NEED TO KNOW

- The two winningest teams in college basketball, Kentucky and Kansas, square off in the annual State Farm Champions Classic.
- Mason Williams was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Monday. He averaged 9.5 points and 5.0 assists in his first two collegiate games while shooting 57.1% from the field and 60.0% from 3-point range
- Milan Momcilovic got the season off to a good start, scoring 24 points in UK's season-opening win over Manhattan. Against James Madison, Zoom Diallo and Alex Wilkins shared scoring honors with 16 points each.
- Kentucky's 2026-27 roster features four players who averaged at least 15.0 points per game last season in Alex Wilkins, Milan Momcilovic, Zoom Diallo and Justin McBride. UK is one of just three power conference teams to have at least four players who averaged 15.0 or more points per game last season.
- Milan Momcilovic and Malachi Moreno have collected a multitude of preseason awards. Both players were preseason All-SEC selections by both the coaches and media. Momcilovic was on the watch list for the NABC Player of the Year, Naismith Plauer of the Year and the Julius Erving Award, while Moreno was named to the watch list for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year award.
- Kentucky's transfer class ranks No. 4 in the country according to 247Sports with Kentucky one of just four schools in the nation with three top-50 transfers (Diallo, Momcilovic, Wilkins). Head coach Mark Pope has brought in a top-five transfer class in all three offseasons with the Wildcats.
- UK was ranked No. 23 in the preseason AP Poll and Coaches Poll. The Cats are slated to play 11 regular-season games against teams in the preseason AP Top 25, tied with Arizona and Missouri for the most in the nation.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials are now open and the window to apply will close three days prior to game day online at sportssystems.com/Kentucky.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Communications and Public Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. Player interviews are conducted pregame weekly and will be available to all UK media. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability. Coach Mark Pope will meet with members of the media at least once a week in the Memorial Coliseum Media Room. Game-day shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The Communications and Public Relations office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Pope conducts his postgame press conference while a player speaks to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Pope's press conference, select UK players will be brought into the postgame area and take turns on the podium answering questions. Postgame news conferences this season at in the Concentric Champions Club.

- The deep and talented Jayhawks are led by the team's top 3-point shooter, Tre White, who is averaging 15.5 points per game. Keanu Dawes is pacing the rebounding with an 8.5 average.
- Kentucky leads the all-time series, 24-12, but the Jayhawks have claimed the last two meetings. Kentucky leads 8-4 in games played at neutral sites.
- Kentucky, with 2,446 wins, and Kansas, with 2,440 wins, have the most victories in college basketball history.

Depth Charge Dukes the Dukes

- Kentucky improved its record to 2-0 with an 89-80 win over James Madison on Friday.
- Tied at 56-56, Kentucky got consecutive 3-pointers from Alex Wilkins, Justin McBride and Ousmane N'Diaye and the Wildcats led the rest of the way.
- Wilkins and Zoom Diallo led the Wildcats with 16 points each.
- Kentucky's depth played a pivotal role, with Justin McBride (13 points), Mason Williams (12) and Braydon Hawthorne (10) coming off the bench to hit double figures. The UK reserves outscored the JMU reserves, 39-24.

Mason Williams Making Early Impression

- Freshman guard Mason Williams took home the first SEC Freshman of the Week honors of the season on Nov. 9
- Williams averaged 9.5 points and 5.0 assists over his first two collegiate games while shooting 57.1% from the field and 60.0% from 3-point range
- He played the final 13:52 of the James Madison game

One for the Win Column

- Kentucky opened the regular season with a 85-57 victory over Manhattan last Tuesday, marking the fifth-straight season in which the Wildcats have won their season opener
- UK improved to 103-21 all-time in season openers.
- Milan Momcilovic led all scorers with 24 points, the fifth-most points by a UK player in his first game at Kentucky.
- Momcilovic made six 3s on the night, tying Antonio Reeves for the most made triples by any player in their first game at Kentucky.

- Coach Mark Pope has won nine season openers in a row from his time at Utah Valley, BYU and Kentucky.
- Pope is the second head coach in Kentucky history to win each of his first three season openers by at least 26 points, joining Adolph Rupp.

"Length is our Strength"

- With six players standing 6 feet, 8 inches or taller -- including three 7-footers -- Coach Mark Pope often has said that "length is our strength" for the 2026-27 season.
- It might be considered surprising that the Wildcats have blocked only eight shots in the first two games, but there is a reason. Opponents have shot only 41.8 percent of their total shots (51 of 122) from two-point range. Foes have launced 71 of their 122 shots, 58.2 percent, on 3-pointers.

Preseason Awards

Kentucky's "M&M" combo of Malachi Moreno and Milan Momcilovic have each earned several noteable preseason recognitions. One of the most highly touted transfers of the offseason, Momcilovic was on the watch lists for both the National Association of Basketball Coaches Player of the Year, the Naismith College Player of the Year and the Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year award. He was also recognized as a preseason All-American by several outlets including CBS Sports and Sports Illustrated. Finally, Momcilovic was tabbed a Preseason All-SEC Second Team selection by both the league media and coaches. Entering his sophomore season, Moreno has drawn national attention as a breakout candidate in 2026-27. He was a Preseason All-SEC Third Team pick by the coaches and media and was one of 20 players on the Naismith Hall of Fame's Preseason Watch List for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award, given to the nation's best center.

Magical Malachi Returns

- While much attention has been paid to Kentucky's transfer class, the return of Malachi Moreno is not to be overlooked when it comes to the team's outlook this season. After testing the NBA draft waters, the 7-footer opted to return to Lexington, where he figures to be a crucial piece for the Wildcats. A list of highlights from Moreno's freshman campaign is below.
- A native of Georgetown, Kentucky, Moreno lived out every young kid's dream who grows up wanting to play for the instate Wildcats. With 1.9 seconds remaining and UK trailing by one point at LSU, Moreno caught a three-quarter-court pass from Collin Chandler and swiftly turned and drained a 17-foot buzzer beater to lift Kentucky to a 75-74 win. Kentucky overcame an 18-point second-half deficit and tied a program record by overcoming a 16-point halftime deficit in the victory. Moreno had 10 points and a team-high eight rebounds in the win, and played the final 8:56 of the game with four fouls.
- He followed that performance with three points, four rebounds and a career-high-tying four blocks in the rally at Tennessee. His fourth block was the game-clinching play as Tennessee hauled in an offensive rebound off of an intentional missed free throw for the potential game-winning bucket.
- Moreno scored 17 points and added eight rebounds, six assists and four steals in a statement performance against Mississippi State. He became the first 7-footer in Division I with those numbers since at least 1996-97 and just the third Kentucky player, joining Rajon Rondo and Shai Gilgeous-Alexander.
- Moreno had eight points, six assists, five blocks and four rebounds in the win over Texas. He's the first Wildcat to have that stat line since Nerlens Noel in 2013.
- He scored all 11 of his points in the second half at Arkansas and was a team best +16 while on the floor

The Wildcats are 54-3 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

His Utah Valley squad held a 34-22 lead at halftime on Nov. 10, 2017, but ultimately UK would win 73-63 behind 13 points, four assists and four steals from future NBA All-Star Shai Gilgeous-Alexander.

HEAD COACH MARK POPE

Mark Pope, a captain of the University of Kentucky's 1996 National Championship team, returned to Lexington as the 23rd head coach of Kentucky's storied men's basketball program in April of 2024.

In 12 seasons as head coach, with stops at BYU and Utah Valley before coming to Kentucky, Pope has amassed a career record of 235-134. His squads have won 20 or more games in eight of the last nine seasons and he advanced to the Sweet 16 of the 2025 NCAA Tournament, his first at the helm of the Wildcats.

Kentucky went 24-12 overall in his inaugural season at his alma mater. Included in those victories were eight against Associated Press Top 15 opponents, tying Indiana (1992-93) and Duke (1978-79) for the most in a single season in collegiate basketball history. Five of the eight wins were against top 10 foes, setting a new program record. The Cats themselves ranked inside of the AP Top 25 for the duration of the season and finished the year ranking No. 12 overall.

With a win over No. 6 Florida on Jan. 4, Pope joined Adolph Rupp as the only coaches in program history to win each of their first three matchups vs. AP Top 10 teams.

He did it in dramatic fashion as well. Pope and his squad overcame a 16-point halftime deficit to outlast No. 7 Gonzaga on Dec. 7, 2024. It matched the largest halftime hole overcome in program history. Making the wins over AP opponents even more impressive, the squad captured only one win over a top 15 team at full strength as the season was plagued with injuries. That victory was a stunning come-from-behind victory over No. 6 Duke in the third game of the season.

The Wildcats downed Troy and Illinois to reach the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. They became the first team in more than 20 years with zero returning points from the previous season to reach at least the second weekend of the tournament.

Kentucky finished the season ranking in the top 10 in KenPom offensive efficiency, it ranked seventh in the nation in points per game and set a program record with 341 made 3s. Furthermore, six players averaged double-digit scoring for the first time in school history.

To cap off a historic season, the Cats had two players (Koby Brea and Amari Williams) hear their names called in the 2025 NBA Draft. Brea went No. 41 overall to the Phoenix Suns, while Williams ended up with the Celtics. Lamont Butler, Andrew Carr and Jaxson Robinson all signed free-agent deals with NBA squads.

Kentucky went 22-14 in year two with an appearance in the NCAA Tournament's second round. UK played the majority of the season with a depleted roster due to injuries, and still managed to be one of five teams in the country with five or more wins over KenPom top 20 teams and just one loss against a team ranked 40 or lower. Kentucky was terrific in high-pressure contests, going 7-3 in games decided by two possessions or fewer, and the Cats earned five wins over AP Top 25 teams, including road wins at Tennessee and at Arkansas.

Otega Oweh became the program's all-time leading scorer in a player's first two seasons with 1,255 career points. He also was an All-SEC Second Team honoree for the second season in a row.

Pope returned to UK from Provo, Utah, where he compiled a 110-52 record (.679) during five campaigns at the helm of BYU. He took the Cougars to three postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament, and missed another bid when the 2020 event was canceled because of the Covid pandemic. Three of his five BYU teams finished the season ranked in the top 20 of the KenPom efficiency ratings.

Pope went 23-11 in 2023-24. It was BYU's first season in the Big 12 Conference and the Cougars' 10-8 league record featured victories over No. 7 Kansas, No. 11 Baylor and No. 24 Iowa State. BYU's first win in the Big 12, on January 13 at Central Florida, also marked Pope's 100th victory as head coach of the Cougars.

The Cougars ranked third in the country with 11.1 made 3-pointers per game in 2023-24, and also ranked in the top 10 in assists per game (3rd) and assist-to-turnover ratio (6th). BYU led the Big 12 in scoring at 81.4 points per game. They were ranked as high as No. 12 in the AP Poll after going 12-1 in nonconference action, winning the Vegas Showdown, BYU's first multi-team event title since 2011. Pope was named to the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year Late Season Watch List for his efforts.

Pope's teams also hit the postseason in 2020-21, finishing with a 20-7 mark and making BYU's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2015. The Cougars were 24-11 in 2021-22 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the National Invitation Tournament. The Cougars captured win No. 60 under Pope in January of '22, making him the fastest BYU coach to achieve the mark.

Pope began his head coaching stint at BYU in the 2019-20 season, tallying a 24-8 record, the most wins for a first-year coach in program history. He finished the season ranked No. 18 in the Associated Press poll and No. 16 in the USA Today/Coaches poll, becoming the first head coach at BYU to conclude the season with a national ranking in his first season. The Cougars finished second in the West Coast Conference with a 13-3 record. The Cougars also toppled No. 2-ranked Gonzaga, earning their best win over a ranked opponent inside their home venue in program history. The COVID pandemic prevented an almost-certain bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Pope's Cougars were statistically among the top offenses in the nation in '19-20. The Cougars finished the season ranked first in 3-point field goal percentage, second in assist-to-turnover ratio, third in field-goal percentage, fourth in 3-point field goals per game and fifth in assists per game.

Following his first season with the Cougars, Matt Norlander of CBS tabbed Pope as the best hire of the year. He was also awarded with the United States Basketball Writers Association District VIII Coach of the Year honor. He was a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year.

Pope's first head coaching stint was a four-year term at Utah Valley. Beginning in 2015-16, the Wolverines increased their win total during every season of Pope's tenure, culminating in a 25-10 overall mark and a runner-up finish in the Western Athletic Conference in 2018-19. Utah Valley was 30-2 at home from 2017-19, and the 25 wins in 2019 were a single-season school record.

He began his collegiate playing career at the University of Washington, where he was tabbed the 1992 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. After his sophomore season, he transferred to Kentucky, where he appeared in every game of his two-year career with the Wildcats. UK won the 1995 and '96 regular-season Southeastern Conference championships, the '95 SEC Tournament title and the 1996 NCAA Tournament. He averaged 7.9 points and 5.7 rebounds per game in 69 career games. Pope was named to the All-SEC Tournament Team in 1995, behind a pair of double-doubles in three games, including one in the title game that went to overtime.

Pope was selected in the second round of the 1996 NBA Draft by the Indiana Pacers. He played professional basketball from 1997-2005, including terms with Indiana, Milwaukee Bucks, New York Knicks and Denver Nuggets. In 2000-01, he started 45 games and helped the Bucks reach the Eastern Conference Finals.

Following his playing days, Pope enrolled in medical school at Columbia University and completed two years before returning to basketball. He joined Mark Fox's staff at Georgia in 2009. He then spent one season as an assistant coach for Jeff Bzdelik at Wake Forest and four seasons at BYU under Dave Rose. The Cougars posted four straight 20-win seasons and advanced to postseason play in each of those four years, including three bids to the NCAA Tournament. His success as an assistant at BYU was the springboard to become head coach at Utah Valley.

Pope and his wife, Lee Anne, have four daughters, Ella, Avery, Layla and Shay. He is a 1996 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in English.
