Series History

Kentucky and Northern Kentucky have faced off three times in program history, most recently in 2024, when the Wildcats took down the Norse 70-41. Clara Strack led UK with 15 points, 13 rebounds, 8 assists, and four blocks. Kentucky also defeated NKU in 2014 and 2015, with that 2015 contest coming in Highland Heights. Sarah Kinch's 16 points in 2015 vs. UK are the most scored by a Norse against Kentucky in school history.

Northern Kentucky Women's Basketball made a big shift in the 2026 offseason, as head coach Jeff Hans & company made a big shift to lean into recruiting a wealth of international student-athletes for the upcoming season. The Norse added nine new student-athletes, with seven of those being born outside of the United States. Plenty are expected to make a major impact, including Swedish forward and Collin College transfer Sara Basaran, Uruguayan wing and Eastern Arizona transfer Lucia Auza, and freshman guard and Italian native Gaia Castelli. Other imports include Latvian big and Vincennes transfer Dzenifera Rieksta, Bosnian guard Ema Mackic, Swedish guard Ya Ida Skold, and Serbian forward Sofija Todorovic. Of the seven international newcomers, four bring previous collegiate experience all at junior colleges. The Norse also returned Israeli forward Alma Rashelbach, meaning eight of Northern Kentucky's 13 student-athletes were born outside of the USA.

American Additions

While the international additions are certainly a central talking point, the Norse added a pair of Americans to their roster, transfer forward Kennedy Younkin and freshman guard Maya Layton. Younkin, an Asheville, Ohio native, looks to feature with Rieksta as part of a two-big rotation, after spending two seasons at East Tennessee State where she saw limited involvment. Layton, a freshman guard from Colfax, Indiana, filled it up as a high school star, and holds Tippecanoe County's all-time scoring record after scoring over 2,000 career points after spending time at both Lafayette Jefferson and Faith Christian.

Highlighting the Returners

Returning just four players from its 2025-26 squad that finished fifth in the Horizon League, the Norse have an almost entirely new roster, but return fourth-year wing Noelle Hubert, third-year guard Anna Hamilton, second-year guard Caroline Eaglin, and senior guard-forward Alma Rashelbach. While Rashelbach transferred in in 2025-26, the other three have spent their entire college careers at Northern Kentucky, and all reside from the Northern Kentucky, with Hubert from Burlington, Hamilton from Hebron, and Eaglin from Newport.

Returning Production

Of those returners, NKU keeps just 7.4% of its scoring, 11.1% of its minutes, 9.8% of its rebounds, and 8.1% of its assists from last year's team. Major losses include Horizon League all-league second team and all-freshman team selection Karina Bystry, who transferred to Butler, all-freshman team selection Maddie Moody, who transferred to Marshall, as well as Mya Meredith, Taysha Rushton, and Abby Wolterman to graduation. Other losses include Mia Jordan, who transferred to Florida Atlantic, Kylee Hunt, who transferred to UL-Monroe, Kamora Morgan, who transferred to Morehead State, Jamaya Thomas, now at Old Dominion, and Sam Lindhorst, now at McKendree.

Returning Staff

Heading into the third season of the Jeff Hans era, the Norse retain all members of their staff for the third consecutive season, including the transition of graduate assistant Nolan Kamer into a new role as video and analytics assistant.

First Game Takeaways

Northern Kentucky took on NAIA Defiance in its season opener on Monday, defeating the Yellowjackets 84-49. Major highlights included the performance of the Norse freshman backcourt, Gaia Castelli and Maya Layton. Layton led the Norse with 15 points while grabbing seven rebound with three steals and two assists, and made three three-pointers in her debut. Castelli went for 13 points, seven rebounds, and five assists, along with a pair of blocks. The Norse hit three first-quarter triples but struggled inside early. NKU pounded the paint the paint late, scoring 20 third-quarter points in the paint. NKU's bench had a big impact in the second half, as the Norse had 30 points off the bench over the final 20 minutes. Big contributors to those bench points were Caroline Eaglin and Alma Rashelbach, a pair of Norse returners who didn't see the floor much in 2025-26. Both set career highs in points, as Eaglin scored 14 in 13 minutes while Rashelbach had 10 in 16 minutes. Kennedy Younkin had eight points off the bench while Anna Hamilton had seven. It marked head coach Jeff Hans' first season-opening win as Northern Kentucky head coach.

Norse against the Best

Thursday will mark Northern Kentucky's first game against a ranked opponent since December 11, 2025 vs. #21 Ohio State, where the Norse lost 62-94. In 2025-26, the Norse took on a pair of ranked opponents, aslo facing off against Louisville on Nov. 9, where the Norse lost 89-61. The Norse had great first half showings in both contests, though, leading 43-38 at the half against Ohio State and trailing 30-27 at the break vs. Louisville. Overall against ranked opponents, Northern Kentucky is 1-12, earning a victory over #19 Green Bay on December 30, 2017. The Norse have taken on three top-five opponents, all Louisville, and five top-15 opponents, including Kentucky in 2014 & 2015. NKU's most recent game against a top-15 opponent came on January 1, 2021, a 74-64 loss at #2 Louisville. Thursday marks NKU's fourth contest against an SEC opponent, with all previous SEC contests against Kentucky. Against power conference opponents (ACC, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, SEC), the Norse hold a 2-19 record since joining NCAA Division I in 2012. Both power conference wins came against Marquette, with the most recent power conference win being an 83-78 victory over the Golden Eagles on November 21, 2015.

Bluegrass Battles

Since joining NCAA Division I in 2012, the Norse are 2-14 against their in-state rivals. The Norse take on five of the other seven NCAA Division I programs in Kentucky this season, including NKU's first Division I matchup vs. Morehead State.

History of the Horizon League

Founded on June 16, 1979, as the Midwestern City Conference with six charter members and a focus on basketball excellence, the League changed its name to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference in 1985 and added women's sports for the 1986-87 academic year. Charter members of the conference included Butler University, the University of Evansville, Loyola University Chicago, Oklahoma City University, Oral Roberts University and Xavier University.

Among current members, Detroit Mercy joined in 1980, and Cleveland State, Green Bay, Milwaukee and Wright State came aboard in 1994 (along with Northern Illinois University and UIC) in the largest non-merger conference expansion in history. Youngstown State joined in 2001, and Oakland in 2013. Northern Kentucky joined two years later in 2015 and IUPUI became a member in 2017. Purdue Fort Wayne and Robert Morris joined the League in 2020. NIU officially re-joined the League on July 1, 2026.

On June 4, 2001, the Horizon League unveiled its current name and ushered in a new dynamic direction that has brought the League closer to its stated goal of being one of the nation's top 10 collegiate athletic conferences with a focus on enhancing the student-athletes' experience by upgrading the League's market and competitive positions.

JEFF HANS
HEAD COACH

Norse Head Women's Basketball Coach Jeff Hans was hired to take the reigns of the storied program in April of 2024. Through two seasons with the Norse, Hans has posted a 26-38 record and a 20-20 record in Horizon League play. Overall, Hans has a 365-80 (.820) record in 15 seasons as a head coach with both Thomas More and Northern Kentucky

In 2025-26, the Norse posted its best Horizon League finish since the 2021-22 campaign, finishing fourth in the standings with a 12-8 conference record. Northern Kentucky began the season with a tough non-conference schedule, but earned wins over Toledo, Drake, and Southern Indiana through the first month of the season. After starting 0-3 in Horizon League play, the Norse turned things around with an 88-85 overtime road victory over Purdue Fort Wayne, then blowout home wins over IU Indy and Detroit Mercy, and then took down top teams Youngstown State and Robert Morris on the road to make it five-straight wins. Northern Kentucky defeated Milwaukee and Wright State to win seven in a row, NKU's longest winning streak since the 2021-22 season. Northern Kentucky closed the season with five wins in their final nine games, including the rare road win at Green Bay, which marks the second time the Norse had done so since joining the Horizon. A fourth-place league finish saw the Norse host IU Indy to open play in the Horizon League Championship, but Northern Kentucky dropped the game 74-72. The Norse placed a pair of players, Karina Bystry and Maddie Moody, on the Horizon League All-Freshman team, while Bystry also earned All-League Second Team honors.

In 2024-25, Northern Kentucky saw many milestone accomplishments at the hands of Hans. NKU picked up its first win of the season in dramatic fashion, downing Marshall 80-78 on November 10th. Coach Hans and the Norse won their first Horizon League game on January 4th against Milwaukee, which sparked a three-game winning streak. In a conference clash on February 12, NKU downed Cleveland State in its biggest win of the season as the Norse came back from a large fourth-quarter deficit to move into fourth place in the league. Also in 2024-25, the Norse had a remarkable year in the classroom, finishing 18th in the nation in the WBCA Academic Top 25 with a team GPA of 3.678.

Prior to joining the Norse, Hans was at the helm of the Thomas More women's basketball team, one of the most successful squads at any level of the sport. He guided the Saints to a 339-42 record overall (.889) to go with eight conference regular season championships, eight conference tournament titles, 11 national tournament berths, two NCAA Division III National Championships, one NAIA National Championship and two NAIA National Runner-Up performances. He also coached two National Players of the Year to go with being named National Coach of the Year himself three times in 2016, 2019 and 2022.

Hans makes his return to Highland Heights after he served as both an assistant coach (2008-11) and graduate assistant (2001-02) under legendary head coach Nancy Winstel for five years in total. During his most recent stint as an assistant with the Norse, he assisted in all areas of coaching, scouting and recruiting as NKU posted a record of 67-23 (.744) with one GLVC Tournament Championship and two NCAA Division II National Tournament appearances.

Prior to his time with the Norse, Hans spent four years at the high school level as the head coach at both Lexington Catholic and St. Henry, where he had a combined record of 89-34 (.724) with two district titles and two regional runner-up finishes.

Before his successful time at the high school ranks, Hans spent five years as an assistant coach at the college level. He was an assistant at NCAA Division I Indiana State University from 2002-2004, graduate assistant at NKU from 2001-2002 and an assistant at Wilmington College from 1999-2001.

Hans, a 1999 graduate from Wilmington College, was just named to the Northern Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame as part of their April 2024 class. To go with his Hall of Fame success as a head coach, he has helped his teams go a combined 168-67 (.714) in his eight years as an assistant at the collegiate level.

MOLLY BATEMAN
ASSISTANT COACH

Bateman joined the Norse in May of 2024 after a nearly three-year stint as the assistant women's basketball coach and recruiting coordinator at Xavier University. In two seasons with the Norse, Bateman has helped the Norse record a 26-38 record with a 20-20 record in Horizon League play, including a fourth-place finish in the league in 2025-26. At Xavier, Bateman started as the Musketeers assistant athletics director for women's basketball in 2020 and was then promoted to assistant coach in 2021 and assistant coach and recruiting coordinator in 2022. No stranger to the Horizon League, Bateman served as an assistant coach at Detroit Mercy from 2015-20, where she added the title of recruiting coordinator for her last two seasons on the Titans sideline. She assisted in coaching five student-athletes to All-Conference honors and saw the program establish two single-season school records during her time on the bench. Bateman helped the team advance to the Horizon League Championship game in 2017. She was also recognized as one of the top-30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches nationally with an appearance on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Thirty Under 30 in 2019. Prior to her time at Detroit, she also had previous coaching stops at Mount Union (2013-15) and Averett University (2011-13). The New Weston, Ohio native played at Defiance College from 2007-11, where she earned All-Conference honors as a senior. She holds a bachelor's degree in social work from Defiance College (2011) and a master's in business administration from Averett University (2013).

GABBY JOHNSON
ASSISTANT COACH

Gabby Johnson was hired as a Northern Kentucky Women's Basketball assistant coach in May 2024. Johnson makes her return to the NKU sidelines as an assistant coach with the program, a role she held under legendary coach Nancy Winstel in the early 2010's. In two seasons with the Norse, Johnson has helped the Norse record a 26-38 record with a 20-20 record in Horizon League play, including a fourth-place finish in the league in 2025-26. She made her way back to Highland Heights after spending the past two years as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at national power South Dakota. Prior to South Dakota, Johnson spent 20-20 record in Horizon League play, including three seasons at the Missouri Valley's Valparaiso and one year at the Big East's Butler. While at Valpo, she heped guide one of the nation's most impressive year-over-year turnarounds from 2019 to 2020. The Crusaders jumped 171 spots in the RPI, the largest leap by any NCAA Division I program that season. Johnson also brings head coaching experience with her to Highland Heights. She served six seasons as the head coach of Dominican University, an NCAA Division III program in Illinois. Previous assistant coaching stops from Johnson include Northern Kentucky and her alma mater, Thomas More College. She was on the bench for two-time National Coach of the Year Nancy Winstel's final two seasons at Northern Kentucky. Johnson graduated from Thomas More with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 2009. There she led the Saints to three-straight NCAA Division III Tournament appearances as a student-athlete, reaching the Sweet 16 her senior season. She graduated with the third-most career assists in program history.

BRENDEN STOWERS
ASSISTANT COACH

Brenden Stowers was hired as a Northern Kentucky University Women's Basketball assistant coach in May 2024. A former Northern Kentucky men's basketball standout, Stowers starred for the team in the early 2000's while serving as an assistant on the men's staff in the early 2010's. Stowers was inducted into the David Lee Holt NKU Athletics Hall of Hame in 2024. In two seasons with the Norse, Stowers has helped the Norse record a 26-38 record with a 20-20 record in Horizon League play, including a fourth-place finish in the league in 2025-26. Before being hired as an assistant coach with the NKU women's program, Stowers spent years as the head girls' basketball coach at Simon Kenton High School, where he most recently led the team to their sixth eighth region title and a spot in the Sweet 16. To go with his time leading the Kenton High School program, he had stops as a video coordinator at Xavier University for two years, an assistant men's coach at NKU for a year and spent a year as an assistant men's coach at Thomas More College. Stowers was also the assistant varsity girls coach at Simon Kenton from 2004-08.

Stowers graduated from Simon Kenton in 1999 and was a standout with the Norse from 1999-2003. In his senior season at NKU, he was named the Co-Player of the Year in the Great Lakes Valley Conference and a Second Team NCAA Division II All-America. Stowers led the Norse with 16.2 points per game in the 2002-03 campaign, and holds the program's all-time single-season free throw record with 187 in that same season.

LINDSAY DUVALL
DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Northern Kentucky women's basketball great Lindsey Duvall made her return to the NKU sidelines as the program's Director of Basketball Operations, a role she took over on Thursday, January 18, 2024. In her two full seasons as a coach with the Norse, Duvall has helped the Norse achieve a 26-38 record with a 20-20 record in Horizon League play, including a fourth-place finish in the league in 2025-26. Duvall is back in Truist Arena after she posted a standout career with the Norse. In just 79 career games, Duvall recorded 1,347 points, a mark that ranks 12th all-time in school history. Her average of 17.1 points per contest slots in at second in program history and she also is fourth overall in rebounding with an average of 8.2 rebounds per contest. The Mt. Washington, Kentucky native ranks seventh in made three's (130), 12th in free throws made (291), 16th in free throw percentage (.776) and 18th in career rebounds (650). She also holds the all-time school record with an average of 34.7 minutes played per game. Duvall led NKU in points for three straight years (2020-2023) and wrapped up her Norse career with an All-League First Team selection. To close out her senior season, she finished first in the Horizon League in points scored (457), third in scoring per game (16.9 points per contest) and seventh in rebounding (7.4 per game).To go with her success on the court, Duvall was a multi-time recipient of the Horizon League Honor Roll. She was also named the NKU Female Athlete of the Year to end her stellar career with the Norse. Prior to NKU, Duvall was a standout at Bullitt East High School in Mt. Washington where she was named Kentucky's Ms. Basketball her senior year.

#15 Caroline Eaglin

Guard | 5'9" | Sophomore

Newport, Ky. | Newport Central Catholic

PLAYER BIO

2025-26: Made eight appearances on the year, logging 19 minutes
Scored first career point and grabbed first career rebound vs. Ball State (11/12)
PRIOR TO NKU: The Norse add a local product in the 2025 class in Newport Central Catholic guard Caroline Eaglin, who has been making an impact on the Thoroughbreds' Girls Basketball team ever since her freshman year. As a freshman, Eaglin finished second on the team in scoring with 12 points per game and was a Division II All-Star Selection. In her sophomore campaign, Eaglin exploded as a scorer, more than doubling her freshman total with 24.8 points per game, with a season-high of 41 points. She crossed the 1,000-point club in her second season, and will surely hit 2,000 during her senior campaign, currently sitting at 1,807 career points. Her sophomore performance earned her a lot of recognition, including a pair of All-9th Region selections, three all-tournament team selections, and a Division II All-Conference Team selection. In 2023-24, Eaglin averaged 21.9 points, which was top 20 in the state, and also added 7.4 rebounds per game. She was selected to the Junior Class Kentucky-Indiana All-Star Game and was once again an All-9th Region selection by multiple associations, a Division II All-Conference Team selection, and multiple All-Tournament Team selections.

#25 Sofija Todorovic

Forward | 6'0" | Sophomore

Cacak, Serbia

Cloud County CC (25-26)

PLAYER BIO

PRIOR TO NKU: Todorović averaged 18.8 minutes over 30 games and 3 starts for the Cloud County Thunderbirds last season, posting 8.6 points, 4.4 rebounds, and 2.2 assists per game. Todorović shot 43.6% from the field and 10-30 on three-point attempts on the season while shooting 70-101 at the charity stripe. She dropped a career-best 25 points on 8-10 shooting in November, which was her best month of the season. Todorović recorded four-straight games of 16+ points in the opening month of the season, and recorded a pair of double-doubles and a 15-rebound game. She also dished out five assists on three occasions in the opening month, which marked a season-high. Overall, Todorović posted 12 games with double-digit scoring and three with double-digit rebounds in her freshman season. Sofija competed for Serbia's U20 team in FIBA EuroBasket 2025, appearing in six contests and averaging 3.4 points and 1.9 rebounds as the White Eagles finished as runner-ups in the tournament.
