HEAD COACH GATOR TODD

Gator Todd enters his fourth season as head coach of the Kentucky men's golf team in 2026-27.

The 2025-26 season was the best yet for the Wildcats under Todd. The team qualified for NCAA Regionals for the first time since 2022, competing at the Bermuda Run Regional, where they ultimately finished 10th. Jacob Lang earned a bid to the NCAA National Championship as an individual after placing T5 at the Bermuda Run Regional. Lang became the first Wildcat to compete at the National Championship since the team qualified in 2018, finishing at even-par and T47. During the regular season, the Cats notched two team victories, winning both the Colleton River Collegiate as well as the Bluegrass Collegiate Invitational. The wins were the first for the program under Todd and marked the first season in which UK won twice since 2017-18. UK also finished as the runner-up at the second annual Cullan Brown Collegiate. Freshman Cole Stockard tallied two individual wins, finishing atop the leaderboard at both the Cullan Brown Collegiate and the Bluegrass Collegiate Invitational. He became the first Kentucky freshman to win twice since JB Holmes in 2001-02. Kentucky's scoring average as a team improved to 286.22 strokes per round in 2025-26, down more than four shots from the previous season.

Coaching a young group in 2024-25 which included three freshmen regularly in the starting five, Todd's Wildcats showed vast improvement as the season progressed. The team finished inside the top 5 in three consecutive events during the spring season, capped by a runner-up result at the Mountaineer Invitational which was the best result for the program since placing second at the Steelwood Collegiate in September of 2021. At the Mason Rudolph Championship, Todd's Cats finished with a team score of 840 (-12), the best team score for Kentucky at a tournament since 2021. It also marked the first time under Todd that the Wildcats shot under par as a team in all three rounds of a tournament. In addition to the team's three spring top 5s, Kentucky also was third at the inaugural Cullan Brown Collegiate in the fall as the Wildcats honored the memory of the late Cullan Brown, a former member of the Kentucky men's golf team.

The Wildcats began building in Todd's first season, placing 11th at the SEC Championship for the team's best finish at the event since 2021. The Cats managed a single round team scoring average of 289.32 and had top-five finishes at both the Blessings Collegiate and Steelwood Collegiate.

Todd coached Alex Goff to one of the best individual seasons in program history in 2023-24 as Goff became the 11th All-American in Kentucky men's golf history while also setting the best single-season scoring average in program history (since at least 1993-94) with a mark of 70.55.

A former professional golfer, Todd comes to Lexington from Vanderbilt, where he spent six seasons, most recently as associate head coach.

Working alongside head coach Scott Limbaugh, Todd has helped lead VU to four top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships, the first two NCAA Regional championships in school history and two Southeastern Conference crowns.

During Todd's time in Nashville, the Commodores accumulated 22 regular-season and postseason tournament titles. VU totaled 18 All-Americans – including six first-team honorees – 24 All-Region selections, four SEC Players of the Year and 18 first- and second-team All-SEC choices.

Todd came to Vanderbilt after spending one season at Marquette. Marquette won the 2017 Big East title and, along with head coach Steve Bailey, Todd was part of the Coaching Staff of the Year. Todd coached All-Big East players Oliver Farrell and Matt Murlick as well as Big East Freshman of the Year Matthew Bachmann. Marquette advanced to its third NCAA Regional appearance in program history.

From 2010-2015, Todd competed in more than 75 professional events in the United States, Europe and South America. He earned 17 top-10 finishes during that time on the NGA and EGOLF Tours. In 2011 Todd advanced to the final stage of PGA Qualifying school after finishing tied for second at the second stage of PGA Tour Q School. He went on to earn conditional status on the Nationwide Tour for the 2012 season.

While competing as a professional, Todd was based and experienced high-level instruction at The Sea Island Golf Performance Center in St. Simons Island, Georgia, under world renowned and PGA winning instructors Todd Anderson and Randy Myers. The GPC was used by multiple major champions and Ryder Cup players such as Davis Love III, Lucas Glover, Zach Johnson, Brandt Snedeker and Harris English.

Todd played college golf at the University of Alabama under head coach Jay Seawell from 2004-08. Todd was a first-team All-SEC selection while notching 14 top-10 finishes in 44 tournaments, highlighted by a career-low round of 64. Todd played in three NCAA Championships and, in his senior season, the Tide won the 2008 SEC Championship for the first time in more than 30 years and earned the program's first-ever season-ending No. 1 national ranking.

Todd is a native of Florence, Alabama, where he won the Alabama high school individual championship and was tabbed a junior golf All-American at Coffee High School. His father, Richard Todd, was a national champion quarterback at Alabama and was the sixth overall pick by the New York Jets and first quarterback taken in the 1976 NFL Draft.

Todd is married to the former Mary Katherine Lake of Tuscaloosa, Alabama. They have a daughter, Sylvie and a son, Mason.

Collegiate Coaching Career

2023-Current: Kentucky Head Coach

2016-17: Marquette Assistant Coach

ASSISTANT COACH CHIP MCDANIEL

Former Wildcat Chip McDaniel begins his fourth season as assistant coach of the Wildcats in 2026-27.

In year three with the Wildcats, McDaniel helped coach Kentucky to an NCAA Regionals appearance, the first for the program since 2022. The team also picked up two victories (Colleton River + Bluegrass Collegiate) and a runner up result at the Cullan Brown Collegiate. Jacob Lang qualified for the NCAA National Championship as an individual, while Cole Stockard earned individual medalist honors at both the Cullan Brown and Bluegrass Collegiate.

In 2024-25, the Wildcats came on strong in the spring, with three consecutive top 5s, capped by a runner-up finish at the Mountaineer Invitational.

During McDaniel's first season coaching at UK, the Wildcats nabbed their best finish at the SEC Championships since 2021, placing 11th among 14 teams. Alex Goff had a standout individual season, becoming the first All-American for Kentucky since McDaniel himself in 2016.

A four-year letterwinner for the Wildcats and a 2018 graduate, McDaniel comes to Lexington after a year as an assistant coach for the men's and women's golf programs at Eastern Kentucky.

Prior to his coaching career, McDaniel spent four years playing professionally, making 43 starts on the Korn Ferry Tour and 11 on the PGA Tour. McDaniel notched seven top-20 finishes on the Korn Ferry Tour and highlighted his PGA Tour experience with a tie for fifth at the Corales Puntacana Resort and Club Championship in 2019 prior to making the cut at the 2019 U.S. Open at Pebble Beach Golf Links.

As a Wildcat, the Manchester, Kentucky, native played 133 rounds over 45 career tournaments, tallying a 72.02 scoring average. McDaniel, a 2016 PING Third-Team All-American and Second-Team All-SEC selection, also was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior. Dating back to the 1993-94 season, McDaniel's career scoring average ranks second in program history, behind current Wildcat Alex Goff, and his 71.82 scoring average in the 2016-17 campaign is the third-best in that era. McDaniel won the individual title at the Grove Intercollegiate as a sophomore, participating in three NCAA Regionals and the two NCAA Championships.

McDaniel earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Kentucky in May 2018. A graduate of Clay County High School, McDaniel was named Kentucky's Mr. Golf in 2011. A two-time winner of the Kentucky State Amateur, McDaniel was a three-time Kentucky PGA Junior Player of the Year, a four-time Kentucky Junior Am champion and 2013 Junior PGA champion.

ASSISTANT COACH TYLER NICKOL

Tyler Nickol joined the Kentucky men's golf staff as an assistant coach ahead of the 2026-27 season.

Nickol arrives in Lexington having spent the 2025-26 season at Bowling Green State University, where he was an assistant to both the men's and women's golf programs.

During his season at BGSU, Nickol helped coach both the men's and women's teams to third place finishes at the Mid-American Conference Championship. The women's squad won both the A-Ga-

Ming Invitational and the Dolores Black Falcon Invitational, while the men were runners-up at the Sweetens Cover Intercollegiate.

Nickol played collegiate golf at Kentucky Wesleyan College from 2020 to 2024. He recorded three collegiate wins, including the 2024 Great Midwest Conference Championship.

After earning a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice in May of 2024, Nickol went on to work as an assistant golf professional at Ulen Country Club in Lebanon, Indiana.
