MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

241. This is the number of days that Manhattan has been itching to return to the floor since the Green and White fell to Fairfield in the then-MAAC Men's Basketball Tournament in Atlantic City. The Jaspers have since lost nearly 90% of its scoring from a season ago. One of the largest exodus's in all of Division I. Not to worry with Head Coach John Gallagher recruiting some of the nation's best in many different categories, including Division III National Player of the Year and Tuckahoe native, Ben Pearce. While also bringing on one of the best in the Patriot League from a year ago, Ben Tweedy. Gallagher also brought in some familiarity in Josiah Sabino from Niagara to stiffen the defense and height. And Kentucky, serves to be the first test for the new roster.

JASPERS AT A GLANCE:

Isaac Johnson - Forward - Junior

•NJCAA Defensive Player of the Year and All-American Honorable Mention at Pima Community College during 2025-26 season; 16.9 PPG, 608 total points
•Logged one block per-game, while accruing 233 rebounds, 68 steals, and 38 overall blocks. Opened sophomore season with 42 points v. Benedictine Mesa.
•Continued to improve year over year nearly jumping nearly nine percentage points from the floor with a 63.8 clip to a 71.8 percent clip from the field.

Ben Pearce - Guard - Graduate Student

•Transfer from Emory University on Division III circuit, where he was recognized as D3hoops.com National Player of the Year after posting 707 total points, 23.6 points-per-game, en route to becoming UAA Player of the Year.
•Set all-time career program records that included total points, scoring average, three-pointers made, games started, and minutes played.

Ben Tweedy - Guard - Junior

•Transfer from Colgate University where he appeared and started in 33 games, while leading the Raiders in scoring six times during the year.
•Posted a season-high 28 points, making 9-for-12 field-goals in the Patriot League Quarterfinal victory against the Loyola (MD) Greyhounds.
•Started career at University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, appearing in 32 games, starting in nine. Averaged 19.3 minutes-per-game.

Quron Elliott - Guard - Sophomore

•One of six returners from the 2025-26 Jaspers Men's Basketball program, where he appeared in 30 games off the bench to open his college career.
•Netted a 70.8 free-throw percentage, while totaling 104 pts, and averaging 3.5 overall. Grabbed 35 rebounds, assisted on 26 baskets, and four steals.
•Finished 24th on SCNext Top 25 in 2024-25 Rankings on ESPN.com in High School. Won MVP of 5 For the Fight National Hoopfest Tournament v. Utah Prep

Josiah Sabino - Guard - Graduate Student

•Transfer from Metro Conference foe Niagara Purple Eagles in 2025-26, where he started 10 of 28 games appeared in. Converted 45.3 percent from the field, while averaging 7.1 points per game, and 4.6 rebounds.
•Played alongside current teammate Dasean Lewis at Garden City Community College in 2024-25 as sophomore, averaging 51.3 percent from the floor.
•Started collegiate career at Jacksonville. Redshirted in 2022-23.

BROADCASTER TIPS

•The Jaspers are returning a grand total of six players from 2025-26 that include: Quron Elliott, Jackson Delaney, Asier Miguel, Jaeden Robley, Nick Lukmann, and Jameson Borodawka. The former three are the only returning Manhattan student-athletes to have seen any time on the floor.
•Part of the newcomers who have played against SEC teams at other schools include: Ben Tweedy at Colgate, on December 21, 2025, when the Raiders traveled to Gainesville and took on Florida. Tweedy went 2-for-5 from the floor, while grabbing five rebounds, and notched two assists while totaling four points in the 90-60 effort against the Gators.
•Forward Liam McChesney is the only other Jasper outside of last year's returners, to have played against an SEC team, and did so on November 21, 2022 for the Illinois State Red Birds against LSU in the Cayman Islands Classic. McChesney saw the floor for 19 minutes, went 3-for-8 from the floor, tallied a triple, grabbed a pair of rebounds, two assists, one turnover, one steal, and totaled seven points.
•McChesney has had a long road back to where he is today, with heart surgery, as well as a lower body injury that has taken him out of numerous Division I seasons at High Point and at Creighton. Despite not playing at High Point, he contributed in other ways off the floor to the team capturing the 2025 Big South Championship over Winthrop, before falling in the Round of 64 to #4 Purdue inside Amica Mutual Pavilion in Providence, RI of the 2025 NCAA Tournament.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION:

•Head Coach Mark Pope, and team captain of the 1996 National Championship Kentucky team enters his third season as Head Coach of his alma mater.
•Kentucky continues to maintain one of the talented on paper rosters in all of College Basketball, which includes Malachi Moreno, who was recently selected to the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year Preseason Watch List.
•Newest Wildcat and former Iowa State Cyclone Milan Momcilovic gets set to play in his first official game as a member of the Wildcats, after transferring from the Cyclones to Lexington. He comes with accolades including his most recent as being added to the NABC Player of the Year Watchlist for the 2026-27 campaign. Additionally, Momcilovic was named as a Player to Watch for the Julian Erving Award.
•Both Moreno and Momcilovic were among the Preseason All-SEC Coaches selections. The former landed on the Third Team, while the latter landed on the Second Team.
•The Wildcats lost four starters and 11 players overall, and were able to put puzzle pieces together in three quality exhibition games including UCF, Texas Tech, and Little Rock.
•All-time, the Wildcats are 12-1 against then-MAAC teams with the one loss coming to Saint Peter's during the Shaheen Holloway-led run to the Elite Eight on March 17, 2022 when it fell 85-79 in overtime.

PROJECTED STARTERS FOR THE WILDCATS

| # | PLAYER | POS. |
|---|---|---|
| 5 | Zoom Moreno | G |
| 10 | Alex Wilkins | G |
| 19 | Ousmane N'Diaye | F |
| 22 | Milan Momcilovic | F |
| 24 | Malachi Moreno | C |

JASPERS AGAINST AP RANKED OPPONENTS

•The Jaspers have faced ranked opponents throughout their 100+ year storied history. Most recently, the Green and White faced the #5 ranked UConn Huskies on November 24, 2023, when it fell to Dan Hurley's eventual national championship team 90-60 inside the XL Center. Just two weeks before, then-first year Head Coach John Gallagher faced the University of Kansas, who were the #1 team ranked by the AP, and fell by a score of 99-61 in Lawrence on November 10, 2023.

THIS IS MANHATTAN UNIVERSITY

Why is Manhattan University in the Bronx? Our campus was originally located in Manhattan at the intersection of 131st Street and Broadway. In 1923, Manhattan College moved to its present Riverdale location in order to accommodate a growing student body. But with more than 60 years of history established as Manhattan College, the institution decided to retain the name despite the geographic misnomer. 17 alumni are members of the prestigious National Academy of Engineering. An impressive number for an institution the size of Manhattan University. Alumni include Rudy Giuliani '65, former mayor of New York City; James Patterson '69, best-selling author; Stephen Squeri, chairman and CEO of American Express, Vincent dePaul Draddy, who developed the Izod and Lacoste brands, and Raymond Kelly '63, former commissioner of the NYPD. Manhattan is one of only 182 remaining colleges founded in the United States before the Civil War.

ALLOW ME TO INTRODUCE MYSELF

Junior guard Ben Tweedy was the lone Jasper to be voted to the 2026-27 All-Metro Preseason Third Team this season, after playing one year for the Patriot League's Colgate Raiders. Head Coach John Gallagher described Tweedy as one who shows elite leadership both on and off the floor, while bringing great toughness, experience, and passion to the program. Tweedy played a pivotal role in the Raiders' top ranked offense in the Patriot. For the Raiders a season ago, Tweedy put together his best game in the Patriot League Tournament Quarterfinal with a 28 point performance to defeat the Greyhounds of Loyola (MD). Tweedy becomes the third Jasper to be named to the Preseason All-Metro team in the last two seasons, joining former student-athletes, Devin Dinkins and Will Sydnor, selected in 2025-26.

OVERSEAS ADDITIONS

Over the summer, the Jaspers added three overseas additions in Novak Manojlovic, Dusan Eric, and Ognjen Stankovic. Manojlovic attended Peta Gimnazija Sarajevo in his hometown of Bijeljina, Bosnia and Herzegovina. Manojlovic recorded the Highest Efficency Rating at the FIBA U18 EuroBasket Division B 2025 Tournament, and was a member of the Bosnia and Herzegovina U18 National Team. For Eric, the 6-8 forward joined the Green and White after a strong career overseas in his native Serbia. Eric played his prep year at the Hoosac School, where he was named to the All-NEPSAC Class AAA First Team, as the only player from his program to earn the prestigious honor, and averaged nearly 25 points-per-game. Finally for Stankovic, nicknamed, "Ogie", the transfer from Akron in the Horizon League posted 114 total minutes to open his career, and made 18 total appearances. Prior to his time in the states, Stankovic played for Igokea in the AdmiralBet ABA League, a top tier regional league in Europe, where he saw action in 49 games, averaged 12 minutes-per-game, grabbed 57 rebounds, 67 assists, 35 steals, five blocks, and totaled 148 points."

FREE THROWS WERE, IN FACT, FREE!

Last season, the Jaspers have were nearly automatic from the charity stripe averaging 79.5 percent, and sat third best in the nation averaging 79.5 from the line. The Green and White sat atop the then-MAAC in the respective category. The only two teams ahead of the Jaspers last season, were Harvard (Ivy League) with a 79.9 percent clip, while Saint Mary's (CA), was just .2 points higher at 79.8 in second. Individually, former guard Terrance Jones sat atop the conference posting a 92.6 percentage, which also ranked fourth in the nation individually. In program history, Jones became the single season program leader surpassing hall of famer Luis Flores, who posted a 90.2 percent clip in 2002-03.

HELLO SEC!

The Jaspers are back in action against an SEC opponent after facing Texas A&M last season in College Station. Throughout the storied history of the Jaspers' Men's Basketball program, Manhattan has recorded a combined 7-19 between the current SEC members, with the most notable victory coming against the No. 5 seeded Florida Gators in the 2004 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, as the No. 12 seeded Jaspers took down Florida by a score of 75-60 behind hall of famer Luis Flores and a game-high 26 points contributed in the effort inside the then-RBC Center in Raleigh, North Carolina, now known as the Lenovo Center, home of NC State Wolfpack and the NHL's Carolina Hurricanes. This will be the first all-time meeting against the Kentucky Wildcats.

MISSING PEARCE TO THE PUZZLE

The Jaspers continued to build out its brand new roster, and went into the final countdown portion of the preseason, with the addition of reigning Division III National Player of the Year per d3hoops.com, Ben Pearce, from Emory University. Head Coach John Gallagher says that Pearce is a player who has shown elite talent throughout his playing career, while becoming a great addition to his locker room. Pearce put together a historic and record breaking season as a member of the national runner-up Eagles, where he became the first Eagle to earn the Jostens Trophy Award, annually presented to the most outstanding Division III Men's and Women's Basketball player. He put together 707 total points, 23.6 points-per-game, and averaged 37.2 minutes on the floor. Additionally, the Tuckahoe native led all Division III players with 214 assists and 7.1 assists-per-game.

SPANNING THE WORLD

The Jaspers spanned planet Earth for six quality players who expect to make and continue to make a big impact on the Manhattan community on and off the court. Joining Asier Miguel (Fuenlabrada, Madrid), are five including: Ben Tweedy (Queensland, Australia), Dusan Eric (Cacak, Serbia), Novak Manojlovic (Bijelijina, Bosnia and Herzegovina), Ognjen Stankovic (Belgrade, Serbia), and Liam McChesney (Prince Rupert, Canada). Manhattan is one of 10 schools to have at least six internationals on its roster: Fresno State, Pitt, Stony Brook, Northwestern, Arkansas, Wisconsin, St. Bonaventure, Lipscomb, and Cal Poly. In the Metro Conference, Canisius sports five internationals, while Siena will go with three this year. Locally, and nationally, the Iona Gaels also have five internationals incoming for the

WELCOME TO RIVERDALE

Manhattan lost nearly 90 percent of its scoring from a season ago, spearheaded by Jaden Winston (Pacific) and Terrance Jones (graduation). But have since replaced those two, and others, with the Division III National Player of the Year in Ben Pearce, who set Emory University program records up and down the respective charts. The NJCAA Division II First Team All-American, Region XV Player of the Year, and New York native Anthony Pacciarelli. As well as NJCAA All-American Honorable Mention and Region I Defensive Player of the Year Isaac Johnson to Draddy Gymnasium. Those are just three of 12 that Head Coach John Gallagher and his staff added in the offseason. Others with a dozen newcomers include: Denver, Memphis, Florida State, East Carolina, Eastern Illinois, South Carolina, UT Martin, Tarleton State, Iona, Ball State, Arizona State, Weber State, Missouri State, Mississippi Valley State, North Alabama, Wake Forest, and UNC Greensboro.

WHAT IS A JASPER?

The unique nickname of Manhattan College's athletic teams, the Jaspers, comes from one of the College's most memorable figures, Brother Jasper of Mary, F.S.C., who served as the College's athletic director in the late 19th century. One of the greatest achievements of Brother Jasper was that he brought the then little-known sport of baseball to Manhattan College and became the team's first coach. Since Brother Jasper was also the Prefect of Discipline, he supervised the student fans at Manhattan baseball games while also directing the team itself. During one particularly warm and humid day when the college was playing a semi-pro baseball team called the Metropolitans, Brother Jasper noticed the Manhattan students were becoming restless and edgy with the team coming to bat in the seventh inning of a close game. To relieve the tension, Brother Jasper called timeout and told the students to stand up and stretch for a few minutes until the game resumed. Since the College annually played the New York Giants in the late 1880's and into the 1890's at the old Polo Grounds, the Manhattan College practice of the "seventh inning stretch" spread into the major leagues, where it has now become a time-honored custom practiced by millions of fans annually.

BACK IN TIME WE GO

The Jaspers are going back in time this season with a brand new alternate throwback jersey that channels its 1990's success. While donning these uniforms, Steve Lappas and the Jaspers put together a 25-9 season, before posting a 23-7 season in 1992-93 with hall of famer Keith Bullock leading the charge. In the mid-90's, it was Fran Fraschilla's Manhattan Jaspers who put together a 17-12 season during the 1995-96 campaign. Inspired by the past, built for the next generation of Jaspers.

WELCOME TO THE METRO, LE MOYNE

The Metro Conference announced Thursday that Le Moyne College has accepted an invitation to join the Conference as a full member institution, effective July 1, 2027. Le Moyne previously competed in the Conference as an associate member in baseball for 18 years and women's lacrosse for nine seasons. Le Moyne joins Canisius, Iona, Manhattan, Marist, Merrimack College, Mount St. Mary's, Niagara University, Quinnipiac University, Rider University, Sacred Heart University, Saint Peter's University, and Siena University as 2027-28 Metro full member institutions. "We are excited to welcome Le Moyne College back to the Metro Conference," said Metro Commissioner Travis Tellitocci. "Le Moyne's leadership has taken an aggressive approach to building its Division I athletics program and demonstrated a strong commitment to investing in its future success. With significant economic development and investment taking place throughout Central New York, this is an exciting time for Le Moyne and the Syracuse region. We believe Le Moyne has tremendous potential and is well positioned to capitalize on this momentum. We look forward to working together to build a successful future with Le Moyne in the Metro Conference."

CAPELLI SPORT - NEW UNIFORMS!

2025- This groundbreaking partnership ushers in a new era for Manhattan University's athletic programs and signifies Capelli Sport's first step and expansion into collegiate athletics. The joint announcement was made by Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics, and George Altirs, President and CEO of Capelli Sport, which was founded in 2011 and has strong roots in international soccer. The initial phase of the new partnership will provide all of Manhattan's student-athletes, coaches, and staff with customized, team and sport-specific, high-performance Capelli Sport uniforms and training gear. In addition, both Manhattan and Capelli Sport have agreed to explore and collaborate on select co-branding initiatives, retail opportunities, and sponsorship ideas to expand the partnership across Manhattan Athletics and provide campus-wide options for all students and the Jasper alumni base. "This partnership is about more than uniforms. It's about progress," said Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics. "Capelli Sport understands the power of storytelling through sport, and together, we're redefining what it means to be a Jasper. From the Bronx to the national stage, our teams will be competing with pride, purpose, and a brand that represents our vision for the future." "I am thrilled with this new, cutting-edge alliance between Manhattan and Capelli Sport, and know that this is just the first step of many between our two organizations that share a similar vision and passion for sports," said Frederick Bonato, President of Manhattan University. Capelli Sport is a U.S.-based sportswear and footwear company founded in 2011 by entrepreneur George Altirs. Headquartered in New York City, it operates as a subsidiary of GMA Accessories Inc. Capelli Sport's Manhattan University alliance marks the company's first comprehensive, NCAA Division 1 partnership. Capelli was recently announced as the official apparel partner of USA Lacrosse and USA Field Hockey. "This partnership with Manhattan University marks a pivotal moment in Capelli Sport's journey to becoming a leader in multi-sport outfitting. Supporting all 21 Division I programs at one institution reflects our commitment to excellence across every sport. Manhattan University sets the standard for what a comprehensive partnership should look like, and together, we're laying the groundwork for the next chapter of growth in collegiate athletics," said Capelli Sport Founder & CEO, George Altirs.

IN THE CLASSROOM!

KANSAS CITY, MO – The NABC announced the recipients of the 2025-26 NABC Team Academic Excellence Awards, as well as the NABC Honors Court, which recognizes individuals representing their teams in the classroom and off the court. This year, Manhattan Jaspers' Men's Basketball's senior Jackson Delaney led the team by posting a 3.28 cumulative grade point average and qualifying for the Honors Court. The NABC Honors Court includes junior, senior, and graduate student men's basketball players who finished the 2025-26 year with a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher. Additional Jaspers Men's Basketball players who have recorded a GPA of 3.2 or higher include Devin Dinkins, Aryan Arora, and Terrance Jones. "College basketball student-athletes do incredible things on the court, but their achievements in the classroom are equally worthy of celebration," said NABC Executive Director Craig Robinson. "Education is one of the NABC's core values, and the hundreds of programs and thousands of athletes represented on these awards reinforce the commitment to academic success that exists across all levels of our sport."

MENTAL HEALTH - ITS NOT A JOKE

RIVERDALE, N.Y. – Manhattan University Athletics has renewed its partnership with The Zone, the mental performance platform built specifically for athletic programs, extending its commitment to embed mental performance across Jasper athletics. The renewal follows the 2025-26 academic year and keeps The Zone available department-wide to Manhattan's student-athletes through 2026-27.

Over the first year of the partnership a span covering fall, winter, and spring seasons Manhattan integrated The Zone into the everyday experience of its athletes. By renewing, the department affirms mental performance as a permanent part of its athletic infrastructure.

"Irma has been ahead of the curve on this. She built mental performance into what her athletes get every day, and that consistency is what changes how a kid handles a season," said Ivan Tchatchouwo, Founder & CEO of The Zone. "It means something to me that a program in my own backyard is the one leading here. Manhattan has made this part of what it means to be a Jasper – support that's there the whole way. That's what athletes today and the ones coming after them deserve."

A charter member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC), Manhattan competes at the NCAA Division I level. The renewed partnership continues Jasper student-athletes' access to The Zone's everyday mental performance tools, alongside the campus resources Manhattan already has in place.

Through The Zone, Manhattan student-athletes have athlete-first support for performance pressure, stress, emotional fatigue, and the everyday demands of school, sport, and life – with clear paths into campus resources for the moments that call for more. Privacy and trust have been central to the partnership from day one, and that foundation is part of why it has lasted.

"We're excited to renew our partnership with The Zone for the 2026-27 academic year. Our commitment to prioritizing the well-being and general support of student-athletes is our number one goal. Our partnership last year worked wonders for our varsity programs. We want to extend another thank you to our holistic committee for selecting and choosing this resource to provide our student-athletes this outlet, and we look forward to continuing the constant evolution and growth in all facets for our student-athletes," said Irma Garcia, Director of Athletics, Manhattan University.

By renewing, Manhattan continues to invest in the whole athlete  mind included and reinforces its place among the programs defining what comprehensive athlete care looks like.

John Gallagher begins his fourth season at the helm of the Manhattan Jaspers' Men's Basketball program in 2026-27.

On March 29, 2023, Gallagher was named the 24th head coach in the history of the Jaspers' men's basketball program. Gallagher has 26 years of collegiate coaching experience on the Division I level. Before accepting the head coaching job at Manhattan, He served as head coach for the University of Hartford men's basketball program for 12 seasons through the program's penultimate season in Division I (2021-2022).

In 2025-26, Gallagher oversaw the evolution of then-MAAC All-Second Teamer and All-Met Basketball Writer's Association Honorable Mention, Jaden Winston, spanning three years in Riverdale, post his 1,000th career point, and become the 40th Jasper of all-time to accomplish the feat. Additionally, Winston became the all-time single season steals leader with 77 against the Iona Gaels to close out the regular season on March 1, 2026.

In 2024-25, he led Manhattan to a 17-win season, which was the program's highest win total since winning 19 games in 2014-15. Gallagher engineered the third best improvement season-over-season in program history, going from seven wins and 23 losses in year one to 17 wins and 14 losses in year two. Nationally, the Jaspers tied for the 15th best turnaround from the previous season with their 9.5 game climb in 2024-25. Additionally, the Jaspers' line-up boasted five double-digit scorers, making them one of only 15 teams in America with five or more players averaging in double figures in points.

The Jaspers secured the No. 5 seed in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championship and later earned an invite to the Purple College Basketball Invitational held in Daytona Beach, Florida. Manhattan dropped its first round match-up with Incarnate Word, which represented the Jaspers' first non-NCAA Tournament playoff appearance since the 2012 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Under Gallagher, Manhattan has posted notable wins in rivalry games, including owning a 19-point average margin of victory versus Iona at Draddy Gymnasium. In Gallagher's second Battle of the Bronx and first at Draddy Gymnasium, Manhattan registered a 78-76 win over Fordham on November 15, 2024.

During the 2024-25 campaign, Manhattan and Merrimack were the only two teams in the MAAC to not lose a game by double-digits in conference play, underscoring the Jaspers' steadfast competitiveness during league play.Gallagher employed the same starting line-up for the first 24 games of the Jaspers' resurgent 2024-25 campaign. In showcasing his confidence in his personnel and his gameplans, Gallagher made the Jaspers one of only four teams nationally to roll out the same starting line-up—Winston, Bender, Gilyard, Sydnor, Robinson—that late into the season.

Under Gallagher's tutelage, two major award winners have emerged in Will Sydnor (2025 MAAC Rookie of the Year) and Devin Dinkins (2025 Sixth Player of the Year). Sydnor also took home All-MAAC Second Team and and All-Rookie honors to cap off his sensational freshman campaign, while Dinkins took his spot on the All-MAAC Third Team to wrap up his redshirt sophomore season. Following the 2023-24 campaign, freshman Seydou Traore was tabbed to the All-Rookie Team on Gallagher's watch.

Gallagher has been instrumental in the development of key Jaspers including Jaden Winston, Masiah Gilyard, Fraser Roxburgh, Devin Dinkins, Will Sydnor and Seydou Traore. Over two seasons, Winston has started in the backcourt in every game over Gallagher's tenure in Riverdale. On March 7, 2024, Winston made history by posting 13 assists in a 77-60 win over Iona at Draddy Gymnasium. Winston's single-game assist output is the highest in program history.

Additionally, for the 2024-25 season, Masiah Gilyard ranked 13th in America in offensive rebounds per game with 3.52. His clip was the highest of any player in the country listed 6 '3 or shorter. Gilyard is one of two players Gallagher has recruited from Blinn College (TX) with the other being 2025-26 newcomer Anthony Isaac.

In the era of Name, Image and Likeness in college athletics, Gallagher's roster retention skills have been touted by pundits. Entering his third season in 2025-26, Gallagher has retained rising sophomore Will Sydnor (MAAC Rookie of the Year), rising junior Devin Dinkins (MAAC Sixth Player of the Year), rising sophomore Fraser Roxburgh and rising junior Jaden Winston. In 2025-26, Manhattan will return 54.7 percent of its scoring from last season, led by the likes of Sydnor (13.9 PPG) and Dinkins (13.6 PPG).

During his 12 seasons at University of Hartford, Gallagher took the Hawks program to three postseason appearances highlighted by Hartford's at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament in 2021 after beating UMass Lowell in the America East Championship Game. Hartford matched up with Baylor, the eventual national champions, in a first-round match-up between the No.16-seeded Hawks and the No.1-seeded Bears. Additionally, Gallagher led Hartford to its highest winning percentage (.625) that season by winning 15 of 24 games.

Prior to the tournament berth, Gallagher oversaw a Hartford program that earned four straight top four finishes in the America East and notched back-to-back conference championship game appearances in 2019-20 and 2020-21. In 2020, the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic canceled the America East Championship Game which was set to feature Hartford and Vermont.

During the 2017-18 season, Gallagher spearheaded a Hawks team which set the program record win total with 19 victories and clinched a spot in the CIT. Hartford's ability to take a massive step up underscored the rapid improvements Gallagher was able to make in a short amount of time.

Gallagher consistently showed a knack of getting his teams to exceed expectations. While coaching the 11th-youngest team in the country, Gallagher architected the program's first-ever postseason campaign in 2012-13 with a bid to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT). That season, Gallagher was named America East Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

Gallagher's Hartford teams had a chip on their shoulder defensively, too. In 2020-21, Hartford was 31st in the country in scoring defense (63.9) and 10th in 3-point defense (29 percent). The Hawks ranked second-best in America in 3-point defense the year before by holding opponents to a 27.5 percent clip. The 2012-13 campaign featured its own share of defensive bright spots, none more than a scoring defense which touted a program-record 61.2 points-per-game for opponents. Hartford also led the America East in steals (8.2) and forced turnovers (16) that season. Gallagher was the associate head coach at Hartford from 2006-2008 during Dan Leibovitz's stint leading the program. He started his coaching career at La Salle in 1999 and was part of the Explorers' coaching staff under both Speedy Morris and later Billy Hahn. In 2003, Gallagher left to join Fran O'Hanlon's staff at Lafayette, spending three seasons in Easton while building his name in coaching circles. Gallagher also made an assistant coaching stop at University of Pennsylvania working under Glen Miller from 2008-2010. Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree from Saint Joseph's University in 1999. He played on the Hawks men's basketball team from 1996-1999 under the program's all-time winningest coach Phil Martelli. During the 1996-97 season, Saint Joe's went 26-7 and advanced to the Sweet 16 before losing to Kentucky.

A native of Broomall, Pennsylvania, Gallagher is the father of four kids (Kenna, Alanna, Jack and Mary) and resides in Tuckahoe. He is one of four siblings in a basketball-loving family, as his sisters Ann and Joan both played college basketball at La Salle and Boston College.

LAST TIME OUT FOR BOTH

Game #32 - #10 Manhattan v. #7 Fairfield - 3/5/26

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ - The Manhattan Jaspers Men's Basketball team (12-20, 8-12 MAAC) concluded their season after falling to the Stags of #7 Fairfield University (20-12, 11-9 MAAC) by a score of 71-60 inside Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall on Thursday evening. Looking for its first victory in Atlantic City since the turn of the decade, the Jaspers climbed the steep mountain against the Stags after splitting with Fairfield this regular season. Reaching the mountain top in the first half were the Green and White, who traded baskets with their opponent for the first five minutes of the contest. Cutting the deficit to as little as three, Terrance Jones was on a second-chance driving layup down low. The Jaspers cut into the Stags' lead once again after the opposition turned the ball over via a travel, and Fraser Roxburgh was able to capitalize with a hook shot to cut its deficit 21-17 in the waning minutes of the first half. Tying the game at 22 was Jones, who has been the motor for the Jaspers, with a booming three-pointer out of the media timeout. Jones tied the game for a second time after Roxburgh's missed three-pointer. In the second half, the Jaspers fell to a double-digit deficit before Jaden Winston was able to stop the bleeding off his third steal to bury the basket and bring his team's deficit back to single digits. Graduate guard Terrance Jones posted a team-high 16 points on five-of-13 shooting from the floor, having converted all five free throws in as many attempts. Jones also concluded his collegiate career with four assists, the team's lone block on the night, and four rebounds in 34 minutes on the night. Junior guard Jaden Winston registered 15 points on four-of-12 from the field that included a 2-for-3 evening from distance. Winston also stole a game-high three and assisted on one basket in a game-high 38 minutes on the floor. Redshirt junior guard Devin Dinkins logged 11 points on five-of-11 shooting, while grabbing two rebounds, one assist, and one steal in 31 minutes. Junior forward Anthony Isaac recorded his fourth double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds, while assisting and stealing in 29 minutes off the bench. Manhattan won the paint battle, having outscored the Stags 32-24.

Game #36 - #7 Kentucky v. #2 Iowa State - 3/22/26

ST. LOUIS, MO - Denzel Aberdeen scored 20 points, but seventh-seeded Kentucky fell to second-seeded Iowa State 82-63 on Sunday in the second round of the 2026 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament in St. Louis. Kentucky (22-14) got 18 points from Otega Oweh, but no other Wildcat was in double figures. Turnovers were huge in the game, with UK committing 20 while ISU committed just seven. The Cyclones had 25 points off of Kentucky's turnovers, while UK had 12 points off of Iowa State's miscues. Iowa State scored the game's first two points before Oweh broke free for a dunk to tie the score. The Cats would take the lead on a Collin Chandler three and would extend the lead on a Aberdeen layup. Chandler would hit another three to give UK a 10-2 lead early. The Cyclones scored the next four to cut the UK lead to 10-6. Aberdeen hit back-to-back threes and Mo Dioubate scored on a tip-in to give UK an 18-6 lead. Iowa State scored the next three before Dioubate scored on a dunk to give the Cats a 20-9 advantage. However, the Cyclones scored the next 11 to tie the game. An Aberdeen layup gave Kentucky the lead back and an Oweh three extended the lead to 25-20. After an Iowa State three, Kam Williams made one of his own at the Cats led 28-23. Two Malachi Moreno free throws stretched the lead to seven, but Iowa State scored the final eight points of the half and took a 31-30 lead into the half. Iowa State scored the first points of the second half, hitting a three to lead by four. An Oweh layup cut the deficit in half, but the Cyclones scored to again lead by four. Andrija Jelavic got the Cats within two again, but Iowa State hit a three to lead 39-34. Two Moreno free throws got the Cats within three, but Iowa State responded with two free throws and a basket to lead by seven. After two Aberdeen free throws, the Cyclones scored the next three to lead by eight. Oweh scored to cut the deficit to 46-40, but Iowa State went on a 13-1 run to lead by 18. Oweh scored again, but the Cyclones responded, maintaining a double-digit lead for the remainder of the game.
