WEEK FOUR: AT KENTUCKY

OPPONENT: KENTUCKY

DATE: FRIDAY, JAN. 30

TIME: 5:00 PM CT

TV: SEC NETWORK

LOCATION: LEXINGTON, KY.

ARENA: HISTORIC MEMORIAL COLISEUM

NOTES & NUMBERS FOR WEEK FOUR

TOUCH WARMUP

The Oklahoma women's gymnastics team is back on the road for another SEC matchup on Friday. The Sooners will travel to Lexington, Ky., for the first time since 2012 to take on the Kentucky Wildcats inside Historic Memorial Coliseum. Kennedy Baker and Jason Ross Jr. will have the call on SEC Network starting at 5 p.m. CT.

WEEKEND REWIND

The Sooners opened their home slate with a 198.425-196.875 victory over No. 5 Georgia. OU became the first team to hit the 198-plus mark this season as they improved to 4-0-1 on the season and 2-0 in SEC action.

Sophomore Addison Fatta won the all-around with a career high 39.750. Freshman Mackenzie Estep secured the vault title with a near-perfect 9.975. Estep also shared the bars title with Fatta and junior Hannah Scheible as the trio notched matching 9.925s. Senior Faith Torrez claimed the beam title with her near-perfect performance for a 9.975 and freshman Kamila Pawlak earned a share of the floor title with a career high 9.95.

ESTEP NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

A career night in the first home meet of the season earned freshman Mackenzie Estep her second SEC Freshman of the Week honor. With Estep's nod this week, a Sooner has now won all three freshman of the week honors this season as Ella Murphy earned the honor in week two. LSU's Kailin Chio was named the gymnast of the week and Florida's Riley McCusker was named specialist of the week.

Estep posted three career-high marks of 9.9-plus to lead the Sooners to season-high scores on vault and floor. The Auburn, Wash., native began the meet with a 9.975 on vault to earn her first event title of the meet. She then earned a share of first place on bars with a 9.925 and later recorded a 9.925 on floor for a share of fourth place.

FANTASTIC FRESHMEN

The freshman class has made a major impact just three weeks into the season. After combining for half of OU's 10 scores of 9.9-plus in the season opener, the freshmen have kept it going by accounting for 36 percent of the 9.9-plus scores earned by Oklahoma this season (13-of-36).

The trio of Mackenzie Estep, Ella Murphy and Kamila Pawlak have contributed over 25 percent of OU's routines in 2026 and account for at least two freshmen being in two of the four lineups. Murphy is the only freshman in the beam lineup and Estep is the only freshman in the vault lineup, while all three were in the floor lineup the last two weeks.

YOUNG & HUNGRY

With 11 underclassmen on this year's roster, the Sooners are younger than they have been in the last few years. However, the freshmen and sophomore classes have taken the reigns and are prepared to lead the team.

The underclassmen have combined for 74 percent of routines competed in 2026 (53-of-72). The freshmen have contributed 20 routines through three meets while the sophomores are responsible for 33. Mackenzie Estep, Addison Fatta, Ella Murphy and Lily Pederson have all competed at least three events in at least one meet this season. Through the first three meets, the freshmen and sophomores have a hit rate of 98 percent (52-of-53).

CLOUD 9.9

Through three meets, 50 percent of the Sooners' routines have gone 9.90 or higher (36-of-72). With just 19 through the first two meets, OU doubled its output with 17 against Georgia on Jan. 23. OU has tallied 11 scores of 9.9-plus on both vault and beam and seven each on bars and floor. Prior to the Georgia meet, the Sooners had just one score of 9.9 or better on floor.

ROAD WARRIORS

In the last decade, the Sooners have shown they are a force to be reckoned with away from the friendly confines of Lloyd Noble Center. Since 2015, the Sooners boast a 247-15-1 record on the road, a 94 percent win rate. This includes a 62-6 record at true away competition sites and a 187-9-1 mark at neutral sites.

SCHEIBLE'S REVENGE

After sitting out the 2025 season due to a preseason Achilles tear and subsequent surgery, junior Hannah Scheible is out for revenge in 2026. After 632 days, Scheible returned to the competition floor and made it known she was back. The junior notched a 9.90 in the leadoff spot on bars before an incredible 9.95 on beam. Scheible, who was limited to only vault in 2024, made her collegiate debut on both events and claimed a share of the beam title in her first meet back. Scheible is expected to return to the vault lineup in 2026 as well.

THE RANKINGS ARE IN

After three weeks, the Sooners are back in the No. 1 spot in the rankings with a 197.783 average. LSU, the only other team to put up a score of 198 or better this season, moved up to No. 2 with a 197.467 average. Alabama and Florida are tied at No. 3 (197.417) while UCLA stayed steady at No. 5 (197.181).

The Sooners are No. 1 on a pair of events with a 49.517 average on vault and 49.550 average on beam. All six vaulters from Friday's lineup are ranked, while four members of the beam squad hold top 25 rankings. OU also holds top five rankings on bars and floor, sitting at No. 4 on bars with a 49.350 average and No. 5 on floor with an average of 49.367. A pair of athletes hold three individual rankings on the events.

TOP 25 SOONERS

A total of eight gymnasts hold 15 individual rankings on the events and in the all-around. Lily Pederson (39.350) and Addison Fatta (39.325) are ranked 15th and 16th, respectively in the all-around. Fatta is also No. 7 on vault (9.908) and No. 13 on beam (9.900).

Mackenzie Estep leads the Sooners with an individual ranking on all three events she competes. The freshman is No. 2 on vault (9.933), No. 19 on bars (9.883) and No. 9 on floor (9.908). Fellow freshman Ella Murphy is ranked on a pair of events, coming in at No. 7 on beam (9.933) and No. 15 on floor (9.900).

Faith Torrez and Keira Wells are each ranked on a pair of events with Torrez at No. 2 on beam (9.958) and No. 6 on vault (9.912) and Wells at No. 17 on vault (9.883) and No. 19 on beam (9.883). Elle Mueller (9.900) and Elizabeth Blessey (9.875) are each ranked on vault at No. 9 and No. 20, respectively.

CLUB 197

The Sooners have posted a score of 197 or higher in 77 of their last 79 meets. OU is one of just three schools who have posted a 197-plus in all meets this season, along with Alabama and Florida.

The program record of 45-consecutive meets with a 197-plus was snapped at the 2024 NCAA Semifinals. During the streak, 32 of the 45 meet scores were a 198 or higher. Currently, the Sooners have posted a 197-plus in 20 consecutive meets.

TO 198...AND BEYOND

Oklahoma has totaled 83 scores of 198 or better in program history, including 75 since 2016. Of those 83 scores, only 32 have been earned at home, with 51 coming at road or neutral site competitions. Of the road scores, only 25 have occurred in regional or national competitions, including a 198.3875 at the 2024 NCAA Championship, which tied for the highest NCAA Finals score in history. In 2024, the Sooners earned a program and NCAA best 198.950 at the Big 12 Championships.

SEEING DOUBLE

With two quad meets on the schedule for 2026, the Sooners will see a pair of SEC foes twice during the regular season. OU opens the season in a quad meet featuring LSU, before hosting the Tigers in Norman in February. An early February quad meet at the annual Metroplex Challenge pits Oklahoma against Arkansas, before the Sooners travel to the home of the Razorbacks in early March.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

A new year means new faces in the lineups. Five freshmen have joined the Sooners for 2026 in Nicole Desmond, Mackenzie Estep, Ella Murphy, Kamila Pawlak and Blakely Roten. The group brings a wealth of national experience and is expected to immediately make an impact in their first year with the Crimson and Cream.

GUESS WHO'S BACK

The Sooners return 12 gymnasts from the 2025 squad that captured the program's seventh national title in seniors Faith Torrez and Ava Siegfeldt, juniors Aspen Lenczner, Hannah Scheible, Caitlin Smith and Keira Wells and sophomores Lizzy Blessey, Addison Fatta, Elle Mueller, Lily Pederson, Kelsey Slade and Hurley Snow.

In the group of veterans is five All-Americans, an individual national championship, four individual conference titles and six perfect scores.

THE BIG 2-0

The 2026 season marks a milestone for the coaching staff at Oklahoma. Head coach K.J. Kindler, associate head coaches Lou Ball and Tom Haley and athletic trainer Jenn Richardson will be celebrating 20 seasons with the Sooners. No coaching staff in the nation has the longevity that this crew has had, or quite the success.

Since the arrival of the quartet for the 2007 season, they have amassed seven NCAA Championships (2014, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022, 2023, 2025), 13 top three national finishes, 15 straight regional titles, 15 conference championships and more than 200 All-America honors.

Eighteen individual national championships have been won by Kindler's athletes and 32 athletes have won conference of the year awards. Three gymnasts have won the Honda Sport Award for Gymnastics and Maggie Nichols claimed the only AAI Award in program history in 2020.

KINDLER NAMED TO OKLAHOMA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Head coach K.J. Kindler was announced as part of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame 2026 class on January 6. Kindler's official induction into the Hall of Fame will take place in August.

In two decades at the helm of Oklahoma women's gymnastics, Kindler has elevated the Sooners into one of the sport's true dynasties. Since her arrival in Norman in 2006, Kindler's visionary leadership has produced seven NCAA

A four-time National Coach of the Year, Kindler has guided Oklahoma to heights once thought unattainable. Her teams have redefined consistency and excellence, spending entire seasons ranked No. 1, breaking NCAA scoring records and producing individual national champions.

Entering her 20th season at Oklahoma, with 25 seasons as a head coach to her name, Kindler has a collegiate coaching record of 638-105-3 (.857) and holds a record of 544-52-2 (.911) at OU.

THE ROAD TO NATIONALS

The squad will face some of the toughest competition in the nation with a schedule that rivals anyone in the country. The competitive slate has 12 of OU's regular season opponents ranked in the preseason poll, including eight in the top 10.

The Sooners will face three of the top five teams in the first meet of the season at the annual Sprouts Farmer's Market Collegiate Quad. This year's quad meet features the Sooners alongside No. 2 LSU, No. 4 UCLA and No. 5 Utah. This marks the third season in a row that OU will face three top five teams within the first two weeks of the season.

OU welcomes four top 25 teams to Lloyd Noble Center in 2026 with one of the most anticipated dual meets of the season slated for Feb. 20 against No. 2 LSU. Also traveling to Norman are No. 8 Alabama, No. 11 Auburn and No. 12 Georgia.

On the road, the Sooners face six ranked teams including four preseason top 10 SEC foes. OU travels to No. 3 Florida, No. 7 Missouri, No. 9 Kentucky, No. 10 Arkansas and No. 14 Michigan and faces No. 18 Arizona at the Metroplex Challenge in Fort Worth Texas.

FLIP ON THE TV

Oklahoma will be featured an impressive eight times on the ESPN family of networks during the 2026 regular season. The slate includes seven conference matchups on the networks, including all four home conference meets.

The season opens with the Sprouts Farmer's Market Collegiate Quad on Jan. 10 at 3 p.m. CT on ABC. OU will appear on ESPN2 twice in back-to-back weeks: at Florida on Feb. 13 at 6 p.m. and hosting LSU in a highly anticipated national-champ showdown on Feb. 20 at 8 p.m.

Five SEC matchups will air on SEC Network, beginning at Missouri on Jan. 16 at 7:45 p.m., followed by home meets vs. Georgia on Jan. 23 at 6 p.m. (with SEC Now: OU Championship Celebration airing at 5:30), vs. Alabama on Feb. 6 at 7:45 p.m., and vs. Auburn on Feb. 27 at 7:45 p.m., plus a road trip to Kentucky on Jan. 30 at 5 p.m. The SEC Championship will air live from Tulsa's BOK Center on SEC

Network, with Session 1 at 2 p.m. and Session 2 at 7 p.m.

SCOUTING THE OPPPOSITION

KENTUCKY: Kentucky comes into Friday's match off a loss to LSU in its SEC opener last Friday night. Ryan Noonan paced the Wildcats with a pair of collegiate best scores, while Chesney Bennett, Delaynee Rodriguez, and Gabby Van Frayen each set or matched their career highs on an event. Bennett bested her career best mark on the floor exercise with a 9.825, while Rodriguez and Van Frayen each matched their personal bests on beam, scoring 9.925 and 9.850, respectively. Rodriguez also set a new season high in the all-around, scoring a 39.425 across all four events. The Wildcats are 0-5 on the season, but are No. 10 in the nation on vault.

QUICK FLIPS

- The Sooners four returning All-Americans are tied for most in the nation with Alabama, Florida and Missouri.
- Through the first three meets of the season 11 different athletes have competed for Oklahoma.
- With a 197.500 in the season opener, the Sooners have scored a 197-plus in the opening meet of the year every year since 2017.
- Mackenzie Estep is the only freshman in the SEC with a top 10 ranking on more than one event.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Sooners return home for a crimson clash on Feb. 6 when Alabama makes the trek to Norman. The meet is set for a 7:30 p.m. start on SEC Network. The 2025 national championship banner will be unveiled prior to first vault and the Sooners will recognize their alumni during the meet.

KJ Kindler enters her 20th season as the head coach of the seven-time national champion Oklahoma women's gymnastics team. In her 20 seasons at the helm of the Sooners, Kindler has led her program to record-breaking heights.

A four-time National Coach of the Year, Kindler has taken the Sooners to the absolute height of NCAA gymnastics with seven national titles, 13 top three finishes, 15-straight regional titles and 15 conference titles. Twice have Kindler's programs gone back-to-back, winning national championships in 2016 and 2017 along with 2022 and 2023.

As Oklahoma's head coach, she has developed 18 individual national champions, 204 All-Americans, 86 individual conference champions and 36 conference major award honorees. Additionally, three of her student-athletes have gone on to earn the Honda Sport Award for Gymnastics, with Anastasia Webb being the first top three finalist in program history. Maggie Nichols, the 2019 Honda Sport Award winner, was named the 2020 AAI Award Winner, the first in program history. Jordan Bowers, the 2025 Honda Sport Award winner, was the SEC Gymnast of the Year, All-Around Champion and AAI Award Finalist.

Kindler was recognized as the 2024 Big 12 Coach of the Year for the 16th time in her career and the 2024 National Head Coach of the Year after leading the Sooners to an NCAA record 198.950 team score.

She is the first and only coach to NCAA history to take two separate programs to the NCAA Finals as she led her alma mater, Iowa State, to the NCAA Championships in 2006. Kindler was the head coach of the Cyclones from 2001-2006 and was the first individual regional qualifier in program history as a student-athlete.

She lives in Norman with her husband, Lou Ball, and their two daughters, Maggie & Adelaide.
