HEAD COACH ASHTON FELDHAUS

Ashton Feldhaus was named Morehead State's 13th head women's basketball coach in March 2025.

Feldhaus takes over the Eagle program after a 20-win campaign in her only season as head coach at Missouri Western in 2024-25. The Griffons finished third in the Mid-America IAA and earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Division II tournament.

The Richmond, Kentucky native has a deep basketball pedigree in the Bluegrass State. Her father Allen, Jr., was a standout at Eastern Kentucky and is the coach at Madison Central High School, winning the 2013 state championship. Her uncle Deron was a notable player at Kentucky and uncle Willie was a member of the MSU men's team from the 1984-85 through 1986-87.

Her grandfather, Allen, Sr., played at Kentucky for the legendary Adolph Rupp and was the long-time coach at Mason County in nearby Maysville. Ashton's mother, Karen, is the head cheerleading coach at Madison Central.

Prior to taking the reins at Missouri Western, Feldhaus served five seasons as the top assistant and associate head coach for Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Fla.

She helped guide the Tritons to five straight Division II tournament appearances, most recently during the 2023-24 season when Eckerd posted a 20-12 record and won the Sunshine State Conference Tournament championship. The Tritons posted a 91-28 overall record during her five seasons with the program.

Feldhaus is also familiar with the Ohio Valley Conference, playing at UT Martin after transferring following a season at Butler. She earned Second-Team All-OVC and OVC All-Newcomer honors her junior season and was a Second-Team All-OVC selection her senior season.

SEASON PREVIEW

The Ashton Feldhaus era of MSU Women's basketball begins in Historic Memorial Coliseum as the Eagles take on the 20th-ranked Kentucky Wildcats, with nearly an entirely new team.

The only returning player for Morehead State is senior Kate Dike. Dike appeared in 28 of Morehead State's 30 games last season, making 23 starts. She averaged 4.4 points and 4.4 rebounds per game.

Marie Sepp and Laura Toffali followed Feldhaus to Morehead from Missouri Western after a 20-10 season and a berth in the NCAA Division II tournament. Sepp averaged 12 points and 4.2 points per game, while Toffali averaged 9.1 points and 3.4 rebounds per game.

Division I transfers Anja Ekstrom (North Florida), Circe Rubio Remolar (Delaware State) and Violet McNece (Navy) are expected to be key contributors. Ekstrom shot 44% from three-point range in limited action last season.

Rubio Remolar made 14 starts last season at Delaware State. McNece appeared in 25 games in the 2023-24 averaging 12.6 minutes per appearance.

The Eagles roster has an international flair with Estonia (Sepp), Sweden (Enander, Ekstrom, Ersdala), Italy (Toffali), Spain (Remolar, Pavesio), Montenegro (Marinkovic) and England (Pearson) all represented on the roster.

The states of Kansas (Forbes) and Missouri (McNece) are represented on the MSU roster as well.

The Eagles will take on a challenging non-conference schedule; after Kentucky, MSU will also visit 19th-ranked Louisville and 13-th ranked Notre Dame. Their longest trip will be their game at Louisiana. They will host familiar foes Eastern Kentucky, Marshall and Murray State as part of their non-conference home slate.

Morehead State will open Ohio Valley Conference play on December 16 hosting Little Rock in Johnson Arena.
