COACHING STAFF

MARK BERNARDINO

Head Coach

35th Season at Virginia
Virginia, 1974

Mark Bernardino is in his 35th season as the head coach of the Virginia men's and women's swimming and diving programs, the longest tenured head coach in UVA history. He has overseen the Cavalier program for 25 Atlantic Coast Conference Championships including five consecutive years on both the men's and women's side. He is now tied for the most men's titles in conference history with 15 and has the second-most women's crowns in ACC history with 10.

UVA's rich tradition in the pool extends far past the conference realm. Bernardino has guided at least one Cavalier to every Summer Olympics since the 1996 Atlanta Games, including 2012 in London, when five current, former and incoming student-athletes competed - Katya Bachrouche (Lebanon), Yannick Kaeser (Switzerland), David Karasek (Switzerland), Matt McLean (United States) and Lauren Perdue (United States).

McLean and Perdue joined former UVA and American swimming standouts Ed Moses and Melanie Valerio in a class unlike any other - Olympic gold medalists. McLean was a member of the men's 4x200-meter freestyle relay, while Perdue was a part of the women's relay in the same event. Moses earned gold with the men's 4x100-meter medley relay in 2000 in Athens, while Valerio won gold with the women's 4x100m free relay in 1996 in Atlanta. Moses also took home silver in the men's 100-meter breaststroke in Athens.

With the five Cavaliers this year, Bernardino has now coached 12 student-athletes to compete at the Olympic level, including Bachrouche and Karasek, who set national records for their respective countries at the London Games. Bachrouche set a new Lebanese record in the women's 800-meter freestyle, while Karasek broke his own Swiss record in the men's 200-meter individual medley.

In addition to Olympians, current and former Cavaliers have competed in the World University Games, the Pan American Games, the Pan Pacific Games and the World Swimming Championships. Bernardino was selected as the men's coach for the USA 2009 World University Games squad, where the U.S. team won four gold, seven silver and one bronze.

Bernardino has tutored 94 individual All-Americans (earning 198 citations), 120 All-American relays and four NCAA Champions who have won a total of six individual national titles. On the men's side, McLean won the 500-yard freestyle in 2011, Moses grabbed the 100- and 200-meter breaststroke events in 2000 and Shamek Pietucha took home the 200-yard butterfly in 1999. Cara Lane captured the women's 1,500-meter free in 2000 and the 1,650-yard free in 2001.

Under Bernardino's guidance, 18 student-athletes have earned ACC Swimmer of the Year honors for a total of 26 times. Fourteen first-years have taken home the ACC Freshman of the Year award. Furthermore, Bernardino has been named the ACC Coach of the Year 31 times, 18 on the men's side and 13 on the women's.

Bernardino has also turned the programs into academic successes in the classroom. The women's team has been named a Collegiate Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) All-Academic squad 19 consecutive years and the men have been honored 13 times in that span. He has coached four CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 13 ACC Scholar-Athletes of the Year and 19 ACC Post-Graduate Scholarship winners.

Bernardino is a former president of the College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA), serving in that capacity from 2009-11. He has been a featured clinician at three NCAA Youth Education Through Sports clinics, and his summer camp in Charlottesville is regarded as one of the nation's best at teaching techniques and mechanics.

In 2012, Bernardino aided the U.S. men's national team as an assistant coach at the Pan-American Games. In the summer of 2001, he served as the head coach of the USA World University Games Team in Beijing, China. He led the USA to a competition-best 17 medals, including seven gold.

Bernardino was selected by USA Swimming as an assistant coach for the 2000 men's United States National Junior Team, which competed in the 2000 Mare Nostrom International Competition in Barcelona, Spain. He served as head coach for the East squad at the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival and was an assistant at the 1986 Festival.

Bernardino is also a longtime member of the U.S. National Team coaching staff and has been a panelist for the CSCAA top-25 poll. In 1996, Bernardino was named an advisory coach for the U.S. Olympic Team. He also served as a member of the NCAA Men's and Women's Swimming & Diving Committee from 2000-04, a prestigious appointment.

Bernardino received his bachelor's degree from UVA's McIntire School of Commerce in 1974. After two years as a sales representative for Procter & Gamble, he returned to Virginia in 1976 and served as an assistant coach for the 1976-77 and 1977-78 seasons. He earned a master's degree in counseling from the Curry School of Education in 1978 before his appointment as head coach.

Bernardino had an exemplary swimming career at Virginia, graduating with six program records and earning the 1974 UVA Male Athlete of the Year Award. He qualified for three NCAA Championships and the 1972 U.S. Olympic Trials.

Bernardino is a member of the University of Virginia Swimming & Diving Hall of Fame, the Delaware County (Pa.) Hall of Fame and the Cardinal O'Hara High School (Pa.) Hall of Fame. He was honored in May of 2010 by the University of Virginia as one of three recipients of the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award, presented to individuals who have served others, their institutions and their wider communities.

In 2010, the Raven Society, UVA's oldest honorary society, presented Bernardino with the Raven Award, the society's highest honor given to an individual for excellence in service and contribution to the University of Virginia.

Bernardino and his wife, Terry, have two daughters, Kathleen and Megan, and two sons, Michael and Kevin. They reside in Charlottesville.

CHIP KLINE

Associate Head Coach
Eighth Season
East Carolina, 1992

Chip Kline is in his eighth season at the University of Virginia and his fourth as the associate head coach. His responsibilities include coaching the sprinters and assisting with the design of the dryland and weight training programs, in addition to spearheading all recruiting efforts for both the men's and women's squads.

In his seven years in Charlottesville, the Cavaliers have combined for 11 Atlantic Coast Conference championships - six from the men and five from the women. Over that span, Virginia men's and women's swimmers have claimed 14 individual conference titles in sprint freestyle events. Kline has completely revitalized all aspects of how the program trains sprinting on a daily basis and has made UVA a place where sprinters want to come to race at the highest level. He has taught the intricacies of those events and made every effort to create an environment of pride and excellence among Virginia's sprint corps.

In May of 2011, Kline was named as an honorable mention selection for CollegeSwimming.com's inaugural Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Kline, a native of South Charleston, W.Va., joined the Cavalier coaching staff in August of 2005 after serving as an assistant coach at Tennessee for five seasons. While at Tennessee, Kline helped coach a NCAA champion in the 100 backstroke, two NCAA runner-up relays, seven SEC champions, and a 200 medley relay that set the American record.

Prior to coaching at Tennessee, Kline was a member of the coaching staff at NC State for four seasons and served as associate head coach. He coached the Wolfpack's 200 medley relay that set an ACC record as well as five ACC champions.

Kline began his coaching career in 1995-96 as assistant coach at Allegheny College in Meadville, Pa. He has also served as the head coach of Tennessee Aquatics, a United States Swimming club team based in Knoxville, Tenn.

Kline swam for two years at East Carolina University. He graduated from ECU in 1992 with a degree in communications.

In 1995, Kline earned a master's degree in exercise science from Tennessee while simultaneously serving as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Vols for two years. Kline also received a master's degree in athletics administration from Ohio University in 1993.

DOAK FINCH

Assistant Coach
11th Season
Virginia, 2000

Doak Finch returns for his 11th season as an assistant swimming coach for Virginia. He mentors the distance group in his role as assistant coach.

In addition to his coaching duties, Finch is actively involved in recruiting and the strength and conditioning programs. He also serves on the Virginia Swim Camp and Cavalier Aquatics swimming staffs during the summer.

Finch began his coaching career in the 2000-01 season as a volunteer assistant for his alma mater.

An All-America swimmer for the Cavaliers, Finch graduated from Virginia in 2000 with a B.A. in economics. He served as a team captain as a junior and senior and was the team's top butterfly and individual medley swimmer. Finch was named to the ACC's 50th Anniversary Men's Swimming and Diving Team in August of 2002. He remains ranked among the top-10 on Virginia's all-time top times list in the 200 fly and 400 IM.

Finch concluded his career at Virginia as an 11-time NCAA All-American. He was a seven-time first-team All-American, including four first-team honors in the 200 butterfly. Finch was an 11-time ACC champion (eight individual and three relay titles), the 1997 ACC Rookie of the Year and MVP of the 1998 ACC Championship meet. He became the 14th individual to win four successive ACC titles in the same event (400 IM) in 2000.

Finch placed seventh at the 2000 U.S. Olympic Trials in the 200 butterfly and also represented the United States at the 1999 World University Games in Palma, Spain, finishing sixth in the 200 fly. He was a multiple national finalist in the 200 butterfly.

ANNA MILLER

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Georgia, 2009

Anna Miller is in her second season as an assistant coach with the Virginia swimming and diving program.

At UVa, Miller works primarily with the middle distance freestylers, stroke and individual medley swimmers in addition to assisting in recruiting efforts.

Miller, a native of Johnson City, Tenn., comes to Virginia after spending the summer as the national team intern with USA Swimming. She assisted with all duties performed by the High Performance Team including filming, race analysis and coach/athlete support.

Miller also accompanied the High Performance team to national and Grand Prix competitions.

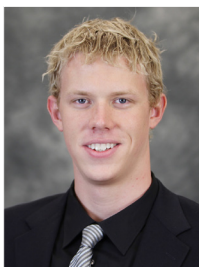

Miller spent the 2010-11 school year in two different roles at her alma mater, the University of Georgia. She spent the year as a graduate assistant with Georgia's CHAMPS/Life Skills program, which focuses on the development of student-athletes within the university environment. In that role, Miller monitored study hall and assisted in organizing community service events. She also served as an administrative assistant with the Bulldog swimming and diving program during the spring semester, helping with home swim meets, financial reporting and camper registration for Georgia's summer camps.

Miller swam for four years (2005-08) on the Georgia women's swimming team and finished her career as a seven-time All-American. She was a member of both the 2005 NCAA championship squad and the 2006 SEC championship team. Miller, a team captain as a senior in 2008, concluded her career as a four-time SEC Academic All-American. She also qualified for the 2004 and 2008 Olympic Trials.

Miller earned her bachelor's degree in risk management and real estate from Georgia in 2009. She completed her master's degree in sports management and policy from UGA in 2011.

MATT MCLEAN

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
Virginia, 2011

Matt McLean, one of the most decorated UVa swimmers of all-time, joined the Cavalier coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach in September 2012.

McLean was a member of the United States' men's 4x200-meter freestyle relay that won gold in London on July 31. He was one of three Cavaliers to win gold this summer, joining senior swimmer Lauren Perdue (Class of 2013), who won with the U.S. women's 4x200m free relay and Becky Sauerbrunn (Class of 2007) of the U.S. women's soccer squad.

McLean followed up the Olympics by anchoring the U.S. men's 4x200m free relay to gold at the 2012 World Short Course Championships in Istanbul.

The Sterling, Va., native graduated with a degree in sociology in 2011 and as one of UVa's most decorated student-athletes. McLean won the 2011 NCAA Championship in the 500-yard freestyle and was a 15-time All-American at UVa. A 17-time Atlantic Coast Conference Champion, he was the ACC Swimmer of the Year in 2008, 2009 and 2011.

McLean has also made a splash outside the pool, donating his time and effort to multiple charities, including the Fran Crippen Elevation Foundation, where he was named the Work the Dream Grant recipient for 2011-12, and the Jessie Rees Foundation, that helps children dealing with cancer and other terminal illnesses.

RICH MACDONALD

Dividing Coach
Fourth Season
Rhode Island, 1997

Rich MacDonald is in his fourth year as the diving coach at the University of Virginia. In three seasons, he has seen nine divers - six men and three women - compete in the NCAA Zone Championships.

In 2011-12, MacDonald tutored Briggly Imbriglia to an NCAA Zone Championship on the platform and a ticket to the NCAA Championships, where he finished 13th. Imbriglia, along with JB Kolod and Laura Gartrell competed at the NCAA Zone meet.

In his first season with the Cavaliers in 2009-10, MacDonald mentored three men's divers - Alex D'Ambrosio, Imbriglia, and Kevin Moore - to the NCAA Zone Championships, where Virginia finished second in team competition in a field of 23 from the Northeast. Imbriglia highlighted the field after he finished in platform competition at the 2010 ACC Championships and went on placed second at the Zone meet.

Then in his second season (2010-11), MacDonald guided four divers - the most in school history - to the NCAA Zone Meet. Imbriglia joined Nathan Parker as the two men's competitors while a pair of freshmen women - Alex Leinroth and Kelly Lloyd - represented the UVa women.

MacDonald joined the Cavalier program after serving in a similar capacity at East Carolina for nine seasons. He was the first full-time diving coach there and guided at least one ECU diver to NCAA Zones in eight of his nine years, including the first finalists on both the 1-meter and 3-meter boards in school history. MacDonald also helped multiple Conference USA Freshman Divers of the Year and multiple conference finalists.

Prior to his stint with the Pirates, MacDonald coached at his alma mater, Rhode Island, from 1997-2000, where he mentored two Atlantic-10 conference champions and three NCAA Zone qualifiers.

MacDonald also has a wealth of club coaching experience. While in Greenville, N.C., he started the age group team called the Emerald City Dive Club. With that squad, MacDonald coached four North Carolina state finalists and one North Carolina state champion. He also served as a volunteer assistant with L'Air Bergere diving team in Philadelphia for three summers. In 2000 L'Air Bergere finished first at the Junior Olympic national meet.

MacDonald also started and is the head coach of the Wahoo Diving Club in Charlottesville.

A native of Fort Washington, Pa., MacDonald was a member of the 1993 state championship swimming and diving team at Upper Dublin High School. He went on to coach the Fort Washington swimming and diving team for six years.

MacDonald earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science and education from Rhode Island in 1997.

ACC 50TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2002-03. The league commemorated its 50th anniversary by selecting 50th Anniversary Teams for each sport. On August 20, 2002, Virginia had 15 of its swimmers selected to the 51-member ACC 50th Anniversary Swimming & Diving Team, the most of any school.
