Head Coach

RIA SCOTT

Ria Scott is in her third season directing the UVA women's golf program.

Last spring, fresh off a win at the IJGA Collegiate Invitational in Guadalajara, Mexico, Scott had the Cavaliers positioned for a return to the NCAA Championships before the campaign ended early due to the COVID-19 outbreak.

Never-the-less, Scott is resolute in her efforts to build the Cavaliers' into one of the nation's top programs. Now, in addition to the program's new Dean Performance Center, the University's Birdwood Golf Club reopened on July 1 after a massive redesign directed by golf legend Davis Love.

If the start of her tenure at UVA is any indicator, she is well on her way.

Scott made a seamless transition in her first season as the head coach of the Virginia program in 2018-19 following a nine-year career at Oregon. She guided UVA to a 14th-place finish at the NCAA Championships and saw her team compile seven top-five tournament finishes.

She was recognized by the Virginia Sports Information Directors as the state's women's golf coach of the year.

Her career at UVA got off to a fabulous start during the fall of 2018, as UVA won the team championship at Michigan State's Mary Fossum Invitational in her first event as Virginia's head coach.

The Cavaliers finished her first season ranked No. 17 by Golfweek and No. 18 in the final Golfstat poll.

Scott also got to witness a big of history as senior Anna Redding competed in the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur.

Redding went on to earn All-American honors under Scott and was named to the 2019 All-ACC squad along with teammate Beth Lillie.

Also during her inaugural season at Virginia, she served as an assistant coach for the Internationals team at the 2019 Arnold Palmer Cup, helping that squad to a victory against its USA counterparts.

Scott, a native of the Philippines, will team with Washington's Alan Murray to coach the International squad at the 2020 Palmer Cup. The event was rescheduled from the summer to December due to COVID-19.

During her time at Oregon, Scott guided the Ducks to NCAA postseason play in all nine of her seasons in Eugene. Prior to her arrival, Oregon hadn't advanced to the NCAA Finals in 10 straight years.

Scott's teams produced seven of the top eight season scoring averages in school history, and each player in Oregon's top-10 season scoring average category was coached by her.

Under Scott's guidance, the Ducks finished the season ranked no worse than 35th nationally on four separate occasions and made a habit of being ranked in the top 25. Oregon has also posted 34 top-five team finishes since 2009, including eight tournament championships and eight individual medalist honors.

During the 2016-17 season, Scott led the Ducks to the program's first back-to-back NCAA Championships appearances since 1997-98, and the team recorded its best NCAA Regional finish, placing third at the Lubbock Regional. That performance came a year after the Ducks advanced to the match play portion of the 2016 NCAA Championships.

Oregon's tie for fifth place at the 2016 NAAs marked the best post-season performance in the program's history. The Ducks also achieved their highest ranking since 2012 as Golfstat placed Oregon at No. 17 at the completion of the season.

Scott's teams have exhibited consistent excellence in the classroom. In 2018, UO junior Petra Salko earned the first-ever CoSIDA First-Team All-District honor in program history while the entire team received the NCAA Public Recognition Award for academic achievement for the third year in a row.

During the 2014-15 season, Scott and the Ducks finished the season with a 292.66 season scoring average, blowing away the record that was set in the 2013-14 season (298.61) by almost six strokes. In addition to playing the best golf statistically in program history, UO wrapped up the year with two tournament victories in the spring season – Peg Barnard Invitational and Silverado Showdown – giving them two spring victories for the first time since the 2000 season. Behind Scott's direction, the Ducks earned their best finish and score at the conference championships in program history with an 858 that gave them second place. Individually, Caroline Inglis became Oregon's first Pac-12 Champion.

Scott joined the Oregon staff in 2009 after a two-year stint as the head coach at San Francisco. During her second season with the Ducks, Scott was named West Coast Conference Coach of the Year as her team spent most of the spring ranked in Golfstat's top-30.

Before becoming a coach, Scott played professionally around the world. Her professional highlights include appearances in the 2006 Women's World Cup in South Africa and the 2004 U.S. Women's Open. Scott was the first woman to compete in an Asian PGA event, competing in the 2004 DHL Philippine Open.

As a student-athlete at California, she led the Bears to the 2003 NCAA Championships and was a 2003 All-Pac-10 and 2002 All-Region honoree. As a senior co-captain in her final season, she helped the Bears win a school-record seven tournaments, capture Pac-10 and NCAA regional titles, and rank as high as second nationally. The two-time Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention selection also won the 2003 Anna Espenschade Award, presented to the top graduating female student-athlete at Cal.

As a prep, the Philippines native started the golf program at James Logan High School in Union City, Calif., where she captained the boys' team her final three years. She won the 1997 California Junior Girl's Championship at Pebble Beach less than four years after she picked up her first golf club.

Among various national and international events, she qualified for six USGA Championships – one U.S. Women's Open, two U.S. Girl's Junior, and three U.S. Women's Amateur events. Scott advanced to the Round of 16 at the 2001 British Women's Amateur. In addition, she competed for the Philippine National Team (1997-2002) and earned a gold medal in the 1997 Southeast Asian Games and a pair of bronze medals in the 1998 and 2002 Asian Games. Scott also played in two World Amateur Team Championships in 1998 (Chile) and 2000 (Germany) for the Philippine National Team.

Scott was on the Board of Directors for the Women's Golf Coaches Association from 2012-2016 and most recently was the Associate Vice President from 2014-2016.

She is married to Drew Scott, a former collegiate and professional golfer and college

Assistant Coach

MARISSA DODD

Marissa Dodd joined the UVA women's golf program in July of 2019. A native of Allen, Texas, she served as a volunteer assistant coach at SMU for one season prior to coming to Virginia. Previously, she competed for three years on the LPGA's Symetra Tour, playing in 49 of its tournaments.

Dodd competed at Wake Forest from 2011 to 2015, playing in 40 tournaments for the Deacons.

As a senior, she was Wake Forest's top finisher (16th) at the NCAA Championship and helped the Demon Deacons finish second at the NCAA South Bend Regional. She earned a spot on the all-region team and wrapped up the season with a 74.14 stroke average and three top-10 finishes.

In just her second professional tournament, Dodd won at Stallion Mountain in Las Vegas on the 2016 Cactus Tour. In her inaugural professional tournament, she tied for first but lost a playoff for medalist honors. The Allen, Texas, native made her debut on the LPGA Tour at the 2016 Marathon Classic in Ohio. She shot a 4-under 68 in a qualifier to claim one of the final two spots in the event.

As an amateur, Dodd reached the finals of the 2011 USGA Women's Amateur Publiclinks and qualified for the U.S. Amateur. She was the Texas 5A state champion as a junior at Allen High School.

In addition to volunteering at SMU last year, Dodd worked during that time for Chisum Sports and Hospitality as a golf events and hospitality manager and as a certified fitness trainer. She has conducted golf clinics at Glen Eagles Country Club in Plano, Texas, since 2013.

Dodd earned her undergraduate degree in mathematics and a minor in psychology from Wake Forest in 2015. She graduated cum laude, was a four-time member of the All-ACC Academic team and the recipient of the Edwin G. Wilson Most Outstanding Scholar Athlete Award, which is presented annually to the school's most outstanding junior or senior male and female student-athlete based on academic excellence. In 2015, she was one of eight student-athletes from the ACC invited to the NCAA's Career in Sports Forum in Indianapolis.

Her father, Mark, played soccer at Duke, was a goalkeeper for the U.S. National Team and the Goalkeeper of the Year for the MLS's inaugural season in 1996. Her mother, Stacie, also has ACC ties. She graduated from N.C. State.

BIRDWOOD GOLF COURSE

In the summer of 2020, Virginia's Birdwood Golf Course reopened after an extensive 18-month renovation. The UVA Foundation hired Davis Love III of the Love Golf Design team to develop and redesign the course. His plan included building a course that will challenge UVA's golf teams, meet the needs of 21st century golfers and provide a venue to host NCAA championship events. The redesigned Birdwood includes several new holes on 80 acres of previously unused property, redesigned original holes and the elimination of some original holes.

Taking advantage of the landscape to highlight the region's beautiful views of the neighboring Blue Ridge Mountains, Birdwood now features Zoysia fairways and V8 Bent greens.

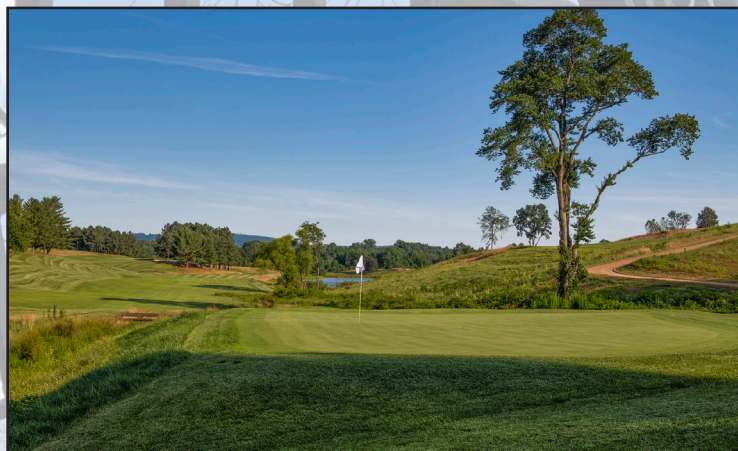

Set on 573 acres in the foothills of the Blue Ridge

Mountains and located approximately two miles from UVA's Rotunda, Birdwood Golf Course originally opened in 1984 and has consistently been ranked one of the nation's top-25 college courses by Golfweek. Following its reopen, it was rated the No. 7 course for the Commonwealth of Virginia by Golf Magazine.

The project including a relocation of the UVA golf program's Oehmig Short Game Facility, creating a half-acre putting course and an entirely new par-3 short course to help reach a broader range of golfers.

Birdwood resides on the grounds of the spectacular Boar's Head Resort, which boasts 168 luxurious guest rooms along with a state-of-the-art sports club and a world-renowned racquet sports facility.

LEW OEHMIG SHORT-GAME PRACTICE AREA

In the summer of 2020, Virginia's new Lew Oehmig Short Game Facility opened as part of the renovation of Birdwood Golf Course. Its new location is directly adjacent to the Dean Golf Performance Center and more than doubles the size of its previous location at Birdwood.

With four practice greens, multiple hitting locations, targets and a variety of bunkers, it gives Cavalier golfers unlimited opportunities to enhance their games short games.

The facility is named for Lew Oehmig, a member of the Southern Golf Association's Hall of Fame and one of the most established amateur players in the sport's history.

At UVA, Oehmig was a National Intercollegiate co-medalist, as well as a semifinalist at the 1937 NCAA Champi-
