LARS TIFFANY

Tiffany Enters His Fourth Season at the Helm of the Cavaliers

Lars Tiffany enters his fourth season as the head coach of the Virginia men's lacrosse program after being named the 17th head coach of the Cavaliers on June 21, 2016.

The 2019 season was a special one for Tiffany as he brought both NCAA and ACC titles to Charlottesville. Virginia tied a program record with 17 wins in 2019 as the Cavaliers finished 17-3, winning their first NCAA title since 2011 and first ACC title since 2010.

Virginia's offense hummed all season, finishing No. 7 in the country in three key categories: scoring offense per game (14.10), assists per game (8.60) and points per game (22.70). Virginia also finished No. 4 in the nation in scoring margin per game (3.85). Leading the way was Matt Moore, who became the first player in program history to record 40+ goals and 40+ assists in the same season. Moore finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 8 in the nation with 89 points (46-43). Dox Aitken, a first-team USILA All-American for the second-straight season, broke his own single-season UVA record for points by a midfielder (52). Aitken also became the only midfielder in program history to reach 100 goals for a career. Ian Laviano led the ACC and was No. 9 in the nation with 51 goals, which ranks No. 4 all-time at UVA on the single-season ledger.

Ryan Conrad, a first-team USILA All-American, was named the Senior CLASS Award winner for 2019, the second student-athlete to win the coveted award under Tiffany (Brown's Jack Kelly, 2016). Conrad, a two-time captain, was MVP of the ACC Tournament and named to the NCAA All-Tournament team. He finished the year with 31 goals and 18 assists, which places him tied for No. 3 all-time at UVA in single-season points by a midfielder.

UVA was one of the nation's most feared riding teams. UVA's opponents cleared at .711 percent for the season, which ranked No. 2 in the nation behind Cleveland State's .707 percent. UVA was also one of two programs to have a top 20 offense and defense, as the Cavaliers limited opponents to 10.25 goals per game, while scoring 14.10 per game. The scoring margin of 3.85 goals per game ranked No. 4 nationally and No. 1 in the ACC.

For the third year in a row, Tiffany's Cavaliers team ranked No. 1 nationally in ground balls (41.55) in 2019. Defensively in 2018, Virginia led the nation with 38.0 ground balls per game and in 2017 averaged 43.33 ground balls per game, averaging nearly seven more ground balls per game than No. 2 Brown (36.56), Tiffany's old program. Prior to Tiffany coming to UVA, his Brown squad in 2016 led the nation in ground balls as Tiffany's staff three years in a row has led the nation's best team on the ground. Goalie Alex Rode was named Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 NCAA Tournament after going 4-0 with 43 saves between the pipes. Rode recorded 18 saves against Duke in the NCAA semifinal round and posted 13 saves against Yale in the NCAA final. Freshman Petey LaSalla was stellar all season at the faceoff X, including going a perfect 6-of-6 in overtime periods. LaSalla, a College Crosse (SB Nation) Freshman All-American (1st), finished No. 1 in the ACC with 100 ground balls. He also was No. 2 in the ACC and No. 21 in the nation with a .587 faceoff winning percentage. LaSalla's 216 faceoff wins rank No. 2 in UVA's single-season record book.

In 2018, Tiffany's Cavaliers were No. 5 nationally in assists (7.72), No. 7 in points per game (20.33) and No. 7 in scoring offense (12.61). Michael Kraus became the third Cavalier in program history to reach 80 points in a season, finishing with 83, ranking No. 8 nationally. First-team All-American midfielder Aitken first set a midfielder program record with 51 points in 2018.

During Tiffany's first season on Grounds his Cavalier offense finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the nation in three offensive categories: goals per game (14.40), assists per game (9.13) and points per game (23.53). Aitken shattered UVA's freshmen midfielder record of 29 goals and 40 points. Aitken broke the goals record in eight games. Attackman Kraus was named ACC Freshman of the Year and was the only rookie on the All-ACC team after leading UVA with 34 goals and 56 points.

Tiffany came to Virginia with 12 years of head coaching experience. He spent 10 years at Brown, his alma mater. He led the Bears to Championship Weekend in Philadelphia in 2016 behind a 16-3 record. The 16 wins in 2016 was a program record for the Bears. Brown's offense was potent in 2016, leading the nation with 16.32 goals per game. Under Tiffany's tutelage, nine Brown Bears earned All-America honors in 2016, while Dylan Molloy was the recipient of the 2016 Tewaaraton Trophy and was named by the USILA its most outstanding player and attackman of the year. Brown goalie Jack Kelly was named the nation's most outstanding goalie and the winner of the 2016 Senior CLASS award for men's lacrosse.

Tiffany returned his alma mater to national prominence with Ivy League regular season titles in 2008, 2010, 2015 and 2016 and NCAA Championship berths in 2009, 2015 and 2016. Tiffany was named the New England Coach of the Year in 2008, 2009, 2015 and 2016 and earned Ivy League Coach of the Year honors in 2015 and 2016.

"Stepping into the seat as the head coach of the Virginia's Men's Lacrosse program brings both a tremendous exhilaration and responsibility," Tiffany said after being hired. "I am very fortunate to have been entrusted with this program. It is also clearly understood that the coaches and athletes of Virginia Lacrosse that have come before me have established a very high bar for measuring success in Charlottesville. My staff and I are eager to begin working with the men as we establish the principles and guidelines of our aggressive, fast-paced system of play that relies upon uncompromising fitness, competitive fire and a passion, and joy, for the game of lacrosse."

Tiffany guided his 2015 team to the number one seed in the Ivy League Tournament, an Ivy League championship and NCAA Tournament berth, changing the landscape of college lacrosse with a unique fast break offense that scored 237 goals, averaging 13.94 goals per game, fifth best in the nation.

Since taking over the Brown program in 2007, Tiffany transformed the program from one that was winless in the Ivy League in 2006 into one of the preeminent teams in the Ivy League and the nation.

Tiffany guided Brown to its second Ivy League Championship under his watch in 2010, while also earning a berth in the first-ever Ivy League Playoffs. His team also posted back-to-back winning seasons in 2013 and 2014.

In 2009, Tiffany coached Brown to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997, before falling in overtime to Johns Hopkins in the NCAA First Round. His 2009 team posted a 12-4 record and was ranked as high as eighth nationally during the season, finishing the season as the 11th ranked squad in the nation.

Tiffany's 2008 squad captured the Ivy League title with a 5-1 league mark, posting an 11-3 record to earn the most wins at Brown since 1994. Brown, the number one ranked team in New England, finished 13th nationally in the final USILA coaches poll, with just six teams in the nation winning more games than the Bears.

In his first season at the helm of the Brown team, Tiffany turned the fortunes of the program in the right direction, guiding the Bears to a 7-7 record in 2007, and a national ranking as high as 18th.

Tiffany came to Brown from Stony Brook, where he was the head lacrosse coach in 2005 and 2006, posting an 18-13 overall mark. His 2006 squad finished second in America East with a 4-1 league mark and was ranked in the Top 20 in two weeks. In 2005, Tiffany's Seawolves appeared in the Top 20 for the first time ever, and were ranked as high as 14th nationally. Tiffany, the 2005 America East Coach of the Year, led Stony Brook to wins over Penn State and Rutgers, as his Seawolves boasted the number-one ranked man-up unit in Division I.

Tiffany arrived at Stony Brook after successful stints at Penn State, Dartmouth, Washington & Lee and LeMoyne. He spent his four years at Penn State (2000-2004) as the top assistant under head coach Glenn Thiel, and was involved in all facets of the lacrosse program as the team's defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Tiffany's defensive units were outstanding during his four years, and in 2002, the Nittany Lions led the nation in man-down defense.

Prior to coaching at Penn State, Tiffany was an assistant coach at Dartmouth College, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons under head coach Rick Sowell. In his two seasons as defensive coordinator, the Big Green's goals allowed per game in Ivy League contests dropped from 15.3 to 9.0. Dartmouth earned its first share of the Ivy League title and a berth in the NCAA tournament in 2003.

Tiffany was an assistant coach from 1997-98 at Washington & Lee University. In 1998, the Generals went 13-3 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament while finishing fifth in the USILA Division III national rankings.

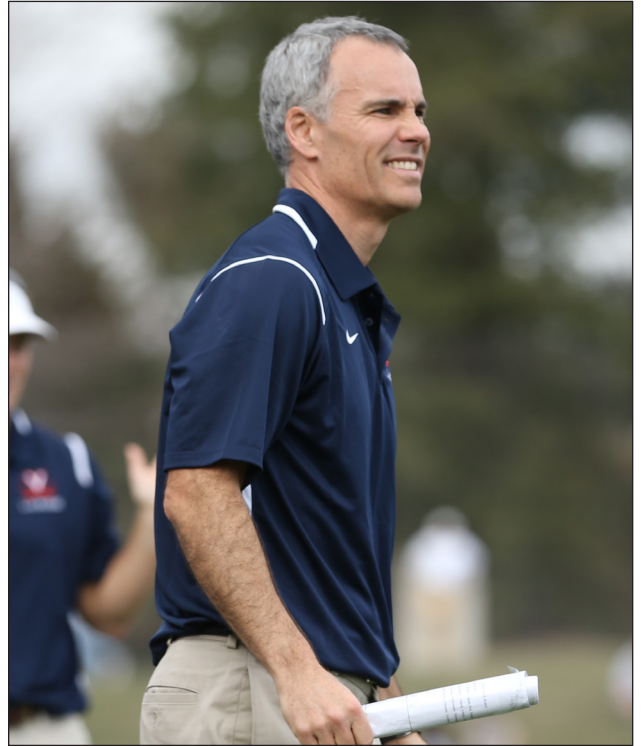

Tiffany began his collegiate coaching career at LeMoyne College, where he served as an assistant coach of men's lacrosse and co-head coach of the women's lacrosse program from 1994-96. A native of LaFayette, N.Y., Tiffany graduated from LaFayette High School where he lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. Upon graduation from Brown, he taught biology and coached lacrosse and football at the Robert Louis Stevenson School in Pebble Beach, Calif., from 1990-94.

A 1990 graduate of Brown, Tiffany was a two-time team captain and starter on defense for three years. Tiffany played for former Virginia head coach Dom Starsia at Brown. A Biology concentrator, Tiffany played on two Brown teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament (1987 & 1990). He was Co-MVP of the Brown squad that captured its first-ever NCAA playoff victory in 1990 (12-9 vs. UMass). Tiffany capped his career by playing in the North-South Senior All-Star game.

Lars and Tara reside in Charlottesville with their daughter, Charlotte.

ASSISTANT COACH

SEAN KIRWAN

Sean Kirwan is in his fourth season at Virginia and his sixth season under Lars Tiffany.

The third season under Kirwan's offense was a special one for the Cavaliers as UVA tied a program record with 17 wins, capturing NCAA and ACC titles in the process. Virginia's offense hummed all season, finishing No. 7 in the country in three key categories: scoring offense per game (14.10), assists per game (8.60) and points per game (22.70). Virginia also finished No. 4 in the nation in scoring margin per game (3.85). Leading the way was Matt Moore, who became the first player in program history to record 40+ goals and 40+ assists in the same season. Moore finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 8 in the nation with 89 points (46-43). Dox Aitken, a first-team USILA All-American for the second-straight season, broke his own single-season UVA record for points by a midfielder (52). Aitken also became the only midfielder in program history to reach 100 goals for a career. Ian Laviano led the ACC and was No. 9 in the nation with 51 goals, which ranks No. 4 all-time at UVA on the single-season ledger.

In year number two under Kirwan in 2018, UVA finished No. 5 in the nation in assists per game (7.72) and No. 7 in the nation in both scoring offense (12.61) and points per game (20.33). Aitken first set UVA's single-season record for points by a midfielder with 51 points while earning first-team USILA All-American honors. Michael Kraus became the third Cavalier to tally at least 80 points in a season as he led UVA with 44 goals and 39 assists, earning second-team All-America honors. Moore was named ACC Freshman of the Year after scoring 19 goals and dishing out 15 assists.

During Kirwan's first season at UVA in 2017, his offense finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the nation in three offensive categories: goals per game (14.40), assists per game (9.13) and points per game (23.53). Under Kirwan's guidance midfielder Aitken shattered UVA's freshmen midfielder record of 29 goals and 40 points. Aitken broke the goals record in eight games. Kraus was named ACC Freshman of the Year and was the only rookie on the All-ACC team after leading UVA with 34 goals and 56 points.

Prior to UVA, Kirwan spent two seasons at Brown running the offense under Tiffany. Under Kirwan's tutelage in 2016, the Brown offense was potent, leading the nation with 16.32 goals per game. Dylan Molloy was the recipient of the 2016 Tewaaratron Trophy and was named by the USILA its most outstanding player and attackman of the year. Kirwan helped change the landscape of college lacrosse in 2015 with a unique fast break offense that scored 237 goals, averaging 13.94 goals per game, fifth best in the nation.

Kirwan perfected his offensive approach at his alma mater, Tufts, guiding the Division III Jumbos' offense to an NCAA-leading 423 goals in 2014, the most all-time by any team in NCAA lacrosse history (all divisions). His Tufts squad also led the nation in team goals and assists

KIRWAN'S BIOGRAPHY AT-A-GLANCE

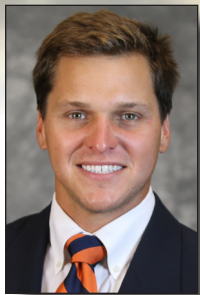

Born: October 30, 1989, in Boonton Township, N.J.
Secondary School: Mountain Lakes H.S., Mountain Lakes, N.J.
College: Graduated from Tufts in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in child development.
Playing Career: Tufts (2009-12).
Championships Won: Tufts (NCAA DIII - 2010 as a player; 2014 as a coach).
Coaching Background: Assistant men's lacrosse coach at Tufts (2013-2014); assistant men's lacrosse coach at Brown (2015-16); assistant men's lacrosse coach at Virginia (2017-pres.).

(251). Kirwan coached three 100+ point scorers, the first time in NCAA history that three players from one team scored over 100 points in the same season.

A native of New Jersey, where he attended Mountain Lakes High School, Kirwan graduated from Tufts in 2012, where he broke single season and career goal scoring records with 66 goals in 2011 and 150 career goals. An All-American in 2011 and 2012, he was also an Academic All-American and team captain in 2012 as well as winning the NCAA Division III National Championship with the school in 2010.

Kirwan and his wife, the former Taylor Smith of Guilford, Conn., reside in the Charlottesville area. The couple has one son, Cameron.

ASSISTANT COACH

KIP TURNER

Kip Turner is in his fourth season at Virginia and his ninth season under Lars Tiffany.

For the third year in a row in 2019, Turner helped UVA finish No. 1 nationally in ground balls per game (41.55) as the Cavaliers tied a program record for wins (17) while capturing the NCAA and ACC titles. Overseeing faceoffs and goalies, two of Turner's pupils shined in 2019. Alex Rode was named Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 NCAA Tournament after going 4-0 with 43 saves between the pipes. Rode recorded 18 saves against Duke in the NCAA semifinal round and posted 13 saves against Yale in the NCAA final. Freshman Petey LaSalla was stellar all season at the faceoff X, including going a perfect 6-of-6 in overtime periods. LaSalla, a College Crosse (SB Nation) Freshman All-American (1st), finished No. 1 in the ACC with 100 ground balls. He also was No. 2 in the ACC and No. 21 in the nation with a .587 faceoff winning percentage. LaSalla's 216 faceoff wins rank No. 2 in UVA's single-season record book.

Turner also assisted in UVA leading the nation in ground balls in 2018 and 2017. In 2017, UVA averaged 43.33 ground balls per game which was nearly seven more ground balls per game than No. 2 Brown (36.56), Turner's previous coaching stop. Turner helped Brown lead the nation in ground balls in 2016 before he joined Tiffany in Charlottesville for the 2017 campaign.

In 2018, Turner oversaw the emergence of Justin Schwenk at the Faceoff X. Schwenk led the ACC and was No. 12 nationally with the .598 winning percentage. Schwenk also led the ACC in ground balls per game (5.71). Turner also was the face-off coach for Brown, developing Will Gural into an All-American and one of the top face-off men in the nation in 2015 and 2016.

In his first two years at his alma mater, Turner has aided in the development of freshmen goalies. In 2018, Rode led the ACC with 9.20 saves per game. In 2017, Turner aided in the development of first year goalie Griffin Thompson. Thompson went on to tie a UVA freshman goalie single-game record with 18 saves against Robert Morris.

At Brown, Turner helped develop All-Ivy goalies Matt Chriss and Will Round, as well as a slew of young goalkeepers on the Bears squad, including Kelly, who matured into an All-American and a unanimous first team All-Ivy selection. Turner also was the face-off coach for the Bears, developing Will Gural into one of the top face-off men in the nation in 2015 and 2016.

Turner also practiced his trade in the professional ranks, including leading the Chesapeake Bayhawks to two consecutive MLL Championships in 2012 and 2013. Turner was originally selected second overall in the Major League Lacrosse draft by the Boston Cannons, the highest goalie ever picked in a draft. He made an immediate impact, being named the Cannons' Defensive MVP in 2008. A three-time MLL Defensive Player of the Week in 2010, Turner was named the MLL Goalkeeper of the Year for his outstanding play. Turner was also selected the starting goalie in the MLL All-Star game in 2013. After a nine-year stint in the MLL, Turner decided to retire in the spring of 2016.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Virginia with a bachelor's degree in government, Turner was a four-year letterwinner for the Cavaliers. He was the UVA defensive MVP in 2006, leading the Cavaliers to the ACC Championship and NCAA title. Turner was an All-ACC first team selection in 2007, and named to the All-ACC Tournament team in 2006 and 2007.

Turner was inducted into the Severn High School Hall of Fame in the spring of 2016 for his achievement in soccer, ice hockey and lacrosse. Turner is married to Emy Deyhle Turner and the couple has one daughter.

TURNER'S BIOGRAPHY AT-A-GLANCE

BO LORI

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

In his second year on Grounds, Bo Lori first joined Lars Tiffany's Virginia staff as the volunteer assistant coach for the 2019 season. He works primarily on the defensive side of the ball with Coach Tiffany.

Lori comes to Charlottesville after graduating from Ohio State in the spring of 2018. A three-year member of the lacrosse program at Ohio State, Bo was an integral part of the Buckeye short-stick defensive midfield unit, appearing in all but one game from 2016-2018. Lori was also voted team captain for his senior season by his teammates. The Buckeye teams that Lori was a part of were known for their tough and tenacious defensive play, leading the Big Ten Conference in goals against average in both 2017 (8.38 GAA) and 2018 (8.52 GAA). Lori was also a member of Ohio State's winningest class in program history with 43 career wins. Lori's junior year at Ohio State was the winningest season in program history and ended with the opportunity to play on Memorial Day in the national championship game.

Lori's success was not just on the lacrosse field, as he was named an Ohio State Scholar-Athlete for all three years as well as an Academic All-Big Ten selection for two of his three years. Bo graduated as a sports industry major with a 3.43 GPA. He also had a minor in business.

Prior to his time in Columbus, Lori was a member of the Lehigh Lacrosse team for one year, where he appeared in 15 games as a long-stick midfielder, as well as being named to the Patriot League Honor Roll.

Lori has always had aspirations of becoming a coach, and his work during his summers as an undergrad have reflected that. He has had a role in coaching for both the Resolute Club Lacrosse program as well as the FCA club lacrosse program.

A native of Hudson, Ohio, Lori was a two-time US Lacrosse High School All-American Attackman. Bo was named Ohio Player of The Year after his junior season, in which he broke Hudson High School's single season points record with 121 points. Bo was also a standout hockey player in high school and graduated with the career points record for his high school with 200 career points.

Bo is the son of Mark and Tricia Lori, and has three younger siblings, Annie, Macy and Blake. Bo currently resides in Charlottesville.

BRIAN WILBERGER

OPERATIONS ASSISTANT

Brian Wilberger is in his second season on Lars Tiffany's staff as the Operations Assistant.

Wilberger has been a lacrosse fixture in the local community for many years as a high school coach with Albemarle, Monticello, and Fluvanna, helping lead teams to one state championship and two additional state finals appearances, along with helping found the boy's and girl's VHSL programs at Fluvanna.

Brian is currently the Director of Seminole Lacrosse and has also ran a successful local travel lacrosse club. He is also past vice president of Central Virginia Chapter of US Lacrosse and current vice president of The Lacrosse Foundation, which has helped initiate many local programs and grants. Wilberger is the chairman of the Virginia Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

After playing lacrosse at Albemarle High, Wilberger went on to play at both the NCAA DI and DIII levels in college, and post college played for the American Lacrosse League's successful Charlottesville Herd team.

Wilberger is a Charlottesville native and lives in Fluvanna County with his wife and three children.

TIFFANY ON AITKEN

2020 - "College athletes are certainly amateurs. But describing Dox's approach and preparation to everything we do on and off the field is best characterized as professional. Sure, he works hard, but so do most athletes. Dox trains with purpose, critically assesses his own play, pursues film study as if it is one of his core academic requirements, fuels his body wisely and throughout it all maintains an open mind to learning and growth." 2019 - "With more opposing defensive schemes designed to limit his impact, this man has increased his time commitment to studying film, enhancing his tactical comprehension and improving the technical aspects of his game." 2018 - "After a strong first year, arguably the best rookie season for a UVA midfielder ever, how does Dox follow it up? From the weight room to the practice field to the film study, there is little evidence our Freshman of the Year award winner is resting on any laurels - actually, it is quite the opposite. Dox is a student of the game, constantly pursuing greater knowledge - both offensively and defensively - and enhancing his dodging and shooting techniques. He balances a tremendous drive to be great with a refreshing humbleness."

TIFFANY ON APPELT

2020 - "It may be easier to describe this man by what he is not doing because the achievements are many and activities are exhaustive. Jackson juggles a plethora of pursuits, from pre-Chuck Drill motivational speaker to spearheading our service efforts with Harlem Lacrosse and WB 23 which raised $25,000 this past fall. On the field, Jackson's quickness and adeptness at instigation of offensive plays are once again being witnessed due to his return to full health." 2019 - "The progression is moving forward as planned. Skinny has been replaced by powerful, tentative with aggressive, single-faceted with versatile." 2018 - "Defending Jackson is like corralling the chickens - it appears you have him right where you want him, and then he is gone and out of your reach. This burst of speed Jackson possesses allows him to separate from his defenseman and shoot uncontested. Not surprisingly, Jackson is proving he has a quick retention of the offensive schematics. This first-year brings an inquisitiveness and fresh perspective to our training sessions."

42 MICHAEL BIENKOWSKI

Midfield • 6-0 • 180 • Freshman
Islip, N.Y. • Islip HS

- Listed as the No. 94 recruit in the country by Inside Lacrosse
- Listed as the No. 30 midfielder in the country by Inside Lacrosse
- Name is pronounced xxx

TIFFANY ON BIENKOWSKI

2020 - "The burst of speed is clearly evident, allowing Mike to create separation as he dodges to the cage. But what is distancing him from many of the rest is his playmaking ability, both with his ability to score on the run and the poise to understand opposing defensive slides in the moment. Playing meaningful minutes in his first spring in Charlottesville is anticipated."

HIGH SCHOOL

- Two-time captain
- Honorable mention All-American
- Two-time all-county
- Three-time all-league
- Four-time NYPHSAA Scholar-Athlete
- BSN Sports State Championship MVP

25 SCOTT BOWER

Defense • 6-3 • 200 • Freshman
Dallas, Texas • Episcopal School of Dallas

- Listed as the No. 15 recruit in the country by Inside Lacrosse
- Listed as the No. 7 defenseman in the country by Inside Lacrosse

TIFFANY ON BOWER

2020 - "The impact Scott has made during his first fall in Charlottesville has been substantial. He has currently positioned himself on the depth chart to be assigned some of the nation's toughest attackmen due to his combination of strength, speed, steady stickwork and quick grasp of our team defensive systems. Scott has made the transition from high school to college lacrosse appear easier than it truly is."

HIGH SCHOOL

- Under Armour All-American
- Four-year starter on defense
- 2019 Adrenaline All-American
- 2019 USL All-American

20 DREW BRENNFLECK

Midfield • 6-0 • 180 • Freshman
Mountain Lakes, N.J. • Mountain Lakes HS

- Listed as the No. 44 midfielder in the country by Inside Lacrosse

TIFFANY ON BRENNFLECK

2020 - "The three-sport high school athlete from Mountain Lakes brings a high-level competitive IQ to Charlottesville. Drew has quickly understood our team's schemes, which not an easy task with the expectations we have for our defensive midfielders. With the slide patterns and pick play, Drew communicates effectively while also running the field in transition to kick-start unsettled offense."

HIGH SCHOOL

- Three-year starter on midfield
- US Lacrosse All-American
- Under Armour Underclass All-American-New Jersey
- Captain as a senior
- Earned all-state, all-conference (New Jersey Athletic Conference) and all-division (Gibbs) honors in 2019

48 LUKE BRUGEL

Midfield • 5-10 • 175 • Senior
Great Falls, Va. • Paul VI/Deerfield Academy

• Name is pronounced Brew-gull

TIFFANY ON BRUGEL

2020 - "Consistency adorns this man. Luke attacks the weight room both with a vengeance and a smile; his effort is always satisfying to behold. This same approach to the field makes him a reliable, trusted man as he grinds at the faceoff X and regularly outmaneuvers his fellow Virginia faceoff specialists with astute counters. It is the intellect of the man and the insight he shares that uniquely define Luke."

2019 - "An aficionado of the art at the X, his discerning eye astutely assesses the opposition and provides effective countermeasures that add to his extensive repertoire of moves." 2018 - "Faceoff specialists are the crash-test dummies of our sport, beaten and bloodied while never asking for sympathy. Befitting this description, Luke loves the competition at the faceoff X. But even more valuable is his shrewdness in dissecting the opposition's tactics and making the necessary adjustments. In addition, there is a formidable growth mindset inside Luke - he is eager to shed the FOGO (face-off, get off) title as he grows more aware of our team's schemes."

- Appeared in six of UVA's 20 games
- Went 12-of-14 (.857) from the faceoff X against VMI and picked up nine ground balls and was 3-of-4 (.750) against Utah

4 JEFF CONNER

Midfield • 6-0 • 195 • Sophomore
Wallingford, Pa. • Strath Haven HS

TIFFANY ON CONNER

2020 - "Do you want to observe textbook lacrosse fundamentals? Watch this man play: Jeff is an obvious product of great tutelage as a youth player. But he deserves most of the credit, for not all of us are willing to take the time to learn to do things properly. With his second season at UVA approaching, we are prompting Jeff to carry more responsibility and to play a larger role in our team offense." 2019 - "With a heightened awareness of space and team offense compared to most rookies, this first-year is proving daily he is prepared to both complement the attributes of his teammates and make his own dent."

2019

- Appeared in all 20 games with 10 starts
- Finished the season with four goals and 10 assists

Defense • 6-5 • 210 • Senior
Pittsford, N.Y. • Pittsford HS

- 2020 Face-Off Yearbook All-American (1st)
- Preseason All-ACC
- One of UVA's four captains

TIFFANY ON CONNERS

2020 - "The formula is a simple one. Jared transformed himself from a steady, good defenseman into a game-changing, impactful All-American by conscientiously choosing the harder option. His preparation for practice, and the intensity he delivers in every drill, are jaw-dropping and rare. Jared has been recognized accordingly by his peers, having been voted as a captain for the 2020 season." 2019 - "There is a rarely witnessed energy emitting from this man for every drill in every practice. He is preparing himself to carry the load and be an essential and pivotal athlete for us in 2019." 2018 - "Don't let the disarming smile and friendly persona fool you: Jared is a fierce competitor. The transformation happens as he steps on the field. He is becoming one of the program's best cover defensemen, utilizing his disruptive approaches, long reach and unforeseen strength. For these reasons, Jared may be employed down low on close defense at times. But he is a natural in the middle of the field, creating pressure on both ball carriers and the opposing goal as he sparks our offensive transition."

2019

- USILA All-American (1st)

24 PAYTON CORMIER

Attack • 6-2 • 200 • RS-Freshman
Oakville, Ontario • Oakville HS

• Name is pronounced Cor-mee-aye

TIFFANY ON CORMIER

2020 - "Serving as a testament to the rehabilitation efforts of our medical and training staffs, Payton has remained steadfast in his commitment to returning to the field better and stronger than before his knee injury in November of 2018. The results have been impressive to observe on the practice field and in scrimmages this fall. Payton is a dangerous scoring threat due to fantastic hands and his savvy use of his size in crowded spaces." 2019 - "The physical transformation of this man started with his first day in the weight room: it was gratifying to witness the change! Unfortunately he will miss the spring season of 2019 due to injury."

2019

14 WILL CORY

Attack • 6-0 • 180 • Freshman
Charlottesville, Va. • Brunswick School

TIFFANY ON CORY

2020 - "Simply put, this first-year is a goal scorer. Will possesses a fundamentally sound shooting stroke, providing him the accuracy to place his shot into small windows. His movement without the ball also puts pressure on the opposing defense, as Will has a knack for locating seams and openings. Grasping the nuances of our team's schemes, including riding, will be a focus this spring."

HIGH SCHOOL

- Captain as a senior
- Two-time All-IAC and All-Met
- Team MVP as a senior
- Set the single-season scoring record (90 points) in 2019
- Set the single-season assist record (44) in 2019

10 XANDER DICKSON

Attack • 6-1 • 160 • Sophomore
Greenwich, Conn. • Brunswick School

TIFFANY ON DICKSON

2020 - "Another weapon in our offensive arsenal, Xander's ability to create opportunities from behind the goal was employed in most games during his first year. With his advanced skill set of scoring, despite little to no angle and good vision, Xander is a tactician in our two-man game. His transformation into a more durable, reliable member of our program has him poised to earn an ever-growing number of game-day minutes."

2019 - "The traits that are difficult to coach are found in this first-year: savvy lacrosse knowledge and maneuvers near the crease that generate quality possessions for our offense."

- Appeared in 16 of UVA's 20 games
- Scored 11 goals and dished out eight assists for 19 points
- Scored a career-high seven goals and a career-high nine points against VMI, which is tied for No. 4 on UVA's single-game scoring ledger

TIFFANY ON DOL

2020 - "He is back! Despite rumors to the contrary, Theo has returned to Charlottesville for a fifth spring with UVA Lacrosse. The rest of us are ecstatic to have Theo's relentless and unmatched passion back in our locker room and on the field. With every training session, there is nothing, literally nothing, Theo leaves to chance: he is a tremendous role model. Only good things seem to happen for our team when he is on the field." 2019 - "The first to serve others and the last to call it a day, there is simply nothing this man would not do to make our program and its populace better on and off the field." 2018 - "With a voracious appetite for physical, competitive play, Theo backs down from no one on the field. This tenacious brand of lacrosse incites his teammates and provides an oomph to our training sessions. Theo is a consummate team player, as shown by his eagerness to learn faceoff techniques when asked by the staff. There is little this man conceals - Theo lives his life and plays our game with a transparent, unrelenting verve."

34 JOHN FOX

Midfield • 6-0 • 190 • Junior
New Canaan, Conn. • Brunswick School

• One of UVA's four captains

TIFFANY ON FOX

2020 - "The captain embodies everything that is expected of the role. Lead by example? Check that box - John gives the most honest of efforts. Good luck beating this man to the training or locker rooms for a morning session. Concern for others? Empathy abounds in this man - John attends to his teammates needs before his own. Team first? Nothing gets in the way of the team's mission - John will never sacrifice our program's objectives and priorities." 2019 - "Defying his second-year status, the leadership observed from this man builds confidence in all of us for his continued growth as a reliable, punishing defensive midfielder." 2018 - "Having made a strong, positive impression already, this first-year midfielder is earning playing time for us as a short-stick defender. John anticipates the next play, whether it is the ball carrier's upcoming dodge or an opponent's attempted pass. He also foresees the impending slide or rotation well and is thus proving he has grown more confident with our slide packages. The workmanlike persona John brings to the program is particularly valuable."

TIFFANY ON GIULIERI

2020 - "A promising start to his Virginia lacrosse career was witnessed this fall. Thrown into the proverbial fire, Jake was assigned elite attackmen in both practice and scrimmages. Jake's next step will be to build upon that experience, incorporating more aggressive approaches to the ball carrier while also maintaining a trusted, active voice in our schemes."

37 MITCH GORDON

Attack • 6-2 • 190 • Senior
Glen Arm, Md. • St. Paul's

TIFFANY ON GORDON

2020 - "One of the truest measures of a program is the strength of its depth. Our offense is better because of Mitch's commitment to creating the best version of himself, his shooting prowess and his uncanny knack for hitting the net from seemingly impossible angles. With license to let it fly, Mitch is a significant scoring threat any time he receives the ball within 15 yards of the goal." 2019 - "The lower the angle, the more precise this shooter becomes as he continues to prove he can score no matter where he is on the field or where the defense is arranged." 2018 - "The game of lacrosse is deeply embedded in this first-year. Right from day one, Mitch has demonstrated both savviness and slick play on the practice field. Stating he is skilled is an understatement. What is really impressive to the rest of us is how Mitch is attacking the weight room, a new concept for him. Knowing that he needs to improve his strength to become a more powerful offensive threat, Mitch has embraced his time in Everett Gathron's (UVA men's lacrosse strength & conditioning coach) facility."

2019

- Appeared in five of UVA's 20 games

South Hamilton, Mass • The Governors Academy

TIFFANY ON HARRIS

2020 - "How often is there a clear and identifiable explosion in a college athlete's abilities as a third-year? This is exactly what we observed this fall in Charlottesville. By November, Griffin was scoring goals in bunches daily. Griffin's discovery of the path to the realization of his greatest self has been tremendously productive for him and the program. He is earning playing time and will most likely be used as an offensive midfielder this spring" 2019 - "The flashes of his jaw-dropping, electrifying maneuvers around the cage stimulate our sport's senses: consistency will critical for his continued rise up the depth chart." 2018 - "With deceptive dodging skills and the ability to score with both hands, Griffin presents a variety of means for creating offense. This first-year's diverse talents are already being realized as Griffin has been able to leave his mark both as a midfielder and attackman. There is a promising future ahead for Griffin as he continues the maturation process of his skills and scheme comprehension."

30 JOHN IZLAR

Midfield • 6-1 • 180 • Freshman
Atlanta, Ga. • The Westminster Schools

TIFFANY ON IZLAR

2020 - "One of the most impressive things to witness this fall was this first-year squeezing lacrosse practices into an exhaustive football training schedule. One sport is more than enough for most athletes but John O. was intent on doing both as often as possible. He held his own during our training sessions, training as a defensive midfield and taking wings on faceoffs."

AT VIRGINIA

- Was a walk-on wide receiver and a member of the scout team for UVA's 2019 Orange Bowl football squad

HIGH SCHOOL

- Scored 63 goals, dished out 28 assists and picked up 65 ground balls as a senior at The Westminster Schools
- Scored 41 goals, recorded 22 assists and picked up 55 ground balls as a junior

16 KYLE KOLOGY

Defense • 6-4 • 225 • Junior
Chatham, N.J. • Chatham HS

TIFFANY ON KOLOGY

2020 - "For unit efficacy, a strong, insightful field commander is highly valued. With a repertoire of alternatives to employ in ever-changing scenarios of offensive motions and imbalances, Kyle dictates many of our scheme employments and counters due to his highly developed acumen for the game. Even more impressive is the physical evolution Kyle has undergone as he has enhanced his strength, mass and fitness."

2019 - "The rest of us are hopeful this once-upon-a-time walk-on is less hesitant as a second-year to bark out orders and dictate more of our schematic maneuvers. He comprehends the game at an extremely high level." 2018 - "Not recruited and offered little optimism from myself for making the team, much less playing, this first-year has quickly proven me wrong. How does an unheralded defenseman quickly make such a shockingly positive impression? Kyle is a very intuitive lacrosse player who makes quick and very often accurate decisions as an off-ball defender. He is quickly becoming a man we can rely upon and our staff recognizes Kyle makes us a smarter defense."

- Appeared in all 20 games with 19 starts at close defense
- Picked up 33 ground balls and caused 16 turnovers
- Part of a defense that held Yale, the nation's No. 2 scoring offense, to its lowest output of the year (9 goals) in the NCAA title game
- Picked up five ground balls against Richmond

2 MICHAEL KRAUS

Attack • 5-11 • 195 • Senior
New Canaan, Conn. • New Canaan HS

- 2020 Face-Off Yearbook Preseason All-American (HM)
- Preseason All-ACC
- For the second year in a row he is one of UVA's captains (one of four)

TIFFANY ON KRAUS

2020 - "Michael's dodging style is both physical and evasive. He is eager to make contact with his defenseman, but also able to slip out of holds as he maneuvers to the goal. Comfortable with a defender draped all over him, Michael posts up as an ever-improving dual threat due to enhanced feeding skills. This two-time captain is adroitly balancing the demands of insuring the success of the program, his teammates and his own performance. 2019 - "The consistent, pounding pressure he exerts on opposing defenses creates opportunities for himself and others. He has enhanced his feeding that is setting up his teammates with advantageous openings." 2018 - "Winner of our 2017 Offensive MVP, a rarity for a first-year, Michael exploded onto the collegiate lacrosse scene. With his signature hard-charging style, he created offense for himself and his teammates by drawing attention from multiple defenders. Michael is a physical rider as well, intent on creating turnovers with both stick and body checks. Under Sean Kirwan's tutelage, Michael will not settle with his future development: he is committed to improving upon his early impact."

40 RYAN LAMB

Midfield • 6-2 • 200 • Senior
Burke, Va. • Paul VI Catholic

TIFFANY ON LAMB

2020 - "Resilient and persistent, Ryan has embraced the role as the wise old man of the locker room. His experience and insight have proven to be valuable on the practice field this fall as well as in our team positional and cultural meetings. We are fortunate he is back for a fifth year, and enjoying a stretch of health and no injuries. With an evasive stutter-step dodge and powerful shot, Ryan is a significant initiating threat." 2019 - "Overcoming numerous injuries, he has been allowed to demonstrate his powerful overhand shot and heightened offensive awareness that can be impactful this spring." 2018 - "One injury was followed by another, creating both physical and emotional hurdles to overcome. But Ryan is finally back and ready to demonstrate what he can do. He did just this in the final few weeks of the Fall semester, dodging with purpose and proving he is difficult to stop once he starts barreling toward the goal. Ryan's resilient character and his no-nonsense personality are inspiring and substantially provide leadership from within our program."

23 PETEY LASALLA

Midfield • 5-7 • 195 • Sophomore
Miller Place, N.Y. • Rocky Point HS

TIFFANY ON LASALLA

2020 - "What makes Petey the difference-maker he became in 2019? His control of the ball with his exits improved dramatically last season. But in addition, the lacrosse acumen he brings to the field allows this man to play a surprising variety of roles and to shatter the term specialist. How often do we throw a pass to a FO man? Petey's teammates do this without reservation, and his impact on the offense can expand this spring." 2019 - "Perceptive of offensive opportunities and subtleties, this quiet, unassuming and hard-charging first-year faceoff man is proving to be more than just a specialist at the X."

- College Crosse (SB Nation) Freshman All-American (1st)

Ian Laviano led the ACC with 51 goals in 2019, which ranks No. 4 all-time on UVA's single-season list.

3 IAN LAVIANO

Attack • 5-8 • 175 • Junior
Laurel Hollow, N.Y. • Cold Spring Harbor HS

TIFFANY ON LAVIANO

2020 - "To use the word passionate to describe Ian's affinity for the game of lacrosse and his teammates only begins to scratch the surface. The man never hits the off switch on the lacrosse field, where he moves faster without the ball than anyone else whether he is cutting to an opening in the defense or hunting the ball during our riding phase. There is something else there too with Ian - his effort lifts the energy of our practices as he shares his joy for playing." 2019 - "A dynamic weapon, this man proved in his first-year as a Cavalier to always be dogged in riding situations and hunting ground balls and goals with a love for the game and for his fellow teammates that is rare." 2018 - "Does anyone come to practice with more energy and excitement? Or is anyone else firing the ball faster at teammates and expecting the same in return? Ian has made a splash with our program in his first year on Grounds, playing with a startling amount of pizzazz. Ian combines an astute lacrosse knowledge with exceptional hand and foot quickness. His teammates are recognizing Ian's abilities and they are enjoying being on his same line."

50 WADE MALONEY

Midfield • 6-0 • 220 • Senior
Rumson, N.J. • Lawrenceville HS

TIFFANY ON MALONEY

2020 - "Strength has always been a forte, proven again this fall with his team leading maximum on the squat movement. Wade's physical prowess and smash-mouth style of play are being shifted to the defensive side of the ball with his final season in Charlottesville. Despite the significant learning curve, Wade has already demonstrated a thorough and extensive comprehension of our team defense's systems and specific techniques." 2019 - "A healthy fall semester meant the opportunity to prove his smash-mouth dodging could be impactful with both hands as he matures into a more cognitive threat." 2018 - "Demolition ball analogies abound as this man identifies the shortest direction to the goal and smashes anything and everything in this path. Wade is a hard-charging midfielder, with a durable body to both deliver and endure punishing blows. This dodging technique is a formidable challenge for opposing defenders and gives offensive coordinator Sean Kirwan another weapon in his arsenal. Wade's shooting accuracy has notably improved as well."

- Listed as the No. 5 defenseman in the country by Inside Lacrosse

TIFFANY ON MATSUI

2020 - "How quickly would the first-year defender from Minnesota adapt to the speed of collegiate attackmen and the necessary communication for accurate decision-making? Quentin showed us that given a month, he would prove himself to be up for the one-on-one challenges. He has also become more vocal, demonstrating a growing comfort with the defensive schemes and terminology, which is preparing him to be a contributor right away."

TIFFANY ON MERLE

2020 - "After two years of playing multiple positions for us, including carrying a long stick, and overcoming injury, Chris is in the correct role and is prepared to have a break out season. Without fail, he proves himself daily to be one of our most tenacious competitors. Chris' repertoire of traits makes him an ideal short-stick defensive midfielder: gritty, a ground ball vacuum and in possession of a powerful, neutralizing two-handed check." 2019 - "Back and forth between the offensive and defensive meetings, film sessions and drills, this versatile, ball-swarming midfielder continues to prove his tireless work ethic in all of our training." 2018 - "Chris' role this spring will be as both an offensive and defensive midfielder while he learns our system. Having just entered UVA in January of 2018 after a semester at IMG, Chris will be asked to learn a great deal in a short amount of time."

5 MATT MOORE

Attack • 6-2 • 195 • Junior
Garnet Valley, Pa. • Garnet Valley HS

- 2020 Face-Off Yearbook All-American (3rd)
- Preseason All-ACC

TIFFANY ON MOORE

2020 - "The question of whether he should serve as a midfielder or attackman no longer lingers after the spring of 2019. Initiating much of our offense from behind the cage, Matt was both a scoring and feeding threat. What is truly inspiring is his will to be better: the self-evaluative list he creates at the end of each semester tediously critiques his own play, assessing mechanics and fundamentals he is adamant to improve upon." 2019 - "Where No. 5 will be found on the field this spring is still to be determined as his combination of physical and elusive dodging puts pressure on a defense as both a midfielder and attackman." 2018 - "The table is set after one semester. Matt spent his first few weeks on our practice field testing himself, discovering what he needed to learn and what needed to improve. Then he went to work: the subsequent results are promising. With growing confidence and positive support from his teammates, Matt is poised to make a difference for UVA on the offensive end in his first spring as a Cavalier."

TIFFANY ON MURRAY

2020 - "Despite the inability to practice or compete for two seasons, Milan's resolve and determination to make the best of his situation have made an impact on the rest of us. To be perseverant with optimism despite the multiple injuries speaks volumes about the character of the man. We are fortunate to have Milan, both in our lives and locker room." 2019 - "The fall was a forgettable one for him as he faced not one, but two surgeries that wiped out all training. This man's maturation has allowed him to handle this in stride and to remain positive with his outlook this spring." 2018 - "Amongst the primary missions of our University is the thorough development of its students. Our lacrosse program has a similar agenda. As this second year is proving both on the field and in the classroom, Milan is an indelible example of the measurable growth and maturation UVA craves to witness. He is taking ownership of his development and the team's success. There is no one in our program who creates as much fear with a room and time shot - Milan brings the heat unlike anyone else."

8 DANNY PARKER

Midfield • 5-10 • 155 • Freshman
Mount Sinai, N.Y. • Saint Anthony's

TIFFANY ON PARKER

2020 - "After the first month here in Charlottesville, Danny made the shift to the defensive side of midfield play and the change is starting to pay dividends for our program. Combined with a noticeable improvement in his knowledge of our slide schemes, Danny is relying on his advantage of the superb athleticism he owns to make plays off the ground and to ignite our transition game."

49 JACK PEELE

Midfield • 5-11 • 170 • Junior
McLean, Va. • The Potomac School

TIFFANY ON PEELE

2020 - "Improvement is not always easily noticeable, but this is not the case with Jack. Due to his intrinsic drive, Jack propels himself forward with an absolute commitment to being the best student and teammate. His speed separates him, but it is the evolution of his shooting skills and the grasp of our offensive schemes that has allowed this former walk-on to play a prominent role in our program."
2019 - "No sophomore slump here - quite the opposite as he has noticeably elevated his skills and awareness, proving to be a reliable option in Coach Kirwan's arsenal."
2018 - "He did it, and it was not by the proverbial skin of his teeth. This walk-on earned a spot on our roster due to effective dodging, accurate shooting and personal persistence. Jack quickly blended in with the men of our program, proving he belonged due to his play on the field and his unselfish demeanor. Having played both attack and midfield in high school, Jack can be useful in multiple ways for us but will focus primarily as a midfielder."

TIFFANY ON PETERS

2020 - "Hall possesses the qualities of a conscientious and thoughtful warrior. He has established himself as a trusted member of our program. On the practice field Hall has made significant progress, demonstrating to the staff and his teammates that he has a stronger comprehension of our schemes and the stick skills to make plays. He is preparing to play both down low at close defense and up top as a long-stick midfielder."

2019 - "Fine-tuned stick skills and elusiveness in the open field provide this first-year with impressive clearing abilities. These will be supplemented with improvements in other critical areas this spring."

TIFFANY ON PRIDE

2020 - "This midfielder will unfortunately not be on the field with us this year due to a knee injury sustained on the lacrosse fields of Lake Placid. But the dedication both to his recovery and to supporting the needs of his teammates has been inspiring to witness. It is difficult to exemplify leadership skills from the literal and proverbial sidelines, but Ryan is doing exactly this." 2019 - "Don't try to bring more 'juice' than this man - such an attempt will fail as he attacks each training session with a zeal that is supporting his ever-improving game." 2018 - "With little shortage of confidence, Ryan steps on the field emotionally prepared to make plays. He is a versatile athlete for our program, capable of filling roles at both ends of the field. Ryan competes with a clearly recognizable intensity, similar to the razor-sharp focused energy he brings to the weight room. This midfielder will face multiple tasks this spring as he plays different positions and supports the needs of the team."

Regan Quinn returns after missing most of 2019 with an injury.

19 REGAN QUINN

Midfield • 6-2 • 185 • Junior
Rockville Centre, N.Y. • Chaminade HS

TIFFANY ON QUINN

2020 - "Does anyone have better vision on the team? Regan is superb with both putting the ball on the ear of the recipient as well as anticipating not yet realized openings in a defense while his teammates move. His ability to do such with both hands makes Regan that much more effective with putting pressure on the opposition, who must also respect the impressive range he has with his outside shot." 2019 - "This second-year's repertoire of feeds and shots is growing in complexity and efficacy, building upon the meaningful experience he earned in his first season in Charlottesville." 2018 - "The typical growing pains experienced during the transition from high school lacrosse to the collegiate level were witnessed earlier this fall for Regan, but changes for the better are starting to be observed. Regan can fire the ball with startling speed, and he is doing so with both hands. There is a path to playing time for Regan, and he can realize this route with continued growth in both his dodging and assuredness in himself."

Alex Rode was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Tournament.

38 ALEX RODE

Goalie • 6-1 • 180 • Junior
Timonium, Md. • St. Paul's

TIFFANY ON RODE

2020 - "What a transformation: the quiet man who preferred the shadows is becoming a boisterous field general. Alex's voice in practice has grown exponentially, evidenced in both practices and games. The advantages of such abound, as the rest of us are witnessing his heightened level of play in the goal along with more consistency. The improvement in our team's transition offense has much to do with Alex sparking it with aggressive, accurate outlets." 2019 - "Despite earning the starting position for much of last season, we are witnessing both a new level of stopping the ball and accuracy with outlet passes that characterize a newfound approach to being an elite athlete." 2018 - "A first-year goalie, this mild-mannered, unassuming young man off the field transforms himself once he steps into the crease. It is both this presence and Alex's shot-stopping abilities that builds his teammates' confidence in him. The poise belies his youth, yet it is clearly evident. Alex is also demonstrating the dexterity to quickly and accurately release the ball with his outlet passing after a save. Alex is in the thick of the competition for the starting position in our goal."

31 PAUL RODRIGUEZ

Attack • 6-1 • 195 • Sophomore
Los Angeles, Calif. • Harvard-Westlake HS

TIFFANY ON RODRIGUEZ

2020 - "Looking for the prototype and fundamentally precise lacrosse player? Watch Paul Rodriguez play the game. Or, better yet, ask our defense to tell you who is the toughest man to double team or who shows little of his stick as he possesses the ball. Paul is a fantastic student of the game, with an analytical approach to incorporating the ideals of our sport in order to make himself the most technical player in our program."

2019 - "The progress this first-year is making is identifiable almost daily - shooting, stickwork and dodging techniques continue to adapt and become enhanced."

2019

- Appeared in four of UVA's 20 games
- Scored three goals on the season
- Scored a goal against Richmond in his collegiate debut
- Scored two goals against VMI

47 DAVID ROSELLE

Goalie • 6-2 • 215 • Freshman
Charlotte, N.C. • St. Paul's School (N.H.)

TIFFANY ON ROSELLE

2020 - "The battle to earn a place on our roster was a significant one as three men vied for the extra goalie slot. David came through as the clear winner, demonstrating an ability to make saves with both his body and stick, as well as accuracy with his outlet passes. David has provided an honest effort each training session, strengthening our roster and program."

HIGH SCHOOL

- A four-year letterwinner in lacrosse at St. Paul's School in Concord, N.H.

32 GRAYSON SALLADE

Midfield • 5-11 • 190 • Sophomore
Lancaster, Pa. • Manheim Township

• Name is pronounced Saul-a-day

TIFFANY ON SALLADE

2020 - "It is wonderful to have this upbeat, unflappable defensive midfielder back to full health. With the superb speed and athleticism which Grayson possesses, he can ignite our transition game with electrifying bursts. He is also proving to have a strong technical grasp of our defensive schemes. As Grayson gains more experience, there is ample reason to anticipate his role expanding with faceoff wings and early offense."

2019 - "Having made an immediate athletic impact, this first-year is now proving to possess a high level of defensive scheme comprehension and clearing capability."

36 JUSTIN SCHWENK

Midfield • 6-0 • 185 • Senior

Royersford, Pa. • Spring-Ford HS/Monmouth

TIFFANY ON SCHWENK

2020 - "To persevere through the trials of faceoff trench warfare requires both physical and emotional strength. Justin has established himself as a trusted competitor for us, a man we have grown to know will rise to the occasion on gameday as evidenced by his 2018 UVA faceoff win single-season record-setting year. His daily battles with our other specialists have improved his, along with everyone else's, prowess at the X." 2019 - Redefining the word grinder, what this man did last year at the faceoff X was remarkable as he disregarded pain and continued to step on the field and battle at the X." 2018 - "Joining us this year after transferring in from Monmouth, Justin is filling a critical role for our program. As a faceoff specialist, Justin embraces the grind. He enjoys the one-on-one battles at the X despite the physical punishment it brings. Actually, Justin's physicality is one of his strongest attributes as he combines good hand speed with noteworthy power. The team has embraced Justin swiftly and we are fortunate to have him with us."

2019

- Appeared in 16 of UVA's 20 games
- Set a UVA NCAA Tournament single-game record with 22 faceoff wins against Robert Morris (28 attempts)
- The 22 wins increased his program record for career 20+ faceoff win games to three
- Preseason All-ACC

2018

- Appeared in 17 of UVA's 18 games

1 CONNOR SHELLENBERGER

Attack • 6-1 • 185 • Freshman
Charlottesville, Va. • St. Anne's Belfield

- Listed as the No. 1 recruit in the country by Inside Lacrosse
- Listed as the No. 1 attackman in the country by Inside Lacrosse

TIFFANY ON SHELLENBERGER

2020 - "Where do you put a first-year player who can make an impact at both attack and midfield? Connor's versatility was seen daily this fall as we asked him to play both positions. With a dynamic burst and powerful shot, he is a scoring threat from multiple spots on the field. As he throws caution to the wind and becomes less concerned with turnovers, Connor's game will rise to the next level."

HIGH SCHOOL

12 JACK SIMMONS

Midfield • 5-10 • 175 • Sophomore
Lutherville, Md. • McDonogh School

TIFFANY ON SIMMONS

2020 - "There is no denying the speed he possesses, making Jack an ideal initiator from up top in our offense. Jack is difficult to defend one-on-one, exemplified by his ability to sweep across the middle despite efforts to prevent such. Sean Kirwan utilized Jack in several playoff games in 2019 to do just this. We are eager to observe his growth and continued development this spring." 2019 - "With a bolt of lightning burst characterizing both his foot speed and the heat he produces with his overhand shot, there is an opportunity for this first-year to create an impact in his first season."

2019

- Appeared in all 20 of UVA's games
- Saw time on UVA's second midfield
- Scored three goals and one assist
- Scored goals against Notre Dame, VMI and Marist

Griffin Thompson owns 13 career starts during his UVA career.

15 GRIFFIN THOMPSON

Goalie • 5-10 • 175 • Senior
Princeton, N.J. • Lawrenceville HS

TIFFANY ON THOMPSON

2020 - "The reality of college athletics includes the acquisition of new, talented personnel that can usurp starting roles from older, established men. As a starter in the past, Griffin proved his gameday boldness with stalwart play in the cage. The reduction in playing time last season is serving as fuel: Griffin's commitment to the program includes being the best version of himself, evidenced by his extra and improved training this fall, as he competes for his starting spot again."

2019 - "This man is a fantastic and dependable stopper, proving himself in his first two seasons to be a consistent last wall of defense for us and a reliable teammate in the clutch." 2018 - "Co-winner of our 2017 Most Improved Player award, Griffin certainly earned this honor. The confidence he brought to the crease increased with each game and Griffin eventually became our starting goalie midway through the season. That first start, against Notre Dame, was a microcosm of his first-year - a slow beginning followed by a bold finish. With Kip Turner's training, Griffin is emerging before our eyes into a reliable stopper."

- Appeared in one of UVA's 20 games
- Saw time in the season opener against Loyola
- Played 4:25 against the Greyhounds and made two saves

2018

- Appeared in nine of UVA's 18 games, making six starts
- Posted a 4-0 record between the pipes
- Made 53 saves and faced 204 shots
- Record a season-best 15 saves in the opener against Loyola
- Named ACC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts against Loyola in the season-opening win
- Picked up 21 ground balls on the season and caused one turnover

2017

- Appeared in 11 of UVA's 15 games with seven starts
- Made collegiate debut against Drexel
- Made 103 saves and faced 353 shots
- Came on in the second half of the Cornell to pick up first career goalie win as UVA won in overtime
- Made 18 saves against Robert Morris
- The 18 saves against Robert Morris tied the program record for saves by a freshman keeper
- He shares the record with three other Cavaliers (Rodney Rullman, twice, and Tillman Johnson)

HIGH SCHOOL

- Four-year letterwinner at The Lawrenceville School
- Missed junior season with an injury
- Made 530 career saves
- Posted a 3.83 goals against average
- Also played varsity soccer and indoor track
- Played junior varsity ice hockey

PERSONAL

17 MILES THOMPSON

Goalie • 6-1 • 185 • Sophomore
Princeton, N.J. • Episcopal/Penn

TIFFANY ON THOMPSON

2020 - "The transfer from the University of Pennsylvania has quickly made the transition and ingratiated himself within our program. In the cage, Miles is demonstrating a knack for delivering sharp, crisp outlets after making the save. The challenge for playing time has not deterred Miles from being a consistent, resolute competitor who has enhanced our team's practices and depth."

PREVIOUS SCHOOL

- Spent the 2019 season at Penn, but didn't see any action

HIGH SCHOOL

- Four-year lacrosse letterwinner at Episcopal in Alexandria, Va.
- Was a captain as a senior
- Earned Virginia Independent Schools Athletic Association (VISAA), all-state and Interstate Athletic Conference (IAC) all-conference as a senior

PERSONAL

21 GAVIN TYGH

Midfield • 6-1 • 190 • Freshman
Malvern, Pa. • William Penn Charter School

- Listed as the No. 25 recruit in the country by Inside Lacrosse
- Listed as the No. 4 faceoff specialist in the country by Inside Lacrosse

TIFFANY ON TYGH

2020 - "With a returning stable of faceoff men who have substantially proven themselves, including a man who earned the single-season faceoff record for Virginia in 2018 and another who quickly established himself as one of the most impactful in 2019, how could a first-year possibly unsettle the order? Gavin has already done this, combining impressive speed and athleticism with a growing technical grasp of the faceoff. He is also proving to be one of our best on-ball short-stick defenders."

HIGH SCHOOL

- Under Armour All-American
- Under Armour Underclass Philadelphia (2017-2018)
- Five-time varsity starter
- Two-time US Lacrosse All American
- Four-time All Inter Ac Selection (three-time first-team)

- Played club lacrosse for Big4/HHH
- Was a three-year letterwinner in football and made 13 sacks as a junior playing defensive end

PERSONAL

- Son of Melissa and Michael Tabasso

43 MITCHELL WHALEN

Defense • 6-1 • 170 • Freshman
Buford, Ga. • Buford HS

TIFFANY ON WHALEN

2020 - "The walk-on process is complete with daunting odds, uncertainty and little support. Mitch attacked it with little hesitancy, making an impact thanks to his speed and on-ball aggression. Serving as a long-stick midfielder, Mitch is embracing the learning process of our schemes. As his off-ball acumen is enhanced and his voice within in our schemes becomes emboldened, playing time can be realized."

HIGH SCHOOL

- Was a long-stick midfielder and defenseman at Buford High School
- Earned three letters in lacrosse, four in swimming & diving and one in cross country
- First-team all-state at LSM with 105 ground balls, 32 caused turnovers and 14 points in 2018

2019 SEASON IN REVIEW

Game 1 Loyola 17, Virginia 9 Feb. 9 • Baltimore, Md.

The No. 6 Virginia Cavaliers fell in the season opener against the No. 4 Loyola Greyhounds, 17-9, at the Ridley Athletic Complex.

The Greyhounds' goalie Jacob Stover was hot between the pipes, saving 18 shots by the Cavaliers. UVA opened the game with an extra-man goal by junior Dox Aitken 48 seconds into the game on a Michael Kraus helper. Loyola outscored UVA 8-3 the rest of the first half to take a four-point lead into the intermission, 8-4.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA was leading 1-0 when a 3-0 Loyola run gave the Greyhounds the lead for good, 3-1. Two goals by Loyola's Pat Spencer sparked a five-goal first quarter for LU.

After being outshot in the first quarter, 15-6, the Cavaliers managed 13 shots in the second quarter but only managed one goal as Stover made six saves in the second quarter.

Stover made seven saves in the third quarter as the Greyhounds started to pull away from UVA. Loyola picked up 11 ground balls in the fourth quarter and outscored UVA 5-2 in the final frame to solidify the win. Spencer and Kevin Lindley each scored five goals in the winning effort for Loyola, while Spencer also added two assists.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Fantastic overall effort from the entire Loyola team. It would be easy to focus on a Herculean effort by their goalie, Jacob Stover, and certainly look at potentially the nation's best player in Pat Spencer and what those two did, but that would take away from the entire team effort that we encountered. It was a heck of a team effort by Loyola on both sides of the field. We tried to hold our slides on defense and they made us pay for that. When we did slide and double the ball, they seemed to find openings. It was one of those frustrating days as defensive coordinator trying to figure out the magic formula and there wasn't one. It is easier to learn from the sting of a loss and we have the opportunity to learn from this loss. I love this team." – Lars Tiffany.

Game 2 Virginia 11, Lehigh 8 Feb. 15 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 11 Virginia Cavaliers used an 8-2 run to overcome an early deficit and dispose of the Lehigh Mountain Hawks, 11-8, at Klöckner Stadium. The game which was originally scheduled for Saturday was moved up a day due to a forecast for inclement weather in the Charlottesville area.

Cavalier goalie Alex Rode made three key saves in the third quarter, two of which came in man-down situations. The saves aided Virginia in holding Lehigh scoreless for 19:57 from the second quarter until the fourth quarter.

HOW IT HAPPENED

For the second week in a row UVA scored first, but then found itself in a hole. With a 2-0 lead over the Mountain Hawks, Lehigh responded by scoring five goals in a row to take a 5-2 lead at 7:42 in the second quarter.

Lehigh owned a two-goal lead, 6-4, at half-time. UVA, who handed Lehigh three extra-man goals in the first half on four penalties, settled in nicely. Dox Aitken scored a big goal to lead the third-quarter scoring. Michael Kraus scored back-to-back goals to give UVA the lead for good.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"We had a couple man down stops in the third quarter and those two stops were big. Rode made a couple nice saves that could have been big momentum goals for Lehigh. From there we just got smarter about what we were doing physically. We're a physical team, we put some people on the ground after they take shots and we want to get after it in the ride. We take a lot of pride in our riding here and we had another good game in that phase. You have to put a lot of pressure on the ball and sometimes we do foul. Michael Kraus right here at the midline got that hold and I can't get upset with Michael because we're asking him to be relentless. We tell our attackmen that they are the defensive frontline of a football team, you got to get pressure. If we can get pressure with three or four rushing the passer then we don't have to implement a 10-man [ride] and we can cause turnovers, which we saw tonight. But it starts with our defensive line, they have to pressure. We tell them you don't have to make the sack, just force a bad pass or an interception because our safeties, our middies, they're ready to jump on errant passes." – Lars Tiffany

Game 3 High Point 14, Virginia 13 Feb. 18 • Charlottesville, Va.

A fourth-quarter surge by No. 13 High Point lifted the Panthers over the No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers, 14-13, at Klöckner Stadium. UVA entered the final period with a 12-11 lead before High Point reeled off three-straight goals to take a 14-12 lead with 2:02 left to play.

Jeff Conner brought UVA to within one goal, 14-13, with 1:04 left to play. HPU won the ensuing faceoff and tried to kill the clock. UVA goalie Alex Rode forced a turnover and the Cavaliers had a chance for one more play. UVA attackman Matt Moore unleashed a shot with a couple seconds left, but High Point goalie Tim Troutner made his 17th save of the game to end the HPU win. The win for the Panthers is their second this season against an ACC team. They won at then-No. 2 Duke on Feb. 6, 13-9.

HOW IT HAPPENED

For the third game in a row UVA scored first, but then found itself in a hole. With a 3-0 lead over the Panthers, HPU responded by scoring five goals in a row to take a 5-3 lead at 9:10 in the second quarter.

UVA used a 4-2 run to tie the game, 7-7, heading into the intermission. Grayson Sallade scored his first career goal to start the spurt. Ian Laviano scored twice and Dox Aitken tallied on goal during the run.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Let's first give credit to the High Point goalie. What a fantastic performance all game with 17 saves. Especially in the fourth quarter he shut the door on us for the most part, we couldn't sneak one by him. I do think we rushed things. I just told my team that we took some home run swings, when we can only score one goal at a time. This isn't baseball with grand slams. Trust the offense, trust Coach Kirwan. We also don't want to decrease the creativity of our men. We've allowed our men to play fast and enjoy competing, throwing the ball, and taking chances. But there were, you were right, some where we forced the issue a little too early." – Lars Tiffany

Game 4 Virginia 12, Princeton 11 - OT Feb. 23 • Princeton, N.J.

Michael Kraus found Ian Laviano 1:02 into overtime and the No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers escaped New Jersey with a 12-11 triumph over the No. 19 Princeton Tigers at Class of 1952 Stadium.

UVA goalie Patrick Burkinshaw made his first collegiate start and collegiate debut against the Tigers. He was stingy in the goal, saving 24 shots. The 24 saves set a UVA freshman goalie record, a UVA first career goalie start record, a Class of 1952 Stadium record and is tied for the most single-game saves in the nation this year. Burkinshaw made six fourth-quarter saves, but no was bigger than the clutch save he made with 32 seconds left in regulation on a Charlie Durbin missile from 10 yards out. Durbin had already found nylon four times on the afternoon.

HOW IT HAPPENED

With Princeton leading 11-10 with 6:55 left in regulation, the UVA defense held firm and kept the Tigers scoreless for the game's final 7:57, including overtime. Ryan Conrad scored an unassisted goal at 4:01 in the fourth quarter to tie the game, 11-11.

The Cavaliers also overcame a two-goal deficit early in the third quarter, 7-5 and 9-7. A Laviano goal at the end of the third quarter, followed by a Kraus goal at the start of the fourth tied the game at 9-9. It was one of seven ties in the game.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"At UVA we believe in creating a culture of competition and you have to earn your playing time all year, not just in the Fall or in preseason. We are not going to create a starting lineup game number one and stick with it. We believe that creates better intensity in practice and continually promotes each man's moment and what we saw today was positive output of that process. In practice we have seen Patrick Burkinshaw emerge and we let the goalies know on Thursday Patrick earned the start. What a performance by Patrick in his first career start. I want to give Patrick tremendous credit in the power of believing. He believes in himself. He had the eye and said 'I am ready coach.'" - Lars Tiffany Game 5 Virginia 15, Syracuse 14 - OT March 2 • Syracuse, N.Y.

The No. 10 Virginia Cavaliers used a 6-1 run to overcome a four-goal deficit in the fourth quarter, upending the No. 14 Syracuse Orange in overtime, 15-14, inside the Carrier Dome.

Virginia won the overtime faceoff and with 1:31 left in the extra fame Mike Herring scored his first goal of the season after Michael Kraus found the senior five yards out. It was Herring's only shot of the day and Kraus' third assist of the game.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Syracuse went up 13-9 with 10:02 left in the game after Stephen Rehffuss capped a 4-1 Orange run. Dox Aitken responded with a goal with 9:00 left in the game, jumpstarting a 6-1 UVA sprint to close the day. During the run six different Cavaliers scored. Matt Moore scored an EMO goal, followed by a Ryan Conrad score with 5:36 left. Conrad's goal capped a 3-0 UVA run and brought the score to 13-12, advantage Syracuse.

Bradley Voight scored a man-down goal for the Orange with 3:45 on a fast break, pushing the Cuse lead back to two goals, 14-12. Jared Conners scored a clutch long-pole goal on a Kraus helper at 2:09 as the junior was camped on the crease. Kraus followed at 1:12 with the game-tying score from five yards out.

Syracuse won the ensuing faceoff, but a big save from UVA goalie Alex Rode with two seconds left sent the game into overtime, setting up Herring's heroics.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Another fantastic game between two traditional powers. Statistically this game was pretty balanced. We had an offensive flurry there in the end and I am really proud of our men to stay positive down four with 10 minutes to go. In the second half it started with Ryan Conrad as he was not be denied on those ground balls off the faceoff wing, especially in the fourth quarter. I told him 'this is a good time to be selfish Ryan, every ground ball is yours.' I was amazed at what Conrad was doing with his faceoff wing play because those were 50-50 balls and Syracuse has some great wings that come in. For Ryan to deal with those good Syracuse wing players and get those ground balls is what set us up to go on that run late in the game." - Lars Tiffany

Game 6 Virginia 14, Brown 13 - OT March 10 • Charlottesville, Va.

UVA attackman Michael Kraus scored his fifth goal of the game with 1:02 left in the first overtime to lift the No. 12 Virginia Cavaliers past the Brown Bears, 14-13, at Klöckner Stadium.

Virginia won the overtime faceoff and with 1:02 left in the extra fame Kraus scored from 10 yards out on a clear look from Mikey Herring. It was Kraus' fifth goal of the game and capped a 6-1 UVA run to end the game.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Bears went up 12-8 with 14:42 left in the game after Carson Song capped a 7-2 Brown run. Dox Aitken responded with a goal on a Matt Moore helper with 11:11 left in the game, jumpstarting a 6-1 UVA sprint to close the day.

After Ian Laviano scored on a Herring assist with 8:03 left, Brown scored its last goal of the game in transition from George Pike. The Pike goal gave the Bears a three-goal lead, 13-10, with 6:52 left to play. The Pike goal came after Laviano was stuffed on the crease by Brown goalie Phil Goss.

Laviano responded on another Herring helper at 5:51, cutting UVA's deficit back to two goals, 13-11. Petey LaSalla won the faceoff again for UVA and Kraus found Matt Moore with 5:05 left, cutting the deficit to one goal, 13-12.

After an unnecessary roughness call on Brown's Matt McShea on the ensuing faceoff, Kraus tied the game with an extra-man goal at 3:21 via a Ryan Conrad helper. LaSalla won the overtime faceoff, setting up Kraus' heroics.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"We saw this against Princeton down two, we were down four against Syracuse. It feeds on itself, and then they really start believing it. It's not just words. I think a lot of teams say we never doubted ourselves, this team really doesn't doubt. The key is for us to build a lead here, and go into a third or fourth quarter with a strong lead, and I don't know if we have done that yet. And play better lacrosse early. The confidence that these men have wearing these Virginia jerseys is as high as I've ever seen when they are down as much as we've been down. I'm really fortunate to have a group of men that may play better down. We just have to make sure we can play better up." - Lars Tiffany

Game 7
Virginia 13, Notre Dame 11
March 16 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 11 Virginia Cavaliers overcame a five-goal deficit in the second half, disposing the No. 7 Notre Dame Fighting Irish, 13-11, at Klöckner Stadium. UVA used an 8-1 run over the game's final 23:59 to snatch the key league victory.

Virginia led early, 4-2, after Michael Kraus found Mikey Herring across the crease with 11:24 left to play in the second quarter. Notre Dame surged to a 10-5 lead on the heels of its own 8-1 run which was capped by Connor Morin with 8:59 left to play in the third quarter.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Ian Laviano started the UVA comeback with an extra-man goal on a Matt Moore helper at 7:27 left in the third quarter. The goal jump-started UVA's 8-1 streak to end the game. Laviano scored three of his game-high five goals during run, capping his day with the go-ahead score with 6:26 left to play on another assist from Moore.

After UVA took the lead for good, Moore scored unassisted to give UVA a two-goal cushion, 12-10. The Irish broke through with 2:54 left on a Quinn McCahon goal via a Brian Willetts pass. Notre Dame won the ensuing faceoff, but a clutch caused turnover from John Fox of Notre Dame's Griffin Westlin created another UVA offensive opportunity. With 54 seconds left, Dox Aitken stuck a high-to-high shot to give the Cavaliers the final two-goal win. The Irish won the following faceoff, but Moore and Fox each caused turnovers that derailed all comeback plans for Notre Dame.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"What a game of runs. First it was Notre Dame's turn to pull far-far away from us over the second and third quarter, and they just made plays. They were picking up the tough ground balls and getting extra possessions, and then converting on man-up opportunities. I have to give them a lot of credit for their man-up and what they did to us in the first half. We have been down four [goals] and come from behind, but we hadn't been down five [goals] before. Fortunately, we were able to get those late ground balls. Ryan Conrad had seven ground balls and it was huge, he gives us those extra possessions. I felt as the game went on, those in-between, those 50-50's, they went our way." – Lars Tiffany

Game 8
Virginia 16, Johns Hopkins 11
March 23 • Baltimore, Md.

The No. 9 Virginia Cavaliers walked away with an impressive 16-11 triumph over the No. 15 Johns Hopkins Blue Jays at historic Homewood Field, returning the Doyle Smith Cup to Charlottesville for the first time since 2016.

The game began as a see-saw battle that boasted seven ties and five lead changes, but the Cavaliers trailing 8-7 early in the third quarter went on a 9-2 run to take a commanding six-goal lead with 7:36 left to play. The five-goal win was also UVA's largest all-time win over the Blue Jays at Homewood Field. The previous best was four goals in 1997 (16-12).

HOW IT HAPPENED

Michael Kraus scored an unassisted goal after dodging from X to tie the game at 8-8 with 7:50 left in the third quarter. The Kraus goal started a 3-0 UVA run that gave the Cavaliers the lead for good. Ryan Conrad continued the run when he took the ball to the rack in transition with 7:26 left in the third quarter. Dox Aitken capped the spurt when he dodged to space and got his hands free with 5:01 left in the third, giving UVA its first two-goal lead of the game (10-8) since the Cavaliers led 2-0 to start the contest.

Johns Hopkins narrowed its deficit to one goal, 10-9, after Evan Zinn found nylon at 4:40 in the third. However, UVA quickly reeled off four-straight goals to take a commanding 14-9 lead. Aitken capped the streak when he completed his hat-trick on an Ian Laviano pass, scoring an extra-man goal with 9:51 left to play.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"What I was really happy with in the second half was our ride. We challenged our attackmen at halftime and we take a lot of pride in the way we ride. At halftime Hopkins was perfect and I told Ian [Laviano], Michael [Kraus] and Matt [Moore], we need more pressure and create some more errant passes. That was a big part of our ability to surge ahead in the second half the way we did." – Lars Tiffany

Game 9
Virginia 16, Richmond 7
March 29 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 7 Virginia Cavaliers cruised to a 16-7 victory over the Richmond Spiders at Klöckner Stadium.

UVA started strong against the Spiders, as Richmond committed 12 first-half turnovers and only registered eight shots. Meanwhile, UVA scored early and often, owning an 8-2 lead at the intermission. In the first half alone UVA shot the ball 34 times, picked up 27 ground balls and won 10-of-12 faceoffs.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Ryan Conrad put UVA on the board 55 seconds into the game when Matt Moore found the UVA senior streaking toward the goal. The Cavaliers held the lead the remainder of the night. Dox Aitken, Ian Laviano and Conrad all scored two goals in the opening half. Michael Kraus and Moore also added scores to help give UVA a substantial lead.

In the third quarter UVA outscored Richmond, 5-3. Kraus' second goal of the game, via a Petey LaSalla helper off a faceoff, capped the scoring in the third quarter as UVA led the Spiders by eight, 13-5. As the third quarter started to come to a close UVA head coach Lars Tiffany began to empty his bench. In the fourth quarter first-year Paul Rodriguez scored his first career goal on an assist by Mitch Gordon. Rodriguez, who made his collegiate debut in the game, gave UVA a 15-5 lead with 6:45 left.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Our whole staff is really excited about the energy we brought to this game. Richmond is an opponent that has given us great challenges in the past. I respect that. I am really happy with how we rode today, we created turnovers in the ride, we created goals and scoring situations from the ride and that was key to get off to an early start, because they have a really good team defense. Petey LaSalla was continually giving us the ball and created some offense out of it as well. What he was able to do was very impressive and much needed today." – Lars Tiffany

Game 10
Virginia 17, Utah 6
March 31 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 7 Virginia Cavaliers cruised to a 17-6 triumph over the visiting Utah Utes at Klöckner Stadium.

Virginia got after Utah early, opening the game on a 6-0 run before the Utes managed to get their first shot off. Utah, a first-year program, didn't record its first shot until the 3:03 mark in the first quarter. During that span Matt Moore scored three goals and Michael Kraus scored two, while adding an assist. In the first quarter the Cavaliers picked up 19 ground balls and made 19 shots, while Utah managed just four shots and picked up 11 ground balls.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Kraus started the game's scoring at 13:03 in the first quarter. A shot by Moore was blocked and Kraus picked up the ground ball in front of the cage and scored easily. The goal was the 100th career goal of his career. Kraus is the 16th different Cavalier to reach 100 career goals and in career game No. 42 he is the third fastest. Only Doug Knight (39 games) and Kevin Pehlke (40 games) reached the milestone quicker.

The Cavaliers opened the game on a 9-0 run. Ryan Lamb capped the streak with an unassisted goal at 8:46 left in the second quarter. After Utah scored its first goal with 2:35 left before the intermission, UVA finished the quarter on a 4-1 streak, which included scoring two goals in the final eight seconds.

UVA went into the break with a 13-2 lead and halfway through the third quarter head coach Lars Tiffany began to empty his bench as for the second game in a row 35 different Cavaliers saw action.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"The passion we're bringing with the ride, when we lose the ball we get that ball back right away and create transition out of that. Our team defense, with our slides and our hedges off our man to support the ball, we've improved our decision making there. And boy it really helps when you have Petey LaSalla and our wings just getting us the ball so often." - Lars Tiffany

Game 11
Virginia 11, North Carolina 10
April 6 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 4 Virginia Cavaliers clinched the No. 1 seed in the 2019 ACC Tournament with an 11-10 triumph over the No. 18 North Carolina Tar Heels at Klöckner Stadium.

MATT MOORE

The Cavaliers will be the No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament for the first time since 2010. The 2010 season was also the last time UVA won the ACC Tournament. UVA will at least own a share of its 25th regular season ACC title and first since sharing the 2012 regular season title with Duke.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Dox Aitken put UVA on the board quickly, scoring on a Matt Moore helper 2:04 into the game. However, the Cavaliers squandered some offensive opportunities and were thwarted by the reigning ACC Defensive Player of the Week, UNC goalie Caton Johnson. In the first quarter alone Johnson recorded six saves as UVA rattled off 16 shots and picked up 17 ground balls.

Offensively, UNC worked quickly after trailing 1-0 early and led Virginia 5-3 at the half.

The Tar Heels scored the first three goals of the fourth quarter to take a 9-7 lead. Matt Gavin scored on a Brian Cameron helper with 11:16 left to play, finishing off the streak. UVA responded going on a 4-1 run to close the game. Moore scored twice, bookends to Kraus' fifth goal of the game. After Timmy Kelly tied the contest for UNC at 6:35 with an extra-man goal, Aitken powered through the game-winning score with 1:34 left to play.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Every ACC game, as we've proven, is a battle. Each ACC game is filled with talented coaches and super talented players. We were fortunate that we won a lot of faceoffs. Petey LaSalla and the wings, Ryan Conrad and Jared Conners, really kept giving us the ball back in a game where we ran into a hot goalie with UNC's No. 25 Caton Johnson. They had a good offense. I thought UNC did a really good job of exposing some openings against our defense that we haven't had open in the past." - Lars Tiffany

Game 12
Duke 12, Virginia 7
April 13 • Durham, N.C.

The No. 4 Virginia Cavaliers had their eight-game winning streak snapped, 12-7, at the hands of the No. 6 Duke Blue Devils at Koskinen Stadium.

The game was originally scheduled for a noon faceoff at Koskinen Stadium, but inclement weather in the Durham area delayed the start time until 4:30 p.m.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Duke took an early 2-0 lead before Virginia managed a shot, but the Cavaliers took a 3-2 lead after scoring three-straight goals. Matt Moore was involved in all three scores, scoring the first, assisting the second and capping the run on a Mikey Herring helper at 12:27 in the second quarter. The game was knotted, 5-5, at halftime as Moore tied his career high with four goals.

Seven minutes into the third quarter Ryan Conrad found Herring to give UVA a narrow 6-5 lead at 8:00 in the third. Duke responded scoring six-straight goals to take control of the game and commanding 11-7 lead with 4:02 left in the game. Ian Laviano managed to get UVA back on the board with 2:45 left, but it wasn't enough as Duke secured the victory.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"We had a lot of success pushing transition and playing up-tempo in the first half. It was live by the sword, die by the sword when you do that. We were having success so we kept doing that in the third quarter. Problem was [Turner] Uppgren starts making saves on it, their defensemen make some great trail checks and now all of a sudden we are going back and playing a minute or two minutes of defense. The possession time started building up on us, peaking on us in the fourth quarter when Duke had the ball for a period of three minutes in a row when we would make a save and they would pick it up. We make another save and they pick it up again. Give Duke credit for continually pressuring us there and wearing down our defense." -Lars Tiffany

Game 13

April 16 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 6 Virginia Cavaliers scored seven goals on their first seven shots of the game, cruising to a mid-week triumph over the VMI Keydets at Klöckner Stadium, 24-5.

Dox Aitken scored two of UVA's first three goals to break the program record for career goals by a midfielder. His 95 career goals pass Pete Eldredge (1969-72) and Brian Carroll (2007-10) who shared the record with 94 goals. Aitken broke the record in career game No. 46, which is faster than both Eldredge (47) and Carroll (70).

HOW IT HAPPENED

Virginia scored 16 seconds into the game when Ryan Conrad found Mikey Herring streaking toward the goal. Herring's goal started an 11-0 run for the Cavaliers to start the game. Xander Dickson scored the first of his game-high seven goals to cap the streak with 5:08 left in the first half. At the end of one quarter of play UVA led 14-1. Matt Moore and Ian Laviano both recorded hat-tricks in the first quarter. Theo Dol also scored the first goal of his career on a Laviano helper.

By halftime UVA led 22-3, had won 24-of-27 faceoffs and picked up 43 ground balls. In the second half, UVA held the ball most of its offensive possessions, taking only nine combined shots in the second half and picking up four shot clock violations.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I'm grateful for the great faceoff play. All three of our faceoff men, Petey LaSalla, Justin Schwenk, and Luke Brugel, were all exceptional with not only their first moves but their exits, gaining possession of the ball themselves. We did rely on our wings for some of our GBs but it was mainly the men on the faceoff X that gave us so many possessions, which allowed our offense to have such a lopsided time of possession. I'm thankful for the energy that we brought on a Tuesday night. This team does not waste an opportunity to play together. They love playing the game of lacrosse together, and it is clearly evident to anyone who comes out to see us practice or compete." - Lars Tiffany

Game 14
Virginia 22, Marist 6
April 20 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 6 Virginia Cavaliers cruised to a non-conference win on "Senior Day" over the Marist Red Foxes, 22-6, at Klöckner Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Marist won the opening faceoff and took an early 1-0 lead when Jake Weinman scored on an assist from James Lyons 29 seconds into the game. Virginia responded with a 6-1 run to take a solid four-goal lead, 6-2. Matt Moore found Mikey Herring with 5:20 left in the opening quarter to cap the run.

After Marist scored at 3:03 in the first quarter to make it 6-3 on a Chris Schlappich goal, UVA finished its first-half scoring on an 8-1 streak, taking a commanding 14-4 lead with 31 seconds left in the second quarter. The Cavaliers received two goals apiece from Moore and Dox Aitken during the run. Marist interrupted the Virginia spurt with a goal as time expired in the second quarter, sending the game into the intermission with UVA leading 14-5.

Virginia opened the second half on an 8-0 run, punching an explanation point on the last regular season home game of the 2019 season.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"This was a fantastic way to have Senior Day. We have many fourth and fifth years and I thought they set the tone early. It was really great to see other guys step in and make plays. I was really excited with how they set the tone. Then we brought our regulars back in, we shot the ball really well today. We have a lot of respect for the Marist goalie [Jake Macgregor], and so we placed [on cage] the ball really well today, and that's not an easy thing to do, shoot a scouting report. It sounds a lot easier than it is. I was also very impressed with our faceoff play. Their faceoff man is one of the best in the nation, so it was a battle in there. It was not only our faceoff men, but our faceoff wing play that impressed me." - Lars Tiffany

Game 15
Virginia 14, North Carolina 13
April 27 • Chapel Hill, N.C.

The No. 6 Virginia Cavaliers used a 6-1 run in the fourth quarter to outlast the North Carolina Tar Heels, 14-13, at UNC Lacrosse Stadium. UVA advances to the ACC Championship final for the second year in a row.

HOW IT HAPPENED

After scoring with 14 seconds left in the first quarter, UVA didn't score again for the a period of 26:17 in which UNC reeled off a 7-0 run to take a commanding 10-6 lead with 8:16 left in the third quarter. Michael Kraus broke through with an unassisted goal at 3:06 to cut UVA's deficit to three goals, 10-7. UNC responded with a 2-0 run, taking a 12-8 lead with 14:09 left to play.

Dox Aitken started the comeback with 7:31 left in the game, scoring back-to-back goals to cut the UVA deficit to two goals, 12-10.

After Aitken's goals, Laviano scored on a Moore helper at 6:32 in the fourth, followed by an acrobatic goal on another Moore assist by Mikey Herring with 5:37 left to play to tie the game at 12-12.

Alex Trippi bounced in a shot at 3:24 to give UNC the lead, 13-12 for the final time. Kraus tied the game, 13-12, with an unassisted goal at 3:05. After a huge save by Patrick Burkinshaw and an ensuing ground ball by Matt Dziana, UVA moved the ball in transition and Cade Saustad recorded his first career assist when he found Laviano for the game-winning goal at 1:30 in the fourth.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"When it was 12-8 [North Carolina] and Caton Johnson was playing so fantastic along with the UNC defense getting to our sticks and blocking our shots I was very impressed a North Carolina team playing on one-day rest. We kept waiting for them to fade so we could get that extra ground ball, but it wasn't until the last five minutes that we felt that. When you come back a few times during the season like we have, our men truly believe that we are never out of it. The cultural shift of committing to this program, the sacrifice these men have made has been significant behind the scenes and it makes the difference." - Lars Tiffany Game 16 Virginia 10, Notre Dame 4 May 4 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 5 Virginia Cavaliers upended the No. 9 Notre Dame Fighting Irish in the ACC Championship final on Saturday afternoon, 10-4, in front of 4,489 fans at Klöckner Stadium. The win yielded UVA its 18th Atlantic Coast Conference title and first since 2010.

After dropping the 2018 ACC Championship final to Notre Dame, 17-7, at Klöckner Stadium, UVA won the rematch behind a stellar team defensive effort. With the game tied, 2-2, at the 4:11 mark of the first quarter, Virginia held Notre Dame scoreless for the next 42:12 as the Cavaliers enjoyed an 8-0 run.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Unassisted goals by Matt Moore and Dox Aitken put UVA up early, 2-0, with 8:20 left in the first quarter. Notre Dame bounced back to tie the game, 2-2, after an extra-man goal by Bryan Costabile, followed by a score from Nick Stinn at 4:11 in the first.

A transition goal by Ian Laviano on a Michael Kraus helper started an 8-0 UVA run that spelled doom for the Fighting Irish. Ryan Conrad and Aitken each scored two during the run, while Cory Harris' open-net goal in transition with 9:12 left to play capped the run. Meanwhile, UVA's defense was stingy, causing 16 of Notre Dame's 23 turnovers. Long-stick midfielder Jared Conners finished with four ground balls and caused three turnovers, while also scoring a goal off a faceoff. UVA long-pole Logan Greco picked up five ground balls and caused four turnovers.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"If you saw us two years ago with my first season here as a head coach, also as a defensive coordinator, I like to wear both hats, we've come a long way. I give credit to these group of men for continuing to believe in me after that first year. That all really culminated today with our decision making, when to slide to the man being dodged, and when not to. Because we don't slide to everything, that decision making has taken years to hone. The culmination of it was what we did today against a really tough offensive team. Of course Alex Rode, who every week is in a competition for his starting spot, I give him a lot of credit. He stepped up and shut the door for a couple quarters, huge effort from Alex." - Lars Tiffany Game 17 Virginia 19, Robert Morris 10 May 11 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 3 national seeded Virginia Cavaliers upended the Robert Morris Colonials in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, 19-10, at Klöckner Stadium. The victory snapped a four-game losing streak for the Cavaliers in the NCAA Tournament, their longest in program history.

The Cavaliers received career nights from Mikey Herring and Ryan Conrad, two seniors playing their final career games at Klöckner Stadium. Herring scored a career-high six goals and Conrad scored a career-high five goals, as the duo was responsible for 11 of UVA's 19 goals. Matt Moore also added a career-high seven assists and a career-high nine points.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The wet conditions delayed the scoring to start as the game was scoreless until the 7:18 mark in the first quarter when Michael Kraus fed Matt Moore for the game's first goal. Moore's score initiated a 3-0 UVA run to start the game. Kraus and Mikey Herring all scored during the spurt.

Virginia's 3-0 run was part of a larger 7-2 Cavaliers streak, which was capped by Herring on a Moore assist with 12:26 left in the first half. By Half UVA owned a 9-5 advantage and used an 8-2 streak to start the second half to help put the game away.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I am very thankful for the men I am able to coach, because of the grit and intensity that we bring. I love the way we ride. We didn't get a lot of opportunities in the first half, but in the second half, wow. Listen to how loud our bench gets when we're riding, they are just feeding the guys on the field and exciting them to go faster and make those plays. John Fox diving for one of those ground balls, that is just symbolic of our team. I am very, very grateful to have men who are passionate and treat every ground ball as if it's the last one on earth." - Lars Tiffany Game 18 Virginia 13, Maryland 12 - OT May 18 • Hempstead, N.Y.

The No. 3 national seeded Virginia Cavaliers trailed by five goals with 10:38 remaining, but scored the game's last six goals to squeak past Maryland in overtime, 13-12, in the NCAA Quarterfinal round at James M. Shuart Stadium.

Faceoff specialist Petey LaSalla won his seventh faceoff in a row to start overtime and Michael Kraus found a streaking Matt Moore for the game-winning score 45 seconds into the extra period. The score by Moore was his 40th goal of the season, making him the first single-season 40-goal, 40-assist man

HOW IT HAPPENED

Including overtime, LaSalla won the game's final seven faceoffs and 7-of-8 in the fourth quarter as Virginia mounted its comeback. Maryland's lone faceoff win of the fourth quarter led to the Terps' final score of the game at 10:38, courtesy of an Anthony DeMaio tally.

Ryan Conrad scored back-to-back goals to jumpstart the UVA streak to victory. After Conrad made it 12-9 with 3:25 to go, Ian Laviano scored 20 seconds later on a Kraus assist after LaSalla won the faceoff, cutting UVA's deficit to two goals, 12-10.

Conrad scored his fourth of the game, third of the half, at 2:41 to bring UVA within one goal, 12-11. Virginia tied the game for the fourth time, 12-12, with 1:14 left when Dox Aitken found Kraus, who stung the corner.

LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff, but UVA wasn't able to score before regulation ran out as the stage was set for the overtime heroics.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"These men truly draw upon each other and lean upon each other. It all starts with trust. It was a heroic effort from our first year, Petey LaSalla. For him to do what he did in the second half against a team [Maryland] that is notoriously very good at the faceoff X. He kept giving us those possession in order to make the comeback win happen. Having Ryan Conrad on those faceoff wings. I am very grateful to coach a group that is committed to be successful in every phase." - Lars Tiffany Game 19 Virginia 13, Duke 12 - 2OT May 25 • Philadelphia, Pa.

The No. 3 national seeded Virginia Cavaliers advance to the NCAA title game for the first time since 2011 after disposing of the No. 2 national seeded Duke Blue Devils in double-overtime, 13-12.

Matt Moore found Ian Laviano 51 seconds into the second overtime to send UVA to the NCAA title game. Virginia trailed by four goals (8-4) in the third quarter and trailed by two scores with 47 seconds left (12-10). But Michael Kraus scored with 46 seconds left, while Laviano sent the game to overtime with a score with 15 seconds left in regulation, courtesy of a Moore assist.

Faceoff specialist Petey LaSalla won the last eight faceoffs of the game, including the two in overtime. Neither team could break through in the first overtime as UVA took three shots and committed two turnovers, while Duke took four shots, two of which were saves by Alex Rode.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Virginia struck first and led 2-1 after back-to-back goals by Ryan Conrad, the second coming on a Kraus assist with 4:55 left in the first quarter. Duke responded with four-straight goals and a 7-2 run to take the 8-4 lead with 7:03 left in the third quarter. UVA committed 13 turnovers in the first half that attributed to Duke's 5-2 halftime lead.

At 6:55 LaSalla picked up a faceoff and streaked toward the goal, scoring to start the UVA comeback. Trailing 11-8 with 9:49 left, UVA received back-to-back goals from Dox Aitken to bring UVA within one goal, 11-10, with 7:55 left.

Kevin Quigley from Duke pushed one through as the shot clock expired with 1:56 left to give the Blue Devils a two-goal cushion, 12-10. LaSalla won back-to-back faceoffs that led to the tying of the game in regulation.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Boy was that fun. This is the game at its best and obviously a showcase, this type of weekend. We had another fun one today. I'm just really, really fortunate and grateful to have men who have committed to something larger and bigger than themselves and to sacrifice for the team. Obviously I have talented men, guys who can make plays. What was going on in the first half? Did we get caught up in the moment? I'm fortunate: Sean Kirwan has won a national championship, Kip Turner has won a national championship, Bo Lori, our volunteer assistant, has been in a national championship game, two years ago. So there was experience on the staff, but not on the team. Maybe we saw that early. A lot of turnovers, unforced turnovers and tentativeness. And I was probably more animated at halftime than normal with this team about sort of emotional things, and this team responded. I said fellas this is our moment; we've earned this moment. We don't deserve this. We've earned this. Take the moment. Obviously Coach Kirwan made a couple of adjustments, as he always does, but these guys executed, the men next to me, and obviously others, Matt Moore. I'm really, really fortunate to coach men who will buy in, do whatever is asked of them, and commit to being the best team player they can be." - Lars Tiffany

Game 20 Virginia 13, Yale 9 May 27 • Philadelphia, Pa.

The No. 3 seeded Virginia Cavaliers captured the program's sixth NCAA title with a 13-9 triumph over No. 5 seeded Yale, thwarting the Bulldogs' quest for back-to-back titles in front of 31,528 fans at Lincoln Financial Field.

UVA set the tone early with a 6-2 run that covered the entire first half. The team defensive effort was led by the NCAA Tournament's Most Outstanding Player, goalie Alex Rode. The sophomore goaltender made eight saves in the first half and 32 total over Championship Weekend. Entering Monday Yale had scored 26 combined goals (8.7 average) in the first quarter of each of the Bulldogs' three NCAA Tournament game. UVA limited Yale to only one goal in the first quarter on Monday.

HOW IT HAPPENED

After Yale took an early 1-0 lead at 12:59, Matt Moore scored two goals to give UVA a 2-1 lead at 7:50 in the first period. Yale tied the game, 2-2, at 11:41 in the second when there was a dash by Rode and company for a ball behind the crease. The ball took a carom toward Yale's Matt Brandau who found Matt Gaudet for an open-net score.

UVA retaliated with a 4-0 run going into the intermission to set the tone for the rest of the day. UVA never trailed again. Michael Kraus started the run with back-to-back goals, followed by a Dox Aitken score at 5:11 in the second. Petey LaSalla won the ensuing faceoff and scored unassisted eight seconds later to cap the run and send UVA into the break with a 6-2 lead.

Yale was hot coming out of halftime, cutting UVA's lead to two goals, 6-4, with 13:51 left in the period. UVA responded with a 5-0 streak that spelled doom for the defending national champions. Ryan Conrad, Kraus, Moore and LaSalla all scored goals in the run, while Moore's fourth of the game capped the run with 6:43 left in the third quarter.

Yale finished the game on a 5-2 run, but it wasn't enough as UVA shut the door for the championship.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"First of all, I'm very grateful to Dom Starsia, the men that I have coached in my first three years for the most part were recruited by Dom. The reason I'm a coach is because of Dom Starsia, having played for him at Brown University in the late 1980s. When you go to Brown University, you graduate not thinking the world needs another lacrosse coach. Most of my fellow alums, we go off and try to save the world, whether it's Peace Corp, AmeriCorps, nonprofits, other focused organizations. I was a teacher for four years, but it was always in the back of my mind the impact that Dom Starsia made on me and many of my teammates at Brown: Rich Chewy, Tom Dwyer. What he did is he showed us that a coach can make a profound impact on being a better man." - Lars Tiffany

ADMINISTRATION

JAMES E. RYAN
University President

James E. Ryan serves as the ninth president of the University of Virginia. A leading expert on law and education, Ryan has written extensively about the ways in which law structures educational opportunity. His articles and essays address such topics as school desegregation, school finance, school choice, standards and testing, pre-K, and the intersection of special education and neuroscience. Ryan is also the coauthor of the textbook "Educational Policy and the Law" and the author of "Five Miles Away, A World Apart," which was published in 2010 by Oxford University Press. Ryan's most recent book, "Wait, What? And Life's Other Essential Questions," based on his popular 2016 commencement speech, was published in 2017 by HarperOne and is a New York Times bestseller. In addition, Ryan has authored articles on constitutional law and theory and has argued before the United States Supreme Court.

Before coming to UVA, Ryan served as dean of the Harvard Graduate School of Education. In this role, Ryan increased the size, strength, and diversity of the faculty through new hires and promotions. He established the Harvard Teacher Fellows program, an innovative teacher training program for Harvard College seniors and recent alumni, and began a school-wide effort to reimagine its master's degree programs. Ryan oversaw an expansion of professional education, including the creation of two new online certificate programs, and launched Usable Knowledge, an online resource designed to broadly disseminate actionable research findings in education. He and colleagues also embarked on an ongoing effort entitled "Fulfilling the Promise of Diversity," intended to prepare students for careers working in diverse environments, and resulting in new courses, prominent speakers, and teaching workshops related to diversity and inclusion. Under his leadership, the school surpassed its campaign goal of $250 million more than a year ahead of schedule, and raised the largest gift in the school's history, a $35.5 million gift to establish the Zaentz Early Education Initiative.

Before his deanship, Ryan was the Matheson & Morgenthau Distinguished Professor at the University of Virginia School of Law. He also served as academic associate dean from 2005 to 2009 and founded and directed the school's Program in Law and Public Service. While at Virginia, Ryan received an All-University Teaching Award, an Outstanding Faculty Award from the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, and several awards for his scholarship. Ryan has been a visiting professor at Harvard, Yale, and the University of Auckland. He has also served on numerous education boards and commissions, including the U.S. Department of Education's Equity and Excellence Commission and the board of the Maya Angelou Public Charter School in Washington, D.C.

Ryan received his AB summa cum laude from Yale University and his JD from the University of Virginia, which he attended on a full scholarship and from which he graduated first in his class. After law school, Ryan clerked for William H. Rehnquist, the late Chief Justice of the United States, and then worked in Newark, N.J., as a public interest lawyer before entering into teaching. Ryan and his wife, Katie, who is also an alum of the UVA School of Law, have four children.

CARLA WILLIAMS
Director of Athletics

In the short time since Carla Williams was named Virginia's director of athletics in October of 2017, she has made an impact on the Cavaliers athletics landscape. Quite literally.

With a background as a student-athlete, coach and administrator, Williams' approach to leading Virginia is forward thinking. Her focus is on providing opportunities for student-athletes to maximize their college experience while establishing a culture and support system for the sport programs to compete for championships. Above all, her commitment to academic excellence is unwavering.

Williams wants student-athletes at UVA to grow, prosper and prepare themselves for their futures away from athletic competitions. To ensure that approach becomes a reality, she announced The Master Plan project in 2018 that will set the course for generations of future Hoos.

The $180 million Master Plan addresses the immediate needs to upgrade facilities for the Cavalier football program and UVA Olympic Sports. Administrative buildings, sport performance centers and new playing surfaces will be the most visible phases of the project that also includes the demolition of University Hall.

The services and support areas encompassed within the project will have meaningful and lasting impacts on student-athletes in the form of leadership, ethics, stewardship, wellness and academic achievement.

It is a plan that is aggressive in scope, but one that Williams feels is needed to ensure UVA's place among the nation's leading athletics departments. The end result will provide student-athletes an unsurpassed experience in terms of personal development.

During her short tenure as UVA's athletics director, Williams has witnessed a revival of the Cavalier football program and a history-making performance by the men's basketball team. Under coach Bronco Mendenhall, UVA's football program has gone to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 14 seasons and the Cavaliers capped the 2018 campaign with a shutout performance against South Carolina to win the Belk Bowl.

The Virginia men's basketball team won the program's first NCAA Championship in 2019, finishing the tournament with a run of three dramatic come-from-behind victories to cap an epic storyline after UVA exited the championship a year earlier as the first No. 1 seed to lose to a No. 16 seed.

The Cavalier men's lacrosse team captured its eighth national title in 2019 and helped UVA to an eighth-place finish in the Directors' Cup. Virginia also claimed the Capitol One Cup for men's sports in 2019, the second time it won the award since 2015.

In the classroom, UVA student-athletes have set record numbers for placement on the ACC Honor Roll, achieved highest grade point average totals in program history and been recognized by the NCAA for outstanding achievement on academic progress reports.

Williams' appointment at Virginia made her the first female African-American athletics director at a Power Five conference institution. At the time, she was the fifth active female athletics director at that level.

Prior to Virginia, Williams served as an athletics administrator at the University of Georgia for 13 years and was named deputy director of athletics in 2015. During Williams' tenure as an administrator at Georgia, its athletics teams won 16 NCAA team championships and 37 Southeastern Conference titles.

In her role as deputy director of athletics at Georgia, Williams was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the department and its $127 million budget. She served as administrator for the Bulldogs' football and Lady Bulldogs' women's basketball programs and also had supervisory responsibility for academic support services, business operations, compliance, event management, external operations, facilities and new construction, human resources, sports facilitators (21 sports and 15 head coaches), sports medicine, strength and conditioning, student services and ticketing. She helped to oversee $162 million in facility additions, upgrades and improvements for the UGA athletics program.

Williams served as the Georgia Athletic Association's liaison to the president's office, provost's office, general counsel, equal opportunity office and student affairs. She also served as the athletics department's deputy Title IX officer.

Williams has the unique background of competing, coaching and administering at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. She was an All-SEC guard on the basketball court, then helped recruit and coach some of the greatest teams in Georgia's history before moving on to become one of the highest-ranking female administrators in Division I athletics.

Williams began her administrative career at Georgia in 2004. She served as associate athletic director (2004-2008), senior associate athletic director (2008-2011) and executive associate athletic director (2011-2015) before being promoted to deputy director of athletics.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs' staff, Williams was an assistant director of athletics at Vanderbilt (2000-03) and an associate director of athletics (2003-04). She oversaw 11 men's and women's sports as well as the Commodores' CHAMPS/Life Skills program. From 1997-1998, Williams was coordinator for student-athlete development and life skills at Florida State. While completing her Ph.D. in sport administration, Williams was also a graduate assistant for athletic academic support from 1998-2000.

Over the course of her career in intercollegiate athletics, Williams has administrative experience with each varsity sport sponsored by Virginia with the exceptions of field hockey, rowing, squash and wrestling.

Williams was instrumental in Georgia's programming to enhance the lives of its student-athletes and prepare them for a life beyond athletics, including its comprehensive "The Georgia Way" program. She also helped build ties for Bulldog alumni, including the creation of UGA's NFL alumni development program. Her involvement at Georgia included serving as a member of the student-athlete conduct committee and student wellness committee. She was involved in general campus affairs which included serving on the University's Terry College of Business board of directors and being active in numerous campus personnel search committees.

NCAA and national organization committee membership are a big part of Williams' resume. She served on the executive committee (2010-2014) for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. She was a member of the Southeastern Conference's executive committee (2009-2011), participated on the NCAA women's basketball issues committee (2010-2014) and was an executive board member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (2007-2009).

A native of LaGrange, Ga., Williams was a three-year starter for the Lady Bulldogs from 1987-89. She finished her career with 1,115 points, 425 assists and 285 steals. Those tallies ranked No. 10, No. 2 and No. 3 among Georgia's career leaders at the completion of her career.

Williams was then an assistant coach on hall of fame coach Andy Landers' staff from 1991-96, including teams which reached the 1995 and 1996 Final Fours, finished as NCAA runner-up in 1996 and won the 1991 and 1996 SEC Championships. Following the 1995-96 season, Williams moved into administration and served as UGA's assistant director of compliance from 1996-97 before continuing her ascent up the administrative ranks at Florida State, Vanderbilt and Georgia.

Williams was an active member in her community, local schools and church and was on the board of directors for the Athens Area Community Foundation and LLL Community Group. She has served as a committee member for Oconee County School System projects and been involved in the Athens Clarke County Mentor Program.

In May 2015, Williams was recognized by the Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia as the Athens Woman of Distinction. That same year she was named one of the top-10 senior woman administrators in the NCAA by the website CollegeAD.org.

Williams and her husband Brian, who holds the title of associate professor of public policy at UVA's Frank Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy, have three children: daughters, Carmen and Camryn, and a son, Joshua.

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

VINCENT BRIEDIS

The 2020 edition of the University of Virginia Lacrosse Fact Book has been prepared by the UVA Athletics Media Relations Office to help members of the news media become acquainted with the facts and figures concerning the Virginia lacrosse program and for use as handy reference material during the 2020 season. For more information on the Virginia lacrosse team, please contact UVA Assistant Athletics Media Relations Director Vincent Briedis at (434) 982-5533. Press facilities for home games are in the Press Box at Klöckner Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Admission to the press box is by official credential only and is strictly limited to members of the working press, radio and television personnel. Please allow ample time for the mailing of credentials or they will be left at the Will Call window at Klöckner Stadium.

Special requests should be made in advance. Parking is always available on an unreserved basis at University Hall. Normal pregame and postgame information is supplied.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Requests for photo passes must be made in advance through the Athletics Media Relations Office. Photographers must observe the field markings for lacrosse. No tri-pod equipment may be used on the field level, for the safety of the players and photographers.

RADIO

Broadcasts are made from the radio broadcast facilities in Klöckner Stadium. There is one courtesy line available for use by visiting radio crews. Adequate space is available for the visiting team needs. Arrangement for broadcasts must be validated in advance through the UVA Athletics Media Relations Office.

TELEVISION

Television rights for all home Virginia men's lacrosse games are owned by the Atlantic Coast Conference and ESPN. Permission must be obtained in advance to videotape the games for any purpose.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with coaches and players should be made through Vincent Briedis in the Athletics Media Relations Office. Postgame interviews are conducted at field level following the postgame handshake.
