LA SALLE EXPLORERS (1-2)
Head Coach: Mountain MacGillivray
Career Record: 73-106 (7th year)
Record at School: 73-106

VIRGINIA CAVALIERS (2-1)
Head Coach: Amaka Agugua-Hamilton
Career Record: 105-46 (3rd year)
Record at School: 57-31

THE STARTING FIVE FACTS

- La Salle comes into the 2024-25 season with 13 new faces. The Explorers brought in eight transfers from Division I, JUCO, and Community Colleges to the roster. Five freshmen have also been added to the squad, with two members from last year's team returning.
- La Salle basketball will enter a new era as they embark on the opening on the newly renovated John E. Glaser Arena. The venue will feature a 360-degree bowl, state-of-the-art video boards and audio, and a new HVAC system. The Explorers earned a big win over Delaware in the first game played in Glaser on the women's side.
- This meeting with Virginia will mark the 43rd contest for the Explorers against a current member of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC). La Salle has played the most games against Virginia Tech in their history against ACC schools with 11.
- Fresh faces for the Blue & Gold have led the way early on this season on the offensive side of the floor. R-Sophomore transfer Ashleigh Connor is averaging 11.7 points per game in her first three games as an Explorer. Freshman Joanie Quinn has come into her first collegiate season and taken over offensively. Her aggressive, quick play has resulted in 8.7 PPG and 4.0 RPG.
- Last time out against Drexel, a handful of new members to the La Salle squad saw their first action of the season. Junior transfer Ivy Fox, finished her day with six points, going 2-2 from the field. Alisa Blalock, another junior transfer, made the most of her minutes as she totaled four points, two rebounds, and two assists.

A NEW HOME

La Salle University is set to open the new home of Explorers basketball in 2024, John E. Glaser Arena. The Arena will feature a 360-degree bowl with all chairbacks, state-of-the-art video boards, both in the center hung and multiple ribbons, a new HVAC system, completely redone audio and lighting systems and several more improvements to the fan experience that will contribute to an improved homecourt advantage for the Explorers.

MARQUEE MATCHUPS

La Salle is up for some big challenges in the early portion of the season. Within the non-conference slate, the Explorers are set to face seven state-schools. Maine, Delaware, Virginia, Temple, Texas, Northern Kentucky, and UC San Diego all are state-sponsored schools and will be taking on the Blue & Gold during the non-conference schedule.

BIG 5 HISTORY

For the first time ever, the Philadelphia Big 5 women's basketball programs will take part in the WBB Big 5 Classic this season. The format will run similar to the MBB Big 5 Classic that began last year during the 2023-24 season. La Salle will be in a pod with Drexel and Temple, and will face both of those schools during the first month of the season. On December 6, 2024 at the Finneran Pavilion on the campus of Villanova University, the schools will come together for the final games, based on the results of the prior pod contests.

RETURNING FOR MORE

Aryss Macktoon and Jolene Armendariz are the two Explorers coming back to 20th & Olney for another season. Armendariz played in 29 games last season, starting in 27 of them. Macktoon's freshman season was cut short due to injury as she only appeared in four games. Armendariz averaged 6.2 points per game and 5.9 rebounds per game, which led the Explorers. Macktoon averaged 10.8 points per game in her four games, scoring 17 points in her first collegiate contest against Coppin State.

SCOUTING THE CAVALIERS

The Cavaliers enter the contest with a 2-1 record overall this season. Virginia topped American and Radford in big fashion this season, but fell to #10 Oklahoma 104-68 for their lone loss of the year. The Hoos ended the 2023-24 season at 16-16. The fell to Wake Forest in the first round of the ACC Tournament, but competed in the WNIT. After a resounding win over High Point in the first round of the WNIT, Virginia fell to Villanova to end their season. The Hoos will begin their ACC schedule this year on the road in South Bend against Notre Dame.

- This will be the 2nd meeting all-time between the two programs.

- The last time the teams met was back in December of 2023, where the Cavaliers came out on top 94-73.

- This meeting will be the first time La Salle will travel to John Paul Jones Arena in Charlottesville, Va.

- Jolene Armendariz is the lone Explorer that saw action against the Hoos last season. She finished the contest with three rebounds, and one steal.

CAVALIERS ON WATCH

The Hoos have three members of their 2024-25 squad averaging double-digit points just three games into the year. Kymora Johnson, Breona Hurd, and Yonta Vaughn are averaging 16.0, 14.7, and 14.0 points, respectively. Taylor Lauterbach is the one to watch on the boards for Virginia. The center is averaging 8.5 rebounds per game this season. She pulled in 13 boards in the win over American.

GIVE US SOME SPACE!

The correct spelling of our University is "La Salle", with a space in the middle. Please do not use "LaSalle."

ONE OF A KIND

With over 1,100 schools across three divisions in the NCAA, the La Salle Explorers are the only institution with the nickname 'Explorers.'

FAKE NEWS?

La Salle University's nickname - the Explorers - was announced by The Collegian in March 1932 as the winning entry to a student contest. However, in the fall of 1931, a Baltimore sportswriter covering the La Salle/St. John's (Md.) football game erroneously alluded to La Salle as being named for the French explorer La Salle, not St. John Baptist de La Salle. Were the two events related? We'll never know for sure.

FRESH FACES

The Explorers will feature a team of 13 new faces this season. The recruiting class is composed of eight transfers, and five freshmen, with two members of the team returning from last year. Among the transfers is Ashleigh Connor, a redshirt sophomore transfer from Saint Louis University in the A-10 Conference. Mackenzie Daleba poses another standout transfer to the roster. She comes to La Salle from Fairfield, a top-25 team in 2023-24.

Mountain MacGILLIVRAY

HEAD COACH | SIXTH SEASON | TEMPLE

Mountain MacGillivray, a Philadelphia native who helped lead Quinnipiac to seven straight 20-win seasons and a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2017, was appointed the ninth head coach in La Salle University women's basketball history in April of 2018. He begins his fifth year at the helm of the program in 2022-23.

MacGillivray helped lead the Explorers to their best season yet under his tenure in the 2021-22 season. La Salle ended the regular season with a 16-12 overall record and a 9-6 performance in the Atlantic 10. The conference mark was the team's best record since the 1996-97 season when the Explorers put together a 12-4 performance in league play. La Salle was seeded at No. 5 in the conference to earn an automatic trip to the second round of the A-10 Tournament. The seeding was the highest in program history since the conference combined the East and West with La Salle last earning West No. 5 in the 2003-04 season.

During the 2019-20 campaign, MacGillivray's Explorers showed vast improvements from year one to two of his tenure, including the program's best start since 2006 at 6-1. The Blue & Gold more than doubled both its overall (13) and Atlantic 10 (7) win totals in year two. The victory over the Penn State Nittany Lions was La Salle's first over a Power 5 program since November 2015 and first over a Big 10 school since taking down Northwestern in December of 1988. The Explorers also swept Big 5 and A-10 rival Saint Joseph's for the first time ever. A gritty win over the Hawks inside Hagan Arena was the first since 1998.

In the same season, Kayla Spruill nearly doubled her points and tripled her rebounds per game to earn the title of Big 5 Most Improved Player. Claire Jacobs set a La Salle freshman record with 29 points in a game (on two different occasions) and 412 points for the year. These totals, along with her continued success throughout the year led her to earn All-Big 5 Second Team honors and a spot on the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team. Rounding out a trio of impressive performances for the 2019-20 season, Kate Hill finished fifth in the nation for assist to turnover ratio at 2.95.

Prior to MacGillivray and his staff taking over the program, Shalina Miller only recorded 49 blocks collectively in her freshman and sophomore campaigns. In her final two seasons with MacGillivray and co., Miller recorded 144 deflections for 193 career blocks to claim the program's all-time record. She also set the single season mark in back-to-back seasons. Her efforts in 2019-20 landed her on the Atlantic 10 All-Defensive team.

MacGillivray spent the previous nine seasons at Quinnipiac, including the last three as the associate head coach. The Bobcats had tremendous success during MacGillivray's tenure, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament in four of his last five seasons, including three wins in NCAA play over the final two.

MacGillivray's role with the Bobcats evolved through the years and one of his greatest responsibilities is within the recruiting of prospective student-athletes. His success in the recruiting landscape has only improved through the years as his last two incoming classes featured the four highest-ranked recruits in program history. In his eight years with the Bobcats, MacGillivray helped guide 18 All-Conference players, including 10 in his final three seasons, as well as three Defensive Player of the Year award winners and three Tournament MVPs.

Quinnipiac went undefeated in the MAAC in 2017-18 for the third time in six years, winning the conference regular season title for the fifth time in six seasons. After earning the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament with a victory over Marist in the MAAC title game, the Bobcats earned a No. 9 seed and defeated Miami (Fla.) in the opening round.

In 2016-17, MacGillivray helped Quinnipiac to a pair of upset wins in NCAA Tournament action, defeating Marquette and Miami (Fla.) en route to the Sweet 16. The Bobcats won four conference championships and averaged 26 wins over that seven year span, and head coach Tricia Fabbri won MAAC Coach of the Year four times with the contributions of MacGillivray.

Prior to Quinnipiac, MacGillivray served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of New Hampshire for two seasons from 2007-09, helping the Wildcats improve their finish in the conference in both seasons.

He got his start in collegiate coaching as an assistant at the University of Vermont in 1999-00, guiding the Catamounts to the NCAA Tournament that year after winning the America East regular season and tournament championships.

MacGillivray has 13 years of experience coaching at the high school and AAU levels, helping turn Archbishop Carroll High School in Radnor, Pennsylvania into one of the most successful prep programs in the country. He also guided the Philadelphia AAU Lady Running Rebels from 2000-02 and Delaware Valley Comets AAU team in 2006.

A 1996 graduate of Temple with a degree in journalism, MacGillivray and his wife Grace have eight children: Chiara, Mary, Brigid, Sean, Catherine, Joseph, Theresa, and Emily.
