OPENING KICK

VIRGINIA AND OHIO MEET IN THE "MUSIC CITY"

- The University of Virginia and Ohio University have moved its contest to Nashville, Tenn., due to Hurricane Florence.
- The game will be played at Vanderbilt Stadium, where UVA has played six times against Vanderbilt, most recently in 1975.
- Saturday is UVA's first regular season neutral-site game since UVA played Notre Dame in the 1989 Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands in New Jersey.
- Ohio and Virginia are meeting for the second time in series history.

VIRGINIA VS. OHIO

- Virginia leads the all-time series with Ohio, 1-0.
- The Cavaliers won the only previous meeting with the Bobcats, 41-7, in 1993 at Scott Stadium.
- Former UVA quarterback Symmion Willis set a then-school record with five touchdown passes against the Bobcats, playing into the third quarter before giving way to Mike Groh.
- The Cavalier defense held the Bobcats to an average of 2.8 yards per play as Ohio managed just 198 yards of total offense on 70 plays.
- Former UVA Cavalier and former two-time Super Bowl Champion with the Pittsburgh Steelers, James Farrior, earned Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Week honors after posting a team-high 18 tackles in the win.

QB Bryce Perkins has rushed for 100+ yards in each of his first two career games at Virginia, which is a first in program history.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- Virginia is playing a Mid-American Conference team for the fourth time in six seasons. Saturday is the first UVA owns a 12-2-1 all-time record against teams from the MAC.
- When UVA first met Ohio in 1993, it broke a streak of 44 years between meetings with a team from the Mid-American Conference (Miami of Ohio, 1949).
- QB Bryce Perkins rushed for 123 yards at Indiana last Saturday to become the first UVA quarterback since Bill Dudley in 1941 to rush for 100+ multiple times in the same season. Perkins' 123 rushing yards ranks No. 7 on UVA's single-game list for quarterback rushing. Perkins joins Dudley (4) and Bob Davis (2) as the only UVA quarterbacks to have at least two career games with 100+ yards rushing.
- Virginia blocked a PAT (Juan Thornhill) and a field goal attempt (Charles Snowden) at Indiana last time out. It was the first time UVA blocked two kicks in the same game since the 2008 Richmond game when Matt Conrath and Nick Jenkins each blocked field goals.
- HB Olamide Zaccheaus has 168 career receptions. He needs 43 catches to break Billy McMullen's UVA record of 210. With 32 receptions, Zaccheaus will become only the second player in program history to reach 200 career receptions.

#NewStandard: BY THE NUMBERS

- 6 QB Bryce Perkins has been responsible for six touchdowns through UVA's first two games (four passing, two rushing).
- 16 Saturday is the Cavaliers' 16th all-time meeting with a team from the Mid-American Conference. UVA is 12-2-1 all-time against the MAC.
- 31 HB Olamide Zaccheaus has a reception in 31-straight games. The streak started in Miami against the Hurricanes on Nov. 7, 2015.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

VIRGINIA - OHIO CONNECTIONS

- Virginia has three players that hail from the state of Ohio. QB Brennan Armstrong (Shelby), Chris Glaser (Solon) and C.J. Stalker (West Chester) all call Ohio home.
- Former Ohio head football coach Brian Burke was the head coach of the Bobcats from 1979-84. Prior to becoming the head coach at Ohio, Burke spent the 1977-78 seasons at Virginia as the offensive coordinator on two Dick Bestwick-coached teams. Under Burke at Ohio, a young graduate assistant got his first college coaching gig - current Michigan State head coach, Mark Dantonio.
- Ohio associate head coach and defensive coordinator, Jimmy Burrow, was the defensive backs coach at Washington State and coached against student-athlete Bronco Mendenhall in 1986, Mendenhall's junior season at Oregon State. Ohio co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, Ron Collins, was a senior strong safety on that 1986 Washington State team that played against Bronco's Oregon State team.
- Ohio defensive line coach, Pete Germano, coached for five years at Fresno State and faced Bronco Mendenhall's 2015 BYU team in Provo. Eight current members of UVA's coaching staff were on that 2015 BYU staff. BYU won the game, 52-10.
- Ohio's senior associate AD for development, Ryan White, spent 11 years in Charlottesville as an assistant director with the Virginia Athletics Foundation.
- Below is a list of hometown and high school connections between players on UVA's roster and those on Ohio roster:

Virginia	Hometown/High School	Ohio
Mandy Alonso	Miami, Fla.	Jamal Hudson
Dominic Sheppard		Marlin Brooks
Brenton Nelson		Alvin Floyd
Shane Eilers	Tampa, Fla.	Felipe Fernandez
Tyler Fannin	Mill Creek HS (Ga.)	Amos Ogun-Semore

He rushed for only 40 yards in his collegiate debut against Clemson, but followed up in career game No. 2 with 158 rushing yards against Duke. - Junior inside linebacker Jordan Mack is UVA's leading returning tackler after finishing 2017 with 114 tackles.
- While former Cavaliers Micah Kiser (145) and Quin Blanding (137) finished No. 1 and No. 2 in the ACC in tackles three years in a row, Mack finishing No. 5 in the ACC and No. 28 nationally in tackles was mostly an afterthought. In 2017 UVA was the only "Power 5" to have three players with at least 100 tackles. New Mexico State was the only other school in the nation to also accomplish that feat in 2017.
- Mack returns the second-most tackles in ACC entering 2018, chasing only Duke's Joe Giles-Harris (125), who finished No. 3 in the ACC in tackles in 2017.
- Mack is tied for No. 14 in the nation among all tacklers returning in 2018.

A THORN IN THE SIDE OF AN OFFENSE

- SS Juan Thornhill is one of the nation's best at what he does on defense.
- Thornhill has played corner and safety at UVA and entered 2018 with 23 career starts between the two positions.
- Thornhill earned third-team All-ACC honors in 2017 after finishing No. 3 in the ACC in both interceptions (4) and passes defended (16).
- Thornhill also is a stellar tackler, finishing 2017 with 63 tackles, including a career-high three for a loss against Navy in the Military Bowl.
- He also finished No. 2 on the team with seven special teams tackles.

STRONG SECONDARY RETURNS IN 2018

- While UVA lost a lot on defense with the graduation of FS Quin Blanding, DE Andrew Brown and ILB Micah Kiser, it returns a pretty good secondary that finished No. 7 in the nation and No. 2 in the ACC with 165.8 passing yards allowed per game.
- UVA's defense also ranked No. 9 nationally and No. 2 in the ACC in Red Zone defense in 2017.
- UVA entered 2018 with defensive secondary starts from Bryce Hall (13), Brenton Nelson (13), Juan Thornhill (12), Chris Moore (7), Joey Blount (1) and Tim Harris (1).
- CB Myles Robinson started three games in 2016 before suffering a season-ending injury.
- CB Tim Harris has 22 career starts entering 2018, but has missed most of 2016 and 2017 with injury.

BLOUNT LOOKS TO MAKE DEFENSIVE IMPACT IN YEAR TWO

- With the graduation of UVA's all-time career tackle leader Quin Blanding, sophomore Joey Blount looks to have a big impact on defense.
- As a first year in 2017, Blount led UVA with 13 tackles on special teams, 11 of which came on kickoffs.
- Blount recorded his first career double-digit tackle game against Boston College, notching 10 stops while seeing his most playing time on defense in 2017.
- Blount made his first collegiate start at cornerback at Pitt in 2017 for the injured Juan Thornhill.
- Blount is the son of former UVA safety, Tony Blount, who played for the Cavaliers from 1976-79 and owns the 11th-longest interception return (63) in program history.

DEFENSE GETS COOK AND HARRIS BACK FOR SIXTH SEASON

- UVA's defense welcomes the return of ILB Malcolm Cook and CB Tim Harris, each returning for a sixth season.
- Cook missed the entire 2016 season with a medical condition, while Harris received a medical hardship after appearing in two games. Harris suffered a season-ending injury in the 2017 season opener against William & Mary, receiving a second medical hardship in as many years.
- Harris owns 22 career starts, while Cook was slated as a starter at OLB in Bronco Mendenhall's 3-4 in 2016 before a medical condition almost halted his athletic career.
- Of Harris' 22 starts, 21 of them took place between 2013-15. Harris missed the 2013 season opener against Mendenhall's BYU team with an injury, but played in the last 11 games of the year. He later played in the 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 season openers.
- Injuries slowed Cook in 2014 and 2015 before missing 2016 with a medical condition. He made six starts in 2017, including a career-high 13 tackles in the season-opening win against William & Mary.
- Harris and Cook, both hail from Richmond, enrolled together in 2013.

COLEMAN A PROVEN COMMODITY IN THE PUNT GAME

- Senior Lester Coleman returns to the fold in 2018 after earning second-team All-ACC honors as a punter.
- Coleman finished 2017 No. 4 in the ACC with a 43.7 punting average. He led the ACC with 23 punts of 50 yards or more and was No. 2 in the ACC, No. 7 nationally, with 29 punts inside the 20. Also, 16 of his 29 punts inside the 20 were downed inside the 10-yard line. Coleman also set a UVA single-season record with six punts of 60 yards or more.
- Coleman sat his first three years on Grounds before making his collegiate debut in the 2017 season opener against William & Mary. He sat the 2015 and 2016 seasons behind former first-team All-ACC punter Nicholas Conte.
- Coleman did not punt in high school until his senior season. He had played defensive line and receiver at Woodberry Forest. His high school needed a punter and because Lester's older brother, James, had walked on to UVA as a punter in 2012, Lester was asked to punt without any experience. Lester's brother, James, redshirted at UVA in 2012 and punted two times over three seasons (2013-15) before using his fifth year to be the starting punter at Western Michigan in 2016.
- Lester Coleman averaged 52.3 yards per punt over his seven punts against Boston College (Oct. 21) to break the single-game UVA punting record.
- The previous record belonged to Ryan Weigand, who averaged 51.6 yards per punt at Wyoming in 2007.

BRYCE PERKINS NOTES

IT IS A PERK TO HAVE A NEW QB ON THE BLOCK

- QB Bryce Perkins made his first career FBS start at quarterback against Richmond in the season opener.
- Perkins transferred to UVA last January from Arizona Western Community College after leading the Matadors to the 2017 NJCAA Championship game, before falling 31-28 to East Mississippi.
- Perkins originally signed as a top recruit with hometown Arizona State, but never saw action during his two seasons in Tempe. He redshirted the 2015 season and missed the 2016 season with an injury.
- Perkins' father, Bruce, lettered at Arizona State in 1988 and 1989 as a full-back and later played briefly in the NFL. Perkins' older brother, Paul, was a three-year letterwinner at running back with the UCLA Bruins and currently plays with the New York Giants. Perkins' uncle, Don Perkins, played eight seasons in the NFL with the Cowboys.
- Perkins, who passed for 1,311 yards and rushed for 353 yards (5.1 avg.) at Arizona Western in 2017, is replacing Kurt Benkert as UVA's quarterback in 2018. Benkert set UVA's single-season passing mark (3,207) and total offense (3,144) record in 2017.

PERKINS IS UVA'S STARTING QUARTERBACK

- Bryce Perkins, a transfer from Arizona Western Community College, became (vs. Richmond) just the second Cavalier quarterback to start his UVA debut since 1977 when Bryan Shumock started the season opener against NC State. Shumock switched to defensive back for the 1978 season and led UVA with four interceptions.
- Former UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert also started his UVA debut against Richmond in 2016.
- Perkins was the 12th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 14 seasons. The list includes: Kurt Benkert (2016-17), Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lulich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

UVA QUARTERBACKS IN THEIR FIRST-CAREER START

- QB Bryce Perkins, a transfer from Arizona Western Community College, made his first collegiate start for the Cavaliers against Richmond (Sept. 1) in the season opener.
- Since 1955, 20 Virginia quarterbacks have passed for at least 150 yards in their first-career start. Here is a breakdown of the most passing yards by a Virginia QB in their first-ever start:

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 465 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 261-192-12.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • Third Season

Bronco Mendenhall is in his third season as Virginia's head football coach after being named the program's 40th head coach on Dec. 4, 2015.

In Mendenhall's second season on Grounds in 2017 he directed UVA to its first bowl game since 2011. He oversaw a defense that ranked No. 7 in the nation and No. 2 in the ACC against the pass (165.8). The group was headed by three-time first-team All-ACC player Quin Blanding, ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Brenton Nelson and third-team All-ACC cornerback Juan Thornhill. Blanding finished his illustrious career with more All-America honors and as UVA's all-time record holder with 495 career tackles. The 495 career tackles rank tied for No. 6 all-time in ACC history and are the most by any ACC defensive back. Blanding finished each of his four seasons No. 2 in the ACC in tackles. Inside linebacker Micah Kiser was named the Campbell Trophy winner (Academic Heisman) and led the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row. Only Boston College's Luke Kuechly (2009-11) had previously accomplished the feat in league history. Kiser was also a three-time first-team All-ACC honoree and received multiple All-America honors over the 2016 and 2017 seasons, including becoming the first Cavalier since Tiki Barber in 1996 to earn both academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season when he was a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2016.

Mendenhall saw the conclusion of quarterback Kurt Benkert's collegiate career in 2017. The UVA quarterback became the first player in program history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season. Benkert finished 2017 with 3,207 passing yards and a single-season program record 298 completions. Benkert's 25 passing touchdowns in 2017 rank No. 2 all-time at UVA for a season. The starting quarterback for each of Mendenhall's first two seasons at Virginia, Benkert leaves No. 3 all-time at UVA in career passing yards (5,759) and passing touchdowns (46), which came in 24 career games for the Cavaliers.

In Mendenhall's first season on Grounds he oversaw a secondary that boasted first-team All-ACC honoree and All-American, Quin Blanding. Blanding finished the season No. 2 in the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row with 120 stops. Inside linebacker Micah Kiser, an All-American and first-team All-ACC honoree, thrived to lead the ACC in tackles for the second year in a row with 134, which is tied with former Cavalier great Wali Rainer for fourth-most in a single season in program history. Kiser was also a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, becoming the first Cavalier since Tiki Barber in 1996 to earn both academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season.

Offensively, in Mendenhall's first season, Taquan Mizzell became the first player in ACC history to record at least 1,500 career rushing and 1,500 career receiving yards. UVA quarterback Kurt Benkert set a couple of passing marks in UVA's new offense, including a program record for passing yards in a game with 421 against Central Michigan, which was only the second time in program history a UVA quarterback surpassed 400 passing yards in a game. Benkert reached 1,000 passing yards in four games and 2,000 passing yards in eight games, setting a program record for fastest to that standard in a season.

Mendenhall came to Charlottesville after 11 years as the head coach at Brigham Young University. In his 11 seasons, from 2005-2015, Mendenhall compiled an overall record of 99-43 at BYU to rank 12th in total wins among all FBS teams during that time.

In the three seasons prior to Mendenhall becoming the head coach at BYU, the Cougars compiled an overall record of 14-21. Over Mendenhall's 11 years at BYU, the Cougars were one of only 11 programs to advance to a bowl game each season (includes the 2015 season). BYU joined by Alabama, Boise State, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech and Wisconsin on that list.

Among those 11 teams, only Florida State has achieved more bowl wins (seven) than BYU's six bowl game victories.

The success of Mendenhall's leadership approach in running the BYU football program was highlighted in a management book, Running Into the Wind: Bronco Mendenhall -- 5 Strategies for Building a Successful Team, written by Alyson Von Feldt and Paul Gustavson, a leading management consultant specializing in leadership development and organizational design.

Mendenhall was elected in 2013 to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees as the District 8 Representative and also serves on the AFCA Ethics Committee.

DID YOU KNOW?

- When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering stature of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.
- The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.
- DL Samson Reed's father, Tanoai, played offensive line at Hawaii from 1991-94. Reed's dad, Tanoai, is the cousin of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and works as his Hollywood stunt double.
- Junior defensive lineman Cassius Peat is the son of Todd Peat, who played six seasons in the NFL with the Cardinals and Raiders as an offensive guard. His older brother, Andrus, was an All-American at Stanford and a former first round draft pick by the Saints (2015).
- Walk-on second year Tristan Hillerich is one of four boys. His parents, Brent and Colleen, are proud parents of two sets of twins. Tristan has a twin brother, Bart, while the pair has a younger set of twin brothers, Quinn and Grady.
- Virginia has five players on its roster who are the sons of former Cavalier football players. Joey Blount (Tony Blount), Germane Crowell (Germane Crowell, Sr.), Tucker Finkelston (Tim Finkelston), Mikey McDonald (Geoff McDonald) and Andrew Yavinsky (Marc Yavinsky).
- WR Chuck Davis won $100,000 playing the Virginia Lottery in June 2017. He spent $1 for a Cash 5 game ticket at a 7-Eleven in Ashburn, Va. He used the numbers on his grandmother's license plate on the car he drove to the market.
- DB Donovan Rolle participated in the 2011 and 2013 Scripps National Spelling Bee.
- S Vinnie Vladic's father, Larry Vladic, was college football teammates at Oregon State with UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall in 1986 and 1987.
- Walk-on first year S Cole Lytle has a twin brother, Adam, who is a walk-on freshman on the Virginia Tech football team. Lytle's older sister, Ashley, is a UVA alum, while his older brother, Dean, currently attends Virginia Tech.

GAME 1 • UVA 42, Richmond 13 Sept. 1 • Charlottesville, Va.

Game Notes

- With the start, NT Jordan Redmond becomes the first true freshman to start a season opener on the defensive line for UVA since 2002 when DE Kwakou Robinson started against Colorado State. He is only the fourth UVA freshman (true or redshirt) since 1986 to start a season opener on the defensive line. The others are DE Matt Conrath (RS-Fr., 2008 vs. USC) and NT Tim O'Conner (RS-Fr., 1986 vs. South Carolina).
- Bryce Perkins' 36-yard rushing touchdown in the first quarter was the longest rush by a UVA quarterback since Matt Johns' 42-yard rush against Kent State in 2014.
- With two rushing touchdowns, Bryce Perkins became the first UVA quarterback to rush for two touchdowns in a game since Jameel Sewell at Southern Miss in 2009.
- Perkins finished with 108 rushing yards, becoming the first UVA quarterback to rush for at least 100 yards in a game since Jameel Sewell (104) did so against Virginia Tech in 2009.
- Perkins became only the 13th Cavalier quarterback to rush for at least 100 yards in a game.
- Perkins finished with 185 passing yards, giving him the xx most by a UVA quarterback starting his first game.
- With a career-high 146 rushing yards, Jordan Ellis became the 43rd player in program history to reach 1,000 career rushing yards.
- Ellis rushed for at least 100 yards for the second time in his career. He rushed for 136 yards at North Carolina in 2017.
- With both Perkins (108) and Ellis (146) rushing for over 100 yards, the duo becomes the 29th Cavaliers to do so in the same game. The last UVA to each rush for at least 100 yards in a game was Daniel Hamm (136) and Kevin Parks (135) in 2013 against VMI.
- With six catches, Olamide Zaccheaus has now recorded a reception in 30-straight games.
- Zaccheaus finished with 101 receiving yards, his fourth career game over 100 receiving yards.
