NEED TO KNOW

UK captured eight wins over AP Top-15 opponents this season, the most in program history. That mark is tied with 1992-93 Indiana and 1978-79 Duke for the most top 15 wins ever in a single season. Kentucky defeated only one AP Top 15 team (Duke) at full strength.

Kentucky made 341 3-pointers on the year, which is the most in a single-season in program history. UK topped double-digit makes from deep in 19 games this year, the most in a single season in program history.

The Cats were one of two high major teams (Louisville) who returned 0% production from last season. UK was the only team in the last 20 years to make the Sweet 16 having not returned a single point scorer from the prior season.

The Cats finished the season ranking in the top 10 in KenPom offensive efficiency, and ranked seventh in the country in points per game (84.4).

Six Wildcats - Otega Oweh (16.2), Jaxson Robinson (13.0), Koby Brea (11.6), Lamont Butler (11.4), Amari Williams (10.9) and Andrew Carr (10.3) - finished the season averaging double-digit points. It is the first team in school history with six double-figure scorers.

Oweh and Williams were named to the NABC All-District Teams, while Oweh was a second-team All-Southeastern Conference selection. Robinson finished as a finalist for the Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year honor.

Kentucky's defensive efficiency improved from 112 to 51 (to finish the season).

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
Requests for single-game credentials are now open and the window to apply will close three days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA
The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Priority is given to outlets based on circulation size/household reach/unique site visitors
- Additional consideration is based on amount of original content generated, number of full-time employees of the outlet, length of existence of the outlet and the journalist experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities and the intention/ability to cover all sports at Kentucky both at home and on the road, also is considered
- Professionalism, which includes is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

Being granted credentials at another institution/event does not equate to meeting the criteria for the University of Kentucky. Being granted credentials for one UK event does not guarantee approval for other UK events. The University of Kentucky has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion. Credentialing also is dependent on space availability.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL
All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES
Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media.

Player interviews are conducted pregame weekly and will be available to all UK media. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach Mark Pope will meet with members of the media at least once a week in the Memorial Coliseum Media Room.

Game-day shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS
Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Pope conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Pope's press conference in the Rupp Arena interview room and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are available in the interview room.

The Mark Pope Era Begins

When his alma mater came calling, Mark Pope knew there was no place like home.

Pope, a captain of the University of Kentucky's 1996 National Championship team, returned to Lexington as the 23rd head coach of Kentucky's storied men's basketball program on April 12.

- Owns a career record of 211-120
- Became the first coach to take a team with zero returning scoring from the year prior to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament
- In his first year at the helm, Kentucky set a program record with 341 made 3s and had six players average double-figures for the first time in program history
- Earned his first career NCAA Tournament win with a victory over Troy in the opening round in 2025
- Defeated Oklahoma to advance to the SEC Tournament Quarterfinals in his first appearance as coach in the league tournament
- UK went 8-5 against AP Top 15 opponents in Pope's first season. The eight wins over top-15 teams tied an NCAA record for the most in a single season
- Otega Oweh scored the team's final 18 points, including the game-winner at Oklahoma to help UK win 83-82. It was the second win of the season by a one-point margin. He got his third one-point win when Oweh scored a second last-second shot against his former club in the SEC Tournament vs. the Sooners. He was the first UK coach (dating back to Rupp) to win two one-point games in his first season as coach, and now has three. Calipari (1-1 in first two such games over first two seasons); Gillispie (0-1), Smith (1-1 over first two seasons), Pitino (1-1 over first two seasons), Sutton (2-0, both occurred in second season), Hall (0-2 in his first year), Rupp (1-1, both in second season)
- Pope picked up his 200th career win as Kentucky defeated Mississippi State on Jan. 11. It also marked his first win in a "true" road game as head coach of the Wildcats
- With his win over No. 6 Florida on Jan. 4, Pope became just the second Kentucky head coach to win their first three matchups against AP Top 10 opponents. He joins Adolph Rupp who won his first seven such games from 1948-51.
- Pope was victorious in his first Kentucky vs. Louisville showdown as head coach, earning a 93-85 win over the Cards. The scoreline was the same as Rick Pitino's first win over Louisville at UK back in 1990
- Kentucky matched the largest halftime deficit overcome in program history when rallying from 16 down at the intermission to eventually beat No. 7 Gonzaga in overtime. Pope joined Adolph Rupp as the only two coaches in program history to win their first two games against AP top 10 ranked opponents
- UK set a single-game program record by connecting on 80.5% of its 2-point attempts in a win over Georgia State on Nov. 29. The previous record was 78.1% set vs. Lamar on Dec. 13, 1986
- The Wildcats connected on 10 or more 3s in each of the first five games of the season for the first time in program history
- Came back from a nine-point halftime deficit to down No. 6 Duke in the Champions Classic in just his third game as UK's head coach, the quickest coach at Kentucky to win a game against an AP Top 10 opponent
- Coached UK to a season-opening win by a 103-62 win, a 41-point margin. The 103 points were the most for a Kentucky coach in a debut game. The previous high was 88 points vs. Morehead State in Tubby Smith's first game in 1997
- His squads have won 20 or more games in seven of the last eight seasons
- He's advanced teams to seven postseason appearances. Another squad, his 2020 BYU team, would have been in the NCAA Tournament had the COVID pandemic not canceled postseason play
- Pope was 110-52 (67.9%) at BYU where three of his five teams ranked among the top 20 of the Ken Pomeroy efficiency rankings
- Pope is coming off a 23-11 season in 2023-24. It was BYU's first season in the Big 12 Conference and the Cougars' 10-8 league record featured victories over No. 7 Kansas, No. 11 Baylor and No. 24 Iowa State
- The Cougars ranked third in the country with 11.1 made 3-pointers per game in 2023-24, and also ranked in the top 10 in assists per game (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (6th)
- BYU led the Big 12 in scoring at 81.4 points per game

- BYU was ranked as high as No. 12 in the AP Poll after going 12-1 in nonconference action
- Pope began his collegiate playing career at the University of Washington, where he was tabbed the 1992 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year
- Transferred to Kentucky after his sophomore season, where he appeared in every game of his two-year career with the Wildcats
- UK won the 1995 and '96 regular-season Southeastern Conference championships, the '95 SEC Tournament title and the 1996 NCAA Tournament
- Pope averaged 7.9 points and 5.7 rebounds per game in 69 career games
- He was named to the All-SEC Tournament Team in 1995, behind a pair of double-doubles in three games, including one in the title game that went to overtime.
- Pope was selected in the second round of the 1996 NBA Draft by the Indiana Pacers
- He played professional basketball from 1997-2005, including stints with Indiana, Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Denver Nuggets
- In 2000-01, he started 45 games and helped the Bucks reach the Eastern Conference Finals

Kentucky Basketball Chapter XXIII: The Pope Era

Coaches around the country and the SEC likely heard the tune of Taylor Swift's "I knew you were trouble when you walked in ..." the moment Mark Pope stepped off the bus carrying him alongside more than 50 other UK men's basketball alumni on April 14, 2024. It was the date of his introduction as the 23rd men's basketball coach of the most storied program in college basketball in front of a filled Rupp Arena. And he in fact, was nothing but trouble for opponents in 2024-25.

Pope was a thorn in the side of eight Associated Press Top 15 teams thus far, including five ranked in the top 10.

- In his first season, Mark Pope brought Kentucky to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament one of four first-year head coaches to do so this year (John Calipari, Kevin Young, Dusty May). Prior to coming to Lexington, Mark Pope was 0-2 in NCAA Tournament games. He is now 2-3. Per CBS Sports' research, the 2024-25 Kentucky team is the only Sweet 16 team in the last 20 years with zero returning points from the season prior.
- The eight wins against AP Top 15 teams in the regular season was a program record, bettering the 2002-03 team who earned six wins. It also ties Indiana (1992-93) and Duke (1978-79) for the most wins over top 15 teams in a single season in the history of the sport.
- Five of those have come against top-10 teams, which is also a program record
- With a win over No. 6 Florida on Jan. 4, he joined Adolph Rupp as the only coaches in program history to win each of their first three matchups vs. AP Top-10 teams.
- He's done it in dramatic fashion as well. Pope and his squad overcame a 16-point halftime deficit to outlast No. 7 Gonzaga on Dec. 7, 2024. It matched the largest halftime hole overcome in program history.
- Making the mark even more impressive, the squad has captured only one win over a top-15 team at full strength. Lamont Butler missed the Gonzaga game, and Kerr Kriisa suffered an injury during the game with the Zags and has not played since. Only the 77-72 win over No. 6 Duke on Nov. 12, 2024 were the Cats at full strength.

Pope is already climbing the charts among league coaches with the eight wins over AP ranked teams -- and is doing so in his FIRST season. A breakdown of AP Top-25 wins among coaches at their respective SEC schools who coached their first three seasons at that program, while playing in the SEC. Porter Moser (Oklahoma) is not included because he did not start his tenure as a member of the SEC.

Dennis Gates (Missouri) - 11
Chris Jans (Mississippi State) - 10
Mark Pope (Kentucky) - 8

Toppling the Top 10

Kentucky started the Mark Pope era 3-0 against Associated Press Top 10 teams, and all three victories saw UK comeback from double-digit deficits. Pope is the first Kentucky coach to face a top 10 AP foe in each of his first three matchups against a ranked opponent. He is just the second UK coach to win his first three AP Top 10 match-ups, joining Adolph Rupp. Pope and the Cats added a fourth top-10 win on the road against Tennessee.

Kentucky got its first marquee win, upending No. 6 Duke, 77-72, in the Champions Classic in Atlanta.

Trailing 46-37 at the half, Kentucky outscored the Blue Devils, 40-26 in the final 20 minutes to earn its first victory against an AP Top 25 ranked opponent under Pope.

Andrew Carr was the leading scorer for the Wildcats with 17 points, while Otega Oweh had 15 and Amari Williams had 10. Those three players have scored in double figures in all three games this season.

The Wildcats led for just 7:10 in the contest. After leading 24-23 with 8:47 to go in the first half. UK would not lead again until holding a 69-67 edge with 2:40 left in the game. A steal and two free throws from Oweh with 10 seconds to go put UK ahead for good as a Blue Devils' turnover, paired with a made free throw by Lamont Butler and an offensive rebound by Oweh, closed the deal for the Cats.

Some additional notes from the win:

- Kentucky earned its first win in the Champions Classic since 2019, snapping a four-game skid in the event and improving to 6-8 in the showcase all time
- The victory was the first for Kentucky when trailing by at least nine points at the half since March 7, 2020 vs. Florida when the Cats rallied from 10 down at the break to win by one. UK was 0-12 dating back to that game when down by nine or more points at the intermission
- For Mark Pope, No. 6 Duke marked the second-highest ranked opponent he has beaten during his coaching career. Pope's BYU squad defeated No. 2 Gonzaga on Feb. 22, 2020

No. 4 Kentucky matched the largest halftime deficit overcome in program history, rallying from 16 down at the break, and 18 behind early in the second half, to defeat No. 7 Gonzaga in overtime, 90-89.

Andrew Carr, who led the Wildcats with 19 points on the night, and Jaxson Robinson, who finished with 18 of his own, took over in the second half and overtime for Kentucky, sparking the rally. The duo combined to shoot 12-14 from the field in the second half plus the extra session, scoring 28 points during that stretch. They also played a combined 16:11 minutes of game time with four fouls.

Trailing 56-39 with 18 minutes to go in the second half, Kentucky went on a 13-0 run over three and a half minutes to close to within four.

The Bulldogs kept their nose in front until Carr hit a game-tying jumper with just 1:01 left in regulation, sending the game to overtime tied at 79.

In the extra session, UK scored the first seven points to lead 86-79, before the Zags ripped off the next six. Carr and Robinson both hit field goals down the stretch to keep the Cats in front, but a 3-pointer from Gonzaga's Nolan Hickman pulled GU within one at 90-89 with just five seconds remaining.

Carr was fouled, but missed both free throw attempts. However, the grad transfer got back on defense and was able to disrupt the Gonzaga fast break and prevent the Bulldogs from getting off a final attempt before the buzzer.

The Wildcats pulled off the improbable comeback despite starting point guard Lamont Butler missing the game with an injury and backup point guard Kerr Kriisa exiting in the second half.

Some additional notes from the win:

- Kentucky is 2-0 against AP top 10 opponents this season. It is the quickest (nine games) into a season that the Cats have two victories over AP top 10 opponents since 2014-15 (eight games)
- Mark Pope becomes just the second head coach in program history to win his first two games against AP top 10 opponents, joining Adolph Rupp
- The Wildcats snapped Gonzaga's streak of 175 games won when leading by 10 or more points at the half
- Kentucky was outrebounded 25-16 in the first half but ended up winning the battle on the boards, 43-42

NOTES

- Win marked the first overtime victory for Kentucky since Nov. 20, 2023 vs. St. Joe's

No. 10 Kentucky won its third game over an AP Top 10 opponent this season, taking its SEC opener, 106-100, over No. 6 Florida. Six Wildcats scored in double figures, led by a career-high 23 points from Koby Brea who connected on seven 3-pointers in the contest.

Lamont Butler scored 19 points and set a new career benchmark with eight assists, while Otega Oweh had 16 points and Amari Williams posted 15 points and eight rebounds.

UK was powered by three separate runs of at least 10 points, including a 16-0 spurt in the first half that took the Cats from down by 11 points, to up by five. Another 10-0 run just prior to halftime gave Kentucky a 52-42 edge at the break.

When Florida pulled within one at 70-69 with 12:08 to play, UK made its third push, embarking on a 10-0 spurt to bring the lead back to 11. The Gators got back within two at 89-87, but Lamont Butler scored the next five points to help hold off the rally.

Some additional notes from the win:
- The game was the first time UK has opened SEC play with a matchup between two teams ranked in the AP Top 10
- Kentucky is 3-0 against AP top 10 opponents this season. It is the quickest (14 games) into a season that the Cats have three victories over AP top 10 opponents since 2014-15 (13 games)
- Kentucky posted a 4.2:1 assist to turnover ratio in the win, its best against an SEC opponent since 2012 vs. South Carolina (5.7:1)
- UK improves to 5-0 against the Gators when both teams are ranked in the top 10
- The 106 points were the second most for Kentucky ever against Florida (110 in 1970), it's third most ever against an AP Top 10 opponent, and UK's fourth most in an SEC opener
- The win snapped Florida's 13-0 start to the season. Only two teams had entered Rupp Arena with better records - Auburn (17-0, 1998-99) and Vanderbilt (16-0, 2007-08). Kentucky won all three of those games
- Six Wildcats scored at least 14 points for just the second time in program history (Dec. 28, 1974 vs. Notre Dame)
- The 14 made 3-pointers were the fourth most in program history against an AP Top 10 opponent
- Koby Brea's seven made 3s were tied for the second most in program history against an AP Top 10 opponent, trailing only Malik Monk's eight against UNC in 2016

No. 12 Kentucky placed five players in double figures and the Cats upset eighth-ranked Tennessee 78-73 for its fourth win over a top-10 foe.

Koby Brea led the Cats with 18 points, making all three of his three-point attempts. Jaxson Robinson, who started at point guard, had 17 points and made four threes. Otega Oweh had 14 points and six rebounds, while Ansley Almonor made four threes on his way to 12 points. Amari Williams had a double-double with 10 points and a season-high 15 rebounds. Williams also had a team-high four assists.

The Cats, who played without starter Lamont Butler and saw another starter, Andrew Carr, play just two minutes, made half of their three-point shots in the game, connecting on 12 of 24. Meanwhile, Tennessee made 11 threes on 45 attempts.

Some additional notes from the win:
- Kentucky's 78 points are the most Tennessee has yielded this season to date.
- UK scored 1.24 points per possession, an excellent mark against one of the nation's best defensive teams.
- Kentucky shot 50 percent from the field, 25 of 50.
- Kentucky made 12 of 24 on 3-pointers.
- The Wildcats did not have a great night at the foul line, but with the verdict in the balance, made 7 of their last 8 free throws.
- All five starters scored in double figures.
- Kentucky limited Tennessee to 34.7 percent from the field (25 of 72).
- Kentucky limited Tennessee to 24.4 percent on 3-pointers (11 of 45).

Kentucky earned the regular season sweep over Tennessee by notching another top-10 victory at home against the Vols. Ansley Almonor and Otega Oweh each scored 13 points as No. 15 Kentucky topped fifth-ranked Tennessee 75-64 at Rupp Arena.

Koby Brea, starting in place of the injured Jaxson Robinson, scored 11 points and Trent Noah came off the bench to score 11 as well.

Kentucky (17-7, 6-5 Southeastern Conference) made 12 of 24 from beyond the arc, while the Vols made just 3 of 18 (16.7 percent) of their long-distance shots.

UK's bench accounted for 26 points, including 11 from Noah and eight from Travis Perry.

- Kentucky made 50 percent from the field, 26 of 52. It was the first time UK has shot 50% or better from the field in both regular-season meetings with Tennessee for the first time since 2008-09

Historic Rally

The 16-point halftime deficit for Kentucky vs. Gonzaga matched the largest halftime hole overcome by UK in program history. It marks the third time the Cats have gone on to win after being down by 16 points at the intermission.

The Long Ball

    A staple Mark Pope team is known for shooting the long ball. Pope has discussed the desire to average 35 3-point attempts per game. Entering the season, Pope's veterans had combined to make 1,033 3-pointers at a 37.0% rate.

    At season's end, the Wildcats averaged 9.5 made 3s per game on 25.3 attempts per game. The Cats hit at a 37.5% clip. UK made a program-record 341 3-pointers. Kentucky made 10 or more 3s in each of the first five games of the season for the first time in program history, and topped double-digit makes in 19 games. UK went 16-3 when making double-digit treys. The 19 games with 10 or more 3s was the most in a single season in program history. The Wildcats shot at least 50% from deep in five games (Louisville, at Mississippi State, at Tennessee, home vs. Tennessee, at Missouri). Eleven players drained 10 or more 3s, paced by Koby Brea (93).

    Some notable UK records:

Who's in the House Tonight? UK!

    Opposing coaches have praised UK's offensive versatility, flow and pace all season long. Buzz Williams of Texas A&M emphasized the enjoyment he had scouting the Cats and indicated UK's offense could lead Kentucky into contention for a national title.

    Part of the Wildcats' success has been the fact that it could be any one player's night that night. The only common theme is that UK will show up in the biggest of moments.

    Otega Oweh is UK's leading scorer, however, was only Kentucky's leading scorer in two of its marquee victories over ranked opponents.

    A snapshot of UK's highlights in the biggest wins of the year:

• #6 Duke: (Andrew Carr: 17 points, six rebounds, three assists, one block; Otega Oweh: 15 points, six boards, three assists, two steals; Amari Williams 10 points, eight rebounds, two blocks)

In the Department of Defense

    Kentucky's offense was among the best in the nation all season, but the Cats have continued to work hard at improving their defensive numbers, an effort which has paid dividends over the final two months of the season.

    After a frustrating defensive showing which saw the Cats allow 98 points on 54.7 percent shooting to Ole Miss, UK made noticeable strides in slowing down opponent's offenses. Below is a comparison of Kentucky's defensive rankings following that Ole Miss game to the end of the season

	Feb. 4	April 7
KenPom DRtg:	112	51
3-Point Percentage Defense:	46	23
Steals per game	245	159
Turnovers forced per game	337	316

Injury Bug

    The Wildcats went 24-12 and had an 8-5 record against Associated Press Top 15 ranked opponents. The eight wins tops the 2002-03 (6) team for the most regular-season victories against top 15 foes in program history, and is tied for the most all-time in college basketball.

    Kentucky did this despite only having a full roster for just seven games.

UK's absences due to injury:
Lamont Butler - 9 games
Andrew Carr - 1 game (at Vanderbilt)
Jaxson Robinson - 12 games
Brandon Garrison - 1 game (Georgia State)
Kerr Kriisa - 27 games

NOTES

1K Wildcats

With Otega Oweh reaching 1,000 career points during the SEC Tournament vs. Oklahoma, Kentucky had eight players (Ansley Almonor, Koby Brea, Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr, Kerr Kriisa, Jaxson Robinson, and Amari Williams) who all eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau for their collegiate careers. UK was the only team in the country with eight 1,000-point scorers on the roster in 2024-25.

Robinson a Finalist for Julius Erving Award

A testament to his outstanding play this season, Kentucky men's basketball graduate guard Jaxson Robinson was named one of five finalists for the 2025 Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year, as announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

The Julius Erving Award recognizes the top small forward in men's college basketball each year. This year's winner will be determined at the end of March by Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famers and committee members.

Robinson, who has been ruled out for the remainder of the 2024-25 season with a wrist injury, was a high-impact player for the Wildcats during his lone season in Lexington. The Ada, Oklahoma, native averaged 13.0 points, 3.5 rebounds and 1.7 assists across 24 games played, while shooting 43.2 percent from the field and 37.6 percent from 3-point range. Robinson posted new career bests in rebounds per game, assists per game, field-goal percentage and 3-point field goal percentage this season. He scored in double-figures in 17 games and tallied 20 or more on four occasions. Robinson also reached 1,000-career points this season, passing the threshold during Kentucky's win over Florida on Jan. 4.

The 6-foot-6 wing played his best ball in conference action, averaging 14.4 points in 11 Southeastern Conference games while shooting 46.2 percent from the floor and 45.7 percent from deep.

A potent threat from the outside, Robinson hit three or more triples in nine games, including seven-straight contests from Jan. 11 – Feb. 4. He canned at least one 3-pointer in his last 21 games of the year and 23 of 24 outings overall.

Robinson had several performances to remember throughout the duration of the 2024-25 campaign. On the road at No. 14 Mississippi State, Robinson erupted for a season-best 27 points while hitting 7-of-10 3s as the Cats took down the Bulldogs, 95-90. The seven made 3s were tied for the most ever by a Wildcat against Mississippi State, matching Dontaie Allen's performance in 2021. The very next game, Robinson poured in 22 points against Texas A&M, while also tying his career high with eight rebounds to help lead UK to an 81-69 win over the 11th-ranked Aggies.

Kentucky in the NCAA Tournament

Kentucky has made 62 NCAA Tournament appearances, the most of any Division I program. In addition to the most appearances, Kentucky also holds the record for the most NCAA Tournament games played (188) and ranks second all-time in NCAA Tournament wins (132) behind North Carolina. The Cats have won eight National Championships and reached 17 Final Fours.

2025 marked the fifth time that UK has earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and the second consecutive year the Cats have done so. Kentucky is now 8-5 in the tournament as a No. 3 seed all-time. UK made its 28th appearance in the modern version of the Sweet 16 this year, the third most of any program.

Kentucky vs. the 2025 NCAA Field

Entering the tournament UK had played a whopping 23 games against 18 teams in this year's NCAA Tournament field, going 13-10 in such contests. The Cats' 23 games against NCAA Tournament teams ranks as the fourth most in the country behind only Alabama (25), Auburn (24) and Tennessee (24). The 18 unique NCAA Tournament opponents faced ranks tied for the third most in the nation behind Alabama (20) and Auburn (19). Both numbers are program records.

The Wildcats own wins over two different No. 1 seeds (Duke and Florida) for the first time in program history and faced three of the four No. 1 seeds in this year's tournament. The Cats played a total of eight games against teams on the No. 1 and No. 2 seed lines prior to the tournament, posting a record of 4-4.

At Their Best

All 12 of Kentucky's scholarship players were new to UK this season. That said, the nine transfers on the team have combined for 36 seasons of college basketball experience, including six fifth-year players. A Look at Kentucky's Résumé

Under the direction of Mark Pope, Kentucky produced as impressive of a résumé as any team in the country. The Wildcats went 11-10 in Quad 1 games, tied for the fourth most Q1 victories in the country. UK's 21 games against Quad 1 opponents tied with Auburn and Arizona for the most in the country. It's even more impressive when you consider that UK was only at full strength in seven games -- and just twice in its Q1 outings.

Here's a snapshot of Kentucky's Q1 contests. It includes a breakdown of where the teams were ranked at the time of the game, and where those teams are ranked entering the tournament, making some of the Cats' wins even more impressive.

The first column indicates where the team was ranked at the time of the game, in parenthesis is where the team is ranked entering the NCAA Tournament.

"Ans"ering the Call: Mr. 50/40/90

Injuries to several Kentucky starters presented the opportunity for others to step in and fill the void, particularly during SEC play. Perhaps no player "ans"wered that call better than Ansley Almonor.

Almonor became the first player in school history to finish a season shooting 50-40-90 splits from the field, 3-point range and charity stripe with a minimum of 100 field goal attempts. He was also the only player in Division I to accomplish the feat in 2024-25 and one of just 30 players to do it dating back to 1996-97.

In the six games from Jan. 11 to Feb. 1, the Spring Valley, New York, native averaged 22 minutes per game and 10.5 points. He was 17-28 from 3-point range during that span, good for 60.7 percent. He drained three or more triples in four of the games and scored in double figures five times. In the two victories over Tennessee, Almonor averaged 12.5 points and made 6 of 10 from distance. He poured in a team-high-tying 13 points vs. the Volunteers at home in 22 minutes of action.

Almonor had a season-high 15 points on 6-of-7 shooting from the floor and 3 of 4 from long range in the Senior Night win over LSU.

In SEC action, Almonor logged 6.3 points per game on 58.1% from the field, 50.9% from deep and 1.000% from the line in 16.8 minutes per game.

It Takes All of Us

Ansley Almonor was not been the only Wildcat to step up in big minutes off the bench. UK got contributions from every player on its roster:

- Big-man Brandon Garrison has a knack for arising in big moments. Against Duke, Garrison had eight points, all coming in the second half as UK mounted its comeback. He then came up big with 10 points and nine rebounds in 17 minutes in the biggest comeback effort of the season against Gonzaga. With UK guards Lamont Butler and Jaxson Robinson playing through pain, Garrison charted a season-high 15 points against South Carolina in a must-win game for the Cats. He came up with 12 points, including a pair of 3s, as well as three steals and a pair of blocks in the win at Oklahoma. In the NCAA Tournament opening round game vs. Troy, Garrison chipped in with 13 points, six boards and a pair of steals
- Affectionately referred to as the "Mountain Mamba," Trent Noah began to make an impact at Vanderbilt before breaking through with five points and a rebound in nine tough minutes on the road at Tennessee. He then scored five points and had a career-best five boards at home vs. the Gamecocks, but it was a breakout performance against the Volunteers at home that solidified his growing affection from Big Blue Nation. Noah poured in a career-best 11 points, including draining a pair of 3s to open up a lead in the first half, while sinking clutch free throws down the stretch for the season sweep. He is just the third player in program history to come off the bench and make at least three 3s against a top-5 AP ranked team. He joins Reed Sheppard (at #4 Tennessee) and Tyrese

Maxey (vs. #1 Michigan State). Noah hails from Harlan County, which is nearby to the Tennessee border, making the win that much sweeter. Noah grabbed a career-high six rebounds at Texas, while also tallying seven points

- Travis Perry, the state of Kentucky's all-time leading high school basketball scorer, was thrust into a more prominent role beginning with Kerr Kriisa's injury at Gonzaga. Perry quickly grabbed an offensive board and sunk a no-hesitation 3 early in the opening half against Mississippi State to help UK earn a much-needed road win. Against Texas A&M, two second-half 3s propelled UK to another top 15 victory. He then broke out for eight points, including a pair of 3s in the upset of No. 5 Tennessee at home. Perry made his first collegiate start at Texas and scored six points while dishing out three assists in 28 minutes of action. He tallied a new career-best 12 points to go along with a game-high four steals on the road at No. 4 Alabama. He got the start in the SEC Tournament quarterfinal against Alabama, scoring 11 points and posting a season-best four rebounds
- Collin Chandler stepped up in a big way in the home victory over Vanderbilt. Chandler set scored seven points and added six rebounds, while also adding a pair of assists and two steals. He then contributed 11 points, four rebounds and four assists in the win over LSU. Chandler continued his strong form with eight points in the road victory over Missouri. He had nine points, an assist and a steal in the NCAA Tournament win over Troy. He followed that up with six points and a season-high three steals in the Round of 32 vs. Illinois. Chandler spent the last two years on a religious mission trip and has been away from basketball, but his performance against Vanderbilt showcased the top-30 high school prospect he was in the class of 2023.

When There's a Will, There's an Oweh

Kentucky's junior guard Otega Oweh was Mr. Consistency for the Wildcats this season. He was UK's leading scorer at 16.2 points per game, and led the team with 57 steals.

- He is logging career bests in points per game (16.2), rebounds per game (4.7), assists per game (1.7), steals per game (1.6), blocks per game (0.5) and free-throw percentage (.776)
- Prior to this season, Oweh had only scored in double figures 22 times in his two-year career at Oklahoma and has topped double figures in 33 of the team's 36 games this season
- He was at his best after the break. In first halves of games this season, Oweh averaged 6.0 points per game on 44.4% shooting, while after halftime he totaled a team-high 10.2 points per game and shot at a 54.1% rate. He also made 20 of 45 (44.4%) of his 3-point shots in the second frame. Entering the NCAA Tournament, Oweh's 10.2 points in the second half ranked third in the SEC, behind only Mississippi State's Josh Hubbard (10.4) and Texas' Tre Johnson (10.5)
- Oweh had multiple steals in 19 games
- During the NCAA Tournament, Oweh averaged a team-best 16.0 points per game
- In his first career NCAA Tournament appearance, Oweh poured in 20 points and added eight rebounds and a career-high six assists in a win over Troy
- Oweh became the first player this century to score the game-winning basket in multiple one-point victories against the same opponent in a single season when he hit a buzzer-beater in the win over Oklahoma in the SEC Tournament. Oweh scored 27 total points (his second-highest output of the season, second only to the 28 he scored in the first meeting). Sixteen came after halftime, while he also added a career-best five assists
- In the regular-season finale against Mizzou, Oweh scored 20 of his 22 points in the second half to help lead the Wildcats past the Tigers. He also had three steals in the game
- Oweh poured in 24 points on 9-of-11 shooting, while adding a team-high eight steals and three steals in a win over LSU
- The Newark, New Jersey, native scored 21 of the team's final 23 points, including each of the final 18 and the game-winner with just six seconds to go in a career performance at Oklahoma. Making it even more special was Oweh having played his first two seasons in Norman. Oweh produced a career-high 28 points, while also generating the game-clinching blocked shot in the final second.
- Oweh had team highs in points (13), rebounds (6) and blocks (2) in the upset of No. 5 Tennessee at home
- He scored 15 of his game-high 17 points in the second half vs. South Carolina to lead Kentucky to its largest margin of victory in SEC play
- Oweh scored 20 points in back-to-back games for the first time in his collegiate career. He tallied 21 points against Alabama on Jan. 18, and followed that up with another 21 on Jan. 25 at Vanderbilt. He repeated consecutive 20-point outings with 20 at Texas and 20 in the home win over Vanderbilt
- On the road at Vanderbilt, Oweh posted the second double-double of his career and his first this season, finishing with 21 points and a career-high 12 rebounds
- In the home win against No. 6 Florida, Oweh scored 16 points, including 10 during a key 16-0 run in the first half that took Kentucky from 11 points down to a five-point advantage
- Oweh was stellar down the stretch in Kentucky's upset of Duke. In the final minute of action, he was 4 of 4 from the line, while generating a game-changing steal and an offensive rebound
- Against Louisville, he scored nine of his 17 points over the final two minutes of action
- All 11 of his points came after halftime in the win over Texas A&M. He also had three

NOTES

- In a loss to Ohio State, Oweh was a perfect 13 of 13 from the free-throw line. That tied for the fifth-best single-game performance in program history. Four players have gone 14 of 14 from the charity stripe
- He poured in a career-high 24 points in the road game at Ole Miss. Oweh also chipped in with six rebounds and was a perfect 6 of 6 from the line
- Oweh scored in double-figures in Kentucky's first 26 games of the season, marking the longest streak of double-digit scoring by a Wildcat since Malik Monk did so in 30 consecutive games during the 2016-17 season

Amari Williams: Mr. Triple Double; Point Center; One of One

Kentucky center Amari Williams, who hails from Nottingham, England, etched his name in UK allure on Feb. 4 when he became just the fourth player in program history to register a triple-double.

Williams accounted for 12 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high 10 assists against Ole Miss. He is the only 7-footer in the last 20 years to have a points-rebounds-assists triple-double and the tallest player in program history to turn the trick.

Furthermore, Williams' 10 assists are the most ever by a 7-footer. Previously Sam Bowie (6) and Dakari Johnson (6) held the record. Williams in 2024-25 has more assists than any 7-footer for a single-season in program history.

For the season, he averaged 10.9 points and a team-high 8.5 rebounds per game. He led the Cats in rebounding in 22 of 36 games and snared 10 or more in 16 outings. He is one of three Wildcats all-time with 300+ rebounds and 100+ assists in a single season joining Cliff Hagan (1951-52) and Antoine Walker (1995-96).

Williams' 10 double-doubles this season ranked second in the SEC, behind only Auburn's Johni Broome. In league play, Williams boasted averages of 11.7 points, 8.8 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game, while shooting 59.0% from the field.

Williams stuffed the stat sheet all season long, averaging 39.6 points-rebounds-assists per 40 minutes, a number which raned tied for seventh in the country.

Dating back to 1996-97, Williams' PAR per 40 minutes total is the third highest by a Kentucky player behind only Demarcus Cousins in 2009-10 (44.3) and Oscar Tshiebwe in 2021-22 (42.2). During that same time span, Williams had the eighth-highest PAR/40 by an SEC player. The top eight are below.

2024-25 Johni Broome: 44.7
2009-10 DeMarcus Cousins: 44.3
2023-24 Johni Broome: 44.0
2021-22 Oscar Tshiebwe: 42.2
2015-16 Ben Simmons: 40.9
2021-22 Tari Eason: 40.2
2022-23 Liam Robbins: 39.8
2024-25 Amari Williams: 39.6

Among Williams' other notable accomplishments this season:

- Against Vanderbilt at home, Williams logged 17 points and was perfect from the field and free-throw line. He also recorded four blocks. He is the first NCAA or NBA player to have 15 or more points, at least four blocks, go perfect from the field and free-throw line, and not commit a foul since Pau Gasol with the Lakers on Nov. 21, 2010. Furthermore, he is the ninth player to ever have perfect shooting percentages from both the field and the free-throw line with at least six field-goal attempts in program history

- At Mississippi State, he became just the second Kentucky player to have at least 10 points, 12 rebound, six assists and two blocks against an SEC opponent, joining Reggie Hanson

- He snared 12 or more rebounds vs. both No. 14 Mississippi State and No. 11 Texas A&M, becoming the first UK player since Johnny Cox to snare 12 or more boards in consecutive games vs. AP Top 15 opponents

- He scored a season-high 22 points against Arkansas while snatching 11 rebounds and leading the team with three assists. He was the first UK player to lead the team in points, rebounds and assists in a game this season

- Williams was a catalyst for the upset of No. 8 Tennessee finishing with 10 points, 15 rebounds and four assists. The Cats were plus-20 with him on the floor

- Williams was a bright spot in a road loss at Texas, finishing with 18 points, 12 rebounds and 3 assists. It was just the eighth 18-12-3 game by a Kentucky player in the last 10 seasons

- Williams has set a new school record for most assists in a single season by a 7-footer. He has 102 assists this season, the previous high was 66 by Sam Bowie in 1983-84

- In what was his ninth double-double of the season, Williams scored 17 points, grabbed 11 boards and dished out six assists on the road at No. 4 Alabama. It was just the second game of 17-11-6 by a 7-footer in Division I dating back to the 1996-97 season. The other, Akolda Manning vs. Duke on Nov. 11, 2017, was also coached by Mark Pope.

- Williams scored at least 17 points in three consecutive games for the first time in his career (at Texas, Vanderbilt, at Alabama)

- Williams scored 13 points, had 14 rebounds and registered seven assists against No. 1 Auburn. He is the only Wildcat since at least 1983-84 to have a 13/14/7 game and the only Division I player with at least those numbers against the No. 1 ranked team since 2004-05

- Williams crossed the 1,000 career rebound threshold with eight boards against Missouri. He is one of 16 active Division I players with 1,000 career rebounds and one of three in the SEC (Johni Broome, Clifford Omoruyi).

- Williams posted 10 rebounds, eight points, six assists and three blocks in the Round of 32 against Illinois, the first Wildcat ever to register at least those totals in an NCAA Tournament game

- Over the course of the NCAA Tournament, Williams averaged a team-high 9.0 rebounds and also led the team with 13 assists in the three games

Williams vs. Broome

Despite the result against Auburn there is no denying the impressive performance of Kentucky big man Amari Williams against SEC Player of the Year Johni Broome. Going head-to-head against one of the top players in the nation, Williams more than held his own, actually out dueling Broome in almost every statistical category.

	Williams	Broome
Points	13	9
Rebounds	14	6
Assists	7	1
Field goals	3-5	3-9

Three Wildcats on Midseason Watch Lists

Three Wildcats, Lamont Butler, Otega Oweh and Jaxson Robinson were on various midseason watch lists following stellar starts to the season.

Butler and Oweh are both on the USBWA Oscar Robertson Trophy Midseason Watch List. Butler is also on the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year Top 15 list, while he was also picked as a midseason second-team All-American by The Sporting News.

Robinson was selected to the top 10 midseason list of the Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year list.

Butler has proven to be one of UK's most important players this season. He was the USBWA National Player of the Week after pouring in 33 points in the win over Louisville.

UK is 20-7 with him on the court and is yielding 75.0 points per game, a 42.7% field-goal clip and a 29.9% 3-point rate to its opponents. In the nine games he has missed, UK is 4-5 and giving up 83.8 points per game, 46.4% from the field and 32.1% from 3-point range.

Dynamic Duo from Distance

Kentucky guard Jaxson Robinson was named a candidate for the Julius Erving award honoring the nation's best small forward, while Koby Brea finished as the nation's leading 3-point shooter in 2023-24, and picked up right where he left off in 2024-25.

Robinson and Brea combined for 155 3-pointers on the season, Brea having hit 93 and Robinson with 62. That mark ranks tied for the fifth most by a duo in program history. It is the ninth time in program history that UK has had two players make at least 60 3-pointers. The record is 168, set by Jamal Murray (113) and Tyler Ulis (55) in 2015-16. Brea averaged 2.58 makes from distance per game, while Robinson was logging 2.58. Brea is one of seven Kentucky players all-time to make 93 3s in a single season.

Brea and Robinson are just the fourth pair of Kentucky teammates to make at least seven 3-pointers in a single game in the same season.

- The league advanced a record 14 teams to the NCAA Tournament in 2025, where those teams posted a 22-12 record

The Butler is In: Don't Forget to Say Thank You

Lamont Butler came to Kentucky after enjoying a prolific career at San Diego State where he helped the Aztecs to the 2023 National Championship game. Butler finished his career ranking fifth in all-time in steals (183), sixth in conference victories (52), ninth in total victories (100) and 10th in assists (338). He was a two-time Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and sank one of the most memorable shots in Final Four history, and easily the most important shot of San Diego State's allure.

To say he is an accomplished collegiate player would be an understatement. But what he did in year five in the best league in the country, might be even more impressive.

Carr Named to SEC Community Service Team

Andrew Carr, a graduate-student on the Kentucky men's basketball team, has been selected to the Southeastern Conference Community Service Team, the league office announced.

The SEC sponsors Community Service Teams for all 22 league-sponsored sports. The Community Service Team looks to highlight an athlete from each school who gives back to his community in superior service efforts.

Carr has made a profound impact on the Bluegrass in his lone year in a Kentucky uniform. The West Chester, Pennsylvania, native has completed more than 25 service hours since arriving in Lexington in June, leading a team that has made service a priority in head coach Mark Pope's first season at Kentucky.

Carr, a transfer from Wake Forest, has been a mainstay visiting the kids at UK Children's Hospital, supporting multiple Lexington Parks and Recreation initiatives and reading to children at local elementary schools. He took part in the team's retreat to Hazard, Kentucky, in August, where the Wildcats held a gathering for the community and took part in home building and repair projects for a full weekend. Carr also has taken part in a field day with Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Bluegrass, packed bags of food and meals for God's Pantry and Bluegrass Hospitality Group's Thanksgiving charitable efforts and visited with members of the Down Syndrome of Louisville team.

The 6-foot-11 forward is a 2024 graduate of Wake Forest University with a degree in communications. He began his career at Delaware where he was tabbed a Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Week during his freshman season. As a sophomore, he helped lead the Blue Hens to the CAA Championship and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Carr was a CAA All-Tournament Team selection for his efforts. In two years at Wake, he was a two-time Atlantic Coast Conference All-Academic Team selection and earned ACC Player of the Week once. Following a 17-point, six-rebound, three-assist effort in an upset of No. 6 Duke, Carr was tabbed as the SEC Player of the Week earlier this season.

Share the Rock

In the win over Jackson State, the Wildcats had four players (Kerr Kriisa, Brandon Garrison, Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr) tally five or more assists in a game for only the third time in program history. UK also achieved the feat in 2012-13 against LIU Brooklyn, as well as in the first round of the NCAA Tournament vs. San Jose State during its run to the 1996 National Championship game. In that first-round game, the Wildcats also set a single-game record with 35 assists, a record that still stands.

At season's end, Kentucky averaged 16.9 assists per game and dished out an assist with a rate of 57.0% on made baskets. The Wildcats assists per game average ranked 20th in the nation.

UK had eight players who generated 34 or more assists, led by Lamont Butler's 4.3 per game. The Cats ranked 19th in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.55 per game.

Balanced Attack

The Wildcats went 24-12 in large part thanks to their veteran experience. But it was the balance of attack, both offensively and defensively that aided UK's season.

- Kentucky had seven different leading scorers (Oweh - 16, Brea - 8, Carr - 5, Robinson - 4, Butler - 3, Almonor - 1, Williams - 1)
- Six players averaged double-figure points, the first UK team ever to finish the season with six players averaging in double-figures

Need for Speed

Mark Pope has preached the desire for an up-tempo offense that generates as many possessions per game as possible.

- Kentucky averaged 14.03 fastbreak points per game, the 21st most in the country
- UK's average offensive possession length is 16.3 seconds
- Tempo rating of 70.9 (possessions per 40 minutes)

The Century "Mark"

Kentucky's offense ambushed opponents, particularly in the friendly confines of Rupp Arena. UK is averaging 84.4 points per game, the seventh most in the nation. The Cats averaged 90.7 points per game at home and eclipsed the century mark in five games this season.

Butler Goes Bonkers, Named National Player of the Week

Lamont Butler had the game of his life as Kentucky defeated rival Louisville on Dec. 14, scoring a career-high 33 points while shooting a perfect 10 of 10 from the field and 6 of 6 from 3-point range.

The point guard, who had missed the two games prior to Louisville due to injury, bettered his previous career-high by 10 points and also set a new personal benchmark for made 3s in a game with six.

He was selected as the game's Most Valuable Player by the Bluegrass Sports Commission, and also hauled in USBWA National Player of the Week and SEC Player of the Week honors.

Some additional notes on the performance:
- Butler's 33 points were the most by a Wildcat this season
- It's the second-most for a Wildcat vs. Louisville, Derrick Miller scored 34 on Dec. 30, 1989
- His 10-of-10 shooting night tied for the third-best shooting performance in school history
    - Rodney Dent 12 of 12 vs. Morehead State (Dec. 1993)
    - Kenny Walker 11 of 11 vs. WKU (March, 1986)
    - Justin Edwards 10 of 10 vs. Alabama (Feb, 2024)
- His 6-of-6 3-pointers are the second-best 3-point performance in school history. Wenyen Gabriel hit all seven 3s he attempted against Alabama on March 10, 2018
- The six made 3s tied Jeff Brassow (Dec. 29, 1990) for the most by a UK player vs. Louisville
- Butler is only the second SEC player in the last 20 years to finish with 30 or more points on 100% field-goal shooting
- As of March 16, he is the only player in Division I this season to score at least 30 points on 100% shooting from the field
- Since 1996-97, Butler is the only Division I player to make all of his shots, score at least 33 points and have at least six assists

From Lex, to the League, and Back Again

Mark Pope brings a unique background and experience to Kentucky as the 23rd head coach of the men's basketball program.

- Mark Pope is one of 49 head coaches at the NCAA Division I level that is the head coach at his alma mater
- Mark Pope is one of 19 head coaches at the NCAA Division I level that played in the NBA
- Mark Pope is one of just five head coaches at the NCAA Division I level who played at their alma mater, played in the NBA, and now coach at their alma mater (Hubert Davis - UNC, Penny Hardaway - Memphis, Mike Woodson - Indiana, Speedy Claxton - Hofstra)

Old But New

Mark Pope's inaugural roster featured a bevy of experience led by six players in their fifth year of collegiate basketball. The roster also has a senior, a junior and sophomore, and three freshmen.

The roster is one of the most experienced in the country, but not a single player enters the season having appeared in a game for Kentucky.

Entering the 2024-25 campaign, UK's veteran lineup had played in 845 career games, played 20,741 minutes, made 586 starts, scored 7,900 points and sunk 1,033 3-pointers at a 37.0% rate.

That was more than any team in the history of Kentucky basketball entering a season (minutes statistics available through the 1964-65 season).

Kentucky's other most-veteran squads were the 2021-22 squad which played 13,385 total minutes and scored 5,203 career points. Pope's 1996 team -- hailed as one of the greatest college basketball teams of all time -- had career point totals of 5,232. The 2002-03 squad had 559 games to its roster.

Conversely, Kentucky is returning 0.0% of its scoring, rebounding, assists, steals or blocks production from a season ago. It is the first time in the history of the program there has not been a single returning contributor. The fewest returning points scored from one season to another in program history occurred in the midst of World War II where the 1943-44 roster had a squad with team members who had combined to score just 19 points the season before.

- In a preseason survey of other men's basketball programs, Kentucky's six fifth-year players are tied for the third-most in college basketball among the power conferences. Only Oklahoma State (8) and Louisville (7) have more

- In a different survey of men's basketball programs throughout the country, Kentucky's 12 newcomers are tied for the fifth-most among power conferences trailing only Cal (16), Louisville (16), Oklahoma State (13) and Vanderbilt (13)
- The Wildcats join only Louisville as a major-conference team that is not returning any production from last year's roster

Early Signing Period Splash

The November signing period was fruitful for Kentucky as the Wildcats added a pair of prospects from the class of 2025 who were both a part of the Naismith High School Preseason Player of the Year watch list.

SGA, KAT Named 2025 NBA All-Star Starters; Davis and Herro Added as Reserves

Kentucky products Shai Gilgeous-Alexander and Karl-Anthony Towns were each tabbed as starters for the 2025 NBA All-Star game, while Anthony Davis and Tyler Herro earned a spot in the NBA All-Star Game as reserves.

Gilgeous-Alexander earned his third all-star selection overall and his second-consecutive starting nod. In Lexington for the 2017-18 season, Gilgeous-Alexander averaged 14.4 points and 5.1 assists. He was named the MVP of the Southeastern Conference Tournament, helping the Wildcats to the title with a win over Tennessee in the championship game. That year, Gilgeous-Alexander was an All-SEC Second Team selection and an All-SEC Freshman Team honoree.

In his first season with the New York Knicks, Towns is putting together one of the best campaigns of his 10-year NBA career. This year's all-star nod was Towns' fifth selection to the festivities and marked his first time receiving starting honors.

Towns was a part of Kentucky's historic 2014-15 squad which won its first 38 games en route to the Final Four. He was a consensus Second Team All-American and the SEC Freshman of the Year, averaging 13.9 points and 6.7 rebounds per game.

For Davis, this year's selection marks his 10th to the NBA All-Star game, the most ever by a Kentucky men's basketball alumni. He was the 2017 NBA All-Star Game MVP while playing with the New Orleans Pelicans.

Davis was named the National Player of the Year and the 2012 NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player after leading Kentucky to the 2012 national championship. He started all 40 games for the Wildcats that season, leading the team in both points per game (14.2) and rebounds per game (10.4), while also breaking the UK single-season blocks record with 186 swats.

Herro, a star on the 2018-19 Kentucky Wildcats team, earned his first career all-star selection in what is his sixth NBA season for the Miami Heat.

At Kentucky, Herro was an All-Southeastern Conference Second Team and All-Freshman Team selection, starting all 37 games and averaging 14.0 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists as the Cats reached the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

Kentucky has had 20 players combine for 58 NBA All-Star selections all time. This year's four selections come on the heels of Kentucky's record-breaking seven all-stars last season.

Last season, a record-breaking seven Kentucky men's basketball alumni were chosen as all-stars, breaking the previous All-Star Game record of four players chosen from one collegiate program.

Kentucky Boasts Nation-Leading 29 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The Kentucky men's basketball program finds itself in familiar territory with a nation-leading 29 players on NBA opening-day rosters. It marks the 13th consecutive season in which the Wildcats have paced the nation in terms of their alumni contingent in the league. The total of 29 players is based off the NBA's official opening-day roster list and includes all two-way and inactive players.

Duke (24 players) is the only other school with at least 20 representatives on a roster heading into the 2024-25 season. The Southeastern Conference leads all collegiate conferences with 100 players on opening day rosters. The Big Ten is second with 89.

Of the 30 NBA franchises, 20 feature at least one player out of Kentucky, while eight have multiple Wildcats. The Sacramento Kings lead the league with three UK products on their roster, while the 76ers, Heat, Knicks, Lakers, Pelicans, Suns and Thunder each have two.

A group of four Cats from last year's Kentucky team join the NBA ranks this season, led by top-10 draft picks Reed Sheppard and Rob Dillingham.

Kentucky's NBA contingent enters the 2024-25 season with significant momentum. Last year, a record-breaking seven UK players earned NBA All-Star nods, while three were selected to All-NBA teams. Shai Gilgeous-Alexander finished as the runner up for the league's Most Valuable Player award, while Tyrese Maxey was named the KIA Most Improved Player. Maxey also received the NBA's Sportsmanship Award and Karl-Anthony Towns was chosen as the recipient of the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Social Justice Champion Award.

Towns enjoyed an 18-game streak of games with a double-double and at least one made 3-pointer from Nov. 12 through Dec. 23. A Flying Start to the Pope Era

Kentucky won big in its first regular-season contest under head coach Mark Pope, taking down Wright State, 103-62, to begin the 2024-25 campaign.

Six Wildcats scored in double figures in the contest, led by 21 points from Otega Oweh and 18 from Koby Brea. Kentucky saw six players finish with at least three assists in the victory, while three had five assists.

UK shot 60 percent from the field and assisted on 30 of 39 made field goals, a 76.9 percent assist rate.

Some nuggets from the Pope opener
• The 41-point margin of victory in Pope's debut is the same as his jersey #41 from his playing days at UK
• 103 points are the most for a Kentucky coach in his debut game. The previous high was 88 points vs. Morehead State in Tubby Smith's first game in 1997
• 103 points are the most in a season opener for the Wildcats since Nov. 11, 2011 when Kentucky scored 108 vs. Marist
• The Cats are 8-0 in a head coach's debut dating back to Adolph Rupp's first game in 1930
• It was the seventh season-opening win in a row for Mark Pope dating back to his final season at Utah Valley
• Kentucky improves to 101-21 in season openers all-time and 106-16 in home openers

Associated Press Poll All-Time Leader

Not only is Kentucky the nation's all-time wins leader and the team with the best all-time winning percentage, it has been ranked in the Associated Press more than any other program.

Kentucky has been ranked in the AP poll during 991 weeks in the poll's 76-year history. North Carolina (962), Duke (914), Kansas (878) and UCLA (744) round out the top five.

The Wildcats were ranked No. 1 for the first time in the second month of the poll in Feb. 1949. UK has played a total of 252 games as the nation's top-ranked team.

The Nov. 18, 2024 jump from No. 19 to No. 9 was the largest single-week rise for Kentucky in program history (10 spots). The previous record was a nine-spot jump accomplished in February of 2001.

Assistants Snapshot

In addition to putting together a roster from scratch, Mark Pope also had to assemble a staff upon his hiring as head coach of the Wildcats. Pope constructed what he considers to be the best in the country.

• Alvin Brooks III (associated head coach): Brooks coached eight seasons at Baylor, serving as both an assistant and associate head coach. The Bears went 194-72 during Brooks' tenure, including a 94-46 record in Big 12 action, won the 2021 NCAA Tournament, went 12-5 in NCAA Tournament games and 22-15 against Associated Press top-10 ranked foes. A Houston native, Brooks began his coaching career at the junior college level. He spent two seasons at Arkansas-Forth Smith, helping the Lions to the 2006 NJCAA Division I championship. He then joined the staff at Midland, where he again was on staff for an NJCAA title team in 2007.

• Mark Fox (associate coach): Has been a head coach at the NCAA Division I level for 18 years and has a career record of 324-263. Fox has directed teams to four regular-season conference titles, five NCAA Tournament appearances and 10 total postseason appearances during his collegiate coaching tenure. Fox and Pope reunite in Lexington, after Fox hired Pope for his first collegiate basketball position. Pope served as the Director of Basketball Operations at Georgia in 2009-10, coincidentally Fox's first season with the Bulldogs.

• Cody Fueger (assistant coach): Fueger has been a nine-year member of Mark Pope's staffs, first serving as an assistant coach at Utah Valley and then transitioning to BYU. The connection began when they were on the BYU staff together when Pope was an assistant coach and Fueger served as the director of basketball operations. Fueger began his career as a student assistant coach and video coordinator at Utah under Rick Majerus. Named one of the most impactful mid-major assistant coaches in Division I men's basketball by Silver Waves Media in 2022 and 2023, Fueger has been instrumental for Pope's squads.

• Jason Hart (assistant coach): Hart is a nine-year NBA veteran with extensive coaching experience at the high school, collegiate and professional levels. Hart most recently served as the head coach of the NBA's G-League Ignite squad, coaching the likes of Jaden Hardy, Scoot Henderson, Matas Buzelis and Ron Holland. He is a member of Syracuse's All-Century Team, which honored the top 25 players in the program's history. He was picked in the second round of the 2000 NBA Draft by the Milwaukee Bucks, where he was teammates with Pope for one season.

• Mikhail McLean (assistant coach): McLean spent the last three seasons on staff with Lamar as an assistant coach where the Cardinals have steadily improved year-to-year, culminating in a record-breaking 19-14 season in 2023-24. The Cardinals' 19 wins were their most in NCAA Division I since the 2011-12 season and the second most since the 1987-88 campaign. In addition to his collegiate coaching career, McLean is a native of The Bahamas and serves as the associate head coach on the Bahamian National Team staff. He has been a part of the program since 2021 and is the squad's defensive coordinator. A former standout player for Houston, he joined the Cougars' staff for six seasons.

Two Assistants Selected for Elite 75 Future Head Coach Power Lunch

Kentucky assistant coaches Cody Fueger and Jason Hart were selected for the Silver Waves Elite 75 Future Head Coach Power Lunch. These 75 coaches have distinguished themselves in the basketball space and are recognized as potential DI head coaches to come. The Silver Waves Media Future Head Coach Power Lunch will be held at the Final Four in San Antonio.

Mark Pope, a captain of the University of Kentucky's 1996 National Championship team, has returned to Lexington as the 23rd head coach of Kentucky's storied men's basketball program.

Pope is a nine-year head coaching veteran with stops at BYU and Utah Valley, amassing a 187-108 career record prior to the start of his UK career. His squads won 20 or more games in six of the last seven seasons and he has made six postseason appearances.

"Mark Pope not only brings an impressive record in nine years as a head coach, but also a love of the University of Kentucky and a complete understanding of what our program means to the people of our state," UK AD Mitch Barnhart said at the time of Pope's hiring. "As a captain on the '96 championship team, Mark was a beloved and respected teammate. As a head coach, he is highly regarded nationally as an innovator. His teams run a unique and dynamic up-tempo offense and they get after it on defense. He is a strong recruiter with international ties and a person of integrity.

"He fully embraces our high expectations and standards and I know that as our fans get reacquainted with Mark, they will be eager to join him on what promises to be an exciting ride."

Pope returns to UK from Provo, Utah, where he compiled a 110-52 record (.679) during five campaigns at the helm of BYU. He took the Cougars to three postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament, and missed another bid when the 2020 event was cancelled because of the Covid pandemic. Three of his five BYU teams finished the season ranked in the top 20 of the KenPom efficiency ratings.

"The University of Kentucky is the pinnacle of coaching in college basketball. It's the definition of blueblood program where hanging a banner is the expectation ever year," Pope said. "Equally as important, UK changed my life forever as a human being. The love and passion I have for this program, this University and the people of the Commonwealth goes to the depth of my soul.

"I'm thankful to Dr. (Eli) Capilouto and Mitch Barnhart for this opportunity. I'm proud to be your next head coach and I can't wait to do this together!"

Pope is coming off a 23-11 season in 2023-24. It was BYU's first season in the Big 12 Conference and the Cougars' 10-8 league record featured victories over No. 7 Kansas, No. 11 Baylor and No. 24 Iowa State. BYU's first win in the Big 12, on January 13 at Central Florida, also marked Pope's 100th victory as head coach of the Cougars.

The Cougars ranked third in the country with 11.1 made 3-pointers per game in 2023-24, and also ranked in the top 10 in assists per game (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (6th). BYU led the Big 12 in scoring at 81.4 points per game. They were ranked as high as No. 12 in the AP Poll after going 12-1 in nonconference action, winning the Vegas Showdown, BYU's first multi-team event title since 2011. Pope was named to the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year Late Season Watch List for his efforts.

Pope's teams also hit the postseason in 2020-21, finishing with a 20-7 mark and making BYU's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2015. The Cougars were 24-11 in 2021-22 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament. The Cougars captured win No. 60 under Pope in January of '22, making him the fastest BYU coach to achieve the mark.

Pope began his head coaching stint at BYU in the 2019-20 season, tallying a 24-8 record, the most wins for a first-year coach in program history. He finished the season ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press poll and No. 16 in the USA Today/Coaches poll, becoming the first head coach at BYU to conclude the season with a national ranking in his first season. The Cougars finished second in the West Coast Conference with a 13-3 record. The Cougars also toppled No. 2-ranked Gonzaga, earning their best win over a ranked opponent inside their home venue in program history. The Covid pandemic prevented an almost-certain bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Pope's Cougars were statistically among the top offenses in the nation in '19-20. The Cougars finished the season ranked first in 3-point field goal percentage, second in assist-to-turnover ratio, third in field-goal percentage, fourth in 3-point field goals per game and fifth in assists per game.

Following his first season with the Cougars, Matt Norlander of CBS tabbed Pope as the best hire of the year. He was also awarded with the United States Basketball Writers Association District VIII Coach of the Year honor. He was a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year.

Pope's first head coaching stint was a four-year term at Utah Valley. Beginning in 2015-16, the Wolverines increased their win total during every season of Pope's tenure, culminating in a 25-10 overall mark and a runner-up finish in the Western Athletic Conference in 2018-19. Utah Valley was 30-2 at home from 2017-19, and the 25 wins in 2019 were a single-season school record.

He began his collegiate playing career at the University of Washington, where he was tabbed the 1992 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. After his sophomore season, he transferred to Kentucky, where he appeared in every game of his two-year career with the Wildcats. UK won the 1995 and '96 regular-season Southeastern Conference championships, the '95 SEC Tournament title and the 1996 NCAA Tournament. He averaged 7.9 points and 5.7 rebounds per game in 69 career games. Pope was named to the All-SEC Tournament Team in 1995, behind a pair of double-doubles in three games, including one in the title game that went to overtime.

Pope was selected in the second round of the 1996 NBA Draft by the Indiana Pacers. He played professional basketball from 1997-2005, including terms with Indiana, Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Denver Nuggets. In 2000-01, he started 45 games and helped the Bucks reach the Eastern Conference Finals.

Following his playing days, Pope enrolled in medical school at Columbia University and completed two years before returning to basketball. He joined Mark Fox's staff at Georgia in 2009. He then spent one season as an assistant coach for Jeff Bzdelik at Wake Forest and four seasons at BYU under Dave Rose. The Cougars posted four straight 20-win seasons and advanced to postseason play in each of those four years, including three bids to the NCAA Tournament. His success as an assistant at BYU was the springboard to become head coach at Utah Valley.

Pope and his wife, Lee Anne, have four daughters, Ella, Avery, Layla and Shay. He is a 1996 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in English.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

"What a special day at the University of Kentucky. The leader, the captain of 'The Untouchables,' is coming home to lead the Wildcats. Mark Pope will go on to greatness; you can put it down … What some of you don't realize is how good a basketball mind he has, how much a relentless recruiter he will be."

RICK PITINO

"I'm happy for Mark. He is going to be a great leader of men. He is a passionate coach that loves coaching young men. He was a great teammate and a better human being. All of the former players before him and the guys who played with him couldn't be more excited about the hire."

TONY DELK

THE MARK POPE ERA

"My first conversation with Mark Pope came early in the 2023-24 season after his BYU team got off to one of the best starts of anybody in college basketball. Ever since we started talking, it's been very clear that Mark is not just a great coach, but he's a fantastic human being. You will not find someone who has more pride for Kentucky Basketball than Mark. He knows that it's not just a program in Lexington — it is a lifestyle. Rick Pitino told me Mark is one of the greatest leaders he's ever coached, and when you hear those words from a Hall of Famer who prides himself on work ethic, that speaks for itself. Mark took BYU into the Big 12 and won at a high level in year one. They had one of the best offenses in the country and he has shown a good ability to develop players. No challenge is going to be too great for Mark because he's passionate, he works hard and he's a people person. I believe in Mark's upside and think that Big Blue Nation is going to have a lot to look forward to in the Pope Era in Lexington."

JOHN FANTA

KENTUCKY THE MARK POPE ERA

"Mark Pope is a terrific choice to lead the Kentucky basketball program. As a former player on a title team, Pope understands the magnitude of Kentucky and embraces it. Kentucky fans will love Pope's innovative offensive schemes and his passion."

JAY BILAS

"Mark Pope brings a tremendous amount of energy, passion and purpose to his alma mater Kentucky. Wildcat fans will surely be entertained by his up-tempo offensive style and his commitment to producing and developing shooters. Pope's engaging personality will make him a fan favorite as the community gets reacquainted to him in the coming months and year."

ANDY KATZ

"I got to know and watch Mark Pope coach two years ago at Battle4Atlantis. He is extremely smart, engaging, confident in who he is and the style of ball he coaches. He is creative and a players coach. His teams play hard, just like he did. He knows what that Kentucky jersey is all about and that's a huge deal in the Bluegrass state."

JIMMY DYKES

"Mark Pope is one of the rising stars in college basketball. He is very smart, personable and a tireless worker. Few, if any, coaches understand the magic of Kentucky basketball the way a former Wildcat captain and national champion does. Mark is back home."

FRAN FRASCHILLA

"I want to congratulate Mark on his hiring at the University of Kentucky. Mark is one of the great young coaches in college basketball today and he will do an excellent job at UK. As a former Kentucky player, he understands Kentucky basketball and embraces the history and passion. He's a true Wildcat and I think that is important for the program. The Big Blue Nation will be very pleased and celebrate his arrival and tenure at UK. His team will play with the same passion, toughness, and energy as he did when he was a Wildcat. Mark is an absolutely excellent hire. He's a gracious person and proven winner. I'm so excited for him and his family."
