NOTES & NUMBERS FOR WEEK 13

TOUCH WARMUP

The No. 1 Oklahoma women's gymnastics team begins NCAA postseason competition this weekend, April 3-5, at the Lexington Regional, held at the University of Kentucky's Historic Memorial Coliseum. OU will compete in the second session of the second round against No. 16 Kentucky, Ohio State and the winner of the Central Michigan/Rutgers at 6 p.m. CT on April 3.

The afternoon session on Friday features No. 8 Missouri, No. 9 Arkansas, NC State and Maryland. The top two teams from each session on Friday will advance to Sunday's regional final at 4 p.m. CT.

The Sooners look to continue their NCAA regional success under 20th-year head coach K.J. Kindler. The Sooners have won 15 consecutive regional championships and 61 individual regional championship titles, dating back to 2010.

As the No. 1 overall seed at the Lexington Regional, OU was able to select its rotation order for the postseason. The Sooners elected to begin on vault and follow true Olympic order, ending on floor.

QUICK FLIPS

- Oklahoma is the only team nationally to score a 49.600-plus at least once on all four events this season.
- Including this season, OU has gone unbeaten in the regular season nine times under head coach K.J. Kindler, including in two of the last three years.
- The Sooners have hit 308 of 312 routines this season for a hit percentage of .987. Eight athletes are perfect on the season and of those, two have competed in every meet in 2026. See more information on page 3.
- Of the 12 athletes who have competed this season, ten have won at least one event title and seven have won at least two.
- OU has competed eight athletes on each of the four events this season.
- Sophomore Addison Fatta leads the team with 18 event titles, including nine in the all-around, while freshman Mackenzie Estep has won 11 (one all-around). Fatta and Estep have each won at least three titles on vault, bars and floor.
- Senior Faith Torrez holds a 97% hit rate (59 of 61). Half (31 of 61) of her routines have resulted in a 9.95-plus score, including two perfect 10.0s in her career and one this season (SEC Championships).

SEC SNAPBACK

At the 2026 SEC Championships, three Sooners earned individual event titles as the team notched a 198.150 to place second. Faith Torrez went back-to-back as the SEC beam champion, earning a perfect 10.0 to secure the title outright. Mackenzie Estep became the first OU freshman to earn an SEC individual event title, scoring a career-high 9.95 to share the podium with teammate Keira Wells.

Estep earned SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, along with being one of eight Sooners to be named to the All-SEC Teams, securing nods on vault and floor and recognized on the All-Freshman team on bars and floor.

Wells received recognition on vault, beam and floor. Torrez (bars, beam), Elle Mueller (beam), Lizzy Blessey (vault), Addison Fatta (vault), and Kamila Pawlak (floor) were also named to the All-SEC Team. Ella Murphy was named to the All-SEC Team on bars, beam and floor while earning All-Freshman honors on bars and beam.

2025 REGIONAL REWIND

In 2025, the Sooners won their 15th straight regional title with a first-place finish at the NCAA Seattle Regional. OU posted a 198.450 in the regional final, their second highest regional score in program history. In the regional final, Jordan Bowers was perfect on three events (vault, bars and floor), and Faith Torrez earned a 10.0 on floor. Torrez earned four individual regional titles (all-around, bars, beam and floor), while Bowers and Audrey Davis shared the bars podium with her.

ROAD WARRIORS

In the last decade, the Sooners have shown they are a force to be reckoned with away from the friendly confines of Lloyd Noble Center. Since 2015, the Sooners boast a 251-15-1 record on the road, a 94% win rate. This includes a 67-6 record at true away competition sites and a 197-10-1 mark at neutral sites. In 2026, the Sooners are 18-1-1 in road meets.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

Oklahoma has hit on 98.7% of its routines this season (308 of 312). Eight athletes — Lizzy Blessey, Elle Mueller, Ella Murphy, Kamila Pawlak, Lily Peterson, Kelsey Slade, Caitlin Smith and Keira Wells — have hit 100% of their routines this season. Of those eight, Mueller and Murphy have competed in every meet this season.

ALL-AMERICAN SOONERS

Six members of the No. 1 Oklahoma women's gymnastics team combined to secure eight regular season All-America honors from the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA).

Senior Faith Torrez, junior Keira Wells, sophomores Addison Fatta and Elle Mueller, and freshmen Mackenzie Estep and Ella Murphy all received regular season All-America recognition.

Fatta earned first team recognition in the all-around and on vault, where she finished second in the country on the apparatus. She ended the regular season ranked No. 4 in the all-around. Estep earned two honors in her first season, notching first-team on vault and second team on floor. The freshman ended the regular season ranked No. 4 on vault and No. 11 on floor.

Mueller and Wells also received recognition on vault. Wells was named to the first team on vault after finishing the season as the No. 5 ranked athlete on the event, while Mueller received second team honors with her No. 14 ranking on the event to end the season. Torrez received recognition on beam, where she finished No. 3 in the country on the event. This is her third year earning honors on beam. Murphy picked up her first regular-season honor with a first team recognition on beam, where she finished No. 8 in the country.

BACK-TO-BACK

For the second year in a row and the first time outright, the Oklahoma women's gymnastics team earned the SEC regular season championship with an 8-0 league record. The Sooners posted a 197.975-196.150 victory over No. 15 Auburn on Feb. 27 at Lloyd Noble Center to clinch the 2026 outright league crown. OU is 16-0-1 on the year.

AAI AWARD FINALISTS

Senior Faith Torrez was named one of six finalists for the prestigious AAI Award, recognizing the most outstanding senior female gymnast in the country. The honor is voted on by NCAA women's gymnastics head coaches and sponsored by American Athletic, Inc. (AAI).

The AAI Award is considered one of the highest honors given in the sport of women's gymnastics. Torrez joins a group of Sooner legends who were finalists, including Megan Ferguson (2012), Brie Olson (2013), Taylor Spears (2014), Erica Brewer (2015), Haley Scaman (2016), Chayse Capps (2017), AJ Jackson (2018), Brenna Dowell (2019), Maggie Nichols (2020; winner) Anastasia Webb (2021), Audrey Davis (2024 and 2025) and Jordan Bowers (2025).

Torrez is joined by six other finalists: Carly Bauman (Michigan), Jordan Chiles (UCLA), Gabby Gladieux (Alabama), Morgan Price (Arkansas), Anna Roberts (Stanford) and Nikki Smith (Michigan State).

COUNT ON KEIRA

Junior Keira Wells has become a significant contributor to the OU vault and beam lineups this season and recently made her career debut on floor. Wells has competed in nearly every meet this season, contributing 28 routines and earning a 9.90 or above in 18 of them. Her consistency on both vault and beam makes her a critical part of the lineups, earning above a 9.800 on every routine and a 9.85-plus on 89% (24/27).

FRESHMAN PERFECTION

On Feb. 8, Mackenzie Estep joined an exclusive club as she became the sixth freshman in program history to earn a perfect 10. Estep, who earned the mark on vault, joined former Sooners Jordan Bowers (vault; 2022), Brenna Dowell (bars; 2015), Maggie Nichols (vault, bars, beam, floor; 2017), Olivia Trautman (floor; 2019) and Anastasia Webb (beam; 2018) in the history books. Estep is the first OU freshman since Bowers in 2022 to earn a perfect mark and the third to do so on vault, joining Bowers and Nichols.

STEPPING UP AND SHOWING OUT

Oklahoma's freshmen have stepped up to fill important roles this season following the departure of an incredible senior class in 2025. The trio of Mackenzie Estep, Ella Murphy and Kamila Pawlak account for 30% of OU's routines this season.

In 44 competition routines, Estep has recorded 26 scores of 9.90 or higher, including a career-high 10.0 on vault. Murphy has tallied 19 marks of 9.9-plus with a career-best 9.975 on beam. Pawlak has been in nearly every floor lineup, posting a career-high 9.95 twice this season and five marks over 9.90 in 11 routines. Estep and Murphy won five of the ten SEC Freshman of the Week honors this season.

YOUNG AND HUNGRY

With 11 underclassmen on this year's roster, the Sooners are younger than they have been in the last few years. However, the freshman and sophomore classes have taken the reigns and have helped lead the team.

The underclassmen have combined for 73% of routines competed in 2026 (228 of 312). The freshmen have contributed 94 routines through 13 meets while the sophomores are responsible for 134. Mackenzie Estep, Addison Fatta, Elle Mueller, Ella Murphy and Lily Pederson have all competed at least three events in multiple meets.

FANTASTIC FATTA

Sophomore Addison Fatta is making a name for herself as one of the top all-around competitors in the country in her second year of collegiate competition.

The Wrightsville, Pa., native has reached new heights this year, recording a career high on vault (10.0) and floor (9.975) and tying her career high on beam (9.95). She has competed all-around in every meet of the season with 35 scores of 9.90 or higher over 52 routines (67%).

CLOUD 9.9

Through 11 weeks of competition, 55% of the Sooners' routines have gone 9.90 or higher (172 of 312). With just 19 through the first two meets, OU doubled its output with 18 against Georgia on Jan. 23. The Sooners have notched double-digit scores of 9.90 or better in 11 of 13 meets and over 15 such scores in four meets (Georgia, Alabama, TWU, SEC Championships).

CLUB 197

The Sooners have posted a score of 197 or higher in 86 of their last 88 meets. Oklahoma and Alabama are the only two schools that have posted a 197-plus in all meets this season.

Oklahoma's program record of 45 consecutive meets with a 197-plus was snapped at the 2024 NCAA Semifinals. During the streak, 32 of the 45 meet scores were 198 or higher. OU's current streak of posting a 197-plus stands at 29 meets.

TO 198...AND BEYOND

Oklahoma has totaled 89 scores of 198 or better in program history, including 81 since 2016. Of those 89 scores, only 35 have been earned at home, with 54 coming at road or neutral-site competitions. Of the road scores, only 25 have occurred in regional or national competitions, including a 198.3875 at the 2023 NCAA Championship, which tied for the highest NCAA Finals score in history. In 2024, the Sooners earned a program- and NCAA-best 198.950 at the Big 12 Championship. This season, OU was the first team to break the 198 mark. Its seven marks of 198 or better lead the nation.

LOOKING AHEAD

The top two placing teams from each regional final will advance to the 2026 NCAA Championships in Fort Worth, Texas, on April 16 and 18. Should the Sooners advance, they will compete in a semifinal against the winners of the Corvallis Regional.

THE BIG 2-0

The 2026 season marks a milestone for the Oklahoma coaching staff. Head coach K.J Kindler, associate head coaches Lou Ball and Tom Haley and athletic trainer Jenn Richardson are celebrating 20 seasons with the Sooners. No coaching staff in the nation has the longevity — or success — this crew has enjoyed.

Since the arrival of the quartet for the 2007 season, the group has amassed seven NCAA championships (2014, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022, 2023, 2025), 13 top-three national finishes, 15 straight regional titles, 15 conference championships and more than 200 All-America honors.

Kindler's athletes have won 18 individual national championships and 32 athletes have won conference "of-the-year" awards. Three gymnasts — Maggie Nichols, Anastasia Webb and Jordan Bowers — have won the Honda Sport Award for Gymnastics, and Nichols claimed the only AAI Award in program history in 2020.

KINDLER NAMED TO OKLAHOMA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Head coach K.J. Kindler was announced as a member of the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame 2026 class on Jan. 6. Her official induction into the Hall will take place in August.

In two decades at the helm of Oklahoma women's gymnastics, Kindler has elevated the Sooners into one of the sport's true dynasties. Since her arrival in Norman in 2006, Kindler's visionary leadership has produced seven NCAA championships (2014, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022, 2023, 2025), 13 top-three national finishes, 15 straight regional titles, 15 conference championships and more than 200 All-America honors.

A four-time national coach of the year, Kindler has guided Oklahoma to heights once thought unattainable. Her teams have redefined consistency and excellence, spending entire seasons ranked No. 1, breaking NCAA scoring records and producing 18 individual national champions.

In her 20th year at Oklahoma and 26th overall as a head coach, Kindler has a 654-105-4 (.857) career record and holds a 560-52-3 (.911) mark at OU.

A LEAGUE OF HER OWN

K.J. Kindler is in a league of her own as the only head coach in NCAA history to take two different programs to the NCAA Finals. In 2006, Kindler's Iowa State team advanced to the Super Six, and she has guided 13 OU teams to the finals in her 20 years in Norman.

Kindler is one of just two active head coaches to win an NCAA team title, alongside Jay Clark (LSU, 2024), as former Michigan head coach Bev Plocki retired after the 2025 season. The Wolverines won their first and only title under Plocki in 2021.

KJ Kindler is in her 20th season as the head coach of the seven-time national champion Oklahoma women's gymnastics program in 2026, leading it to record-breaking heights.

A four-time national coach of the year, Kindler has also carried the Sooners to 13 top-three finishes, 15 straight regional titles and 15 conference titles. Twice, Kindler-coached OU teams have gone back-to-back, winning national championships in 2016 and '17 and 2022 and '23.

As Oklahoma's head coach, she has developed 18 individual national champions, 204 All-Americans, 89 individual conference champions and 37 conference major award honorees. Additionally, three of her student-athletes have gone on to earn the Honda Sport Award for Gymnastics, with Anastasia Webb being the first top-three finalist in program history. Maggie Nichols, the 2019 Honda Sport Award winner, was named the 2020 AAI Award Winner, the first in program history. Jordan Bowers, the 2025 Honda Sport Award winner, was the SEC Gymnast of the Year, All-Around Champion and AAI Award Finalist.

Kindler was recognized as the 2024 Big 12 Coach of the Year for the 16th time in her career and the 2024 National Head Coach of the Year after leading the Sooners to an NCAA record 198.950 team score.

She is the first and only coach to NCAA history to take two separate programs to the NCAA Finals as she led her alma mater, Iowa State, to the NCAA Championships in 2006. Kindler was the head coach of the Cyclones from 2001-2006 and was the first individual regional qualifier in program history as a student-athlete.

She lives in Norman with her husband, Lou Ball, and their two daughters, Maggie and Adelaide.
