LAST TIME OUT

The Raiders were tripped up by Youngstown State Tuesday evening, falling to the Penguins 46-65

WSU got balanced scoring with eight different Raiders finding their way onto the scoresheet, led by Breezie Williams with 10 points, followed by Lauren Scott with eight and Claire Henson with seven. Williams also led the Raiders with five rebounds and tied Rylee Sagester for the team-lead in assists with three.

Wright State started the game off well and led by one point after the first quarter, thanks to two early three-pointers by Williams. The Raiders and Penguins battled back and forth in the second quarter, with Youngstown State holding a two-point lead entering the locker room at halftime.

The Raiders knocked down three of their four three-pointers in the third quarter to keep themselves within striking distance in the fourth quarter. The Penguins finished the game on a 26-6 run across the final 12 minutes of the game to close out the game and build their largest lead of the game.

In the box score, Wright State trailed Youngstown State in rebounds (31-38), points in the paint (14-28), second-chance points (0-13), and fastbreak points (5-11). The Penguins outshot the Raiders from the floor (42.9-29.6) and from beyond the arc (38.8-38.9).

RAIDERS ON THE ROAD

Wright State is wrapping up a four-game road skid that has included stops at Purdue Fort Wayne (Dec. 7), Canisius (Dec. 12), Youngstown State (Dec. 16), and Kentucky (Dec. 19). The Raiders have played six of their last seven games away from the Nutter Center dating back to November 22.

CLAIRE CRASHING THE BOARDS

Claire Henson has been active in the paint for the Raiders, snagging 97 rebounds so far this season. Henson is third in the Horizon League with 7.5 rebounds per game. The senior grabbed a career-high 15 rebounds against Ohio on November 22, topping her previous high of 12 against Bellarmine earlier this season. The senior has grabbed eight or more rebounds in seven of Wright State's 11 games.

Henson also has a team and conference high of three double-doubles. The senior has recorded double-doubles against Bellarmine (13 pts. and 12 reb.), Ohio (17 pts. and 15 reb.), and Oakland (17 pts. and 10 reb.). Chloe Chard Peloquin recorded the only other double-double for the Raiders in the season opener against Butler (15 pts. and 11 rebs.).

BREEZIE LIKE A SUNDAY MORNING

Senior guard Breezie Williams has made an immediate impact for the Raiders, averaging 11.8 points, 2.4 assists, and 3.7 rebounds per game across her first 13 games in a Raider uniform. The Canton, Ohio, native is shooting 40.4% from the floor 32.7% from three-point range. The senior is also getting it done on the defensive end of the floor, averaging 2.2 steals per game. Williams is 13th in the Horizon League in points per game (11.8) and fourth in steals per game (2.2). The Bryant transfer had a breakout performance on the road at Tennessee State, dropping a new career-high 27 points with three assists, three rebounds, and two blocks. She followed up her career night in Nashville with a 20-point performance against Wilberforce in just 14 minutes of action. Williams also finished one rebound and one steal short of a triple-double at Florida Atlantic, finishing with a career-high nine steals and a season-high nine rebounds.

RYLEE FROM RANGE

Redshirt sophomore guard Rylee Sagester is not only one of the best three-point shooters in the Horizon League but is one of the best in the country. The Alexandria, Ohio native is shooting a stellar 42.9% from beyond the arc, which is a team best and second in the Horizon League. Nationally, Sagester is tied for 30th in three-pointers made with 30 and is 116th in three-pointers per game with 2.3. Sagester's 30 three-pointers sit her atop the Horizon League standings above Cleveland State's Colbi Maples. Sagester has made more than one three-pointer in nine of the Raiders' 13 games, highlighted by a pair of games with five made threes against Wilberforce and Bellarmine.

BALL SECURITY IS JOB SECURITY

The Wright State offense has been taking care of the ball this season, averaging 13.4 turnovers per game, which is tied for 34th in the nation and first in the Horizon League. The Raiders also feature a 3.62 turnover margin, which is good for third-best in the Horizon League and 78th in the nation.

RECORD-BREAKING HOME OPENER

The Raiders set a new program best for points scored in a single game with 122 points. Their first time eclipsing 100 points since November 10, 2017, against Northwestern (OH).

The Raiders led wire-to-wire, taking the lead just 19 seconds into the game and never looking back. Breezie Williams led all players in points for the second game in a row, following up her 27-point performance with another 20-point performance in just 14 minutes. Ellie Magestro-Kennedy (17), Elaina Rager (17), Rylee Sagester (17), and Grace Okih (16) all scored double-digits, with Okih and Rager setting new career highs. All 11 available Raiders saw action on the court tonight, with each player scoring at least four points.

Wright State was making it rain from downtown, tying the program record in three-pointers made with 18. The Raiders did it shooting an impressive 47.4% from beyond the arc.

BASKETBALL RUNS IN THE FAMILY

Lauren Scott is the granddaughter of Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame coach Gary Williams, who led the Maryland men's basketball program to its first-ever NCAA Tournament Championship in 2002. He also served as head coach for American (1978-82), Boston College (1982-86), and Ohio State (1986-89). Currently, he is Maryland's Senior Managing Director for Alumni Relations and Athletic Development.

THE KARI HOFFMAN FILE

Kari Hoffman was named the women's basketball head coach at Wright State University in May 2021, becoming just the eighth head coach in women's program history.

In her fifth season at WSU, Hoffman guided the Raiders to the Horizon League

Quarterfinals, finishing the 2024-25 campaign with a 10-22 overall record and a 7-13 mark in conference play. Graduate forward Amaya Staton, a 2025 All-League Third Team and All-Defensive Team selection, was a standout performer. In the opening round of the Horizon League Championship, Staton pulled down 27 rebounds against Youngstown State – setting a new program record, breaking the Horizon League Championship single-game record, establishing a new 2025 NCAA Division I single-game rebounding record, and tying the Horizon League all-time single-game mark.

On the court, two Raiders earned Horizon League weekly honors. Redshirt freshman Rylee Sagester was named HL Freshman of the Week on January 13 after helping lead the Raiders to their first two conference wins of the season, averaging 10 points per game while shooting 53.8 percent from the field and 62.5 percent from three (5-of-8). Staton followed with HL Player of the Week honors on February 17 after powering Wright State to a 78-76 overtime victory at Youngstown State with 23 points and 16 rebounds.

Hoffman led the team to have large improvements in the 2023-24 season, putting up an 18-15 overall record, going 11-9 in conference play, a large turnaround from the previous year's 6-14 league record. She guided the Raiders to a Horizon League Championship semifinals appearance, as graduate guard Alexis Hutchinson was named to the Horizon League First Team.

In her second year at Wright State, Hoffman guided the Raiders to a four-win improvement, a Horizon League Championship quarterfinals appearance, and a 6-5 record over the program's last 11 games.

The native of Wisconsin has transformed Wright State into one of the nation's most prolific long-distance shooting teams, as the Raiders ranked second nationally in 3-point makes per game (10.1) and 22nd in 3-point percentage (.364) during the 2022-23 season. Wright State netted a school record 323 threes in the campaign while also shattering a single-game school record with 18 3-pointers versus Cleveland State (1/20).

Hoffman joined the Raiders after serving as the head coach at nearby Cedarville University for the previous five seasons, where she won 106 games, led the Yellow Jackets to three regular season conference titles, and was named the Great Midwest Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 2018 and 2021. Hoffman also earned NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year honors in 2019 and 2020.

Hoffman averaged 21.2 wins per season at Cedarville and has won 66 percent of her games in her career. She led Cedarville to the NCAA Division II Regional as an at-large selection in 2021 after the Yellow Jackets were an NCCAA National Tournament qualifier following the 2019-20 campaign.

Under Hoffman, Cedarville had five NCCAA All-Americans, including one NCCAA Midwest Region Player of the Year, and nine All-NCCAA Midwest Region players. Hoffman coached 13 All-Great Midwest Athletic Conference players, including a pair of All-Conference Defensive players and one Great Midwest Athletic Conference Freshman of the Year. Academically, Hoffman mentored 20 NCCAA Scholar-Athletes and 31 All-Great Midwest Athletic Conference Academic Team players.

Prior to taking over the reins at Cedarville, Hoffman was an assistant coach with the Yellow Jackets from 2010-16 and was a part of Great Midwest Athletic Conference titles in 2015 and 2016. She began her collegiate coaching career at Cedarville during the 2007-2008 season.
