OPENING DRAW

GAME OVERVIEW
• Virginia returns to Klöckner Stadium on Saturday for a non-conference tilt with with in-state foe Richmond. Faceoff is set for 3 p.m.
• This week Virginia is ranked No. 7 in both the USILA coaches and Inside Lacrosse/Maverik media polls. Richmond is receiving votes in the coaches poll and No. 18 in the media poll.

THE SERIES VS. THE SPIDERS
• Friday marks the sixth all-time meeting between the Cavaliers and Spiders in men's lacrosse, but only the third at Klöckner Stadium.
• UVA owns a 5-0 record in the all-time series with the Spiders.
• UVA's 2014 game at Robins Stadium was the very first men's lacrosse game in the history of the Richmond program.
• UVA currently owns a 70-game winning streak against programs from the Commonwealth of Virginia.
• Dan Chemotti is in his sixth season as the head coach of Richmond after being the top assistant on Charley Toomey's staff at Loyola, including being part of the Greyhounds' 2012 NCAA title team.
• Chemotti took Richmond to the NCAA Tournament in the Spiders' first NCAA Division I season as the champions of the Atlantic Sun Tournament.
• UR is coming off a SoCon championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017 with an 11-6 record, losing at Albany in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Midfielder Dox Aitken needs two goals to become only the third Cavalier midfielder to reach 90 career goals. He currently is tied for No. 4 (Matt Poskay) with 88 and trails Shamel Bratton (89) by one goal.

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA
The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three common-wealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES
Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbre-viated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT
The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS
Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were cho-sen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH
The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

THE SERIES VS. THE SPIDERS
• Friday marks the sixth meeting between Virginia and Richmond in men's lacrosse.
• UVA owns a 5-0 all-time record in the series that was first contested in 2014.
• The 2014 meeting was Richmond's very first NCAA Division I men's lacrosse game in program history.
• James Pannell scored two of his game-high four goals late in the fourth quarter and the UVA defense held on for the narrow 13-12 win over the eventual Atlantic Sun champions and NCAA participant.
• In 2015 at Klöckner Stadium UVA used five goals from Owen Van Arsdale, four from Ryan Tucker and three from Greg Coholan to cruise to a 14-7 triumph over the Spiders.
• Behind 12 saves from goalie Matt Barrett, UVA recorded its first shutout (9-0) since 2007 when UVA and Richmond met in 2016 at Robins Stadium. AJ Fish, Matt Emery and Ryan Lukacovic all scored two goals to help the winning effort.
• Because UVA made back-to-back trips to Robins Stadium, UVA and Richmond are meeting at Klöckner Stadium in Charlottesville back-to-back times for the 2018 and 2019 seasons.

UVA VS. THE COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
• UVA enters Saturday's contest with Richmond with a 111-19-2 all-time record against opponents from the Commonwealth.
• Virginia has won 70 games in a row against opponents from the Commonwealth of Virginia. The last loss was to Washington & Lee on April 23, 1977 when the Generals were an NCAA Division I institution in men's lacrosse.
• For the 14th year in a row UVA is facing an opponent from the Commonwealth of Virginia. From 2006-16 UVA played VMI every season, while adding Richmond to the annual schedule with the beginning of the Spiders' program in 2014.
• VMI returned to UVA's schedule in 2018 and visits Klöckner Stadium on April 16.

LOOKING BACK AT HISTORICAL FIRST RICHMOND LACROSSE GAME
• The inaugural game of the Richmond lacrosse program took place on Feb. 8, 2014 at Robins Stadium against a UVA team that was ranked No. 7 in the nation.
• UVA came away with a 13-12 win in front of 4,249 fans at Robins Stadium.

VIRGINIA VS. THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE
• The Southern Conference is in its fifth season as a men's lacrosse conference.
• Virginia is 34-3 all-time against current memembers of the Southern Conference.
• Virginia is 0-1 against Air Force, 3-0 against Bellarmine, 2-2 against High Point, 5-0 against Richmond and 24-0 against VMI.
• There are three Southern Conference opponents UVA has never played: Furman, Jacksonville and Mercer.
• All three of those programs started playing lacrosse in the last nine years: Jacksonville (2010), Mercer (2011) and Furman (2014).
• The conference as a whole is very young in lacrosse. Richmond began in 2014 and High Point began in 2013. The old guard in the leauge are Air Force, who began playing lacrosse in 1967, and VMI, who started in 1983.
• By comparison, UVA started its first varsity lacrosse season in 1904.

VIRGINIA ON THE GREEN GRASS OF KLÖCKNER
• Virginia owns a 140-39 (.7821) all-time record at Klöckner Stadium, including a 3-1 mark in 2019. UVA also is 11-3 all-time at Klöckner Stadium in the NCAA Tournament.
• UVA is 14-7 all-time at Klöckner Stadium under head coach Lars Tiffany.
• Klöckner Stadium first hosted lacrosse in 1993.

WHERE IS THE OFFENSIVE PRODUCTION COMING FROM?
• Through eight games the scoring for UVA is pretty evenly led by the sophomore and junior classes.
• Full breakdown on page seven.

GAP	Combined%	% Breakdown
Goals	80.6%	(Sophomores, 40.8%)
		(Juniors, 39.8%)
Assists	65.5%	(Sophomores, 32.6%)

VIRGINIA'S WIN AT HOMEWOOD FIELD
• Virginia's 16-11 triumph at then-No. 15 Johns Hopkins last time out served as UVA's largest margin of victory ever over the Blue Jays at historic Homewood Field.
• The previous best was four goals in a 16-12 win in 1997.
• It was also only UVA's 11th win in 47 tries at the historic Charm City edifice. UVA has won four of its last six trips to Homewood Field. The two losses (2011, 2017) were both by one goal.

KRAUS ON VERGE OF 100 CAREER GOALS
• Michael Kraus needs three goals to become the 16th Cavalier all-time to score 100 career goals. If he does it on Friday in career game No. 41 he would be the third-fastest Cavalier to 100 career goals.
• Doug Knight owns the record reaching 100 career goals in 39 career games, while Kevin Pehlke comes in second in 40 career games.
• The last Cavalier to reach 100 career goals was Mark Cockerton in 2014.
• See the full list of UVA's career 100-goal scorers on page six.

KRAUS HEATING UP OVER LAST FIVE GAMES
• Michael Kraus has been on fire during UVA's current five-game winning streak. He boasts 14 goals and 11 assists for 25 total points.
• UVA has also won three of those games in overtime. Kraus has had a hand in each of the game-winning goals in overtime. At Princeton and Syracuse he had the game-winning assist, while vs. Brown he had the game-winning goal.
• In the Notre Dame game, Kraus tied the game with his goal at 11:11 in the fourth quarter. The Cavaliers overcame a five-goal deficit in the second half and never trailed again.
• Against Johns Hopkins, a game that had seven ties and five lead changes, Kraus tied the game twice. During UVA's 10-5 second half surge Kraus scored once and dished out two assists.

KRAUS HAS A POINT IN 40-STRAIGHT GAMES
• Michael Kraus has a point in all 40 games of his career, which ranks tied for No. 4 among active players.

UVA ATTACK GETTING IT DONE
• All three of UVA's starting attackmen rank in the Top-4 in the ACC in points per game. Michael Kraus is No. 1 in the ACC (4.38), while Matt Moore is No. 2 (4.12) and Ian Laviano is No. 4 (3.38).
• Kraus is No. 23 in the nation, Moore is No. 31 and Laviano is No. 71.
• UVA is one of three schools in the nation (Cornell, Princeton) that has each member of its starting attack ranked in the Top 75 nationally in points per game.

UVA DEFENSE FORCING SHOT CLOCK VIOLATIONS
• UVA's defense has forced 11 shot clock violations through the first eight games of the season.
• On offense, UVA had two shot clock violations on back-to-back possessions at Princeton. UVA also had two shot clock violations at Johns Hopkins.

UVA ROCKING THE ASSISTS
• UVA has scored 103 goals through four games this year and has assisted 62 of them. That means UVA has recorded an assist on 60.2 percent of its goals in 2019.

DEFENDING THE CLEAR
• In eight games this season, UVA is limiting its opponents to a 72.0 clearing percentage (116-of-161), which is 5.7 failed clears per game by UVA opponents.
• Contrast, UVA is clearing at an 81.3 percent rate (122-of-150), failing 3.5 clears per game.

UVA HAS NO EASY OUTS TO BEGIN THE 2019 SEASON
• Of UVA's first 12 opponents of the 2019 season, 10 have been ranked so far this season.
• This week seven of those opponents are currently ranked. UVA's win over then-No. 19 Princeton knocked the Tigers from the polls. UVA also plays Richmond, who dropped out of the Top 20 two weeks ago.
• UVA's first five games of 2019 feature an opponent currently ranked, or previously ranked in the polls in 2019.
• Of UVA's first 12 games, only Brown and Utah have not been ranked at some point this season. Brown was receiving votes heading into the UVA game.

DOX AITKEN SETS ANOTHER UVA RECORD
• M Dox Aitken reached 100 career points (75-25-100) on Feb. 18 vs. High Point. He is the quickest midfielder in UVA history to the milestone, reaching so in 36 games.
• Aitken broke the previous record of 39 games by Pete Eldredge (1969-72).

UVA RECORDS BACK-TO-BACK ROAD RANKED WINS
• UVA won in overtime, 15-14, at then-No. 14 Syracuse on March 2. With a win at then-No. 19 Princeton (12-11, OT), UVA won back-to-back road games against ranked opponents for the first time since 2012.
• In a seven-day span in 2012, UVA won at then-No. 9 Maryland (12-8) on March 31, followed by a win at then-No. 9 UNC (15-10) on April 7.

AITKEN CLIMBS UVA MIDFIELDER SCORING LISTS
• Midfielder Dox Aitken (88) needs one goal to pass Matt Poskay (88) for sole possession of No. 4 all-time at UVA for career goals among midfielders.
• With 88 career goals, Aitken has reached the 80-goal mark quicker than any other midfielder in UVA history.
• Aitken needs two goals to become only the third Cavalier midfielder to score at least 90 career goals. He would join the program's co-leaders Brian Carroll and Pete Eldredge who both have 94 career goals.
• Aitken needs four points to pass Pete Eldredge (116) for No. 4 in career midfielder points at UVA.
• Aitken is only the second Cavalier midfielder to reach his 100th career point as a third year, joining Shamel Bratton.
• Bratton reached his 100th career point in career game No. 53, while Aitken is the quickest UVA midfielder to 100 points, doing so in 36 career games. Pete Eldredge (1969-72) was the previous record holder reaching 100 career points as a fourth year in career game 39.

VIRGINIA IS A GROUND BALL MACHINE
• Currently UVA is No. 3 in the nation with 39.00 ground balls per game.
• Entering 2019, UVA has led the nation in ground balls five of the last 10 years, including the last two seasons under Lars Tiffany.
• In 2018, UVA ranked No. 1 in the nation in ground balls (38.00).
• UVA is the only school in the nation to finish in the Top-5 nationally in ground balls per game nine times over the last 10 seasons.
• Duke is the closest team to UVA, finishing in the Top-5 four times during the same span.
• The only school in 2016 to finish with more ground balls per game was UVA head coach Lars Tiffany's 2016 Brown team.
• Below is how UVA has fared over the last 11 seasons in ground balls:

Virginia's NCAA Ranking for Ground Balls Per Game

VIRGINIA IN THE POLLS
• Virginia has been ranked in the top five of the USILA Coaches poll 281 weeks all-time.
• UVA has been ranked in the Top 10 in 424 polls all-time.
• The USILA Poll began in 1973.

VIRGINIA AND OVERTIME IN 2019
• UVA had a three-game stretch where the Cavaliers played three overtime games in a row.
• It is only the third time in program history UVA played three consecutive games that went to overtime. It was the first time in program history UVA won all three games with wins at then-No. 19 Princeton (12-11), at then No. 14 Syracuse (15-14) and vs. Brown (14-13).
• UVA last played three consecutive overtime games in 2017, going 1-2 with wins vs. Cornell and back-to-back losses to Notre Dame and Johns Hopkins. UVA also played three overtime games in a row in the 1980 NCAA Tournament, beating Cornell and North Carolina before falling to Johns Hopkins in double OT for the NCAA title.
• UVA has never played four consecutive overtime games.
• UVA is 5-2 all-time in overtime under Lars Tiffany, including 2-1 at Klöckner Stadium.

TIFFANY CONNECTED TO UVA'S TITLE COACHES
• UVA head coach Lars Tiffany is connected in the lacrosse world to both Glenn Thiel and Dom Starsia, the two Virginia coaches who brought NCAA titles to Charlottesville.
• Tiffany played for Starsia at Brown and coached under Thiel at Penn State (2000-04).

DEFENSE SHINES AGAINST NOTRE DAME
• Team defense against then-No. 7 Notre Dame was on point as they forced the Irish into a season-high 22 turnovers in UVA's 13-11 win. UVA's 11 caused turnovers were also a season high for a Notre Dame opponent.
• The Irish entered the game as the nation's No. 3 clearing team, but failed a season-high four clears against the Cavaliers.
• UVA's defensive effort held Notre Dame's top two scorers to a combined three points (Bryan Costabile 1 goal, Brendan Gleason 2 assists).
• UVA's SSDM John Fox caused two crucial turnovers in the game's final two minutes that helped preserve UVA's lead, including one to close the game on Notre Dame's final offensive possession.

TIFFANY DOES A RARE THING VS. BROWN
• UVA head coach Lars Tiffany has been the head coach at Stony Brook, Brown and now Virginia.
• With UVA's win over Brown, Tiffany owns at least one career win over every program he has served as a head coach. Tiffany is 2-0 all-time against Stony Brook, winning once as the Brown head coach and once as the UVA head coach. Tiffany is 1-1 against Virginia, winning as the Brown head coach and losing as the Stony Brook head coach. He is 1-0 against Brown, winning at the Virginia head coach.
• Only one other active coach that has had at least three DI head coaching jobs has career wins over each of the three programs he has coached. Tiffany joins Duke's John Danowski who coached C.W. Post when they were a DI program, as well as Hofstra and Duke. Danowski has beat all three of those DI programs as a DI head coach.

2019 CAPTAINS NAMED
• Midfielder Ryan Conrad, attackman Michael Kraus and midfielder Dave Smith have been selected by their peers as the captains of the 2019 men's lacrosse team.
• Conrad is the first back-to-back captain since Steele Stanwick in 2011 and 2012.
• Michael Kraus and Conrad in 2018 are the first two "third-years" named captain since Stanwick in 2011. Greg Coholan and Tanner Scales each were named captains as redshirt jurniors during their fourth year on Grounds.

FIRST-TIME OPPONENTS
• UVA has three first-time opponents on its schedule in 2019, hosting Lehigh (Feb. 16), Marist (April 20) and Utah (March 31).
• The last time UVA had at least three first-time opponents on its schedule was 2005 with regular season meetings with Manhattan and Mount St. Mary's, followed by an NCAA Tournament showdown with Albany.

DEFENSE FORCES TURNOVERS VS LEHIGH
• Lehigh had 22 turnovers against the Cavaliers on Feb. 15. UVA caused 12 of those turnovers.
• Of UVA's 12 turnovers, nine came from the starting defense: D Kyle Kology (3), D Cade Saustad (2), D Logan Greco (2) and LSM Jared Conners (2) led the way.

VIRGINIA DROPS OPENER AT LOYOLA
• For only the second time in 12 seasons, UVA has lost its season opener. Both times it game at the hands of the Loyola Greyhounds (2016 and 2019).
• In both of those losses, perennial Player of the Year candidate Pat Spencer recorded 11 combined points. In his collegiate debut against UVA in 2016 he scored two goals and two assists. In last week's Loyola win he led all players with five goals and two assists.

Game 1
Loyola 17, Virginia 9
Feb. 9 • Baltimore, Md.

The No. 6 Virginia Cavaliers fell in the season opener against the No. 4 Loyola Greyhounds, 17-9, at the Ridley Athletic Complex.

The Greyhounds' goalie Jacob Stover was hot between the pipes, saving 18 shots by the Cavaliers. UVA opened the game with an extra-man goal by junior Dox Aitken 48 seconds into the game on a Michael Kraus helper. Loyola outscored UVA 8-3 the rest of the first half to take a four-point lead into the intermission, 8-4.

HOW IT HAPPENED
UVA was leading 1-0 when a 3-0 Loyola run gave the Greyhounds the lead for good, 3-1. Two goals by Loyola's Pat Spencer sparked a five-goal first quarter for LU.

After being outshot in the first quarter, 15-6, the Cavaliers managed 13 shots in the second quarter but only managed one goal as Stover made six saves in the second quarter.

Stover made seven saves in the third quarter as the Greyhounds started to pull away from UVA. Loyola picked up 11 ground balls in the fourth quarter and outscored UVA 5-2 in the final frame to solidify the win. Spencer and Kevin Lindley each scored five goals in the winning effort for Loyola, while Spencer also added two assists.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"Fantastic overall effort from the entire Loyola team. It would be easy to focus on a Herculean effort by their goalie, Jacob Stover, and certainly look at potentially the nation's best player in Pat Spencer and what those two did, but that would take away from the entire team effort that we encountered. It was a heck of a team effort by Loyola on both sides of the field. We tried to hold our slides on defense and they made us pay for that. When we did slide and double the ball, they seemed to find openings. It was one of those frustrating days as defensive coordinator trying to figure out the magic formula and there wasn't one. It is easier to learn from the sting of a loss and we have the opportunity to learn from this loss. I love this team." – Lars Tiffany.

Game 2
Virginia 11, Lehigh 8
Feb. 15 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 11 Virginia Cavaliers used an 8-2 run to overcome an early deficit and dispose of the Lehigh Mountain Hawks, 11-8, at Klöckner Stadium. The game which was originally scheduled for Saturday was moved up a day due to a forecast for inclement weather in the Charlottesville area.

Cavalier goalie Alex Rode made three key saves in the third quarter, two of which came in man-down situations. The saves aided Virginia in holding Lehigh scoreless for 19:57 from the second quarter until the fourth quarter.

HOW IT HAPPENED
For the second week in a row UVA scored first, but then found itself in a hole. With a 2-0 lead over the Mountain Hawks, Lehigh responded by scoring five goals in a row to take a 5-2 lead at 7:42 in the second quarter.

Lehigh owned a two-goal lead, 6-4, at halftime. UVA, who handed Lehigh three extra-man goals in the first half on four penalties, settled in nicely. Dox Aitken scored a big goal to lead the third-quarter scoring. Michael Kraus scored back-to-back goals to give UVA the lead for good.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"We had a couple man down stops in the third quarter and those two stops were big. Rode made a couple nice saves that could have been big momentum goals for Lehigh. From there we just got smarter about what we were doing physically. We're a physical team, we put some people on the ground after they take shots and we want to get after it in the ride. We take a lot of pride in our riding here and we had another good game in that phase. You have to put a lot of pressure on the ball and sometimes we do foul. Michael Kraus right here at the midline got that hold and I can't get upset with Michael because we're asking him to be relentless. We tell our attackmen that they are the defensive frontline of a football team, you got to get pressure. If we can get pressure with three or four rushing the passer then we don't have to implement a 10-man [ride] and we can cause turnovers, which we saw tonight. But it starts with our defensive line, they have to pressure. We tell them you don't have to make the sack, just force a bad pass or an interception because our safeties, our middies, they're ready to jump on errant passes." - Lars Tiffany

Game 3
High Point 14, Virginia 13
Feb. 18 • Charlottesville, Va.

A fourth-quarter surge by No. 13 High Point lifted the Panthers over the No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers, 14-13, at Klöckner Stadium. UVA entered the final period with a 12-11 lead before High Point reeled off three-straight goals to take a 14-12 lead with 2:02 left to play.

Jeff Conner brought UVA to within one goal, 14-13, with 1:04 left to play. HPU won the ensuing faceoff and tried to kill the clock. UVA goalie Alex Rode forced a turnover and the Cavaliers had a chance for one more play. UVA attackman Matt Moore unleashed a shot with a couple seconds left, but High Point goalie Tim Troutner made his 17th save of the game to end the HPU win. The win for the Panthers is their second this season against an ACC team. They won at then-No. 2 Duke on Feb 6, 13-9.

HOW IT HAPPENED
For the third game in a row UVA scored first, but then found itself in a hole. With a 3-0 lead over the Panthers, HPU responded by scoring five goals in a row to take a 5-3 lead at 9:10 in the second quarter.

UVA used a 4-2 run to tie the game, 7-7, heading into the intermission. Grayson Sallade scored his first career goal to start the spurt. Ian Laviano scored twice and Dox Aitken tallied on goal during the run.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"Let's first give credit to the High Point goalie. What a fantastic performance all game with 17 saves. Especially in the fourth quarter he shut the door on us for the most part, we couldn't sneak one by him. I do think we rushed things. I just told my team that we took some home run swings, when we can only score one goal at a time. This isn't baseball with grand slams. Trust the offense, trust Coach Kirwan. We also don't want to decrease the creativity of our men. We've allowed our men to play fast and enjoy competing, throwing the ball, and taking chances. But there were, you were right, some where we forced the issue a little too early." – Lars Tiffany

Game 4
Virginia 12, Princeton 11 - OT
Feb. 23 • Princeton, N.J.

Michael Kraus found Ian Laviano 1:02 into overtime and the No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers escaped New Jersey with a 12-11 triumph over the No. 19 Princeton Tigers at Class of 1952 Stadium.

UVA goalie Patrick Burkinshaw made his first collegiate start and collegiate debut against the Tigers. He was stingy in the goal, saving 24 shots. The 24 saves set a UVA fresh-man goalie record, a UVA first career goalie start record, a Class of 1952 Stadium record and is tied for the most single-game saves in the nation this year. Brukinshaw made six fourth-quarter saves, but no was bigger than the clutch save he made with 32 seconds left in regulation on a Charlie Durbin missile from 10 yards out. Durbin had already found nylon four times on the afternoon.

HOW IT HAPPENED
With Princeton leading 11-10 with 6:55 left in regulation, the UVA defense held firm and kept the Tigers scoreless for the game's final 7:57, including overtime. Ryan Conrad scored an unassisted goal at 4:01 in the fourth quarter to tie the game, 11-11.

The Cavaliers also overcame a two-goal deficit early in the third quarter, 7-5 and 9-7. A Laviano goal at the end of the third quarter, followed by a Kraus goal at the start of the fourth tied the game at 9-9. It was one of seven ties in the game.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"At UVA we believe in creating a culture of competition and you have to earn your play-ing time all year, not just in the Fall or in pre-season. We are not going to create a starting lineup game number one and stick with it. We believe that creates better intensity in practice and continually promotes each man's moment and what we saw today was positive output of that process. In practice we have seen Patrick Burkinshaw emerge and we let the goalies know on Thursday Patrick earned the start. What a performance by Patrick in his first career start. I want to give Patrick tremendous credit in the power of believing. He believes in himself. He had the eye and said 'I am ready coach.'" – Lars Tiffany

Game 5
Virginia 15, Syracuse 14 - OT
March 2 • Syracuse, N.Y.

The No. 10 Virginia Cavaliers used a 6-1 run to overcome a four-goal deficit in the fourth quarter, upending the No. 14 Syracuse Orange in overtime, 15-14, inside the Carrier Dome.

Virginia won the overtime faceoff and with 1:31 left in the extra fame Mike Herring scored his first goal of the season after Michael Kraus found the senior five yards out. It was Herring's only shot of the day and Kraus' third assist of the game.

HOW IT HAPPENED
Syracuse went up 13-9 with 10:02 left in the game after Stephen Rehfuss capped a 4-1 Orange run. Dox Aitken responded with a goal with 9:00 left in the game, jumpstarting a 6-1 UVA sprint to close the day. During the run six different Cavaliers scored. Matt Moore scored an EMO goal, followed by a Ryan Conrad score with 5:36 left. Conrad's goal capped a 3-0 UVA run and brought the score to 13-12, advantage Syracuse.

Bradley Voight scored a man-down goal for the Orange with 3:45 on a fast break, push-ing the Cuse lead back to two goals, 14-12. Jared Conners scored a clutch long-pole goal on a Kraus helper at 2:09 as the junior was camped on the crease. Kraus followed at 1:12 with the game-tying score from five yards out.

Syracuse won the ensuing faceoff, but a big save from UVA goalie Alex Rode with two seconds left sent the game into overtime, set-ting up Herring's heroics.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"Another fantastic game between two tradi-tional powers. Statistically this game was pret-ty balanced. We had an offensive flurry there in the end and I am really proud of our men to stay positive down four with 10 minutes to go. In the second half it started with Ryan Conrad as he was not be denied on those ground balls off the faceoff wing, especially in the fourth quarter. I told him 'this is a good time to be selfish Ryan, every ground ball is yours.' I was amazed at what Conrad was doing with his faceoff wing play because those were 50-50 balls and Syracuse has some great wings that come in. For Ryan to deal with those good Syracuse wing players and get those ground balls is what set us up to go on that run late in the game." – Lars Tiffany

Game 6
Virginia 14, Brown 13 - OT
March 10 • Charlottesville, Va.

UVA attackman Michael Kraus scored his fifth goal of the game with 1:02 left in the first overtime to lift the No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers past the Brown Bears, 14-13, at Klöckner Stadium.

Virginia won the overtime faceoff and with 1:02 left in the extra fame Kraus scored from 10 yards out on a clear look from Mikey Herring. It was Kraus' fifth goal of the game and capped a 6-1 UVA run to end the game.

HOW IT HAPPENED
The Bears went up 12-8 with 14:42 left in the game after Carson Song capped a 7-2 Brown run. Dox Aitken responded with a goal on a Matt Moore helper with 11:11 left in the game, jumpstarting a 6-1 UVA sprint to close the day.

After Ian Laviano scored on a Herring assist with 8:03 left, Brown scored its last goal of the game in transition from George Pike. The Pike goal gave the Bears a three-goal lead, 13-10, with 6:52 left to play. The Pike goal came after Laviano was stuffed on the crease by Brown goalie Phil Goss.

Laviano responded on another Herring helper at 5:51, cutting UVA's deficit back to two goals, 13-11. Petey LaSalla won the faceoff again for UVA and Kraus found Matt Moore with 5:05 left, cutting the deficit to one goal, 13-12.

After an unnecessary roughness call on Brown's Matt McShea on the ensuing faceoff, Kraus tied the game with an extra-man goal at 3:21 via a Ryan Conrad helper. LaSalla won the overtime faceoff, setting up Kraus' heroics.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"We saw this against Princeton down two, we were down four against Syracuse. It feeds on itself, and then they really start believing it. It's not just words. I think a lot of teams say we never doubted ourselves, this team really doesn't doubt. The key is for us to build a lead here, and go into a third or fourth quarter with a strong lead, and I don't know if we have done that yet. And play better lacrosse early. The confidence that these men have wearing these Virginia jerseys is as high as I've ever seen when they are down as much as we've been down. I'm really fortunate to have a group of men that may play better down. We just have to make sure we can play better up."– Lars Tiffany

Game 7
Virginia 13, Notre Dame 11
March 16 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 11 Virginia Cavaliers overcame a five-goal deficit in the second half, disposing the No. 7 Notre Dame Fighting Irish, 13-11, at Klöckner Stadium. UVA used an 8-1 run over the game's final 23:59 to snatch the key league victory.

Virginia led early, 4-2, after Michael Kraus found Mikey Herring across the crease with 11:24 left to play in the second quarter. Notre Dame surged to a 10-5 lead on the heels of its own 8-1 run which was capped by Connor Morin with 8:59 left to play in the third quarter.

HOW IT HAPPENED
Ian Laviano started the UVA comeback with an extra-man goal on a Matt Moore helper at 7:27 left in the third quarter. The goal jump-started UVA's 8-1 streak to end the game. Laviano scored three of his game-high five goals during run, capping his day with the go-ahead score with 6:26 left to play on another assist from Moore.

After UVA took the lead for good, Moore scored unassisted to give UVA a two-goal cushion, 12-10. The Irish broke through with 2:54 left on a Quinn McCahon goal via a Brian Willetts pass. Notre Dame won the ensuing faceoff, but a clutch caused turnover from John Fox of Notre Dame's Griffin Westlin created another UVA offensive opportunity. With 54 seconds left, Dox Aitken stuck a high-to-high shot to give the Cavaliers the final two-goal win. The Irish won the following faceoff, but Moore and Fox each caused turnovers that derailed all comeback plans for Notre Dame.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"What a game of runs. First it was Notre Dame's turn to pull far-far away from us over the second and third quarter, and they just made plays. They were picking up the tough ground balls and getting extra possessions, and then converting on man-up opportunities. I have to give them a lot of credit for their man-up and what they did to us in the first half. We have been down four [goals] and come from behind, but we hadn't been down five [goals] before. Fortunately, we were able to get those late ground balls. Ryan Conrad had seven ground balls and it was huge, he gives us those extra possessions. I felt as the game went on, those in-between, those 50-50's, they went our way.." – Lars Tiffany

Game 8
Virginia 16, Johns Hopkins 11
March 23 • Baltimore, Md.

The No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers walked away with an impressive 16-11 triumph over the No. 15 Johns Hopkins Blue Jays at historic Homewood Field, returning the Doyle Smith Cup to Charlottesville for the first time since 2016.

The game began as a see-saw battle that boasted seven ties and five lead changes, but the Cavaliers trailing 8-7 early in the third quarter went on a 9-2 run to take a commanding six-goal lead with 7:36 left to play. The five-goal win was also UVA's largest all-time win over the Blue Jays at Homewood Field. The previous best was four goals in 1997 (16-12).

HOW IT HAPPENED
Michael Kraus scored an unassisted goal after dodging from X to tie the game at 8-8 with 7:50 left in the third quarter. The Kraus goal started a 3-0 UVA run that gave the Cavaliers the lead for good. Ryan Conrad continued the run when he took the ball to the rack in transition with 7:26 left in the third quarter. Dox Aitken capped the spurt when he dodged to space and got his hands free with 5:01 left in the third, giving UVA its first two-goal lead of the game (10-8) since the Cavaliers led 2-0 to start the contest.

Johns Hopkins narrowed its deficit to one goal, 10-9, after Evan Zinn found nylon at 4:40 in the third. However, UVA quickly reeled off four-straight goals to take a commanding 14-9 lead. Aitken capped the streak when he completed his hat-trick on an Ian Laviano pass, scoring an extra-man goal with 9:51 left to play.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM
"What I was really happy with in the second half was our ride. We challenged our attackmen at halftime and we take a lot of pride in the way we ride. At halftime Hopkins was perfect and I told Ian [Laviano], Michael [Kraus] and Matt [Moore], we need more pressure and create some more errant passes. That was a big part of our ability to surge ahead in the second half the way we did."– Lars Tiffany
