THREE THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

• Virginia has advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 in five consecutive seasons and eight straight NCAA Tournaments.

• Danielle Collins has reached a career-high ranking of No. 2 in the ITA Rankings heading into the NCAA Championships.

• Virginia has won five-of-six matches heading into the NCAA Championships.

FOR OPENERS

- Virginia enters the NCAA Women's Tennis Championships on a three-match winning streak. That streak matches the longest streak of the season for the Cavaliers, done twice earlier in the season.
- The Cavaliers faced 19 nationally-ranked teams in the 2016 season and are 9-10 against those teams. Of those matches, 16 came against teams ranked in the top 50. Virginia faced 12 teams ranked in the top 25 at the time of competition.
- Three of the Cavalier seniors have broken the 100-win plateau in singles this season.
- Julia Elbaba ranks first all-time in wins with 129 singles wins for her career. Elbaba passed Lindsey Hardenbergh (2009-12).
- Elbaba is 33-7 on the season in singles play and 14-4 against nationally-ranked opponents this season.
- Danielle Collins holds 117 singles wins for her career and is 30-4 on the season, including a 17-2 mark in dual matches this season and a 20-2 mark against nationally-ranked opponents. Collins is on a nine-match win streak. 24 of her wins came as a freshman at Florida in 2012-13.
- Stephanie Nauta is fourth all-time in singles wins with 110 for her career.

HEAD COACH MARK GUILBEAU

- Eleventh-year head coach Mark Guilbeau has posted a 187-103 mark at UVA and 341-192 record in 20 seasons overall.
- Guilbeau has led Virginia to two ACC Championships and 21 or more wins four of the last five seasons.
- Guilbeau led the Cavaliers to their first NCAA quarterfinal appearance, first ACC Championship and first-ever share of an ACC regular-season title in 2014 before repeating as ACC Champions in 2015 and advancing to the Sweet 16.
- He has guided the Cavaliers to the NCAA Championship in 10 of 11 seasons and seven straight seasons with 15 or more wins.

UVA ALL-TIME IN THE ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- The Cavaliers are 17-16 all-time in NCAA Women's Championship appearances.
- Virginia is 15-10 in the ACC Championships under the leadership of head coach Mark Guilbeau.
- The Cavaliers have advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 in each of the last five seasons.
- Virginia defeated VCU and South Carolina before falling to host Baylor in the Round of 16 last season.

A LOOK AT VIRGINIA VS. THE NCAA REGIONAL FIELD

- Virginia holds an all-time record of 4-1 against the other three teams in the NCAA Charlottesville Regional field.
- The Cavaliers defeated Columbia 6-1 at the ITA Kickoff Weekend to improve to 2-0 all-time against the Lions.
- Virginia faces Fairleigh Dickinson for the third time in program history to open competition in the NCAA Championships.
- The Cavaliers are 2-0 all-time against Fairleigh Dickinson, having defeated them in the opening match of the 2012 and 2013 regionals.
- Virginia and LSU have faced off only once before with the Tigers claiming the victory on April 18, 1981.

A LOOK AHEAD TO THE ROUND OF 16

- Should the Cavaliers advance through the Regional to the Round of 16, Virginia could face any one of four foes - North Carolina, Northwestern, Ole Miss or East Tennessee State.
- UVA is 4-3 all-time against the non-conference foes who could advance to the Round of 16, but 14-40 vs. UNC all-time.
- Virginia is 2-0 vs. East Tennessee State, 1-1 vs. Northwestern and 1-2 vs. Ole Miss in the all-time records.
