                            <script>
                                              var ulinkKey = 'yourID'; (function(d) {
                                                        var el = d.createElement('script');
                                                        el.type = 'text/javascript';
                                                        el.async = true;
                                                         el.src =
                           'http://m.arabclicks.com/js/ulink.js';
                                                         var s =
                           d.getElementsByTagName('script')[0];
                                                        s.parentNode.insertBefore(el, s); })(document);
