OPENING KICK NEED-TO-KNOWS

- Kentucky football opened the Will Stein era with a 45-13 victory against Youngstown State. Stein was named Kentucky's 39th head coach on Dec. 1, 2025.
- The Wildcats' 45 points in Stein's debut were the third-most for a UK coach in a debut in history. Only W.J. Juneau's 62 points vs. Southwestern Presbyterian on Oct. 2, 1920 and A.D. Kirwan's 46 points vs. Maryville on Sept. 24, 1938 had more.
- Kentucky has its only back-to-back home games of the season Saturday vs. Alabama, which will mark the opening game of the Southeastern Conference league schedule. The game time is 3:30 p.m. ET and it will be televised on ABC.
- SEC Nation and Marty & McGee will be telecast from the William T. Young Library on Saturday. The Paul Finebaum Show will be on Friday.
- Alabama will be making its seventh trip to Lexington since 1980, including UK's 40-34 overtime in victory in 1997.
- It is the first of the new nine-game SEC schedule.
- UK had 506 yards total offense in the opener, most in a season opener since 564 vs. ULM in 2021. It was also the most total yards of offense in a UK head coach's debut since Hal Mumme's squad posted 519 yards vs. Louisville on Aug. 30, 1997.
- Kenny Minchey made his first collegiate start at quarterback against Youngstown State and was 18 of 27 for 301 yards, four touchdowns and no turnovers. He is the third QB in UK history to have 300 passing yards, four TDs and at least 65 percent completion in a season opener, also Will Levis in 2021 and Tim Couch in 1997 and '98.
- CJ Baxter Jr. rushed for two touchdowns in the first quarter to become the first UK player with two rushing scores in the first quarter of a season opener since Derrick Locke at Louisville on Sept. 4, 2010. Baxter finished the day with nine carries for 49 yards.
- Freshmen receivers Kenny Darby and Prince Jean both caught a TD pass in their collegiate debut. It is the first time two UK freshmen had a receiving touchdown in the opener since Barion Brown and Dane Key against Miami (OH) on Sept. 3, 2022.
- Minchey found four different receivers for a touchdown -- the first time UK had four players with a receiving touchdown in an opener since six players caught scores in 1998 at Louisville.
- UK will be in search of its first win over a ranked opponent since Sept. 28, 2024 over No. 6 Ole Miss while on the road. UK has not won over a ranked foe at home since No. 22 Florida, 33-14, in 2023.

WEEK TWO: ALABAMA

- Kentucky will take on Alabama on Saturday in both teams' 2026 Southeastern Conference opener.
- The Wildcats are 2-39-1 all-time versus Alabama, including 2-15 in Lexington.
- Alabama has won eight consecutive meetings in the series.
- UK's last win the series was a 40-34 overtime victory in 1997 engineered by Tim Couch and Craig Yeast. Couch hit Yeast with a 26-yard touchdown pass for the game-winning score in OT. The duo will serve as honorary captains for Saturday's game.
- In that game, current UK defensive line coach Anwar Stewart returned a blocked field goal 68 yards for a touchdown.
- This will be the first SEC contest for first-year head coach Will Stein.
- Alabama will be making its seventh trip to Lexington since 1980, including UK's 40-34 overtime in victory in 1997.

OPENING KICK REVIEW

- Kentucky's 45-13 win over Youngstown State marked Will Stein's first game as a collegiate head coach.
- The Wildcats have won four of their last six coaching debuts.
- UK has won seven consecutive home-openers. It is the longest home-opening streak for the Cats since winning eight straight home lid-lifters from 1987-94.*
- The 45 points are the most for a Kentucky head coach in his first game since 1938, when A.D. Kirwan's Wildcats defeated Maryville 46-7.
- Kentucky completed a 7-play, 75-yard drive for a touchdown on the opening possession of the Will Stein era. It ended with a 15-yard rush by CJ Baxter Jr.
- Kentucky scored touchdowns on its first five possessions. The fourth possession was extended by a muffed punt that the Wildcats recovered.
- Coach Will Stein fulfilled a promise that UK would throw the ball to the tight ends. UK's two leading receivers were tight ends and the three players at that position totaled nine catches for 140 yards and two touchdowns.
- This marked the 10th consecutive season that UK has started the opener with a transfer from a four-year school at quarterback. The last UK high school QB signee to start a season opener was Drew Barker in 2016.
- UK's offense had seven pass plays of at least 20 yards.
- UK's offensive line did not allow a sack and only one quarterback hurry.
- This was the most points scored in a season opener since tallying 45 points vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 2021.
- UK had 506 yards total offense, most in a season opener since 564 vs. Louisiana-Monroe in 2021.
- This was the third time since 1985 that UK had at least 300 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a season opener.
- This was the first time UK had four players with a receiving touchdown since 2012 vs. Kent State (also four in that game).
- This was the first time UK had four players with a receiving touchdown in the season opener since six players caught TDs in 1998 at Louisville.
- Defensive tackle Ahmad Breaux logged the first sack of the season for the Wildcats.
- Safety Ty Bryant notched the first takeaway of the season when he recovered a muffed punt in the second quarter, setting up Kentucky's fourth touchdown.
- UK held Youngstown to just 59 yards rushing. Texas (Oct. 18, 2025) was the last opponent to have fewer than 60 yards (47) on the ground.
- Youngstown QB Beau Brungard – the 2025 National Player of the Year in the FCS – is a dangerous runner and scrambler. The Wildcats limited him to 29 net rushing yards with a long run of only seven yards.

Notes above represented with an asterisk () do not include the vacated season-opening win in 2021.

WILDCATS AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

- Faced with one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Kentucky Wildcats will take on their first ranked opponent of the season in Alabama on Saturday.
 - Kentucky's last ranked triumph was an upset of No. 6 Ole Miss on Sept. 28, 2024 in Oxford, Mississippi.
 - UK's last win over a ranked foe in Lexington was over No. 22 Florida, 33-14, in 2023.
 - Kentucky has played 280 ranked teams in the Associated Press poll in its history, holding a 51-222-5 record. Its on-field record is 53-222-5 after two wins were vacated by the NCAA from 2021.

IT'S STEIN TIME IN THE BLUEGRASS

- Kentucky football opened the Will Stein era against Youngstown State with a 45-13 victory. Stein was named Kentucky's 39th head coach on Dec. 1, 2025.
- Stein returns to the Bluegrass after spending the last three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Oregon under Dan Lanning. He was responsible for directing one of the most explosive offenses in the country as the Ducks reached the College Football Playoffs in each of the past two seasons.
- A Kentucky native, Stein is the son of UK alumni – father Matt played football at UK (letterman 1983-84) and mother Debbie is an avid fan – and he inherited their passion as he grew up watching the Wildcats in the then-Commonwealth Stadium, section 128, row 13 to be exact. He later competed in the stadium as a collegiate quarterback and assistant coach at Louisville.
- He has emphasized an aggressive offensive philosophy, strong quarterback play, relentless recruiting, and a culture centered on connection, accountability, toughness and sacrifice.
 - Stein is the fourth Kentucky native to serve as UK's head coach since Bear Bryant vaulted the Cats into national contention in the 1950s. Stein joins Blanton Collier (1954-61), Jerry Claiborne (1982-89) and Joker Phillips (2010-12) as other native Kentuckians to lead the Blue and White
 - He is the first offensive coordinator to be hired as head coach since Joker Phillips in 2010
 - Stein begins his tenure at age 36, making him the youngest head coach for Kentucky since Fran Curci in 1973. Curci was 35

BUILDING THE CULTURE

- Will Stein has underscored since the day he was hired the importance of culture in winning programs. Stein has emphasized that, "the most connected teams, win the most games." He has four pillars in which he has built his debut roster and program:
 - Connection: building genuine relationships so players know their coaches care about them as people, not just performers
 - Stein: "You can't demand from people you don't have a relationship with."
 - Accountability: holding yourself and your teammates to the standards required to win
 - Stein: "The standard applies to everyone."
 - Toughness: ability to handle adversity, pressure, discomfort, and challenges while continuing to compete
 - Stein: "Tough people don't always feel good; they still do what is required."
 - Sacrifice: choosing the team's success over individual comfort or personal priorities
 - Stein: "Great teams are built by people willing to give more than they take."

CONSTRUCTING THE STAFF

- Will Stein crafted a staff that reflects his philosophy and the staff assembled blends SEC experience, Power Four coaching backgrounds, and strong player-development credentials. The group reflects Stein's offensive identity and emphasis on quarterback development while adding veteran leadership, recruiting experience and NFL-level player development across all three phases.
 - Jay Bateman (defensive coordinator)
 - Veteran defensive coach with Power Four coordinator experience, coming to UK after two seasons at Texas A&M. o In 2025, Bateman helped Texas A&M to a historic 11-2 season and the program's first College Football Playoff appearance.

o In 2024, Bateman led the Aggies' defense to a top 35 national ranking in tackles for loss (92) and scoring defense (22.2 ppg), while also finishing in the top three in the Southeastern Conference with 16 interceptions and 76 passes defended.

- Joe Sloan (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

o Joins the Bluegrass after four years at LSU.

o instrumental in shaping Jayden Daniels' trajectory toward winning the Heisman Trophy and later earning NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors.

o In 2024, he was elevated to offensive coordinator, and in his first season, the Tigers ranked No. 2 in the SEC and No. 7 nationally in passing offense, averaging 315.2 yards per game.

- Allen Brown (cornerbacks)

o Brown came to the Bluegrass after two seasons on the West Coast, coaching at California in 2025 as the defensive backs coach and 2024 as the cornerbacks coach at Washington State.

o In his five coaching stops, Brown has coached nine all-conference defensive backs, two freshman All-Americans and two more All-America honorees.

o In 2025, his defensive backs unit helped the Bears rank tied for 16th nationally in fewest touchdown passes allowed (14).

- Josh Christian-Young (safeties)

o Joined Kentucky after coaching safeties at Houston for the last two seasons.

o The Cougars finished the 2025 regular season at 9-3 and ranked 21st in the College Football Playoff rankings, while Houston's defense ranked 19th nationally in red zone defense and 37th in defensive efficiency.

o In 2024, Houston limited opponents to 188.8 passing yards per game, ranking third in the Big 12. Houston's 2,266 passing yards allowed were its fewest in a non-COVID season.

- Parker Fleming (special teams/inside wide receivers)

o Arrived in Lexington with more than a decade of experience coordinating and developing elite special teams units at the highest levels of college football.

o Spent the 2025 season at Oregon as the assistant quarterbacks coach. Oregon's offense totaled 71 touchdowns and 6,783 yards of total offense in 2025, averaging 452.2 yards and 36.9 points per game.

o Prior to Oregon, Fleming spent six seasons at Ohio State, serving as the quality control coach for special teams from 2018-20 before being promoted to the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant from 2021-23.

- Cutter Leftwich (offensive line)

o In August of this year, was named to the 247sports "30 Under 30" list of the top young coaches in college football.

o Spent two of the past three seasons with Oregon, with a one-year stint at North Texas as offensive line coach in-between.

o Helped Oregon rank fourth nationally in pass efficiency (100.96), ninth in scoring (38.2), 14th in rushing (218.4) and 16th in fewest sacks allowed.

o Oregon's offensive line was named a finalist for the Joe Moore Award, given annually to the nation's top unit, the only offensive unit to be named a finalist three years in a row.

- Joe Price (wide receivers)

o Spent the last six seasons at UTSA, including the last three seasons as the associate head coach, pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Roadrunners.

o Roadrunners have enjoyed the most successful six-year run in program history with a 52-26 overall record, including a 35-12 regular season league mark, two conference championships and six straight bowl appearances.

o Price has helped UTSA have one of the top-scoring offenses in the FBS, averaging 33.7 points per game.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

- Will Stein's first foray as a head coach in the Southeastern Conference will see its fair share of challenges. The Wildcats will face the nation's fourth-most difficult schedule according to On3.com and ESPN. It is the sixth-toughest schedule according to Pro Football Focus.
- UK will take on seven teams ranked in the top 25 of The Associated Press preseason poll (Texas A&M, Oklahoma, LSU, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisville and Missouri). Three additional teams are receiving votes (Florida, South Carolina and Vanderbilt).
 - Kentucky is one of three teams (Arkansas, Texas) who will face a nation-leading seven preseason AP Top-25 teams.
- Kentucky is set to take on 10 teams either ranked or receiving votes from the preseason USA Today Coaches Poll. Only Youngstown State and South Alabama are not among the preseason teams receiving votes or among the FBS top 25 and even Youngstown was ranked No. 7 in the FCS poll at the time of the UK opener.

AMONG THE BEST HAULS IN FOOTBALL

- Kentucky football was one of the most aggressive programs in the country in the transfer portal in Will Stein's first season. Stein's first portal class ranks No. 8 by The Athletic, No. 9 by ESPN and No. 10 by 247Sports.
- Stein's first two commits were offensive tackle Lance Heard from Tennessee and linebacker Bo Barnes from Texas. Both committed within hours of Stein's hiring on Dec. 3, 2025.
- The class is brining more than 20,000 career snaps to the 2026 roster, doubling the amount of veteran experience on the team compared to last season.
- Some of UK's highest-ranked transfers include:
 - Lance Heard (OT) - No. 7 by 247Sports; No. 22 by The Athletic; No. 31 by ESPN
 - Kenny Minchey (QB) - No. 45 by The Athletic; No. 52 by ESPN; No. 137 by 247Sports
 - Coleton Price (C) - No. 38 by 247Sports; No. 47 by The Athletic
 - Tegra Tshabola (OG) - No. 66 by 247Sports; No. 96 by The Athletic
 - Bo Barnes (LB) - No. 126 by 247Sports
 - Jordan Castell (S) - No. 159 by 247Sports

HOME SWEET HOME

- In 2026, UK is in its 54th season playing at Kroger Field, which was formerly named Commonwealth Stadium (1973-2016).
 - The Cats are 188-151-4 (.554) all-time in the stadium. (Those marks do not include six home wins vacated by the NCAA in 2021).

OFFENSIVE NOTES

FEED THE STUDS

- Rather than building an offense around a rigid playbook, Will Stein emphasizes creating favorable matchups through formations, motion, personnel groupings, and defensive identification.

Explosive. Efficient. Adaptable.

- Foundation includes: a balanced attack with strong rushing identity, multiple personnel groupings, ability to adjust to personnel.
 - Quarterback efficiency: high-completion percentages, decision-making, ball security, creating easy throws.
 - Explosive passing: vertical routes, play-action concepts, receiver spacing, multiple formations.
 - Establishing the run: force defenses into the box, create favorable matchups, slow down pass rushers, create play-action opportunities.
 - Tempo: no-huddle situations, rapid subs, fast operation after explosive plays, slower tempos to control matchups.

STANDING ON MINCHEY BUSINESS

- Before spring practice concluded, Will Stein tabbed Kenny Minchey (6-2, 211 | From Notre Dame) as QB1 saying, "Kenny earned this opportunity every day. His preparation, command of the offense, decision-making and leadership consistently stood out throughout camp. He has the confidence of our staff and the respect of his teammates, and we're excited to see him lead our offense."
- Minchey is a former four-star prospect and one of the nation's top-rated quarterbacks in the 2023 recruiting class.
- He began his collegiate career at Notre Dame before transferring to Kentucky after being handpicked by Stein and offensive coordinator Joe Sloan to lead the Cats.
- Recognized for his accuracy, athleticism, football IQ and leadership, he brings valuable experience in a championship-caliber program to Lexington.
 - Minchey starred in the opener, completing 18 of 27 passes for 301 yards and four TDs.
 - He completed his first six passes in a UK uniform.
 - He connected with nine different receiving targets.
 - His four touchdown passes also are the most since Boley threw five against the Vols.
 - He is the third QB in UK history to have 300 passing yards, four TDs and at least 65 percent completion in a season opener, also Will Levis in 2021 and Tim Couch in 1997 and '98.
 - Fun Facts: He is Irish and enjoys traveling.

QB TRANSFERS

- When Kenny Minchey took the first snap under center as UK's starting quarterback, Kentucky made it 10 consecutive seasons (2017-26) with a transfer quarterback. The last opening-day starting quarterback who signed with the Wildcats out of high school was Drew Barker, who started the 2016 season opener against Southern Miss.
 - 2025 - Zach Calzada
 - 2024 - Brock Vandagriff
 - 2023 - Devin Leary
 - 2022/2021 - Will Levis
 - 2020/2018 - Terry Wilson
 - 2017 - Stephen Johnson

THE BIG BLUE WALL REVIVAL

- The offensive line earned the reputation as Kentucky's "Big Blue Wall" under the direction of John Schlarman, a former UK All-SEC lineman and assistant coach from 2012 until his death in 2020. Schlarman's line represented toughness and physicality and was built on a gritty, tight-knit and dominant standard of play. In 2016 and 2019, Schlarman's Cats were semifinalists for the Joe Moore Award given to the nation's top offensive line.
- Will Stein has publicly made reviving the Big Blue Wall a mission, saying "The Big Blue Wall is real and is something that we want to keep representing Coach Schlarman and his legacy here ... that really embodies our team."
- The unit has combined to play in 221 career games and have made 96 career starts entering the 2026 season.
- Kentucky's projected starting five unit was ranked as the No. 3 offensive line in the country, behind only Georgia and Ohio State, by CBS' Blake Brockmeyer.

- This will be the second year in a row that UK has a lineman with native American heritage, as Shiyazh Pete (Navajo Nation) was a starting offensive tackle in 2025.

GOOD WORK, WILLIE "WUERFFEL" RODRIGUEZ

- Kentucky junior tight end Willie Rodriguez (6-4, 249) was named a nominee for the 2026 Allstate AFCA (American Football Coaches Association) Good Works Team and the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List. Together, they recognize student-athletes who demonstrate excellence in community service, academics, and athletics.
 - Rodriguez's commitment to service began at home, where he has helped care for his younger sister, Gabby, 19, who has Rett syndrome, a rare neurological and developmental disorder that primarily affects girls and impacts the way the brain develops. From an early age, he embraced the responsibilities of helping care for Gabby, assisting with her daily needs while serving as one of her biggest advocates and supporters. Through that experience, Rodriguez developed a deep sense of compassion, patience, and empathy that has shaped his character and inspired his desire to make a positive impact on those around him. The lessons he has learned from Gabby have fueled his passion for serving others, especially children, and have helped mold him into a servant leader who consistently puts the needs of others before his own.
 - Some of his community service events include volunteering at Golisano Children's Hospital, volunteering at Easterseals of the Bluegrass, a non-profit in Lexington that supports individuals and families with disabilities, volunteering to help at a shoe drive to benefit Camp Horsin' Around, a local nonprofit that enriches the lives of children whose health is compromised or who have special needs by collaborating with organized groups to provide an outdoor camp adventure and volunteering at Gabby's high school, Scott High School, where he played games and spent time with her classmates.
- Rodriguez returns as Kentucky's most experienced tight end and is expected to play a major role in Will Stein's offense.  - Skinner had his first collegiate receptions, catching a team-high-tying four passes for 61 yards. He was the first player to catch a TD toss from Kenny Minchey, becoming the first player to receive a TD in the Will Stein era.

HEY, MISTER DJ

- DJ Miller (6-3, 208) is one of the returning pieces to the wide receiver room. He caught 13 passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns as a true freshman a season ago. Miller's potential was on full display with a record night against No. 17/17 Tennessee:

 - He had a career-long, 56-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter, the first TD of his college career, followed by a 28-yarder in the third quarter.

 - He also was just the seventh freshman in school history with a 100-yard receiving game and just the eighth such performance.
 - Fun Facts: He enjoys cooking and one day would like to own a gym and become a personal trainer.

WIDE RECEIVING COMMITTEE

- Kentucky's wide receiver room is one of the team's biggest variables entering 2026 but it staged an impressive season opener. While the unit lacks established production as a group, it features a blend of proven transfer talent, headlined by Nic Anderson, and high-upside newcomers that fit Will Stein's aggressive, explosive offensive philosophy. Here's a few to keep an eye on:
 - Nic Anderson (6-4, 208 | From Oklahoma) - An Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award watch list honoree ... Totaled career stats of 52 receptions for 830 yards and 10 touchdowns ... Made his first collegiate catch count, hauling in a swing pass after outside the hash marks after going in motion and weaving his way to a 26-yard score vs. Youngstown State ... Finished the day with two snags and 27 total yards.

THE "B-BACK" ATTACK

- Will Stein's rushing attack is built around speed, spacing, versatility and keeping defenses off balance. During his time as Oregon's offensive coordinator, Stein's offenses consistently used multiple running backs, motion, perimeter runs and the passing game to create favorable matchups. At Kentucky, he has emphasized building a deeper, more versatile running back rotation rather than relying on a single featured back.
- UK's running back room is headlined by two Power Four backs in Jovantae Barnes and CJ Baxter:
 - Jovantae Barnes (6-0, 214 | From Oklahoma) has totaled 1,469 scrimmage yards in his career. He has compiled 13 total touchdowns and amassed 4.6 yards per touch with 322 offensive snaps played. He produced 1,281 rushing yards and 12 rushing touchdowns with three career 100-yard outings and one 200-yard performance. He missed the opener vs. Youngstown State, but is expected back vs. Alabama.
 - Fun Facts: The highlight of his life thus far is graduating from Oklahoma in December with a degree in multidisciplinary studies. Outside of football, he's also interested in fashion and styling.
 - CJ Baxter Jr. (6-1, 230 | From Texas) has 903 rushing yards and seven TDs to couple with 1,100 yards from scrimmage and 36 receptions and a receiving TD. Baxter was a five-star prospect and one of the nation's top overall players in the class of 2023. Baxter scored a touchdown on the opening drive of 2026 and finished with 48 yards and two scores on nine carries vs. Youngstown.
 - Fun Facts: His favorite sports hero is his cousin, Greg Bryant Jr. who passed away in 2016 and was a running back/fullback at Notre Dame. He's a good cook and will admit to listening to Adele

PATTERSON EMERGING

- In addition to Jovantae Barnes and CJ Baxter, holdover junior running back Jason Patterson (5-10, 204) has also emerged as a valuable option in the backfield for Will Stein's two-back system.
 - As a sophomore, Patterson saw action in all 12 games for the Cats. He finished with 57 total carries and 225 yards on the season.
 - He opened 2026 with a team-high 11 carries and team-best 78 yards. He also caught a pass for 16 yards.
 - He also had 18 catches for 101 yards with one TD and four kick returns for 57 yards in his career.
 - Fun Facts: An off the field talent is the ability to sing, and one day he would like to be a physical therapist.

MILESTONES TO WATCH WHEN THE CATS ARE ON OFFENSE

- Nic Anderson is 92 yards away from 1,000 career receiving yards.
- Jovantae Barnes needs six carries for 300 career carries and 219 rushing yards for 1,500 yards in a career.
- Jason Patterson is 86 rushing yards from eclipsing 500 for his career.
- CJ Baxter Jr. is three touchdowns away from 10 career rushing scores and needs 97 rushing yards to eclipse 1,000 for a career.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

DEFENSIVE BLUEPRINT

- Kentucky's defensive identity under Will Stein's program structure is built around speed, toughness, discipline and creating situational advantages. Stein has emphasized complementary football: an offense designed to create pressure and a defense designed to play fast, force mistakes and create extra possessions.

Fast. Physical. Disciplined.

- Foundation includes: want to play fast, make offenses uncomfortable and create the extra possessions that decide championship-level games.
- Speed over size: athletic defenders who can play multiple roles, a unit built to feature fast linebackers, defensive backs who can cover space and linemen who can disrupt.
- Multiple looks: four-man fronts, multiple packages, pressure from different angles, pre-snap movement, disguised coverages.
- Create negative plays: a unit that attacks rather than reacts, create second-and-long and third-and-long situations to dictate the game.
- Complementary football: get the offense extra possessions, win field position, create short fields, protect leads, finish games.

THE TY THAT BINDS

- Ty Bryant (6-0, 196), a senior safety from Lexington, emerged as one of the best defensive backs in the country a season ago. He is the SEC's returning leader in interceptions with four a season ago and is one of the biggest recommits to Will Stein's first roster.

KING OF THE CASTELL

- Castell, an immediate impact player beginning as a freshman, has combined for 88 solo tackles and 87 assists throughout his career. He's also generated 13 pass breakups and three picks, while starting 35 of 36 career games. Washington Catholic Athletic Conference Second Team as a senior after totaling 45 tackles, 10 PBUs with one interception.

A "STAR" IN THE MAKING

- The star position in a Jay Bateman defense is described as a "Swiss Army knife." A player who can play corner, linebacker and safety. His responsibilities include: covering the slot receiver, covering a tight end, matching a running back, blitzing the quarterback, play in the box against the run, set the edge, drop into zone coverage, spy or contain a mobile quarterback and rotate into different coverage looks.
- Senior Aaron Gates (6-0, 199 | From Florida) has stepped into this all-important role heading into the fall for the Cats.
 - Gates, like Jordan Castell, is familiar with Jay Bateman and the system having played under him during his time at Florida.
 - In 2024, Gates made five starts in Bateman's star position. He logged 27 tackles, 14 solo tackles, 4.0 tackles for a loss, one pick, three PBUs, two fumble recoveries and one quarterback hurry in those five starts.
 - Fun Facts: Besides football, he's a good ping-pong player. He also enjoys reading and listening to music when away from the field.

BLUEGRASS MIDDLEMEN

- Kentucky's inside linebacker group is led by Grant Godfrey (6-3, 240) who emerged as a starter a season ago for the Cats and Bo Barnes (6-1, 244 | From Texas) a highly-ranked prospect from Texas who spent one season with the Longhorns.
 - Godfrey has appeared in 17 career games with three starts.
 - In his breakout season, he logged 37 tackles, 2.0 tackles for a loss and 0.5 sacks.
 - Generated a career-high nine tackles against Vanderbilt a season ago.

JERSEY PATCH FOR 2026

As Kentucky Football begins a new era under Head Coach Will Stein, UK Athletics is partnering with UK Invests to make the groundbreaking program the Official Jersey Patch Partner of Kentucky Football.

The UK Invests logo will appear on Wildcat football jerseys to elevate storytelling around one of UK’s fastest-growing student success programs.

Launched in 2022, UK Invests is a first-of-its-kind financial wellness program that combines financial education with real-world opportunities to help UK students build greater financial security and healthy saving and investing habits. The program empowers students to create personal investment accounts where they can practice saving and investing, while also offering financial education sessions and opportunities to earn university-funded rewards for participating in institution-identified healthy behaviors, such as exercising at Alumni Gym or attending the Hire Blue Career Fair. Soon, students can also earn rewards for attending select UK Athletics games.

Since its launch less than four years ago, more than 18,000 students have opened investment accounts and earned nearly $3 million in university-funded rewards through UK Invests. Collectively, student investments are projected to exceed $9 million at the next quarterly update at the end of the month.

UK Invests was initially implemented in phases, beginning in Fall 2022 with UK student-athletes who deposited their NCAA Alston Awards earnings into UK Invests brokerage accounts after completing financial education programs. UK Invests then expanded to the full undergraduate, graduate, and professional student body population in Fall 2023 and has quickly become one of UK’s most successful student initiatives to-date.

Kentucky Football will showcase storytelling on UK Invests’ success and growth through integrated multimedia activations executed by JMI Sports – UK Athletics’ exclusive multimedia rights partner operating locally as UK Sports and Campus Marketing – including Kroger Field signage, videoboards, radio and TV inventory, coaches’ endorsements, and in-game features highlighting students who participate in the program.

For Will Stein, the roots in Kroger Field soil run deep.

A native Kentuckian, Stein is the son of UK alumni – father Matt played football at UK and mother Debbie is an avid fan – and he inherited their passion as he grew up watching the Wildcats in the then-Commonwealth Stadium, section 128, row 13 to be exact. He later competed in the stadium as a collegiate quarterback and assistant coach.

On Dec. 2, 2025, the family's journey came full circle as Stein was named head coach of Kentucky football.

Stein, 36, returned to the Commonwealth from the University of Oregon, where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for three seasons.

One of the many attributes that sets Stein apart is his ability to tailor his offense to his players' strengths. Year after year, he's designed systems around quarterbacks with very different skill sets, and each one thrived, helping lead elite units and Heisman Trophy finalists each of the past two years.

QBs Bo Nix and Dillon Gabriel went on to start multiple games in the NFL in their rookie years as well.

Paced by a high-scoring offense, the 2025 Ducks finished the 2025 season 13-2 overall, including an 8-1 mark in the Big Ten. The No. 5 Ducks advance to the semifinals of the College Football Playoff with a 23-0 win over No. 4 Texas Tech before falling to the eventual national champion and top-ranked Indiana, 56-22. It marked just the fifth loss in the last three years for the program. The Ducks were the only team in the country to win 13 games each of the past two seasons, tying the program record for single-season victories first set in 2014.

Stein's unit ranked tied for 10th nationally in scoring at 36.9 points per game. His attack was well-balanced as the Ducks averaged 198.6 rushing yards per game and 253.6 passing yards per game. The total offense of 455.2 yards per contest ranked 16th in the nation.

Individually, sophomore quarterback Dante Moore completed a pinpoint 71.8 percent of his passes – fourth in the country – for 3,565 yards, 30 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He ranked eighth nationally in passing efficiency.

Stein's offensive philosophy – “Feed the Studs” – keeps numerous players involved. Three Ducks running backs had at least 673 rushing yards in 2025, with all three averaging more than 5.8 yards per carry. Six pass receivers had at least 26 catches on the year.

In 2024, Oregon went 13-1, winning the Big Ten regular season title and the league championship game over Penn State. The Ducks advanced to the College Football Playoff as the No. 1-seed, with the season's only loss coming in the Rose Bowl.

As a team, Oregon averaged 34.9 points per game, 157.9 rushing yards per game, 279.5 passing yards and 437.4 yards total offense.

All-America quarterback Dillon Gabriel completed 72.9 percent of his passes for 3,857 yards, 30 touchdowns and only six interceptions. He ranked in the nation's top 10 in completion percentage (3rd), passing efficiency (7th), passing yards (8th) and TD passes (8th). He went on to finish third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was named Big Ten Most Valuable Player and was drafted by the NFL's Cleveland Browns.

Once again, the passing game spread the wealth, as eight players caught at least 21 balls. Running back Jordan James jetted for 1,267 yards and 15 touchdowns, ranking 18th nationally in each category.

Stein's first season at Oregon, under Coach Dan Lanning, was 2023. His offense was prolific immediately, leading the nation in passing (346.9 yards per game), completion percentage (77.2 percent), first downs (372) and fewest turnovers lost (7). The Ducks placed second in scoring (44.2 points per game) and total offense (531.4 yards per game).

Led by quarterback Bo Nix, Oregon went 12-2, topped by a win over Liberty in the Fiesta Bowl.

Nix threw for 4,508 yards while setting an NCAA record in completion percentage (77.4) and leading the nation in completions (364) and touchdown passes (45). He was second nationally in passing yards and passing efficiency, also fifth in yards per passing attempt. Nix was third in the Heisman voting and a first-round NFL draft choice by Denver.

Oregon had a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers. Bucky Irving ran for 1,180 yards and 11 touchdowns while Troy Franklin (1,383 yards, 14 TDs) and Tez Johnson (1,182 yards, 10 TDs) topped the millennium mark.

Stein went to Oregon from UTSA, spending three seasons with the Roadrunners. He served as the passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2020 and '21, then was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the '22 season.

With Stein as co-OC in '22, UTSA ranked No. 12 in the country in total offense, 476 yards per game, No. 13 in passing (300.7 yards per game) and No. 14 in scoring (36.8 points per game).

Quarterback Frank Harris blossomed under Stein's tutelage, ranking fifth in the nation in total offense (4,665 yards) and ninth in total touchdowns (41). Harris was named the 2022 Conference USA MVP.

During Stein's three seasons at UTSA, the Roadrunners had a 30-10 record, advanced to three bowl games and won the 2022 CUSA regular-season championship and C-USA title game.

A native of Louisville, Stein has football heritage, as his father, Matt, was a defensive end for the Wildcats under Coach Jerry Claiborne. Matt was a two-year letterman in 1983 and '84, playing for UK's teams that made consecutive appearances in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Will Stein played his high school ball at Trinity High School, where he was a three-time state champion and set the single-season school record for touchdown passes with 54.

Stein played at the University of Louisville from 2008-12, then moved to the coaching staff as a graduate assistant in 2013 (quarterbacks) and quality control coach in 2014 (wide receivers). He earned a bachelor's degree in sport administration from Louisville in 2011, and Master's in business administration in 2014.

Stein coached at the University of Texas from 2015-17 as a quality control assistant, helping coach the wide receivers for two years and the quarterbacks in '17.

In order to get play-calling experience, Stein moved to Lake Travis High School in Austin, Texas, as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator from 2018-19. He helped lead the Cavaliers to a two-year mark of 26-4, featuring back-to-back appearances in the state semifinals of the Class 6A Division I playoffs. He rejoined the college ranks at UTSA in 2020.

He and his wife Darby have two children, Joey and Demi.

KROGER FIELD

On game day, Kroger Field often becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 347 games within the friendly confines of newly named Kroger Field. UK has a 188-151-4 record (.554).
- 2026 marks the 54th season at the facility.
- UK set a new Kroger Field attendance record when 63,543 fans packed the stadium for the Nov. 3, 2018 game vs. No. 6 Georgia.
- Two of the top five crowds in Kroger Field history came in 2018.
- UK announced its first sellout since 2015. Since the 1999 expansion, UK has averaged 60,261 fans per game and ranked in the nation's top 30 teams in attendance in 17 of the last 19 seasons. Both the single game and season attendance record has been broken in recent years. *Note: Kroger Field capacity was limited to 12,000 fans per game in 2020 due to COVID-19 restrictions
- The stadium footprint is named C.M. Newton Grounds at Kroger Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

KROGER FIELD

Commonwealth Stadium was renamed Kroger Field in May of 2017. The agreement—which is between Kroger and JMI Sports, UK's multimedia rights partner—begins at approximately $1.85 million annually with a term of up to 12 years. With the partnership, Kroger becomes the Official Fuel Partner of the University of Kentucky and the Official Grocery Partner of Move-In at UK while also providing additional engagement opportunities with UK students. Per the agreement, Kroger is also the Official Nutrition and Pharmacy Partner of UK Athletics.

Kroger Field was transformed into a state-of-the-art facility after a $126-million reinvention which was completed prior to the 2015 season.

The project was handled by HNTB. The outside of the stadium underwent a dramatic external facelift, receiving a modern look, but one that remained uniquely Kentucky. Inside, the capacity of Kroger Field was reduced over the course of the two-year project to approximately 61,000, but the value of all remaining seats were increased, from the top of the upper deck to front-row seats at midfield. Concourses were revamped and widened throughout the stadium with improved concessions, restrooms and security. Players and coaches reaped the benefits of the new Kroger Field as well, as home-team facilities were built, and a multi-purpose recruiting room hosts future Wildcats on their on-campus visits.

NEW LIGHTING, RIBBON BOARDS

In 2024, Kroger Field featured brand new lighting and ribbon boards. The LED lighting system will include the ability to do light shows during timeouts and breaks in play similar to those at games in Rupp Arena and Kentucky Proud Park. The new ribbon boards have greater functionality, featuring sharper visual resolution than the previous set and expanded capability for display of video and graphics.

FACTS AND FIGURES

Seating Capacity: 61,000, including the Commonwealth Suites

Playing Field: UK switched from natural grass to synthetic turf for the 2015 season. Other SEC schools with a turf surface are: Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Missouri. The end zones and team sideline areas feature a checkerboard pattern in alternating shades of blue. It was designed to mimic the pattern of Secretariat's silks, which has been part of the football uniforms for five seasons. The school's new interlocking "UK" logo is positioned in the center of the field.

Video Boards: Video boards by Daktronics measuring at 39 by 79 feet, each, bring a total of 6,162 square feet of video capability. The video boards put UK among the nation's leaders in video square footage.

Sound System: Sportsound system delivers pounding bass energy, smooth mid- and high-range frequencies, and high-impact entertainment. Components of the sound system include a main speaker cluster behind the end zone, under-balcony speakers and concourse speakers.

GAME DAY EXPERIENCES

The "Cat Walk" on Talbott Todd Way: With the unveiling of the new $45 million Kentucky Football Training Facility in August of 2016, the headquarters of the program moved next door to Kroger Field. Therefore, the Cat Walk was moved to Talbott Todd Way. The Cat Walk typically begins outside Gate 1 two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff, and the team proceeds past Gate 1 and between Kroger Field and Nutter Field House. It was dedicated to former Wildcat Talbott Todd (1963-65) who passed away from ALS in August of 2017 and was an avid supporter of the program. From Talbott Todd Way the team walks to the locker room in the Joe Craft Kentucky Football Training Facility.

Lift Them Up: A unique partnership with Toyota Motor Manufacturing Kentucky (TMMK), the Kentucky College of Engineering and the Kentucky Children's Hospital was launched in 2019 that brings special guests to the Cat Walk as the Kentucky football team arrives at Kroger Field. A specially built push cart vehicle provides a Kentucky Children's Hospital patient the chance to both accompany the Wildcats on the Cat Walk and attend a game at Kroger Field. A new patient is chosen by the Kentucky Children's Hospital each week to participate.
