ON THE INTERNET

RollTide.com – Alabama’s official athletics website serves as a resource for in-depth information on current and historical Crimson Tide student-athletes, coaches and teams. The football page includes links to rosters, coaching staff, notes packages, practice reports and schedules as well as Tide TV and all of Alabama’s rich football history and tradition.

SECSports.com – Media covering the Southeastern Conference have its own website to get the latest information on the league. Through the services of Sports Systems, Inc., the site has the latest updated standings, results, schedules, statistics, notes and PDF versions of all SEC releases and media guides. On the site, the SEC has a digital image platform that provides access to the SEC’s latest photographs, images, logos and links to all of the SEC school media web sites and home pages.

CRIMSON TIDE VIDEO FTP – Links to download footage for broadcast television use will only be e-mailed when footage is made available. For questions or to be added to the list, please contact Christopher England at cengland@ia.ua.edu.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

YEAR THREE UNDER KDB: For the first time since his beginnings at Sioux Falls, Kalen DeBoer has begun the third year of a coaching tenure. DeBoer led the Cougars to a NAIA Championship appearance during his third season in Sioux Falls but only spent two years at both Fresno State and Washington before heading to the Capstone. In his second season in Tuscaloosa, DeBoer guided the Crimson Tide to an 11-win season and a College Football Playoff appearance.

DEBOER IN CONFERENCE OPENERS: In his career as a head coach, Kalen DeBoer owns a 10-1 (.909) record in conference openers across his four different stops in college football, including a perfect 3-0 record when those league lid lifters are played on the road. In conference road openers, DeBoer holds an 8-3 (.727) mark.

SEPTEMBER SUCCESS FOR DEBOER: In 43 games across two levels of college football, head coach Kalen DeBoer owns a 41-2 (.953) record in the month of September. That mark includes a 19-2 (.905) standing at the Division I level, with DeBoer-led teams managing a 4-1 record against ranked opponents in the month of September. Under DeBoer's watch, his teams have averaged 45.6 points per game in the month, including a 43.8 points per game figure in seven contests while leading the Crimson Tide.

SEC OPENERS: Alabama has posted a 67-22-3 (.745) on-field record in Southeastern Conference openers dating back to the league's inception in 1933. Since 1992, the Crimson Tide has posted a 33-1 (.971) record in conference openers. Alabama has won its last 10 league openers, including its first two under Kalen DeBoer. The Tide is undefeated in its last 19 conference openers that have been played on the road, dating back to 1993. Alabama is playing Kentucky in its SEC opener for the fourth time in program history and for the first time since 2003.

SEC ROAD OPENERS: Alabama is 61-28-3 (.679) on-field in Southeastern Conference road openers dating back to the league's inception in 1993. Since 2007, the Crimson Tide is 17-2 (.895) in its first league game away from home, with its only two defeats coming at Ole Miss in 2014 and at Vanderbilt in 2024. Alabama has played Kentucky in its first SEC road game nine times entering Saturday's game, leaving Lexington victorious on every occasion.

INTO THE THICK OF IT: When Alabama squares off against Kentucky on Saturday, it will be the earliest Southeastern Conference game on the calendar for the Crimson Tide since September 8, 2007, at Vanderbilt. Excluding the 2020 season in which the SEC only played conference games, the Tide will be playing a conference game in Week 2 for the first time since squaring off against the Commodores in 2007.

CLUTCH KALEN: As an FBS head coach, Kalen DeBoer holds an impressive 21-8 (.724) mark in games decided by one score or less. In his first two seasons at Alabama, DeBoer owns a 6-4 record in such contests, including three wins against teams ranked in the top 15 of the Associated Press Poll. In 2025, the Crimson Tide was 3-1 in one-score games.

FRONT RUNNERS: Kalen DeBoer owns an impressive 50-3 (.943) record as an FBS head coach when his team is ahead at halftime. When leading after three quarters, DeBoer's teams hold a similar 49-3 (.942) mark. At Alabama, DeBoer has guided his teams to a 19-1 (.950) record in both situations. Below is a full breakdown of DeBoer's record as an FBS head coach when leading, trailing or tied at halftime and entering the fourth quarter.

Category	Alabama Record	FBS Record
Leading at Half	19-1	50-3
Trailing at Half	0-7	4-14
Tied at Half	2-0	4-0
Leading after 3Q	19-1	49-3
Trailing after 3Q	2-7	6-13
Tied after 3Q	0-0	3-1

SEC NATION: When SEC Nation airs on Saturday, it will mark the 60th time since the show's inception in 2014 that the program has been hosted at a game featuring Alabama. The Crimson Tide's 60th appearance is the most in the conference, 11 more than the next closet school (Georgia, 49). The Tide is 48-11 (.814) all-time in games with SEC Nation present.

A TV WINDOW MADE FOR THE TIDE: Since 2008, Alabama has played over one-third of its regular season games (77 out of 217) in the 2:30 p.m. CT television window, with 73 of those 77 games having been televised on either ABC or CBS. In those 77 contests, Alabama holds a 65-12 (.844) record.

UNFAZED vs. THE UNRANKED AT HOME: With a 48-10 victory over East Carolina, Alabama has won 89 consecutive games against unranked opponents at home. The Crimson Tide's last loss to an unranked foe inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium came on Nov. 17, 2007, in a 21-14 loss to ULM.

DOUBLE-DIGIT WINS: Alabama's 11-win campaign in 2025 was the 28th time in program history that the Tide reached the 11-plus win plateau. The Crimson Tide has recorded 16 of its 11-win campaigns since 2008, including a streak of 13 straight seasons with at least 11 wins from 2011-23, which was the longest streak of its kind in SEC history. Additionally, Alabama has recorded at least 10 wins in 17 of the last 18 seasons. In the 17 10-plus win seasons, the Crimson Tide finished with a 12-2 record in 2008, 2014 and 2023; 14-0 in 2009; 10-3 in 2010; 12-1 in 2011; 13-1 in 2012 and 2017; 11-2 in 2013, 2019 and 2022; 14-1 in 2015, 2016 and 2018; 13-0 in 2020; and 11-4 in 2025.

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL: The Crimson Tide's No. 13 ranking in the preseason edition of the Associated Press Poll marked the 296th consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll. That streak is the longest active streak in college football. The 296 weeks nearly doubles second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 150 consecutive weeks. Alabama's 296 straight weeks tops the Crimson Tide's previous program-long streak of 105 consecutive weeks under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s.

ALABAMA IN THE AP SINCE 2008: Alabama began the 2008 season at No. 24 in the Associated Press Preseason Poll. The Crimson Tide opened the year with a dominant 34-10 win over then-No. 9 Clemson in Atlanta, and since that win over the Tigers, UA has not exited the 296 polls that have followed. According to the College Poll Archive, the Tide is the only team to be represented on all 296 editions of the poll from the start of the 2008 season to the current week. The next closest team is Ohio State with 281 appearances followed by Oklahoma at 262. Alabama has spent 91.2 percent of the 19 years ranked in the top 10. A whopping 75.7 percent of that time Alabama has been ranked in the top five. The Crimson Tide has also been ranked No. 1 a total of 110 times since 2008. Only 15 other teams have earned the No. 1 ranking over that time, with the second-most appearances coming from Georgia at 40, while Ohio State owns the third-most appearances at 28.

ALABAMA HAS THE MOST WINS SINCE 2008: Dating back to the start of the 2008 season, Alabama has won 220 games, which is the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. That sum is 15 more than Ohio State, who owns the next-closest win total over that stretch at 205.

Total Wins (since 2008)

Team	Wins	2008+09+10+11+12+13+14+15+16+17+18+19+20+21+22+23+24+25+26

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES OF SABAN FIELD AT BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM: Alabama boasts the best all-time home winning percentage in the FBS with an .845 (311-56-3) mark inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium since its opening in 1929. Boise State's Albertsons Stadium (301-64), which opened in 1970, is the next closest in second at .825.

Home Winning Percentage (Current Stadium)

School	Stadium Name (Opened)	Record (Percentage)
1. ALABAMA	SABAN FIELD AT BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM (1929)	311-56-3 (.845)
2. Boise State	Albertsons Stadium (1970)	301-64 (.825)
3. Oklahoma	Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium (1925)	430-90-15 (.818)
4. Marshall	Joan C. Edwards Stadium (1991)	191-45 (.809)
5. Georgia Southern	Paulson Stadium (1984)	223-53 (.808)

ALWAYS IN THE HUNT: Since the 2008 season, Alabama has played in 209 of 215 regular season games that have had national championship implications. The final three games of the 2010 campaign and the final three weeks of the 2022 schedule marked the only six regular season contests without direct national championship implications over the last 19 seasons.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

STRONG START: Keelon Russell made his debut as Alabama's starting quarterback on Sept. 5, going 18-of-30 for 256 yards on the day. Russell added 86 rushing yards, accounting for 342 yards of total offense against the Pirates, the second-highest tally for an Alabama quarterback making his starting debut behind only Bryce Young (343). In the first half alone, Russell tallied 182 passing yards and 54 rushing yards, the most total yards of offense (236) in a single half for an Alabama quarterback making his starting debut.

FIRST YEAR STARTING QBs AT ALABAMA: With Keelon Russell winning the job in fall camp, the Crimson Tide features a first year starting quarterback for the second season in a row. A total of 10 quarterbacks have maintained their starting role for 10-plus games of a season in which they were named QB1 for the first time. Dating back to 2009, the list of 10 includes: Ty Simpson (2025), Jalen Milroe (2023), Bryce Young (2021), Mac Jones (2020), Tua Tagovailoa (2018), Jalen Hurts (2016), Jake Coker (2015), Blake Sims (2014), AJ McCarron (2011) and Greg McElroy (2009). All but McCarron and Simpson won an SEC Championship in their first season at quarterback. All 10 guided Alabama to the BCS National Championship Game or College Football Playoff while McElroy (2009), McCarron (2011), Coker (2015) and Jones (2020) led their teams to a national title.

RIDING WITH RUSSELL: Keelon Russell was named the starting quarterback by head coach Kalen DeBoer on Aug. 22, replacing 2025 starter Ty Simpson, who was drafted in the first round (13th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in the 2025 NFL Draft. As a true freshman in 2025, Russell played in two games as a backup and completed 11-of-15 passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns while adding three rushes for 17 total yards. A unanimous five-star recruit and No. 2 overall recruit by 247Sports out of high school, Russell was named the Maxwell High School Player of the Year, as well as the Texas and national Gatorade Player of the Year in 2024.

YOUNG GUN: When Keelon Russell made his first career start on Sept. 5, he became Alabama's youngest opening day starter in nearly a decade. At 19 years, four months and 13 days, Russell became the Crimson Tide's first teenage QB1 since Jalen Hurts in 2016 (18 years, one month and four days).

ALABAMA IN THE AP POLL

Alabama has been ranked in 908 of the 1,268 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 561-143-8 (.794) all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll. Alabama is also ranked in the AP Poll for the 296th consecutive week, topping its previous streak of 105 consecutive polls from 1991-97 under head coach Gene Stallings. The 296 consecutive weeks is the second-longest stretch by any program in the poll's history, trailing only Nebraska's all-time mark of 348 consecutive weeks. Alabama has started nine seasons at No. 1 (2022, 2021, 2018, 2017, 2016, 2013, 2010, 1978, 1966).

ALABAMA IN THE COACHES POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches' rankings over the past half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. USA TODAY has administered the poll for the past 36 seasons (1991-present) with US LBM coming on the title sponsor of the poll at the start of the 2023 season. Alabama was ranked No. 1 in the 2010 preseason coaches poll after starting out the 2009 preseason poll at No. 5. Alabama remained in the top five the entire season, reaching No. 1 after defeating Florida in the SEC Championship and holding the position to claim the national championship after defeating Texas in Pasadena. The Tide then claimed the No. 1 spot to close out the 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020 seasons. The Tide has compiled four UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and seven USA TODAY (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) coaches poll national titles.

SINCE 2005 EVERYTHING BUT THE PREGAME MEAL

ROUND 3 FOR RYAN: Ryan Coleman-Williams opened up his junior season with five receptions and 130 yards, the fourth game of his career over the century mark and first since Sept. 13, 2025. The lone returning offensive starter for the Crimson Tide from 2025, Coleman-Williams has totaled 102 catches for 1,684 yards and 12 touchdowns, averaging 16.5 yards per catch and 60.1 yards per game, in 28 career contests.

NEW JERSEY, SAME PLAYER: Ryan Coleman-Williams' jersey has a different look this season. After being known as Ryan Williams and wearing No. 2 during his first two seasons in Tuscaloosa, the star wideout honored his mother, Tiffany Coleman, by switching his last name to Coleman-Williams. The junior is also wearing No. 1 this season, the number he donned as a prep player at Saraland High School.

RUSHING ATTACK: Alabama scored five rushing touchdowns from four different players in its 48-10 victory over East Carolina on Sept. 5. Daniel Hill led the way with two scores, while Trae'shawn Brown, EJ Crowell and Keelon Russell each found the end zone once. Along with Russell, who led the team with 86 yards on 13 carries in the season opener, four different Tide rushers (Brown, Crowell, Hill and Kevin Riley) tallied at least six touches.

FRESHMAN FIRSTS: In Alabama's season-opening win against East Carolina on Sept. 5, two Crimson Tide running backs scored a touchdown in their collegiate debuts: Trae'shawn Brown and EJ Crowell. Crowell's score was the first touchdown of the season for the Crimson Tide, making him the first freshman to post Alabama's opening touchdown of the year since Terry Grant in 2007.

BROOKS BROKE OUT: Wideout Lotzeir Brooks quickly became a weapon for the Crimson Tide during his freshman season. Brooks saw time in 14 games, including one start, recording 32 catches for 441 yards and two touchdowns. A big-play threat, Brooks' 13.8 yards per catch average finished as the second-best mark among Alabama receivers, while 19 of his 32 receptions (59.4 percent) resulted in a first down or a touchdown.

LOST PRODUCTION: With only one returning offensive starter, the Crimson Tide offense is looking to replace more than half of its offensive skill production from 2025 in an array of statistical categories. Below is a look at Alabama's returning skill production from a season ago:

Category	Returning	Lost	Returning%
Receptions	166	177	48.4%
Receiving Yards	1,887	2,066	47.7%
Receiving TDs	12	20	37.5%
Rush Attempts	173	283	37.9%
Rushing Yards	716	858	45.4%
Rushing TDs	12	11	52.2%

DISTRIBUTING THE WEALTH: In the season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5, Keelon Russell completed passes to eight different receivers, including six with multiple receptions. The Alabama offense saw a variety of pass-catchers make an impact in 2025. In total, the Tide had 22 different players secure at least one reception last season, including 10 different players with at least 11 catches. The same can be said about UA's scoring opportunities, with 11 different pass-catchers having secured at least one touchdown reception across the 2025 campaign.

BALL PROTECTION: In the last 248 games (dating back to the start of the 2008 season), Alabama has turned the ball over only 266 times (142 fumbles, 124 interceptions) for an average of 1.07 turnovers per game. Since 2009, the Tide has turned the ball over only 248 times in 236 games (1.05/game). The 248 turnovers since 2009 includes 104 interceptions in 6,362 attempts (one interception every 61.2 attempts) by UA starting quarterbacks and 33 lost fumbles in 5,931 carries (one fumble lost every 179.7 carries) by the Tide's top two running backs.

CRIMSON COUNTDOWN: Alabama opened the season by controlling the ball for nearly two-thirds of the game against East Carolina (38:53) on Sept. 5. In 2025, the Crimson Tide offense owned an average time of possession of 31:32, the fourth-best time of possession average in the SEC and the 27th-best figure in the country.

400+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE: Alabama has gained 400-plus yards of total offense in 79 of its last 112 games, dating back to the start of the 2018 season. The Crimson Tide produced 487 yards of offense in its season-opening win over East Carolina on Sept. 5. In 2025, the Tide totaled 400-plus yards of offense five times, including: ULM (583), Wisconsin (454), Vanderbilt (486), Oklahoma (406) and Eastern Illinois (539). In the 33 instances where the offense did not go over 400 yards, the Tide is 23-10 overall.

500+ YARDS OF OFFENSE: Alabama has eclipsed 500 yards of offense in 62 games since the start of the 2015 season, including twice in 2025. The Tide managed 539 yards in a 56-0 win against Eastern Illinois on Nov. 22 in addition to a 583-yard performance in the 73-0 victory over ULM on Sept. 6. Under head coach Kalen DeBoer, the Tide has recorded five 500-plus yard performances in two seasons with three during the 2024 campaign. The 2018 roster owns the Alabama single-season record with 12 games of 500-plus yards.

600+ YARDS OF OFFENSE: Alabama totaled 600 yards of offense in the 63-0 win over Western Kentucky to open the 2024 campaign. The 600-plus yard performance marked the 15th instance in program history that the Tide has been at or above 600 yards.

PPG SINCE 2018: Alabama has produced a scoring average of 39.88 points per game in 112 games since 2018, the second-highest scoring margin among all Division I teams in that span. Ohio State owns the highest points per game mark over that time, managing a 39.98 points per game average.

Most Points Per Game (since 2018)

Team	Total Points/Total Games	PPG
1. Ohio State	4,182/106	39.98
2. ALABAMA	4,466/112	39.88
4. SMU	3,712/101	36.8
5. Oregon	3,806/105	36.2

MOST TOUCHDOWNS SINCE 2015: Alabama has produced 778 total touchdowns since the start of the 2015 season, the most by any team in the country. Ohio State is the next closest team in that span with 759.

Team	Touchdowns
2. Ohio State	759
3. Oklahoma	726
4. Clemson	708
5. Oregon	694

OPENING DRIVE TOUCHDOWNS: The Crimson Tide has won 63 of its last 65 games when scoring a touchdown on the first offensive possession of the game. The most recent instance came on Nov. 22 when Jam Miller rushed into the end zone for a one-yard score against Eastern Illinois on Nov. 22. Alabama's only two losses during the current stretch occurred at Florida State on Aug. 30 to open the 2025 season and at Texas A&M on Oct. 9, 2021.

SCORING STREAK CONTINUES: Alabama extended its school record for consecutive games with a score to 339 thanks to Conor Talty's 41-yard field goal on the opening drive of the season against East Carolina on Sept. 5. The Tide was last held off the scoreboard in a 9-0 loss to Auburn on Nov. 18, 2000. Alabama owns a 271-68 (.799) record over the course of the current streak.

EFFICIENT HALVES: Alabama scored on every drive in the first half of its season-opening victory against East Carolina on Sept. 5, posting four touchdowns and a field goal. This was the second time under Kalen DeBoer in which the Crimson Tide scored on every drive in a half and first since Sept. 6, 2025, against ULM, a game in which Alabama scored on all 11 possessions.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

MAKING IT TOUGH: The Alabama defense allowed only 162 yards in the season-opening win over East Carolina on Sept. 5, the 63rd time since the start of the 2008 season that the Crimson Tide has held an opponent to under 200 yards. In 2025, the Crimson Tide allowed just 296.8 total yards per game. The 296.8 yards per game finished as the third-best mark in the conference and the 13th-best figure in the country.

POINTS AT A PREMIUM: The Alabama defense held East Carolina to just 10 points in the season opener on Sept. 5. It was the 114th time since 2007 that the Tide defense has surrendered 10 points or fewer in a game. In 2025, the unit allowed a scoring average of just 19.2 points per game, the fourth-lowest mark in the SEC and the 20th-best average in Division I.

TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS, TURNOVERS: Alabama has forced at least one turnover in 135 of the last 155 contests (dating back to the start of the 2015 season). During the current run, Alabama has forced 244 turnovers (155 interceptions, 89 fumbles) and returned 47 of those miscues for touchdowns.

NEW LOOK LINE, NO PROBLEM: After returning zero starters on the defensive line from a year ago, Alabama's new-look defensive line made a statement in its debut against East Carolina on Sept. 5. The starting group of Kedrick Bingley-Jones, Terrance Green and Devan Thompkins led the Crimson Tide at the line of scrimmage, holding East Carolina to just two yards rushing. That total was the fewest that Alabama has surrendered in a game since holding Mississippi State to -2 rushing yards in 2021.

TOUGH SLEDDING: Alabama held East Carolina to only five first downs in its season-opening victory over the Pirates on Sept. 5. ECU also went 0-for-9 on third-down conversions in the game, the first time the Crimson Tide defense has shut out a team on third down since 2017 against Ole Miss.

RETURN TO SENDER: Yhonzae Pierre returned the first interception of his career 27 yards for a touchdown in Alabama's season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5. The score was the first time Pierre has found the end zone at Alabama and the Crimson Tide's first non-offensive touchdown in a season opener since 2018. In 2025, Alabama logged three pick-sixes to lead the SEC and finish tied for fourth in the NCAA.

THE CRIMSON CURTAIN: The Alabama defense entered the 2026 season with three returning starters in the secondary but only one returning starter at linebacker and zero returning starters on the defensive line. Below is a look at Alabama's returning defensive production from a season ago:

Tackles	432	465	48.2%
Tackles for Loss	42	44	48.9%
Sacks	14	19	42.4%
Interceptions	9	2	81.8%
Fumbles Forced	10	6	62.5%
Fumbles Recovered	2	7	22.2%

YOU SHALL NOT PASS: The Tide returns five players with significant experience, including three starters, to one of the most experienced secondaries in the country. Last season, Alabama allowed an average of just 169.9 passing yards per game to finish atop the SEC and rank ninth in Division I. Returning from this group is All-America honoree Bray Hubbard, two-year starter Keon Sabb, the cornerback duo of Zabien Brown and Freshman All-American Dijon Lee Jr. and the versatile Red Morgan. The Crimson Tide's '25 unit was the first to lead the SEC for fewest passing yards allowed since the 2012 team. The UA defense in 2012 gave up an average of 173.6 yards per game to finish seventh nationally.

THIS IS THE BRAY: Bray Hubbard was a force for the Alabama defense in 2025. Last season, Hubbard totaled 79 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss (-23 yards) and two sacks (-20 yards). He added a team-leading four interceptions for 42 yards to go with a team-high tying six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and one quarterback hurry. Hubbard's 79 tackles were third-most among all Tide defenders, while the Mississippi native's four interceptions tied for the SEC lead and 23rd nationally. Additionally, Hubbard owned an 84.6 overall grade from Pro Football Focus, the fifth-highest grade among SEC safeties and the NCAA's 25th-highest figure at the position. PFF also commended Hubbard's success near the line of scrimmage, with his 90.4 run defense grade placing him third among the league's safeties while ranking ninth in Division I at season's end.

BROWN ON LOCKDOWN: Zabien Brown developed into one of the nation's most dependable cornerbacks in 2025. During his sophomore campaign last year, Brown totaled 39 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss (-4 yards), while also contributing a team-high tying six pass breakups to go with a forced fumble and two pick-sixes totaling 149 yards. After recording a 99-yard interception return for a score against then-No. 11/11 Tennessee on Oct. 18, he added a 50-yard pick-six at then-No. 8/8/8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 in the College Football Playoff First Round game. Brown became just the 12th player in program history to return at least two interceptions for a touchdown in the same season and was the first Tide defender since Jordan Battle in 2021 to accomplish the feat. Additionally, the California native was the first true cornerback at Alabama since Antonio Langham in 1992 to create two interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

PIERRE BROUGHT THE PRESSURE: Yhonzae Pierre evolved into one of the Tide's most impactful defenders during the 2025 season. He totaled 52 tackles while leading all Alabama defenders with 14.5 tackles for loss (-102 yards), eight sacks (-81 yards) and nine quarterback pressures. Pierre's three forced fumbles also tied with Bray Hubbard for the top mark among the Tide's defensive unit. The Eufaula native was one of only seven SEC defenders with at least eight sacks in 2025, while his -81 sack yards were tied for the seventh-most in the country. Pierre's eight sacks were the most since Dallas Turner's 10 during the 2023 season, while his 14.5 tackles for loss matched Turner's output from that '23 campaign.

MUSTARRRRD: Dijon Lee Jr. more than held his own during his first season of collegiate football. In 15 games, including five starts, Lee Jr. was responsible for 34 tackles, including 4.5 tackles for loss (-12 yards), to go with two interceptions and five pass breakups. According to Pro Football Focus, Lee Jr. allowed 17 receptions on 30 targets, equating to a 56.7 percent catch rate that was third among Tide defensive backs. Additionally, the California native posted an 80.2 coverage mark from PFF that tied for the 10th-highest grade among all Division I freshmen cornerbacks and ranked third among SEC first-year corners in 2025, numbers that helped Lee Jr. become a finalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award.

SHUTOUTS SINCE 2007: Since 2007, Alabama has recorded 30 shutouts, including 13 in Southeastern Conference play. The Crimson Tide most recently kept Eastern Illinois off the scoreboard in its 56-0 win on Nov. 22, 2025. Earlier in the 2025 season, the Tide shut out ULM in a 73-0 win on Sept. 6. The win over the Warhawks was the largest margin of victory in a shutout in program history, surpassing the previous best of 66-0 against Cal on Sept. 15, 1973. The Crimson Tide defense has 13 more shutouts than its nearest competitor, with Ohio State's 17 shutouts the next-closest total in that span.

HARD TO FIND THE END ZONE AGAINST THE TIDE: Since the start of the 2009 season, no team has allowed fewer touchdowns than the Crimson Tide. Alabama has surrendered only 429 touchdowns over the last 237 games. That is 36 fewer than second-place Iowa (466).

Fewest TDs Allowed (since 2009)

2. Iowa	466
4. Wisconsin	500
5. Penn State	503

TOUGH SLEDDING ON THE GROUND: Alabama's defense has been a force in the run game since 2007. More recently, the Tide has given up just 122 rushing scores in the last 155 games (dating to the start of the 2015 season). Since 2007, UA has allowed the fewest rushing touchdowns in the nation at 178, a total that is 17 fewer than second-place Iowa (195).

2. Iowa	195
4. Wisconsin	244
4. Utah	244

RUSHING DEFENSE: Alabama has surrendered only 44 individual 100-yard rushing performances dating back to the 2005 season, a mark that is the fewest in the nation.

Fewest 100-Yard Rushing Games Allowed (FBS teams since 2005)

2. Ohio State	50
3. Georgia	52
4. Utah	57

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SPECIAL TEAMS STATE OF AFFAIRS: After replacing all three specialists a season ago, the Crimson Tide returns two starters in the group. Placekicker Conor Talty and long snapper Alex Rozier are back in 2026, although the duo has competition from Marshall transfer Lorcan Quinn at kicker and Syracuse transfer Ethan Stangle at snapper. At punter, Alex Asparuhov returns after missing much of his rookie campaign with injury and earned the opening day nod.

SPLIT KICKERS: For the second time under Kalen DeBoer, the Crimson Tide kicking duties are being split amongst two players. Conor Talty is kicking field goals and extra points while Lorcan Quinn is handling kickoffs. In 2024, Talty was on kickoff duty and Graham Nicholson was in charge of field goals and extra points.

SPECIAL START: The Alabama special teams unit got off to a strong start in the season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5. Conor Talty was a perfect 2-of-2 on field goals, knocking home successful tries from 41 yards and 30 yards. Talty also converted all six of his extra point opportunities. Alex Asparuhov only had to punt twice but was able to boot both his kicks over 50 yards, averaging 52.0 yards per punt. Additionally, Lorcan Quinn saw all nine of his kickoff attempts go for touchbacks.

BLOCK PARTY: The Alabama special teams unit produced two blocked punts in 2025, including blocks against Eastern Illinois on Nov. 22 and at then-No. 8/8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19. The Crimson Tide finished as one of only 23 teams in the nation to record at least two blocked punts, while the pair of blocks are the most by the Tide since 2021 when Alabama tallied three.

SERIES NOTES

THE ALABAMA-KENTUCKY SERIES: Alabama and Kentucky will meet for the 43rd time in series history on Saturday afternoon inside Kroger Field. The two teams will play in Lexington in consecutive meetings for just the fourth time in series history and the first time since 2009 and 2013. The Crimson Tide holds a 39-2-1 all-time advantage in the series and has won eight straight against the Wildcats. Alabama's .941 winning percentage against Kentucky is its best against any Southeastern Conference opponent. The two teams first met on Nov. 17, 1917, with Thomas Kelley's Crimson Tide squad posting a 27-0 win in Lexington. UA and UK then met every year from 1922-47, with the exception of 1943 due to World War II. Since that 1947 season, the Tide and Wildcats have met just 16 times with Alabama holding a 15-1 advantage over that stretch. The Alabama-Kentucky series has been played at five different sites, including Birmingham, Lexington, Louisville, Montgomery and Tuscaloosa.

GENERAL NOTES

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama has seen significant success on the field as of late and that success has coincided with the Tide's efforts in the classroom. The 2026 squad is no exception as the Crimson Tide entered the season with 15 student-athletes who already have their degree in-hand. The list of student-athletes wearing an SEC Graduate patch includes: Kedrick Bingley-Jones, MJ Chirgwin, Peyton Fox, Edric Hill, Fatutoa Henry, Bray Hubbard, Jah-Marien Latham, Danny Lewis Jr., Austin Mack, Yhonzae Pierre, Casey Poe, Keon Sabb, Ethan Stangle, Conor Talty and Devan Thompkins.

CHAMPIONS IN THE CLASSROOM: Alabama's achievements in the classroom have been most impressive during national title seasons. Those six squads (2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017 and 2020) included 139 student-athletes who had earned their degrees prior to game time.

TIDE THRIVES IN GSR: The University of Alabama matched its all-time high in overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 96 percent, a record that was set in 2024, in the most recent numbers that were released by the NCAA on Nov. 19, 2025. Alabama tied for tops among all Southeastern Conference schools and ranked seventh-best among NCAA Power Five public institutions. A total of 15 Crimson Tide athletics programs scored 90-or-better, with 10 earning perfect 100s. A collection of 11 teams led the SEC in their respective sport in the 2024-25 GSR figures, including 10 teams that scored 100. Football's score of 98 finished as not only the best in the SEC and fifth overall nationally but also as the highest GSR in program history. Only Long Island, Harvard, Northwestern and Wake Forest scored higher in football. The GSR measures graduation rates at Division I institutions. GSR is believed to be a more accurate measure of academic performance in athletics departments as it holds schools responsible for student-athletes transferring into the institutions and allows them to subtract student-athletes who leave their institutions prior to graduation but are otherwise academically eligible to compete. The average GSR for all NCAA Division I student-athletes is 90.

APR SUCCESS: According to the most recent Academic Progress Rate (APR) numbers that were announced by the NCAA in May of 2026, figures that cover the four-year period extending from the 2021-22 through 2024-25 school years, the Crimson Tide continued to score well above the national cutoff standard. The Crimson Tide boasted seven teams that led their respective sport in the SEC in APR numbers with eight UA squads setting or tying all-time program-high marks for the four-year average. Altogether, it adds up to an average APR score of 993 across the university's 21 sports. In fact, this year's report marks the fourth consecutive year Alabama's overall average score rated over a 992. The Crimson Tide football team led the nation with a perfect score of 1,000, a program best. In total, six Alabama teams totaled a perfect multiyear mark while 12 teams met the standard in a single year.

GOOD WORKS AND WUERFFEL WATCH LIST FOR HUBBARD: Bray Hubbard has been recognized for his work in the community, as the senior has been nominated for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team and was selected to the Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch List. Hubbard is one of the top contributors to the Crimson Tide's service efforts. A regular visitor to local elementary schools in the community, Hubbard has participated in the Read Across America initiative with Tuscaloosa County Schools. The senior is also a regular speaker at the Tuscaloosa Juvenile Detention Center and has taken part in Night to Shine, an unforgettable worldwide event centered on God's love, honoring and valuing people with special needs put on by the Tim Tebow Foundation. Hubbard has also committed time to CrossingPoints, a campus organization that provides services to students with disabilities ages 18-21, as well as the West Alabama Food Bank. Hubbard is also an annual participant in Alabama Athletics' 'Halloween Extravaganza', a trick-or-treat event with all UA sports teams held inside the Hank Crisp Indoor Facility to provide a safe, family-friendly environment for local children ahead of the holiday.

INGRAM TO THE HALL: Former Alabama running back Mark Ingram was selected to the 2026 National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Class of 2026. Ingram becomes the 28th former Crimson Tide player or coach to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame and is the third Alabama inductee since 2024, joining Antonio Langham (2024) and Nick Saban (2025). The formal induction ceremony will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2026. Ingram played in 39 career games at Alabama, helping lead the Crimson Tide to a win in the 2010 BCS National Championship. He received the Heisman Trophy that same season in 2009, becoming the first player in program history to earn college football's most prestigious award. During that Heisman campaign, Ingram produced 1,658 rushing yards and 17 rushing scores.

234 NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES IN 248 GAMES: The Crimson Tide's season opener against East Carolina on Sept. 5 was the Tide's 234th nationally televised or streamed game since the start of the 2008 season, including every contest since the start of 2014.

ALABAMA-U.S. NAVY PARTNERSHIP: The University of Alabama announced on Sept. 3, 2025, a significant partnership with the U.S. Navy's Maritime Industrial Base (MIB) Program to expand workforce development opportunities across Alabama and strengthen America's shipbuilding industrial base. As part of the Build Giants initiative, the program's logo was featured on Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium during all home football games as well as in-venue messaging featuring former Alabama head football coach Nick Saban on the importance of the Build Giants Alabama initiative. The visibility highlighted a larger effort to connect Alabama's statewide talent with a critical workforce development program for the state and the country.

ALABAMA vs. No. 1: Alabama owns the NCAA record for the most wins all-time against the Associated Press Poll's No. 1 team since the poll was introduced in 1936. The Crimson Tide has compiled 11 wins against the AP's top-ranked team in program history, most recently against then-No. 1 Georgia in the 2023 Southeastern Conference Championship Game.

Most Wins All-Time vs. AP No. 1 (since 1936)

8. Auburn Texas	5
10. Arkansas Penn State UCLA Wisconsin	4

AGAINST THE TOP 10: Alabama owns an 88-82-1 (.518) all-time record against teams ranked in the top-10 of the Associated Press Poll, including the Tide's 24-21 win at then-No. 5 Georgia on Sept. 27 and a 34-24 victory at then-No. 8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 last season. Since the start of the 2008 season, the Crimson Tide has posted a 39-16 (.709) overall record against top-10 teams, including a 24-10 (.706) mark versus the top 10 since the inception of the College Football Playoff.

DEBOER AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS: Alabama head coach Kalen DeBoer is 20-6 (.769) across 26 career matchups with teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25, including an impressive 7-3 (.700) mark against top-10 teams as well as a perfect 4-0 record on the road against top-10 opponents. In 12 games since arriving at Alabama, DeBoer owns an 8-4 (.667) record against AP Top 25 foes. That mark includes five ranked wins last season: at then-No. 5 Georgia on Sept. 27 (24-21); vs. then-No. 16 Vanderbilt on Oct. 4 (30-14); at then-No. 14 Missouri on Oct. 11 (27-24); vs. then-No. 11 Tennessee (37-20); and at then-No. 8 Oklahoma on Dec. 19 (34-24). In 2024, Alabama produced three AP Top 25 wins including DeBoer's first with the Crimson Tide, a 41-34 win over then-No. 2 Georgia on Sept. 28.

Wins by Active FBS Coaches Over Ranked Teams (since 2021)

2. KALEN DEBOER (ALABAMA/WASHINGTON)	20
3. Marcus Freeman (Notre Dame)	16
4. Josh Heupel (Tennessee)	11

DEBOER'S DOMINANCE: No coach has fared better at multiple schools against teams in the final Associated Press Poll than Kalen DeBoer. In his six seasons as a head coach at Alabama, Washington and Fresno State, DeBoer is 14-7. He's 6-4 at Alabama and was previously 7-2 at Washington and 1-1 at Fresno State.

TOUGH TO GET THE TIDE TWICE: Since 2007, Alabama has suffered 37 total losses. Of those 37 losses, the Crimson Tide have had the opportunity to face the team that beat them at a later date on 30 occasions. In those 30 rematches, Alabama owns a 26-4 (.867) mark when avenging its previous loss. The only four teams to beat the Tide on back-to-back occasions are LSU (2010-11), Ole Miss (2014-15), Michigan (2023-24) and Oklahoma (2024-25). The Crimson Tide has not yet has the opportunity to bounce back from losses against Utah (2009), Clemson (2018), Texas (2023), Michigan (2024), Florida State (2025), Georgia (2025) and Indiana (2025). Alabama is set to face the Seminoles and the Bulldogs in 2026.

EARLY BIRD GETS THE WIN: Since 2007, Alabama has played in 33 regular season games that have kicked off at 11:30 a.m. CT or earlier and holds a perfect 33-0 record in those matchups. Including bowl games in that span, Alabama has played 35 such contests and holds a 34-1 record in those games. The Crimson Tide opened the season on Sept. 5 with a 48-10 victory over East Carolina that kicked off at 11:07 a.m. CT.

KDB AT BDS: During his two-plus seasons at Alabama, Kalen DeBoer has posted a 14-1 (.933) record inside Saban Field at Bryant-Denny Stadium. DeBoer is a perfect 7-0 in home games against non-conference opponents.

BAMA IN THE NFL

LEADING THE WAY TO THE NFL: As of the 2026 NFL Draft, Alabama has had more draft picks over the last 18 drafts (150) than any other program in the nation. The list of 150 features 20 Super Bowl champions, 48 Pro Bowl selections and 22 First Team All-Pro members along with one Defensive Player of the Year, one Offensive and one Defensive Rookie of the Year.

2026 NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw 10 former players selected in the 2026 NFL Draft, including two first-rounders in offensive lineman Kady Proctor (No. 12, Miami Dolphins) and quarterback Ty Simpson (No. 13, Los Angeles Rams). The second round featured wide receiver Germie Bernard. The Crimson Tide then saw seven players drafted on day three. Defensive lineman LT Overton was taken by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round, while offensive lineman Parker Brailsford (Cleveland Browns), linebacker Justin Jefferson (Browns) and tight end Josh Cuevas (Baltimore Ravens) were taken in the fifth round. The sixth round saw defensive back Domani Jackson selected by the Green Bay Packers and the draft concluded with defensive lineman Tim Keenan III (Los Angeles Rams) and running back Jam Miller (New England Patriots) hearing their names called.

QUICK HITS ON ALABAMA'S NFL DRAFT SUCCESS: Below is a look at some of Alabama's recent success in the NFL Draft.

- Over the last 18 NFL Drafts, Alabama has produced 150 total picks which is more than any other program in the nation. Of those 150, an impressive 51 (34 percent) have been first-rounders.
- Since 2000, the Crimson Tide has produced an NCAA-leading 53 first-rounders, a number that is seven better than the next closest school Ohio State (46).
- Since 2010, Alabama has had an NCAA-best 50 players selected in the first round, 17 more than the second-place Buckeyes.
- Alabama has produced multiple first round picks in 15 of the last 18 NFL Drafts with single first-round selections in 2009, 2015 and 2016.
- With the selection of Kady Proctor and Ty Simpson in the 2026 NFL Draft, Alabama has had at least one player taken in the first round of 18 straight drafts (2009-present) to set the new NCAA record. The Crimson Tide passed Miami (1995-2008), who owned the old mark of 14 consecutive first-rounders.
- Since 2020, Alabama has produced four first-round quarterbacks - the most of any program in the country. The list includes: Tua Tagovailoa (2020), Mac Jones (2021), Bryce Young (2023) and Simpson (2026).
- Since 2006, Alabama has had nine former starting quarterbacks drafted, two more than the next-closest schools in Ohio State, Oregon and USC who are all tied at seven. The list of nine includes: Brodie Croyle (2006), Greg McElroy (2011), AJ McCarron (2014), Tagovailoa (2020), Jalen Hurts (2020), Jones (2021), Young (2023), Jalen Milroe (2025) and Simpson (2026).
- With the selection of Proctor, the Crimson Tide has had at least one offensive lineman taken in the first round of seven of the last eight NFL Drafts.

CRIMSON TIDE IN THE NFL: Alabama enters the 2026-27 NFL season with 71 players on rosters (including reserve/practice squad) and is represented on 28 of the league's 32 teams. Alabama had 69 total players (including reserve/practice squad) overall and 62 on an active 53-man roster in Week 1 of the 2025-26 regular season, the most of any program in college football. The next closest schools for active players were Georgia and Ohio State with 57 followed by Michigan at 44 and LSU and Notre Dame with 39 apiece to round out the top five. Below is a look at where former Crimson Tide standouts begin the new season:

ROLL TIDE RUSHERS: Alabama's contingency of NFL running backs combined for 44 rushing touchdowns during the 2025-26 season, the most of any program. It marked the seventh consecutive season former Crimson Tide backs have scored 40-plus rushing touchdowns in a single NFL season. Alabama is the only college to ever have a group of NFL rushers go for 40-plus scores in a season.

Total Rushing Touchdowns by Alabama Alumni

Year	Touchdowns
2019	42
2020	43
2021	45
2022	42
2023	42
2024	61

70+ IN A SEASON: A total of 72 former Crimson Tide players appeared in a game and recorded at least one snap through all 18 weeks of the 2025-26 regular season, marking the fourth consecutive season at or above 70 players. In 2024, the Crimson Tide's 75 former players to see action topped the previous NFL record of 71, which was set by UA during the 2023-24 campaign. Prior to that, the Tide became the only program to have 70 former players see game action in any regular season in league history during 2022-23 season. The number of former Alabama players to play in an NFL regular-season contest increased each year for nine consecutive seasons from 2016-2024 starting with 38 in 2016. The 2017 season saw 44 former players earn game action, breaking Alabama's previous record of 40 in 1987, and was followed by 52 in 2018. The total moved to 62 in 2019, followed by 64 in 2020, 68 in 2021, 70 in 2022, 71 in 2023, and 75 in 2024.

POSTSEASON TIDE: Alabama was well-represented in the 2025-26 NFL Playoffs with a league-high 33 former players spotting 10 of the 14 rosters. The Tide's postseason players were as follows: seven on the Eagles (Campbell, Dickerson, Hurts, Latu, D. Smith, Steen, By. Young); five on the Chargers (Bozeman, Eboigbe, Hand, N. Harris, Scott); four on the Seahawks (Jobe, Milroe, Ouzts, Reed); three apiece on the Packers (Diggs, Jacobs, McKinney), Panthers (Ray, A. Robinson, Br. Young), Patriots (Barmore, Dippre, Jennings) and Texans (Anderson Jr., C. Harris, To'oTo'o); two apiece on the Broncos (Q. Robinson, Surtain II) and 49ers (M. Jones, Robinson Jr.); and one on the Bills (Mathis).

ALL-PRO PRODUCTION: Alabama had four total players selected to the Associated Press' 2025 All-Pro Team, including two first-teamers and a pair of second-team selections. On the first team were edge rusher Will Anderson Jr. and placekicker Will Reichard. The second-team honorees consisted of cornerback Patrick Surtain II and safety Xavier McKinney.

ALL-PRO BAMA FOR A DECADE: The Crimson Tide has produced a total of 32 NFL All-Pro selections over the last 10 seasons ranging from 2016-25. Alabama's 32 combined honors is nine better than any other collegiate program. The next-closest total is 23 honors from LSU, Notre Dame and Oklahoma with Iowa, Mississippi State and Ohio State tied for third at 18.

DIVISION I: (58-17, .773)

• Kalen DeBoer has produced unprecedented results at every stop of his coaching career. His hard work and dedication to his craft has shaped one of the most impressive resumes in college football after just 11 years as a head coach.

• DeBoer's coaching philosophy stresses the importance of class, integrity and academic success. He has a passion for bringing people together while building the total program. DeBoer believes in creating an environment that allows his players to thrive. He holds a deep commitment to developing the young men in his program and investing in them both on and off the field as they prepare for their next steps in life.

• During his 28 years in coaching, he has consistently prospered at multiple levels and in different roles, helping to build and revitalize programs while establishing a diverse network of contacts across the country, in both coaching and recruiting. Across his first 11 seasons as a head coach, DeBoer has accumulated a record of 124-20, which includes a 25-3 record in his previous stop with the Washington Huskies and three NAIA National Championships at Sioux Falls.

• Entering 2026, DeBoer owns a 20-6 record against Associated Press Top 25 teams across his six combined seasons at Fresno State, Washington and Alabama. His 20 victories stand as the second-most ranked wins among active head coaches to begin the '26 campaign.

• DeBoer led Alabama to an 11-4 overall record in 2025, including a 10-2 mark during the regular season and a 7-1 record in SEC play.

• The Crimson Tide earned a spot in the SEC Championship Game and eventually the College Football Playoff in '25, while notching the program's 28th 11-win season in program history and 17th 10-win season over the last 18 years.

• The Tide recorded five wins against AP Top 25 teams in 2025, including four in a row across four consecutive weeks to become the first program in SEC history to accomplish the feat. Under DeBoer's direction, UA also secured a CFP First Round victory at Oklahoma, overcoming an early 17-point deficit to tie for the third-largest comeback in program history and the largest comeback in CFP records.

• DeBoer took on an unprecedented challenge in his first season in Tuscaloosa, replacing arguably the greatest coach in the history of college football. The 2024 campaign saw the Crimson Tide finish 9-4, including a 3-1 record against ranked teams. DeBoer's nine victories matched Frank Thomas (1931) for the most wins by a first-year head coach in Alabama history.

• In 2023, he led Washington to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game with a victory over Texas in the Sugar Bowl. DeBoer's '23 group won the Pac-12 Championship and recorded the most wins in a season in program history (14). Additionally, he won the 2023 AP, AFCA, Eddie Robinson, George Munger, Walter Camp, Sporting News and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards.

• DeBoer became the first Washington coach to win 11-or-more games in consecutive seasons after going 11-2 in 2022 and 14-1 in 2023 and the first to win a bowl game in his initial season with the Huskies. That success resulted in back-to-back Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors. His Washington squads also went 10-1 against ranked teams.

• In his first year at UW, he led the Huskies to an 11-2 overall record after Washington finished 4-8 the previous year. They posted a 3-0 mark against ranked teams and a win over Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl. His Huskies swept their three Northwest rivals and finished in a tie for second in the Pac-12, while he was named Pac-12 Co-Coach of the Year.

• Prior to his time at UW, DeBoer spent two seasons at Fresno State, which included the pandemic-shortened 2020 season. Under his guidance, the Bulldogs made great strides on both sides of the ball, posting a combined 12-6 record. Fresno was 4-8 in 2019.

• In 2021, Fresno State went 9-3 under DeBoer. The 2020 season saw the Bulldogs finish at 3-3 overall.

• Prior to Fresno, DeBoer was on staff at Indiana University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He helped guide the Hoosiers to an 8-5 record and a berth in the Gator Bowl. IU's eight victories in 2019 matched their highest wins total in 26 seasons, and IU ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten in total offense. Indiana averaged 432.8 yards of total offense per game, throwing for 302.4 yards per contest while rushing for 130.4.

• DeBoer joined then-head coach Jeff Tedford as the Fresno State offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2017. In two seasons in that role, DeBoer helped the Bulldogs to overall records of 10-4 (2017) and 12-2 (2018), along with two division titles, two bowl game victories and the Mountain West Conference Championship in 2018.

• After the 2009 season, he took a job at Southern Illinois as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2010 through 2013. He moved to Eastern Michigan as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2014 through 2016, helping the Eagles to their third-ever bowl-game berth in 2016.

• A school-record setting wide receiver at the University of Sioux Falls (S.D.), DeBoer later led his alma mater to three NAIA National Championships in five seasons as head coach, winning titles in 2006, 2008 and 2009, while also finishing as runner-up in 2007 and making the semifinals in his first season as head coach in 2005. During his five seasons at Sioux Falls, DeBoer compiled a 67-3 overall record, including a 49-1 mark in Great Plains Athletic Conference play. He was NAIA National Coach of the Year in each of his three championship seasons at USF.

• A 1998 graduate of Sioux Falls with a degree in secondary education, DeBoer was a record-setting football and baseball student-athlete. During his football career, he compiled 3,400 yards and 33 touchdowns on 234 career receptions — all school records at the time — and played on the 1996 NAIA Division II National Championship team.

• He also played baseball for the Cougars, batting .520 (still a school record) as a senior in 1998. His career average of .492 is tops in USF history, as are his 37 career homers and .944 slugging percentage.
