Series: Kentucky leads 2-0 Last Meeting: Kentucky won 65-62 on March 19, 2017 in Indianapolis, Ind. (NCAA Tournament Second Round)
Mark Pope: 3rd Season at UK (50-28), 12th Overall (237-136) // Paul Mills: 4th Season at WSU (64-47), 10th Overall (170-131)

- Wichita State takes its five-game win streak on the road for a Black Friday showdown at Kentucky.
- Wichita State ranks 6th nationally in 3-point percentage and 31st in 3-point defense.
- Over the last five games, Wichita State has made 55 three-pointers (55-for-121) at a 45.5 percent clip.
- William Berg set career highs in points (26) and rebounds (16) in the season opener vs. CSUN, marking his 10th career double-double. Two weeks later, he would set a new career high with 27 points in a road win at Loyola Chicago.
- At Loyola Chicago, Berg posted an insane stat line of 27 points and 9 rebounds on 8-of-10 FG and 10-of-10 FT. He is one of only four players in the NCAA over the last 16 seasons to post a 27-9 game on 80% FG Pct. and 100% FT Pct.
- Berg became the first Shocker to record a double-double in the first two games of a season since Carl Hall in 2012.
- Berg is one of only two DI players in the country averaging 19.0 PPG and 11.5 RPG. He ranks 3rd nationally in ORPG, 4th in RPG and 6th in double-doubles
- Jordan Frison ranks 2nd nationally in assist rate. He has 5+ assists in every game but one this season.
- Dillon Battie posted his first double-double of the season on a career-high 27 points and 11 rebounds vs. Austin Peay.
- After being outrebounded in the season opener vs. CSUN, Wichita State has won the battle of the boards by 89 over its last six games - good for an average margin of +14.8 per game.
- Four different Shockers have recorded 20 or more points in a game this season (William Berg, Dillon Battie, Jahari Long and Kenyon Giles).
- Giles needs 13 more points to reach 2,000 for his NCAA career. He would be the fifth active player in DI to reach the milestone.
- Wichita State is coming off an offensive onslaught in a 113-60 win over Friends on Nov. 11. The Shockers set school records for made 3-pointers (17), field goals made in the shot clock era (41), field goal percentage (69.5%) and 3-point percentage on a min. of 10 made 3s (68.0%).
- Wichita State posted its first 20-win season since 2019-20. The 24 wins were the most since 2018 when they won 25.
- Mills recorded 58 wins through his first three seasons at Wichita State, second most in school history. His 58 victories trailed only Eddie Fogler's 61 for the most in a WSU coach's first three years on the bench.
- Wichita State returns 12 letterwinners and 75.5 percent of its scoring from the 2025-26 roster, by far the most in the American Conference.
- Wichita State is one of just two (Hawaii) known schools without a single true freshman or '26 high school graduate on its roster this season.
- Wichita State's roster has student-athletes from six different countries (including U.S.), tied for 7th most in the country.
- The Shockers are the preseason favorites to win the American Conference in 2026-27, according to the league's coaches. Wichita State received 9 first place votes in the preseason coaches poll. It marks the first time in Wichita State's 10 years in the American being picked preseason No. 1.
- Wichita State also led the league with three selections on the preseason all-conference teams. Berg was named to the first team, while Battie and Frison earned second team honors.

KG's Return Looks More Real

While Wichita State coach Paul Mills recognizes the uncertainty, he is at a spot where he can seriously discuss Kenyon Giles as a part of his basketball team.

"If he's able to play . . . I think he would be conference player of the year, projected," Mills said. "He wanted to be a part of the city of Wichita. He wanted to be a part of what we consider a restoration process, getting Wichita State back in the top 25."

Mills emphasized the unprecedented and uncertain circumstances with Giles, a 5-foot-10 guard who helped rejuvenate Wichita State basketball with his scoring flair last season. The Shockers, 24-12 and NIT quarterfinalists in 2025-26, had their first full team practice on Wednesday.

On Wednesday, Giles' potential return to uniform moved in the right direction when a preliminary injunction in Indiana stopped the NCAA from barring Giles and others from competing in 2026-27.

Giles and the other plaintiffs seek a fifth year of eligibility, a tenure that will become standard under new NCAA age-based eligibility rules going forward. The NCAA does not want high school athletes from the class of 2022 included in the new eligibility rules.

Mills said legal proceedings could delay a final decision into January. Giles is in school, practicing and eligible to play at this moment.

"It's just been a really weird summer," Mills said. "You're talking to attorneys more than you're talking to coaches. This is a long process."

While Giles' status remains uncertain, his return has been a possibility since June. That gave Mills and coaches time to plan and time to gauge the reaction of teammates to his addition to the roster. Giles, Mills said, declined professional options such as the NBA Summer League.

"I can tell you that, overwhelmingly, he was welcomed back," Mills said. "I called (players) and said, 'Give me your thoughts.'"

Last season's offense that relied heavily on Giles will look different, with more Shockers capable of scoring and helping teammates score. Giles averaged 19.1 points last season and made a school-record 125 three-pointers (331 attempts) on his way to all-conference honors in what appeared to be his senior season.

Mills expects the 2026-27 Shockers to feature more scorers and lessen the load on Giles. Newcomers Jordan Frison and Jahari Long will play with him in the backcourt. Both averaged double figures at their previous stops and both are good passers.

Guard Michael Gray Jr., returns, although he also must be granted another year of eligibility by the NCAA. Mills said WSU feels positive about his case, which centers on injuries that cut previous seasons short.

Mills recruited Frison and Long to use their passing skills to highlight frontcourt players such as center Will Berg and forwards Dillon Battie and T.J. Williams. A year ago, all three were developing athletes and Giles often needed to be the focus of the offense.

Giles rejoins a team with a stronger offensive profile, thanks to the newcomers and more options in the frontcourt. Mills called his plans organic, instead of running sets designed for one player. Giles' deep shooting range should open space for the big men in the lane and for guards to drive.

"It's going to be different," Mills said. "We're going to be way more skilled. KG will be a part of the offense. I don't know we will have to rely on his usage as much as we did a year ago."

Giles, at this point, is fun to think about and a scary proposition for opposing coaches. However, as Mills made clear, more legal obstacles likely await.

» Momcilovic (second team) and Malachi Moreno (three team) received preseason SEC All-Conference honors.

» Momcilovic, a transfer from Iowa State, led the nation in three-pointers (136) and three-point percentage (48.7 percent) a season ago. Through the first six games, Momcilovic leads Kentucky in scoring at 15.0 points per game on 49.2 percent shooting and 42.2 percent from beyond the arc.

March 23, 2014 (St. Louis) | UK 78, WSU 76

» Wichita State carried a perfect record into the NCAA Tournament, and earned a No. 1 seed. Following a first round win, Wichita State and No. 8 Kentucky faced off in an instant classic. The Wildcats ultimately escaped with a 78-76 win in a game that featured threes ties and 14 lead changes.

» The 2014 Shockers were the first team to take an unbeaten record into an NCAA Tournament since 1991 UNLV. A first round win over No. 16 Cal Poly made them the first team in NCAA history to reach 35-0.

» Cleanthony Early had a game for the ages, pouring in a game-high 31 points on 12-of-17 field goals and 4-of-6 three-pointers, while grabbing 7 rebounds. Early and Ron Baker (20) combined for 51 of Wichita State's 76 points.

» Four Wildcats reached double figures, led by Andrew and Aaron Harrison's 20 and 19, respectively. Julius Randle added a double-double of 13 points, 10 rebounds and 6 assists.

» Fred VanVleet's three-point attempt with 1.0 second on the clock came up short, ending Wichita State's perfect season at 35-1. That win propelled Kentucky's run to the title game before falling to UConn.

» Eight players from both teams went on to appear on NBA regular season rosters (5 Kentucky, 3 Wichita State).

March 19, 2017 (Indianapolis) | UK 65, WSU 62

» Wichita State's own first round draft pick, Landry Shamet, shined on the big stage. He led all scorers with 20 points.

» Wichita State's defense held the potent Kentucky offense in check over the first 20 minutes, as they converted just 10-of-30 field goal attempts. The Wildcats were much more efficient after halftime, shooting 52 percent from the field, while getting to the free throw line 10 times after just two free throw attempts in the first half.

Since 2018 only 10 7-footers in all of NCAA DI have gone 10-for-10 or better at the free throw line, including Berg now. Hawaii's Isaac Johnson is the most recent to do it on Feb. 20, 2026. Berg's former teammate at Purdue, Zach Edey did it twice.
» Memphis' Aaron Bradshaw went 10-for-10 last season, almost a year to the date as Berg. They are the only two 7-footers from the American Conference to accomplish the feat at the line.

» Wichita State's 72 made three-pointers are the most through the first seven games of a season in program history.
» Six different Shockers have made 5 or more three-pointers: Michael Gray Jr. (15), Kenyon Giles (14), Jahari Long (11), Bryce Heard (8), Dillon Battie (7), Joy Ighovodja (6) and William Berg (5).

» He made a three-pointer in five of the first six games he played this season until Texas A&M Corpus Christi when he went 0-for-2.
» His improvement at the free throw line has also been evident after the first month of the season. Battie was just a 61.4 percent (62-for-101) free throw shooter as a sophomore. This season he's made 15 of his first 17 attempts (88.2 percent).

BERG'S BIG NIGHT

» William Berg had a night for the history books in Wichita State's season-opening win over CSUN on Nov. 4. The 7-foot-2 big man logged 26 points and 16 rebounds on 11-of-16 shooting - all of which were career highs. The double-double was his first of the season and 10th of his career.
» Berg is the first Shocker to record at least 25 points and 15 rebounds in a game in the last 34 seasons. The last Shocker to produce a 25-15 game was Jamie Arnold vs. Creighton on Jan. 24, 1994 when he had 25 and 17.
» The last Shocker to have at least 20 points and 10 rebounds in a season opener? The one and only Xavier McDaniel vs. Lamar on Nov. 24, 1984.
» Berg was one of only two players in the country to post a 25-15 game during the opening week of the season, joining Buffalo's Antoine Lorick III. Lorick had 28 points and 15 rebounds, but played 37 minutes compared to Berg playing just 28.

DISHIN' DIMES

» Jordan Frison ranks 14th in assists (46) and 23rd nationally in assists per game (6.6). He's had 5 or more assists in every game but one this season, including a season-high 9 vs. Austin Peay on Nov. 14.

Through the first seven games this season Berg is averaging 19.0 points and 11.8 rebounds on 67.7 percent shooting.

HOW MANY TURNOVERS?

» In Wichita State's win at Loyola Chicago, the Shockers committed a season-high 21 turnovers, but still managed to leave with a win, something a Wichita State team has done only one other time since 2023.
» Since 2011, Wichita State has had only 12 games with 20+ turnovers, but they are just 4-8 in those games after the Loyola Chicago win.
» Under Paul Mills, Wichita State has had four games with 20 or more turnovers. They are 2-2 in those games.

THROW THE BALL UP

» Through seven games William Berg is 4-2 to start the season on opening tips, and while that might not seem that impressive, it's already more than he won all of last season. He was 1-9 on jump balls in 2025-26. In limited opportunities at Purdue, Berg was 4-1.
» For his career, Berg is 8-12 on jump ball opportunities, which ranks him 323rd nationally among active players.

RARE OCCURRENCE

» Kenyon Giles was held scoreless in Wichita State's win over Austin Peay on Nov. 14. It marked the first time the 5-10 guard hasn't scored a single point in a game since he was a freshman at Radford on March 21, 2023. In 138 career games, Giles has been held scoreless only three times - two of those coming at Radford as a freshman in 2022-23.

~~KG1~~ --> KG3

» Wichita State's single season 3-point record holder, Kenyon Giles, is back in the fold for the Shockers after being granted a 5th year due to a TRO.
» Giles put himself on several program single season Top 10 lists: points (689, 3rd), 20-point games (18, t-2nd), made field goals (250, 4th), field goal attempts (610, 2nd), 3-point field goals made (125, 1st), 3-point field goal attempts (331, 1st) and minutes played (1,302, 1st).
» Dating back to last season, Giles had made a 3-pointer in 21 consecutive games - tied for 7th longest in program history, until it was snapped vs. Austin Peay on Nov. 14.
» Nationally, Giles led the country in field goal attempts (610), ranked 2nd in 3-point attempts (331), 5th in 3-pointers made (125) and 8th in 3-pointers made per game (3.47).
» He needs 233 points to reach 1,000 as a Shocker. Giles is trying to become the 50th Shocker in program history to reach 1,000 career points.
» Giles is currently 15th on the career 3-point list and needs 20 to enter the top 10. He's on pace to shatter the school record to become the fastest to 150 career made 3-pointers.

» Bryce Heard scored a season-high 16 points - 12 of them before halftime. It was his second game with 10 or more points this season.

ALL ABOUT THOSE SECOND CHANCES

» Dating back to last season, Wichita State had pulled down 10+ offensive rebounds in 35 consecutive games, its longest streak in at least the last 30 seasons until it was snapped on Nov. 21 vs. New Mexico. The Shockers finished the game with just nine offensive rebounds in the dominant win.
» Wichita State's 35 straight games with double digit offensive rebounds was also the longest active streak in the nation.

THE ONE WHERE WE BROKE RECORDS

» Records were smashed in Wichita State's dominant 113-60 win over Friends on Nov. 11.
» Wichita State made 41-of-59 field goals (69.5%), smashing the school record of 66.7% set against Austin Peay in 1987. The Shockers converted 17-of-25 (68.0%) three-pointers, breaking the previous record of 16 set last year vs. Loyola Chicago. The 68.0% also set a record for highest 3-point percentage on at least 10 made 3-pointers. The 41 made field goals also tied the most by a Shocker team in the shot-clock era, while the 113 points ranked 10th in program history.
» Nine of those 17 made 3-pointers came in the 1st half, tying for the 2nd most in a single half.
» The 53-point win tied for the 4th largest in school history.
» Wichita State scored 61 first half points, marking the 16th 60-point half in school history. The Shockers' 33-point lead at halftime was the 5th largest all time.
» Fifty-six (56) of Wichita State's 113 points came from its bench, tied for the 5th most in a single game.
» Wichita State was +30 on the glass, tied for the 6th largest rebound margin in school history.
» Wichita State has topped the 100-point mark three times under Paul Mills and 65 times in program history. The 113 points are the most in a game since 2016 when WSU put up 116 vs. Maryland Eastern Shore.

NON-CON NOTES

» Wichita State has posted a winning non-conference record in 28 consecutive seasons entering the 2026-27 campaign.
» This year's non-con slate has four teams that finished inside the Top 80 of the NET rankings in 2025-26: Kentucky (No. 28), New Mexico (No. 46), Boise State (No. 60) and USC (No. 77).
» Three of the 13 games are against first-time foes. The Shockers have never faced Cameron, Southeast Missouri State or Texas A&M Corpus Christi.
» The Shockers face New Mexico, the preseason Mountain West favorite and two teams picked second in their respective leagues: Austin Peay in the United Conference and Southeast Missouri State, in the Ohio Valley Conference.
» New Mexico and Austin Peay also have their respective preseason conference players of the year.

PURE JOY

» Joy Ighovodja erupted for a career-high 19 points vs. Friends on Nov. 11. Prior to the game, he had made 4 total 3-pointers over the first two-plus seasons of his career. He proceeded to go 5-for-5 from long range, and 7-for-7 overall from the field. He's just the 13th Shocker in program history to finish a game 7-for-7 or better. His 5-for-5 marksmanship from 3-point range tied for the 2nd best 3-point percentage on at least 4 3FGM. The school record is 6-for-6 shared by three Shockers.

PICKING UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF

» Kenyon Giles wasted little time getting back into the groove as a Shocker. He scored 16 of his 21 points in the season opener vs. CSUN before halftime, including a trio of trademark three-pointers. To go with his 21 points, he added a career-high 8 assists. He's the first Shocker to post 20 points and 8 assists in a game since Craig Porter Jr. on March 10, 2023.

Texas A&M's PJ Haggerty, Mississippi State's Josh Hubbard, TCU's Robbie Avila and St. John's Keyshawn Hall are currently the only active players over 2,000 career points, but Giles is on the hunt to reach the milestone next. PROTECT THE ROCK

» Wichita State has now produced two of the lowest turnover games in program history in the last two years. Last year the Shockers tied the lowest mark vs. Loyola Chicago with only 2 turnovers.

» Wichita State fans thought they had seen the last of Emmanuel Okorafor in a Shocker uniform last March. But, with the unfortunate news of Noah Hill being sidelined for the 2026-27 season with a foot injury, a roster spot opened up the day before the season officially began.
» Needing frontcourt depth with Hill out for the season, Paul Mills didn't have to search far for reinforcements. Okorafor had been individually working out in Wichita, while taking classes at WSU to finish his degree. Okorafor is also involved in one of the 5-for-5 lawsuits against the NCAA, meaning he is currently eligible to play another season of college basketball. Okorafor gladly accepted Mills offer to rejoin the team for one more season in the Black & Yellow.
» Okorafor brings a wealth of knowledge, especially in a Shocker uniform, having played in all 36 games last year.

Under Paul Mills, Wichita State has now won three conference road games in a row in consecutive seasons. The last Shocker coach to do that was Gregg Marshall in 2018 and 2019.

MAKING THEMSELVES AT HOME

» Wichita State will play a school record 19 regular season home dates in Charles Koch Arena in 2026-27 (does not include INTRUST Bank Arena games or postseason).
» Wichita State's longest homestand is just four straight from Dec. 14-31 to close out the non-con schedule.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF DOUBLE-DOUBLE

» William Berg is known for his double-doubles on the court, but his contributions off the court and in the community are just as important. The Stockholm, Sweden native continues to make a meaningful impact in the Wichita community, recently purchasing and donating 60 pairs of shoes and more than 30 t-shirts to the Wichita Children's Home.
» The donation is another example of Berg's commitment to supporting the Wichita community and making a difference in the lives of local children. The shoes and t-shirts will provide additional resources and essentials for children served by the Wichita Children's Home.
» "To be able to help these kids fit in more is a blessing," Berg said. "I know how it feels being looked at differently and I do not want these kids to feel that way when they want to play basketball. They do need all the support they can get and if that is through some clothes and shoes, so they fit in better when they want to do something fun, it makes me happy to help them with that."
» Berg's latest contribution builds on his previous generosity toward the organization. He has also purchased and donated 10 season tickets to the Wichita Children's Home, providing opportunities for children and families to attend Wichita State men's basketball games and experience Shocker Athletics firsthand.
» Through his continued generosity, Berg is helping create meaningful experiences and provide valuable resources for children in the Wichita community.
» "Every day, I meet children who are carrying more than any child should have to carry," said Wichita Children's Home CEO Debbie Kennedy. "That is why moments like this mean so much. We are deeply grateful to William Berg, the Wichita State men's basketball team and their coaches for this extraordinary act of kindness. What stands out to me is not only the generosity of this gift, but the heart behind it. William's kindness and compassion are evident in the way he has chosen to care for our children. While the shoes, t-shirts and season tickets will bring excitement, what touches me most is the opportunity for our children to create joyful memories and feel connected to something bigger than themselves. By coming to WCH and sharing this experience in person, William, his teammates and their coaches are giving our children something that cannot be purchased: the reassurance that they matter, that they belong and that others believe in them.The lasting impact of this gift is not simply what our children receive, but what they will carry with them: the knowledge that an entire basketball team chose to invest in them, encourage them and cheer them on. That sense of belonging is a gift that will stay with our children long after the season's final buzzer sounds."

HILL TO MISS 2026-27 SEASON

» Head coach Paul Mills announced on Nov. 3 that sophomore Noah Hill will be sidelined for the season after sustaining a season-ending foot injury.

» A native of Frisco, Texas, Hill was working towards a larger role as a sophomore after appearing in 23 games as a true freshman. Hill will remain with the team and continue rehabbing daily to be ready for the start of the 2027-28 season.

COUISNARD SIDELINED FOR SEASON

» Paul Mills announced on Oct. 27 that redshirt freshman Pierre Couisnard will miss the entire 2026-27 season after undergoing microfracture knee surgery in late-August.

» Couisnard has not appeared in a game as a Shocker after redshirting the 2025-26 season. Couisnard will remain with the team and continue rehabbing daily to be ready for the start of the 2027-28 season.

BIG MAN. BIGGER HEART

» In an inspiring show of community investment and support for local youth, Wichita State senior center William Berg purchased 10 season tickets for the 2026-27 Wichita State Men's Basketball season and donated them to the Wichita Children's Home. These tickets will allow several children to experience the excitement of Shocker basketball in Charles Koch Arena throughout the 2026-27 season.

» "I wanted to give back to the community and show my appreciation," Berg said. "I know how hard it can be as a kid facing adversity and I want to help them any way I can. If I can give them a few memories that they'll remember forever, that's a win. It doesn't require much to make a real lasting impact on these kids. Big or small, all gestures help and I know the Wichita community has a lot of love to share as I have experienced it myself."

» The Wichita Children's Home joins the list of non-profit organizations that provided more than 450 women's basketball tickets and more than 3,300 men's basketball tickets during the 2025-26 season, thanks to the generous contributions of Shane and Kianne Prill, Rick and Barbara Hemphill, Tony and Sherl Weatherbee, Tom and Myra Devlin, and Kirsten and Larry Teague who each donated tickets – all of whom have signed on to contribute once again in 2026-27. David Jabara, Marc Farha and Lisa Hambelton, on behalf of Mel Hambelton Ford, contributed to cover additional associated costs to enhance the experience for all attendees and are back on board for the 2026-27 season as well.

» Joining Berg in the community tickets initiative in 2026-27 is Star Lumber & Supply, as well as another anonymous donor who has committed tickets allowing Wichita State Athletics to further expand offerings to the current recipients list.

JUST A COUPLE OF COOL CATS

» The story of Dillon Battie and a cat named Dillon goes something like this... Maddox Topliff, a WSU sophomore, runs a Shocker basketball fan account on X. Last spring, there was one player he especially wanted to see back with the Shockers - Battie. Battie had caught his attention during his first season with the Shockers, not only because of how he played but because of the personality Topliff had seen in Battie's YouTube vlogs. So as another offseason of roster construtcion began, Topliff devised a recruiting pitch. If Battie returned to Wichita State, Topliff would get a cat and name it after him. He posted the offer several times on X before members of the team caught wind of it, including Battie. On March 30 and Topliff's eighth day of recruiting Battie back, Battie announced his return to Wichita State.

» Topliff followed through on his promise. He and his fiancee found a black kitten through Deer Creek Veterinary in his hometown of Wamego, and properly named him Dillon. Little Dillon was introduced to Shocker Nation during the summer, igniting a soon-to-be friendship between a pair of Dillons.

» Battie even purchased a collar for the cat before they had even met. He picked out a yellow collar with a silver buckle and had it customized for Little Dillon. Engraved into the buckle was "DB," with "Shockers #8" underneath. Finally on Aug. 31 Big Dillon and Little Dillon were formally introduced to each other.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

» Six of Wichita State's 17 players on the roster this season hail from international countries. The six international Shockers are the most on a single roster in WSU history.

» William Berg (Sweden), Joy Ighovodja (Nigeria), Cyr Malonga (Congo), Emmanuel Okorafor (Nigeria), Tyrus Rathan-Mayes (Canada) and Jaret Valencia (Colombia) are the foreign Shockers on the team. Berg is the second Swede to wear the Black & Yellow, joining former Shocker Kenny Pohto. Valencia is only the second Colombian to play at Wichita State, along with former Shocker Jaime Echenique. Rathan-Mayes is the fifth different Shocker from Canada, the most of any international country. Three Nigerians have suited up for the Shockers, including Ighovodja. Malonga is the first native of Congo to play at Wichita State.

PATCH IT UP

» Wichita State University's National Institute for Aviation Research (NIAR) and Wichita State Athletics are two of the city's most recognizable institutions. This season, their longtime partnership elevates in prominence with Shocker Athletics' recognition of NIAR's impact through a jersey patch for all Wichita State sports. It is the first jersey patch recognition for WSU Athletics & symbolizes NIAR's contributions to the university and city.

» "The NIAR jersey patch is much more than exposure," Director of Athletics Kevin Saal said. "It showcases our university's mission and a vital campus partner of Wichita State Athletics. It highlights NIAR's deep connections to research in the aviation industry, the United States military and defense agencies and the Kansas economy. The jersey patch honors NIAR's critical role on our campus and in our community, as well as its past, present and future support of Wichita State Athletics."

» WSU fans will see jersey patches displayed on all Shocker Athletics sports team jerseys beginning no later than November 1, 2026. NIAR's distinctive logo, in black and yellow, was adopted in 2013 and features the NIAR acronym accented by its signature airfoil.

» "Shocker Athletics embodies the innovation, determination and community spirit that define Wichita State," said John Tomblin, WSU executive vice president for Research and Industry and Defense Programs and NIAR executive director. "NIAR is proud to stand alongside our student-athletes through this elevated partnership. The jersey patch is a visible reminder of how our two organizations work together to strengthen the university, support the city we love, and showcase Wichita's leadership in aviation and research."

» Established at WSU in 1985, NIAR's mission is to strengthen university research capabilities; provide applied learning opportunities for students; and support the aviation and manufacturing industries while driving innovation and prosperity for the community, region and state. NIAR provides research, design, testing, certification and training to the aviation, defense and manufacturing industries. With yearly research and development expenditures topping $400 million and more than 2,000 employees, NIAR is the largest university aerospace R&D institution in the nation.

» The partnership follows a recent change to NCAA Division I rules allowing schools to place additional logos on uniforms, apparel, and equipment. The NCAA Division I Cabinet approved the change in January, with the new policy taking effect Aug. 1, 2026.

MILLS SIGNS HOUSTON GUARD IN CLASS OF 2027

OF MICS AND MEN

» Home radio color commentator Dave Dahl, is in his 46th year calling games for the Shockers. Dahl, a three-year varsity letterman at WSU from 1968-71, missed the 2011-12 season during a successful campaign for district court judge, but has otherwise been in place since 1980-81.

» Wichita State's Charles Koch Arena, is often referred to as "the Roundhouse" for its unique circular shape. The building opened in December, 1955 and the 2026-27 season marks its 72nd season of use. The Shockers have won over three-quarters of their games there all-time.

» If visiting teams feel like the fans are right on top of them, it's because they pretty much are. Every seat is within 140 (horizontal) feet of center court, and in recent years just about all of them have been full. Since the start of the 2013-14 season, the Shockers have played in front of 83 capacity crowds and put together an incredible 165-37 record.

» In summary: Large groups of loud people packed into a little space with a lot to cheer about. But don't forget the fifth "L." --- the lid. The arena's circular and highly-reflective dome roof amplifies sound and funnels it downward toward center court, raising the volume from ear-splitting to defeaning with readings as high at 120 db.

» Wichita State's rise to national relevance began in 2003 with the completion of the Roundhouse Renaissance. A $25 million dollar construction project turned an aging Henry Levitt Arena into one of college basketball's best and most-intimidating venues. The building reopened as Charles Koch Arena for the start of the 2003-04 season.

» In the 23 seasons since the renovation, the Shockers are 296-70 on campus.

» A streak of 244-consecutive regular season crowds of 10,000+ ended during COVID when local health restrictions forced the Shockers to cap capacity. The streak lasted just shy of 16 years (Dec. 2004 to Dec. 2020).

WHAT'S A WUSHOCK?

» Legend has it, the name "Shockers" first appeared in 1904 on a poster advertising a football game between Wichita State (then known as Fairmount College -- and the Chilocco Indians. The team's manager chose the name because many of the players earned money during the off-season harvesting (or "shocking") wheat in the surrounding fields. When it came time to bring the name to life, student's created WuShock, a big, bad, muscle-bound bundle of wheat whose name is derived from a period in time when the school was simply Wichita University or "WU".

17 PIECES OF FLAIR

» For the second straight season the Wichita State uniforms will feature a unique patch. In an effort to strengthen ties with the university community, student-athletes are sporting jersey patches representing the academic college in which their major resides.

Head Coach
PAUL MILLS

Wichita State announced Paul Mills as its 27th head men's basketball coach on March 22, 2023 and formally introduced him the following day.

Mills totaled 58 wins over his first three seasons, second most by a Wichita State head coach over their first three seasons.

After going 15-19 in his first season on the bench, Mills led the Shockers to a four-win improvement in Year 2 (19-15) that saw Wichita State earn a postseason bid (NIT) for the first time since 2021. He followed that up with a 24-win campaign in 2025-26 that included Wichita State finishing in a tie for second in the conference with 13 wins - the most since 2018. Wichita State made its first-ever American Conference Championship title game and received its second straight NIT bid. The Shockers won two games in the NIT before falling in the quarterfinals at Tulsa.

Highlights from the 2025-26 conference season included Wichita State's first-ever regular season sweep of Memphis, while also winning the final six games to secure a coveted triple bye and No. 2 seed in the American Conference Championship.

Under Mills' guidance, senior guard Kenyon Giles placed his name throughout the single season charts. Giles shattered the single season record for made three-pointers and three-point attempts, while also playing the most minutes in a single season. He scored the third most points in a season and finished tied for second with 18 games of 20 or more points. He became the became the second Shocker to earn First Team All-Conference honors under Mills.

Wichita State finished the 2024-25 non-conference portion of the schedule with 10 wins, the most by a Shocker team since 2019. After a 1-7 start to begin conference play in 2024-25, Wichita State reeled off six straight wins, including a Top 25 win over Memphis. The win over No. 14 Memphis snapped a 10-game losing streak vs. ranked opponents for the Shockers.

A longtime Baylor assistant under Scott Drew, Mills took his first head coaching job at Oral Roberts and ran with it, transforming the Golden Eagles from Summit League bottom dwellers to undefeated champions over a six-year span (2017-23) with NCAA tournament bids in two of the last three years.

In 2021 Mills became just the second coach to guide a No. 15 seed to Sweet 16, upsetting Ohio State and Florida in the first two rebounds before losing a heartbreaker to Arkansas in the South Regional Semifinal.

Mills raised the bar again in 2023 when he led ORU to a 30-5 record and swept the Summit's regular season and tournament crowns. The Golden Eagles became just the second team in conference history to go 18-0 and their No. 12 seed in the Big Dance was the program's best in nearly four decades.

Mills was a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award as well as the NABC's Skip Prosser Man of the Year honor, presented annually to a coach who achieves success on the basketball court and displays moral integrity off the floor."

Mills' teams are fast-paced, yet efficient, annually ranking among the NCAA leaders in tempo, scoring and three-point field goals while playing tough, gritty defense.

Over the years Mills has also demonstrated a knack for finding and developing talent. His greatest success story is 6-foot guard Max Abmas, an overlooked recruit, turned NBA prospect who scored more than 2,500 career points in Mills' system and was twice named Summit League Player of the Year.

Mills spent six seasons on the south side of Tulsa, Okla. rebuilding the program at Oral Roberts. He was 106-84, including 67-28 over the final three years.
ORU finished 30-5 during the 2022-23 season, including 21-0 against Summit League foes, becoming just the second team in conference history to run the table. The 12-seeded Eagles entered the NCAA tournament on a nation-best 17-game winning streak but fell to No. 5 Duke in the Round of 64.

Abmas earned Summit League Player of the Year for the second time and was a third team NABC All-American after ranking among the NCAA leaders in scoring (9th, 21.9 points), threes (6th, 3.50) and free throw percentage (5th, 91.9%).

Mills was named Summit League Coach of the Year for the first time after guiding ORU to its first 30-win season at the Division I level. He was also a finalist for the NABC's Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award, as well as the Hugh Durham Award (mid-major coach of the year) and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honor, presented annually to a coach who achieves success on the basketball court and displays moral integrity off of it.

Mills and his 2020-21 team were an overnight sensation, four years in the making, bursting onto the national scene with a run to the NCAA Sweet 16.

With the foundation of Mills rebuild firmly in place, the Eagles played some of their best basketball down the stretch, winning the Summit League tournament as the No. 4 seed to secure the program's first NCAA tournament appearance since 2008.

Before making the trip to south Tulsa, Mills was at Baylor under Head Coach Scott Drew for 14 seasons – six as a staffer (2003-09) and the last eight as assistant coach (2009-17) -- helping the Bears graduate 36 of 38 seniors.

From 2003-17 Baylor played in seven NCAA tournaments, including a pair of NCAA Elite Eights and four Sweet 16s. The Bears were nationally-ranked for 10 straight seasons and reached No. 1 in the polls for the first time since school history during Mills' final year (2016-17).

Mills was on the Rice staff from 2002-03 and, before that, was head coach at Fort Bend Christian Academy from 1998-2002. He led the school to its first-ever TAPPS 4A Final Four and was the South Region Coach of the Year and a four-time District Coach of the Year. Prior to his time in Sugar Land, Texas, Mills won three straight district championships as the head coach at North Belt Christian.

He is a 1996 graduate of Texas A&M with a degree in finance and completed a Master of Biblical and Theological Studies from Dallas Theological Seminary in the summer of 2020. He and his wife, Wendy Scott-Mills, have two daughters, Audrey and Abbey.

NBA Academy Africa
Ighovodja, who began playing competitive basketball just four years ago at age 14, has the physical tools to be a force in college basketball with a wingspan measured at 6-foot-10 and a 39-inch vertical... Ighovodja was one of the 12 original prospects selected for BAL Elevate's 2022 launch, competing last spring with REG (Rwanda), and is in the midst of a second go-around (March-May, 2023) with Côte d'Ivoire's ABC Fighters... In July, 2022, Ighovodja helped NBA Academy Africa to a first-place finish at the annual NBA Academy Games -- a series of exhibitions featuring top prospects from outside the U.S. Teams from each of the four NBA academies in Australia, India, Mexico and Senegal compete against each other and other elite select teams under the watchful eyes of NCAA coaches and NBA scouts... Ighovodja has also been involved with the Nigerian Basketball Federation... In the summer of 2019, he helped his home country to a bronze medal at the FIBA U16 African Championship, averaging 8.3 points and 7.7 rebounds in seven tournament games.
