THE SERIES

Richmond: Danny Rocco (Wake Forest, '84) Record at Richmond: 33-18 (.647) (fifth year) Career Record: 80-38 (.678) (11th year) Record vs. UVA: 0-2

QUICK SLANTS

- Richmond enters the 2016 season as the preseason CAA favorites for the first time since 2009, the year after the Spiders' 2008 National Champion-ship run.

- The Spiders, who enter as high as #3 in the preseason national polls, enter the year ranked in the top-five for the first time since 2009.

- The Spiders return 16 of 22 starters from last year's squad that posted 10 wins and made a trip to the FCS semifinals. Amongst that group returning for Richmond is two All-Americans in David Jones and Brian Brown, along with eight other players who earned All-CAA accolades last fall.

- Statistically, the Spiders return over 55-percent of their total scoring, over 65-percent of their total receiving yards and over 75-percent of their tackles from last fall.

- The Spiders boast the CAA Preseason Offensive Player of the Year in Kyle Lauletta and the CAA Preseason Defensive Player of the Year in David Jones. It's just the second time in the past 15 seasons that one team has been named the concensus favorite and had both the preseason offensive and defensive players of the year.

- In the past 10 seasons, Richmond has played an ACC opponent eight times, three times coming away with victories in those contests. The last victory over a BCS/FBS opponent for the Spiders came in 2011 when Richmond toppled Duke in Durham, 23-21.

- In four of the past five meetings (since 2001) between these two schools, the Spiders have posted double-digits in points, which only happened twice in the prior 27 meetings.

- The current Richmond staff has plenty of ties to UVA with Coach Rocco spending five seasons (2001-2005) on staff with the Cavaliers, serving as associate head coach, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator during his time in Charlottesville. First-year offensive coordinator John Garrett, Associate Head Coach/Recruiting Coordinator Sparky Woods, Tight Ends Coach Bill Polin and Defensive Line Coach Levern Belin also all spent at least two seasons on staff in Charlottesville, while Fontel Mines (WRs coach) and Clint Sintim (OLBs coach) played their collegiate careers for the Cavaliers.

and David Jones.

Head Coach Danny Rocco was named CAA Coach of the Year for the first time during his tenure with the Spiders and fourth time being named conference coach of the year dating back to his days at Liberty.

We're Going To Need Some More Room

Since joining the league in 2007, no CAA football program has captured more conference titles than Richmond. The Spiders have taken home four trophies ('07, '09, '12 and '15), two more than any other school during that span.

All-American Accolades

The Spiders had plenty of accolades to go around in 2015 with four student-athletes earning All-American honors, the highest total since 2010 for Richmond. Seniors Jacobi Green and Nick Ritcher, were joined by juniors Brian Brown and David Jones.

No Fly Zone

Defensively, Richmond's 22 interceptions led the country last year, which marked the third time since 2008 that the Spiders have led the country in that category. Since that year, Richmond has led the CAA five times and ranked in the top-20 nationally six different times.

Jones' nine interceptions last fall set a new single-season program record and tied him for the highest total nationally.

Getting Offensive

Even with a first-year starter under center and an injury to All-American Seth Fisher early in the year, the Spiders posted on the best offensive seasons in program history last fall.

Richmond's 462 points and 33.0 ppg both ranked as the third highest totals in school history, while 6,326 yards of total offense was the second highest total in program history, ranking second only to the 2014 offense, which put up 6,453 total yards.

He Must Work At All State

Brian Brown has been putting his good hands to work for the past two seasons for the Spiders and last year was no different as the Richmond, Va. native ranked third nationally in total receiving yards with 1,450, third in receiving yards per game (111.5) and also caught six touchdowns.

With his 1,450 yards receiving, Brown became the only player in Richmond history to post two or more seasons of 1,000+ yards.

Not Bad For A First Timer

In his first season as a starter, Kyle Lauletta posted one of the best seasons in Richmond history, ranking second nationally in total passing yards (3,598) and in the top-25 nationally in passing efficiency (15th – 147.3), passing yards per game (17th – 257.0) and passing TDs (24th – 19).

The 3,598 passing yards ranks as the second most in a single season by a Spider, only Michael Strauss passed for more in 2013 (3,808). The 19 TDs thrown by Lauletta rank as the fifth-most in a single season in program history.

Did You Know?

- Coach Rocco's roommate during his first season at Penn State was Jeff Hostetler, Super Bowl winning QB for the NY Giants.

- Nicholas Vergos' parents are the owners of legendary BBQ restaurant Rendezvous in Memphis, Tenn.

- Kyle Lauletta's father teaches leadership academy classes for the Naval Reserves.

- Marius Young is the President of FAME, an organization that the Richmond Football alumni set up to benefit area youth. He is also an acapella singer on campus.

- Griffin Trau spent the summer working as an intern with the New Zealand Institute of Sport on their marketing and development team.

- Jamal Bevels, Andrew Clyde, DJ Helkowski, Jariel Jordan, Trey Moore and John Yarbrough spent almost eight weeks this past summer studying abroad in Richmond's studyabroad program for student-athletes.

- Thomas Evans, Blane Markham and Grant Dixon spent their downtime this summer fishing the James River that runs through downtown Richmond.

- James Pavik and Will McCombs were walk-ons who were honored by Coach Rocco with scholarships during spring football.

Entering his fifth season at the helm of the Spiders, Danny Rocco has returned the program to national prominence with back-to-back FCS Playoff appearances, including reaching the semifinals in 2015.

In the past decade, only four coaches at the FCS level have eight or more wins in seven different seasons, Rocco is one of them, with his teams both at Richmond and Liberty totaling 80 wins over the past 10 seasons, which is particularly impressive knowing that the two programs were a combined 4-18 in the seasons prior to Rocco's arrival.

During his ten seasons as a head coach (four at Richmond, six at Liberty), he has been a National Coach of the Year Finalist five times, he has won six conference championships and four conference Coach of the Year honors.

Even more impressive is that the six conference championships have come with five different starting quarterbacks leading the way for Rocco, all of whom earned all-conference accolades.

Rocco has also been named The Touchdown Club of Richmond's NCAA Division I Commonwealth of Virginia Coach of the Year on two occasions, including last fall after the Spiders' run to a national ranking of #3 and the FCS Semifinals.

In January of 2016, Rocco was elected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees.

In his ten seasons as a head coach, Rocco has coached 144 all-conference honorees and 28 student-athletes who garnered All-American honors, including four Spiders last fall in Brian Brown, Jacobi Green, David Jones and Nick Ritcher.

Twelve different players under Rocco's tutelage have gone on to earn professional contracts, including two this past fall with Ritcher's signing with the Titans and Reggie Diggs signing with the Redskins.

His teams have finished in the final FCS Top-25 poll in seven of the past eight seasons, including finishing #3 in the country after last year's run to the FCS semifinals.

When Rocco arrived on campus, his impact was immediate, ushering in a five-win turnaround en route to an 8-3 season and a share of the CAA Championship in just his first season. It was just a glimpse of the success that would follow in the next three seasons.

He has helped guide Richmond to back-to-back FCS playoff appearances for the first time since 2008-2009. His 33 wins are the most in the first four years of any head coaching tenure and rank seventh all-time in total wins.

During his time with the Spiders, Richmond has defeated 11 nationally-ranked opponents, including five straight wins over William & Mary and a victory over then-No.3 JMU during the 2015 season when ESPN's College GameDay was in Harrisonburg.

At Liberty, Rocco quickly made the Flames into a Big South powerhouse, winning Big South Conference Championships in four of his six seasons in Lynchburg. His time at Liberty was one of the most successful stints in program history. Rocco arrived at Liberty following the program's 1-10 finish in 2005 and transformed the program as the architect of six consecutive winning seasons with the Flames. During his first season in 2006, Liberty won five more games (6-5) than the previous year, an improvement that tied for the best FCS turnaround in the nation that season.

As a result of his immediate impact on the program, Rocco was named Big South Coach of the Year for the first time in school history, the first of three-straight years he would receive the honor. He would go on to be named a finalist for the national Eddie Robinson Award and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award in each of the final three seasons in Lynchburg.

Since the team's stunning turnaround in 2006, Rocco's teams continued to dominate in the Big South Conference and beyond. The Flames rolled to a 47-20 overall record and an impressive 26-5 mark in Big South play under Rocco, winning no fewer than seven games in each of his final five seasons. Nationally, Liberty finished the last four years ranked inside the Top 25 in both major FCS polls.

Did You Know?

Rocco's 33 wins is the highest total in the first four years of any coach in program history. During Rocco's six years at the helm in Lynchburg, the Flames captured their first-ever Big South Championship in 2007 - the first of four consecutive conference titles. During this four-year span, Rocco had the third-highest winning percentage among FCS coaches nationally with his 34-11 record (.756).

Before becoming a head coach, Rocco spent 23 seasons at the BCS or NFL levels.

Prior to his arrival at Liberty, Rocco spent the previous five seasons at Virginia. He was a part of four-consecutive bowl appearances for the Cavaliers, including back-to-back Continental Tire Bowl victories in 2002 and 2003. During his time in Charlottesville, UVA piled up 37 wins with Rocco serving as the associate head coach and linebackers coach under Al Groh.

In addition to his coaching duties with the Cavaliers, he also served as the recruiting coordinator during his first two years in Charlottesville. His 2002 recruiting class was ranked in the top 10 in the nation by many of the major recruiting services, including a fifth-place ranking by ESPN.

Prior to UVA, Rocco spent the 2000 season alongside Groh as an assistant linebacker and special teams coach with the New York Jets. Before joining the Jets, he was the linebackers coach at Maryland during the 1998 and 1999 campaigns.

Prior to his time in College Park, Rocco spent four seasons at the University of Texas, where the Longhorns captured three straight conference titles, including winning the inaugural Big 12 Championship in 1996 and earning three consecutive trips to bowl games (Sun Bowl, Sugar Bowl and Fiesta Bowl).

Before Tom Coughlin was a Super Bowl winning coach with the New York Giants, he was Rocco's mentor at Boston College for two seasons. As a defensive assistant, Rocco was a part of the revitalization of the Golden Eagles, returning the program to the national stage as participants in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl and the 1993 Carquest Bowl.

Rocco also spent the 1987 season as the linebackers coach at Colorado under Bill McCartney and three seasons as the linebackers coach at Tulsa.

The start of Rocco's coaching career came at his alma mater, Wake Forest, where he spent three seasons in total, two as a graduate assistant and one as the defensive line coach during the 1986 season.

As a player, Rocco's collegiate career began at Penn State, where he earned two varsity letters and competed in the 1979 Liberty Bowl and the 1980 Fiesta Bowl before transferring to Wake Forest. While in Winston-Salem, he was a two-year starter and senior captain for Groh.

He was no stranger to coaching after growing up in a football family. His father, Frank Rocco, Sr., served as an assistant coach at Penn State under Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno before joining the Liberty staff in 2000. Frank Rocco, Jr., also joined the Flames staff in 2000 as a wide receivers and quarterbacks coach and received a promotion to offensive coordinator prior to his departure in 2003. Frank, and brother, Dave, are both currently coaching at the high school level in Virginia.

A native of Huntingdon, Pa., Rocco is married to the former Julie Mills. They are the parents of two children, David and Amy.
