DEBUTS

- Freshman goalie Rachel Vander Kolk made her debut at Northwestern, logging five saves
- Freshman midfielder Meghan Heick also made her debut at Northwestern and was in the starting lineup for the first two games of the year
- Heick scored her first career goal at JMU
- Freshman midfielder Kasey Behr made her collegiate debut against Richmond, coming off the bench to score a goal, pick up a ground ball and win two draw controls
- Freshman midfielder Lilly DiNardo made her collegiate debut in the Harvard game
- Four Cavaliers made their Virginia debut at William & Mary. Freshmen Daniela Kelly, Jacqueline Wasilko and Ana Hagerup made their collegiate debuts in the game while Katherine Rueger, a transfer from Davidson, made her UVa debut
- Rueger picked up a ground ball and Hagerup took a shot in the W&M game

CAVALIERS VS RANKED OPPONENTS

- Virginia is 4-3 against top-10 teams this season and 5-4 against top-20 teams
- Five of Virginia's first eight games were against top-10 opponents
- Eight of UVa's first 10 games were against top-20 opponents
- The game against BC was the second time this season UVa has taken on a team ranked second in the nation, falling to UNC when it was ranked No. 2
- The BC win was the second time in two weeks that Virginia took down a previously-undefeated team. Duke was 9-0, 3-0 ACC before coming to Charlottesville the Saturday before UVa defeated 10-0 BC in Newton

VS UNRANKED OPPONENTS

- Since 2007, Virginia has only lost four times to unranked opponents, going 52-4 in that span against teams not ranked in the IWLCA Top-20. One of those losses came last season when Virginia fell 15-13 at then-unranked Princeton.

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT

- This season Virginia has already played all three teams they faced during the 2014 NCAA Tournament, falling 13-12 in overtime to second-round opponent Princeton, falling 10-7 at North Carolina (last year's quarterfinal opponent) and 14-13 at Syracuse (last year's semifinal opponent).
- Virginia was one of six teams last season to earn a first-round bye, facing the Tigers in the 2nd round

ACC POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

- Courtney Swan has been announced as one of 53 recipients of the prestigious Weaver-James-Corrigan Award.
- These ACC postgraduate scholarships are awarded to selected student-athletes who intend to pursue a graduate degree following completion of their undergraduate requirements. Each recipient will receive $5,000 toward his or her graduate education. Those honored have performed with distinction in both the classroom and their respective sport, while demonstrating exemplary conduct in the community. An additional eight student-athletes who plan to enter a professional career in their chosen sport were named honorary recipients.

TEWAARATON WATCH LIST

- Casey Bocklet, Courtney Swan and Morgan Stephens were all named to the 50-player Tewaaraton Award Watch List.

ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK SWEEP

- Casey Bocklet was named the ACC Offensive Player of the Week and Rachel Vander Kolk was named the ACC Defensive Players of the Week (March 31)
- Bocklet, who was named the co-Offensive Player of the Week the previous week, recorded a hat trick and added two assists against the previously unbeaten Eagles. She scored two of Virginia's first three goals at Boston College, setting the foundation for the Cavaliers' 6-0 run to start the game. In a 16-6 win at William & Mary, Bocklet recorded a career-high eight points on five goals and three assists. She has posted at least five points in each of Virginia's last three victories.
- Vander Kolk made an ACC single-game season-high 18 saves in Virginia's upset win at No. 2 Boston College and totaled 27 for the week after making nine in the 16-6 win at William & Mary. The freshman goalkeeper faced 41 shots by the Eagles, including five in the final two minutes of the game with Virginia leading 15-13. During that period, Vander Kolk came up with three saves and a ground ball after Cavalier teammate Wyatt Whitley caused a turnover in front of the net in the final 20 seconds of the game.
- It was the second career honor for Bocklet and the first for Vander Kolk

IL NATIONAL ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- Rachel Vander Kolk was named Inside Lacrosse's co-National Rookie of the Week (March 31), the second time she earned this honor
- "For the Cavaliers, it was rookie Rachel Vander Kolk who made the ultimate difference in Virginia's victory over then-undefeated Boston College on Saturday. Squaring off against some of the nation's most prolific scorers, Vander Kolk made 18 saves to lift her team over its second ranked opponent in just eight days. The Severna Park (Md.) native has started in every game for UVA this season, and boasts a .413 save percentage."

ACC CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Casey Bocklet was named the ACC Co-Player of the Week (March 24)
- Bocklet helped lead Virginia to a pair of wins over ranked teams, including a road win at No. 12 JMU and upsetting previously-undefeated Duke at Klockner Stadium
- Bocklet scored four goals against Duke, on four shots, while also adding an assist
- Against JMU, Bocklet had one goal with three assists

LM NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Casey Bocklet was also named the Lacrosse Magazine National Player of the Week (March 24)
- "Duke had been playing like a well-oiled machine in 2014, with a perfect 9-0 mark going into a weekend trip to Klockner Stadium. There, they met the Cavaliers and Bocklet, and left with a 9-1 mark. Bocklet's performance in a dominating first half earns her Epoch/LM Player of the Week honors."
- "Bocklet scored a first-half hat trick, keying the host Cavaliers to a 7-3 lead by halftime, which was expanded to 9-3 before the Blue Devils rallied late, but not enough in Virginia's 13-10 win. Bocklet finished with a team-high four goals and an assist, leaving her with an even 16 and 16 on the spring. The win was Virginia's third straight and bumped the Cavaliers (6-4) back into the Nike/LM Top 10."

IL NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Courtney Swan was named the Inside Lacrosse National Player of the Week (March 3)
- During an action-packed week for Virginia (2-2), the No. 8 Cavaliers dropped a one-goal decision to Syracuse, 13-14, in the Carrier Dome on Monday evening before traveling to University Park on Saturday to take on the Penn State Nittany Lions.
- Against the Orange, Swan recorded four points (1g, 3a) and picked up a pair of draw controls. When Swan took on the Nittany Lions, however, she utterly dominated the field. The Vero Beach (Fla.) native poured in four goals and dished out four assists, while collecting nine of her team's 17 draw controls.

'HOOS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

- Virginia is one of five programs in the NCAA to be ranked at least once in every year of the IWLCA Coaches Poll. The poll was created in 1988, with Dartmouth, Maryland, Penn State and Princeton joining Virginia as the only programs to be nationally ranked every year.
- Of those five programs, Virginia is the only program to be ranked in every week of the IWLCA coaches poll, a span of 277-straight polls.
- Of those 277 polls, the Cavaliers have been ranked among the top-10 in the nation on 239 occasions, the second-most among all NCAA programs.
- The Cavaliers have spent 15 weeks ranked No. 1, including the entire 1993 season, en route to the program's second national championship.
- Virginia debuted at No. 7 in the inaugural coaches poll on March 19, 1988. While the Cavaliers have climbed to a No. 1 ranking, the farthest they have ever fallen was to No. 19 on April 23, 2013. Virginia has only spent five weeks ranked outside the top-15.

IL NATIONAL ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

- The same week that Courtney Swan was the Inside Lacrosse National Player of the Week (March 3), goalkeeper Rachel Vander Kolk was named IL's co-National Rookie of the Week
- Sharing Rookie of the Week honors with Stanford's Allit DaCar, Vander Kolk was coming off a strong week against No. 5 Syracuse and No. 12 Penn State. Against the Orange, Vander Kolk posted a career-high 10 saves. Just days later, Vander Kolk bested her career-high with a 13 save performance against the Nittany Lions. The win over Penn State marked Virginia's first win over a ranked opponent this spring.

2014-15 US NATIONAL TEAM

- Courtney Swan and Morgan Stephens are both members of the 39-player training roster for the 2014-15 U.S. Senior Women's National Team

2015 CAPTAINS

- Fourth-years Courtney Swan and Kelsey Gahan are this year's captains
