OPENING KICK

CAVALIERS HOST CARDINALS ON SATURDAY

- Virginia and Louisville meet on Saturday night under the lights of Scott Stadium.
- Saturday is the first time this series has been played at night.

THE LOUISVILLE SERIES

- Saturday marks the ninth time in series history the Cavaliers and Cardinals have met in football and the seventh time in ACC play.
- Louisville leads the all-time series, 5-3. UL also leads the series, 4-2, since Louisville joined the ACC in 2014. Except for 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson's final minute heroics in 2016 at Scott Stadium, the home team has won every game in the series.
- The first five games of the series were won by a touchdown or less, including the first three on field goals in the closing minutes.

FIVE TOP STORYLINES

- OLB Charles Snowden has recorded a combined 18 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks over his last two games (at then-No. 11 Miami and vs. then-No. 15 North Carolina). He had 5.0 sacks all of 2019. His 5.0 sacks on the year rank tied for No. 2 among the nation's linebackers. His 4.0 sacks against the Tar Heels was the most by any FBS player this season. He was named ACC Linebacker of the Week for his efforts against UNC.
- Virginia rushed for 210 yards against then-No. 15 North Carolina last time out. It was the ninth time since 2018 UVA has rushed for 200+ yards. The Cavaliers own an 8-1 record in those games.
- WR Billy Kemp IV has 45 receptions this season. Kemp's 45 receptions are the second most by a Cavalier in program history through the first six games of a season, trailing only Billy McMullen's 47 through six games in 2001.
- Kemp is No. 1 in the ACC and No. 11 in the nation with 7.5 receptions per game.
- ILB Nick Jackson leads the ACC with 10.7 tackles per game. The last two games include a career-high 16 tackles at then-No. 11 Miami and 11 more against then-No. 15 UNC last time out.

OLB Charles Snowden recorded 4.0 sacks against No. 15 North Carolina, which is the most in a game this season in all of FBS. He is No. 2 in FBS and No. 1 in the ACC in sacks by a linebacker.

VIRGINIA ATHLETICS NEW BRAND IDENTITY

- The University of Virginia athletics department introduced this year its new brand identity. The refreshed designs provide updates on a brand rich in history and tradition. The work was developed by Nike's Global Identity Group (GIG) and includes updates to the iconic V-Sabre mark, two new secondary marks, a revised color scheme and the introduction of new typography, numerals and patterns.
- Nike's GIG team works with a select number of its side-line partners each year to update the athletics department's brand identity based on the goals provided by the institution. The launch of the new Virginia Athletics brand identity is the culmination of an 18-month collaborative process with Nike that began with discovery sessions with UVA coaches, student-athletes and administrators.

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

The first documented Cavalier on horseback was Francis Bell, a Virginia student from Dublin, Va., in 1947. Bell rode onto the field dressed as Cavaliers for Virginia's home football game with Harvard on the afternoon of October 11.

The Cavalier on horseback returned as the University's mascot in 1963. The UVA Polo Club provided both the horse and rider. However, the mounted Cavalier and his horse parted company in 1974 with the inception of AstroTurf at Scott Stadium.

The mounted Cavalier made its return in the Florida Citrus Bowl at the end of the 1989 football season. Due to its instant popularity, the Cavalier on horseback returned the following season on a regular basis and continues to lead the Virginia football team onto the field at the beginning of all home games.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

MORE ON THE LOUISVILLE SERIES

- The two schools first met at Louisville in 1988, a 30-28 Cardinal win. Louisville kicker Ron Bell connected on a 39-yard field goal with 10 seconds left in the game to give the Cardinals the triumph at Old Cardinal Stadium. UVA had led Louisville 28-14 after scoring on its opening drive of the second half, but Louisville scored 16 unanswered points to snatch the victory away from the Cavaliers.
- The tables were flipped when the series moved to Charlottesville in 1989. Jake McInerney kicked a 37-yard field goal as time expired to lift UVA over Louisville, 16-15.
- McInerney's kick is one of two field goals in UVA history to win a game with zeros on the clock. The most recent was in 2011 when Robert Randolph chipped a 23-yard game-winner at Indiana.
- Shawn Moore gave UVA a 13-9 lead with his 4-yard passing strike to Herman Moore in the closing seconds before halftime. Louisville used two fourth-quarter field goals to build a 15-13 lead before McInerney's heroics.
- On UVA's game-winning drive, Moore orchestrated the offense on a 10-play, 60-yard drive, to set up McInerney's field goal. The drive included a 25-yard quarterback draw by Moore as the UVA signal caller accumulated 40 yards during the drive with his own legs.
- PK Ian Frye's 42-yard field goal with 1:24 left won the game for the Cavaliers in 2014. Frye's field goal is the third-longest game-winning field goal in UVA program history.

2020 SEASON IS DIFFERENT, BUT LOUISVILLE CONTINUES TO GRACE SCHEDULE

- The ACC said so long to Maryland when Louisville joined the league on July 1, 2014. Maryland had served as UVA's annual Atlantic Division crossover opponent every season since the ACC created the division format in 2005.
- Louisville not only takes Maryland's spot in the Atlantic Division, but also has served as UVA's annual crossover opponent prior to the unique scheduling of 2020. UVA has played the Cardinals every season they have been in the ACC.

UVA VS. TEAMS FROM THE BLUEGRASS STATE

- Virginia has played 12 games against teams from the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
- UVA is 5-7 all-time against teams from the "Bluegrass State."
- UVA played Centre College from Danville, Ky., at Lambeth Field in Charlottesville in 1919, a 49-7 loss.
- UVA played Kentucky in 1902, 1903 and 1930. The 1902 and 1930 games against the Wildcats were played in Lexington, Ky., while the 1903 meeting was in Charlottesville.
- Including the 1898 meeting in Louisville between UVA and Vanderbilt, UVA has played seven all-time games in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

HEISMAN MOMENT FOR JACKSON AT SCOTT

- When Louisville came to Scott Stadium in 2016, Lamar Jackson had a Heisman Trophy moment helping the Cardinals beat the Cavaliers, 32-25.
- With just over two minutes to play and No. 5 Louisville suddenly trailing Virginia 25-24, Lamar Jackson answered for the Cardinals. He engineered a 75-yard drive and capping it by floating a perfectly placed 29-yard touchdown pass to Jaylen Smith with 13 seconds remaining as the Cardinals survived Virginia, 32-25.
- It was Jackson's fourth touchdown pass and helped the Louisville quarterback capture the 2016 Heisman Trophy.
- Virginia had scored with 1:57 remaining and used a 2-point conversion to take a 25-24 lead, whipping the crowd at Scott Stadium into a frenzy.
- To date, it is the only time the visiting team in this series won the game.

THOMPSON BEAT LOUISVILLE IN 2017

- UVA grad transfer QB/WR Keytaon Thompson's first career start at Mississippi State as a true freshman in 2017 was in the Taxslayer Bowl. He led the Bulldogs to a 31-27 victory over the Lamar Jackson-led Louisville Cardinals, rushing for three scores and tying a MSU bowl record.
- In the game Thompson rushed 27 times for 147 yards, in addition to the three rushing touchdowns, all are still career highs. He also was 11-of-20 passing for 127 passing yards against the Cardinals.

VIRGINIA - LOUISVILLE CONNECTIONS

- UVA's Tavares Kelly attended St. Thomas Aquinas High School (Fort Lauderdale, Fla.), as did Louisville's Logan Lupo. The NFL announced that St. Thomas Aquinas High School had the most alums on NFL rosters entering the 2020 season with 14. St. Thomas Aquinas has earned this honor for the seventh season in a row and eighth in the past nine.
- Below is a list of high school connections between players on UVA's roster and those on Louisville's roster:

Virginia	High School	Louisville
Darnell Pratt	Our Lady of Good Counsel (Md.)	Drew Breowitz
Tavares Kelly Jr.	St. Thomas Aquinas (Fla.)	Logan Lupo

Last Meeting

The Virginia Cavaliers fell late to the Louisville Cardinals, 28-21, at Cardinal Stadium the last time these teams met.

Virginia had a chance in the closing seconds to force overtime. Bryce Perkins founds Tavares Kelly on a four-yard scoring strike with 21 seconds left to make it 28-21. Hasise Dubois recovered the ensuing on-side kick from A.J. Mejia to give UVA a chance at the Louisville 41. With four seconds remaining Perkins' pass to the end zone fell incomplete, clinching the win for the Cardinals.

Virginia used two Wayne Taulapapa rushing touchdowns in the first half to take a 14-7 lead into the intermission. UVA marched 60 yards on seven plays during its first possession of the game to take an early 7-0 lead. Taulapapa capped the drive with a six-yard rush. He later added a 19-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter to break a 7-7 tie.

After UVA's Jordan Mack was ejected on a questionable targeting call to start the second half, Louisville scored 21-unanswered points thanks to two rushing touchdowns by Javian Hawkins.

- Since 2000, Snowden is one of 11 ACC players to record 4.0+ sacks in a game and the first since Greg Rousseau of Miami did so against FSU in 2019.
- Snowden is the first Cavalier to record 4.0 sacks since Jamie Sharper in 1996 (vs. UNC).

THE C-VILLE TRIO

- Virginia has three receivers, Billy Kemp IV (45), Terrell Jana (28) and Tony Poljan (24), with at least 24 receptions. It is one of four programs in the nation with three players at that plateau in catches, joining Alabama, Arkansas State and Clemson.

- QB Brennan Armstrong connected with RB Shane Simpson for a 71-yard scoring strike, which were career longs for both Cavaliers. The 71-yard receiving touchdown was the longest by a Cavalier since Joe Reed went 75 yards at Virginia Tech in 2018 and it was the longest by a Cavalier running back since Taquan Mizzell scored on an 80-yard reception against William & Mary in 2015.

- In comparison, UVA's opponents have started 16 drives on the Cavaliers' side of the field. The UVA defense has battled well under the circumstances, yielding five touchdowns and four field goals. The defense has also forced two punts, one interception and one missed field goal. Two other times the game ended with a QB kneel.

- Five games into the season, UVA already has scoring drives of 97 yards (vs. NC State), 94 yards (vs. Duke) and 94 yards (at Miami). All three drives resulted in touchdowns and are longer than any drive the Cavaliers had in 2017, 2018 and 2019.

DELANEY BREAKS UVA'S CONSECUTIVE FIELD GOALS MADE RECORD

- Senior Brian Delaney made 17-straight field goals, breaking the UVA record owned by Jake McInerney. In 1989, McInerney made 14 in a row. Delaney's streak came to an end at Wake Forest on Oct. 17 after he missed his third attempt of the game.
- Delaney's streak had started on Oct. 11, 2019 at Miami when he made three field goals in a row after his first attempt of the game was blocked.
- The ACC record is 34, set by Wake Forest's Nick Sciba last season, breaking the previous record of 27 held by NC State's Marc Primanti.

STONE MAKES FIRST CAREER START

- QB Lindell Stone made his first career start against Wake Forest. With 193 passing yards, he became the 22nd Cavalier in program history to throw for 150+ yards in his first career start.
- Stone's 193 passing yards ranks No. 10 all-time among UVA quarterbacks making their first career starts.

"BREAKING THE ROCK"

"Breaking the Rock," has also become a tradition in UVA football, started in 2018 by Shawn Griswold, the team's director of football development and performance. It represents how you move a mountain, one rock at a time. The hardest worker during summer workouts is awarded the honor of swinging the sledgehammer and breaking the designated rock to close the summer phase. After a Cavalier win, the "unofficial player of the game" breaks the rock for that week. Below is the collection of Cavaliers to Break the Rock since the tradition began. Griswold started the tradition while at Tulsa and also included it at Pitt and Arizona State.

STONE'S CAREER DAY AGAINST NC STATE

- Fourth-year QB Lindell Stone had a career day against NC State when he was called into the game in the second quarter after starting QB Brennan Armstrong left with an injury.
- It was just the fifth appearance of Stone's career and first that didn't come in the fourth quarter. Entering the game his only pass of 2020 had gone for -7 yards and his career QB efficiency rating was 5.03.
- Stone tossed his first career passing touchdown in the closing seconds of the second quarter when he found Billy Kemp IV for the two-yard score. On the scoring drive Stone was 6-of-9 for 75 yards and the touchdown pass.
- Stone finished with career highs in completions (30), attempts (53), yards (240) and touchdowns (3).
- Stone marked the 17th time since 2000 a Cavalier quarterback has completed 30+ passes in a game. Six of those occurrences have happened since 2017.

JANA JOINS THE 100/1,000 CLUB AT VIRGINIA

- WR Terrell Jana notched nine receptions against NC State on Oct. 10 to become the 23rd Cavalier in program history to reach 100 career receptions and 1,000 receiving yards. Jana became the 43rd player in program history to reach 1,000 career receiving yards in the 2019 Orange Bowl against Florida.
- Eight of the 23 Cavaliers to join the 100/1,000 club had current UVA wide receiver coach Marques Hagans as a coach.

THE HAGANS FACTOR

- With WR Terrell Jana moving into No. 21 all-time at UVA in receiving yards, he becomes the ninth Cavalier in the Top 25 to be coached by current UVA receivers coach and alum Marques Hagans.
- Hagans has coached: No. 2 Olamide Zaccheaus, No. 5 Kris Burd, No. 8 Hasise Dubois, No. 11 Darius Jennings, No. 12 Tim Smith, No. 17 Joe Reed, No. 18 Doni Dowling, No. 20 Canaan Severin and No. 25 Jana. Hagans worked with Burd while as an offensive GA in 2011.
- In all, 11 of the 42 Cavaliers that have reached the 1,000-yard receiving plateau in their career have been coached by Hagans.

MITCHELL HONORS HAGANS WITH JERSEY PICK

- WR Hayden Mitchell, who wore No. 83 the last two years, picked No. 18 when it was his time to choose this season. He did so to honor his position coach, Marques Hagans, who wore the number as a QB/WR at UVA (2002-05).
- Mitchell is a former walk-on. The Richmond, Va., native was awarded a scholarship this past August after practice.

REINKENSMEYER ACCOMPLISHES RARE OFFENSIVE LINE FEAT

- After starting the season opener against Duke at left guard, Virginia fifth-year offensive lineman Dillon Reinkensmeyer has started a game at all five offensive line positions. He is now the only FBS player to accomplish this feat in research dating back to the start of the 2010 season.
- Reinkensmeyer owns 21 starts at center, 12 starts at right tackle, six starts at left guard, two starts at left tackle and two starts at right guard.
- Reinkensmeyer's 43 career starts are top on the UVA offense.
- Research has found a number of players who started at center, and at guard and a tackle position over their careers prior to 2010, but no confirmations of all five.

LAVEL DAVIS JR. SHINES IN DEBUT

- WR Lavel Davis Jr. led UVA with 101 receiving yards and two touchdowns on four receptions in his collegiate debut against Duke. The 101 receiving yards by the Dorchester, S.C., native is the first time a Cavalier has recorded 100+ receiving yards in his collegiate debut.
- He scored touchdowns on scoring strikes of 18 and 26 yards in the fourth quarter. His first, an 18-yard pass from Brennan Armstrong, gave UVA the lead (24-20) for good with 12:43 left to play against Duke. He was named ACC receiver and rookie of the week for his efforts.
- To compare Davis to former Cavaliers, below is UVA's career Top 10 in receiving yards and what they did in their collegiate debut:

UNIQUELY VIRGINIA FOOTBALL

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- The Virginia football program under Bronco Mendenhall has 14 guiding principles. They can be found on the walls of the McCue Center and outlining the fences of the practice facility. They are a constant reminder to the foundation of the program. Each one is a vehicle for the Virginia football program to develop people.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: "I would love to win a national championship. I'd love to develop a great program here. But what I would really love is for every kid in my program to have an amazing life."
- Family. First, Last, Always
- Earned Not Given
- Will Before Skill
- And ...
- 400 Percent
- The Power of Choice
- Two Ways
- Protect our Cart
- Less Drama, More Work
- Hard Things Together
- Everybody is Somebody
- It Pays to be a Winner
- Champions Do Extra
- Make it a Masterpiece

TASK UNIT LEADERS

- The Cavaliers have 10 task-unit leaders and each has an assistant. Working together, they determine the order in which players select their jersey numbers, choose the movie that's shown the night before a game (not taking place this season), pick the color combination of the uniform UVA will wear in a given game, recognize teammates for their effort in practice, and decide which players make up the four special-teams units: kickoff, kickoff return, punt and punt return.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: "It's their program. The idea simply is, I like the idea of delegating and providing leadership opportunities as much as possible. I try to get as much off it [head coach's plate] as possible, so the only thing that I have remaining to do is competitive work. Then that allows me to help our team at the highest level with the time that I have."
- OLB Charles Snowden Said It: "I know he's [Mendenhall] big on leadership development, so I think he just gives us opportunities to lead within football. We definitely see our peers in a different light than the coaches do. The coaches kind of see football only. We know who's coming back and getting in extra work, we know how guys carry themselves, we know how invested they are."

THE 4TH SIDE

- Offense and defense are two sides. Special teams is the third side. The 4th Side, in Bronco Mendenhall's teaching, is the sidelines. Mendenhall has made it a point of emphasis with his team since arriving in Charlottesville that The 4th Side is as important as the other three. And just as he expects his teams to perform on offense, defense and special teams, Mendenhall wants his players on the sidelines to thrive. By extension, the UVA fan base is also part of the The 4th Side.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: "It starts on our sideline and possibly the name of all of our fans as the entire stadium becomes The 4th Side."
- WR Terrell Jana Said It: "It is the 4th Side for a reason because of the four aspects of the team. Coach shows film in the meeting room of players on the 4th Side. The team sees that and takes pride in that."

EARN YOUR JERSEY NUMBER

- Head coach Bronco Mendenhall introduced what he sees as the bedrock of his "earned not given" mantra when he arrived in Charlottesville in 2016. There are no double numbers and once a number is earned, that student-athlete has it for the season. The majority of numbers are picked over the course of the selection ceremonies during the final three weekends of fall camp. Once the season ends, all players return to the status of no number for winter conditioning, spring ball and summer workouts.
- To be considered for number selection, players have to meet certain physical benchmarks – weight room numbers, conditioning times, etc. – but it's also about dedication to the program, overall effort in practice and having the right disposition in the locker room.
- Bronco Mendenhall doesn't choose the order. The task unit leaders do.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: "The task unit leaders, they're the ones who are with their teammates every day in the locker room. They're with them in class. They're with them in their apartments. They see a lot more than I see. Our players have embraced it, and it matters to them to be endorsed by their peers to be on our team."
- Alum Jordan Mack Said It: "Part of our program is earned not given. They know what to expect coming in, and they know nothing is going to be given. To earn a number, gear, anything with a Virginia sabre on it, you're going to have to earn it through your hard work."

STATE CHANGERS

- White ► Grey ► Orange ► Navy ► Black
- Workout gear color is immediate feedback where our student-athletes stand in their training in order to drive positive change.
- Everything in performance is tracked from the moment they step on Grounds to show their gains. All new players begin their UVA careers wearing white.
- Black workout gear is the pinnacle in the UVA strength & conditioning. Two current Cavaliers have reached that pinnacle: DE Richard Burney and CB Nick Grant.

THURSDAY'S HEROES

- The Thursday's Heroes program is coordinated by the University of Virginia football team. Originally at BYU, Thursday's Heroes transitioned to UVA when Bronco Mendenhall became Head Coach in 2016. Since then, the program has continued to grow, warming the hearts of players, coaches, fans, and of course, the Heroes. Each Thursday during the Fall and Spring season (this is not happening this year), an individual who is undergoing a difficult circumstance (medical, physical, cognitive, etc.) and their family is invited to tour the football facilities, watch practice, meet the coaches/team, and receive special gifts unique to each Hero. Different players take turns showering the Hero with gifts, including UVA gear, an official game jersey, Beats by Dre, a bicycle, school supplies, Halloween costumes, and special video messages from favorite celebrities (Peyton Manning, Kenny Chesney, Damian Lillard, Chris Long and Hugh Jackman to name a few have taken part). The goal of the program is simple: to put a smile on the Hero's face and to welcome them to the Virginia Football family.
- TB Wayne Taulapapa Said It: "Everybody is Somebody ... Every day we look up to them and the fight they are in. We want them to know they are with us and we are with them."

UNIQUELY VIRGINIA FOOTBALL

MAD HATTERS (PUT ON THE HATS)

- The “Mad Hatters” is the name of the Virginia Football Scout Team. It drew inspiration from the character frozen in time in “Alice in Wonderland,” but the name has as much to do with the evolution of pennies scout team players once draped over their shoulder pads to brightly colored pieces of fabric, which stretch over their helmets. Hence, “Put on the hats.”
- Each Thursday after practice the “Mad Hatter of the Week” is announced by a task unit leader.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “The way I frame it to our team is without going through that process, I think there is a fundamental step missed in their development. Most recruits and most young people want to come in and play their first year. Most of us, right, it’s kind of about us. When you’re in that role, it’s really about serving and helping your team.”

UVA GROUNDSKEEPERS

- Virginia’s football program wants to be a catalyst for change in the community, helping to turn the pain of the Charlottesville riots of Aug. 12, 2017 into a celebration of life, love and unity. During the summer of 2020, a player-led initiative was born in the form of the Groundskeepers in order to “Take Back our Grounds” from the white nationalists that descended upon Charlottesville in 2017.
- To be part of the Groundskeepers, participants take part in their own march, which starts downtown at Heather Heyer Way — the street named in honor of the woman who lost her life during the Aug. 12 demonstrations — before heading to the Enslaved Workers Memorial and the Rotunda.
- Bronco Mendenhall Said It: “We chose to take this march in direct opposition and the exact opposite direction of the events that happened in the death of Heather Heyer. We’re standing against hate, inequality, anything that doesn’t reflect well on the state of mankind, especially at the University of Virginia.”
- OLB Charles Snowden Said It: We are committed to making a change in our community. We are committed to fighting for what’s right. We are committed to a better future. We are the Groundskeepers. Just thinking about what transpired those two days and what those two days signify and stand for — There were protests led in the name of hatred, racism, oppression and that’s harmful. That’s hurtful to a lot of people and that’s not what the city of Charlottesville stands for. That’s not what the University of Virginia stands for. The Groundskeepers here at UVA, we just want to show that’s not who we are and not what we stand for. So we’re just trying to take back the power of those days and show that we stand for love, unity, respect, uplifting one another, and just doing what’s right.”
- One of UVA’s four flags they run onto the field with each game is a flag that represents the Groundskeeper, which serves as constant reminder to the community of the importance of being unified in love rather than hate.

THE SHIELD

- The shield is an important part of the Virginia football program. On the shield, which was modeled after shields used in the movie 300, has three numbers: +1, 24, +5. They represent a formula that Bronco Mendenhall and his staff developed after years of data study and analytics that will lead to probable wins. Each game UVA’s goal is to be at least +1 in turnover margin, score at least 24 points while holding opponents under 24 points and being at least +5 in field position. Accomplishing each of those goals in a game creates a winning scenario.
- Virginia’s shield (pictured) is always represented in the UVA locker room.
- The shield also has the UVA guiding principles painted around the shield.

ARMSTRONG IS NAMED QB1

- QB Brennan Armstrong was named the starting quarterback by Bronco Mendenhall on Aug. 27. He is the third opening-day starting quarterback under Bronco Mendenhall, joining Kurt Benkert (2016-17) and Bryce Perkins (2018-19).
- Armstrong is one of UVA's four team captains as voted upon by his peers. He is the only non-senior, joining DE Richard Burney, WR Terrell Jana and OLB Charles Snowden.
- Armstrong is the first left-handed starting QB at UVA since Jameel Sewell (2006, 2007, 2009).
- Armstrong enrolled at UVA in January 2018 and backed up Perkins the last two seasons, saving his redshirt season in 2018 under the NCAA participation rules.
- Armstrong is the 13th different UVA starting quarterback to start an opener in the last 16 seasons. The list includes: Bryce Perkins (2018-19), Kurt Benkert (2016-17), Matt Johns (2015), Greyson Lambert (2014), David Watford (2013), Michael Rocco (2011-12), Marc Verica (2010), Vic Hall (2009), Peter Lalich (2008), Jameel Sewell (2007), Christian Olsen (2006) and Marques Hagans (2005).

ARMSTRONG CONTINUES TO MATURE AS THE STARTING QB

- QB Brennan Armstrong threw for 200+ yards in each of his first two career starts, including 269 against Duke and 270 at No. 1 Clemson. He is only the second Cavalier to throw for 200+ passing yards in each of his first two career starts. Armstrong joins Matt Blundin, who did so in his first four career starts that spanned 1989, 1990 and 1991.
- With UVA trailing by three points (20-17) entering the fourth quarter in the season-opening win over Duke, Armstrong was 8-of-9 passing for 144 yards and two touchdowns. His lone incompletion was ruled a catch on the field by Davis Jr., but overturned on replay.
- Armstrong passed for 270 yards and three touchdowns at No. 1 Clemson, while also rushing for 89 more yards. Dating back to 2000, he is the only QB to pass for 225+ yards, pass for 3+ touchdowns and rush for 70+ yards in a game against the Tigers.
- With Armstrong under center, the UVA offense accumulated 417 yards of total offense at No. 1 Clemson. The Cavaliers became the first ACC team to earn 400+ yards of total offense against the Tigers since 2017 when NC State (Nov. 4) did so. Since the start of the 2019 season only LSU, Ohio State=, Virginia (twice) and Syracuse have averaged 5.0+ yards per play against the Clemson defense.

UVA QUARTERBACKS IN THEIR FIRST-CAREER START

- QB Brennan Armstrong made his first collegiate start against Duke at Scott Stadium.
- Armstrong threw for 269 yards and two touchdowns against Duke, which is the second-most by a Cavalier starting quarterback making his first career start.
- Since 1955, 22 Virginia quarterbacks have passed for at least 150 yards in their first-career start. Here is a breakdown of the most passing yards by a Virginia QB in their first-ever start:

SCOTT STADIUM, HOME OF THE CAVALIERS

The Carl Smith Center, home of David A. Harrison III Field at Scott Stadium, with its unique architectural design, scenic setting on the University's Grounds and exceptional sight lines, is one of the nation's finest college football settings.

Opened in 1931, Scott Stadium might be one of the oldest campus college football stadiums in the nation, but you could never tell from its appearance. Numerous upgrades and expansions make it a modern home for the Cavaliers and their fans.

Scott Stadium was the gift of Frederic William Scott and Elisabeth Strother Scott, and was dedicated to the memory of his parents, Frederic Robert Scott and Frances Branch Scott.

Virginia played its dedication game at Scott Stadium on Oct. 15, 1931 against the Virginia Military Institute before a then-capacity crowd of 22,000. Prior to that season, the Cavaliers staged their home games at the University's Lambeth Field.

Virginia has played 480 games in the historic venue. UVA's all-time record at Scott Stadium stands at 274-194-12.

Bronco Mendenhall Head Coach • Fifth Season

Since arriving at Virginia for the 2016 season, head coach Bronco Mendenhall's impact on the Cavalier program has been immense. From a two-win season, to the ACC's Coastal Division Championship and a New Year's Six bowl invitation, Virginia football's ascent has both remarkable and historic.

Mendenhall came to Charlottesville after a highly successful 11-year career at BYU with a vision and a plan of execution for the daunting renovation project he faced. He has masterfully crafted principles and culture, and instilled pride and purpose, leading to a standard of unbroken growth in just four seasons.

Having a plan and being able to execute a strategic approach to achieving results have been mission critical to Mendenhall's formula for success.

"Teams and organizations are perfectly designed to get the results that they get,"

Mendenhall is fond of saying regarding both successes and failures. His pursuit of "unbroken growth" centers around learning, applying and improving on tools, frameworks, networks, innovation and processes that deliver those results. His ultimate goal is more expansive than building a great football organization. He strives to build great people.

On-field success is just part of the story Mendenhall has scripted at Virginia. He is a powerful believer in balance, which he frequently sums up with one simple word ... AND. It has become the calling card for the UVA football program.

"I think decisions are made based on principle, and I think principles are governed by beliefs," Mendenhall said. "AND is one of our guiding principles, and that is based on my belief that football is a vehicle to develop people."

At his introductory press conference, Mendenhall stressed that he wanted students AND athletes and believed that combination was achievable, especially at an institution such as Virginia that ranks among the top three public universities in the nation. Since that time, he has not compromised his approach to achieving those means. More importantly, his teams have bought in on the concepts with great enthusiasm and demonstrated they can do so while also being successful on the field.

"I would love to win a national championship," Mendenhall said. "I'd love to develop a great program here. But what I would really love is for every kid in my program to have an amazing life."

In the world of big-time football, Mendenhall's philosophy is unconventional, but that doesn't faze him.

"I'm looking for the complete development of everyone in our program – and winning," he said. "One is not at the expense of the other. I think they go hand-in-hand, and winning, without the other, would be hollow to me."

Under Mendenhall, the UVA program has progressed from two to six to eight to nine wins. Achievements and recognitions on the field, in the classroom and around the community have exponentially increased as well.

In 2019, UVA placed 10 players on the ACC All-Academic team, the most in the program's history. Linebacker

Jordan Mack was named the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner as the league's top football scholar-athlete and was a finalist for the William B. Campbell Trophy, known in the sport as the "academic Heisman." Linebacker Micah Kiser, now a member of the Los Angeles Rams, won the award in 2017.

Giving back has become a cornerstone of Virginia football. Players frequently visit the University's Children's Medical Center and speak at local elementary schools. The team's Thursday's Heroes program has been recognized for its efforts to honor individuals across the state of Virginia who are dealing with personal adversity. In 2020, the ACC honored the Thursday's Heroes program with its "Game Changers" award, which recognizes and highlights specific conference teams' involvement with their local communities.

"I'm in pursuit, and we're in pursuit as a football program, of both of those things, and without compromising our expectations for one or the other," Mendenhall said. "I want good young people. I'm talking about morals, values, character, behavior and contribution to the world. And I want a great team. I know it sounds idealistic, but I would not coach football if I did not think it could be done, and I would not coach at Virginia if I did not think there was support for doing it that way."

Mendenhall's pursuit of individual growth is only magnified by the success his teams have also achieved on the field. His name appears often when the accolades of college football's leading active coaches are charted.

"To me, football is just a magical and powerful platform to have motivated learners, and I get to teach life lessons through the sport of football," Mendenhall said. "The trophies, the wins, they're necessary for job security and the world makes a big deal of that. But it is hollow without the substance. Relationships are everything. Other than that, it would just be a game, and that does not sound quite meaningful enough to me."

DID YOU KNOW?

• When offensive coordinator Robert Anae finished playing football, he returned home to Hawaii and served as the body model for the towering stature of the father of surfing, Duke Kahanamoku, a five-time Olympian.

• The statue, created by artist Jan Fisher, is right next to the famous Waikiki Beach. Anae was a graduate assistant at Hawaii at the time and the artist needed a model, a surfer that was tall, and he went looking for the tallest surfer on the North Shore.

• Head coach Bronco Mendenhall has at least one career win against all 10 of the current FBS conferences.

• Virginia sophomore defensive tackle Jowon Briggs plays 10 instruments and sings. Briggs can play the guitar, bass guitar, piano, violin, viola, cello, stand-up bass, saxophone, flute and clarinet. Briggs is part of the choir at UVA.

• WR Terrell Jana taught himself to play the piano by watching YouTube videos in his spare time at Woodberry Forest. He originally started to learn a song to surprise his mom and ended up enjoying it so much he kept up the self-study. The song Jana set out to learn to play for his mom was Brian McKnight's "Crazy Love."

• DL Samson Reed's father, Tanoai, played offensive line at Hawaii from 1991-94. Reed's dad, Tanoai, is the cousin of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and works as his Hollywood stunt double.

• Virginia has three players on its roster who are the sons of former Cavalier football players. Joey Blount (Tony Blount), Tucker Finkelston (Tim Finkelston) and Andrew Yavinsky (Marc Yavinsky).

• WR Jalen Harrison came to Virginia to play baseball and was part of the 2017 and 2018 squads, appearing in 25 career games. The outfielder's first career hit was a home run against La Salle.

• S Vinnie Vlado's father, Larry Vlado, was college football teammates at Oregon State with UVA head coach Bronco Mendenhall in 1986 and 1987.

• PK Justin Duenkel's aunt, Virginia Duenkel, won Olympic gold in the 400 freestyle and the bronze in the 400 backstroke at the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo.

• OL Zachary Teter is the son of Doug Teter, the head athletic trainer for the Detroit Tigers.
