represented the Wildcats at the NCAA National Championships with Worley earning All-American First and Second Team Honors.

In 2021, Kentucky finished No. 11 in the Road to Nationals All-Around Team National Standings after ranking inside the top 15 all season. In addition to tying the best single-meet team score in program history, the Wildcats recorded four total 197-point performances. Kentucky set a new school record for best beam rotation (49.525) and tied its best performance on bars (49.475).

In the postseason, Garrison's Wildcats recorded the program's only first-place finish in an NCAA Regional meet and matched a program-best fourth-place finish at the Southeastern Conference Championships. Worley was named a second-team Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association Regular Season All-American and earned All-SEC status alongside Josie Angeny, Anna Haigis, Arianna Patterson and Bailey Bunn, who was also part of the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Worley and Bunn continued a program-best streak of seven straight NCAA Championships with at least one individual competitor.

Garrison, the 2018 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/

Women National Coach of the Year, surpassed the 100-win mark as UK head coach on Jan. 17, 2020.

Kentucky began the 2020 season with a ninth consecutive appearance in the WCGA's annual preseason poll at No. 12. The Wildcats were ranked as high No. 10 in the Road to Nationals All-Around Team National Standings, never falling outside the top 13 throughout a season cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Garrison guided 2020 AAI Award Finalist Mollie Korth to a WCGA Regular Season All-America first-team appearance on vault and second-team appearances on bars and all-around in her senior campaign, making her an 11-time All-American in total. Korth became the third athlete in program history designated All-SEC in four straight seasons, while Angeny earned her first All-SEC selection and Worley became the program's seventh all-time SEC All-Freshman honoree.

In 2019, Garrison was named WCGA Region 1 Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season after guiding the Wildcats to a school-record six 197-point performances and a No. 9 ranking with a 394.685 Final National Qualifying Score. Kentucky advanced to a top-16 NCAA Regional Final in the first year of the new NCAA Championship format and participated in the second session of the SEC Championship for the second year in a row. The Cats broke the school record single-meet team score twice with a 197.525 finish versus Central Michigan on March 3 and a 197.600 in the NCAA Athens Regional Final on April 6.

Under Garrison's guidance, seniors Alex Hyland and Sidney Dukes, as well as freshman Cally Nixon, continued Kentucky's program-best streak of six straight seasons with at least one NCAA Championship participant. Hyland was named a second-team WCGA All-American on beam and all-around, a second-team WCGA Regular Season All-American as an all-around competitor, All-SEC on beam, and SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year. Korth was named a second-team WCGA Regular Season All-American on vault and all-around, as well as All-SEC on vault. Angeny was named SEC All-Freshman on beam.

2018 was a breakthrough year for Garrison and his staff, leading Kentucky to both an NCAA Championship appearance and the second session of the SEC Championship for the first time in program history. Garrison and his staff were named the NACGC/W National and Assistant Coaches of the Year.

In 2017, Garrison led Kentucky to an NCAA Regional and secured a No. 2 seed for the first time in program history after a historic Regional Qualifying Score of 196.845 to finish No. 12 in the nation. Garrison coached Korth to SEC Freshman of the Year and NACGC/W All-American honors. Along with Hyland, Korth earned Regular Season All-America honors, while Hyland earned an individual SEC beam title. Kentucky's impressive regular season saw wins over multiple SEC opponents, including over Alabama for the first time in school history by way of a 197.475 then-record score.

In 2016, Garrison took Kentucky to the NCAA Tuscaloosa Regional, where the Wildcats finished fourth as a team with a score of 195.725. Garrison saw two freshmen move onto the NCAA Championships in Hyland and Dukes. Hyland was the all-around champion of the regional after posting a meet-best 39.175 for the title, while Dukes scored a 39.125, earning the final all-around spot. At the NCAA Championship, Garrison coached his first All-America honoree. Dukes executed a nearly flawless beam routine en route to a 9.8875, the fourth-highest mark in the session and the third-highest on the event in program history at the time. The Wildcats posted what were two top-five scores in school history, including a 196.65 at Memorial Coliseum versus Florida.

In 2015, Garrison led the Wildcats a 5-3 home record while posting some of the best UK scores to that point. On March 6, Garrison led the team to a 196.575 team score, then good for second all-time at Kentucky. The Wildcats flourished during in both bars and beam, with Garrison guiding the team to the second- and fifth-best results in school history, respectively. Sydney Waltz and Cori Rechenmacher became Kentucky's first two SEC All-Freshmen selections. Additionally, Waltz became the first Wildcat to compete in the NCAA Championships as an all-arounder since Aronda Primault in 2002. Waltz finished 15th overall, while taking 11th place on floor. Garrison also added two All-SEC selections in Waltz and sophomore Taylor Puryear.

In 2014, Garrison led Kentucky to a 6-1 home record, its best mark at Memorial Coliseum since 1991. The Wildcats set a school-record NCAA Regional score for the second consecutive season and provided an individual appearance at the NCAA Championship. In an upset win over No. 11 Auburn, UK scored a 196.275, then the fifth-best team score in program history. The Cats totaled two scores that landed in the top 10 in school history and four in the top 20 at the time. Along with a then-record NCAA Regional score of 195.925, senior Audrey Harrison tied for an individual win on balance beam. The victory qualified Harrison for the NCAA Championship, marking UK's first appearance since 2010.

Kentucky had a record-setting 2013 campaign that saw numerous school records fall. UK earned a ninth-consecutive NCAA Regional bid with a school-record RQS of 196.06 after breaking the team best score twice. A 196.775 in the regular season finale at Penn State bested the previous high score set earlier in the season at Ball State. The Wildcats notched three wins against SEC opponents, then the most in program history, and earned a school-best 3-3-1 league mark. All three wins were against teams ranked in the top 15, with two over top-nine foes. In postseason play, UK tallied the program's highest-ever NCAA Regional team score of 195.575 and finished fourth at the regional.

Kentucky wrapped up the historic 2013 season by claiming Team of the Year and two individual awards at UK Athletics' annual CATSPY Awards. Garrison was named Coach of the Year alongside baseball coach Gary Henderson and rifle coach Harry Mullins, while sophomore Shannon Mitchell picked up the Scratch Award, given to the top non-scholarship student-athlete.

The Wildcats finished 2012 with three consecutive scores of 195.875 or higher, then the program's best three-meet stretch. UK also sealed the first winning regular season since 2008 in Garrison's first campaign. Garrison guided Kentucky to a final No. 25 ranking with a NQS of 390.240 in 2012. The ranking made Garrison the first head coach in school history to take his team to a top-25 final ranking in his first season. The Cats earned back-to-back victories over top-25 teams when UK took down SEC foe Auburn at home and nationally ranked Illinois on the road. Kentucky also posted just the 10th score of 196 or higher in school history with a 196.025 against George Washington and Ball State during Garrison's inaugural season.

Garrison arrived at Kentucky after helping the University of Nebraska-Lincoln reach new heights with two NCAA Super Six appearances and two Big 12 Conference championships. Garrison served as the Huskers' vault, floor and strength and conditioning coach, while also helping in all facets of recruiting.

In his five years at Nebraska, Garrison was responsible for producing 10 All-Americans, while his vault and floor teams consistently ranked as one of the top 10 teams in the nation. In 2011, Garrison helped lead the Huskers back to the NCAA Super Six Finals, where they matched their best finish in school history, finishing fourth. Two of Garrison's vault performers ended the individual finals in the top five, while two other gymnasts were in the top 12 on floor.

In his first year on the job at NU in 2007, Garrison's vault team finished sixth in the nation, while the floor squad was in the top five of the final rankings. In 2009, Nebraska was ranked sixth nationally on floor, and in 2010, the Huskers were fifth on vault. Garrison's vault and floor teams finished third and seventh, respectively in 2011. Nebraska made the NCAA postseason in each of Garrison's five years, advancing to nationals three times.

Prior to Nebraska, Garrison developed a reputation as one of the most successful club coaches in the country, serving as a head coach for SCEGA Gymnastics in Temecula, California, for 10 years. SCEGA Gymnastics is one of the largest and most thriving gymnastics teams in the nation. While with SCEGA, Garrison produced 27 national champions, 10 Junior Olympic National Team members and four Elite National Team members. For his efforts, Garrison was named Coach of the Year for Southern California by USA Gymnastics five times, including four consecutive from 2001 to 2004.

In 2001, Garrison coached Rachel Tidd to the World Championships in Ghent, Belgium, where she captured a team bronze medal and finished eighth on beam. A year prior, Garrison coached Tidd to a 10th-place showing in the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials.

Garrison spent three years at SCATS Gymnastics in Huntington Beach, California, where he was responsible for conditioning and meet preparation for a group of optional and compulsory gymnasts. During his time there, Garrison produced a national qualifier every year at both the Junior Olympic National Championships and the Elite Classic competitions. Garrison also coached at Karolyi's Gymnastics in Houston, Texas, alongside famed former U.S. Olympic Team coach Bela Karolyi.

Garrison served as a director for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics during his time in Lincoln, where he successfully increased the enrollment in the program from 40 participants to over 170 members. Garrison also was named Nebraska's USAG Coach of the Year in 2009.

Garrison is a native of Conroe, Texas, and graduated from California State University, Fullerton with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education in 1995. Tim is married to UK gymnastics associate head coach Rachel Garrison and the father of three daughters and two sons.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH RACHEL GARRISON

Rachel Garrison enters her fifth season as gymnastics associate head coach—after a four-year stint as assistant coach and four additional years volunteering with the program—at the University of Kentucky in 2024.

Garrison, a 2023 WCGA Central Region Co-Assistant Coach of the Year and 2018 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches/Women National Assistant Coach of the Year, has helped guide the Wildcats to over 100 wins while splitting duties as a recruiter and beam coach.

Kentucky set a new school record with a beam rotation of 49.525 in the NCAA Salt Lake City Regional final on April 3, 2021. The Wildcats finished the 2021 season ranked 13th on beam in the Road to Nationals Team National Standings, tying their highest ranking on any event that season.

All-Southeastern Conference performer Bailey Bunn competed as an individual on beam at the NCAA Championships, while Raena Worley was named a second-team Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association Regular Season All-American on all-around.

Garrison oversaw a Kentucky beam rotation that finished among the nation's top 15 with a Team National Qualifying Score of 49.190 on the event in a 2020 season cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Garrison helped guide the Wildcats to their best national ranking of any event with a No. 8 finish on beam in 2019. Kentucky tied the second-best single-meet beam score in program history with a 49.425 total in an upset of No. 5 LSU on Feb. 18, then surpassed the mark with a 49.450 versus Central Michigan on March 8. Kentucky had an individual match or surpass the 9.900 benchmark on beam 15 times on the season.

Senior Alex Hyland was named a second-team WCGA All-American and All-Southeastern Conference on beam (as well as a WCGA All-American and second-team WCGA Regular Season All-American as an all-around competitor), while Josie Angeny was named SEC All-Freshman on beam.

In 2018, Garrison was part of a UK gymnastics staff named NACGC/W National Head and Assistant Coaches of the Year.

Garrison's coaching experience spans 20 years, as she developed gymnasts ranging from beginners to level 10 and elite status.

Prior to her time as a volunteer assistant for the Cats, Garrison served as a program director at the Nebraska School of Gymnastics for five years. While in Lincoln, Garrison guided gymnasts to qualify for Junior Olympic nationals in each of her five years. Garrison also produced a regional beam champion and played a critical role in recruitment, successfully increasing the enrollment in the program from 40 participants to over 170 members during her tenure with the School of Gymnastics.

Before heading to Nebraska, Garrison spent over a decade coaching at multiple clubs across California, with the most prominent being SCEGA in Temecula.

Garrison is a graduate of San Diego State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology with a specialization in pre-physical therapy in 1999. Rachel is married to UK gymnastics head coach Tim Garrison and the mother of three daughters and two sons.

ASSISTANT COACH CHAD WIEST

Chad Wiest enters his fourth season as gymnastics assistant coach at the University of Kentucky in 2025. With a major role in recruiting, Wiest leads the Wildcats on vault and floor exercise.

In the 2024 season, and for the first time since Jenny Hansen in the late 1990's, two members of Team 50 earned perfect 10.0's. Makenzie Wilson was awarded two perfect marks on vault while Raena Worley earned three 10.0's on floor. In addition to record-setting perfect scores, Wiest also produced All-Americans in Arianna Patterson (Second Team Vault), Creslyn Brose (Second Team Floor), Wilson (First Team Vault), and Worley (First Team Floor). Worley was also named All-SEC while Brose was named SEC All-Freshman. Worley, a two-time AAI Award finalist represented the Cats at Nationals placing second overall on floor (9.9500).

Kentucky posted a new program record on vault (49.550) against Georgia on Excite Night. The same night, the Wildcats tied its program best on floor with 49.650 which was first set in 2014. However, Kentucky later broke that record setting a new program best against Missouri (49.750). The Cats saw their highest ranking on vault at No. 1 which they held from Week 4 to Week 7. Additionally, the floor team was ranked No. 3 for four consecutive weeks. Worley held the No. 1 ranking on floor for eight consecutive weeks while Wilson was nationally ranked in the top-five on vault for nine consecutive weeks.

The 2023 season came with national recognition for associate head coach, Rachel Garrison, and Wiest as they were named WCGA Central Region Co-Assistant Coaches of the Year. Kentucky saw the most accomplished season to date as Team 49 qualified for nationals for the second time in program history. In the regular season, Worley was named First Team All-America on floor. In the postseason at the NCAA National Championship, Wiest produced two All-Americans in Worley and Wilson. UK closed the 2023 season ranked No. 6 on vault and No. 11 on floor.

In 2022, Kentucky finished No. 9 in the Road to Nationals All-Around Team National Standings. The Cats made program history with its highest score of 197.750 in the second round of the NCAA Auburn Regional. Worley and Hailey Davis represented the Wildcats at the NCAA National Championships on floor with Worley earning All-American First and Second Team Honors.

Wiest comes to Kentucky after five seasons at the University of Washington. As an assistant coach with the Huskies, Wiest led the charge on vault and floor while also serving as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Washington flourished during Wiest's tenure, qualifying for back-to-back NCAA Championships to end a 19-year drought. The GymDawgs recorded their highest regular-season finish in school history with a No. 8 national ranking in 2018. In 2020, Wiest guided the Washington floor unit to a No. 4 finish on the event.

Wiest co-produced three NCAA All-Americans, seven WCGA Regular Season All-Americans and 17 All-Pac-12 honors in Seattle.

Before landing at Washington, Wiest spent three years as an assistant at his alma mater, the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. The Butler, Pennsylvania, native coached the Illinois vault and floor lineups, overseeing an NCAA Championship appearance in 2014. The Fighting Illini shattered the program scoring record, as well as the mark for best vault rotation, with Wiest on staff.

Before embarking on his coaching career at Bowling Green State University for two years, Wiest was a team captain, two-time All-American and Big Ten champion as a student-athlete on the storied Illinois men's gymnastics team.

Wiest resides in Lexington with his wife, Jaclyn.

ASSISTANT COACH RAENA WORLEY

Former student-athlete Raena Worley has joined the Kentucky gymnastics coaching staff as an assistant coach, the program announced Tuesday morning.

"I am excited to announce the hiring of Raena Worley as our new assistant coach," said head coach Tim Garrison. "She brought energy, excitement, and excellence to our program as an athlete, and we are anticipating great things from her collegiate coaching career."

Worley, a native of Christiansburg, Va., spent five seasons with the Wildcats, becoming the second most decorated gymnast in program history behind all-time great

Jenny Hansen.

In her time as a student-athlete, Worley was a 13-time All-American, back-to-back AAI Award finalist, Honda Award Finalist, and four-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree. She earned five perfect 10.0 marks during her fifth-year senior season, seeing four on the floor exercise and earning one top score on the uneven bars. She saw 30 all-around individual titles, as well as 28 on floor, 15 on the balance beam, 13 on bars and 11 on vault. Worley also qualified as a national championship individual competitor in 2021, 2022 and 2024 where she was the runner-up on floor.

"Her knowledge of our program and unique competitive perspective will allow her to have an immediate impact on Team 51 and beyond," stated Garrison. "Welcome, Coach Worley!"

The 2024 SEC Floor Co-Champion graduated in May with a dual degree in Communications and Kinesiology. In addition to her athletic success, she also excelled in the classroom earning four SEC honor roll nods and WCGA Scholastic All-America honors.
