

UVA/LOUISVILLE POSTGAME NOTES – OCT. 9, 2021

Team

- Virginia recorded its first win in five tries at Cardinal Stadium and evened up the all-time series with Louisville, 5-5.
- The Cavaliers rallied from a 17-point fourth quarter deficit, the largest fourth-quarter comeback since overcoming a 10-point margin against Syracuse in 2015, ultimately prevailing 44-38 in three overtimes.
- The victory was UVA's 190th ACC win, fourth most of any current member
- Virginia has won back-to-back road games for the first time since 2017 (Boise State/UNC) and back-to-back road ACC games for the first time since 2011 (Miami/Maryland)
- Virginia outscored Louisville 21-3 in the fourth quarter, the most points in the fourth quarter all season. The Cavaliers scored 21 points one other time this season, the second quarter against North Carolina.
- The game's final touchdown came with 22 seconds on the clock, the first time UVA scored in the final minute to win a game since 2012 when Michael Rocco connected with Jake McGee for a 10-yard score to top Miami, 41-40.

Player

- With his first quarter touchdown catch, Billy Kemp IV extended his consecutive games with a reception streak to 21.
- Ra'Shaun Henry had nine catches for 179 yards, both the most in his two seasons at UVA. His collegiate career-high came while at St. Francis (Pa.) when he caught 12 passes for 193 yards and three touchdowns against Delaware State in 2019.
- The 179 yards receiving are the second-most by a UVA wide receiver this season (Dontayvion Wicks – 183 at North Carolina) and the ninth-most ever by a UVA wide receiver in a game.
- Henry has caught a pass in nine-straight games dating back to last season. Henry, Kemp, Dontayvion Wicks and Keytaon Thompson have caught a pass in each game this year.
- Keytaon Thompson had a career high in receptions (10) and yards (149). He made four catches on the Virginia's final drive for 68 yards, including two on fourth down.
- Billy Kemp had eight catches on the afternoon, tying him with Heath Miller (2002-04) for sixth all-time on UVA's career receptions list with 145. He is six behind former teammate Hasise Dubois (2016-19) for fifth place.
- Brennan Armstrong was 40-of-60 for 487 yards and three touchdowns. The 60 pass attempts were a career-high. The 486 yards passing was the second-highest total in school history. He set the UVA passing record vs. North Carolina (554) earlier this year. Of the seven 400-yard games in program history, Armstrong has four of them.
- Armstrong has thrown for 300 yards in a game six times in his career and all but one game this season. The six, 300-yard games are tied with Aaron Brooks for the second most in UVA history.
- Armstrong moved into 10th place on UVA's all-time passing list with 4,835 yards, moving past Michael Rocco (2010-12) 4,731. Armstrong trails Marques Hagans (2002-05) by 42 yards for ninth place.
- Malachi Fields had four catches for 43 yards coming into Saturday's game. He made three catches for 60 yards, both career-highs, against Louisville. His 51-yard reception in the second quarter, setup a 22-yard UVA field goal giving UVA a 13-10 advantage.
- Defensive back Coen King made a team-high, eight tackles, one shy of his career high. In the second quarter he forced a fumble and recovered it on a Louisville drive in UVA territory. It was only the second fumble recovery by the Virginia defense this season.
