#GOHOOS: BY THE NUMBERS

1

Virginia needs one more win at Klöckner Stadium to reach 150 career wins by the Cavaliers in the historic edifice.

6

UVA has led the nation in ground balls in six of the last 11 seasons, including three in a row (2017-18-19).

52

Michael Kraus has at least one point in all 52 career games he has appeared in. The active streak is tied for No. 2 in the nation.

COVERING THE CAVALIERS

UNIQUELY UVA

The University of Virginia is an institution rich with history and tradition. Here is some of the terminology that contributes to UVA's culture.

Grounds: The term used by students, faculty and alumni to refer to the University dating as far back as Thomas Jefferson. "Campus" is never used.

First Year, Second Year, Third Year, Fourth Year: Instead of freshman, sophomore, junior, senior. Why you may ask? To be a "senior" implies that a person has reached the final phase of learning, a feat that Thomas Jefferson believed to be impossible, arguing instead that education is a life-long process.

Commonwealth: Virginia is one of four constituent states of the United States of America that officially uses the name "Commonwealth" instead of the word state in all references. The other three commonwealths are Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

UNIVERSITY NICKNAMES

Virginia's athletics teams have been accompanied by a somewhat confusing array of nicknames. The most prominent and widely accepted of these monikers are "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos."

Although the terms "Cavaliers," "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are used almost interchangeably to refer to University teams and players, "Cavaliers" is more often used by the media, while "Wahoos" and "Hoos" are frequently used by Virginia students and fans.

Legend has it that Washington & Lee baseball fans dubbed the Virginia players "Wahoos" during the fiercely contested rivalry that existed between the two in-state schools in the 1890s. By 1940, "Wahoos" was in general use around Grounds to denote University students or events relating to them. The abbreviated "Hoos" sprang up later in student newspapers and has gained growing popularity in recent years.

THE CAVALIER MASCOT

The costumed Cavalier with a large character head debuted during Virginia's 1984 football season and has remained the official mascot of the University.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

Orange and blue were adopted as the University of Virginia's official athletic colors at a mass student meeting in 1888. UVA athletic teams had previously worn silver gray and cardinal red, but those colors did not stand out on muddy football fields, prompting a student movement to change them.

One of the students attending the mass meeting was Allen Potts, a star athlete who played on Virginia's first football team in 1888. Potts showed up at the meeting wearing a navy blue-and-orange scarf that he had acquired during a summer boating expedition at Oxford University. Orange and blue were chosen as the official athletic colors after one of Potts' fellow students pulled the scarf off Potts' neck and, waving it to the crowd, yelled, "How will this do?" UVA later served as the inspiration for schools like Auburn and Florida when they selected school colors.

WAH-HOO-WAH

The origin of "Wah-hoo-wah" is uncertain. The cheer was used to root on Virginia teams as early as 1890 and may have been borrowed from Dartmouth College, whose athletics teams were once known as the Indians.

Legend attributes the yell to Natalie Floyd Otey, who sang the ballad "Where'er You Are, There Shall My Love Be" at Charlottesville's Levy Opera House in 1893. The predominantly student audience noticed that Otey warbled the first three words of the song between each of the stanzas and decided to join in the refrain. By evening's end, goes the legend, the crowd had corrupted "Where'er You Are" into "Wah-hoo-wah."

The Levy Opera House stands at the corner of High Street and Park Street and has since been renovated into an office building.

THE SERIES VS. HIGH POINT AND THE SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

- Tuesday marks the fifth meeting in the all-time series with High Point. The series is tied, 2-2. HPU won the first meeting in the series in 2016, a 12-11 win in overtime win at Klöckner Stadium.
- Zed Williams scored five goals in the final 25:10 of the game to force overtime. UVA trailed 10-5 until Williams scored his first goal with 5:10 left in the third quarter. That Williams goal started a 4-0 UVA run that cut the deficit to one goal, 10-9. Williams scored the first three in that spurt. After High Point scored with 4:41 left to increase its lead to two goals, 11-9, Williams put UVA on his back and scored twice with under a minute left to force overtime. High Point's Dan Lomas scored the game-winning 27 seconds into the extra frame to clinch the upset for the Panthers.
- Virginia bounced back in 2017 and beat High Point at Klöckner Stadium, 18-12. Dox Aitken scored five goals, while Michael Kraus dished out five assists and scored two goals in the win.
- UVA beat HPU again in 2018 by six goals, 18-12. It was UVA's first trip in the series to High Point. After trailing 5-2 early, UVA surged back to tie High Point 9-9 at the half. UVA outscored HPU 9-3 in the second half to pick up the win. Kraus had seven points again, but this time on five goals and two assists. Ian Laviano tallied four goals and Dox Aitken scored three. Mikey Herring dished out four assists.
- The Panthers responded with a 14-13 win over the Cavaliers at Klöckner in 2019, serving UVA one of only three losses during the UVA's 2019 NCAA title season.
- The Southern Conference is in its sixth season as a men's lacrosse conference.
- Virginia is 36-3 all-time against current members of the Southern Conference.
- Virginia is 0-1 against Air Force, 3-0 against Bellarmine, 2-2 against High Point, 6-0 against Richmond and 25-0 against VMI.
- There are three Southern Conference opponents UVA has never played: Furman, Jacksonville and Mercer.
- All three of those programs started playing lacrosse in the last eight years: Jacksonville (2010), Mercer (2011) and Furman (2014).
- The conference as a whole is very young in lacrosse. Richmond began in 2014 and High Point began in 2013. The old guard in the league are Air Force, who began playing lacrosse in 1967, and VMI, who started in 1983.
- By comparison, UVA started its first varsity lacrosse season in 1904.
