

FIELD HOCKEY

VIRGINIA IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

- Virginia is looking for its first-ever NCAA Tournament title
- This is the Cavaliers' 21st appearance in the NCAA Tournament and the ninth in head coach Michele Madison's 11 seasons at UVA
- Virginia has made four trips to the NCAA semifinals, most recently in back-to-back appearances in 2009 and 2010, but has never advanced to the National Championship game
- Last year, UVA hosted first and second round games, downing Delaware in overtime in the first round but falling 2-1 to Duke in OT in the quarterfinals (in the third meeting of the year between the two teams. UVA had won the previous two)

HOOS VS NCAA TOURNEY TEAMS

- Virginia is 3-2 all-time against Michigan, but has lost the last two meetings. This is the first meeting between the two since 2002
- Penn State leads the all-time series 16-8
- The Nittany Lions won 3-0 in the second game of this season
- Virginia leads the all-time series against Princeton, 7-5, including blanking the Tigers 2-0 this season in Charlottesville

VETERAN SQUAD

- The Cavaliers have nine seniors on this year's team, six of whom have seen significant playing time ever since their freshman season
- Three of their seniors have been sidelined this season with injuries, but still manage to lead from the bench, especially co-captain Rebecca Holden and midfielder Macy Peebles
- Senior striker Riley Tata is finishing her senior season strong, scoring at least one goal in each of the last four games of the regular-season
- All-American Lucy Hyams led the team in assists her freshman and junior seasons and is currently second on the team this season
- Both Hyams and forward Caleigh Foust have been selected to play in the NFHCA Senior Game
- Hyams, Tata and Foust have combined to score 121 goals in their careers, contributing 293 points

UVA IN 2016 ACC TOURNAMENT

- The Cavaliers won the ACC title for the first time in program history, downing North Carolina 4-2 in the championship game
- Virginia tied for third place in the ACC but was the No. 6 seed in the tournament, the lowest-seeded team to ever win the championship
- Senior Caleigh Foust was named the Tournament MVP after scoring three goals, including two game winners
- Junior Tara Vittese, the ACC Offensive Player of the Year, had two goals and three assists, earning a spot on the All-Tournament team
- Senior Lucy Hyams, who also earned All-Tournament honors, lead the team with eight points on two goals and four assists. Her assist in the Wake victory was the 100th point in her Cavalier career
- Seven Cavaliers scored at least one goal including Anzel Viljoen and Colleen Norair who both scored the first goal of their collegiate careers in the tournament
- The Cavaliers scored 13 goals, the most ever by a single team in the championship
- The Cavaliers' six goals against BC were the most they scored in a single game this season
- Michele Madison has now won an A-10, Big Ten and an ACC Championship as a head coach

RANKED OPPONENTS

- Coming into the NCAA Tournament, the Cavaliers have the highest-ranked strength of schedule in the nation
- Michigan is the only team in the top-10 that Virginia has not played yet this season (except, of course, themselves)
- The Cavaliers have four wins this season against top-10 teams including a 1-0 victory over then No. 2 Syracuse and Sunday's 4-2 victory over No. 5 UNC

TEAM CAPTAINS

Lucy Hyams, Rebecca Holden and Tara Vittese are this year's captains

SAVES

14 ...Carrera Lucas vs Princeton (Sept. 16)

GOAL KEEPERS

- Last year, the Cavalier goalkeepers Rebecca Holden and Carrera Lucas platooned the position, rotating at halftime of games
- This season, Holden, a fifth-year senior, started off as the lone goalkeeper with Lucas as backup, but Holden sustained an injury in the Delaware game that kept her sidelined the rest of the season
- Lucas' first start was against Duke. Since then, she is 10-5 with four shutouts (including the 1-0 victory over Syracuse) with a .752 save percentage and a 1.83 goals-against average

DEFENSE

- Carrera Lucas leads the ACC in saves per game (5.50)
- Lucas ranked 18th in the NCAA with a .739 save percentage
- The Cavaliers have a conference-best eight defensive saves this season
- Senior Emily Faught leads the ACC with four defensive saves this season
- Freshman Dominique van Slooten has three defensive saves
- van Slooten has started every game this season, playing almost every minute. She also earned All-ACC Tournament Team honors

CAVALIER RECORD BOOK

- Tara Vittese ranks 10th in the career points list with 127, one shy of moving into a tie for ninth place with Traci Ragukas (2006-09)
- Vittese is tied for sixth on the career assists list with 37, one shy of tying for fourth with Heidi Waterman (1991-94) and Paige Selenski (2008-10, 2012)
- Vittese is 11th on the career goals list with 45
- Lucy Hyams is tied with Vittese and Heather Hale (1993-96) on the career assists list with 37
- Riley Tata is 10th on the Virginia career goals list with 46, just ahead of Vittese. Tata is four goals shy of moving into a tie for ninth place with Michelle Vizzuso (1995-98)
- Emily Faught is tied for sixth in career defensive saves with nine. Faught needs two more to move into a tie for fifth place with Elly Buckley (2010-13)
- Riley Tata is poised to reach 100 career points, coming into the tournament with 98
- Hyams logged the 100th point of her career in the ACC semifinal win over Wake Forest

VITTESE AT A GLANCE

- 2015 Longstreth/NFHCA National Player of the Year, the first-ever Cavalier to be named the National Player of the Year and the third-ever ACC player to be voted the National Player of the Year by the NFHCA
- 2016 ACC Offensive Player of the Year, the third Cavalier to earn Player of the Year honors from the conference
