MATCH FACTS

Kentucky faces Louisville for 32nd time in program history on Monday night in the second match of the 2026 season. Last season, the two teams played to a 2-2 draw in Louisville.

Kentucky drew Western Michigan 2-2 in a come from behind effort against the Western Michigan Broncos in the 2026 opener, thanks to goals from freshman Costa Iliadis and Tom Keller.

Louisville defeated IU Indy 2-1 in their season opening match on Thursday, thanks to a brace from Giacomo Zizza in his first career game for the Cardinals.

Kentucky was voted fourth in the Sun Belt Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll for the second consecutive season with 76 total votes. The Wildcats are currently receiving votes in the latest United Soccer Coaches Poll.

Gilles Monti

5-Yr. · GK · 6-3

Bienne, Switzerland

Prior to UK: Gilles Monti is an experienced and accomplished goalkeeper from Switzerland who brings leadership, composure, and a strong presence between the posts. A confident shot-stopper with excellent command of his penalty area and the ability to organize the defense, Gilles has developed through the Swiss football system and gained valuable experience competing at a high level throughout his career. He is known for his consistency, professionalism, and calm decision-making under pressure. Throughout his career, Gilles has represented several clubs in Switzerland, continuing to progress and establish himself as a reliable goalkeeper in competitive senior environments. Most recently, he has competed for FC La Chaux-de-Fonds, where he has continued to showcase his experience and quality as a goalkeeper. His years of playing in the Swiss game have helped him develop strong leadership qualities, game management skills, and a deep understanding of the position.

Off the field, Gilles is committed to his personal and professional development and plans to pursue an Undergraduate Certificate in Leadership at the University of Kentucky. His dedication to growth both on and off the field reflects the values we look for in our student-athletes.

Ben Nash

JOHAN CEDERGREN

HEAD COACH - 15TH SEASON

2022 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and head coach of the NCAA DI Southeast Region Staff of the Year, Johan Cedergren, enters his 14th season at the helm of the University of Kentucky men's soccer program for the 2024 season.

Kentucky has reached the NCAA Tournament in 10 of Cedergren's 13 seasons leading the Wildcats. In addition to recognition as 2022 Coach of the Year in the Sun Belt, he was also named Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2014, 2015, and 2018. Cedergren became the fastest head coach in program history to win 100 career matches at UK on April 10, 2021.

In 2024, produced Kentucky's 10th winning season in Sun Belt Conference play under Cedergren with a record of 5-3-3, including wins over South Carolina (twice), Old Dominion, Coastal Carolina and Georgia Southern. The Wildcats earned four Sun Belt weekly honors in 2024, including two defensive awards from goalkeeper Ryan Jack and two offensive honors for forward Logan Dorsey. The Cats also claimed two Sun Belt All-Tournament Team honors and four academic All-Americans.

In 2023, Cedergren led the Wildcats to the second round of the NCAA tournament for the fifth consecutive season becoming one of the three NCAA DI men's soccer programs in the nation to accomplish the feat next to Indiana and Georgetown. The 2023 season featured an away upset of No. 1 Marshall followed by a home defeat of No. 2 West Virginia to change the trajectory of the match slate. Sophomore Max Miller was named Sun Belt Second Team All-Conference with Ben Damge and Casper Mols named to the All-Tournament Team.

Kentucky men's soccer's inaugural year as a Sun Belt affiliate, proved to be the best season to date for the Wildcats. UK went undefeated in the regular season achieving the conference double winning both the Sun Belt regular season title and conference tournament. The Cats entered the postseason with its first ever No. 1 national ranking. The postseason run was cut short in the Sweet 16 where Kentucky made its fifth-ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance and fourth consecutive season.

The Wildcats proved to be a powerhouse on the pitch and were no strangers to award recognition. Louis Grassow earned Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year while freshman Casper Mols was voted Sun Belt Goalkeeper of the Year. The conference first team featured both Grassow and Mols, as well as Eythor Bjorgolfsson, Enzo Mauriz, Robert Screen with the second team featuring Casper Grening, Clay Holstad (tournament MVP), Nick Gutmann, Andrew Erickson and Lucca Rodrigues.

Following the conclusion of the 2022 campaign, a record number of three Wildcats, Bjorgolfsson, Grassow and Mols, received first team All-America honors. Bjorgolfsson and Grassow were also announced as MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalists. Two Wildcats, Grassow and Ben Damge, were also were selected for the 2022 College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Men's Soccer Team due to their academic and athletic efforts. Erickson and Martin Soereide received All-District honors.

For the first time in program history, three Wildcats were drafted in the 2023 MLS adidas SuperDraft. Bjorgolfsson was signed to Seattle Sounders FC as the 38th overall pick, Holstad was signed as the 43rd overall pick to Columbus Crew and Grassow went to Orlando City SC as the 46th pick. In addition to the three drafted in the SuperDraft, goalkeeper Isaac Walker received a first-team contract with Charlotte FC. Screen was also signed to Madison Forward FC.

Cedergren's 10th season in Lexington in 2021 was one to remember as he led the Wildcats to their second C-USA Tournament championship title in school history after defeating Florida Atlantic, 2-1, in an overtime thriller. Kentucky then went on to its fourth-ever NCAA Championship Sweet 16 appearance.

Kentucky's award haul in 2021 was nothing short of impressive. The Wildcats landed three players on the All-C-USA First Team, one on the Second Team, three on the Third Team, two on the All-Freshman Team, and four on the All-Tournament Team.
Goalkeeper
Jan Hoffelner was named the C-USA Goalkeeper of the Year and earned the Golden Boot Award, while he joined Grassow and Marcel Meinzer on the USCA All-Region First Team.

Under Cedergren, Hoffelner became the third UK player to ever earn United Soccer Coaches First-Team All-American in 2021. Hoffelner was also a MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist and concluded the season as the NCAA Division I outright leader in goals-against average (.417), also tied for first with 12 shutouts.

During an extended 2020 season that was played in Spring 2021 due to COVID-19, Cedergren led the Wildcats to their third NCAA Championship Sweet 16 appearance in school history, marking the second such showing in the last three seasons. Between the fall 2020 and spring 2021 semesters, redshirt senior Aimé Mabika was selected with the 26th pick in the first round of the MLS SuperDraft by Inter Miami FC. One week prior, Kalil ElMedkhar signed a two-year contract with FC Dallas after his Homegrown Rights were acquired from the Philadelphia Union.

At the conclusion of the spring, Mabika earned United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region honors and six Wildcats received C-USA postseason accolades, including first-team All-C-USA performer and C-USA Co-Midfielder of the Year Marcel Meinzer. Redshirt junior Leon Jones earned All-C-USA First Team and United Soccer Coaches Scholar All-Region distinctions before embarking on his professional career with Dunfermline Athletic FC in his home country of Scotland.

In 2019, Cedergren led Kentucky to an NCAA Tournament victory at home for the second consecutive season with a 2-1 overtime victory over Loyola Chicago. Four Wildcats received United Soccer Coaches All-Southeast Region recognition while seven earned C-USA honors at the end of the season. Mabika was named C-USA Player of the Year and a United Soccer Coaches

Three Wildcats – JJ Williams (First Team), Enrique Facusse (Second Team), and Mabika (Third Team) – were named All-Americans by the United Soccer Coaches for the 2018 season. Williams was a finalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy, the highest individual award in college soccer, as he went on to sign a Generation Adidas Contract and be a first-round pick of Columbus Crew in the MLS SuperDraft.

As of the beginning of the 2024 season, Cedergren has coached a Kentucky player selected in the MLS SuperDraft five of the past seven years. Napo Matsoso went 31st in 2017 to the New England Revolution and Alex Bumpus was taken 52nd overall in 2018 by New York City FC. The most recent draftee, Casper Mols, was picked 77th overall in the 2024 adidas MLS SuperDraft by Atlanta United FC. Kentucky currently has 23 former players in the professional circuit across the MLS, USL and international leagues.

In 2016, Cedergren led UK to the program's first NCAA Tournament national top-16 seed, which followed the 2015 C-USA Regular Season Championship. He guided the Wildcats to a second-place league finish during a 2014 season which saw the Wildcats pick up multiple program-changing wins, including one on the road versus the top-ranked reigning NCAA champion Notre Dame.

Cedergren also coached one All-American each season from 2014-2016 as goalkeeper Callum Irving earned the honors in both 2014 and 2015 while Matsoso picked up recognition in 2016.

Becoming just the third head coach in Kentucky men's soccer history, Cedergren arrived in Lexington in December 2011. The 2012 season, his first, saw the Wildcats post one of their best seasons in school annals, as UK hosted the first round of the NCAA Tournament after ending the regular season sporting a top-25 NCAA RPI. In his first 11 months on the job, Cedergren directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA berth since 2003 and its best team GPA in program history.

The Wildcats excelled under Cedergren's aggressive attacking style of play during his inaugural season in 2012. Kentucky's offensive attack was speared by goal-scoring threats Matt Lodge and Tyler Riggs as UK finished with the 10th most points in single-season history, also ranking fourth in corner kicks.

Following the season, Cameron Wilder – an All-C-USA midfielder in 2012 – was drafted in the MLS Supplemental Draft by FC Dallas. Senior midfielder Charley Pettys was also inked to his first professional contract with the Los Angeles Blues in the USL. Senior forward Gabriel Conelian signed with the Portland Timbers of MLS, playing on the U-23 development team.

A native of Sölvesborg, Sweden, Cedergren came to UK after spending five years at Dartmouth as an assistant coach and associate head coach, leading the Big Green to the NCAA Tournament in each season – an impressive feat at an Ivy League program without athletic scholarships and significant academic requirements.

Cedergren helped pace Dartmouth to the Sweet 16 in two of his five years there, including two Ivy League Championships. In total, Cedergren helped lead the Big Green to a 52-30-12 overall record, including a 22-9-3 mark in league play, with consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 2007-11. Dartmouth was one of just 10 programs to play in five straight NCAA Tournaments, the eighth-longest streak in the nation, winning the Ivy League title in 2008 and 2011.

Cedergren played collegiality for former Dartmouth and current Penn State Head Coach Jeff Cook at Cincinnati after playing at the highest youth level in Sweden for Kalmar FF, also participating in the national development program. At Cincinnati, Cedergren was a three-year letter-winner and an All-C-USA honoree. A former team captain, he helped lead the Bearcats to its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 1998 and a top-20 ranking at the end of the year.

After concluding his playing career with a business-finance degree, Cedergren attained his master's in business administration from Xavier while also working full time in finance. Before beginning his coaching career, he spent eight years working in business, including time spent with U.S. Bank (2004-07) and the Johnson Investment Counsel (2001-04). He also coached with the Cincinnati Classics Soccer Club.

Cedergren is the proud father of two children, Gavin and Abigail.
